Note to Reader:

This volume contains certain source documents cited in the footnotes to the Report. These documents are grouped by chapter and labeled according to their chapter and footnote numbers.

Source documents that are available in the Hearings and Deposition volumes, from public sources, still classified, or otherwise unavailable are not included.

The Preface explaining the various types of documents in this volume begins on p. xiii.

Preface

---

This volume contains much of the documentary evidence—letters, memorandums, transcripts of telephone calls, and other materials—that underlies many of the factual statements made in the Report of the Congressional Committees Investigating the Iran-Contra Affair. The Report is a joint publication of the House Select Committee to Investigate Covert Arms Transactions with Iran and the Senate Select Committee on Secret Military Assistance to Iran and the Nicaraguan Opposition. The complete database for all factual statements made in the Report and referenced in its footnotes consists of the following:

- Source documents, contained in this volume.
- Published sources, referenced in the footnotes of the Report but not reprinted by the two Select Committees.
- Hearings before the two Select Committees, which are published separately in 11 volumes as the Iran-Contra Investigation: Joint Hearings of the House Select Committee to Investigate Covert Arms Transactions with Iran and the Senate Select Committee on Secret Military Assistance to Iran and the Nicaraguan Opposition, 100th Cong. 1st Sess. (1987).
- Depositions taken by the two Select Committees, which are published as Report of the Congressional Committees Investigating the Iran-Contra Affair, Appendix B: Depositions, H. Rept. No. 100-433, S. Rept. No. 100-216, 100th Cong., 1st Sess. (1987).
- Exhibits prepared by the Select Committees or by witnesses or other persons and submitted for the record. All exhibits mentioned in the Hearings and most of those referenced in the Depositions are contained in those respective volumes.

Explanations follow of: source materials found in this volume; testimony; depositions; exhibits; interviews; published sources; and abbreviations, acronyms, and initials

Major Source Materials

The Select Committees relied heavily on sworn testimony and documentary evidence in compiling their final Report. Brief descriptions of the major sources appear here, and more detailed descriptions of some of the sources follow later in this Preface.

Testimony: Sworn testimony (testimony taken under oath) consisted of two kinds. Testimony taken in the joint hearings is referred to as "Test." in the footnotes, and testimony taken as depositions is referred to as "Dep." in the footnotes. Fuller explanations of these kinds of testimony appear below.

Documents: In most cases, miscellaneous documents referred to in the footnotes are published in this volume. Usually a Bates identification number appears in the footnote, e.g., N 2816. The identification number will assist researchers who wish to find the complete original document in the Select Committees papers stored with the National Archives and Records Administration. Access to Select Committees papers is subject to the respective rules of the House and Senate.

Interviews: Select Committees' staff interviewed a number of people on an unsworn basis. Most interviews were summarized in memorandums. The memorandums of the interviews referred to in the footnotes of the Report are stored with the National Archives.

PROF Note: These Notes were computerized interoffice messages carried over the White House's Professional Office Services system. National Security Council staff were provided with equipment to send and receive PROF Notes in their offices and in some cases in their homes. In many instances, messages sent over the PROF system were archived in White House computers and were retrieved by White House personnel and provided to the Select Committees. Footnote references to PROF Notes include the date and time (in military time) and the Bates document identification number. Most PROF Notes referred to in the footnotes are published in this volume.

KL-43 Messages: These messages were sent over telephone lines through use of a computerized instrument that encrypted the message at the sender's end and decoded it at the receiver's end. The system was portable and could be carried to remote locations. Most KL-43 messages referenced in the footnotes are published in this volume.

Israeli Historical Chronology: The Iranian Transactions—A Historical Chronology. The Committees entered into an agreement with the State of Israel whereby Israel agreed to prepare and provide a historical chronology detailing the role of Israel and individual Israelis in the Iran initiative from 1985 through 1986. Israel was unwilling to waive its privileges of State secrecy and sovereign immunity and permit its officials and citizens to be questioned by the Committees. In lieu of interviews or testimony, and without waiver, Israel agreed to conduct interviews of Israeli nationals and reviewed certain documents. With the specific agreement of the Government of Israel, information from the Israeli chronologies is used in this Report. By agreement between the Committees and the Government of Israel, the chronology remains classified.

Part I covers Israeli shipments of arms to Iran from August 1985 through November 1985. Part II covers U.S. arms shipments and Israeli participation in the arms transaction from December 1985 to the time of disclosure in November 1986. The Select Committees received Part II in July 1987, after public hearings were under way.

Israeli Financial Chronology: A Financial Chronology of the Iranian Transactions (April 26, 1987). At the request of the Select Committees, the Israeli Government also agreed to prepare from unsworn interviews of Israeli citizens a financial chronology. The document covers the money trail leading from the initial Israeli arms shipment to Iran in August 1985. By agreement, the document remains classified.

Other Source Documents

Tower Report: On December 1, 1986, President Reagan established the President's Special Review Board to examine the role of the National Security Council staff in national security operations, including arms transfers to Iran. The Board consisted of John Tower, Chairman, Edmund Muskie, and Brent Scowcroft. The Board and staff interviewed numerous individuals in and out of the Federal Government, but did not have authority to issue subpoenas or compel testimony. The Board issued its report—an examination of NSC operations, a narrative of the Iran-Contra Affair, and recommendations—3 months later. The full title is Report of the President's Special Review Board, John Tower, Chairman (Washington: Government Printing Office, February 26, 1987).

Tower Interviews (sometimes referred to as Tower Testimony): The Tower Board conducted unsworn interviews with 53 individuals. These people included former Assistants to the President for National Security, National Security Council Members, former Presidents, and Central Intelligence Agency employees. Interviews cited in the Report but not appearing in the Source Documents volume are filed with the Committees' papers at the National Archives.

Hearings

The Select Committees held 44 days of joint hearings and questioned 28 witnesses publicly. Public hearings began May 5, 1987, and ended August 3, 1987. Four witnesses—Central Intelligence Agency employees—testified in executive session. House Reporters transcribed all proceedings and the Senate Recording Studio videotaped them. Two television networks, Cable News Network and C-SPAN, televised all the public hearings. Individual public television stations, ABC, CBS, and NBC broadcast portions of the hearings.

Every witness testified under oath either in response to a subpoena or an invitation or voluntarily. Legal counsel accompanied most witnesses. The enabling legislation empowered the Select Committees to compel testimony over fifth amendment objections by granting use immunity. Once the Select Committees obtained a court order, they could immunize witnesses against the use of their testimony in criminal prosecutions. Thus, any statements or admissions made by witnesses granted use immunity could not be used in a subsequent criminal proceeding, except a prosecution for perjury, giving a false statement, or otherwise failing to comply with the court order. The Select Committees granted use immunity to about 20 witnesses.

Committees Members, in consultation with Chief Counsels and staff, identified and selected witnesses and then developed specific lines of inquiry. At the hearings, questioning was led by attorneys from either the House Select Committee or the Senate Select Committee, depending on a prearranged division of witnesses. Both House and Senate Members pursued followup questions.

Original, hand-corrected transcripts, from which the published Hearings volumes were produced, have been filed by the Committees in the National Archives.

Depositions

The Select Committees, under authority contained in the resolutions establishing them (H. Res. 12 and S. Res. 23, respectively), deposed approximately 290 individuals over the course of their 10-month joint investigation.

The use of depositions enabled the Select Committees to take sworn responses to specific interrogatories, and thereby to obtain information under oath for the written record and develop lines of inquiry for the public hearings.

Select Committees Members and staff counsel, including House minority counsel, determined who would be deposed, then sought subpoenas from the Chairmen of the Select Committees, when appropriate, to compel the individuals to appear in nonpublic sessions for questioning under oath. Many deponents also received separate subpoenas ordering them to produce certain written documents.

Members and staff traveled throughout the United States and abroad to meet with deponents. All depositions were stenographically reported or tape recorded and later transcribed and authenticated. Deponents had the right to review their statements after transcription and to suggest factual and technical corrections to the Select Committees.

At the depositions, deponents could assert their fifth amendment privilege to avoid self-incrimination by refusing to answer specific questions. They were also entitled to legal representation. Most Federal Government deponents were represented by lawyers from their agency; the majority of private individuals retained their own counsel.

The Select Committees, after obtaining the requisite court orders, granted limited or "use" immunity to about 20 deponents. Such immunity means that, while a deposed individual could no longer invoke the fifth amendment to avoid answering a question, his or her compelled responses—or leads or collateral evidence based on those responses—could not be used in any subsequent criminal prosecution of that individual, except a prosecution for perjury, giving a false statement, or otherwise failing to comply with the court order.

An executive branch Declassification Committee, located in the White House, assisted the Committee by reviewing each page of deposition transcript and some exhibits and identifying classified matter relating to national security. Some depositions were not reviewed or could not be declassified for security reasons.

In addition, members of the House Select Committee staff corrected obvious typographical errors by hand and deleted personal and proprietary information not considered germane to the investigation.

In the Depositions volumes, some of the deposition transcripts are followed by exhibits. The exhibits—documentary evidence—were developed by Select Committees staff in the course of the Select Committees' investigation or were provided by the deponent in response to a subpoena. In some cases, where the number of exhibits was very large, the House Select Committee staff chose for inclusion in the Depositions volumes selected documents. All of the original exhibits are stored with the rest of the Select Committees' documents at the National Archives, and are available for public inspection subject to the respective rules of the House and Senate.

The 27 volumes of the Depositions, totalling more than 30,000 pages, consist of photocopies of declassified, hand-corrected typewritten transcripts and declassified exhibits. Deponents appear in alphabetical order.

Exhibits

Exhibits—personal papers, office memorandums, correspondence, corporate records, and miscellaneous documents—were an important source of information for the Select Committees. The Select Committees obtained some exhibits voluntarily, others through Committee-issued subpoenas. Primary sources for these exhibits were the White House, Department of State, Department of Defense, Central Intelligence Agency, Department of Justice, other Federal Government offices, and private parties.

During hearings, 1,092 exhibits were introduced, most often by the Select Committees. Occasionally, witnesses or deponents produced exhibits.

Exhibits presented during hearings are reproduced at the back of the Hearings volumes. Selected exhibits appear in the Depositions volumes at the conclusion of the relevant witness' statement. Some exhibits—extensive corporate records, for example—are not published in their entirety, but are stored in the Select Committees' records in the National Archives.

Like the testimony and depositions they accompanied, exhibits had to be reviewed by the White House Declassification Committee. Some exhibits remain classified and will not be published.

Interviews

Interviews were used to gather information, identify potential deponents and hearings witnesses, and explore new areas of investigation. Committee investigators, working individually or in teams, conducted most of the interviews. Interviewees were not subpoenaed and many volunteered information. Investigators interviewed, rather than deposed, individuals who had limited information or who were living in remote parts of the world. For instance, investigators conducted numerous telephone interviews with persons in Central America. In most cases, interviewees were not accompanied by counsel.

Investigators took notes of or recorded interviews and later summarized them into report memorandums. Report memorandums are not published in this volume; they have been deposited in the National Archives.

Published Sources

---

The Select Committees drew on both unpublished and published sources in preparing their final Report. Published sources (magazines, newspapers, books, Federal Government publications, and law journals) are not included in the Source Documents volume because they are available at libraries. They are listed here to indicate to readers and researchers the scope of the Select Committees' source materials. These sources are cited in the Report footnotes according to A Uniform System of Citation (Harvard Law Review Association, 14th Edition).

SECRET - SENSITIVE

MEMORANDUM FOR THE SECRETARY

FROM: R. C. McFarlane cy
SUBJECT: Covert Action Proposal for Central America

Last evening we received the attached CIA proposal for a very broad program of covert actions to counter Cuban subversion in Central America. It will be considered at the NSC meeting this afternoon.

Two alternatives are presented in the paper -- a large program and a small program. The large one provides for a comprehensive could be confined

While both of these programs are hastily drawn, they are a good beginning. Some of the more obvious problems include the inevitable leaks that would accompany a submission to the Hill of a program and the absorptive capacities of local resources. In addition, as you know, we have had offers which should be taken into account in shaping our own program. But overall, this is a very worthwhile beginning which I recommend you welcome and support.

The key point to be made now is that while we must move promptly, we must assure that our political, economic, diplomatic, propaganda, military, and covert actions are well coordinated. At this meeting, it is recommended that you

-- state that you have already launched (2 weeks ago) a comprehensive effort to develop quickly a strategy for dealing with Cuba and that this paper can and will be scrubbed and integrated into that effort.

TALKING POINTS

1. BILL CASEY'S PAPER PROVIDES AN EXCELLENT COVERT DIMENSION TO WHAT MUST BE A PROMPT COMPREHENSIVE STRATEGY FOR DEALING WITH CUBA THROUGHOUT CENTRAL AMERICA.

2. TWO WEEKS AGO, I INITIATED WITH CAP, A DISCRETE BUT THOROUGH STUDY AS A BASIS FOR SUCH A STRATEGY.

3. TODAY I AM CIRCULATING A FIRST CUT TO CAP AND BILL SO THAT WE CAN TRANSLATE THE CONCEPT INTO ACTION.

4. IN IT'S PRESENT FORM, BILL'S PAPER HAS MANY UNKNOWNNS WHICH HE ACKNOWLEDGES.

--WHERE WILL WE GET THE MONEY?

--WOULD NOT A [REDACTED]

INEVITABLY LEAK?

--CANNOT SOME OF THE ITEMS BE FUNDED BY DEFENSE?

--CAN WE NOT GET SOME HELP FROM [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] HAVE ALREADY HAD A TENTATIVE OFFER

--THEN TOO, WE NEED TO SET SOME PRIORITIES IN A PROGRAM AS LARGE AS THIS SO THAT WE GET BUSY DOING THE MOST IMPORTANT THINGS FIRST.

5. I PROPOSE THAT WE TAKE THIS EXCELLENT BEGINNING AND THAT BILL, CAP AND I HAVE OUR GUYS INTEGRATE IT AND COME BACK WITH A REFINED PROPOSAL WITHIN A WEEK.

Finding Pursuant to Section 662 of the Foreign Assistance Act of 1961, As Amended, Concerning Operations Undertaken by the Central Intelligence Agency in Foreign Countries, Other Than Those Intended Solely for the Purpose of Intelligence Collection

I hereby find that the following operations in foreign countries (including all support necessary to such operations) are important to the national security of the United States, and direct the Director of Central Intelligence, or his designee, to report this Finding to the concerned committees of the Congress pursuant to law, and to provide such briefings as necessary.

The Department of Defense is directed to provide all necessary assistance and support to the Central Intelligence Agency in implementation of this Finding.

SCOPE

Central America

DESCRIPTION

Directly or in cooperation with foreign governments, engage in a regional effort to expose and counter Marxist and Cuban-sponsored terrorism, insurgency, and subversion in El Salvador, Nicaragua, Guatemala, Honduras, and elsewhere in Central America.

The Intelligence Authorization Act for FY 1983 included a classified annex which expressed the "sense of the conferees" that no funds authorized by the act should be used "to overthrow the Government of Nicaragua or to provoke a military exchange between Nicaragua and Honduras."<sup>61</sup> I was informed by congressional staff sources (who asked that their identities be protected) earlier this year that some members of the intelligence committees felt that this restriction (if a non-binding "sense of the conferees" provision can be so characterized<sup>62</sup>) was not being observed.

On December 8, 1982, when the continuing resolution for FY 1983 was pending before the House, Congressman Harkin introduced an amendment as follows:

None of the funds provided in this Act may be used by the Central Intelligence Agency or the Department of Defense to furnish military equipment, military training or advice, or other support for military activities, to any group or individual, not part of a country's armed forces, for the purpose of assisting that group or individual in carrying out military activities in or against Nicaragua.<sup>63</sup>

While this was being debated, House intelligence committee chairman Boland made public the above mentioned classified annex and proposed a substitute amendment to the Harkin amendment reading as follows:

None of the funds provided in this Act may be used by the Central Intelligence Agency or the Department of Defense to furnish military equipment, military training or advice, or other support for military activities, to any group or individual, not part of a country's armed forces, for the purpose of overthrowing the Government of Nicaragua or provoking a military exchange between Nicaragua and Honduras.<sup>64</sup>

In return, Congressman Harkin offered a substitute to the Boland substitute which read:

None of the funds provided in this Act may be used by the Central Intelligence Agency or any

62. Here I am not suggesting that it might be politically wise to ignore the expressed opinion of the conferees--I am only saying that in this form the language is not legally binding.

agency of the Department of Defense to furnish military equipment, military training or advice or other support for military activities, to any individual or group which is not part of a country's armed forces and which is already known by that agency to have the intent of overthrowing the Government of Nicaragua or of provoking a military conflict between Nicaragua and Honduras.<sup>65</sup>

The Harkin substitute was defeated by a vote of 13 to 27 on a division of the House,<sup>66</sup> and on a roll call vote the Boland substitute passed 411 to 0.<sup>67</sup> This language was subsequently accepted by the Senate in conference, and became law when the act was signed by the President.

Most of the recent legal criticism of alleged U.S. covert activities in Central America centers around this law. In late March, 37 House members sent a letter to the President reportedly warning that CIA activities in Central America may be violating the law.<sup>68</sup> Senator Moynihan, the ranking Democrat on the Senate intelligence committee, has been quoted by the New York Times as saying that while the committee has not as yet reached a consensus on whether the Boland amendment has been breached, "A growing number of my colleagues question whether the C.I.A. is complying with the law . . ."<sup>69</sup> Shortly thereafter, the Washington Post quoted Moynihan as saying that "a crisis of confidence" was building over this issue between Congress and the intelligence agencies. "It is absolutely necessary that the administration obey the law," said Moynihan, who expressed the view that either the law or the operations must be changed because the current situation is untenable."<sup>70</sup> Senator Goldwater has also been quoted as believing that the CIA might be involved in "plans to destabilize the Nicaraguan government,"<sup>71</sup> but an inquiry to his office produced a denial that he had made any such statement.<sup>72</sup>

72. On March 29 I telephoned Denny Sharon, Senator Goldwater's Armed Services Legislative Assistant (Robb Simons, Goldwater's man on the intelligence committee, was out of town). Denny was unfamiliar with the Monitor article, but copied down the key language and said he would check with the Senator (who was out of town). On the morning of March 31, Denny called me back and said the Senator told him that he had made no such statement concerning alleged U.S. involvement in Nicaragua and that he would send a communication to the Monitor disavowing their account.

The words "for the purpose of . . ." are critical to understanding the Boland Amendment. Does this bar expenditure of funds by the CIA only when the Agency's purpose is to overthrow the Nicaraguan government or to provoke a confrontation with Honduras, or does it also bar funding of a paramilitary group when the Agency's purpose is to pressure Nicaragua to cease its aggression against El Salvador but when the recipient group's objective is to overthrow the Nicaraguan government? The administration has taken the former view--that it is the CIA's "purpose" that is controlling--while at least some congressional critics have suggested that if either the CIA or a group receiving CIA funds has the "purpose" of overthrowing the Government of Nicaragua or provoking an exchange with Honduras the statute prohibits assistance to that group. The Washington Post recently reported:

Chairman Michael D. Barnes (D-Md.) of the House Foreign Affairs subcommittee on Latin America, said CIA attorneys argue that continued spending is legal because the "purpose" of the U.S. agencies supplying money and weapons to the insurgents is not to overthrow the Nicaraguan regime, even if the purpose of the guerrillas who receive the support is to do so. "Not a jury in the country would accept this, and the House will not accept it," said Barnes. 73

A similar interpretation was given by New York Times columnist Tom Wicker, who wrote:

Whether the goal is to overthrow the Sandinists or merely make them more amenable to Reagan Administration pressures is not so clear.

Either way, the C.I.A. operation appears to be violating the Boland Amendment, which prohibits support of paramilitary forces "with [sic--should read "for"] the purpose" of overthrowing the Nicaraguan Government. Philip Taubman of the Times reports that C.I.A. officials claim they aren't trying to overthrow that Government, hence are observing the letter of the Boland Amendment. That's like saying you're hitting a man with a hammer but not trying to kill him; and it's the kind of sleazy, hair-splitting "deniability" that debases language and credibility alike. 74

The distinction between the CIA's "purpose" and that of the insurgents allegedly being financed and supplied is an important one, because they don't appear to coincide. Consider this report by Washington Post writer Christopher Dickey, who recently spent time with anti-government guerrillas in Nicaragua:

"The United States is helping us in a way we don't want. They are saying no, no, no to everything. Our men want to do spectacular things," complained one counterrevolutionary political leader outside Nicaragua who was instrumental in setting up our visit. "You have the momentum, and they stop you. It's like an invisible hand holding strings."

As did his men on the ground here, he dismissed the Reagan administration's assertion to Congress that Washington's support for the anti-Sandinistas is intended essentially to cut the Nicaraguan government's arms supplies to insurgents in El Salvador.

"The people who are fighting, they are not fighting to stop the weapons," the counter-revolutionary leader said "We are fighting to liberate Nicaragua."

As [guerrilla leader] Suicide put it here in the middle of the war zone, "we're not going to stop the transport of arms and supplies to the Salvadoran guerrillas or the Guatemalan guerrillas until we cut the head off the Sandinists."<sup>75</sup>

Fortunately, the legislative language is less ambiguous than might at first glance appear to be the case. Particularly when read in context, it is in my view beyond reasonable doubt that Congress was referring to the "purpose" of the CIA and DoD, not the purpose of the individuals and groups receiving assistance from the CIA.

To begin with, the Amendment prohibits the use of certain funds "by the Central Intelligence Agency or the Department of Defense" to furnish certain specified assistance to any "group or individual" "for the purpose of overthrowing the Government of Nicaragua or provoking a military exchange between Nicaragua and Honduras." [Emphasis added.] That is to say, the law prohibits the expenditure of funds "by" the CIA "for" the prohibited purpose. Had the Congress intended to prohibit CIA assistance "to any individual or group which is not a part of a country's armed forces and which is already known by that agency to have the intent of overthrowing the Government of Nicaragua or of provoking a military conflict between Nicaragua and Honduras," it would presumably have so stated. Indeed, immediately before unanimously adopting the Boland Amendment, the House considered and overwhelmingly rejected the language I have just quoted, which had been proposed by Congressman Tom Harkin as a substitute to the Boland Amendment. The key difference between the unanimously approved Boland Amendment and the Harkin substitute (which was defeated by a margin of greater than two to one) was that Boland restricted the CIA's "purpose," while Harkin was triggered by the CIA's knowledge of the "intent" of a paramilitary group or individual.

Accepting this interpretation, it is not legally relevant whether the Government of Nicaragua is in fact eventually overthrown, or an exchange between Nicaragua and Honduras takes place. What matters is the motive or purpose for which the assistance is provided. Assistance provided to pressure Nicaragua to cease its intervention in El Salvador--even if it resulted in the fall of the present regime--would not be unlawful; while assistance given to overthrow that regime, even if totally ineffective or actually counterproductive, would violate the law.

Some congressional critics appear to acknowledge that the "letter" of the Boland Amendment has been followed, but charge that the CIA may be violating its "spirit" by failing to maintain adequate control over the paramilitary forces receiving assistance.<sup>76</sup> Congress may indeed be concerned about the possible consequences of a successful paramilitary effort to overthrow the Sandinistas and the accompanying risks of a conflict between Honduras and Nicaragua--and from both a policy and a political standpoint these considerations may warrant careful attention by administration decision-makers--but as a matter of law it is inappropriate to attach the terms of the rejected Harkin Amendment as baggage to the Boland Amendment. The record shows that the House considered and rejected language which would have prohibited assistance to paramilitary groups intending to overthrow the Nicaraguan government. To suggest that the Harkin Amendment was somehow incorporated into the "spirit" of the Boland Amendment is in my view simply unpersuasive.

76. "Members of the Senate Intelligence Committee, including Democrats and Republicans, said this week that a majority of senators on the panel think that the C.I.A. has insufficient control over the paramilitary forces that it supports in the region. . . . [They] said that sentiment on the committee runs strongly to the view that the law has been violated in spirit if not in letter." New York Times, April 1, 1983. See also, ibid., March 30, 1983: "Senator Patrick J. Leahy, Democrat of Vermont, visited Central America earlier this year for the Senate intelligence committee. Members who have read a report that Mr. Leahy prepared about his visit said it had left little doubt that the agency, while following the letter of the Boland amendment, was violating its spirit."

Although not legally relevant, it is perhaps worth noting that concerns that the paramilitary contras may succeed in overthrowing the Government of Nicaragua or provoking a conflict between that State and Honduras may be exaggerated. While there have been reports by journalists who have travelled with the contras of significant peasant support for the guerrillas and resentment of the Nicaraguan government,<sup>77</sup> there seems to be little reason to believe victory is in sight. Consider this assessment by a Washington Post reporter from Managua:

The worries do not seem to be military for the most part. The several thousand counter-revolutionary guerrillas reported to be operating in various zones inside Nicaragua pose little serious challenge to the Sandinistas' 22,000-man conventional army, backed by more than 10,000 trained militia reserves and tens of thousands more volunteer militiamen with rudimentary drill under their belts.

And despite several warnings that Honduras risks war by allowing the antigovernment Nicaraguans to use its territory, Sandinista officials and foreign diplomats say such a conflict is unlikely unless one side or the other makes a severe miscalculation.<sup>78</sup>

Despite the frequent allegations in the press and by some members of the Congress that the Boland Amendment is being violated, I have to date encountered no persuasive evidence that the CIA or the Defense Department is providing assistance to any group for the purpose of overthrowing the Government of Nicaragua or provoking a confrontation with Honduras. Until evidence to that effect can be obtained, I am not prepared to conclude that either the letter or the "spirit" of the Boland Amendment is being violated.

77. See, e.g., Washington Post, April 5, 1983 ("In the six days another reporter and I spent traveling through this province with the U.S.-backed soldiers fighting to overthrow the leftist Sandinista government we saw a pattern of support for the contras by people with many grievances against the revolutionary government in Managua.")

MEMORANDUM FOR THE SPG PRINCIPALS

SUBJECT: Public Diplomacy (Central America)

The President has underscored his concern that we must increase our efforts in the public diplomacy field to deepen the understanding of and support for our policies in Central America. This effort must focus both on the foreign and domestic audiences. To coordinate this program and to insure that the effort has the appropriate treatment of Foreign policy issues, it is essential to designate an overall coordinator who will be responsible for the development and implementation of a public diplomacy strategy concerning Central America.

Secretary Shultz and I have discussed this, at some length and have agreed to ask Otto Reich to assume this responsibility for the SPG. He will replace Senator Stone who has assumed other duties. Mr. Reich will focus not only on the developments in Central America but also on the impact that these activities have in Latin America as well as elsewhere overseas and in the United States. For this assignment he will function as the Secretary's advisor and as SPG Coordinator for Public Diplomacy for Central America/Caribbean. Mr. Reich will carry out his responsibilities in the context of the International Political Committee with substantive policy guidance to be provided by established policy making bodies in his field. The Public Affairs and International Information Committees will also play key roles in this overall effort.

Mr. Reich will need staff support, to include officers detailed from appropriate agencies and departments. His office will be established in the Department of State. The Department of State will provide Mr. Reich with appropriate office space, logistic support, operating budget and clerical support.

Mr. Reich's activities should commence immediately. He should keep the SPG regularly informed and should attend all SPG meetings concerning Central America.

| For exceptionally outstanding service in developing, preparing, and implementing public diplomacy programs in support of United States policy in Central America from April 1984 to April 1986. Upon its establishment, the Office of Public Diplomacy for Latin America and the Caribbean (S/LPD) took a vital role in shaping the debate on the USG's Central American policy within the United States and in the international arena. S/LPD is an interagency office whose personnel are contributed by USG foreign affairs agencies, including Department of State, Agency for International Development, United States Information Agency, and the Department of Defense. Public diplomacy is a new, non-traditional activity for the United States Government. Thus, S/LPD's staff have been pioneers in forging a new tool for the implementation of foreign policy. S/LPD has played a key role in setting out the parameters and defining the terms of the public discussion on Central America policy. Despite the efforts of the formidable and well established Soviet/Cuban/Nicaraguan propaganda apparatus, the achievements of U.S. public diplomacy are clearly visible. When S/LPD began to publicize the facts about the situation in Central America, the public debate was marked by almost total ignorance. Much of the information which was available was simply false, and some of this untrue information had entered the debate through disinformation operations. United States policy, based on a reasonable appreciation of the facts available to the government, was completely misunderstood, since the public was working from an entirely different viewpoint that was based on the limited and inaccurate information available at the time. S/LPD contributed directly to improvement to the quality and relevance of the public debate by making accurate information available through presentation of unclassified government information, establishment of methods to declassify intelligence information in a timely manner, and aggressive seeking of intelligence information which could be declassified without damaging other national interests, and dissemination of this material. As a result of S/LPD's efforts, no longer do serious critics of U.S. policy deny that the Sandinistas are providing arms, logistical support, training camps and propaganda support for the Salvadoran guerrillas and other subversive groups in Central America. The Sandinistas defenders and opponents of U.S. policy can no longer credibly present the Sandinistas or the Salvadoran guerrillas as |     |  |  |       |     |      |           |  |          |                                 |  |  | democratically oriented "social reformers" as they did only two years ago. S/LPD's dozens of major and hundreds of minor publications, hundreds of press and media interviews, hundreds of public speeches, uncountable quiet behind-the-scenes work with outside support groups, and intelligent selection of arguments and themes for public debate have contributed to the change. These efforts have changed the terms of the policy debate. S/LPD has contributed to the unshackling of the public perception of policy from myths and cast; public debate on Central America now focuses on how best to solve a problem recognized in its basic dimensions by all responsible parties.

The officer personnel of S/LPD contributed by preparing original publications and carrying out the task of distributing them via various mailing lists to journalists, interest groups, selected U.S. Government officials, members and staff of the Congress, and to USIA for overseas distribution. Depending upon their nature and the appropriate audience, distribution has ranged from 6,000 to 80,000 copies of individual publications. Officers presented hundreds of oral briefings to the press, Congressmen and staff, and speeches to public audiences. Hundreds of talking point papers were prepared for high level officials. Special events, such as presentation of a display of captured guerrilla weapons and documents from El Salvador to the President of the United States before the national news media, and the Vice Presidential ceremony commemorating the second anniversary of the Grenada rescue, were also accomplished by S/LPD staffers working with other government agencies. S/LPD officers created, staffed, and executed complex public diplomacy plans to mobilize and coordinate the public diplomacy activities of the major U.S. foreign affairs agencies. These plans directed these agencies in integrated public diplomacy operations as S/LPD performed its most vital function, then totally new to the government, of coordinating the operations of multiple agencies in pursuit of defined public diplomacy goals. As a result S/LPD not only helped create an atmosphere for workable policies, but also helped to implement these policies. S/LPD clearly developed an entirely new methodology as it brought together operations formerly carried on separately. As a result of S/LPD's success in the development of the necessary methodologies, similar operations have been initiated for Southern Africa and for terrorism issues.

S/LPD's secretarial staff made a constant and vital contribution to this success. Because of the large numbers of publications, informal papers, and other documents disseminated to the government, press, and public, the S/LPD secretarial staff had the often grueling task of typing and putting in proper format the drafts of hundreds of formal Department of State publications, briefing papers, and informal communications. These documents frequently had to be retyped time after time as revisions, incorporation of multiple agency clearances, and polishing of drafts were accomplished. Because of S/LPD's policy of responding immediately to misinformation and disinformation in the public media, projects with short deadlines were the rule. Everyone worked under intense pressure. Output was of high quality. Despite the heavy secretarial workload, constant short-notice overtime, and high pressure, morale remained high and the mission was accomplished. The entire staff of S/LPD has earned superior recognition for its dedication and outstanding accomplishments.

MEMORANDUM

TO: S/S-EX - Mr. George F. Twohie
FROM: S/LPD - Frank Gardner FL
SUBJECT: Current Program of S/LPD

As a supplement to my memorandum of June 21, this is additional information on some of the most notable accomplishments of S/LPD over the last twelve months:

The Office of Public Diplomacy for Latin America and Caribbean (S/LPD), headed by a Coordinator whose rank is equivalent to that of an Assistant Secretary, published three major documents in conjunction with the Department of Defense in support of the President's program:

A 600-page book entitled, "Grenada Documents: An Overview and Selection;"

A 45-page booklet entitled, "The Soviet-Cuban Connection in Central America and the Caribbean;"

A 40-page booklet entitled, "The Sandinista Military Build-up."

S/LPD also published eight other documents on its own, most notable of which were:

A 31-page booklet entitled, "Broken Promises: Sandinista Repression of Human Rights in Nicaragua;"

A 23-page pamphlet entitled, "Misconceptions About U.S. Policy toward Nicaragua."

The publications averaged about 15,000 copies each and were disseminated to persons interested in spreading the President's message to the public, the media, and the Congress.

Five illustrative examples of the Reich "White Propaganda" operation:

- Attached is a copy of an op-ed piece that ran two days ago in The Wall Street Journal. Professor Guilmartin has been a consultant to our office and collaborated with our staff in the writing of this piece. It is devastating in its analysis of the Nicaraguan arms build-up. Officially, this office had no role in its preparation.
- In case you missed last night's NBC News with Tom Brokaw, you might ask WRCA to call up the Fred Francis story on the "Contras." This piece was prepared by Francis after he consulted two of our contractors who recently had made a clandestine trip to the freedom fighter camp along the Nicaragua/Honduras border (the purpose of this trip was to serve as a pre-advance for many selected journalists to visit the area and get a true flavor of what the freedom fighters are doing, i.e., not baby killing). Although I wasn't wild about the tag line, it was a positive piece.
- Two op-ed pieces, one for The Washington Post and one for The New York Times, are being prepared for the signatures of opposition leaders Alphonso Rubello, Adolpho Callero and Arturo Cruz. These two op-ed pieces are being prepared by one of our consultants and will serve as a reply to the outrageous op-ed piece by Daniel Ortega in today's New York Times.

- Through a cut-out, we are having the opposition leader Alphonso Rubello visit the following news organizations while he is in Washington this week: Hearst Newspapers, Newsweek Magazine, Scripps Howard Newspapers, The Washington Post (Editorial Board), and USA Today. In addition, the CNN "Freeman Report," the "McNeil-Lehrer Report," the "Today Show" and CBS Morning News have been contacted about the availability of Mr. Rubello.
- Attached is a copy of a cable that we received today from Managua. The cable states that Congressman Lagomarsino took up Daniel Ortega's offer to visit any place in Nicaragua. You may remember that Ortega received a good deal of publicity on his "peace" proposal when he stated that he welcomed visits by Members of Congress, stating that they would be free to go anywhere they wished. As the cable notes, the Congressman's request to visit an airfield was denied. Do not be surprised if this cable somehow hits the evening news.

I will not attempt in the future to keep you posted on all activities since we have too many balls in the air at any one time and since the work of our operation is ensured by our office's keeping a low profile. I merely wanted to give you a flavor of some of the activities that hit our office on any one day and ask that, as you formulate ideas and plans of attack, you give us a heads-up since our office has been crafted to handle the concerns that you have in getting the President's program for freedom fighters enacted.

Nicaragua Is Armed for Trouble

By JOHN F. O'DONOVAN JR.

Remember last year's controversy over the alleged delivery of MiG fighters to Nicaragua? Once it was established that what actually had been delivered were helicopters and not MiGs, almost no one bothered to ask what MiGs, should they be delivered, could do to the armed forces of Central America or what their arrival might represent in terms of Sandinista strategy.

Shortly before the U.S. election, media reports surfaced of a Soviet freighter bound from the Black Sea with a cargo of large boxes that, according to reconnaissance satellites, included those of a type used to ship jet fighter aircraft. Though reports were equivocal, observers guessed about the cargo and its destination. The most likely candidate was supersonic MiG-21s: High-technology warning bells went off in U.S. news rooms.

As the ship neared Nicaragua's Pacific port of Corinto (and as the U.S. election news) speculation ran at fever pitch.

The bubble of fevered speculation burst with an anticlimactic "pop" when Sandinista Foreign Minister Miguel d'Escoto announced, in a statement more or less confirmed by official U.S. spokesmen, that the crates contained not MiGs, but other arms including helicopters. The news was all the more anticlimactic because an earlier shipment of Soviet helicopters apparently had been unopened, all but unremarked, on Nicaragua's Atlantic coast the previous week. The helicopters were Mi-24 "Hinds," the world's most heavily armed, sophisticated and fastest gunships. It is likely the second shipment of crates contained additional Hinds. The crates received most attention, as did the possibility that the crates might also contain Soviet L-29 jet trainers. The U.S. suspected that in the Reagan administration, and an almost their power and rear blades of MiG, making helicopter operations a marginal proposition, particularly in summer. Forced by limited power to fly low along valleys, helicopters are vulnerable to plunging fire from the peaks and ridges above. Afghanistan is not a fair test for the Hind.

But over rolling jungle terrain at low altitudes, the Hind is in its element. Its impressive underwing ordnance (it can carry in excess of 2,000 pounds of 57-mm rockets, bombs and precision-guided antitank missiles) and its sophisticated turret-mounted rotary 12.7-mm gun make it a flexible and thoroughly capable weapons system. Its fire-control system is both sophisticated and reliable. Unlike Western gunships, it can carry from six to eight troops.

Fitted against the feeble or nonexistent aircraft defenses of the non-communist Central American powers, the Hind represents armored vehicles spearheading an army larger than that of any of its neighbors, augmented by a sophisticated ground-based antiaircraft system, housing SAM-7s, radar-directed 57-mm guns and light machine 23U 23-mm, the implications of the arrival in Nicaragua are chilling. With the delivery of high-performance MiGs for top speed and deep interdiction strikes, the classic Soviet-style blitzkrieg package will be complete.

Is all of this, we have missed something important. It is not that acceptance by the U.S. media, if not the Reagan administration, of the delivery of jet trainers and helicopters to Nicaragua has established a precedent for the subsequent delivery of MiGs. That is valid as far as it goes. The real point is twofold: The L-29s and Mi-24s, particularly the latter, represent a major threat to themselves. Second, their arrival must be viewed as one more piece of a greater puzzle, the formation in Central America of a classic Soviet-style offensive combined arms team. And make no mistake: The Soviet doctrinal model, which the Sandinistas are clearly following, is inherently offensive in nature.

The initial MiG statement by U.S. aides came on Nov. 2. By Nov. 10, the Sandinista ambassador to Spain, Orlando Castillo, told reporters his government's position: No, Nicaragua did not have MiGs—yet. Yes, it had every intention of obtaining some as soon as it could—for self-defense. Thus the impending arrival of the last piece of the puzzle was announced.

Effective for O'Donovan

Now, four months later, as we wait for the other shoe to drop, we are confronted by the release of a report last week by the Council on Hemispheric Affairs asserting that the Sandinista buildup is intended only to counter a feared U.S. invasion and—as a mutual corollary—that it is of sents an awesome capability, with or without top cover from MiGs. Flying low beneath the thin radar net and hugging the terrain, it can slip into neighboring countries with impunity. It can attack persons and border posts with surgical precision, going as slow as necessary to do the job.

In the slow and dirty game of slipping across a border, hugging a Honduran or Salvadoran C-47, and slipping back, all underneath radar coverage and hence undetected, the Mi-24 would be supreme. Distances are short in Central America and

The Honorable Dante B. Fascell
Chairman, Committee on Foreign Affairs
House of Representatives

Dear Mr. Chairmen:

This responds to your joint letter of March 31, 1987, requesting this Office to conduct an investigation and render a legal opinion on the legality and propriety of certain activities of the Office for Public Diplomacy for Latin America and the Caribbean (S/LPD) of the Department of State. Subsequent discussion with your staff limited the scope of the legal opinion to the issues of alleged lobbying and the development and dissemination of propaganda from 1984 to the present.

We conducted a review to develop the facts regarding the lobbying and propaganda issues, which consisted of interviews of knowledgeable individuals and a search of the S/LPD files. As a result of our review, we conclude that S/LPD's activities involving the preparation and dissemination of certain types of information violated a restriction on the use of appropriated funds for publicity or propaganda purposes not authorized by the Congress. We do not believe, however, that available evidence will support a conclusion that the applicable antilobbying statute has been violated. We are presently continuing a review of certain other S/LPD activities, and will keep you informed of our progress on a periodic basis.

THE PROPAGANDA ISSUE

According to Ambassador Otto J. Reich, who directed S/LPD from 1983 until 1986, the Office of Public Diplomacy for Latin America and the Caribbean was established within the Office of the Secretary of State in 1983 to engage in a campaign to influence the public and the Congress to support increased funding for the Administration's Central American policy. In pursuit of its public diplomacy mission, S/LPD used its own staff, and let a number of contracts with outside writers, for articles, editorials and op-ed pieces in support of the Administration's position. Generally, S/LPD employed direct and overt methods in using the media to favorably influence the public to support the Administration's Central American Policy. However, information developed during the course of our investigation demonstrates that, on occasion, S/LPD also arranged for the publication of articles which purportedly had been prepared by, and reflected the views of, persons not associated with the government but which, in fact, had been prepared at the request of government officials and partially or wholly paid for with government funds.

For example, S/LPD arranged for a university professor, who was also paid as a consultant to S/LPD, to write a newspaper article in support of the Administration's Central America policy without alerting readers or, apparently, the newspaper that the government was involved. S/LPD described this technique in a March 12, 1985, internal memorandum to another Department of State office. Attached to that memorandum was an op-ed article entitled "Nicaragua is Armed for Trouble," which was ostensibly written exclusively by Professor John Guilmartin of Rice University, and published in the March 11, 1985 issue of the Wall Street Journal. The memorandum states that "Professor Guilmartin, who is a consultant to our office, and the Public Diplomacy staff worked extensively on this piece." However, the published article lists the author solely as John F. Guilmartin, Jr. and describes him as follows:

"Mr. Guilmartin is adjunct professor of history at Rice University in Houston. He was formerly a lieutenant colonel in the U.S. Air Force and editor of the Air University Review."

The Guilmartin article was one of five "white propaganda" operations described in a March 13, 1985, memorandum from S/LPD to the Assistant to the President and Director of Communications. The memorandum stated the following about the article:

"Attached is a copy of an op-ed piece that ran two days ago in The Wall Street Journal. Professor Guilmartin has been a consultant to our office and collaborated with our staff in the writing of this piece. It is devastating in its analysis of the Nicaraguan arms build-up. Officially, this office had no role in its preparation."

UNCLASSIFIED

The memorandum also described as follows the use of consultants to write op-ed pieces for Nicaraguan opposition leaders:

"Two op-ed pieces, one for The Washington Post and one for The New York Times, are being prepared for the signatures of opposition leaders Alphonso Rubello, Adolpho Callero and Arturo Cruz. These two op-ed pieces are being prepared by one of our consultants and will serve as a reply to the outrageous op-ed piece by Daniel Ortega in today's New York Times."

A third item in the memorandum describes the use of a "cut-out" to arrange visits to various news media by a Nicaraguan opposition leader. Although the term is not defined, it appears to reflect an intention to hide the fact that the opposition leader's visits were being arranged by the government. The closing paragraph of the memorandum explains that S/LPD will not communicate its activities on a regular basis to the Director of Communications in part because "the work of our operation is ensured by our office's keeping a low profile."

The memorandum, which is enclosed with this opinion, was initially classified by the Department of State as "Confidential." Following our request, it was declassified by the Department on September 10, 1987. Three other documents similarly were declassified following our request.

The use of appropriated funds by the Department of State for certain types of publicity and propaganda is prohibited. Section 501 of the Departments of Commerce, Justice and State, the Judiciary, and Related Agencies Appropriations Act, 1985, Pub. L. NO. 98-411, August 30, 1984, 98 Stat. 1545, which provided fiscal year 1985 funding for the Department of State, reads as follows:

"Sec. 501. No part of any appropriation contained in this Act shall be used for publicity or propaganda purposes not authorized by the Congress."

The legislative history of section 501 is silent as to the intended effect of the restriction. See H.R. Rep. No. 197, 99th Cong. 1st Sess. 90 (1985). This Office has had numerous occasions in the past to interpret language similar to section 501. We have held that such a provision prohibits the use of federal funds for two distinct types of publicity and propaganda activities.

UNCLASSIFIED

S 11652

First, it prohibits "self-aggrandizement" activities on the part of a federal agency, which have been described by our Office as publicity activities of a nature tending to emphasize the importance of the agency or activity in question. 31 Comp. Gen. 311, 313 (1952), B-212069, October 6, 1983. Self-aggrandizement is not an issue in the present situation.

Second, we have construed the language of section 501 as prohibiting covert propaganda activities of an agency, which is the issue involved in the situations described above. In our decision B-223098, October 10, 1986, we held that editorials in support of a proposed reorganization of the Small Business Administration (SBA) prepared by SBA for publication as the ostensible editorial position of newspapers to which the editorials were submitted, were misleading as to their origin and reasonably constituted "propaganda" within the common understanding of that term.

We conclude that the described activities are beyond the range of acceptable agency public information activities because the articles prepared in whole or part by S/LPD staff as the ostensible position of persons not associated with the government and the media visits arranged by S/LPD were misleading as to their origin and reasonably constituted "propaganda" within the common understanding of that term. Therefore, under the rationale enunciated in B-223098, supra, these activities violated the "publicity and propaganda" prohibition of section 501.

We have been unable to estimate the amount of effort and funds expended on covert propaganda operations. Materials contained in S/LPD files indicate that covert propaganda operations were conducted on several other occasions and were not separated from routine legitimate activities. In view of the difficulty in determining the exact amount expended illegally, as well as the identity of any particular voucher involved, we conclude that it would not be appropriate in these circumstances to attempt recovery of the funds improperly expended. We recommend that the Department of State take action to insure that violations of appropriations restrictions contained in section 501 do not occur in the future.

THE LOBBYING ISSUE

The S/LPD staff carried on many activities designed to influence the public and the Congress to support the Administration's Central American policy, in keeping with the purpose for which S/LPD was established. Ambassador Reich gave a briefing to the Secretary of State in which he explained that S/LPD's objective in attempting to influence Congress was:

UNCLASSIFIED

"To gain sufficient bipartisan support in Congress to permit approval of increased assistance, economic and military, to Central America and to preclude crippling restrictions on actions in support of U.S. policy objectives in the region."

Sometime in 1983, S/LPD developed a close working relationship with a public interest group entitled "Citizens for America" (CFA). CFA is a nationwide grass roots organization engaged in lobbying and fund raising activities on behalf of Nicaraguan Contra causes. CFA has its headquarters in Washington, D.C. and is organized into regions and local district committees throughout the country, which are staffed with volunteer workers. Volunteers receive periodic instructions from CFA's Washington headquarters, when legislative action is scheduled in the Congress, to call and write members of Congress, to write letters-to-the-editor and op-ed pieces, and call in and appear on radio talk shows in support of the Administration's policy on Central America.

On March 4, 1984, the Chairman of CFA wrote the Secretary of State informing him of the details of his grass roots lobbying effort in support of the Administration's policy. Ambassador Reich, then head of S/LPD, prepared a draft response letter to the Chairman for the Secretary to sign. In the transmittal memo, Ambassador Reich described the close working relationship between CFA and S/LPD as follows:

"Citizens for America has been carrying out a public education campaign on Central America.

"Our office has a very good working relationship with Citizens for America and has provided CFA with a great deal of information.

"A word of encouragement and appreciation from you would go a long way toward letting CFA know we recognize and value their efforts."

Again on July 3, 1984, the CFA Chairman wrote the Secretary of State making the following request:

"We hope you will be able to contribute a one-page letter to our 'action kit' voicing your support for this vital aid and your feeling that Congress must address the issue this summer.

"This request is urgent. Your contribution will mean more op-ed pieces, letters to the editor, calls to Congressmen, and radio and television interviews -- the elements of grass-roots support so vital for effective political action.

"Thanks so much for your help. Anne Barton will be in touch with a member of your staff today to provide any details you might need."

Ambassador Reich prepared a draft response letter for the Secretary of State to sign. The draft letter was not used. Instead, the Office of the Secretary sent Ambassador Reich an extract from a statement by Secretary Shultz before the Subcommittee of Foreign Operations of the House Appropriations Committee on March 16, 1983, and instructed him to reply to the CFA Chairman. We could not locate a copy of Ambassador Reich's reply to CFA:

The annual Departments of Commerce, Justice, and State, the Judiciary, and Related Agencies Appropriations Act,<sup>1/</sup> under which the Department of State receives its appropriations, does not contain a restriction on the use of such funds for lobbying. The only antilobbying legislation relevant to these circumstances is 18 U.S.C. § 1913, which reads in part as follows:

"No part of the money appropriated by any enactment of Congress shall, in the absence of express authorization by Congress, be used directly or indirectly to pay for any personal service, advertisement, telegram, telephone, letter, printed or written matter, or other device, intended or designed to influence in any manner a Member of Congress, whether before or after the introduction of any bill or resolution proposing such legislation or appropriation; but this shall not prevent officers or employees of the United States or of its departments or agencies from communicating to Members of Congress on the request of any Member or to Congress, through the proper official channels, requests for legislation or appropriations which they deem necessary for the efficient conduct of the public business."

Because 18 U.S.C. § 1913 provides for criminal penalties, its interpretation and enforcement is the responsibility of the Department of Justice. This Office may, however, refer appropriate cases of apparent violations of 18 U.S.C. § 1913 to the Justice Department for prosecution. See, e.g., B-212235(1), November 17, 1983 (Commerce Department publication favoring revision of Export Administration Act referred to Justice). To our knowledge, there has never been a prosecution under this statute. B-217896, July 25, 1985. In addition, only a few court decisions have cited the statute and generally they have not dealt with the question of a violation, but have been concerned with peripheral issues. See, e.g., National Association for Community Development v. Hodgson, 356 F. Supp. 1399 (D.D.C. 1973); American Public Gas Association v. Federal Energy Administration, 408 F. Supp. 640 (D.D.C. 1976). See B-214455, October 24, 1984.

The Department of Justice interprets 18 U.S.C. § 1913 to apply only when funds are spent in a grass roots lobbying effort, where an attempt is made to induce members of the public to contact their representatives in Congress to persuade them to either support or oppose pending legislation. B-216239, January 22, 1985; 63 Comp. Gen. 624, 625-226 (1984).

We note that 18 U.S.C. § 1913 prohibits the use of appropriated funds for printed or written matter intended or designed to influence legislation pending before the Congress. If S/LPD expended any appropriated funds to develop the information provided to CFA, such expenditure might constitute a violation of 18 U.S.C. § 1913. On the other hand, if the information provided CFA was readily available within the Department of State, the expenditure of funds would not have been necessary, and the statute would not have been violated. See B-129874, September 11, 1978. We have not found any evidence indicating that S/LPD expended appropriated funds for such information. The only document found during our investigation that was given to CFA by S/LPD was a copy of testimony presented by the Secretary of State at a congressional hearing and was readily available. Accordingly, we found no evidence that would lead us to conclude that S/LPD violated 18 U.S.C. § 1913 in its relationship with CFA.

SUMMARY AND CONCLUSIONS

S/LPD engaged in prohibited, covert propaganda activities designed to influence the media and the public to support the Administration's Latin American policies. The use of appropriated funds for these activities constitutes a violation of a restriction on the State Department annual appropriations prohibiting the use of federal funds for publicity or propaganda purposes not authorized by the Congress.

S/LPD also developed a close mutually supportive relationship with CFA, a nationwide grass roots organization engaged in lobbying and fund raising activities on behalf of Nicaraguan Contra causes. S/LPD acknowledges giving CFA a great deal of information. However, we have not found any evidence that S/LPD officials violated the applicable antilobbying statute.

Unless you publicly announce its contents earlier, we plan no further distribution until 30 days from the date of this opinion. At that time, we will send copies to interested parties and make copies available to others on request.

Five illustrative examples of the Reich "White Propaganda" operation:

- Attached is a copy of an op-ed piece that ran two days ago in The Wall Street Journal. Professor Guilmartin has been a consultant to our office and collaborated with our staff in the writing of this piece. It is devastating in its analysis of the Nicaraguan arms build-up. Officially, this office had no role in its preparation.
- In case you missed last night's NBC News with Tom Brokaw, you might ask WHCA to call up the Fred Francis story on the "Contras." This piece was prepared by Francis after he consulted two of our contractors who recently had made a clandestine trip to the freedom fighter camp along the Nicaragua/Honduras border (the purpose of this trip was to serve as a pre-advance for many selected journalists to visit the area and get a true flavor of what the freedom fighters are doing; i.e., not baby killing). Though I wasn't wild about the tag line, it was a hit piece.
- Two op-ed pieces, one for The Washington Post and one for The New York Times, are being prepared for the signatures of opposition leaders Alphonso Rubello,

Adelpho Callero and Arturo Cruz. These two op-ed pieces are being prepared by one of our consultants and will serve as a reply to the outrageous op-ed piece by Daniel Ortega in today's New York Times.

- Through a cut-out, we are having the opposition leader Alfonso Rubello visit the following news organizations while he is in Washington this week: Hearst Newspapers, Newsweek Magazine, Scripps Howard Newspapers, The Washington Post (Editorial Board), and USA Today. In addition, the CNN "Freeman Report," the "McNeill-Lehrer Report," the "Today Show" and CBS Morning News have been contacted about the availability of Mr. Rubello.
- Attached is a copy of a cable that we received today from Managua. The cable states that Congressman Lagomarsino took up Daniel Ortega's offer to visit any place in Nicaragua. You may remember that Ortega received a good deal of publicity on his "peace" proposal when he stated that he welcomed visits by Members of Congress, stating that they would be free to go anywhere they wished. As the cable notes, the Congressman's request to visit an airfield was denied. Do not be surprised if this cable somehow hits the evening news.

I will not attempt in the future to keep you posted on all activities since we have too many balls in the air at any one time and since the work of our operation is ensured by our office's keeping a low profile. I merely wanted to give you a flavor of some of the activities that hit our office on any one day and ask that, as you formulate ideas and plans of attack, you give us a heads-up since our office has been crafted to handle the consequences that you have in getting the President's program for freedom fighters enacted.

Nicaragua Is Armed for Trouble<sup>S 11659</sup>

By James F. Cowan, Jr.

Remember last year's controversy over the alleged delivery of MiG fighters to Nicaragua? Once it was established that what actually had been delivered were helicopters and "A" MiGs, almost no one bothered to ask what 12 fast, sophisticated, well-armed, long-range helicopter gunships could do to the armed forces of Central America or what their arrival might represent in terms of Sandinista strategy.

Shortly before the U.S. elections, media reports surfaced of a Soviet freighter bound from the Black Sea with a cargo of large boxes that, according to reconnaissance satellites, included those of a type used to ship jet fighter aircraft. Though reports were equivocal, concerns mounted about the cargo and its destination. The most likely candidate was superpower MiG-21s: High-technology warning bells went off in U.S. news rooms.

As the ship neared Nicaragua's Pacific port of Corinto (and as the U.S. elections neared) speculation ran at fever pitch.

The bubble of fevered speculation burst with an anticlimactic "pop" when Sandinista Foreign Minister Miguel d'Escobar announced, in a statement more or less confirmed by official U.S. spokesmen, that the crates contained not MiGs, but other arms including helicopters. The news was all the more anticlimactic because an earlier shipment of Soviet helicopters apparently had been solicited, all but unremarked, on Nicaragua's Atlantic coast the previous week. The helicopters were Mi-24 "Hinds," the world's most heavily armed, sophisticated and fastest gunships. It is likely the second shipment of crates contained additional Hinds. The crates received scant attention, as did the possibility that the crates might also contain such L-29 jet trainers. The U.S. media's only hint of the Reagan administration's belief in almost audible sighs of relief.

their power and rear blades of U.S. landing helicopter operations a marginal proposition, particularly in summer. Forced by limited power to fly low along valleys, helicopters are vulnerable to plunging fire from the peaks and ridges above. Afghanistan is not a fair test for the Hind.

But over rolling jungle terrain at low altitudes, the Hind is at its element. Its impressive underwing ordnance (it can carry in excess of 2,000 pounds of 57-mm rockets, bombs and precision-guided anti-tank missiles) and its sophisticated turret-mounted rotary 12.7-mm gun make it a flexible and thoroughly capable weapons system. Its fire-control system is both sophisticated and reliable. Unlike Western gunships, it can carry from six to eight troops.

Fitted against the feeble or nonexistent aircraft defenses of the non-communist Central American powers, the Hind represents an awesome capability, with or without top cover from MiGs. Flying low beneath the thin radar net and hugging the terrain, it can slip into neighboring countries with impunity. It can attack convoys and border posts with surgical precision, going as slow as necessary to do the job.

In the slow and dirty game of slipping across a border, bagging a Honduras or Salvadoran C-47, and slipping back, all under radar coverage and hence undetected, the Mi-24 would be supreme. Distances are short in Central America and older armored vehicles spearheading an army larger than that of any of its neighbors, augmented by a sophisticated ground-based antiaircraft system, bearing SAM-7s, radar-directed 57-mm guns and highly mobile ZSU 23-4s, the implications of their arrival in Nicaragua are chilling. With the delivery of high-performance MiGs for top cover, deep interdiction strikes, the classic Soviet-style lightning package will be complete.

In all of this, we have missed something important. It is not that acceptance by the U.S. media, if not the Reagan administration, of the delivery of jet trainers and helicopters to Nicaragua has established a precedent for the subsequent delivery of MiGs. That is valid as far as it goes. The real point is twofold: The L-29s and Mi-24s, particularly the latter, represent a major threat in themselves. Second, their arrival must be viewed as one more piece of a greater puzzle, the formation in Central America of a classic Soviet-style offensive combined arms team. And under no mistake: The Soviet doctrinal model, which the Sandinistas are clearly following, is inherently offensive in nature.

The initial MiG statement by U.S. aides came on Nov. 2. By Nov. 13, the Sandinista ambassador in Spain, Orlando Castillo, told reporters his government's position: No, Nicaragua did not have MiGs—yet. Yes, it had every intention of obtaining some as soon as it could—for self-defense. Thus the impending arrival of the last piece of the puzzle was announced.

Effective for Offense

Now, four months later, as we wait for the other shoe to drop, we are confronted by the release of a report last week by the Council on Hemispheric Affairs asserting that the Sandinista buildup is intended only to counter a feared U.S. invasion and—as an essential corollary—that it is ef-

Subject: DOD Support for DCI (S)

1. (TS) We have evaluated your request for [redacted] needed to support the Nicaraguan resistance effort as directed by the 12 July 1983 Presidential Memorandum. Although DOD has the capability to provide this type support, there are still two major obstacles--legal authority and funding.
2. (TS) The Office of the General Counsel, OSD, has advised that there is now insufficient legal authority for DOD to provide the requested support. However, they anticipate a new Presidential Finding, expected to be issued in September, will provide necessary authority. We must wait until that Finding is issued before we can proceed.
3. (S) Funding is a separate problem the new Presidential Finding may not completely resolve. DOD must still comply with established statutes pertaining to use of funds and reimbursement for support provided another agency of the government. Please provide us your funding proposal and any recommendations you may have on how to legally solve this problem.
4. (S) Our people are working with yours to be operationally ready to implement the program immediately after the new Presidential Finding is issued. If we can get the funds issue resolved, we should be able to meet that goal. Your expeditious response is required to prevent any further delay.

(TS) A 12 July 1983 Presidential Memorandum directed the Department of Defense to provide maximum possible assistance to the Director of Central Intelligence in improving support to the Nicaraguan resistance forces. The Office of the General Counsel, DOD, ruled that sufficient legal authority for DOD to provide the support does not presently exist. However, they anticipate a new Presidential Finding, scheduled to be issued in mid-September, will provide necessary authority. Nickname for the project is [REDACTED]

2. (S) A summary of specific assistance requested by CIA is enclosed. The Service responsible for action to provide each individual item is indicated. Your staffs have been very responsive and are providing outstanding support.

3. (TS) We do not anticipate any problems concerning the War Powers Resolution. CIA has assured us [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] However, as detailed planning is completed, each activity will again be reviewed for compliance with legal requirements on a case by case basis.

4. (TS) Preliminary estimates developed by our combined staffs indicate the support requested by DCI will cost [REDACTED]. Initial costs will have to come from present DOD funds. [REDACTED] will seek reimbursement through appropriate channels but probability for success is questionable. In either case legal funding restrictions will be met.

I. PURPOSE: To review the new Presidential Finding on Nicaragua with the NSPG prior to soliciting your approval.

II. BACKGROUND: The DCI will present a new Nicaragua finding for consideration by the NSPG (Tab A). This new finding has been extensively reviewed by Defense, State, and the NSC Staff and contains their recommendations. Director Casey has informally discussed the finding with Senator Goldwater and other key senators of the SSCI and language desired by the SSCI has been included.

This new finding will replace the current Nicaraguan finding (Tab B) but will not affect our other Central American activities (Tab C). It specifically includes "symmetry" language, which provides for a cut-off of support for resistance force activities only if the Nicaraguans meet three basic criteria:

- Cessation of Soviet/Cuban arms transits through Nicaragua;
- termination of training, command and control, and logistic support for guerrillas in other Central American countries; and
- amnesty and non-discriminatory participation by all Nicaraguans in the political process.

If you approve the finding, either Friday or this weekend, it will be briefed to the SSCI by the DCI and Secretary Shultz in a closed session next Tuesday, September 20, 1983.

The agenda for the meeting is at Tab D and talking points for your use are provided at Tab E.

III. PARTICIPANTS: NSPG Members.

MEMORANDUM FOR WILLIAM P. CLARK

FROM:

SUBJECT:

NSPG Meeting on Covert Action in Nicaragua

The President will chair an NSPG meeting tomorrow, Friday, September 16, 1983, from 2:00 p.m. to 3:00 p.m. The meeting is to review the new Nicaraguan Finding prior to submission to the President for approval.

The proposed Finding (Tab A) replaces the current Finding of December 1, 1981 (Tab B) and addresses only activities affecting Nicaragua; not other Central American actions contained in the Central American Finding of March 1981 (Tab C). The proposed Finding has been thoroughly scrubbed by State, DOD, and NSC. Walt Raymond and Al Sapia-Bosch have provided input designed to improve its chances for Congressional support.

The Finding specifically addresses the parameters for our support to the Nicaraguan resistance forces and contains "symmetry" language providing for a termination of support only if the Nicaraguan Government meets certain specific criteria:

- Cessation of Soviet/Cuban arms transits through Nicaragua;
- termination of training, command and control, and logistic support for guerrillas in other Central American countries; and
- amnesty and non-discriminatory participation by all Nicaraguans in the political process.

Because of specific Congressional constraints on DOD resources, DOD and CIA lawyers removed language pertaining to support provided by DOD to CIA. They agree that this will in no way impair DOD's ability to provide reimbursable items [REDACTED] to the CIA. Justice Department staff is aware of these changes.

Following his Hill consultation, the DCI late today circulated revised language to the first page of the Finding. Because this occurred less than 48 hours before the meeting, NSPG members could complain on procedural grounds that they have not had sufficient time to study the new language.

We concur with most of the fixes, but have serious difficulty with one key proposed adjustment. The point at issue is over the objective. We are working on more suitable language, which will follow in a separate memorandum.

The Finding replaces the 1 December 1981 Finding

This Finding authorizes the provision of material support and guidance to Nicaraguan resistance groups; its goal is to induce the Sandinista government in Nicaragua to enter into meaningful negotiations with its neighboring nations; and to induce the Sandinistas and the Cubans and their allies to cease their provision of arms, training, command and control facilities and sanctuary to regional insurgencies.

Under Secretary of Defense for Policy
Vice Admiral Arthur S. Moreau, Jr.,
Assistant to the Chairman, Joint Chiefs of Staff

SUBJECT: Letter from Senator Barry Goldwater Regarding the Central America Finding

I think this letter from Goldwater deserves an answer. Clearly, members of the Committee talked to the press after the hearing on this finding. We know that the press knew the outcome within one-half hour after the hearing was closed and that during the hearing a member of the Committee predicted that it would. What is troublesome is an Administration official explaining "the program as outlined by Mr. Casey and Mr. Shultz." Later on, the same or another Administration official is said to have stressed that "this should end the argument over whether the Administration was violating its pledge by doing more than just stopping the arms flow," etc. This has all the earmarks of a briefing by an Administration official. If we know of any such briefing, authorized or unauthorized, it should be reported to Goldwater, or if we know of no such authorized briefing and have no idea of where the alleged Administration statement came from, we should tell him in our response.

I would appreciate your help on this.

More Aid to Nicaraguan Rebels Backed

Special to The New York Times

WASHINGTON, Sept. 29—The Reagan Administration told the Senate Intelligence Committee today that it planned to continue covert military aid to the Nicaraguan insurgents until the Sandinista Government stopped giving military support to the rebels in El Salvador, according to participants in the meeting.

William J. Casey, Director of Central Intelligence, and Secretary of State George P. Shultz met for several hours behind closed doors with the committee, which is headed by Senator Barry Goldwater, Republican of Arizona. Senator Goldwater had requested a report on plans for the fiscal year that begins on Oct. 1.

The Administration is obliged to report to the intelligence committees of both houses on the goals and objectives of any covert activity. The committee had declared in May that it would cut off the aid in the absence of a new report by Sept. 30.

Most of the committee members were reportedly satisfied by the limited nature of the Nicaraguan program. Some had been concerned because Mr. Casey had reportedly suggested before the Congressional recess last month that the Administration might decide to back the Nicaraguan "contras," as the insurgents are known, with the aim of overthrowing the Managua Government, which is supported by Cuba and other Communist states.

"Very Impressed With Shultz"

"The members were very impressed with Shultz," one participant said. "They thought the plan was much more sensible than in the past. It looked as if it had some coherence and practicality."

President Reagan had said publicly that the United States had no intention of overthrowing the Sandinista Government. Administration officials had said that the $19 million withheld from appropriated in the current fiscal year for covert aid was only meant to prevent arms from Nicaragua from going to the insurgents in El Salvador.

An Administration official said that the program outlined by Mr. Casey and Mr. Shultz went beyond the scope of the current program. He said it was not limited to interdicting arms, but was more broadly stated in general support of the Nicaraguan rebels. "We were always being questioned," an official said, "on whether we were going beyond our program of interdicting arms. Now we say, 'Yes, we are supporting the rebels until the Nicaraguans stop their subversion in neighboring countries.'"

"It was a very positive statement," the official said, adding that "I wished the press would have been able to hear

Honduras and Costa Rica Included

One participant said that the covert aid was to be used, not only until the Sandinistas stopped supporting insurgents in El Salvador, but in Honduras and Costa Rica as well.

The Administration official stressed that this approach should end the argument over whether the Administration was violating its pledge by doing more than just stopping the arms flow. The official also said that there was no thought of the Administration backing the insurgents in trying to overthrow the Sandinista Government.

The House earlier this year passed a bill cutting off all covert aid to the Nicaraguan insurgents for the 1983 fiscal year, but it stood little chance of passage by the Senate. In the absence of action by both houses to cut off the aid, it continued. Today's committee meeting seemed to clear the way for Senate approval for the 1984 fiscal year, which begins Oct. 1. The House will have to decide whether it wants to vote again to cut off covert aid in the next fiscal year.

The Senate Intelligence Committee has generally been supportive of the Administration's actions in Central America. The chief critic of the Administration on the committee is Senator Joseph R. Biden, Democrat of Delaware.

According to participants in the session, the Administration witnesses presented a formal finding by President Reagan that it would be in the national security interest to continue a paramilitary program directed against the Sandinistas.

E. Sustaining regional economies. The remedies outlined above are more likely to succeed if some measure of economic stability and growth can be returned to Central America. The region continues to suffer from the ill effects of low commodity prices, low productivity and massive disinvestment caused by regional tension and conflict. The economies of the region have been unable to capitalize so far on the U.S. recovery. In the near term a substantial infusion of economic assistance is needed. Our ability to obtain this funding will be affected by the Kissinger Commission and the timing of its report. We are consulting with the Kissinger Commission to prepare a supplemental assistance effort for FY-84 which would neither preempt the Commission nor allow the short term situation to deteriorate further.

WHERE NEXT IN CENTRAL AMERICA

We have made substantial gains in Central America in the past three years. Cuban/Soviet-supported destabilization has been blunted. We have shown that, with our help, the rest of Central America need not go the way of Nicaragua. Nicaragua is increasingly isolated and, as a result, is attempting to appear more reasonable and/or to signal a desire to reach some form of accommodation. Democracy remains strong in Costa Rica and has taken a firm hold in Honduras. Important steps to achieve it have been taken in El Salvador. We have doubled economic aid while the CBI and anticipated Kissinger Commission recommendations lay the cornerstone for dealing with the region's massive economic problems over the longer term. Our military efforts have strengthened the resolve of Honduras, contributed to improved performance of the Salvadoran armed forces and increasingly placed the Sandinista government on the defensive. In short, the overall strategy is in place.

Despite these successes, we have reached a plateau in our policy. New initiatives and decisive and effective action are needed so that current opportunities will not be lost and necessary cooperation and support can be obtained from friendly governments and our own Congress. Specifically, this will require coming to terms with the following:

In the House, an effort will probably be made to add the Boland-Zablocki language to the intelligence authorization bill. Depending on the rule that is adopted, there could be another general debate on covert assistance. However, the prospects are not good for obtaining a reversal in the House of the recorded vote on H.R. 2760.

There is also a possibility that the Boland-Zablocki language will be offered in the Senate as an amendment to the FY 1984 intelligence authorization bill. We should be able to defeat such a Senate amendment, but the vote will be close.

Whatever passes the House and the Senate on the FY 1984 intelligence authorization will have to be sorted out in conference.

3. FY 1984 Appropriations

We may also face difficulty in the House when it deals with the intelligence portion of the FY 1984 Defense appropriation bill. (Congressman Boland serves on the Appropriations Committee and could introduce Boland-Zablocki or other restrictive language in the markup of that bill.)

Perhaps most important, we will face the possibility of inclusion of Boland-Zablocki restrictive language in the FY 1984 continuing resolution. As in the case of the Defense appropriation bill, the House Appropriations Committee will have initial jurisdiction over the continuing resolution.

4. Other Considerations

Meanwhile, negotiations continue on possible compromise formulations with moderates in the Congress. The latest proposal (from Zablocki) does not meet all the Administration's concerns but is far preferable to Boland-Zablocki.

A decision will be needed soon on whether to interject into this already complicated situation a new Presidential finding on the Nicaraguan program. Such a finding would be required no later than September 30 under the terms of the Senate Intelligence Committee report on the FY 1984 authorization bill. There is some concern that the new finding could undermine our legislative strategy if not carefully worded and timed.

It should also be noted that in the months ahead Congress will deal with a number of other issues affecting Administration policies and programs and that these issues will become interrelated in the legislative process. This necessitates close coordination within the Executive Branch among all officials concerned with the affected policies and programs and with legislative strategy.

Procedure

It is imperative that the Administration deal with this complex Congressional situation, in all its permutations, in an effective and coordinated manner if we are to avoid the loss of an essential tool for achieving our policy objectives in Central America. Accordingly, a Special Interagency Working Group has been established under the chairmanship of the Deputy Secretary of State, in his capacity as SIG chairman, to coordinate strategy for dealing with the Congress on these matters. CIA, DOD, and the NSC staff have agreed to provide representatives. Regular liaison will be maintained with the Assistant to the President for Legislative Affairs.

MEETING WITH THE NATIONAL SECURITY PLANNING GROUP

DATE: Friday, January 6, 1984
 LOCATION: White House Situation Room
 TIME: 1:30 - 2:30 p.m.
 FROM: Robert C. McFarlane (RM)

I. PURPOSE: To review Interagency recommendations on Central America and make decisions for our strategy in 1984.

II. BACKGROUND: Our last NSC level meeting on the Central American situation was on September 23, 1983. In late November, we requested a review of our Central America strategy and asked for Interagency recommendations for actions that will carry us through 1984. The result is the Central America strategy paper attached at Tab I.

The document at Tab I was prepared by the Restricted Interagency Group and reviewed and approved by Ken Dam's Foreign Policy SIG (SIG/FP). It provides detailed actions to improve our chances for success in the region which are compatible with the broader recommendations of the National Bipartisan Commission on Central America (NBCCA). Although the Commission will not present its final report to you until Wednesday, January 11, 1984, we need to move early next week on key resource issues which must be forwarded with your FY-85 budget submission. An agenda for the meeting is attached at Tab II and proposed talking points are at Tab III.

The major elements of the strategy paper at Tab I include recommendations on overall goals, resources, diplomatic strategy, covert operations, military activities, and legislative/public affairs. Briefly summarized, the SIG is in agreement with:

- Public diplomacy and legislative strategy: State now has only one person available to work Latin American issues with the Congress. Further, too few resources are available for international persuasion on these issues. The Soviet Bloc/ Cuban and Communist guerrilla propaganda apparatus is large and is working hard to bring about a cutoff of all outside aid to the target countries in Central America. There is an urgent need to authorize staff positions and about [redacted] for the State Department in order to permit us to achieve results on the Hill and present our Central American policy more effectively.

The agenda at Tab II is designed to allow discussion of each of these critical issues. Your talking points at Tab III are structured to emphasize those areas which are most important to the implementation of a winning strategy. The NSFG principals need your direction on these issues.

MEMORANDUM FOR ROBERT C. MCFARLANE

FROM: OLIVER L. NORTH

SUBJECT: Attack on Guerrilla Command and Control Centers in Nicaragua

At dusk on February 2, five Cessna 0-2 aircraft armed with 2.75 inch rockets attacked the ERP command and control center, training camp, and logistics facilities at Volcan Casita (see Point A on map).

At dawn the following morning (February 3) [redacted] attacked the FMLN communications and naval arms depot at Aposeuillo. As in the raid the previous night, there were secondary explosions and minimal return fire. None of the aircraft were damaged.

Since the two attacks, radio Managua has claimed that three EPS soldiers were killed by A-37 aircraft attacking from Honduras, and that a "Ministry of Agriculture radio antenna was damaged." [redacted] confirms that radio Veneremos (the propaganda voice of the FMLN) is off the air.

Significantly the GRN, which has been down playing CONTRA activity in recent weeks, has protested loudly over these attacks. Newspaper accounts in Managua today have variously accused ARDE, FOM, the U.S., and Honduras for the attack.

From Hue

Dear Rob Owen:

Just a note to let you know we are all alive and well and working.

I wonder what B.G.s outlook will be with Clark out and Mc. Parlane the new chief. Hopefully B.G. will be more powerful as we need more like him.

Also if you are talking to Kirkpatrick's aid pass the word that there are a lot of little people like myself, lost in the boondocks that think she is one of the best and we don't give a damn what Schultz, the press or anyone else think hang in there and hang tough.

It's too bad you are not here at the moment. I'm on the north porch and there is a great bright rainbow in the sky with a nice tropical breeze. Birds are all over the place, fish jumping in the river and the sound of laughter of the children playing soccer sets the whole thing off. Don't you think I should start looking for a Costa Rican bride to put hybrid vigor into the Owens clan?

Last week we had a 24 hours meeting here with the hero, Robelo and the chiefs of the Indians from the North plus their sub chiefs, body guards etc, over 20 in all. Margarita and the maid had a 24 hour cookathon and from her I was able to know the opinions of all the different factions and still stay completely out of the deal. It was pretty obvious from the start that it was doomed to failure as the hero is too proud, and too stubborn to agree to unite and fight with the F.D.N.

I understand some might join with Roger, reorganize and combine forces, I hope.

The last two weeks I have spent a lot of time over on the Pacific fixing an old cabin cruiser boat we are putting in a diesel motor

The large land owners there are organizing into vigilante bands and we were able to cache about thirty rifles and several thousand rounds of ammo at various farms. Also located several places that ranchers are now fixing that can be used as clandestine airports if needed in the future.

Here in San Carlos we have permission to set up and arm a 200 man civil defense unit and a couple of weeks ago I went with the

N 40079

FROM: OLIVER L. NORTH
CONSTANTINE MENGES

SUBJECT: Support for Nicaraguan Democratic Opposition

Ambassador Negroponete's cable at Tab A suggests an increase in our self-imposed limit on arms for the FDN from [redacted] to [redacted] weapons. He notes that there are currently more "ralliers" than there are arms to equip them.

The current Nicaraguan Finding (Tab B) imposes no limits on the numbers of weapons we provide. To date, we have provided [redacted] weapons to the FDN and [redacted] to the ARDE forces in the south. Director Casey has, after the fact, briefed the Select Committees on how many weapons we have provided each time we have increased the number.

State (Michel), Defense (Ikke), and CIA (Casey) agree with Ambassador Negroponete's request and believe that the weapons can and should be provided soon. The President and the Vice President have been asked to concur on these increases in each previous case. On one occasion the matter was brought before the NSPG. Given the urgency of the situation and the President's imminent departure, we do not believe that an NSPG needs to be called on this issue at this time.

MEMORANDUM FOR THE PRESIDENT

FROM: ROBERT C. McFARLANE RCM
 SUBJECT: Support for the Nicaraguan Democratic Opposition

Ambassador John Negroponte in Tegucigalpa, Honduras, has recommended that we increase the number of weapons issued to the FDN forces from [REDACTED]. He cites the increased number of "ralliers" to the anti-Sandinista cause and the momentum that the Democratic Resistance Forces currently maintain.

The current Finding establishes no limits on the number of weapons we can provide. We have a self-imposed ceiling of [REDACTED] FDN weapons that has been in effect since September 1983. We have also issued approximately [REDACTED] weapons to the ARDE units in the south.

The Departments of State and Defense and the DCI concur in Ambassador Negroponte's recommendation regarding the FDN. If you agree, the DCI, in accord with established procedures, will advise the Select Committees of the Congress during his next routine briefing.

MEMORANDUM FOR ROBERT C. MCFARLANE

FROM: OLIVER L. NORTH
CONSTANTINE C. MENGES
KENNETH DEGRAFFENREIDSUBJECT: Central America Legislative Strategy --
The Jackson Plan and Additional Resources for Our Anti-Sandinista Program

Based on your guidance after the NSPG meeting this morning, we have prepared a memo from you to the President (Tab I) asking him to send a memo (Tab A) to the NSPG members on support for the $14M in additional resources. Both memos refer to this morning's meeting and the necessity for a concerted effort to obtain the requisite funds -- in conjunction with consultations on the Jackson Plan.

The memo from the President at Tab A does not mention the issue of a Congressional confrontation over winning or getting out. Al Keel and others advise that the leak potential would increase significantly if this dimension were to be included.

Please note that the President's memo at Tab A should be dated February 17, regardless of when it is signed.

Recommendation

That you initial and forward your memo to the President at Tab I.

MEMORANDUM FOR THE PRESIDENT

FROM: ROBERT C. MCFARLANE RCM

SUBJECT: Central America Legislative Strategy - Additional Funding for the Anti-Sandinista Forces

Issue: How can we best obtain additional resources for continuing this program?

Facts: As you were briefed at this morning's NSPG meeting, the FY-84 Defense Appropriation and Intelligence Authorization Acts limit funding for our operations in support of the Nicaraguan opposition forces to $24M. Unless an additional $14M is made available, the program will have to be drastically curtailed by May or June of this year. The Intelligence Authorization Act also asks for a Presidential report by March 15, on steps taken and recommendations for further action to achieve a negotiated settlement in Central America.

Discussion: Operations by the FDN, ARDE, and MISURA Indian opposition groups are the only significant pressure being applied against the regime in Managua. Should these efforts have to be terminated for lack of resources, we will have lost our principal instrument for restraining the Sandinistas from exporting their revolution and, in fact, for facilitating a negotiated end to the regional conflict. The international repercussions of this failure in American policy will affect friends and adversaries alike. We must avoid precipitating perceptions of a second "Bay of Pigs" or creating an environment conducive to the collapse of El Salvador or increasing the threat to Honduras.

The NSPG principals are in agreement that the only practical alternative is to approach the Congress with a concerted effort to obtain additional funding for this program, despite the anticipated strong resistance we expect. The memo at Tab A from you to the Secretaries of State and Defense, the Director of Central Intelligence, and the Chairman of the Joint Chiefs will serve to initiate such action. Copies are also provided to each of the NSPG members.

The NSPG principals also agreed that this effort must be undertaken in concert with our strategy to obtain approval for legislation to implement the NBCCA report. Our spokesmen defending this legislative proposal must be prepared to defend our Nicaraguan program as vigorously as the other economic, humanitarian, and security assistance elements of the plan. We can also use the report required by the Intelligence Authorization Act as an opportunity to further this goal.

Recommendation:OKNoOK

That you sign the memo at Tab A.

SUBJECT: Central America Legislative Strategy -- Additional Funding for Nicaraguan Democratic Opposition
Forces (TS/S)

This afternoon I forwarded to the Congress our legislation to implement the recommendations of the National Bipartisan Commission on Central America (NBCCA). I have also reviewed and endorse the legislative and public diplomacy strategy for achieving Congressional approval. (C)

Pursuant to our discussion at this morning's NSPG meeting, our approach to the Congress on the NBCCA legislation must also focus on obtaining sufficient funding to carry on our Nicaraguan democratic opposition program throughout FY-84. Not only is this course of action specified in NSDD-124, it is imperative if our increased assistance is to have a positive impact when it is available. We must make this a matter of highest priority as we consult with Congress in building support for the Jackson Plan. Increased resources of $14M for this endeavor are essential to continue these activities and prevent a major foreign policy reversal. I am determined that this program should continue. (TS/S)

Secretary Shultz and Director Casey should take the lead in presenting our case to the relevant Congressional members and committees on this issue. A concerted effort must be made by all Administration spokesman to explain the necessity of this program and its value in achieving our objectives--not only in the region, but worldwide as well.

The Legislative Strategy Group under Jim Baker should determine the proper legislative instrument for obtaining these funds. The State Department should incorporate this effort within our overall strategy to obtain approval for legislation implementing the NBCCA recommendations. Secretary Shultz should draft, by March 8, 1984, a report responsive to Section 109 of the FY-84 Intelligence Authorization Act. The report should emphasize the necessity of this program in achieving a negotiated settlement in the region. All our efforts in the weeks ahead must make it clear that the Jackson Plan legislation and the resistance program are essential to U.S. national interests. (TS)

-MEMO FOR ROBERT C. MCFARLANE

FROM: OLIVER NORTH

Per our phone call this morning, this package is forwarded for you to transmit to the President. Both the memo at Tab I to the President and the Tab A memo from the President leave the issue of where the money comes from open. We may want to take it from the reserve or request a supplemental for the intelligence program. What is most important, however, is that we obtain relief from the $24M ceiling. The President's memo at Tab A notes that this is our objective and makes it clear that Shultz and Casey must defend our Nicaraguan program as essential to a negotiated settlement in the region and our national interests. State, CIA, NSC, and OMB are in agreement with this approach.

MEMORANDUM FOR ROBERT C. MCFARLANE

FROM:

OLIVER L. NORTH
ALTON KEEL

SUBJECT:

Additional Resources for our Anti-Sandinista Program

Based on your guidance at our meeting this morning, we have prepared a memo from you to the President (Tab I) asking him to send a memo (Tab A) to those most concerned with this issue. Your memo provides straightforward background on the resource requirements and cites the need for a concerted effort in order to achieve success.

Today's events regarding the situation in Lebanon make the points in your memo--and subsequent action--even more imperative. If this program founders for lack of funds, we may very likely suffer a major foreign policy reversal with repercussions well beyond Central America. The [redacted] already concerned about our continued trade with Nicaragua and lack of response to the killing of Warrant Officer Schwab, could soon have to contend with 10,000-12,000 armed and very unhappy, unpaid resistance fighters.

Please note that Dr. Kissinger, in private meetings today with Speaker O'Neill and HPSCI Chairman Boland, defended this program most eloquently. He believes that with a well led and cooperative effort we can carry the day on this issue. He has not yet been made aware of the magnitude of our shortfall.

Congressional resistance on this issue is formidable to the degree that prospects for success are bleak even with a concerted effort. At some point, we may have to reassess our prospects and decide whether prudence requires that we somehow stretch out FY-84 effort to avoid running out of funds.

The Secretary of DefenseTHE HONORABLE WILLIAM J. CASEY
The Director of Central IntelligenceGENERAL JOHN W. VESSEY, JR.
Chairman, Joint Chiefs of StaffSUBJECT: Additional Funding for Nicaraguan Democratic Opposition Forces (TS/S)

The recent National Security Decision Directive on promoting democracy, economic improvement, and peace in Central America calls for immediate efforts to obtain sufficient funding to carry on our Nicaraguan democratic opposition program throughout 1984. This must be a matter of highest priority as we proceed to build support for our legislation to implement the recommendations of the National Bipartisan Commission on Central America (NBCCA). Increased resources of $12-$14M for this endeavor are essential to ~~continue~~ these activities and prevent a major foreign policy reversal. I am determined that this program should continue. (TS/S)

Secretary Shultz and Director Casey should take the lead in ~~presenting~~ presenting our case to ~~relevant~~ relevant Congressional members and committees ~~on this issue~~. A concerted effort must be made by all Administration spokesmen to explain the necessity of this program and its value in achieving our objectives--not only in the region, but worldwide as well. ~~This should be~~ This should be a part of our overall strategy to obtain approval for legislation implementing the NBCCA recommendations. Secretary Shultz should draft, by March 8, 1984, a report responsive to Section 109 of the FY-84 Intelligence Authorization Act. The report should emphasize the necessity of this program in achieving a negotiated settlement in the region. We ~~must~~ must all make it clear that this program is essential to U.S. national interests. (TS/S)

Dear Senator Baker:

In his letter to you last evening, the President indicated that we do "not seek to destabilize or overthrow the Government of Nicaragua; nor to impose or compel any particular form of government there." He also noted that "we are trying, among other things, to bring the Sandinistas into meaningful negotiations and constructive, verifiable agreements with their neighbors on peace in the region." The phrase "among other things" in the President's letter refers to activities authorized by the Finding of September 19, 1983. (S)

It is important to note that all our support for the Nicaraguan Democratic Resistance Forces is carried out in accord with this Finding. Equally significant is the fact that this same Finding also clearly states that we will provide support, equipment, and training to the Nicaraguan Opposition Forces in order to: (S)

- induce the Sandinistas, Cubans, and their allies to cease their support for insurgencies in the region; (S)
- hamper Cuban/Nicaraguan arms trafficking; and (S)
- divert Nicaragua's resources and energies from support to Central American guerrilla movements. (S)

Finally, the Finding clearly states that we will cease our support for the resistance movement when it is verified that:

- the Soviets/Cubans/Sandinistas cease providing--through Nicaragua--arms, training, command and control, and other support for guerrillas operating in or against other countries in Central America; and (S)
- the Sandinistas demonstrate a commitment to amnesty and non-discriminatory participation for all Nicaraguans in their political process. (S)

This program is essential if friendly Central American nations are to strengthen their democratic, political institutions and achieve economic and social development--free from Soviet, Cuban, and Sandinista interference. It is, in the opinion of the democratic leaders in the region who have communicated with the President on this matter, critical to achieving a negotiated political resolution of international tensions in Central America. This view was reflected in the report of the National Bipartisan Commission on Central America. (S)

The Commission accurately noted that the opposition forces represent the only real pressure being brought to bear on the Sandinista regime. Perhaps most importantly, the resistance forces offer the only real hope to the people of Nicaragua that the promises made by the Sandinistas to the OAS in July 1979 will ever be met. (S)

Please be assured that we have not deviated from the strictest interpretation of this Finding. (U)

MEMORANDUM FOR ROBERT C. McFARLANE

FROM: CONSTANTINE MENGES com
OLIVER NORTHSUBJECT: Central America - Draft NSDD to Implement
NSPG Decisions of January 6, 1984

At Tab I, we have attached a draft NSDD to implement the decisions of the January 6, 1984 NSPG.

Two items might be controversial:

- Our citing of the specific budget amounts for the FY'84 supplemental; all agencies ~~except CIA~~ are willing to go with these amounts and they agree the ~~bi-partisan~~ commission amounts.
- The last paragraph on possible economic sanctions against Nicaragua uses wording suggested by Roger Robinson, who also prepared the memorandum on this topic at Tab II. Roger's view is that you can fairly use the secrecy rationale for keeping this issue within the NSPG context, rather than having the SIG-IEP do the analysis which in his view makes any action less likely and risks immediate public disclosure.

RECOMMENDATION

That you approve the NSDD so that we may submit it to each of the principals for their review, with your final approval to be early next week in the event major changes are suggested.

CENTRAL AMERICA: PROMOTING DEMOCRACY, ECONOMIC IMPROVEMENT, AND PEACE (S)

At the conclusion of an Executive Branch strategy review and taking account of the recommendations of the Bipartisan Commission on Central America, we remain committed to the four elements of our policy: support for the implementation of democracy; efforts to raise living standards; dialogue for the resolution of internal disputes through democratic elections and international conflicts through verified agreements; and, security assistance to governments threatened by communist subversion and guerrilla warfare. (S)

The Bipartisan Commission report agrees with our view that the United States must provide levels of assistance which are adequate to help friendly governments and democratic groups succeed because the alternative could be the destabilization of the entire region.

In order to accomplish our objectives, the following actions will be taken: (S)

- The Director of OMB together with the Secretary of State and the Secretary of Defense will coordinate to obtain substantially increased economic and security assistance resources for the countries in the region: an FY 84 supplemental budget request in the range of $669M ($410M economic and $259M security assistance) and an increase in FY 85 funding of approximately $750M ($500M economic and $250M security assistance). FROM:

SUBJECT:

Draft National Security Decision Directive (NSDD) on Arms Interdiction in Central America (TS)Partially Declassified/Released on 16 Jul 1987
under provisions of E.O. 12356
by 3. Reger, National Security Council

Attached at Tab I is a draft NSDD which implements the decisions taken during and since the NSPG meeting held on September 11, 1984. The NSDD calls for the CIA to provide assistance to the Nicaraguan Resistance Forces in interdicting Soviet arms bound for the FSLN in Managua.

The CIA has quietly asked for this NSDD as a means of implementing those issues deliberated at the September 11, 1984 NSPG meeting (Tab II). In a private meeting with Calero today, he raised this issue as important to the military credibility of the FDN.

Soviet bloc arms of increasing technical sophistication and firepower continue to be delivered to the FSLN in Nicaragua at an unprecedented rate. The shipment of this military materiel poses a growing threat to our own security interests and to the democratic governments and the peoples of Costa Rica, El Salvador, and Honduras. At the very least, this extraordinary Nicaraguan military build-up is intimidating to those in the region intent on achieving an enforceable multi-lateral agreement for peace, stability, economic recovery and democracy in the region. (S)

Provision of such support would be conducive to restoring influence over resistance activities which has diminished as a consequence of no U.S. funding. (S)

FSLN covert support for the Salvadoran guerrilla forces is also a persistent problem. Munitions from Nicaragua continue to be an essential element in the ability of the FMLN to conduct operations against the Government of El Salvador (GOES).

assist in special mission planning and training for the Nicaraguan resistance. This approach was reported in a separate memorandum. Walker also informed that BLOWPIPE surface-to-air missiles may be available [redacted] for use by the FDN in dealing with the HIND helicopters. This information was passed through an appropriate secure and source protected means to Adolfo Calero who proceeded immediately to [redacted]. Yesterday, Calero, having returned from [redacted], advised that [redacted] have possession of large quantities of BLOWPIPE missiles and that they are willing to make 40 missiles and five to eight launchers available to the FDN. There would be no charge for the missiles, but [redacted] did ask $15K each for the launchers. [redacted] noted, however, that they would need to obtain [redacted] permission for the transfer. Training on the weapons system was also offered for up to ten three-man teams from the FDN on a no-cost basis. Calero will dispatch the trainees to [redacted] on December 23. According to Calero, no one in [redacted] is aware that the USG has knowledge of this offer.

[redacted]

Your memo to the President at Tab I brings these issues to his attention and asks that he discuss the matter of the Nicaraguan resistance very privately with [redacted]. You will recall [redacted] we discussed the matter of [redacted] [redacted] This may be the best opportunity we have to obtain such support for the resistance. Given recent actions in Nicaragua, we may not have another chance if we wait.

[redacted]

WASHINGTON THE DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA

N 6495

MEMORANDUM FOR ASSISTANT TO THE PRESIDENT FOR NATIONAL SECURITY AFFAIRS

SUBJECT: U.S. Policy Toward Nicaragua (U)

(2) I believe it urgent that we update our policy toward Nicaragua. In particular, when Congress returns, we will have to address the problem of funding for the Freedom Fighters.

(3) So far as I know, your four objectives for Nicaragua (established by NSDD 124) are still fully valid:

- genuine implementation of democracy;
- verified end to export of subversion;
- verified removal of Cuban/Soviet bloc personnel; and
- verified reduction of Nicaraguan military forces to regional parity.

(4) There seems to be no prospect of accomplishing these objectives without improved assistance to the Freedom Fighters. This calls for planning to generate the requisite Congressional approval. We may wish to consider mixtures of support: overt and "covert"; direct and indirect through third countries, for example); political, humanitarian, and military. The Joint Chiefs of Staff share my view that our support for the resistance to the Sandinistas must continue and also that we must bring our political, diplomatic, and economic strength to bear.

(5) I recommend that you have an NSPG meeting scheduled, as soon as possible in January, to develop an updated approach toward Nicaragua, with particular focus on an effective approach to Congress.

~~TOP SECRET~~OPTIONS AND LEGISLATIVE STRATEGY FOR RENEWING AID TO THE NICARAGUAN RESISTANCE

N 45086

Current Situation

Section 8066 of the FY 1985 Continuing Resolution (P.L. 93-473) specifically prohibits until February 28, 1985, the use of any CIA, DOD, or other intelligence agency's funds for the purpose or which would have the effect of supporting directly or indirectly military or paramilitary operations in Nicaragua. After February 28, 1985, this funding prohibition ceases to apply, but only if two conditions are met:

- the President transmits to Congress a report describing Nicaraguan government support for guerrillas in other Central American countries, justifying amounts and types of assistance proposed and how such assistance would further U.S. policy goals in Central America;
- Congress adopts a joint resolution expressly approving the use of funds for supporting military or paramilitary operations in Nicaragua.

If both these criteria obtain, the Continuing Resolution permits up to $14 million in appropriated funds to be used for the resistance program. The law states that expedited procedures will apply for considering a joint resolution authorizing the expenditure. Such a joint resolution would be initially referred to the Appropriations Committees.

Because of the expedited procedures and the jurisdictional issue of an intelligence issue being moved quickly through the Appropriations Committees, we should carefully consider the timing of a report to the Congress. In short, we should seek to work out our best options before submitting the report required by Section 8066.

Since the Continuing Resolution requires, in effect, that Congress pass a new law in order to permit use of the appropriated FY 1985 monies, that new law need not conform precisely to the terms of the Continuing Resolution. Congress could, in enacting this new legislation, add any number of limitations or conditions and then make clear that the new legislation was intended to satisfy (or to supersede) the requirements of the Continuing Resolution. We could, in effect, create a "Clark Amendment" for Central America, if we do not handle the legislative relationship very carefully in consulting on our options.

OptionsA. USG Solicitation of Third Country Support

Although the Continuing Resolution addresses only the use of appropriated funds, CIA has interpreted the statutory language against "indirect" support as prohibiting contact with third countries which might be willing to fund/assist resistance activities. The CIA has, therefore, forbidden their employees from soliciting/requesting third country support, since it could be argued that funds appropriated for CIA salaries were being used in a manner that would have the effect of indirectly supporting paramilitary operations in Nicaragua. The CIA's concern is heightened by two considerations:

- First, the Intelligence Committees were informed, after U.S. funding was exhausted last June, that as a matter of policy the Agency was not soliciting third country funding. State has responded to similar queries from the Foreign Affairs/Relations Committees that the Department has made no such overtures.
- Second, Executive Order 12333 on intelligence activities provides that "no agency of the Intelligence Community shall request any person to undertake activities forbidden by this Order." While it is anomalous to read this prohibition so literally that it prevents the Agency from requesting third countries to undertake activities not addressed in the Executive Order, but otherwise forbidden to the CIA, this constraint none the less prevails.

It is very possible that this problem could be overcome by a careful record of consultation with the concerned committees of Congress (Intelligence and Appropriations). No new legislation or formal amendment to the Executive Order would be required. It should also be noted that the existing Presidential Finding (under which the U.S. program operated until FY 1984 funding was exhausted) specifically provided that our support to resistance groups would be provided both unilaterally "and in cooperation with other governments." Congress never objected to this aspect of the program.

The single greatest drawback to this option is that a "third-country" support program for the resistance leaves us with almost no leverage over resistance activities or an ability to assure the humane prosecution of the war. It may also perpetuate problems [redacted] if they perceive that we have "walked away" from the problem.

B. Restore the Original Comprehensive Program

Under this option, we would submit a report seeking to justify the removal of the prohibitions in Section 8066 of the Continuing Resolution and restoration of the program that existed up until last year's funds were exhausted. This would allow us to provide arms and munitions, as well as training and advice, by U.S. citizens who would be forbidden to enter Nicaragua. In order to achieve Congressional approval for this option, we could agree to a number of specific constraints on the level and type of operational involvement for CIA personnel/employees. We could, for instance, accept prohibitions on the use of CIA assets (aircraft, boats, etc.); restrictions on numbers of personnel; or limits on training/operational guidance or technical assistance we could provide to the fighters. This alternative has the advantage of maximum flexibility, program effectiveness, and control over resistance activities. The disadvantage is that this would require direct reversal of a series of House votes in which the program has been rejected by decisive majorities.

C. Limited "Non-Lethal" U.S. Support with Third Country Assistance

This alternative calls for us to submit a report justifying a "new" program excluding the most controversial aspects of the original program--direct support by U.S. nationals and lethal military equipment and supplies. "Lethal" assistance (munitions, ordnance, etc.) would, in this case, be provided by third countries. In its simplest form, U.S. support could be limited to cash grants which would be used only for specified "non-lethal" purposes, such as public affairs/political action, travel and transportation, food, clothing, shelter, etc., with provision for periodic audit. While it would be preferable to have authority for the U.S. to provide advice, training, management assistance, and intelligence, we could indeed leave these to third countries, with the understanding that the USG would coordinate with these countries as under the present Finding. A new Presidential Finding should be developed in that it will be tactically useful in building support with members of Congress.

The advantage of this option is that it could be presented as a new approach, not requiring opponents of the old program to reverse their previous votes. Cash transfers could be publicly acknowledged or executed covertly. While a legislated mandate to limit us to overt "humanitarian" assistance (e.g., aid to refugees) would not affect the basic legislative approach, any publicly acknowledged program will have an adverse impact

D. Defer legislation and seek only clarification of authority to encourage third-country support

In this option, we would postpone a definitive vote by Congress on whether or not the USG can provide support to the Nicaraguan resistance. Instead of an "up or down" vote on the program, we would seek to maintain the viability of the Nicaraguan resistance by encouraging only third country support. This would require careful consultation with Congress to assure that we would not be subject to charges of circumventing or violating the statutory prohibition. We would, thereby, leave open the possibility of a new funding request until later in FY 1985--perhaps even waiting until the current prohibitions in Section 8066 of the Continuing Resolution expire on October 1, 1985. The major drawbacks for this option are lack of credibility in influencing Sandinista behavior through pressure and the uncertainty of continued support to the resistance from current sources until the end of the fiscal year.

F. Provide Funding through a "Collective Security" Type Organization

In this case, funds to support resistance activities could be appropriated by the Congress for disbursement through an already existing or newly created international organization. CONDECA, the collective security organization of the Central American states, could serve as such a body. U.S. monies could be given directly to CONDECA (or like entity), as in the case of the Organization of Eastern Caribbean States (OECS), or funds provided to participating countries could be earmarked for use only with CONDECA-authorized activities.

In order for this to work as a funding mechanism for the resistance, there would have to be unanimous agreement among the participating states [REDACTED] [REDACTED] that a certain portion of the funds made available to CONDECA would be transferred (either as financial aid or in materiel) to the freedom fighters. This agreement and the transfer could be either overt or covert. It would seem that the Congress or at least certain members would have to be witting of the internal CONDECA arrangement.

The advantage of this proposal lies in the attractiveness of "collective security" type arrangements within the Congress. They may be more willing to view funding through an international organization, such as CONDECA, as an acceptable "overt" mechanism for supporting the resistance. The principal disadvantages of this proposal are in the length of time it would take to establish such a program and the lack of control over the international body in their support to the resistance. Any public confirmation that CONDECA was providing such support would undoubtedly make the situation for [REDACTED] even more difficult than it already is. It would, therefore, be best to try such an option with CIA funding rather than through the security assistance process.

Timing

Although the law specifies that the President can submit a report at the end of February and thereby trigger the expedited procedures for a vote by both houses, we should weigh the advantages of delayed action. The Congress will also be considering several other issues of extraordinary import to the Administration in the months ahead:

| Issue  | Timeframe |
|---|------------------|
| MX  | March            |
| Saudi-Pak Arms Packages and Overall Security Assistance | May-June         |
| President's Budget                                      | May-June         |
| Federal Deficit   | June-July        |
| Arms Control Debate                                     | July-August      |

Past experience has shown that opponents of the resistance program are likely to use the simultaneous presentation of two important legislative issues to their advantage. We, therefore, need to deny them an opportunity to "trade" the resistance program for MX or some other vital Administration initiative. Given the crowded legislative calendar we should probably seek to forward a report to the Congress at the end of March, seeking a vote by both houses during April. This timing will also track well with major political action and public-diplomacy initiatives which will peak in mid-March.

Identification of the Threat

Past focus and the current Finding identify at the Sandinistas as the principal threat to regional stability. We have likewise proclaimed FSLN internal repression within Nicaragua as an important reason for funding the resistance. Despite the accuracy of this rationale, we have:

- failed to make the case that the Sandnistas are indeed a sufficient threat to our national security that justifies a major covert action/paramilitary program; and
- created anxieties in the Congress that in order to redress internal repression through resistance pressure, we, in fact, are attempting the overthrow of the current Nicaraguan government. Since this is specifically forbidden by law, we have actually lost ground in the Congress by emphasizing the "democratization"/OAS promises issue.

[REDACTED] we would find better support for the Nicaraguan resistance, if we identify the Soviets, Cubans, Bulgarians, East Germans, and North Koreans--and their intervention in this hemisphere--as the principal problem in Central America, rather than the Sandinistas. In order to focus on the threat posed by the Soviets and their surrogates, a major effort must be launched to collect and disseminate information regarding this extra-hemispheric involvement in Nicaragua. By so doing, we would re-orient the thinking in Congress and in the American body politic that support for the resistance is essential to preventing a Soviet client state on the mainland of this hemisphere.

Funding Level Requested

Previous requests for funding have been limited [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] This, in and of itself, tends to create a mind set in the Congress that the threat to our security is not as great as we have articulated. In 1982, we spent less than $13M on the Nicaraguan resistance program. The 1983 level of $24M was duplicated in our FY 1984 request. For 1985, we limited the request to $14M, thinking that this amount would be more palatable to the Congress.

If indeed our re-oriented threat is to be credible, we should consider a significant increase in the amount being requested for the program. A figure closer to $100M would indicate to the Congress the urgency of the situation and our concerted belief that an adequately funded resistance force could provide sufficient pressure to deter further Soviet/surrogate encroachment in the region.

Summary

Informal liaison among State, OSD, CIA, JCS, and NSC indicates that we should pursue the following course of action:

- We should move immediately to re-orient the perceived threat from the Sandinistas to focus on risks posed to U.S. security by the active involvement of the Soviet Union and its surrogates in establishing a client state in Nicaragua.
- We should press for Option C (non-lethal U.S. support with third country assistance). In so doing, we should seek authority to have the U.S. provide intelligence, training support, and a significant level ($90-100M) of financial assistance limited to the acquisition of non-lethal materiel, transportation, and political action. Lethal support would be provided through third country financial assistance and direct provision of arms and ammunition.

SUBJECT: Contra Project

Ollie just debriefed me on your trip. When I met with Hamilton and Fespell (which will be later this week, unless you see a reason for me to postpone) I would like to begin by saying you wanted me to give them the benefit of certain observations you drew on the basis of your recent talks in the region. Then I would stress the unanimity of view on the growing Sandinista challenge; the skepticism over successful negotiation in the absence of pressure; the willingness of regional leaders to begin providing quiet support for the Contras; and the overwhelming belief that in some way the US has to get back in the game. Beyond that, I will for now simply confine myself to taking soundings (following the outline I gave you of my talks with Durenberger). At some point soon, however, we need to decide more clearly what and result we want to steer the consultations toward. I still like the [redacted] option, if it can be made to work.

Ollie believes we need to flag the possible option of a finding permitting us to seek third country support. John and I are both uneasy about raising this. Finally, at the right moment, it will be important to find some mechanism for bringing key Hill leaders together with regional leaders to hear first hand what walking away from the Contras would mean. When I had lunch with Eager's chief of staff the other day on the structure of the Senate hearings, he said this would be the single most effective action we could take. Let me know if this is not how you want me to proceed.

Attached at Tab I is a paper which proffers policy options for Nicaragua. The basic paper and its attachments (Tabs A thru H) provide a detailed assessment of the current situation and various alternatives which we can pursue during the second Administration. In short, the paper concludes that the most prudent course of action, given the threat we face from the Soviets and their surrogates in Central America, is to seek Congressional approval for resuming our support to the Nicaraguan resistance.

Tabs A thru D describe the growing Soviet bloc relationship with the FSIN and its increasing status as a Marxist-Leninist client state. Tabs E and F provide a detailed analysis of the resistance movement and options for restoring U.S. assistance. Tabs G and H outline additional activities (economic sanctions and political action) which could supplement a revitalized resistance program.

One of the most important issues on this trip is to determine what type of support to the resistance is most palatable to our friends in the region. Don Fortier is pursuing the same strategy with the leadership in Congress. Thus, Tab F (Options and Legislative Strategy) is particularly important as background for your meetings with Heads of State in the region. You should be aware that there is growing sentiment in the Congress for some type of "overt" support to the resistance--an alternative that is undoubtedly most unpalatable to [REDACTED]

In 1979, the Sandinista Revolutionary Liberation Front (FSLN), in alliance with moderate non-Marxist opposition groups, capitalized on legitimate popular dissent to overthrow the Somoza government. In the five years since the revolution, the moderate allies of the FSLN have been expelled from the government and the FSLN has established effective control of the media, educational system, military, and security apparatus. In fact, the Nicaraguan revolution has moved steadily through most of the successive steps of a Marxist-Leninist revolutionary as taught at the Soviet Union's Higher Comsomul School for the Training of Non-Bloc Communists Cadre (Tab A).

The Sandinitas have created Marxist labor organizations and an alternative "popular" church. Fraudulent elections, accompanied by massive international propaganda, were engineered to validate FSLN hegemony as the "vanguard" party over the internal political process. A massive Soviet bloc military build-up is underway (Tab B) and repression of the remaining internal opposition has recently increased. Thus, most of the steps in establishing a Marxist-Leninist state have been accomplished..

The final consolidation of the FSLN as the state party in a Marxist-Leninist society is in process (Tab C). Once this consolidation has been completed, those antagonistic to U.S. security goals, particularly the Soviet Union and Cuba, will have a secure base on the mainland of the Americas from which to promote subversion of neighboring states, a sine qua non of all Marxist-Leninist states. The successful spread of Marxist-Leninist governments in Central America, allied with adversaries of the United States, represents a genuine long-term threat to political stability in the Americas, and over time poses a strategic threat to the United States.

Options:

Given the premise outlined above, there appear to be three policy options open to the U.S. Government:

A. A negotiated solution which acquiesces to the existence of a Marxist-Leninist Nicaraguan state in return for assurances that that state would not pursue a policy of exporting revolution.

B. A resumption of U.S. support to the Nicaraguan opposition--both armed and unarmed--in order to prevent the consolidation of a Marxist-Leninist state allied with the USSR and to establish in its stead a truly Democratic and pluralistic government.

Conclusions.

- The FSLN regime in Managua is Marxist-Leninist in character and is in the latter stages of consolidating absolute control in Nicaragua. The Sandinista leadership is allied with the foreign policy objectives of the Soviet Union and Cuba and is increasingly supported by the Soviet Union in a bloc/client relationship.
- The presence of a Marxist-Leninist state in Central America is an unacceptable threat to regional stability and long term U.S. strategic interests.
- If the consolidation of a Soviet client state is to be prevented, decisive action must be initiated within the next few months. The weight of the evidence argues strongly in favor of a major campaign to restore support for the democratic resistance forces. Their military operations must be designed to prevent the consolidation of a Marxist-Leninist FSLN government in Nicaragua. Since the process of consolidation is in the advanced stages, arresting and reversing that process will be difficult. The longer a delay in initiation of such an effort, the less likely is success and the more costly the consequences.

In less than three years (1982-Present), the Nicaraguan resistance has grown from less than [redacted] to more than [redacted]. While this growth would probably not have been accomplished without U.S. support and advice, it is important to note that the Nicaraguan Freedom Fighters are not a creation of this Administration.

[redacted] we underestimated, to an extent, the degree of popular acceptance the FDN would enjoy in its operating areas. While this popular support developed slowly and was undoubtedly enhanced by FSLN mistakes and repressive policies, it has become an important factor in the ability of the FDN to continue to operate following the June 1984 cut-off of CIA funding. For example, since USG funds were exhausted, FDN troop strength has increased by more than [redacted] combatants. Indeed, ralliers to the FDN continue to surpass the capability to provide arms, provisions, and training.

The cut-off in U.S. funding has, to date, had little effect on the determination of the FDN to continue its struggle against the FSLN. It is obvious from discussions with resistance leaders [redacted] supportive government officials in El Salvador, Honduras, and [redacted] that an expectation of resumed U.S. funding is an important factor in their will to continue the armed struggle. It also appears that resources available to the resistance from sympathetic government(s) and/or individuals will permit current small-scale operations to continue for at least another 6 to 9 months. A resumption of USG funding or additional alternative resources would be essential in order to bring the scale of activity to that which existed in the Spring of 1984 and, over time, to prevent an erosion of the will and determination of the FDN combatants. (S)

We are, at this point, at an important benchmark in our efforts to achieve the goals outlined in the San Jose Accord and the Contadora 21 Objectives. There is now a solid framework which could lead to peace in Central America and the dismantling of a potential Soviet/Cuban base on the hemispheric mainland.

MEMORANDUM FOR ROBERT C. MCFARLANE

FROM: OLIVER L. NORTH

SUBJECT: Meeting with Arturo Cruz

In accord with your instructions relayed through VADM Poindexter, I met with Arturo Cruz on the afternoon of March 12, to discuss his funding.

He specifically asked if there was which would provide funds commensurate with his earning capabilities were he not engaged in the resistance effort. He noted that his annual salary prior this involvement was in excess of $7,500 per month.

Chapter 2, Footnote 302

UNCLASSIFIED

Outside Support to the FDN

1. Since the cutoff of official funds to the anti-Sandinistas in May 1984 they have been able to field a viable guerrilla fighting force, have increased their numbers, and improved their tactical efficiency. It is estimated that to maintain the level of activity that they have it would cost an estimated one half to two million dollars per month. However, no intelligence on the source of this money exists that it comes from private groups, and possibly some business corporations.

2. [REDACTED] offered [REDACTED] end-user certificates for any munitions the FDN wanted to buy.

[REDACTED] issued end-user certificates for some U.S. $10 million in ordnance. It is not clear, however, whether the ordnance has already been purchased or if [REDACTED] have made these certificates available for use when needed, and when funds are available. For some time a Cuban/American group has been involved in fund-raising activities (telethons in Miami) for the FRS in the south. It is not known if any of this money makes its way to the FDN. Cuban American doctors from Miami have volunteered their services on weekends to tend to the FDN wounded.

3 In addition to the above, the FDN has received periodic assistance from the Civilian Military Assistance Group (CMA) in Alabama, consisting of web gear, uniforms, canteens, tents, and training. A helicopter with a CMA pilot was shot down in September 1984.

4. We have no information on the source of the funds used by the FDN to acquire arms or munitions. We [REDACTED] the FDN is inclined to hold this information close. [REDACTED] FDN leaders fear that, if the information should become public, the source of the funds would dry up.

MEMORANDUM FOR ROBERT C. MCFARLANE

DONALD R. FORTIER

SUBJECT: Timing and the Nicaraguan Resistance Vote

Based on the advice from ADM Poindexter that we are proceeding with a vote before the President's departure for the European Summit, the schedule of events to support an affirmative vote on the resistance program has been revised. The most recent version of the chronology of events is attached at Tab A.

In order to reduce the amount of Presidential time allocated to this issue, the new schedule omits several of the events we had originally planned in the four communications/media meetings we have had with Pat Buchanan's ad hoc working group. Per ADM Poindexter's guidance the schedule continues to focus on a vote at the end of April, triggered by submission of the required report on or about April 15. A very rough draft of the report is attached at Tab B.

In addition to the events depicted on the internal chronology at Tab A, other activities in the region will continue, including military operations and political action. Like the chronology, these events are also timed to a vote at the end of April:

- planned travel by Calero, Cruz, and Robelo;
- various efforts designed to support significantly increased military operations immediately after the vote (we expect major Sandinista crossborder attacks in this timeframe--today's resupply to [redacted] from [redacted] went well); and [redacted]
- special operations against highly visible military targets in Nicaragua.

Some of these efforts are already well underway. For example, yesterday Bernardario Larios, former Sandinista Defense Minister, defected to Costa Rica and is now in Panama (you were briefed on this operation during the trip). Others, however, including actions by U.S. interests groups, are very sensitive to the timing. Next week the networks auction their air time for 15, 30, and 60 second commercials during prime viewing hours. Based on the decision to proceed with a vote at the end of April, these groups will commit nearly $2M for commercial air time and the production of various advertising media.

Based on the input from ADM Poindexter, the groups have been told to cast their advertising and public contacts in a general campaign focused on "support for the Nicaraguan freedom fighters." The ads, mailings, and telephone contacts will be structured in such a way that they will not define the nature of "support." Thus, if we decide to request only non-lethal funding from the Congress, the political action campaign will still be relevant.

Before Senator Durenburger delivers his planned speech on this issue at the National Press Club next Tuesday, March 26, we should give him a sense for where we are headed before he speaks. In this regard, the draft at Tab B needs to be refined--particularly the portion from pages 21-25. As you know, we have constructed (and have tacit interagency approval for) a baseline formula which does not include lethal assistance. We now need to decide what form our opening request should take:

- covert and lethal assistance with the new restrictions; or
- non-lethal aid to the resistance; or
- a request which is non-specific on lethal/non-lethal support.

It now appears that the best we can hope for is a lifting of the 8066 restrictions and the expenditure of funds provided therein for non-lethal (or humanitarian) purposes. It is possible, however, that our public education campaign between now and when the report would be submitted could change a number of votes--thus, affecting the final form of our request. Since we will not know this for certain until late in the Congressional recess, we proposed that we proceed as follows:

- Between now and April 12: refine the report and the three forms of the Presidential Determination (pages 21-25) as indicated above.
- On the morning of April 15: meet with 8-10 key Congressional leaders from both Houses and both parties to the White House for a two-hour briefing hosted by you, Secretary Shultz, and WH Chief of Staff Regan. At this meeting, the senators/members would be provided with the Gates/Gorman briefing (one hour) which covers pages 1-20 of the report. They would then be asked to read each of the three funding options (pages 21-25). Based on their input (we believe they will recommend the second alternative--non-lethal), we will append the appropriate version to the report.
- In the early afternoon of April 15: the President should meet with Cruz, Calero, and Robelo who, if necessary, will endorse the non-lethal option on the grounds that it will preserve the credibility of their March 1 San Jose Peace Offer.

-- On the evening of April 15, in his address to the Nicaraguan Refugee Fund dinner, the President will announce that he has forwarded a report to the Congress asking for renewed support to the Nicaraguan Democratic opposition. If the report is being forwarded requesting non-lethal aid, his remarks will note that the report excludes military assistance in response to the plea of the resistance leaders so that their peace overture will have a chance to work. The remarks should also include (as would this version of the report) that "other forms of support will be provided if the peace proposal is rejected." This will cover us for the resumption of CIA support once the restrictions in Section 8066 are lifted.

We believe that this scenario is workable and will result in significant Congressional support for our proposal on the Hill--with a minimum of Presidential involvement. The events outlined for April 15 are important in that they will provide a public endorsement for less than we had originally hoped for and at the same time give the Congressional leadership a sense of having participated in the formulation. It is imperative that the plan outlined above be kept very closehold since any leak could seriously compromise the effort. Thus, the President's remarks at the NRF dinner on April 15 should be prepared by Ben Elliott in a manner similar to that in which we prepared the Grenada announcements. The rest of the action plan at Tab A is designed to support the proposal above and needs your approval for implementation by the Buchanan ad hoc working group.

MEMORANDUM FOR ROBERT C. MCFARLANE

FROM: DON FORTIER

SUBJECT: Contra Vote -- Delay to May

In following up on your meeting with Secretary Shultz, we have discussed the implications of a delay in the Congressional vote on contra aid until May. Obviously a number of adjustments in our approach will be necessary as a result of this slippage. These should be understood by Administration principals as soon as possible, so as to keep policy more or less coordinated.

We have considered the impact of a delay until May on the following dimensions of our policy:

1. Public perceptions of indecision. It is essential that from the beginning this delay be briefed as a response to the legislative calendar and the wishes of the Congressional leadership -- not because the votes aren't there or because we can't decide what to do. We have to underscore that we are going forward, and if anything, in the intervening period, we may want to turn the rhetorical heat up.

2. Announcement of request. Under our previous plan the content of the request would not have been announced until the same day the report was filed. But the two don't have to go together, and we'll have to look at this issue again. (The President, or Shultz, could announce what we'll ask for around the middle of the month.) By announcing the contents of the request earlier, we would have more time to rally support before actually filing.

3. San Juan offer. This will now expire before the Congressional debate even begins. Extending it can no longer be a surprise gimmick. It is not quite clear why it has to expire at all, of course, but since this date exists some act to permit an extension if necessary.

But we should consider whether we might convey a stronger leadership by asking them, publicly and directly, to extend. (The obvious risk: compounding the impression of hesitation on our part.) If a long extension is necessary (e.g. 60 days) we'll have to think about how to contain the adverse effects of that. In general, as the offer recedes in time we may have to rely more on the mere fact of unity between the civilian and the armed opposition, and less on their proposal.

UNCLASSIFIED

DRF - Camp Asgauer

4523

UNCLASSIFIED

4. Content of request. If the San Juan offer is delayed for a longer period, we should consider offering assurances that the release of funds would be phased -- e.g., if the overall request is for non-lethal aid, then humanitarian aid could be permitted immediately; if the request is for lethal, then non-lethal would go right away. N 18786

5. Lethal vs. non-lethal. It had seemed advantageous to have the request for non-lethal aid only come from the contras. We should revisit this question too, particularly if we're asking them for a longer extension than they'll like. Such a request may look a little phony. We may benefit, moreover, by being able to tell Congress that the contras want -- and need -- more than we're asking. This lays the basis for a larger request later.

6. Regional repercussions. Your Inauguration week trip to the area was crucial in sustaining the patience of our friends. Since we will seem to be backing off at the last minute, one (there are probably others) step to reassure them would be another quick tour explaining our approach.

7. Contadora. A delay will also create more opportunities for the revival of regional diplomacy. If the Core Four doubt our resolve, they will likely weaken on the terms of a Contadora pact. We have to consider how to keep them wedded to the San Juan offer as an integral part of Contadora.

8. Privately-funded P.R. Media buys have already been made on the assumption that April would be the month of the contra debate. It may still be, but the media blitz will peter out longer before the vote. We have to make clear to our private supporters that we are not abandoning them, and that they play a crucial role in putting the heat on Congress earlier. Note: If we go public with our request early, we gain the advantage that this media campaign can be specific, not just generic.

CHAPTER 3. THE ENTERPRISE ASSUMES CONTROL OF CONTRA SUPPORT

3-1 Footnote 1

UNCLASSIFIED

The following information was provided to the Committee by General Richard V. Secord on August 18, 1987:

1. By the time of the meeting on or about July 1, 1985, at the Miami Airport Hotel, LtC North had repeatedly informed Secord that North was concerned that the Contras had not formed an effective air resupply program. North also stated that the FDN had a large surplus of arms and that the primary need was delivering the arms to the troops inside Nicaragua. North also told Secord that aerial resupply was the sine qua non for the existence of a Southern Force.

North explained that a Southern Force could not exist without aerial resupply and that the FDN did not have the capability to undertake it. Hence, during the July 1 meeting, the need for an airlift was the top priority and the establishment of a Southern Front coincident with such an airlift was also stressed.

2. In the summer of 1985, Secord agreed, following North's request, to create the airlift for both the FDN and the Southern Front. In the beginning of August, Secord held a series of planning sessions with North and others to determine how to conduct the resupply program. There were three steps necessary to establish an effective operation. First, a logistic organization consisting of aircraft, spare parts, maintenance, communications and trained personnel had to be set up. For that, Secord turned to Richard Gadd. The second task was to obtain a secure operating base from which the aircraft could launch their missions. For this, Quintero, on Secord's instructions, consulted with the Contra leaders.

[redacted] was initially considered to be the first choice. However, operating a major air resupply [redacted] would prove difficult at best. The runway, while long enough, was rough, undulating and poorly maintained, and sufficient fuel on site was not available. Quintero suggested [redacted] as a suitable alternative and Secord and North concurred. Lastly, Secord concluded that in order to establish a sustained air resupply operation on the Southern Front, an emergency airstrip stocked with a small amount of fuel was necessary as an abort base. Secord envisioned early on the possible use of C-7 and C-123 or similar aircraft, and particularly if these aircraft flew [redacted] where a flight could be as long as nine hours, Secord felt that some kind of abort base had to be set up to handle in-flight emergencies or damage from enemy action. And for the Southern Front, Costa Rica was the only location possible for this emergency landing field. When Secord discussed with North the idea of an emergency field, North immediately suggested Santa Elena in the northwest corner of Costa Rica, which had apparently been considered before by the United States Government for such an airstrip. North also thought that more than an emergency airfield could be established at Santa Elena and that Secord should aim to set up a secondary operating base for resupply to the Southern Front. Of course, the entire project had to remain officially secret, [REDACTED]

3. In or about November, 1985, Richard Gadd had located three C-123's belonging to the [REDACTED] for possible purchase. However, [REDACTED] would not sell the aircraft without some sign of official approval from the United States Government. Col. North told Secord that he had asked both Robert McFarlane and the State Department for assistance. Secord believes that North said that North had talked to Elliott Abrams about informing the [REDACTED] that the United States Government supported the sale of these aircraft to ACE. The deal was never ultimately consummated because final approval was not received from the [REDACTED]

4. From the conception of the air resupply operation in July, 1985, through January 1986, Col. North impressed upon Secord the fact that they were operating with donated funds that were strictly limited. Similarly, from February 1986 to October 1986 when some funding was derived from the Iranian operations, funds for the Contra program were limited since the Iranian operation had increasing financial obligations. Due to the limited nature of funds available, the criteria Secord imposed on the purchase of aircraft and other equipment was to purchase the least expensive available that could adequately perform the task. Secord informed his subordinates of this need for strict economy, including Richard Gadd and, after May 1, 1986, Robert Dutton. Secord and North both discussed the limited availability of funds. The L-100 and Casa 212 turbo jet propeller driven aircraft were discussed by North and Secord during the summer and fall of 1985 as more desirable aircraft for the resupply operation but were rejected because of their high cost. By the fall of 1985, the estimate Secord had made to Col. North of what it would cost to run the air resupply operation until summer 1986 was approximately $4 million.

5. In the spring and early summer of 1985, North had decided to furnish the FDN with arms and air support directly, rather than the funds needed to secure these goods and services. As a result of an agreement that was reached with Calero and Bermudez in July 1985 at Miami, air resupply was the highest priority. It was further understood that any arms furnished directly to FDN custody would also be made available to non-FDN Contra units fighting in the South. In December 1985 and in February 1986, two plane loads of arms were delivered to the FDN by North and Secord. However, the FDN only reluctantly made those and other arms available for air drop to the Southern insurgents. As a result, Secord decided (North was informed) that sufficient arms and other supplies for air drop would be stored [REDACTED] and dropped directly to the South.

6. During a meeting held on April 20, 1986, at [REDACTED] both Secord and North reiterated to Enrique Bermudez, [REDACTED] of the FDN the importance of the Southern Front and the difficulty of getting stocks out of the FDN, thus preparing the FDN for the future storage of Southern Front supplies directly [REDACTED]. The FDN leaders expressed their dissatisfaction with the C-7 aircraft. Secord told them they were suitable aircraft and that the FDN had to have pilots trained to fly at night. There was some misunderstanding as to whether the FDN were the legal owners of the aircraft but North and Secord said the aircraft belonged to a private company dedicated to support all the Contras, both the FDN and the Southern Front. Also discussed at the meeting was the possible purchase for the FDN of Blowpipe surface-to-air missiles. During the April 20 meeting, [REDACTED]

7. In early June 1986 Secord decided to purchase an additional $3+ million in arms for the FDN. The decision to purchase an additional shipload of arms for the FDN was taken after Quintero relayed information from the FDN that their stocks were getting low. Payments for hundreds of tons of East European weapons were made in three installments from June 20 to July 16, 1986. North was informed, and he agreed with this decision.

8. In late 1985 through the summer of 1986, Secord arranged, after coordination with Col. North and the Contra leadership for the purchase and delivery of the arms shipments described in this paragraph. In December 1985 a load of 85,000 pounds of arms that the FDN had earlier paid Energy Resources arrived in Central America for the FDN. This was the last delivery of arms that the Contras paid for. The remaining arms deliveries were all donated free of charge.

In January and February 1986, after Rafael Quintero had consulted with Enrique Bermudez and various individuals connected with the Southern Front, Secord arranged for a delivery to Central America on a 707 aircraft of approximately 90,000 pounds of arms (worth $504,000) to the FDN. The arms were destined for both the FDN and the Southern Forces. In late April and again in late May, over $1.3 million worth of arms were procured and donated by Secord. These arms were delivered to [REDACTED] for use by the Southern Front Forces.

This memorandum accurately sets forth the facts I relayed to the staff of the Committee on August 18, 1987, and is a true and complete statement of facts.

ACTION

MEMORANDUM FOR ROBERT C. MCFARLANE

N 16887

FROM:

OLIVER L. NORTH

SUBJECT:

Assistance for the Nicaraguan Resistance

In accord with prior understanding, I met on Wednesday, November 28, with [redacted] Defense Attache, Embassy of the [redacted] Gafton Sigur arranged the luncheon meeting at the Cosmos Club and was present throughout.

As agreed, I explained to [redacted] our purpose in the meeting was to clarify questions which had been raised in Canada regarding an arms transaction destined [redacted] I explained that an intermediary had advised that [redacted] apparently made a decision not to proceed with the Canadian-originated arms sale. This offer of purchase included 10 SA-7 missile launchers [redacted] 30 missiles, 1 training Unit, and 10 tracking units.

[redacted] professed to be unaware of the Canadian transaction. I advised him that the purchase was not really intended for use by [redacted] but rather for the Nicaraguan Resistance Forces. Further, the intermediary had indicated that the problem appeared to be the number [redacted] military officers who are graduates of the [redacted] As a consequence of the apparent reluctance to proceed with the sale showing [redacted] end user certificate, the Canadian arms dealer is preparing to re-initiate discussions for a similar delivery [redacted] was advised that the FDN would prefer to have the delivery as soon as possible, since the Soviet HIND-D helicopters were being assembled as we spoke.

[redacted] was further advised that Adolfo Calero, the Head of the FDN, was willing to commit to a recognition [redacted] once the Resistance Forces had succeeded. [redacted] indicated that he understood the message and would confer with the [redacted] He observed, for the record, that [redacted] refused to become involved, in any way, in the internal affairs of another country. I indicated that we fully appreciated this position and noted that it was too bad that the Soviets, Bulgarians, and East Germans involved in Nicaragua did not feel the same way.

Later that afternoon, MGEN Jack Singlaub (U.S. Army, Retired) visited to advise of two meetings he had held early in the day regarding support for the Resistance. Singlaub passed on the following points:

Meeting with [REDACTED]

- The FDN is in urgent need of anti-aircraft weapons and other crew-served weapons ammunition (particularly 60 and 81mm mortar rounds). Units in the field are also in need of large quantities of boots and clothing since the number of ralliers has exceeded expectations by 2,000.
- The Resistance Forces are also in urgent need of expertise in maritime operations.
- The USG is unaware of the Singlaub mission and he is making this request based on his long friendship. Because of the law restricting USG involvement, no USG official can solicit on behalf the Resistance Forces.
- If [REDACTED] like to help, Singlaub can arrange a meeting with Adolfo Calero. If it is necessary for a USG official to verify Calero's bona fides, this can be arranged.

Meeting with [REDACTED]

- By agreement with Calero, Singlaub advised [REDACTED] since [REDACTED] had turned down the earlier FDN request for assistance, the Resistance movement had approached [REDACTED].
- The Resistance still is in need of financial support, munitions, and training assistance.
- [REDACTED] this was a "considerably different situation" than that which he had been aware of earlier. While not committing to support, he noted to Singlaub that this new information might make a difference.

This weekend, at the request of Sec. John Lehman, I met with N 16888.
 David Walker, a former British SAS officer who now heads two companies (KMS and SALADIN) which provide professional security services to foreign governments. Walker had been approached several months ago, prior to initiating the current financial arrangement for the FDM. In addition to the security services provided by KMS, this offshore (Jersey Islands) company also has professional military "trainers" available. Walker suggested that he would be interested in establishing an arrangement with the FDM for certain special operations expertise aimed particularly at destroying HIND helicopters. Walker quite accurately points out that the helicopters are more easily destroyed on the ground than in the air. [REDACTED]

Unless otherwise directed, Walker will be introduced to Calero and efforts will be made to defray the cost of Walker's operations from other than Calero's limited assets. [REDACTED]

RE: REED; OLIVER ROBERT

Subject: Ray Goodman

Have sent a long PM to Ray to say re the current state of affairs. It goes to say that we are still waiting for the report on the 10 April. This date will slip a day for each day of delay in making the requested deposit for the items requested. I am not as hopeful in view of Libyan actions. Even believes that there is a significant internal debate going on inside on what they should do and we are all concerned that there may be a chance that they could help the get their hands on the other hostages. But a good day.

Also set a good weekend. Want to write to try and reassure our friends -- both yours and resistance that we would get funding, then the Congress. In the four years I have been waiting this effort, it was the most depressing session to date. There is great despair that we may fail in this effort and the resistance support act. In despair most broke. Ray thought where we can put our hands on a quick $2-3M dollars in going back to his friends who have given $2M so far to help that we can bridge things again, but time is running out along w/ the money. So far we have done 4/24 sending, have delivered over $10M in supplies and equipment but the pot is almost empty. Have told Nick

THANK YOU AND GOOD EVENING. IT'S AN HONOR TO SPEAK TODAY BEFORE THE MEMBERS AND GUESTS OF THE GEORGETOWN UNIVERSITY CENTER FOR STRATEGIC AND INTERNATIONAL STUDIES -- AN INSTITUTION WHOSE WORK SO DIRECTLY AFFECTS THE SECURITY OF OUR NATION. I WANT TO COMMEND YOUR FOUNDERS, ADMIRAL (ARE-LEE) BURKE AND AMBASSADOR DAVID ABSHIRE, AND YOUR PRESIDENT AND CHIEF EXECUTIVE OFFICER, JOE JORDAN, FOR ALL THEY HAVE DONE TO MAKE THIS INSTITUTION SO WORTHY OF RESPECT. PERMIT ME TO COMMEND, AS WELL, THOSE OF YOU PRESENT TODAY FROM THE PRIVATE SECTOR, IN SUPPORTING C.S.I.S., YOU DO YOURSELVES AND OUR NATION A SERVICE.

CONGRATULATIONS, MY FRIEND.

THIS EVENING I WOULD LIKE TO SPEAK
BRIEFLY ON A MATTER OF CENTRAL IMPORTANCE TO THE SECURITY OF OUR NATION AND

BUT IN THE COMPLEX OF POLITICS -- IN THE MIDST OF ALL THE TWISTINGS AND TURNINGS -- ONE CAN SOMETIMES DISCERN A MOMENT OF IMPENDING DECISION, A MOMENT TO REDUCE THE ISSUE AT HAND TO THE PLAIN FACTS AND SUBMIT, IF YOU WILL, THE CLOSING ARGUMENT. WITH YOUR PERMISSION; I WOULD LIKE TO SUBMIT THAT ARGUMENT THIS EVENING, BEFORE YOU AND THE NATION.

AFTER THE NEARLY 7 YEARS DURING WHICH THE NICARAGUAN COMMUNISTS HAVE HELD POWER, THERE CAN NO LONGER BE ANY LEGITIMATE DOUBT ABOUT THE NATURE OF THEIR REGIME. THERE IS A BRAVE MAN IN NICARAGUA, A MAN WHO COURAGEOUSLY OPPOSED THE SOMOZA DICTATORSHIP.

NONE OF THIS IS TRUE OF A GOVERNMENT THAT HAS THE SYMPATHY AND GENERAL SUPPORT OF THE PEOPLE." I MIGHT ADD THAT NOT LONG AFTER CARDINAL OBANDO Y BRAVO WROTE THAT STATEMENT FOR THE WASHINGTON POST, THE SANDINISTA REGIME CUT OFF ELECTRICITY TO HIS OFFICE -- ONE MORE ACT OF HARASSMENT AMONG MANY SCORES OF SUCH ACTS VISITED UPON HIM.

IN FULL KNOWLEDGE, THE MEMBERS OF THE RESISTANCE HAVE CHOSEN TO SEPARATE THEMSELVES FROM THEIR FAMILIES AND HOMES; TO LIVE IN CONDITIONS OF IMMENSE HARDSHIP, OFTEN WITH SCANT WATER AND FOOD, AND TO EXPOSE THEMSELVES TO THE DANGERS OF BATTLE. THEY FIGHT TO LIBERATE THEIR COUNTRY FROM A REGIME LOYAL ONLY TO COMMUNIST POWERS. THEY FIGHT FOR FREEDOM.

AND LET NO ONE FORGET THE PHOTOGRAPH OF LIBYA'S QADHAFI AND THE SANDINISTAS' ORTEGA -- THERE THEY STAND, THEIR FISTS CLENCHED IN A SALUTE OF SOLIDARITY.

THE COMMUNISTS HAVE MADE THEIR DECISION; THE RESISTANCE HAS MADE ITS DECISION. NOW WE MUST MAKE OURS. THE CHOICE IS STARK; THE CHOICE IS UNAVOIDABLE. WE CAN HELP OUR NEIGHBORS IN THEIR STRUGGLE FOR FREEDOM. OR, BY DOING NOTHING, WE CAN ABANDON THEM TO A COMMUNIST DICTATORSHIP.

OVER 3 MONTHS AGO, I SUBMITTED TO THE CONGRESS A PLAN TO PROVIDE THE RESISTANCE FORCES OF NICARAGUA WITH $100 MILLION IN URGENTLY NEEDED SUPPORT. MORE THAN 2 MONTHS AGO, THE SENATE APPROVED THE PLAN. NOW AT LAST A NEW VOTE IN THE HOUSE IS SCHEDULED TO TAKE PLACE. I WANT THE HOUSE -- I WANT THE COUNTRY -- TO KNOW HOW MUCH IS RIDING ON THIS DECISION.

IF THE HOUSE CHOOSES TO DENY TO THE NICARAGUAN RESISTANCE THE HELP IT NEEDS AND DESERVES, THIS WILL IN EFFECT GRANT PERMISSION TO THE SANDINISTAS TO IGNORE ANY NEGOTIATED SETTLEMENT AND PURSUE A MILITARY VICTORY INSTEAD.

THE FINAL OUTCOME IS ONLY TOO PREDICTABLE. BACKED BY A STEADY SUPPLY OF ARMS FROM THE SOVIETS AND CUBANS, THE SANDINISTAS WILL BE ABLE TO PIN DOWN THE FREEDOM FIGHTERS, SURROUND THEM, AND, IN TIME, CRUSH THEM.

WHATEVER IS LEFT OF FREE INSTITUTIONS IN NICARAGUA WILL BE UTTERLY DESTROYED, AND UPON THE RUINS OF NICARAGUA'S BEST YEARNINGS AND ASPIRATIONS, UPON THE MUTILATED HOPES OF HER PEOPLE, A SECOND CUBA -- INDEED A SECOND LIBYA -- WILL HAVE BEEN RUTHLESSLY BUILT. WE CAN BE CERTAIN THAT TENS OF THOUSANDS OF NICARAGUAN REFUGEES WILL SEEK TO INUNDATE OUR SOUTHERN STATES. MORE THAN A QUARTER OF A MILLION NICARAGUANS -- NEARLY 10 PERCENT OF THE ENTIRE POPULATION -- HAVE ALREADY FLED THE COUNTRY.

BUT NONE OF THIS NEED TAKE PLACE. IF THE HOUSE VOTES TO GIVE THE NICARAGUAN RESISTANCE THE SUPPORT WE HAVE PROPOSED, DEMOCRACY IN THAT NATION CAN BE GIVEN A CHANCE. AGAIN AND AGAIN, THE FREEDOM FIGHTERS HAVE PROVEN THEIR COMMITMENT TO JUST THIS HOPE. LAST MONTH THEY TOOK STEPS TO BROADEN THEIR POLITICAL BASE AND INCREASE THEIR SUPPORT AMONG THE NICARAGUAN PEOPLE.

WITH ADEQUATE TRAINING AND SUPPLIES, THEY COULD MOBILIZE THE OPPRESSED PEOPLE OF THEIR COUNTRY AND WIN UNTOLD NEW RECRUITS -- IF ONLY THE HOUSE VOTES "YES."

OUR GOAL IS NOT, REPEAT NOT, A MILITARY SOLUTION. INSTEAD, WE SEEK TO HELP THE FREEDOM FIGHTERS ACHIEVE ONLY THE LEVERAGE THEY NEED TO BRING THE COMMUNISTS TO THE TABLE AND NEGOTIATE A POLITICAL -- AND DEMOCRATIC -- SOLUTION. THREE TIMES, THE RESISTANCE HAS ALREADY OFFERED TO PUT DOWN ITS ARMS AND GO TO THE TABLE. THREE TIMES, THE COMMUNISTS HAVE SAID "NO." THE CATHOLIC CHURCH IN NICARAGUA SUPPORTS AN INTERNAL RECONCILIATION AIMED AT ACHIEVING DEMOCRACY. THE COMMUNISTS HAVE REJECTED THIS PLAN. THE CONTADORA NATIONS HAVE BACKED A NEGOTIATED PEACE, BASED, AGAIN, UPON INTERNAL RECONCILIATION AND DEMOCRACY.

THE SANDINISTAS HAVE REFUSED TO GRANT THESE PROPOSALS SERIOUS CONSIDERATION.

THE COMMUNISTS ARE INTRANSIGENT BECAUSE THEY BELIEVE THEY CAN AFFORD TO BE. EACH DAY THE MILITARY SITUATION IN NICARAGUA TWISTS ANOTHER DANGEROUS DEGREE IN FAVOR OF THE COMMUNISTS. IN THE MONTHS SINCE WE MADE OUR INITIAL REQUEST FOR ASSISTANCE, SOVIET-SUPPLIED WEAPONS IN NICARAGUA HAVE MOUNTED, CENSORSHIP AND OTHER HUMAN RIGHTS VIOLATIONS HAVE INCREASED, AND HUMAN SUFFERING HAS GROWN. NOW, THOSE WHO OPPOSE AID MUST ASK SEARCHING AND PAINFUL QUESTIONS. CAN WE BEAR RESPONSIBILITY FOR SUCH ANGUISH? CAN WE PERMIT OURSELVES TO ACQUIESCE IN THE SANDINISTA TACTIC OF DELAY, DELAY, DELAY?

AGAIN I MUST REPEAT: THERE IS HOPE. JUST 10 YEARS AGO, LESS THAN ONE-THIRD OF THE PEOPLE OF LATIN AMERICA LIVED IN DEMOCRACIES.

UNCLASSIFIED

TODAY THAT FIGURE IS 90 PERCENT. MANY HAD WRITTEN OFF EL SALVADOR. OTHERS CLAIMED THERE WAS NO HOPE IN HONDURAS AND GUATEMALA. TODAY, THOSE NATIONS HAVE THEIR FREEDOM -- TODAY DEMOCRACY IN LATIN AMERICA CONSTITUTES A SWELLING AND LIFE-GIVING TIDE. IT CAN STILL FLOOD ITS POWERFUL, CLEANSING WAY INTO NICARAGUA -- THE COMMUNIST WALL AGAINST IT IS HIGH, BUT NOT YET TOO HIGH -- IF ONLY THE HOUSE TAKES ACTION.

I APPEAL HERE TO DEMOCRATS AND REPUBLICANS ALIKE, THE ISSUE IS HUMAN FREEDOM -- IT TOWERS ABOVE ALL PARTISAN CONCERNS.

WHAT IT COMES DOWN TO IN THE END IS THE MATTER OF WITNESS -- OF CHOOSING WHETHER TO BELIEVE THOSE WHOM WE KNOW TO BE PROVIDING US WITH ACCURATE REPORTS ABOUT NICARAGUA OR TO LISTEN INSTEAD TO THE WHISPERING VOICES WITHIN OUR OWN MINDS THAT SAY THERE IS NO TROUBLE THERE, NOT BECAUSE THAT IS THE TRUTH, BUT BECAUSE WE DO NOT CARE TO BE INCONVENIENCED BY THE NEED TO RISK ACTION.

ONCE AGAIN THAT GOOD MAN CARDINAL OBANDO Y BRAVO -- THAT FOE OF TYRANNY, WHETHER SOMOZA'S OR THE SANDINISTAS' -- HAS PUT THE CASE BEFORE US. HE WRITES TO THE EDITOR OF THE WASHINGTON POST:

"YOUR MESSAGE ASKING ME FOR AN ARTICLE ARRIVED ON SUNDAY...JUST AS I FINISHED CELEBRATING MASS.... DURING THE MASS, I READ THE PASTORAL LETTER WHICH WE, THE BISHOPS OF NICARAGUA, HAD WRITTEN FOR HOLY WEEK.

THE CARDINAL GOES ON TO RELATE THAT CHURCH OFFICES HAD BEEN APPROPRIATED BY GOVERNMENT ORDER, THAT A CHURCH PRINTING PRESS HAD BEEN CONFISCATED BY THE STATE SECURITY POLICE, THAT THE GOVERNMENT HAD SHUT DOWN "RADIO CATOLICA," THE ONLY CATHOLIC RADIO STATION, AND THAT EVEN THE SUNDAY BULLETIN, WITH THE PRAYERS AND TEXTS FOR THE DAY, HAD BEEN CONFISCATED.

"IT WAS AT THIS POINT," THE CARDINAL WRITES, "WHEN THE CHURCH WAS GAGGED AND BOUND, THAT YOUR REQUEST ARRIVED. THE READING FOR THE DAY...PRICKED MY CONSCIENCE.

WHAT IT COMES DOWN TO IN THE END IS THE MATTER OF WITNESS -- OF CHOOSING WHETHER TO BELIEVE THOSE WHOM WE KNOW TO BE PROVIDING US WITH ACCURATE REPORTS ABOUT NICARAGUA OR TO LISTEN INSTEAD TO THE WHISPERING VOICES WITHIN OUR OWN MINDS THAT SAY THERE IS NO TROUBLE THERE, NOT BECAUSE THAT IS THE TRUTH, BUT BECAUSE WE DO NOT CARE TO BE INCONVENIENCED BY THE NEED TO RISK ACTION.

ONCE AGAIN THAT GOOD MAN CARDINAL OBANDO Y BRAVO -- THAT FOE OF TYRANNY, WHETHER SOMOZA'S OR THE SANDINISTAS' -- HAS PUT THE CASE BEFORE US. HE WRITES TO THE EDITOR OF THE WASHINGTON POST:

"YOUR MESSAGE ASKING ME FOR AN ARTICLE ARRIVED ON SUNDAY...JUST AS I FINISHED CELEBRATING MASS.... DURING THE MASS, I READ THE PASTORAL LETTER WHICH WE, THE BISHOPS OF NICARAGUA, HAD WRITTEN FOR HOLY WEEK.

THE CARDINAL GOES ON TO RELATE THAT CHURCH OFFICES HAD BEEN APPROPRIATED BY GOVERNMENT ORDER, THAT A CHURCH PRINTING PRESS HAD BEEN CONFISCATED BY THE STATE SECURITY POLICE, THAT THE GOVERNMENT HAD SHUT DOWN "RADIO CATOLICA," THE ONLY CATHOLIC RADIO STATION, AND THAT EVEN THE SUNDAY BULLETIN, WITH THE PRAYERS AND TEXTS FOR THE DAY, HAD BEEN CONFISCATED.

"IT WAS AT THIS POINT," THE CARDINAL WRITES, "WHEN THE CHURCH WAS GAGGED AND BOUND, THAT YOUR REQUEST ARRIVED. THE READING FOR THE DAY...PRICKED MY CONSCIENCE.

MY FRIENDS, LET US GIVE HEED TO THOSE IN NICARAGUA WHO, LIKE CARDINAL

TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN:

The schedule proposal of April 16, 1986 and the briefing memorandum of April 30, 1986, both relate to a 15-minute meeting held on May 1, 1986 with the Vice President. Four points should be made about these documents:

1. I had nothing to do with their preparation and did not see them until a document search was initiated in December, 1986.
2. I cannot account for the fact that the purpose of this meeting, according to these documents, was to discuss resupply of the Contras in addition to the war in El Salvador.
3. The subject of resupply of the Contras was not, repeat not, mentioned at all by anyone in the meeting with the Vice President on May 1, nor had there been any intention to discuss that subject.
4. Since I realized these documents were anomalous, I highlighted their existence in an interview with the staff of the House Permanent Select Committee on Intelligence held on December 17, 1986. Mike O'Neill was one of the staffers present.

PRESIDENTIAL STATEMENT: VICTORY OF CONTRA AID LEGISLATION
WEDNESDAY, JUNE 25, 1986

The vote today in the House of Representatives signals a new era of bipartisan consensus in American foreign policy. I want to congratulate all those who voted to restore this spirit of bipartisan cooperation on foreign policy issues, a spirit that has served America so well through the perils of the postwar era. Once again, members of both parties stand united in resisting totalitarian expansionism and promoting the cause of democracy.

As we approach the celebrations of our own Independence Day, we can be proud that we as a people have embraced the struggle of the freedom fighters of Nicaragua. Today, their cause is our cause. With our help, the people of Nicaragua will win their struggle to bring democracy to their land, remove the threat to Mexico and our own southern borders and restore again the prospects of peace -- and the chance for a better future -- to our hemisphere.

The cause is freedom, the cause is just, the cause will triumph.

Again my thanks to all those who labored so hard on this legislation.

10:45 a.m.PRESIDENTIAL STATEMENT: DEFEAT OF CONTRA AID LEGISLATION
WEDNESDAY, JUNE 25, 1986

The vote today in the House is a setback for peace and democracy in Central America. As I said yesterday in my speech to the Members of the House and the American people, delay is exceedingly costly. While we stand locked in debate, hope for freedom and democracy in Nicaragua is jeopardized, and the Soviets pursue their strategy to turn that country into a staging base for Communist terror and subversion throughout the Americas.

I want to emphasize to our supporters in the House, and in the Senate, and to the freedom fighters most of all: This setback is only a setback, this is not the end. We will never stop, never slacken in our support of the freedom fighters, until democracy triumphs in Nicaragua, and peace comes to Central America. I am confident of freedom's final victory in Nicaragua.

We must not deceive ourselves: the danger to our south will not vanish if we close our eyes; it will only get worse, much worse. Nicaragua is another Cuba on the American mainland, the leading wedge in an effort to destabilize our democratic friends and neighbors.

I hope that as this bill proceeds to conference, the House conferees will keep one thing foremost in their minds -- the grave threat posed by the Sandinista regime to the case of human rights, economic development, and peace in Central America. As we enter the conference, we must leave our partisan differences outside the door. On this issue we must not be Democrats or Republicans, just Americans, united in our commitment to freedom and our overriding concern for the national security of the United States.

I call on Democrats and Republicans alike to join in the support of freedom and peace in Central America, to come together to re-establish the bipartisan consensus in American foreign policy -- a consensus that has served us so well in this post-war era.

The cause is freedom. The cause is just. The cause will triumph.

HAVE JUST COMPLETED LONG DISTANCE DISCUSSION WI OWNERS AND HAVE CONVINCED THEM TO LEAVE C-123 AT YOUR LOCATION AS THERE MAY BE MORE WORK THAN EXPECTED ESPECIALLY IF WE HAVE TO FIX THE NO. 1 C-7. IT IS EVERYONES INTENT TO CONTINUE SUPPORT FOR THE EFFORT. MAX IS CENTRAL PROBLEM. HE CLAIMS A/C ARE CONTRA NOT INDEPENDENT COMPANYS. MAX CLAIMS WE ARE TRYING TO CUT AND RUN WITH CONTRA A/C. THIS IS NOT TRUE. WE ARE NOT RUNNING AND A/C TITLED TO COMPANY OWNED IN PANAMA--NOT CONTRAS. MAX IS TRYING TO BLACKMAIL US BY THREATENING THAT [REDACTED] WILL REVEAL THE OPERATION, WILL CHARGE 500,000 DOLLARS LANDING FEES, ETC. MAX HAS BEEN AND CONTINUES TO BE BIG SECURITY THREAT. FYI. MEETING WITH RAPHAEL HAS DISCLOSED A MAJOR DEFICIENCY IN THE OVERALL COORDINATION OF DROPS TO THE SOUTH. 1. TRANSMISSION OF REQUIREMENTS. COORDINATES ETC. PASSES THROUGH THREE STATIONS BEFORE REACHING US. THIS HAS CAUSED US TO ASK FOR CONFIRMATION OF TIMES OVER DZ ETC. NUMBERS HAVE BEEN CHANGED IN RETRANSMISSION. THIS WAS CONFIRMED BY RAPHAEL WITH HIS COPIES OF THE DISPATCHES. 2. WE HAVE TENTATIVELY RESOLVED THE PROBLEM BY HAVING [REDACTED] PASS THE REQUIREMENT TO FDN HQS AND THEN TO US. 3. WE STRONGLY SUGGEST THAT WE HANDLE THE REQUIREMENT IN THE FOLLOWING MANNER. 4. OUR ARRIVAL OVER THE DZ-THE INITIAL DROP-SHOULD BE JUST AT DUSK-DARKNESS OCCURS ABOUT 1745-THIS ALLOWS A GOOD VISUAL SIGHTING OF DZ. IF THE DROP ZONE IS SECURE-SUBSEQUENT DROPS WOULD BE MADE SPORADICALLY WITHOUT FANFARE. I.E. NO COMMUNICATION BETWEEN A/C AND GROUND. DURING THE TIME IN THE AREA. THIS METHOD PROVED SATISFACTORY WITH THE PREVIOUS 800 DROPS. [REDACTED] INDICATES HIS PEOPLE AGREE-THROUGH RAPHAEL-PREVIOUS DROPS HAVE IN THIS MANNER RESULTED ONLY IN THE LOSS OF ONE BUNDLE. THIS RANDOM METHOD WOULD CONTINUE AS LONG AS THE DZ IS SECURE OR THEY HAVE MOVED TO ANOTHER LOCATION. 5. AFTERNOON ARRIVAL ALLOWS LOW LEVEL FLYING FOR RADAR AVOIDANCE AND ENTRY INTO DZ AREA WOULD RESULT IN MINIMUM REACTION TIME IF ANY. 6. RAPHAEL GENERALLY AGREES WITH PROCEDURE. BT. FROM MAC.. THIS MSG JUST IN FROM STEELE. LOOKS LIKE HE AND [REDACTED] WORKING WELL TOGETHER. NEED TO ENCOURAGE [REDACTED] CONTINUED INVOLVMENT. BEGIN TENT. DISCUSSED OPERATIONAL PROBLEMS WITH JOHN THIS AM. CONCUR THAT MISSION PLANNING IS NOT TAKING INTO ACCOUNT CREW INPUT, PARTICULARLY AS IT RELATES TO WEATHER AND TERRAIN. ALL THINGS CONSIDERED I AGREE THAT A DUSK DROP MAKES SENSE AS LONG AS WE DONT SET A PATTERN. ALL NIGHT DROPS WILL INVOLVE IR BEACON OR PARACHUTE FLARES BY GROUND PERSONNEL THERE IS WAY TOO MUCH USE OF THE RADIO. I ALSO PREFER TO HAVE CREW SELECT DZ WHENEVER FEASIBLE AS WELL AS TIME AND THEN NOTIFY GROUND ELEMENTS AT THE LAST MOMENT OR AFTER THE FACT. THIS PRESUMES THAT WE KNOW THE GENERAL AREA THAT THE FREEDOM FIGHTERS CONTROL ON THE GROUND. FLYING VERY LOW AT NIGHT GIVEN THE TERRAIN, WEATHER AND AIRCRAFT LIMITATIONS APPEARS HIGH RISK. THEREFORE NIGHT DROPS SHOULD BE DONE AT A HIGHER ALTITUDE. THIS SHOULD BE NO PROBLEM WITH IR STROBE OR FLARES. PLAN TO INCLUDE THESE ITEMS IN THE NEXT DROP. JIM.

101430Z AUG 86 FFM MAC. REF YOUR DISCUSSION W/ DICK LAST WEEK. IN MY TALK WITH STEELE LAST WEEK, I REQUESTED THAT HE MAKE THE SITUATION CLEAR TO [REDACTED] AS TO THE OWNERSHIP OF THE AIR ASSETS AND ASSOCIATED EQUIP. HE WAS TO INFORM HIM THAT WHILE THE ASSETS WERE MADE AVAILABLE TO THE CAUSE, THEY BELONGED TO A PANAMA BASED COMPANY AND THAT UPON COMPLETION OF THEIR SUPPORT WORK HERE THEY WERE TO BE RETURNED TO THAT COMPANY FOR FUTURE DISPOSITION. STEELE FELT THAT HE WOULD HAVE TROUBLE GETTING [REDACTED] TO ACCEPT THIS UNTIL HE COULD SEE WHAT TYPE OF SUPPORT WAS COMING IN TO REPLACE US. THIS MATCHES WHAT DICK SAID TO YOU ABOUT GETTING A FIRM PLAN FROM THE CIA AS TO THEIR PROGRAM FOR AIR SUPPORT. THIS WE MUST GET ASAP AND PASS TO STEELE TO PAVE THE WAY FOR OUR DEPARTURE. IF WE DONT GET IT, OUR WITHDRAWAL COULD BE A MESSY AFFAIR. SUGGEST YOU TALK TO STEELE AND CONFIRM THAT WE ARE GOING AFTER THE CIA PLAN AND WILL ADVISE HIM ASAP. BOB ST.

NOTE FROM: OLIVER MORIN

Subject: Public Affairs Campaign on Central America

Elliott Abrams has just called from New York, followed by an urgent call from [redacted] Last night Costa Rican Interior Minister Carion held a press conference in San Jose and announced that Costa Rican authorities had discovered a secret airstrip in Costa Rica that was over a mile long and which had been built and used by a Co. called Wall Services for supporting the Contras. In the press conference the minister named one of Wall's agents (classified) as the man who set up the field as a "training base for S.S. Military Advisors." Bridge assessment: Wall Resources, Inc., S.A. is a proprietary of Project Democracy. It will cease to exist by soon today. There are no USC fingerprints on any of the operation and Olstead is not the name of the agent - Olstead does not exist.

We have moved all Wall resources (back) to another account in Panama, where Wall maintained an answering service and cover office. The office is now gone as are all files and paperwork. The bottomline is that [redacted]

[redacted] Elliott has said (at least) he and the Secretary [redacted]

 NATIONAL ENDOWMENT FOR THE PRESERVATION OF LIBERTY

Part III - Item 3

The specific purpose for which National Endowment for the Preservation of Liberty was formed is to educate members of the general public on American political systems and societal institutions. This purpose is to be accomplished through analyses, study and research into the historical development and evolution of American political systems and the influence such systems have had on societal institutions in the United States. In furtherance of this purpose, National Endowment for the Preservation of Liberty will collate and disseminate information on American political systems in general, and the interrelationship between such systems and societal institutions.

Organized in the belief that a better understanding and appreciation of the interrelationship between American political systems and institutions will assist in predicting trends and developments in each of these areas, National Endowment for the Preservation of Liberty will make available understandable and informative material designed to educate citizens on the historical developments and evolution of such systems and institutions. This will be done through an interdisciplinary approach by research and study into such disciplines as history, sociology and politics. National Endowment for the Preservation of Liberty will focus particular attention on the interrelationship of American political systems and societal institutions by analyzing the evolution and developments of each and the influence or effect such developments have had upon the other. It is intended that this research shall result in a better understanding and appreciation for the interrelationship between such systems and institutions and be of assistance to those who evaluate or forecast trends and developments in these areas.

In the area of obtaining information, National Endowment for the Preservation of Liberty will review and catalog speeches, books, articles, publications and other writings in the general area of American political systems and societal institutions and specific aspects within that sphere that focus on the interrelationship between the two. Additionally, National Endowment for the Preservation of Liberty will solicit opinions, information and positions from politicians, scholars, columnists, political activists and other interested persons on the evolution, development and trends within our political systems. From time to time, National Endowment for the Preservation of Liberty will assist financially in the publication of books, articles, studies and other materials by respected authors and organizations interested in political theory. National Endowment for the Preservation of Liberty will cooperate and coordinate its activities with groups having similar objectives and lend its resources and facilities to interested scholars, political theorists and other individuals concerned with American political systems and societal institutions.

National Endowment for the Preservation of Liberty research and interpretations will be conducted by experts in their respective fields. Coordination for various projects, including the dissemination of information, will be handled through a professional staff in the office of the Corporation. All information gathered by National Endowment for the Preservation of Liberty, such as research data, book reviews, articles, writings and publications, will be made available for public review. The Corporation will regularly mail newsletters, studies, publications, research and data to colleges, universities and other educational institutions in an effort to increase the public interest in and appreciation of American political systems and societal institutions. Ultimately, the Corporation plans to publish a series of booklets on various subjects of American history and a pamphlet on new political thought, which will be made available to the general public and contain articles and other information and materials relevant to its purposes.

The Corporation will also actively solicit invitations from experts and spokesmen to address gatherings, conventions, colleges, universities and other interested groups. The Corporation will recruit, advertise and schedule its spokesmen, thus enabling the organization to provide intelligent, articulate spokesmen to any interested group. Ultimately, National Endowment for the Preservation of Liberty plans to conduct a series of seminars discussing questions of long-term interest to Americans, seminar subjects currently under consideration by the Corporation are the political and societal institutions in the Soviet Union and the People's Republic of China in comparison to such American systems and institutions, and a seminar devoted to new political currents in America.

Whatever the contents of any publication, article or writing consists of, it is submitted that the content will be educational. An analysis of the evolution and developments of American political systems and societal institutions, can best be achieved through the written word, providing the reader with an opportunity of studying the various theories at leisure.

The materials to be published will be prepared by individuals who are experienced and knowledgeable in the particular aspect of political systems and the issues being addressed therein. As such, the information contained therein will be readable and articulate. The Corporation will assure papers, prepared by responsible educators, scholars and other interested persons will be published as submitted to National Endowment for the Preservation of Liberty and without editorial comment.

Dear Applicant:

Based on information supplied, and assuming your operations will be as stated in your application for recognition of exemption, we have determined you are exempt from Federal income tax under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code.

Because you are a newly created organization, we are not now making a final determination of your foundation status under section 509(a) of the Code. However, we have determined that you can reasonably be expected to be a publicly supported organization described in section 509(b)(1).

Accordingly, you will be treated as a publicly supported organization, and not as a private foundation, during an advance ruling period. This advance ruling period begins on the date of your inception and ends on the date shown above.

Within 90 days after the end of your advance ruling period, you must submit to us information needed to determine whether you have met the requirements of the applicable support test during the advance ruling period. If you establish that you have been a publicly supported organization, you will be classified as a section 509(b)(1) or 509(b)(2) organization as long as you continue to meet the requirements of the applicable support test. If you do not meet the public support requirements during the advance ruling period, you will be classified as a private foundation for future periods. Also, if you are classified as a private foundation, you will be treated as a private foundation from the date of your inception for purposes of sections 509(d) and 5040.

Grantors and donors may rely on the determination that you are not a private foundation until 90 days after the end of your advance ruling period. If you submit the required information within the 90 days, grantors and donors may continue to rely on the advance determination until the Service makes a final determination of your foundation status. However, if notice that you will no longer be treated as a section 509(b)(1) or (2) organization is published in the Internal Revenue Bulletin, grantors and donors may not rely on this determination after the date of such publication. Also, a grantor or donor may not rely on this determination if he or she was in part responsible for, or was aware of, the act or failure to act that resulted in your loss of section 509(b)(1) or (2) status, or acquired knowledge that the Internal Revenue Service had given notice that you would be removed from classification as a section 509(b)(1) or (2) organization.

If your sources of support, or your purposes, character, or method of operation change, please let us know so we can consider the effect of the change on your exempt status and foundation status. Also, you should inform us of all changes in your name or address.

As of January 1, 1966, you are liable for taxes under the Federal Insurance Contributions Act (social security taxes) on remuneration of $100 or more you pay to each of your employees during a calendar year. You are not liable for the tax imposed under the Federal Unemployment Tax Act (FUTA).

Organizations that are not private foundations are not subject to the excise taxes under Chapter 48 of the Code. However, you are not automatically exempt from other Federal excise taxes. If you have any questions about excise, employment, or other Federal taxes, please let us know.

Donors may deduct contributions to you as provided in section 170 of the Code. Bequests, legacies, devises, transfers, or gifts to you or for your use are deductible for Federal estate and gift tax purposes if they meet the applicable provisions of sections 2055, 2106, and 2522 of the Code.

You are required to file Form 990, Return of Organization Exempt from Income Tax, only if your gross receipts each year are normally more than $25,000. If a return is required, it must be filed by the 15th day of the fifth month after the end of your annual accounting period. The law imposes a penalty of $50 a day, up to a maximum of $5,000, when a return is filed late, unless there is reasonable cause for the delay.

You are not required to file Federal income tax returns unless you are subject to the tax on unrelated business income under section 513 of the Code. If you are subject to this tax, you must file an income tax return on Form 990-E, Return of Organization Exempt from Income Tax. In this letter, we are not determining whether any of your present or proposed activities are unrelated trade or business as defined in section 513 of the Code.

You need an employer identification number even if you have no employees. If an employer identification number was not entered on your application, a number will be assigned to you and you will be advised of it. Please use that number on all returns you file and in all correspondence with the Internal Revenue Service.

Because this letter could help resolve any questions about your exempt status and foundation status, you should keep it in your permanent records.

If you have any questions, please contact the person whose name and telephone number are shown in the heading of this letter.

Sincerely yours,

The Honorable Jack Brooks
Chairman, Committee on Government Operations
House of Representatives

The Honorable Dante B. Fascell
Chairman, Committee on Foreign Affairs
House of Representatives

Dear Mr. Chairman:

This responds to your joint letter of March 31, 1987, requesting this Office to conduct an investigation and render a legal opinion on the legality and propriety of certain activities of the Office for Public Diplomacy for Latin America and the Caribbean (S/LPD) of the Department of State. Subsequent discussion with your staff limited the scope of the legal opinion to the issues of alleged lobbying and the development and dissemination of propaganda from 1984 to the present.

We conducted a review to develop the facts regarding the lobbying and propaganda issues, which consisted of interviews of knowledgeable individuals and a search of the S/LPD files. As a result of our review, we conclude that S/LPD's activities involving the preparation and dissemination of certain types of information violated a restriction on the use of appropriated funds for publicity or propaganda purposes not authorized by the Congress. We do not believe, however, that available evidence will support a conclusion that the applicable antilobbying statute has been violated. We are presently continuing a review of certain other S/LPD activities, and will keep you informed of our progress on a periodic basis.

THE PROPAGANDA ISSUE

According to Ambassador Otto J. Reich, who directed S/LPD from 1983 until 1986, the Office of Public Diplomacy for Latin America and the Caribbean was established within the Office of the Secretary of State in 1983 to engage in a campaign to influence the public and the Congress to support increased funding for the Administration's Central American policy. In pursuit of its public diplomacy mission, S/LPD used its own staff, and let a number of contracts with:

4472

UNCLASSIFIED

outside writers, for articles, editorials and op-ed pieces in support of the Administration's position. Generally, S/LPD employed direct and overt methods in using the media to favorably influence the public to support the Administration's Central American Policy. However, information developed during the course of our investigation demonstrates that, on occasion, S/LPD also arranged for the publication of articles which purportedly had been prepared by, and reflected the views of, persons not associated with the government but which, in fact, had been prepared at the request of government officials and partially or wholly paid for with government funds.

For example, S/LPD arranged for a university professor, who was also paid as a consultant to S/LPD, to write a newspaper article in support of the Administration's Central America policy without alerting readers or, apparently, the newspaper that the government was involved. S/LPD described this technique in a March 12, 1985, internal memorandum to another Department of State office. Attached to that memorandum was an op-ed article entitled "Nicaragua is Armed for Trouble," which was ostensibly written exclusively by Professor John Guilmartin of Rice University, and published in the March 11, 1985 issue of the Wall Street Journal. The memorandum states that "Professor Guilmartin, who is a consultant to our office, and the Public Diplomacy staff worked extensively on this piece." However, the published article lists the author solely as John F. Guilmartin, Jr. and describes him as follows:

"Mr. Guilmartin is adjunct professor of history at Rice University in Houston. He was formerly a lieutenant colonel in the U.S. Air Force and editor of the Air University Review."

The Guilmartin article was one of five "white propaganda" operations described in a March 13, 1985, memorandum from S/LPD to the Assistant to the President and Director of Communications. The memorandum stated the following about the article:

"Attached is a copy of an op-ed piece that ran two days ago in The Wall Street Journal. Professor Guilmartin has been a consultant to our office and collaborated with our staff in the writing of this piece. It is devastating in its analysis of the Nicaraguan arms build-up. Officially, this office had no role in its preparation."

UNCLASSIFIED

S 11651

The memorandum also described as follows the use of consultants to write op-ed pieces for Nicaraguan opposition leaders:

"Two op-ed pieces, one for The Washington Post and one for The New York Times, are being prepared for the signatures of opposition leaders Alphonso Rubello, Adolpho Callero and Arturo Cruz. These two op-ed pieces are being prepared by one of our consultants and will serve as a reply to the outrageous op-ed piece by Daniel Ortega in today's New York Times."

A third item in the memorandum describes the use of a "cut-out" to arrange visits to various news media by a Nicaraguan opposition leader. Although the term is not defined, it appears to reflect an intention to hide the fact that the opposition leader's visits were being arranged by the government. The closing paragraph of the memorandum explains that S/LPD will not communicate its activities on a regular basis to the Director of Communications in part because "the work of our operation is ensured by our office's keeping a low profile."

The memorandum, which is enclosed with this opinion, was initially classified by the Department of State as "Confidential." Following our request, it was declassified by the Department on September 10, 1987. Three other documents similarly were declassified following our request.

The use of appropriated funds by the Department of State for certain types of publicity and propaganda is prohibited. Section 501 of the Departments of Commerce, Justice and State, the Judiciary, and Related Agencies Appropriations Act, 1985, Pub. L. No. 98-411, August 30, 1984, 98 Stat. 1545, which provided fiscal year 1985 funding for the Department of State, reads as follows:

"Sec. 501. No part of any appropriation contained in this Act shall be used for publicity or propaganda purposes not authorized by the Congress."

The legislative history of section 501 is silent as to the intended effect of the restriction. See H.R. Rep. No. 197, 99th Cong. 1st Sess. 90 (1985). This Office has had numerous occasions in the past to interpret language similar to section 501. We have held that such a provision prohibits the use of federal funds for two distinct types of publicity and propaganda activities.

UNCLASSIFIED

S 11652

First, it prohibits "self-aggrandizement" activities on the part of a federal agency, which have been described by our Office as publicity activities of a nature tending to emphasize the importance of the agency or activity in question. 31 Comp. Gen. 311, 313 (1952), B-212069, October 6, 1983. Self-aggrandizement is not an issue in the present situation.

Second, we have construed the language of section 501 as prohibiting covert propaganda activities of an agency, which is the issue involved in the situations described above. In our decision B-223098, October 10, 1986, we held that editorials in support of a proposed reorganization of the Small Business Administration (SBA) prepared by SBA for publication as the ostensible editorial position of newspapers to which the editorials were submitted, were misleading as to their origin and reasonably constituted "propaganda" within the common understanding of that term.

We conclude that the described activities are beyond the range of acceptable agency public information activities because the articles prepared in whole or part by S/LPD staff as the ostensible position of persons not associated with the government and the media visits arranged by S/LPD were misleading as to their origin and reasonably constituted "propaganda" within the common understanding of that term. Therefore, under the rationale enunciated in B-223098, supra, these activities violated the "publicity and propaganda" prohibition of section 501.

We have been unable to estimate the amount of effort and funds expended on covert propaganda operations. Materials contained in S/LPD files indicate that covert propaganda operations were conducted on several other occasions and were not separated from routine legitimate activities. In view of the difficulty in determining the exact amount expended illegally, as well as the identity of any particular voucher involved, we conclude that it would not be appropriate in these circumstances to attempt recovery of the funds improperly expended. We recommend that the Department of State take action to insure that violations of appropriations restrictions contained in section 501 do not occur in the future.

THE LOBBYING ISSUE

The S/LPD staff carried on many activities designed to influence the public and the Congress to support the Administration's Central American policy, in keeping with the purpose for which S/LPD was established. Ambassador Reich gave a briefing to the Secretary of State in which he explained that S/LPD's objective in attempting to influence Congress was:

UNCLASSIFIED

"To gain sufficient bipartisan support in Congress to permit approval of increased assistance, economic and military, to Central America and to preclude crippling restrictions on actions in support of U.S. policy objectives in the region."

Sometime in 1983, S/LPD developed a close working relationship with a public interest group entitled "Citizens for America" (CFA). CFA is a nationwide grass roots organization engaged in lobbying and fund raising activities on behalf of Nicaraguan Contra causes. CFA has its headquarters in Washington, D.C. and is organized into regions and local district committees throughout the country, which are staffed with volunteer workers. Volunteers receive periodic instructions from CFA's Washington headquarters, when legislative action is scheduled in the Congress, to call and write members of Congress, to write letters-to-the-editor and op-ed pieces, and call in and appear on radio talk shows in support of the Administration's policy on Central America.

On March 4, 1984, the Chairman of CFA wrote the Secretary of State informing him of the details of his grass roots lobbying effort in support of the Administration's policy. Ambassador Reich, then head of S/LPD, prepared a draft response letter to the Chairman for the Secretary to sign. In the transmittal memo, Ambassador Reich described the close working relationship between CFA and S/LPD as follows:

"Citizens for America has been carrying out a public education campaign on Central America.

"Our office has a very good working relationship with Citizens for America and has provided CFA with a great deal of information.

"A word of encouragement and appreciation from you would go a long way toward letting CFA know we recognize and value their efforts."

Again on July 3, 1984, the CFA Chairman wrote the Secretary of State making the following request:

"We hope you will be able to contribute a one-page letter to our 'action kit' voicing your support for this vital aid and your feeling that Congress must address the issue this summer.

UNCLASSIFIED

S 11654

"This request is urgent. Your contribution will mean more op-ed pieces, letters to the editor, calls to Congressmen, and radio and television interviews -- the elements of grass-roots support so vital for effective political action.

"Thanks so much for your help. Anne Barton will be in touch with a member of your staff today to provide any details you might need."

Ambassador Reich prepared a draft response letter for the Secretary of State to sign. The draft letter was not used. Instead, the Office of the Secretary sent Ambassador Reich an extract from a statement by Secretary Shultz before the Subcommittee of Foreign Operations of the House Appropriations Committee on March 16, 1983, and instructed him to reply to the CFA Chairman. We could not locate a copy of Ambassador Reich's reply to CFA.

The annual Departments of Commerce, Justice, and State, the Judiciary, and Related Agencies Appropriations Act,<sup>1/</sup> under which the Department of State receives its appropriations, does not contain a restriction on the use of such funds for lobbying. The only antilobbying legislation relevant to these circumstances is 18 U.S.C. § 1913, which reads in part as follows:

"No part of the money appropriated by any enactment of Congress shall, in the absence of express authorization by Congress, be used directly or indirectly to pay for any personal service, advertisement, telegram, telephone, letter, printed or written matter, or other device, intended or designed to influence in any manner a Member of Congress, whether before or after the introduction of any bill or resolution proposing such legislation or appropriation; but this shall not prevent officers or employees of the United States or of its departments or agencies from communicating to Members of Congress on the request of any Member or to Congress, through the proper official channels, requests for legislation or appropriations which they deem necessary for the efficient conduct of the public business."

Section 1913 further provides for penalties of a fine, imprisonment, and removal from federal service.

<sup>1/</sup> See, e.g., Pub. L. No. 98-411, August 30, 1984, 98 Stat. 1545.

UNCLASSIFIED

Because 18 U.S.C. § 1913 provides for criminal penalties, its interpretation and enforcement is the responsibility of the Department of Justice. This Office may, however, refer appropriate cases of apparent violations of 18 U.S.C. § 1913 to the Justice Department for prosecution. See, e.g., B-212235(1), November 17, 1983 (Commerce Department publication favoring revision of Export Administration Act referred to Justice). To our knowledge, there has never been a prosecution under this statute. B-217896, July 25, 1985. In addition, only a few court decisions have cited the statute and generally they have not dealt with the question of a violation, but have been concerned with peripheral issues. See, e.g., National Association for Community Development v. Hodgson, 356 F. Supp. 1399 (D.D.C. 1973); American Public Gas Association v. Federal Energy Administration, 408 F. Supp. 640 (D.D.C. 1976). See B-214455, October 24, 1984.

The Department of Justice interprets 18 U.S.C. § 1913 to apply only when funds are spent in a grass roots lobbying effort, where an attempt is made to induce members of the public to contact their representatives in Congress to persuade them to either support or oppose pending legislation. B-216239, January 22, 1985; 63 Comp. Gen. 624, 625-226 (1984).

We note that 18 U.S.C. § 1913 prohibits the use of appropriated funds for printed or written matter intended or designed to influence legislation pending before the Congress. If S/LPD expended any appropriated funds to develop the information provided to CFA, such expenditure might constitute a violation of 18 U.S.C. § 1913. On the other hand, if the information provided CFA was readily available within the Department of State, the expenditure of funds would not have been necessary, and the statute would not have been violated. See B-129874, September 11, 1978. We have not found any evidence indicating that S/LPD expended appropriated funds for such information. The only document found during our investigation that was given to CFA by S/LPD was a copy of testimony presented by the Secretary of State at a congressional hearing and was readily available. Accordingly, we found no evidence that would lead us to conclude that S/LPD violated 18 U.S.C. § 1913 in its relationship with CFA.

SUMMARY AND CONCLUSIONS

S/LPD engaged in prohibited, covert propaganda activities designed to influence the media and the public to support the Administration's Latin American policies. The use of appropriated funds for these activities constitutes a violation of a restriction on the State Department annual appropriations prohibiting the use of federal funds for publicity or propaganda purposes not authorized by the Congress.

UNCLASSIFIED

UNCLASSIFIED

S/LPD also developed a close mutually supportive relationship with CFA, a nationwide grass roots organization engaged in lobbying and fund raising activities on behalf of Nicaraguan Contra causes. S/LPD acknowledges giving CFA a great deal of information. However, we have not found any evidence that S/LPD officials violated the applicable antilobbying statute.

Unless you publicly announce its contents earlier, we plan no further distribution until 30 days from the date of this opinion. At that time, we will send copies to interested parties and make copies available to others on request.

Five illustrative examples of the Reich "White Propaganda" operation:

- Attached is a copy of an op-ed piece that ran two days ago in The Wall Street Journal. Professor Guilmartin has been a consultant to our office and collaborated with our staff in the writing of this piece. It is devastating in its analysis of the Nicaraguan arms build-up. Officially, this office had no role in its preparation.
- In case you missed last night's NBC News with Tom Brokaw, you might ask WHCA to call up the Fred Francis story on the "Contras." This piece was prepared by Francis after he consulted two of our contractors who recently had made a clandestine trip to the freedom fighter camp along the Nicaragua/Honduras border (the purpose of this trip was to serve as a pre-advance for many selected journalists to visit the area and get a true flavor of what the freedom fighters are doing; i.e., not baby killing). Though I wasn't wild about the tag line, it was a sensitive piece.
- Two op-ed pieces, one for The Washington Post and one for The New York Times, are being prepared for the signatures of opposition leaders Alphonso Rubello, Adelpho Callero and Arturo Cruz. These two op-ed pieces are being prepared by one of our consultants and will serve as a reply to the outrageous op-ed piece by Daniel Ortega in today's New York Times.

- Through a cut-out, we are having the opposition leader Alphonse Rubello visit the following news organizations while he is in Washington this week: Hearst Newspapers, Newsweek Magazine, Scripps Howard Newspapers, The Washington Post (Editorial Board), and USA Today. In addition, the CNN "Freeman Report," the "McNeil-Lehrer Report," the "Today Show" and CBS Morning News have been contacted about the availability of Mr. Rubello.
- Attached is a copy of a cable that we received today from Managua. The cable states that Congressman Lagomarsino took up Daniel Ortega's offer to visit any place in Nicaragua. You may remember that Ortega received a good deal of publicity on his "peace" proposal when he stated that he welcomed visits by Members of Congress, stating that they would be free to go anywhere they wished. As the cable notes, the Congressman's request to visit an airfield was denied. Do not be surprised if this cable somehow hits the evening news.

I will not attempt in the future to keep you posted on all activities since we have too many balls in the air at any one time and since the work of our operation is ensured by our office's keeping a low profile. I merely wanted to give you a flavor of some of the activities that hit our office on any one day and ask that, as you formulate ideas and plans of attack, you give us a heads-up since our office has been crafted to handle the consequences that you have in getting the President's program for freedom fighters enacted.

Nicaragua Is Armed for Trouble<sup>S 11659</sup>

By John F. GARDNER Jr.

Remember last year's controversy over the alleged delivery of MiG fighters to Nicaragua? Once it was established that what actually had been delivered were helicopters and not MiGs, almost no one bothered to ask what MiGs, sophisticated, well-armed, jet-range helicopter gunships could do in the armed forces of Central America or what their arrival might represent in terms of Sandinista strategy.

Shortly before the U.S. election, media reports surfaced of a Soviet freighter bound from the Black Sea with a cargo of large buses that, according to reconnaissance satellites, included those of a type used to ship jet fighter aircraft. Though reports were equivocal, concern mounted about the cargo and its destination. The most likely candidate was superpower MiG-21s: high-technology warplane built west of U.S. news rooms.

As the ship neared Nicaragua's Pacific port of Corinto (and as the U.S. election season) speculation ran at fever pitch.

The bubble of fevered speculation burst with an anticlimactic "pop" when Sandinista Foreign Minister Miguel d'Escoto announced, in a statement more or less confirmed by official U.S. spokesmen, that the crates contained not MiGs, but other arms including helicopters. The news was all the more anticlimactic because an earlier shipment of Soviet helicopters apparently had been unloaded, all but unexamined, in Nicaragua's Atlantic coast the previous week. The helicopters were Mi-24 "Hinds," the world's most heavily armed, sophisticated and fastest gunships. It is likely the second shipment of crates contained additional Hinds. The crates received most attention, as did the possibility that the crates might also contain the L-29 jet trainers. The U.S. military's primary role in the Reagan administration was to find an almost suitable sign of retreat.

They Looked Poised

their power and rotor blades of U.S. anti-helicopter operations a marginal proposition, particularly in summer. Forced by limited power to fly low along valleys, helicopters are vulnerable to plunging fire from the peaks and ridges above. Afghanistan is not a fair test for the Hind.

But over rolling jungle terrain at low altitudes, the Hind is at its element. Its comprehensive underwing ordnance (it can carry as much as 1,500 pounds of 57-mm rockets, bombs and precision-guided antitank missiles) and its sophisticated terrain-mounted rotary 12.7-mm gun make it a flexible and thoroughly capable weapons system. Its fire-control system is both sophisticated and reliable. Unlike Western gunships, it can carry from six to eight troops.

Pitted against the feeble or nonexistent aircraft defenses of the non-communist Central American powers, the Hind represents an awesome capability, with or without top cover from MiGs. Flying low beneath the thin radar net and begging the question, it can slip into neighboring countries with impunity. It can attack people and harder points with surgical precision, going as slow as necessary to do the job.

In the dawn and dirty game of slipping across a border, begging a Honduras or Salvadoran C-47, and slipping back, all under radar coverage and hence undetected, the Mi-24 would be supreme. Distances are short in Central America and over armored vehicles speedrunning an army larger than that of any of its neighbors, augmented by a sophisticated ground-based antiaircraft system, including SAM-7s, radar-directed 57-mm guns and light mobile ZSU 23-4s, the implications of their arrival in Nicaragua are chilling. With the delivery of high-performance MiGs for top cover, the deep interdiction screen, the classic Soviet-style hitting package will be complete.

Is all of this, we have sensed something important. It is not that acceptance by the U.S. media, if not the Reagan administration, of the delivery of jet trainers and helicopters to Nicaragua has established a precedent for the subsequent delivery of MiGs. That is valid as far as it goes. The real point is twofold: The L-29s and Mi-24s, particularly the latter, represent a major threat to themselves. Second, their arrival must be viewed as one more piece of a greater puzzle, the formation in Central America of a classic Soviet-style offensive combined arms team. And make no mistake: The Soviet doctrinal model, which the Sandinistas are clearly following, is inherently offensive in nature.

The initial MiG statement by U.S. sides came on Nov. 2. By Nov. 18, the Sandinista ambassador to Spain, Orlando Carrillo, told reporters his government's position: No, Nicaragua did not have MiGs—yet. Yet, it had every intention of obtaining some as soon as it could—for self-defense. Thus the impending arrival of the last piece of the puzzle was announced.

Effective for Offense

Now, four months later, as we wait for the other shoe to drop, we are confronted by the release of a report last week by the Council on Hemispheric Affairs asserting that the Sandinista buildup is intended only to counter a feared U.S. invasion and—as essential corollary—that it is of

Dear Ollie:

In addition to the memorandum updating you on several items regarding the Nicaraguan Refugee Fund, I felt it important to give you the background of the Sultan. Since much of the title was spelled over the phone, let me try by listing the following:

HIS MAJESTY THE SULTAN YANG DIPERTUAN NEGARA
 Brunei, Darussalam Istana
 Unral Imam

Sir Hassanal Bolikah Bandar Seri Begawan
 His Majesty, Sir MUDA HASSANAL BOLIKAH
 Mu'Izzaddin WADDAULAH
 The 29th Sultan, 38 years old

Background: We checked with the First Lady's assistant, Elaine Crispin. Indeed, this SULTAN gave a half million dollars to the National Federation for Parents for the Drug Abuse Program. Apparently he gave another half million dollars to UNICEF. Naturally, it has been recommended that he might kick in a million dollars of that for the Refugees for Central America. This is important as it must be a clear opportunity for this country to endorse that initiative and thank the Sultan. It would appear to me that if the Nancy Reagan Drug accepted his generous contribution, we could, also.

Thank you very much. Sorry for all the long names. I think you understand.

Sincerely,

Mr. Carl Russell Channel
305 Fourth Street, N.E.
Washington, D.C. 20002

Dear Spitz,

I am writing to enlist your help in the cause of democracy and freedom for Nicaragua.

We, members of the Nicaraguan Democratic Resistance, seek freedom and human rights in Nicaragua. We fight and die each day to bring this dream to our country.

Our ranks have swelled to more than 15,000. Yet, this is just the tip of the iceberg. Thousands of Nicaraguans stand ready to aid our struggle but lack the means to do so. The resources we seek will bring thousands of people to us who have been standing idle, waiting for material support.

Please help us to achieve our dream, a free and democratic Nicaragua, not tied to a hostile Soviet threat but to a peaceful democratic American tradition.

All resources you can raise will be appreciated. We can put all of them to good purposes.

Richard Miller and Frank Gomez can keep you informed of our progress and serve as our contact point in the United States.

God speed and good wishes.

Chapter 4, Testimony

036920

It's the largest best organized and most effective and it's the one that has the U.S. support for the longest period of time.

We're helping them now to coordinate their Washington activities.

We've established an office for them. We've found people to do their congressional affairs for them on a gratis basis.

We're doing the media coordination for them and also the coordination of meetings as the circle goes out beyond just media & Congressional relations. Now into fund raising & administrative & Logistical things.

Who pays?

They do. And it's precious money to them when they're late on expenses as difficult as it may be you have to remind yourself that somebody died down there today. You can't really get mad.

Once they've left the country like that aren't they totally dependent on donations of one kind or another?

No, they really haven't left the country. the in a pocket which is disputed territory

They go on missions that last 6 to 9 months.

Several of the fighters impressed upon me how much more comfortable they are in the field fighting. They said they eat better, they sleep better. Their with their people. They're being given food & intelligence and a place to sleep and so on. they actually prefer to be in the field to the camp.

Although they have to go back to the camp for orientation, for instruction for R & R.

There are [redacted] regional commands with from anywhere [redacted] [redacted] 36921 men. Each of those commands is in radio contact with headquarters.

Is that command moving, too?

Yes. They're moving also.

We figure now as many as [redacted] young men, and in some cases, older men, across the border, inside Nicaragua, waiting to come over, but there aren't weapons and boots for them.

The main thing I wanted to find out is what his needs really are, how his weapons are.

The second point is that the people in the camps are primarily there for R & R and for re-supply. the war is not a set-piece battle. It is an insurgency. And, in fact, they have about [redacted] insurgents whereas the Sandanistas, when they won, only had about 3,500.

So even though they're so out-gunned, in terms of technology and weaponry, [redacted] in a country of 2.5 million is a hell of a big insurgency.

The [redacted] can tie up a 100,000 man army.

The Nicaraguan army is 100,000. There are nearly as many Cubans in Nicaragua as there are freedom fighters.

They need the Cubans and their tanks to keep their own people around.

If freedom is alive and well in Nicaragua, they don't need 100,000 people to try to snuff out [redacted] guerillas. Originally, during the opposition to Somoya, the people did have shotguns and pistols. Because the struggle against Somoya had been going on for several years, as a matter of fact, at the time Costa Rica was a conduit for arms to the Sandanista forces and o provide the popular uprising and that is eventually what happened.

So the people are armed. In view of this, the Sandanistas have even cleared the militia, which is part of that 100,000 men under arms. And they're not fearful of providing arms to people, but they keep them under control through various surveillance techniques, such as what Cubans call Sandanista Defense Committees Block Committees.

Anybody who even begins to look like they're getting out of line is informed upon. 4 036922

And that's a tough apparatus to fight today in Nicaragua.

But, we have been in touch, because of our experience, with the entire range of the armed and the political opposition to the Contras and when Rich was talking about the [REDACTED] arms, he's not referring to the Mosquitas. There's 2 Mosquito groups. There's the Misura Brooklyn Rivera and Steadman Fagoth and Misurasata and then there is Misurasata, which is a combination of Sumu, Rama and [REDACTED] Indians which has about another [REDACTED] men under arms, plus the [REDACTED] under ARDE, the thing that grew out of it, which is the Democratic Revolutionary Alliance, which has many arms right now, about [REDACTED]. But I was in [REDACTED] in March, [REDACTED], and there was one guerilla leader who told me they had [REDACTED] ready to fight, but they needed communications, books, weapons and leadership. They're ready to fight, but they needed communications. We sent down a military expert to judge the viability. So that when he came back, he could be part of the Congressional debate. Because one of the disinformation pieces they used against the freedom fighters is that they're not militarily viable.

So we sent him down to look at it. He's a former Colonel in the Canadian Air Force. And he's a professor of International Relations at Boston University. He flew in Vietnam. His name is Yorkmatre. A real dynamic fellow.

But when he was down there, in fact NBC got it on film, they send an 800 man force against a 2,000 man contingent of artillery and infantry and routed them. They were getting ready to attack the camps. They took 13 casualties. 3 died. They killed 280. And routed the force entirely.

They took 180 AK47s. They took mortars, hand grenades.

See, what happens is, they get a lot of these weapons back. And they don't have ammunition for them. They get AK47s and they don't have the ammunition for them.

What they do with their young recruits is they give them an old Spanish ball rifle, the FAL, the (old) bolt action, roll o one rifle, and his job is to go out with his rifle, and after he's had his training - you know they do give them training.

UNCLASSIFIED

 It's very professionally done.

And his job is to come back with his FAL and an AK47.

And they all do it.

And then they turn their FALs back in. It goes to the next recruit.

It's like the gun we made in World War II for $2.50. It would shoot just one time. You use that to get a real gun. We dropped them by air in France.

The best I can tell, a shotgun is the best thing to use in jungle warfare.

On a very rapid fire machine gun. That's why the AK47s and the M16s are the best weapons.

The M16 fires a 22.5 caliber bullet.

I bet I could get 10,000 people to give their old shotgun to this.

Only one problem. You can't export guns for military use from the U.S.

One reason Rich and I almost feel excited about this _____, is because, on March 1, for the first time, the various opposition forces got together. They signed a document.

They've come to the realization that the opposition to the Sandanistas now is as broad, if not broader, than that which was there for Somoya.

The Miami Herald has turned around. The Washington Post has turned around.

Frank and I set up the editorial board for Arturo Cruz and Alfonso Robello and we went over and it came out about the San Jose document in the headline of the lead editorial was "A Fair Offer to the Sandanistas."

$28 million is totally inadequate. (Alfonso Robello says) $14 million is doubly totally inadequate. A Hind helicopter costs well over $23 million and there's 12 of them and they're coming.

has said publically, so that the Sandanistassecret radio communications in the field saying we have red-eyes.

It's a big lie.

They're playing a psychological war against the Sandanistas.

The more sophisticated of the shoulder-held missiles, the red-eyes.

There's 2 different kinds. One that's a little less expensive and there's one that's $8,000. It can take it out.

And there was a scare about 3½ weeks ago. They called in the crews.

Texans are the most patriotic.

There really hasn't been a vehicle, almost before tonight, for a direct mechanism to them. Because it's been such delicate territory that nobody's really worked out the details on it.

I don't think that anybody who's sat with somebody at a table like this yet, it's going right there. It's buying these rounds. And it's buying that missile. It's buying that boot.

Yes, this is the first.

They have lost a large portion, just because they've had to go through middle men.

There's nothing I hate worse than getting screwed. I'm scared to death any money I give to this thing is going to end up in somebody's pocket.

There isn't one dime that isn't going right into Adolfo Calero's hands. Not one dime.

I have known Adolfo Calero for roughly 2 years going on 3 years. He was jailed by the Sandnistas. He lead strikes against Somoya. He encouraged his own employees to go out on strike against Somoya.

Adolfo Calero was jailed by Somoya. But Adolfo Calero is a conservative.

Cruz is a social Democrat. He believes in a free economy but he believes in government support for a free economy which will never work. I used to work at AID and I've seen these kind.

But the point is that the entire specterum now is in opposition to the Sandanistas. The entire specterum.

They jailed 114 Social Christians a month ago. It caused them incredible harm here in Washington.

But Adolfo Calero is a conservative. He never gave in. He never gave in to the temptation of trying to negotiate with the Sandanistas.

After the elections, after the plans for the revolution, the state of Nicaragua; till January, 1983, 2 1/2 years after the time for revolution, he came to Washington to lobby for aid to the Sandanista government.

Since then I have seen him on countless occasions, he has been so tired from working on behalf of his men and this cause.

As long as we stay on top, as long as we stay in the offensive position, they will be on the way out.

those guys are down there. They've got 2,000 Soviets. They've got 6,000 Cubans. There's 2,000 _____.

It's not a set piece battle. The thing that has changed the equation are the Russian tanks, the Russian artillery and the Russian Hind helicopters.

How long do your boots last? Maximum 3 months. Why is that?

The humid. It's wet. And because they do a lot of walking. They're not riding in trucks. there are no trucks. They walk. And over pretty rough terrain.

They have done a pretty good job of getting their wounded cared for. Because, psychologically, you've got to have that.

These are Soviet-made land mines. They have been uncovered by the guerillas, disarmed, and brought back to camp. And they're going to re-arm them and place them again against the Sandanistas.

They don't even have their own mines.

That's similar to a claymore.

I said, "How many do you have in the field?"

"Some for medical care; some for R & R; some to be re-supplied, refitted.

But most of them because we don't have even a pack for them to carry their ammunition.

They don't have boots.

What's happened is, the Sandanistas started their drive for military conscription. And they thought they would get support.

Instead, they got insurrection. In several of the major cities. Major insurrections. Coordinated insurrections.

And these boys came across the border. And their mothers and fathers sent them. They said, "If you're going to fight, fight for the side that will give you a choice. And that's why they fight.

That boy could have gone to Costa Rica. But they sent him to Honduras to fight instead.

He could have gone to Costa Rica and just cooled out. They sent him to Honduras to fight.

the reality is we're on the side of the angels with all this..

The miracle that I know about is that these people that we were just talking about have the highest morale. It brings tears to your eyes to see these people.

Having survived and even grown since last may when the aid was cut off.

And they are having to tell people. "I'm sorry you cannot join us, you cannot fight, because we cannot give you a weapon to fight with. We cannot give you boots so that you can go fight.

Calero wants those red eye missiles. He wants boots. He wants back packs. He wants AK47 rounds which you can get on the international market. He wants communications equipment.

But $14 million could be spent in 2 months without batting an eye.

Reagan ought to forget the $14 million and start asking for a whole lot more.

The $14 million has already been appropriated by Congress. And it can be released under certain conditions stipulated by the Congress. So that's what we're stuck with.

And they're hearing someone like Michael Barnes in the Congress saying, now wait. We're not out to topple governments.

It boils down to that.

The military aid, its surprising, boils down to back packs and boots. You'd think weapons would be the most important thing on the list.

If you were about to set out anywhere from 3 to 9 months walking deep into territory, jungle, roads, mountains, rain, and so on, and you knew that you were going to be gone for a long time, you would want to have a good pair of shoes, wouldn't you?

Do they have much trouble with disease in that area?

They do all right.

We were going to rendezvous with some reporters who were coming to look at the bases and son.

I had to travel with Calero and a couple of the members of the directorate of the FDN plus a Mosquito fighter who had been in training there and a few others.

And we loaded up in the two vehicles.

Where were you? In Nicaragua.

Yes, in the disputed territory in Nicaragua.

And, by the way, they control an enormous amount of territory there.

They are supreme there. You drive down the road and you're out of the base camp and you've been going on the road for a half an hour and you see these guys walking along the road, and they're Contra. And you wave to them.

These guys look good.

In any case, we're going up these mountain roads and I am just about fit to be tied. Because, in a jeep, 4 wheel drive, with about 6 people, even though it's a mountain road, you feel that you ought to be able to at least go pretty well forward, right?

We were going like this.

Temperature. It's warm maybe 75-80 degrees.

This is in good weather, this is dry season. But it rains a little bit and the roads are pretty bad.

In fact, some strategists think the best thing we could do for those people would be to get them a bulldozer so they could help maintain those roads.

In any case, we were going like this, and I literally six inches from going over. Six inches. Somebody was with us.

We stopped and I got out. And I looked at the tires on that jeep. It was a Toyota. And they were literally bald. Nothing there.

And that's what they're surviving with.

And I said, "Why haven't you got tires?"

And they said, "Because back packs and boots are more important than tires."

We sent Nightline's crew there and they did a very positive story. We worked very hard with them to make sure we had journalists were sympathetic. And I got this call from this producer when she came back.

I said, "How was it?"

She said, "It was fine. Except the part where we were going down the hill sideways."

They were in the same jeep that he was in. They hadn't changed the tires yet because they didn't have money to change them.

There is an entire group right now of Nicaraguan exiles who've been involved in the fighting themselves. One guy who's involved is setting up the anti-Pope demonstrations where they spit on the Pope and all that stuff. And we have these guys, in Washington, and in other areas, right now, sitting on their hands. Let's show those on the tape.

We have been waiting for literally months. We have these people sitting, waiting, ready to go. And they could have been going earlier, but a couple people got cold feet about spending money for then to go out and do these things.

And it's a shame. Because they could have had major impact on the debate. Particularly back in the home districts of these Congressmen and Senators that we're voting for. J36931

The beauty this time is that we are on the side of the insurgency which is the first time, except Afghanistan, but we can't get close enough to see it.

But we are on the side of the insurgency.

And if we can continue, as we've been working so hard to do, to turn the media around, they will start to romanticise about these guys who are the Democratic guerillas.

We going to call it the Shotgun Drive. And we're going to get Remington to put up the amo. Dupont owns Remington.

We're going to start on CBs. We're not even going to involve the electronic media until we get support or we have about 3 semis going north on Tobacco Road out of North Carolina full.

And they keep calling on another semi.

"We got an empty semi out there? Somebody got an 18-wheeler empty can come on down and help liberate Central America?"

But the organization who was in charge of putting it together utilized a Sandanista office in Managua to put together the report.

And we brought up this guy for a news conference and we had it last week and Time and Newsweek and AP and everybody reported on it. You look at Time magazine. This week's Times you'll see a little thing about a PR firm. That's us.

They're scared in Miami, frankly.

Everytime we call there, we get a call from somebody else said "why did you call?"

It's a very difficulty mentality.

Well, Alfonse Robello, one of the 3 guys who met with Reagan, was hand grenaded in San Jose in November. He heard a crash. He was driving a little Renault. He was with his fiancée. He heard a crash. Renault. He was with his fiancée. He stopped the car. Put it in neutral. Opened the door and turned around like that and the grenade went off.

And it blew out both his eardrums and peppered him. Blew out his fiancée's back.

C H J36933

Talk about terrorism.

They have had two attempts on Alfonse Robello. Two attempts on Eden Pastore. Two attempts on Anturo Cruz. And nobody has every tried to kill Daniel Ortega.

Nobody has ever tried to kill Byardo Arsis.

If you really want to know who has a policy of systematic violence, look to the Sandanistas.

Starlite scope. You can see at nice. Good for hundreds of yards.

Made in Alabama.

This is Nicaraguans for Nicaragua. We have an indigenous, tiny force that grew up on its own accord, that matured of its own accord, and is only now.

The real reason we're here is a matter of personal conviction. There is nothing in it for us personally.

We are serving the larger and more mobile cause. That is the cause of freedom and democracy. Which we see threatened by the continuation of the Sandanista regime in Nicaragua.

It would be a shame if they won by default. If they won because they were willing to put in the money that gave them the technology to succeed where where sheer numbers and sheer political force wouldn't. That's what's so disturbing to me about it.

What bothers me is what happens after they've won. Look at all these soldiers that have to go back to being peasant farmers.

Look at what's happened in Guatemala. Look at what happened in El Salvador.

The military held that news conference in El Salvador and they said, "We intend to back this government and the results from this election."

And that ended the argument.

C H 036934

Because heretofore they'd been the final arbitrator and here they were the preliminary arbitrator and they said, "This is fine," and that's the end of the argument.

And they put democracy on a sound footing in El Salvador.

And the same guys that are fighting now for the FDN, that's what they fought for, they're the same people who fought against Somoza! They were fighting for the same thing against Somoza that they're fighting for now. And it's democracy.

For me, the bottom line is, these are people who are willing to fight for their freedom and for democracy. So that we won't have to fight ourselves.

LULAC

People like Mario Obledo from the LULAC based in Texas, an Hispanic organization. Saw him on tv in Houston yesterday. He was going "Oh, no. we're heightening tensions and I'm afraid that our boys are going to have to go down there and fight."

Well, they damn well will fight unless we get behind the right side right now.

There are more Hispanic Medal of Honor winners than any other nationality in the United States.

They're ready to go. They're ready to fight.

AK& sounds are a little less than $1 a round.

Between now and May 1, the red eye missiles could be the entire key.

Because if they succeed at this point in launching an offensive including tanks and the MI24 helicopters into that region and go for the cans...

There's 2 different kinds of red eye missiles. There's one that's very unsophisticated which is just a direct shot missile. And then there's one that's able to take on the Hind because the Hind has major decoy devices, has heavy armament and it has these flus on the back of the exhausts from the jets - the expulsion from the engine - that mask the heat.

So you have to have the $8,000 red eye to make it work.

They have flare system on the MI24s and they drop the flares out.

For one thing, there's a trade off.

If you provide money for ammunition, the money they've set aside for ammunition can go to boots.

On the other hand, if you provide money for boots, what they've set aside for boots can to ammunition.

Whatever you do in regard to that list (of Calero's needs), I think you can be proud of what service you provide for democracy. I think ultimately you can be proud to stand that day in Managua when there's a free country inaugurated down there.

I'd encourage you to participate now while you can still make a difference.

That'll make a lot of difference to a lot of huys down there. I'm serious about that.

We haven't heard from you yet.

Please respond to the President's request for aid to the Nicaraguan refugees.

You tax-deductible check of $350 or more will be a miracle gift. The Nicaraguan refugees are homeless, impoverished and wounded fighters for freedom.

Once you gift arrives, your name will be immediately added to the President Honor Roll of Concerned Americans. We are presenting the Honor Roll to the President on the 15th of May.

Thank you very much for your interest in and support of democracy in Nicaragua through your participation in the "Friends of Freedom" project sponsored by the NATIONAL ENDOWMENT FOR THE PRESERVATION OF LIBERTY.

I appreciated very much your time by phone late yesterday afternoon. You are one of a small group of dedicated Americans who has stood by President Reagan time and time again in support of his agenda. As you well know, this issue of the survival of freedom in our hemisphere is one of if not the closest to his heart.

It will be a pleasure to meet you in Washington on October 17 when you attend our special security briefing followed by a working dinner. It promises to be quite an exciting as well as educational evening.

Please be reminded that your accommodations at the Hay-Adams Hotel are taken care of and there is no expense to you. You will need to settled in your room no later than 5:30 p.m. that day.

I will be in touch within several days to secure additional information needed for your security clearance. Should you wish to contact me my number is: (202) 543-6137.

Also, it is my suggestion that you review the enclosed documents before attending the meeting. These documents will serve as briefing materials. Please be familiar with them.

Dear

It was a great pleasure to speak with you again yesterday. We are all very excited about your unique effort to ensure victory for George Bush by hosting the First Future of Freedom Forum.

I look forward to meeting with you Thursday, February 13 at 10:00 a.m. at your home. We have much to discuss to kick off this effort for George.

With continued best wishes,

You should be aware that the resistance against organization now has more than ten available for immediate disbursement. This reduces the need to go to third countries for help. It does not, however, reduce the urgent need to get CIA back into the management of this program. We can only do this by going forward with the representative proposal and getting the regulatory authorities for CIA involvement. Unless we do this, we will run increasing risks of trying to manage this program from here with the attendant physical and political liabilities. I do not complain, and you know that I love the work, but we have to lift more of this onto the CIA so that I can get more than 2-3 hrs of sleep at night. The more money there is and we will have a considerable amount in a few more days the more viable the program becomes (airplanes, pilots, weapons, deliveries, etc.) and the more legislative will become people like Kerry, Sweeney, Nichols, et al. While I care not a whit what they say about me, it could well become a political embarrassment for the President and you. Much of this risk can be avoided simply by covering it with an authorized CIA program statement with the JCS. This is what I was about to say in the meeting today and a point that I believe Smith does not understand in his advocacy of third country solicitation. I have no idea what Ben Nejan does or does not know re of private U.S. operation but the President obviously

MEETING WITH NATIONAL ENDOWMENT FOR PRESERVATION OF LIBERTYJanuary 30, 1986
Roosevelt Room

FROM: Linda Chavez *LCI. PURPOSE

The National Endowment for the Preservation of Liberty (NEPL), a special program of The American Conservative Trust (ACT), has sponsored several programs in support of your defense and foreign policies. This briefing is for the principal financial contributors whose patriotism and generosity have made these public education programs so successful and influential.

II. BACKGROUND

In 1985, ACT and NEPL spent in excess of $3 million supporting the President's programs through public awareness using television and newspaper messages. Their Central American Program was initiated last June. They produced and aired a television spot supporting your position on arms control. A post-Geneva tribute to your success at the summit was also aired on all network affiliates.

ACT/NEPL will raise $3 million for educating public opinion on the issue of aid to the democratic resistance over the next six weeks. The purpose of this briefing is to: (1) provide current status report on the situation in Nicaragua; (2) recognize and express gratitude for their efforts in supporting the President; (3) encourage continuance of their generosity in funding these worthwhile projects.

Your participation will be preceded by briefings by Asst. Secretary Elliott Abrams (State), Oliver North (NSC) and Linda Chavez.

III. PARTICIPANTS

34 supporters and four staff members of ACT and NEPL.

Dear Mr. Miller:

Thank you for your letter of September 12, 1985.

My colleagues and I have discussed your proposal in some detail, and are pleased to respond in a positive way to it. Therefore, I am enclosing a check from The Heritage Foundation in the amount of $100,000 as you requested in your letter.

We would appreciate receiving reports from you as to the uses to which these funds have been put, and would also like to have a copy of your tax-exempt letter for our files.

It is our assumption, of course, that all of these funds will be used in accordance with the stated purposes of your 501(c)(3) organization.

Best wishes to you in your endeavors.

Sincerely,

DATE: February 16, 1987

SUBJECT: 1985/86 summary of NEPL program expenditures

This memorandum and the materials attached to it constitute the report you requested on the application of the funds provided to IBC by NEPL in 1985 and 1986 in connection with the Central American Freedom Plan (CAFP), other NEPL programs and for the purpose of providing humanitarian aid in Central America. We have prepared or collected the following materials based on a thorough review of our records:

1. An executive summary of 1985 and 1986 expenditures which includes both the program costs of CAFPP, other NEPL programs and the amount of humanitarian aid given by NEPL through IBC.
2. A comprehensive, chronological list of all NEPL deposits to our accounts and IBC expenditures in the execution of your programs for each year.
3. Documentation provided by the managing directors of Intel-Cooperation Inc. (originally I.C. Inc.), including a copy of the Memorandum of Association (corporate charter) filed with the government of the Cayman Islands and a schedule of the receipts and disbursements of that company for 1985 and 1986.
4. Copies of the retainer letter between NEPL and IBC and our program spending document that includes planning for the January 1986 Winter Meeting.
5. Copies of the wire transfers and bank orders used by IBC to distribute the humanitarian aid funds listed in section 2 and summarized in section 1.

H N 000003

You are familiar with our efforts in connection with the CAFP. In addition, the funds NEPL provided for humanitarian assistance have been applied to particularly worthy purposes. For example, your generosity has saved the arm of a little girl who was shot by the Sandinistas and paid for the reconstructive surgery in the United States that repaired the faces and limbs of young freedom fighters. You have also supported some of the best scholarly work by Nicaraguans and helped to support education efforts by exiles who wanted to bring their story to America.

Adolfo Calero has personally thanked you and me and has written to you thanking you for the help we provided to the Nicaraguan Development Council. Another major recipient is the Unified Nicaraguan Opposition (UNO), the political umbrella organization of the Nicaraguan Democratic Resistance. As your representative we have heard from other officials of the movement, and they have gratefully acknowledged the direct assistance we sent on to them.

IBC also distributed funds through Intel Co-operation Inc. to several organizations exempt from American taxation under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code. They are:

Gulf and Caribbean Foundation

Friends for the Americas

Nicaraguan Development Council

Latin American Strategic Studies Institute

Institute on Terrorism and Subnational Conflict

All of these recipients have pledged that their donations were used solely for humanitarian purposes and, given the nature of their organizations, we are confident that such is the case, since it is consistent with their programs in the region.

Some of the funds, as shown in the attached materials, were deposited to the account of Lake Resources, Inc., at Credit Swiss Bank in Geneva at the request of Lt. Col. Oliver L. North. At the present time we are unable to obtain from him any information concerning the application of those funds after deposit to the Lake Resources account. However, we were assured by him at the time that the funds were to be applied solely for humanitarian assistance.

If you have any questions about this report, we would be happy to discuss them with you.

FOR THE PRESERVATION OF LIBERTY

August 1, 1985

305 FOURTH ST., N.E.
SUITE 1000
WASHINGTON, D.C. 20002

Mr. Richard R. Miller
President
International Business Communications
1523 New Hampshire Ave., NW
Washington, D.C. 20009

Dear Mr. Miller:

This letter is a formal retainer agreement between International Business Communications and the National Endowment for the Preservation of Liberty. While we have engaged I.B.C. for work on programs of the Endowment and the political action committee, The American Conservative Trust, at a fluctuating monthly fee we would like to undertake a more formal arrangement.

The present agreement made verbally by you, me and Daniel L. Conrad, NEPL Executive Director, called for a monthly retainer of fifteen thousand dollars plus expenses. This agreement was made before the proliferation of our public education and political programs. With this in mind we agree to begin paying I.B.C. a monthly retainer of forty thousand dollars and we understand that I.B.C. reserves the right to increase the charges to the Endowment to meet increases in costs such as personnel and operating expenses. At the time of billing and throughout the month I.B.C. will try to apprise us of potential extraordinary costs.

As you spend money collected from us to pay for programs you manage for us we will meet occasionally to discuss immediate and near-future expense needs. Since our programs are fast developing and can take on urgency not normally encountered in the public relations field, we understand that you may make occasional demands for cash deposits to cover major expenditures.

For the next few months you should be reviewing the cost of this arrangement to International Business Communications. Should we determine that these agreed upon operating standards do not work, we reserve the right to renegotiate the retainer arrangement. You will provide Mr. Conrad with written or oral cost analysis at the time of submission of your expense and time and billing records.

If this agreement is acceptable please countersign this letter and return it to us.

Sincerely,

Carl Russell Channell
President

Mr. Carl Russell Channell
 President
 National Endowment for the Preservation of Liberty
 303 fourth Street, N.E.
 Washington, D.C. 20002

Dear Mr. Channell;

Thank you for including me in your winter meeting in Palm Beach, Florida this month. The chance to help plan the execution of programs by the National Endowment for the Preservation of Liberty, the American Conservative Trust were very useful in planning the I.B.C. level of effort needed to carry out our responsibilities to you.

The agenda of the Endowment and its related organizations is very ambitious and will take an extraordinary amount of talent, manpower and creative effort. I.B.C. is prepared to undertake this effort. We will however need to revamp our financial arrangements with you.

Here-to-date we have concentrated on the Nicaraguan public education effort and special programs designed to support the President in obtaining his goals in Central America. Now we are to undertake a mammoth program to educate the American Public, senior government officials and influential Americans. This program will require major outlays of personnel and will require in and of itself the use of several senior level consultants. The monthly fees for this program alone will be forty thousand dollars plus expenses.

In your outline of the the 1986 programs, you have also directed that I.B.C. design and implement a program to promote the public's support of President Reagan's Strategic Defense Initiative. This program will require the development of a major briefing book for policymakers and SDI champions, the direction of a speakers tour and consultation with your advertising agencies on advertising campaigns. This effort will be undertaken for a monthly fee of twenty thousand dollars and expenses. I.B.C. will be responsible for all additional consultant fees necessary to run this program.

The third program that you have asked us to consider working on are the Future of Freedom Seminar Series. These programs would be undertaken by The American Conservative Trust and funded by contributors under an arrangement to be designated by you at a later time. However, we will incur expenses in the development of these programs and may need additional consultants and consulting organizations to be involved in the effort. Such additional consultants will be your financial responsibility through reimbursement to us. We will not undertake such efforts without your verbal approval.

Your terrorism film and conference ideas are not yet assigned to I.B.C. but we understand that may change at a later date.

Also, we understand that your Constitutional Minutes Project may also be assigned to us as a 1986 program but that formal agreement on this will wait until a later date.

Finally, one aspect of our financial arrangements needs to be clarified going into this year. We are not in a position to know the final purpose and use of all the services you request of us. As the "TO-DO" list reaches thirty and forty items at a given time, we simply execute the tasks you assign us as we can. In this operational mode it is impossible for us to independently bill your various organizations for specific work hours. Therefore it will be your responsibility to internally identify the end user of our billed services. We trust that this is an area that you and your lawyers are quite capable of handling yourselves.

The impact of your efforts on behalf of the President have been major and unique. We look forward to serving you in your efforts in 1986.

If this letter represents your understanding of our relationship, please countersign to letter and return it to me.

Sincerely,

Richard R. Miller

FREEDOM PROGRAM

UNCLASSIFIED

UNCLASSIFIED*CENTRAL AMERICAN FREEDOM PROGRAM*Introduction

1986 is destined to be a landmark year in the advancement of freedom throughout the world. After a generation of increasing tyranny and authoritarianism, the winds of change are rising. These winds are carrying freedom movements on four continents toward a victory over communist domination.

And Ronald Reagan, leading a rejuvenated America, has caught these winds of change. He is dramatically aligning American policy, resources, and moral support with the force of that gathering storm.

President Reagan's policy, when fully developed, is destined to trigger the overthrow of communist tyranny. This will happen around the world, in Afghanistan, Angola, Mozambique, Kampuchea and, most important, Nicaragua.

America's relationship with communist Nicaragua experienced an absolute moral and political reversal when Ronald Reagan became President of the United States.

The Carter Administration, like millions of Nicaraguans, had been fooled by the communists who captured the leadership of the anti-Somoza revolution in 1979. Once in power, the communist junta began systematically lying to the world about the true policies and purposes of their revolutionary government.

But Ronald Reagan was not fooled. So, moved by new leadership, American policy toward Nicaragua's communist government changed sharply in 1981. Then the U.S. declared support for the Nicaraguan Freedom Fighters.

Since 1981, opposition to the communist-controlled Nicaraguan regime has gradually become a very powerful internal democratic movement. It claims the support of over 25,000 well-armed Nicaraguans and literally hundreds of thousands of ordinary Nicaraguans. Nearly 400,000 (one out of every six Nicaraguans) lives under Freedom Fighter protection.

The democratic forces have endured years of conflict with a communist army easily six times their number. More remarkably, they have steadily increased their ranks in the midst of the struggle. These democratic forces

UNCLASSIFIED

UNCLASSIFIED

continued to gain strength even during the year and a half that United States aid was suspended.

1986 finds the democratic forces stronger than ever. But so is their communist enemy. Ronald Reagan has offered decisive assistance to the democratic forces. And, if this assistance is fully endorsed by the Congress, it could, in fact, carry them to victory over communism in Nicaragua this year.

When victory occurs, it will have historic and political significance throughout the Western Hemisphere. Its impact will be felt by every Freedom Fighter in the world. Its possibility will haunt every communist dictator.

Finally, Ronald Reagan's actions will herald a new dynamic American policy. It is a policy of materially supporting freedom movements struggling to overthrow communist regimes. Freedom is on the offensive.

Description of the Problem

If Ronald Reagan is to succeed in meeting the needs of Freedom Fighter movements for years to come, it will be necessary to create a deep reservoir of public support for Freedom Fighters and the President's policy.

Such public support will come only if the American people truly understand the stakes and the opportunities the Reagan policies embody.

The memories of Vietnam, however inapplicable, remain fresh, as does the urge to have America fight for clearly recognizable just causes. So President Reagan, if he is to be successful, must carry into this foreign policy arena the unified support of the American people.

In spite of the headlines and the debates during the last five years, the American public remains woefully ignorant about Nicaragua. They don't understand the clear threat it poses to vital American security interests.

A 1985 public opinion poll showed more than one-third of those surveyed did not know which side the United States supports. Twenty percent thought we support the (communist) government!

A later poll found that among those aware of U.S. policy, 58% said we should not be giving aid to the Democratic Opposition.

It is tragic, but not surprising that so many people are ill-informed, and that so many oppose our policies. It's not surprising because the American public is the victim of an intense, sophisticated multi-million dollar disinformation campaign. It is being conducted by opponents of the President.

UNCLASSIFIED

H 000034

The Sandinistas abuse the freedoms in the U.S. that they deny to their own people. They do this by hiring a Washington law firm and two public relations firms under contract to spread disinformation.

They are aided by the Soviet Union and Cuba. The Soviets and Cubans already spend tens of millions of dollars to shape public policy in America. Their actions are supported by a vast network of communist and leftist activist sympathizers. Soviet spokesmen regularly seek tv time. Phil Donahue gave Nicaraguan dictator Ortega an hour in October.

These people operate at the grass-roots level and in Washington. They use the media and all the tools at their disposal to undermine the policies of our elected government.

This is why President Reagan needs the support and cooperation of clear-thinking, patriotic Americans. We must counter the disinformation program of the Sandinistas. We must educate the public on the policies, the players, the dangers and the realities.

The National Endowment for the Preservation of Liberty is helping the President do just that.

Solution

The National Endowment for the Preservation of Liberty has undertaken a nationwide program of indefinite duration known as the CENTRAL AMERICAN FREEDOM PROGRAM.

The overriding goal of this program is to educate the American people. It will show the realities of communism in Nicaragua. It will show the threat to U.S. national security.

We have chosen television as the major vehicle. We believe it is the most successful to carry our educational and informative messages to the public.

The CENTRAL AMERICAN FREEDOM PROGRAM will require the National Endowment for the Preservation of Liberty to spend $2,000,000 in the next 90 days.

This is over $160,000 every week for public education and information on the issue of Nicaragua. A longer, $3 million program is under consideration and will be implemented if required to fully educate the American public.

When our program achieves its public awareness goals, it will become a useful model for similar activities by other in the future. Our program is truly unique. It has become the pioneering effort in this area.

Central American Freedom Program

The National Endowment for the Preservation of Liberty is focusing its education program on seven issues. They are:

- 1) Nicaraguan communist persecution of its citizens;
- 2) Denial of religious and political rights;
- 3) The creation of an aggressive armed Soviet satellite on the North American continent;
- 4) The creation of Cuban bases inside Nicaragua;
- 5) The threat Nicaragua now poses to its neighbors both through state terrorism and outright aggression;
- 6) Support for revolution in El Salvador;
- 7) Betrayal of the true anti-Somoza democratic revolution by the Nicaraguan communists.

The issues listed above represent the principal points our programs will make in the minds of Americans. We are also emphasizing other issues such as the origin, nature, organization and objectives of the Freedom Fighters.

We are developing the images of the UNO leadership. We are graphically showing the situation facing over 400,000 Nicaraguan refugees. And we are presenting the political and human rights goals of the Freedom Fighters themselves.

Public Affairs Components

R M 000036

Central American Freedom Program

The Sandinistas have two public relations firms and two law firms either registered as foreign agents or working sub rosa in the United States.

They have a combined budget of $2 million. They are using this war chest to concentrate on the districts of Congressmen who have opposed aid to the Freedom Fighters.

They have also stepped up the use of Op-Eds and articles in national newspapers written by sympathetic Americans. They have planted disinformation, too, like the recent articles accusing the FDN of drug trafficking.

An ignorant and misinformed public is one of the principal objectives of the communists. They recognize that ignorance and apathy in local communities across America leaves the doors wide open to the opponents of Administration policy.

And given the activism of those opponents, they are the ones who are often visible to members of Congress. A legislator who only hears from the critics can ignore logic and danger. He can vote to deny U.S. assistance to those on the front lines in the battle against communism in our hemisphere. So, the public must be better informed.

The public is quite unaware of the true nature of the Sandinistas as well as the existence of a viable democratic alternative. They do not support efforts to overthrow any government and fear U.S. involvement in another Vietnam.

This ignorance and the isolation it produces have been the Sandinista's principal advantages in the debate. We intend to evaporate those advantages through the use of truth.

Objectives

As Congressional debate heats up on this issue, we should expect the Sandinistas, their foreign agents and liberal sympathizers to give it all they have.

We are in the last weeks of a national campaign to be decided by the American public. If the public remains apathetic, the President's democratic initiative will be defeated.

UNCLASSIFIED

UNCLASSIFIED

If we are successful, America will have a policy that sounds the death knell of America's post-Vietnam feeling of impotency. It will end America's retreat from her responsibilities as the leader of the free world.

To accomplish this, the National Endowment for the Preservation of Liberty is addressing four audiences using specifically targeted communications strategies:

The public - Through the use of strong negative images of the Sandinistas recently reported in the media.

Policymakers - Democratic leadership issues provide the groundwork for more challenging arguments that can influence liberals and moderates.

Congress - Through issues now associated with America's leadership role in supporting democracy in the region against the developing communist threat. NEPL, as an educational organization, is not permitted to engage in lobbying activities. Our co-sponsor, Sentinel, is permitted to engage in lobbying activities and will undertake the responsibility of bringing this important issue to the attention of members of Congress.

Freedom Fighter Leadership - Without a sound belief in the capabilities of the resistance's leadership, no policy can succeed in Congress.

Program Elements

Time is short and we are fighting for public support over a wide geographic area. So, we are treating this like a national educational campaign, with March 15 as our target.

We are using the methodology of national political campaigns. We are seeking to emphasize the disturbing truth about the communist control over Nicaragua. We are debating the unclaimed issues to our advantage. And we are reinforcing our positive public perceptions to educate and inform.

We are using advertising and public affairs programs for each of the four program objectives listed above. They are being handled as follows:

The Public - The public has been exposed recently to several negative images of the Sandinistas. We use these images to reinforce the public perception that the Sandinistas are communists and tyrannical dictators. We employ the following techniques:

Television advertising - We have analyzed Congressional action on the last aid package. Based on this research, we are producing materials for

UNCLASSIFIED

UNCLASSIFIED

television spots which focus on:

- 1) Daniel Ortega's trip to Moscow and the $220 million commitment he received from the Soviets for offensive military weaponry.
- 2) The recent crackdown on human rights directed against the entire Nicaraguan population.
- 3) Ortega's purchase of $3,500 in designer eyeglasses while his people starve.
- 4) The communists militarization of Nicaragua through Soviet, Libyan, East German, Cuban and other advisors, and the use of Nicaragua as a command center for subversion of her democratic neighbors.
- 5) That Cubans are now proved to be actively involved in combat.
- 6) That Nicaragua has become a lair and a refuge.
- 7) The humiliation of Pope John II when he was spat upon and heckled when he tried to conduct Mass in Managua.

Spokesman program - using the prototype program already underway, we are placing speakers in 50 markets between now and March 15, 1986.

These speakers are booked into a civic club or professional organization in a market. Then they are scheduled for television, radio and newspaper interviews.

The speakers come from the ranks of the United Nicaraguan Opposition (UNO) leadership. They can defend all UNO participants.

They focus on Sandinista excesses and UNO as the democratic alternative. The principal concentration for these speakers are the southern and western states.

Battlefield Videotape - Sandinista state security agents rigidly control the movements of foreign correspondents, especially television journalists in or visiting Nicaragua. That control is exercised through:

- 1) Escort "guides" and interpreters;
- 2) Denial of access to selected parts of the country;
- 3) Imposition of "taboo" themes;

- 4) Screening and censorship of footage for export;
- 5) Monitoring of telephones and telex;
- 6) Expulsion or denial of entry to any offenders.

At the same time, coverage from the northern border is extremely arduous and far from the areas where the Resistance is operating.

The result is timid, selective, highly censored and heavily biased television coverage. Battle zones are only presented from the Sandinista perspective.

We are providing major media outlets and local television stations with videotape from the field. It shows scenes never seen before in the U.S.

It includes combat footage and evidence of Sandinista atrocities. We are also providing footage and commentary on events inside Managua and other major population centers.

This footage will be used in three ways:

- 1) An experienced advertising agency is producing advertising for distribution in as many as 50 selected markets across the United States.
- 2) A satellite feed will be edited and fed each time new footage is obtained. These feeds will reach approximately 200 television stations in the U.S. Usage reports will be received daily.
- 3) A new documentary on the face of communism in Nicaragua and the use of internal repression will be produced. This theme will be countered with a segment showing the Freedom Fighters as the logical outgrowth of Sandinista tyranny.

Policymakers

Given the compressed time frame, policymakers can be best reached through an effort that is visible in Washington and the national media. The issues used to reach Congress should be centered on America's leadership responsibilities in this hemisphere.

The primary effort is focused in specially selected areas of the country, but we are reinforcing this effort with a public affairs and education program including:

- A. Articles and Op-Eds written by prominent American leaders on Nicaragua as a center of terrorism. We will use recent revelations of Nicaraguan arms being used in the Colombian Supreme Court assaults.

We will cite evidence of Libyan, FLO and Iranian terrorists working in Nicaragua. From these facts, we will produce articles for paid distribution, single placement in national newspapers and general media distribution.

- B. Religious persecution of all faiths can be used to touch and educate the public, producing a positive effect on the policymakers.

Jewish, Catholic and Protestant organization publications are being approached to interview defectors and religious figures who know the persecution firsthand.

The National Endowment for the Preservation of Liberty is arranging a series of meetings with religious leaders and journalists. We will also help to produce an article by a prominent American religious figure for paid distribution.

- C. Another Cuba on the North American Continent is unacceptable to almost all Americans. If the issue is picked up by constituents it would be a strong message for policymakers.

The National Endowment for the Preservation of Liberty is utilizing these arguments in the speakers program already underway. An American exiled Cuban has been commissioned to write an article for paid distribution throughout the U.S.

A Cuban exile leader has been added to the spokesman program.

- D. Drugs and politics are a bad mix. Nicaragua's support for and role in narcotics trafficking are issues with which no one can publicly disagree.

We will ask Don Johnson of MIAMI VICE, or a strong anti-drug figure such as Rosie Greer, to give a briefing on the drug trafficking evidence the Administration has on the Sandinistas.

He will be asked to write an Op-Ed piece for national distribution through paid and direct placements.

The National Endowment for the Preservation of Liberty would seek to get this super-spokesman on major television shows such as TODAY and GOOD MORNING AMERICA.

We would also produce a news spot for satellite distribution.

- E. The Sandinistas are violating human rights at an unprecedented level in this hemisphere.

UNCLASSIFIED

The National Endowment for the Preservation of Liberty is providing radio, television and newspaper interviews with two researchers who have compiled a report on Sandinista human rights violations.

They are being commissioned to do an update on their report with a trip to Honduras and Costa Rica. On their return they will hold a Washington news conference and issue a report to Congress through a respected Senator or Congressman.

- F. The Revolution of 1979 has been betrayed by the Sandinistas. The National Endowment for the Preservation of Liberty will produce a news spot for satellite distribution on the lives of three former Sandinistas who now fight with the FDN/UNO.

Congress

We expect to reach Congress primarily through the media we will be using for the policymakers. However, special briefings will also be used to educate specific target audiences within this group.

These briefings will be arranged by our co-sponsor, Sentinel. Briefings may feature drug enforcement experts or political scientists who have studied Cuban expansionism.

Freedom Fighter Leadership

The National Endowment for the Preservation of Liberty has begun to provide spokesmen training for the leadership and provide information feedback to reinforce that training. We will provide UNO leaders with public opinion analyses.

When possible, we are incorporating the UNO leadership in events and briefings that further their image of unity.

Conclusion

Without an opportunity to see the truth about the Sandinistas, the American public will defeat democracy in Nicaragua.

Through its public education program, the National Endowment for the Preservation of Liberty will give the President a chance to free this continent of communism. We will strike a decisive blow for democracy.

ACTION PLAN FOR 1986 PROGRAMS OF THE AMERICAN CONSERVATIVE TRUST
AND
THE NATIONAL ENDOWMENT FOR THE PRESERVATION OF LIBERTY

Introduction - This action plan is divided into five specifically focused programs as directed by Mr. Channell. In each case the contractor and subcontractor designations are indicated. The programs are as follows:

FRIENDS OF FREEDOM PROGRAM - This program is an effort to directly support the President's initiatives in Central America and Nicaragua through political and educational institutions in the region. This program is based on direct grants to religious, political, academic and professional organizations in Latin and Central America.

CENTRAL AMERICAN FREEDOM PROGRAM - This program is an effort to educate the American public, policy makers and the media on the issues surrounding Nicaragua and the President's policy toward it. It incorporates a wide variety of public education tools including television productions, spokesmen tours, Op-Ed articles, commissioned journalistic documentaries and television advertising. The program goal is to establish a national consensus that will allow official American support for democracy as a policy.

SDI SUPPORT PROGRAM - This program is designed to support the President's Strategic Defense Initiative through a public education program. This program is based on the political assessment that the Soviets will seek to undermine the President and the national consensus he now enjoys on SDI. This issue will be focused in the Congress and media for the next 21 months, through two Congressional funding cycles, as the Soviets set up their misinformation program to combat SDI. The NEPL program is designed to provide strong public information programs in the national media, through televised messages, feature productions, and print advertising in the nationally read newspapers. The program will also provide media, academic and political organizations with speakers or guest journalist works to develop support for the President.

FUTURE OF FREEDOM SEMINAR SERIES - This program is a series of briefings for high level conservative activists on critical foreign policy, monetary and national issues. The ACT will seek to host a series of formal meetings with a senior government official to brief senior ACT and NEPL contributors on current critical issues dealing with the national security, } NEPL international terrorism, regional conflict resolution, as well as international monetary policy, domestic spending and tax policy. For the most part these events will be quiet, private gatherings hosted by ACT and featuring a briefing by a senior member of the Administration.

TERRORISM: A US RESPONSE - This program is an educational effort directed towards increasing public awareness of the connection between terrorism against Western governments and Soviet political brinkmanship. This program will use television, print and periodical distributions to communicate the need for a national program to combat terrorism. It will focus public attention on the role of the Congress, the President and our allies in combatting terrorism.

For each program discussed, this action plan outlines the key issues addressed by the program, an evaluation of present circumstances, the program objectives and the program elements to reach those objectives. In each case the contractor and subcontractor relationships are indicated, as are the specific communications vehicles selected for use in achieving the program's objectives.

Central American Freedom Program

Introduction

1986 is destined to be a landmark year in the advancement of freedom throughout the world. After a generation of increasing tyranny and authoritarianism, the winds of change are rising. These winds are carrying freedom movements on four continents toward a victory over communist domination. And Ronald Reagan, leading a rejuvenated America, has caught these winds of change and is dramatically aligning American policy, resources, and moral support with the force of that gathering storm which is destined to overthrow communist tyranny in Afghanistan, Angola, Mozambique, Kampuchea and, most important, Nicaragua.

America's relationship with communist Nicaragua experienced an absolute moral and political reversal when Ronald Reagan became President of the United States.

The Carter Administration, like millions of Nicaraguans, had been fooled by the communists who captured the leadership of the anti-Somoza revolution in 1979. Once in power, the communist junta began systematically lying to the world about the true policies and purposes of their revolutionary government.

But Ronald Reagan was not fooled. So, moved by new leadership, American policy toward Nicaragua's communist government radically changed in 1981 and declared support for the Nicaraguan Freedom Fighters began.

Since 1981, opposition to the communist-controlled Nicaraguan government has gradually become a very powerful internal democratic movement. It claims the support of over 25,000 well armed Nicaraguans and literally hundreds of thousands of ordinary Nicaraguans. The democratic forces have not only endured years of conflict with a communist army easily six times their number, but have steadily increased their ranks in the midst of the struggle. These democratic forces continued to gain strength even during the year that United States aid was cut off.

1986 finds the democratic forces stronger than ever. But so is their communist enemy. Ronald Reagan, however, is preparing to offer decisive assistance to the democratic forces which, if fully endorsed by the Congress, could in fact carry to them to victory over communism in Nicaragua this year. When victory does in fact occur, it will have historic and political significance throughout the western Hemisphere. Its impact will be felt by every Freedom Fighter in the world. Its possibility will haunt every communist dictator. Finally, Ronald Reagan's actions will herald a new dynamic American policy of materially supporting freedom movements struggling to overthrow communist regimes.

Description of the Problem

If Ronald Reagan is to succeed in meeting the needs of the Freedom Fighter movements for years to come, it will be necessary to create a deep reservoir of support for the Freedom Fighters and the President's policy. Such public support will come only if the American people truly understand the stakes and the opportunities the Reagan policies embody. The memories of Vietnam, however inapplicable, remain fresh, as does the urge to have America fight for clearly recognizable just causes. So President Reagan, if he is to be successful, must carry into this foreign policy arena the unified support of the American people.

The National Endowment for the Preservation of Liberty is helping the President do just that.

Solution

The National Endowment for the Preservation of Liberty has undertaken a nationwide program of indefinite duration known as The Central American Freedom Program. The overriding goal of this program is to educate the American people and political elites about the nature of communism in Nicaragua and the threat to U.S. national security.

We have chosen television as the major vehicle we believe will be most successful in carrying our educational and informative messages to the public.

The Central American Freedom Program <sup>will require the</sup> ~~was initiated by~~ the National Endowment for the Preservation of Liberty to spend over one million, four hundred thousand dollars in the next ninety days. This means allocation of over one hundred thousand dollars every week for public education and information on the issue of Nicaragua. <sup>longer this</sup> ~~A three million dollar program is planned in detail~~ of the

If our program achieves its public awareness goals, it <sup>will</sup> ~~may~~ become a useful model for similar activities by others in the future. Our program is truly unique. It has become the pioneering effort in this area. <sup>of the</sup> ~~the~~ <sup>will</sup> ~~may~~ <sup>become</sup> ~~the~~ <sup>in the</sup> ~~the~~ <sup>May</sup> ~~the~~

Central American Freedom Program

The National Endowment for the Preservation of Liberty has decided to focus its education program on seven issues. They are:

- 1) Nicaraguan communist persecution of its citizens;
- 2) Denial of religious and political rights;

UNCLASSIFIED

UNCLASSIFIED

R M 000050

- 3) The creation of an aggressive armed Soviet satellite on the North American continent;
- 4) The creation of Cuban bases inside Nicaragua;
- 5) The threat Nicaragua now poses to its neighbors both through state terrorism and outright aggression;
- 6) Support for revolution in El Salvador;
- 7) Betrayal of the true anti-Somoza democratic revolution by the Nicaraguan communists.

The issues listed above represent the points our programs want to make in the minds of Americans. We will also discuss other issues such as who the Freedom Fighters are. We will develop the images of the UNO leadership. We will graphically show the situation facing over three hundred thousand Nicaraguan refugees. And we will discuss the political and human rights goals of the freedom fighters themselves.

Public Affairs Components of Central American Freedom Program

The Sandinistas have two public relations firms and two law firms either registered as foreign agents or working subrosa in the United States. They have a combined budget of two million dollars and are concentrating on the districts of Congressmen who have opposed aid to the Freedom Fighters. They have also stepped up the use of Op-Eds and articles in national newspapers written by sympathetic Americans, as well as the planting of disinformation such as recent articles accusing the FDN of drug trafficking.

The public is quite unaware of the true nature of the Sandinistas as well as the existence of a viable democratic alternative. They do not support efforts to overthrow any government and fear U.S. involvement in another Vietnam. This ignorance and the isolationism it produces have been the Sandinista's principal advantages in the debate. We intend to evaporate those advantages through the use of truth.

Objectives

With the Congressional debate heating up on this issue, we should expect the Sandinistas, their foreign agents and liberal sympathizers to give it all they have. We are in the last weeks of a national campaign to be decided by the American public. If the public stays apathetic Congress will defeat the President's democratic initiative. If we are successful, America will have ~~had, debated and changed, and then debated and changed back,~~ a policy that sounds the death knell of America's post-Vietnam feeling of impotency and retreat from world responsibilities.

To accomplish this we must address four audiences using specifically targeted communications strategies:

The public - Through the use of strong negative images of the Sandinistas recently reported in the media.

The Congress - Through issues now associated with America's leadership role in supporting democracy in the region.

Policymakers - Democratic leadership issues provide the groundwork for more challenging arguments that can influence liberals and moderates.

Freedom Fighter Leadership - Without a sound belief in the capabilities of the resistance's leadership, no policy can succeed in Congress.

Program Elements

We propose to approach this program with the understanding that we are under considerable time constraints and are fighting for public support in areas widely dispersed across the United States. Therefore, we propose to treat this as a national political campaign, with March 15 as our target. Using the methodology of national political campaigns, we will seek to utilize our opponents negatives, debate the unclaimed issues to our advantage and reinforce our positive public perceptions.

We will use advertising and public affairs programs for each of the four program objectives listed above. They will be handled as follows:

The Public - The public has been exposed recently to several negative images or impressions of the Sandinistas. We will use these images to reinforce the public perception that the Sandinistas are communists and tyrannical dictators. We should employ the following techniques;

Television advertising - following research into the Congressional votes cast on the last aid package, we will produce materials that ~~will be used by Robert Goodman and Associates to focus on -~~

- 1) Daniel Ortega's trip to Moscow and the $220 million commitment he received from the Soviets in hard lethal military support.
- 2) The recent crackdown on human rights in Nicaragua against the entire population of the nation.
- 3) Ortega's purchase of $3,500 in designer eyeglasses while his people starve.
- 4) The <sup>communist</sup> militarization of Nicaragua through Soviet and Cuban advisors and the use of Nicaragua as a command center for subversion of her democratic neighbors. Spies, East German
- 5) The incident when Pope John II was spat upon and heckled when he tried to say Mass in Nicaragua signalling an era of religious persecution
- 6) That Cubans are now proved to be actively involved in combat.

Spokesman program - using the prototype speakers program begun by I.B.C., NEPL will place speakers in 50 markets between now and March 15, 1986. These speakers will be booked into a civic club or professional organization in a market and then scheduled for television, radio and newspaper interviews. The spokespeople come from the ranks of the UNO leadership and are capable of defending all UNO participants.

These speakers will focus on Sandinista excesses and UNO as the democratic alternative. The principal concentration for these speakers will be the southern and western states.

Battlefield Videotape - There are two battlefields in Nicaragua, one inside the principal cities and one in the countryside. We intend to provide major media outlets and local television stations with never-seen-before videotape from the field, including combat footage and evidence of Sandinista atrocities. We will also provide footage and commentary on events inside Managua and other major population centers.

This footage will be used in three ways:

- 1) ~~Robert Goodman and Associates~~ <sup>An ad agency</sup> will produce advertising for distribution in selected markets across the United States. See memo on 50
- 2) A satellite feed will be edited and fed each time new footage is obtained. These feeds will reach approximately 200 television stations in the U.S.. Reports of usage will be daily.
- 3) ~~I.D.C. will coordinate~~ <sup>A new</sup> documentary on the face of communism in Nicaragua and the use of internal suppression. This theme will be countered with a segment showing the Freedom Fighters as the logical outgrowth of Sandinista oppression. will be produced

Congress - Given the compressed time frame, Congress will be best reached through an effort that is visible in Washington and the national media. The issues used to reach Congress should be centered on America's leadership responsibilities in this hemisphere. The primary effort will be centered in Congressional districts, but we should reinforce this effort with a public affairs program including:

- A. Articles and Op-Eds written by prominent American leaders on Nicaragua as a center of terrorism. Using recent revelations of Nicaraguan arms being used in the Colombian Supreme Court assaults and Libya, PL0 and Iranian terrorists working in Nicaragua, we will produce articles for paid distribution, single placement in national newspapers and general media distribution.

Strategic Defense Initiative

Introduction

President Reagan's Strategic Defense Initiative (SDI) is the most significant strategic development in the history of U.S.-Soviet relations since the acquisition of the atomic bomb by the Soviet Union. If allowed to be fully deployed it will greatly enhance America's security. As important, it will offer the super powers a dramatic opportunity to establish a lasting peace. The Congress, however, has been slow to realize the opportunity inherent in a fully funded on-time SDI. It has only provided about 60 percent of the President's funding request for SDI research and development in the past three years. Thus, the program at current funding levels will be consciously delayed and drawn out. Timing is important. The Soviets are determined to deploy their own program and are proceeding with an accelerated development of new offensive and defensive strategic systems while the United States lags.

~~Key Issues~~ Soviet Fear of American Advancement

The obvious enhancement of American defenses accomplished under the Reagan Administration and the promise of a strategic defense program are primarily responsible for having brought the Soviets to the Geneva summit. Lagging in technology, economic vitality, and sophistication, and pressed to commit resources elsewhere, the Soviet Union fears the American SDI, because such a system and its foreign policy power implications will be able to neutralize the threat of the massive Soviet nuclear arsenal. The inability to maintain the credible destructive capability threat of that arsenal necessarily weakens the Soviet power/intimidation position vis-a-vis the United States and with regard to the rest of the world.

It is a common thread of Soviet foreign policy to threaten to rain down awesome nuclear destruction on nations the Soviets wish to influence through naked nuclear intimidation. Every Soviet leader raises the threat. Gorbachev used it just last month in a letter to the greater London City Council. This is of special and important relevance to Soviet relations with China, Western Europe, Cuba and Japan. A fully deployed Strategic Defense will confront the Soviets with a new reality, one which will require a more credible and necessarily more peaceful behavior in the world arena for decades to come.

The Soviet Union failed to win concessions on SDI in Geneva. But it expended tens of millions of dollars in the months leading up to Geneva in attempting to shape European and American public opinion against SDI. So ~~important~~ crucial is SDI's failure to Soviet strategy that the Russians have continued to use their vast resources in a propaganda and disinformation struggle against the Reagan Administration's proposed system. Although other reasons have been given, the Soviet delay until September of the proposed June summit in the United States is designed to give the Russians more time for their efforts to weaken the President's SDI. Also, they may attempt to make it an election issue this fall.

Vark
The Soviet Campaign to Capture American Public Support

Make no mistake about it. The Soviets genuinely fear completed American Strategic Defense. But that fear does not concern their territorial safety. Rather, that fear concerns their continued ability to use the threat of nuclear annihilation to intimidate and blackmail other nations into submission or admission of Soviet supremacy.

With dramatic full-page advertisements in major newspapers, scores of television interviews, books, articles, front organizations and genuine governmental propaganda efforts, the Soviets are spending millions of dollars to prevent SDI from going forward as the President desires. Never have the Soviets wanted so desperately to block an American defense program. They understand well the power of American public opinion on government policy.

Although recent surveys indicate that Americans favor a workable alternative to mutual assured destruction (MAD), anti-nuclear interest groups have largely framed the SDI debate and succeeded in distorting public perceptions of what has lamentably become well known as "star wars". Here the emphasis is on war to the delight of the Soviets.

The Soviets are bolstered in their efforts by those in America who oppose SDI, the opposition will ~~protecting~~ seven key arguments:

- SDI* will never work;
- ~~it~~ means the militarization of outer space;
- ~~it~~ escalates the arms race;
- ~~it~~ research could go on indefinitely;
- ~~it~~ costs too much;
- ~~it~~ is nuclear;
- ~~it~~ violates the SALT II agreements.

These arguments, combined with public and legislative concern about balancing the budget, resulted in Congressional funding of only 60 percent of what the President requested for the first stages of SDI research and development. The Spring legislative calendar will provide a window to secure full funding for the President's package and bring the program's timetable up to date. We must use this window of opportunity to strengthen America's security.

Objectives

Given the high moral imperative of Strategic Defense for our long term security and possible peace, the National Endowment for the Preservation of Liberty believes that the current program for Strategic Defense must be realized. The sooner the better. To help educate and inform Americans about the nature of the Strategic Defense concept, the Endowment is conducting a multi-faceted public education and information program using a combination of media and press activities in order to:

- 1) reveal and counter Soviet disinformation and other untruthful information;
- 2) educate the public about the true significance and role of SDI to America's military and alliance security;
- 3) measure, describe and publicize public attitudes on the SDI;
- 4) study and report the impact of the public's views on SDI in selected areas around the country.

Program

NEPL will begin its program on March 15 and continue it through October of this year. In this manner, the program can fully operate during the framing of the debate in the primary election cycle in the Spring. Its timing will maximize its educational possibilities. At the same time, it will bring public attitudes to bear on the center of the debate, the U.S. Congress. The program will include the following activities:

Presidential Message - A short video-taped statement by the President which can be shown to organizations around the country, as well as to participating groups in the program. It's effectiveness will depend on the use of the President's considerable communication skills to set out the significance and importance of SDI to the world and the next generation. (Greater weight for production)

Television Education - Fifteen and thirty second television messages placed in carefully selected markets during critical stages in the program and in the public debate. This educational activity, proven as successful in other issue debates in the past, will be the heart of the program. ($800,000.00)

Newspaper Information - Full page messages (several thousand words in the New York Times, the Washington Post, USA Today and in at least 20 major newspapers in key markets across the country. These will lay out aspects of SDI in detail. ($283,000.00)

Talk Shows/Interviews - Promotion of appearances by SDI experts on national and local television public affairs programs, talk shows and interview programs where discussion of SDI will take place. ($60,000.00)

Op-Ed Articles - Writing and placement of Op-Ed articles in national, regional and local newspapers. The educational articles will be both ghost-written for the signature of notable public figures, and will be written by some of the figures themselves. ($10,000.00)

Television/Video Program - Production of a 10-15 minute video feature summarizing the key issues surrounding the SDI debate and stating clearly the consequences of a fully-funded SDI for America's increased security and the cause of a just peace. ($100,000.00)

Coalition Building - The National Endowment for the Preservation of Liberty is convinced that the SDI is a highly significant crucially important program which all Americans have a moral and patriotic obligation to understand and judge. Therefore, NEPL will aggressively increase the possible impact of its program by making its information available to as many individuals and groups as possible. Support of the President must be broad based.

THE FUTURE OF FREEDOM FORUMS

The SELECT 500 of the American Conservative Trust and other corroborating large opinion surveys indicate strong support among Republicans for Vice President Bush as a candidate for President in 1988. The overriding component of his popularity is his admirable service in the course of Ronald Reagan. However powerful and well-funded activists have yet to be heard from. George Bush is currently very unpopular among many of these individuals. To write off or underestimate the energy and motivation of these people is to court disaster in the primaries. Many of these highly charged individuals love a gut fight and would rather be right than victorious. Such a mentality could ruin the long term impact of Ronald Reagan's achievements.

The Vice President needs a vehicle which he can utilize to reach the high dollar donors in the conservative ranks. These donors perceive him as a liberal Republican unsure of himself and without determination to lead in tough circumstances. These donors know too little of the Vice President's record, beliefs and policies. The Vice President's opposition is going to make as much headway as possible by playing on such misinformation and ignorance. He needs to reach them in order to head off major support for his opposition. He also has to correct lingering misgivings these people have about his resolve on foreign policy and other issues crucial to activist conservative issues. In articulating a strong foreign policy and reinforcing the domestic issues as needed, he can nullify the negative perceptions many of these people maintain. He must communicate in such a way that these people leave their time with him confident in his foreign policy expertise and mindful that past perceptions about his politics have been wrong.

We recommend that we seek to hold at least one dinner meeting per month commencing in late January 1986. For each event we could invite 30 to 50 of the "SELECT 500" contributors and others. The Vice President could be requested to speak on a particular issue such as Central America or Arms Control (See attached focus elements) as the focus element of the program. However, he might use these opportunities to extrapolate on all the issues he felt would be received well by this unique audience. This will require a carefully scripted event, using a practiced speech with several interchangeable elements and well prepared answers to follow-up questions.

WHY "The Future of Freedom Forums"-

Without some form of ongoing program, this will be viewed as an attempt to use the foundation to further George Bush's campaign strategy. We must be conscious of the need to preserve the Foundation's independence of action, nonpartisan focus and not to confuse a program to develop a truly American foreign and monetary policy with an total embrace of the Vice President's candidacy.

PURPOSE-

The conservative political leaders to be effective in 1988, must move now to shape foreign and monetary policy before the campaign shapes it for them. With a thorough program designed to develop the policies that will govern us into the next four to eight years, we can be assured that the historic gains made by President Reagan from 1980 to 1988 are not just held, but strengthened and fulfilled.

MECHANISM -

We recommend that we host small meetings of invited senior high dollar activist contributors, such as Patty Beck, Bunker Hunt, Leon Hess, Sandra di Portinova using either the American Conservative Trust's senior contributor list, names supplied by the Vice President's organization or a combination of both. These gatherings would be events of the "FUTURE OF FREEDOM FORUMS." Each potential participant would be told that he has an opportunity to hear and speak directly with the Vice President on foreign policy. They would be encouraged to attend to help perpetuate the Reagan accomplishments and agenda after 1988. They would be told that this meeting is part of a nonpartisan series to establish policy goals for the next President of the United States. Their help and direction would be greatly appreciated and is vital to preserve the gains made beginning with Ronald Reagan's first term.

We recommend that we meet and discuss a schedule at the earliest possible moment with the Fund staff.

We recommend the following focus elements:

Central America

This region is growing as an issue for Americans. Unfortunately the political leadership in this country has not faced up to the reality that we are face-to-face with a Soviet client state on our mainland. With the exception of president Reagan, American politicians have not lead the way to ridding the continent of this threat.

The Strategic Defense Initiative

The concept of a united free world is worth protecting. And a defense strategy that protects the free world without killing people is worth protecting through its infant stage. No one in their right mind wants the U.S. to fund a program of lasers or other high-tech space defense systems if it can not work. But, we must not let pass an opportunity to make it work, nor the prospects that such success would hold for the children of the free world.

Soviet Expansionism

The Soviets occupy more countries throughout the world than any other nation. Including those nations subjugated in Eastern Europe we have a frightening picture. But there are signs of stress and fatigue in the "Iron Curtain." We, the democratic world, must find every way possible to assure that the next generation of Russians are more aware of the world as it really is rather than the world according to TASS.

Democratic Elections

Democratic elections are well overdue in the Phillipines and would seem to be a success in Guatemala. Countries that are voting democracies deserve all the help America can lend. We should serve to strengthen our commitment to Democracy through our foreign aid program and trade policies.

Free Press

The right of democratic people to hear the truth is paramount. Any country that abridges freedom of the press should be reminded that our help is given first to those that adhere to all democratic principles and not just the few a government finds useful. We should actively support efforts to put third world nations in touch with space age information technology.

Terrorism

Terror as a weapon in nationalistic and international communist movements must be stopped cold. Those who use terror to intimidate democratic nations should pay a high and swift price for their actions. The President and the executive branch should begin an effort to coordinate with our allies to stamp out terrorist cells regardless if they have acted in proven efforts or not. We should support military operations that answer terrorists. We have much to contribute to such actions and any American would be proud to say his nation had helped to crush terrorism.

UNCLASSIFIED

UNCLASSIFIED

R M 000066

South Africa

This administration attempts to pit democracy against racism in a test of our ability to change governments without removing them. In the world there will always be moral issues that we can not change, this is not one of them. If we can continue to restrict our involvement with the South African government while seeking to up lift the South African people, we will achieve change. As a belligerent outsider we can hope to accomplish nothing.

Middle-east politics

We did not stand behind Israel in her three wars for independence to give her up now. She is the symbol and hope of an entire people. As the parties to a peace settlement move closer together, we must be prepared to use all our national resolve to force them to succeed. If we must put peace above friendship, the world will be the greater loser. Any peace must be inclusive and permanent.

The Third World

The Soviets have succeeded in installing far too many Marxist governments in areas where they provide no humanitarian assistance at all. We must start putting a price on our help...democratization. If we are to lead the world to a freer existence then we must free those that suffer from abject poverty as we work. But, the governments of these people must understand that support for democratic government and the economic freedoms that entails are the surest road to our help.

United Nations

The UN is a good forum for our views, but it has become the Soviet's favorite weapon to embarrass us. Amb. Kirkpatrick showed the world that such a body would not be taken lightly by the US any longer. We must use the UN as a forum to challenge tyranny and to remind those that seek our help in private and scorn us in public, that there is a price for such action.

Nuclear Buildup

The Reagan Administration is proud that it created a nuclear arsenal that is second to none. Afterall, to be second to a nation that has invaded its neighbors and projected military might into conflicts on other continents would be foolish. The responsible leadership of this nation knows that we must reduce the world's nuclear arsenals but not at the price of aggression by the Soviets. Whatever we agree to with the Soviet Union must be fully verifiable and aimed at the total elimination of nuclear weapons.

NATIONAL ENDOWMENT FOR THE PRESERVATION OF LIBERTY

TERRORISM: A U.S. RESPONSE*INTRODUCTION

Terrorism is the scourge of civilized nations--and it is growing more prevalent. There were an estimated 3,000 documented terrorist incidents throughout the world in 1983, of which about one-third were directed at business and industry. Western democratic nations, where many of the terrorist incidents occur, appear powerless to contain it--much less to bring it to an end.

To increasing degrees, terrorism prevents the freedom of movement, inhibits tourism, discourages investment and hampers free trade. The very liberty the United States cherishes is threatened.

ISSUE

Except for sporadic actions carried out by Israel, the use of terror to achieve political ends appears to go on virtually unchecked. In Great Britain, following the killing by Libyan agents of a policewoman on the streets of London, diplomatic relations were broken with Libya. But trade was unaffected. More recently, Italy and Germany have been reluctant to impose any sanctions on Libya, the assumed lair or sponsor of terrorists, because of dependence on Libyan oil and to protect the current volume of trade.

What is emerging, it is clear, is the supplanting of diplomacy by terrorism as a key determiner of actions of states. When England, Italy, France and Germany fail to take action, when Yugoslavia gives refuge to the mastermind of the Achille Lauro hijacking, they invite further actions. And lesser states are cowed into silence and inaction.

The United States has placed counter-terrorism among its foreign policy priorities every year for nearly a decade (the State Department's counter-terrorism office was established in 1977). But beyond solemn pronouncements and routine condemnations, we have done little to counter this scourge.

Numerous arguments are often cited as reasons for not taking consistent, direct action:

- we have no international support
- we are not the world's policemen
- it would engender retaliation and continue the cycle
- it makes us as bad as the terrorists
- we don't know precisely who and where the terrorists are
- counter-terrorism does not address the "root causes"

UNCLASSIFIED

UNCLASSIFIED

R M 000069

--we lack the resources to be effective.

Such arguments pale in the face of dictator Khaddafi's recent threat to bring terrorism to mainstreet USA. The tragic destruction of an international airline flight en route from Canada to England shows how easily it can be done. A large bomb in the U.S. Capitol only a few months ago shows just how vulnerable we are. Fidel Castro uses international narcotics trafficking as a means to finance his terror network.

Today there are as many as six million illegal aliens in the United States. Our borders and our airports are porous. As a free, open society, we are more vulnerable than most. Yet, we see the beginning of restrictions on our liberties when the White House, the U.S. Capitol, the Department of State and other key buildings resemble armed fortresses.

Unfortunately, too many policy-makers believe that all we have to do is hire more guards, build more barricades and use more metal detectors. When innocent children are struck down in airports, no one can be safe. The solution is not to convert our public places and institutions into fortresses. The solution is to counter terrorism in a concerted, direct and cohesive fashion at the international level. To do so, however, we must begin at home by developing a national policy consensus for action.

OBJECTIVES

The National Endowment for the Preservation of Liberty is undertaking production of a television program on terrorism as it exists today. Its objective is to produce resolute, firm action on the part of the U.S., leading to international agreements and cooperation. Specifically, NEPL seeks to obtain:

- a Presidential declaration of national resolve;
- a broad consensus for a new national policy;
- a Congressional resolution empowering the Administration to pursue international objectives;
- an international conference bringing together other key Western democracies;
- international agreement on joint actions; concerted sanctions; and assistance to allies suffering economic hardship because of the sanctions;
- a firm, binding multilateral treaty.

Given these objectives, NEPL's nationwide campaign is designed to educate the public on the issues and demonstrate that solutions are within reach. It will motivate leaders to act; and indicate the appropriate course of action to achieve established goals.

You are familiar with our efforts in connection with the CAFF. In addition, the funds NEPL provided for humanitarian assistance have been applied to particularly worthy purposes. For example, your generosity has saved the arm of a little girl who was shot by the Sandinistas and paid for the reconstructive surgery in the United States that repaired the faces and limbs of young freedom fighters. You have also supported some of the best scholarly work by Nicaraguans and helped to support education efforts by exiles who wanted to bring their story to America.

Adolfo Calero has personally thanked you and me and has written to you thanking you for the help we provided to the Nicaraguan Development Council. Another major recipient is the Unified Nicaraguan Opposition (UNO), the political umbrella organization of the Nicaraguan Democratic Resistance. As your representative we have heard from other officials of the movement, and they have gratefully acknowledged the direct assistance we sent on to them.

IBC also distributed funds through Intel Co-operation Inc. to several organizations exempt from American taxation under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code. They are:

Gulf and Caribbean Foundation

Friends for the Americas

Nicaraguan Development Council

Latin American Strategic Studies Institute

Institute on Terrorism and Subnational Conflict

All of these recipients have pledged that their donations were used solely for humanitarian purposes and, given the nature of their organizations, we are confident that such is the case, since it is consistent with their programs in the region.

Some of the funds, as shown in the attached materials, were deposited to the account of Lake Resources, Inc., at Credit Swiss Bank in Geneva at the request of Lt. Col. Oliver L. North. At the present time we are unable to obtain from him any information concerning the application of those funds after deposit to the Lake Resources account. However, we were assured by him at the time that the funds were to be applied solely for humanitarian assistance.

If you have any questions about this report, we would be happy to discuss them with you.

MEMORANDUM TO FILE

February 12, 1987

FROM: BRIAN M. BRUH

SUBJECT: Iran/Contra Matter

UNCLASSIFIED

Partially Declassified
 under provision of E.O. 12958
 by B. J. [unclear] National Security Council

On February 11, 1987, I went to the office of U.S. Customs Service which was previously arranged with their General Counsel, Michael Schmitz in order to interview William von Raab, Commissioner, U.S. Customs. Betty Anderson telephoned me earlier in the morning to say that they had scheduled a conference and she would call me when he was available to speak with me. Later in the morning I received a telephone call from Betty Anderson who told me that the Commissioner was available to speak to me. I went over to their office and there was a conference call with the Commissioner. Present were Betty Anderson, Michael Schmitz, and William Rosenblatt of U.S. Customs. I told Commissioner Von Raab both my name and the fact that I was an investigator with the President's Special Review Board. He said he would be happy to cooperate.

Von Raab said that in August 1986 he was over at the White House, in Carlton Turner's office, when Ollie North, who he had known, approached him and asked to speak to him privately. He said that he learned that North had called his office and learned that he, Von Raab, was over in Turner's office. North told him "Our guys (U.S. Customs) were giving this man Maule, or company named Maule, a hard time."

UNCLASSIFIED

A001226

(4304)

UNCLASSIFIED

W 36839

North said that Maule had shipped airplanes like "piper cubs" down south. He said that Maule was "a close friend of the President."

The Commissioner said that he never discussed the matter with North after that or to his recollection with anyone else in the National Security Council. He told North he would look into it. North did not tell him that the matter was a national security issue and he, Von Raab, regarded it as a typical request that he gets from a Congressman where the Congressman writes that somebody is treating his constituent unnecessarily rough. Von Raab said that sometime after the meeting with North, perhaps even a week later, (he doesn't recall that he made a special effort to contact Rosenblatt immediately), he spoke with him and told him of North's concern. He asked Rosenblatt to give North a call.

Von Raab then recalls that the next time he had a conversation with Rosenblatt was at his farm sometime later. At the Commissioner's farm he said that Rosenblatt approached him and told him that North had complained also about a customs investigation into Southern Air Transport. He further said that Rosenblatt said that North expressed a concern that the agents were "excessive in their zeal". He said that Rosenblatt had told him that the case had acquired characteristics that made him, (Rosenblatt) nervous, and that was the hostage issue. Rosenblatt had said that it was no longer just a matter involving a typical investigation or how to conduct an investigation in a proper way but it involved national security issues. Von Raab he said that their position had been to continue conducting the investigations.

UNCLASSIFIED

UNCLASSIFIED

H 36040

When asked if he ever received any other requests from anyone in the National Security Council regarding arms or weapons systems or munitions going south, Von Robb answered "yes" one other time. Von Robb said a few months before the Maule conversation he had with North he received a telephone call from Jack Singlaub whom he only knew from television. Singlaub said that U.S. Customs had stopped a helicopter from being shipped [REDACTED]. The helicopter had a name which U.S. Customs uses to refer to the investigation as LADY ELLEN. Von Robb said that the helicopter was named after the lady who donated the helicopter. Von Robb said that Jack Singlaub did not represent himself as a government person but rather as someone who is representing a private organization. Singlaub had recommended that Von Robb call Colonel North.

Von Robb said that Singlaub did not ask that anything improper be done, he merely inquired why the helicopter was being held up and when he found out it was due to a license he indicated that he would get such a license. He, Singlaub, recommended that the Commissioner call LtCol North in case he had any concerns. Von Robb said he called North which to the best of his recollection was the first contact he ever had with him. North indicated that the individuals involved "good guys." However they are shipping a helicopter that is not worth sending to them. The Commissioner said subsequently the paperwork, meaning the license from the State Department, was issued.

UNCLASSIFIED

UNCLASSIFIED

W 36041

When asked if he received any other calls with regard to this helicopter the Commissioner said that he recollects that he got a call "from a Senate staffer." The staffer asked the reason why the U.S. Customs held up the helicopter. The Commissioner said that he does not remember who the Senate staffer was and said that his secretary keeps no record of his calls more than just for a day. He was no further help in trying to identify the Senate staffer and said that there was no other information with regard to weapons or munitions going to Central America.

Betty Anderson and Mike Schmitz said that they were present with the Commissioner when he was interviewed by two FBI agents from the Office of Independent Counsel and he related this story about the LADY ELLEN investigation to the FBI agents except for one detail and that is he had not said before that a Senate staffer had called him. They doubt, therefore, that such a call was made. They indicated that they thought that Commissioner Von Raab's memory may be faulty in this area.

v. )

JESUS GARCIA, ) Defendant. )

MOTION FOR CONTINUANCE

The United States, by and through the undersigned Assistant United States Attorney, respectfully requests this court to continue sentencing in this cause for approximately 30 days. In support of its request, the government alleges:

1. The defendant is scheduled to be sentenced on March 18, 1986.
2. On March 17, 1986 at approximately 4:30 P.M., the United States Attorney's Office for the Southern District of Florida was requested by the Department of Justice to seek a continuance of the sentencing hearing in this cause.
3. The Government in recent days has initiated an investigation into matters which arise from this case. The Government believes that it would be in the best interest of all parties that the sentencing in this matter be postponed until the Government has had an opportunity to explore certain allegations which could possibly affect the sentence imposed on Jesus Garcia.

Chapter

man named Evangelio Fanjol told him that the plane carried many machine guns, automatic rifles, several mortars and grenades. Mr. Ortega also stated that his brother had been wounded by a grenade during a November 1985 raid on Pueblo, Nicaragua. Mr. Ortega said that his brother died a short time later.

At present, we have corroborated that Raul Ortega, Rene Corvo, and others flew to [REDACTED] on June 13, 1985 aboard a private cargo aircraft. <sup>13/</sup> However, we have no independent evidence that something other than clothing was on board that flight. We may be able to obtain some information in this respect from the members of the flight crew and Fanjol. We have yet to interview these individuals.

CONCLUSION

To date, the evidence gathered does not substantiate Garcia's claim that Tom Posey and others conspired to assassinate U.S. Ambassador Lewis Tamba. However, the evidence does suggest that in late 1984 and early 1985 the CMA and Rene Corvo actively recruited mercenaries in the United States. These men were later sent [REDACTED] to train and/or fight with anti-Sandinista contras. The evidence also suggests that in 1981, Raul Arana shipped weapons to the contras from South Florida.

<sup>13/</sup> See Appendix B. In addition to proving that Corvo and Ortega were on the flight, the Customs' documents also prove that the June shipment was made with the same plane as the March shipment. Although the pilot in June was different, Daniel Vasquez Jr. co-piloted both flights. Daniel Vasquez Jr. is the son of Daniel Vasquez Sr., the man who chartered the plane for Corvo in both March and June.

However, there is insufficient proof at this time to conclude that weapons were ~~imported~~ aboard the March 6, 1985 and June 13, 1985 flights. Further investigation may prove these allegations to be correct.

The FBI has requested that we begin a grand jury investigation into the activity described in this memo. The Bureau believes that a grand jury is necessary for several reasons. First, it would dispell claims that the Department of Justice has not aggressively pursued this matter. Second, a grand jury would eliminate some of the deception they believe they have encountered during their interviews with Jesus Garcia, Daniel Vasquez Sr., Ronald Boy, and Max Vargas. Finally, the grand jury would give the Department of Justice access to Costa Gun Shop's business records and CAMAC's bank records. J. A. T. F. 10/1/85

We have sufficient evidence to begin a grand jury investigation. I believe that a grand jury investigation would ultimately reveal criminal activity including gun running and neutrality violations. ~~However, due to the political nature of this case, I am not sure whether such violations could be successfully prosecuted in South Florida.~~

I concern that we have sufficient evidence to institute a grand jury investigation ~~concern~~ into the matter decided here.

A Presidential call memo has been prepared, and after such wrangling w/ Day, I have discussed the problem w/ the [redacted] case is that [redacted] was the man with whom Heydon, Gorman, Claridge and I worked out arrangements.

[redacted] Only Gorman, Claridge and I were fully aware of all that [redacted] was doing of our behalf. Subsequent to the [redacted] was assigned [redacted] had at one point [redacted] that year was invited to meet w/ a group of disaffected [redacted] who it turns out were plotting the assassination [redacted] when the FBI broke the case [redacted] was indicted for conspiracy. His legal advice was apparently to keep his mouth shut and everything wd be worked out. Although suspensions were prepared for Gorman, Claridge, Heydon and North, they were never issued because [redacted] loaded gallery (on advice of counsel).

[redacted] As due to report [redacted] to start working sentence [redacted] He apparently still believed in well yesterday that he wd be going to the [redacted] security facility [redacted] for a short period (days or weeks) and then walk free. [redacted] was invited to do something and he now wants an answer.

[redacted] The major concern - Gorman, North, Claridge - is that when [redacted] out that is really happening to him, he will break his longstanding silence about the big resistance and other sensitive operations. Gorman, Claridge, Revell, Trout and Abrams will cabal quietly in the morning to look at options: pardon, clemency, deportation, reduced sentence. Objective is to keep [redacted] from feeling like he was lied to in legal process and start spilling the beans. Will advise [redacted]

This memorandum is in response to your request that we determine whether any law enforcement or national security interests would be furthered by the early release, or outright pardon, of [REDACTED] who is scheduled to begin serving [REDACTED] sentence [REDACTED] 1986. Our discussions of this matter with Roger Yochelson of the Office of International Affairs, and Assistant United States Attorney [REDACTED] as well as our limited review of the file, indicate that the Government would obtain no benefits from an abbreviation of [REDACTED] already lenient sentence. The facts are as follows.

[REDACTED] were indicted on charges [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] to assassinate [REDACTED]

[REDACTED]

Our review indicates that the Government has been very lenient in this case. [REDACTED] was allowed to plead guilty to two counts, thereby avoiding almost certain conviction on the entire [REDACTED] indictment, which would have exposed him to [REDACTED] incarceration. In addition, the Government waived its right to seek consecutive terms, paving the way for the eventual sentence of two concurrent five-year terms. In view of the serious crimes involved, any further leniency would create a wide discrepancy between the nature of his offenses and the prescribed punishment. It should also be noted that [REDACTED] is not needed to testify in the prosecution of [REDACTED] nor does that prosecution involve classified information which [REDACTED] or [REDACTED] could threaten to disclose publicly during the trial.

In sum, no law enforcement or national security interests would be served by extending additional clemency to [REDACTED]. To the contrary, the law enforcement equities here strongly favor [REDACTED] serving a sentence commensurate with his crimes. [REDACTED] [REDACTED] These political and foreign policy concerns are vague, ambiguous and not clearly articulated. In the absence of a coherent statement of the foreign policy stakes, we see no reason to recommend that you overrule the United States Attorney.

RICHARD MILLER, President, International Business Communications, 1525 New Hampshire Avenue, N.W., Washington, D.C. (WDC), telephone (202) 387-3002, advised as follows:

In April, 1985, Prince EBROHIM BIN ABDUL-AZIZ BIN SAUD L-MASOUDY (hereafter the Prince), a self-claimed member of the royal Saudi family, seemingly verified by the publication "Who's Who in Saudi Arabia 1976-77," was the Vice President of the Arab National Bank, Jiddah, Saudi Arabia. Through that position the Prince told MILLER he had determined that MICHAEL ARMOUS and S.A. VAN ELDIK were arranging placement of a 2.5 billion dollar letter of credit for Saudi King FAHD at various banks, including the William Penn Bank, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania. MILLER characterized ARMOUS as a former "gas station owner" always trying to make money in the commodities market who was certainly not sophisticated enough to handle such a transaction. VAN ELDIK is allegedly the Security Chief for Philippine President FERDINAND MARCOS.

From his banking position, the Prince interceded in this transaction as it was illegal for Islamic and Saudi Arabian law for King FAHD to lend Saudi Arabian oil money at the agreed low rate of three percent and then make a fortune on the spread between three percent and the prevailing market rate when the money was reinvested. These actions ultimately placed the Prince at fault of King FAHD and directly relate to current difficulties between the Prince and the William Penn Bank, according to the Prince's account to MILLER.

During initial knowledge of the King FAHD/William Penn transaction, the Prince arranged, through ARMOUS, to meet ANDREW FARNESI, President of William Penn Bank, in Spring, 1985. The Prince maintains to MILLER that FARNESI made the initial offer for the Prince to purchase stock in the bank and the offer was so formalized that attorneys for the Prince were charged with formulating an opinion on the stock purchase. They advised the Prince that the stock offer was both illegal and a bad investment. MILLER opined that it was highly improbable that the Prince would initiate such a complicated transaction as his knowledge of English is limited.

The Prince, apparently at FARNESI's urging, did open an account at William Penn and signed over power of attorney to FARNESI. FARNESI and the Prince became close friends although FARNESI did not know the Prince was working behind the scenes to stop the proposed King FAHD investment.

By air waybill dated April 19, 1985, A SHARIF HANSOUR ALABDALLAH sent the Prince a check for $250,000 to the Prince's account at William Penn Bank. This money was owed the Prince by ALABDALLAH for a commodities transaction. The Prince told MILLER about the check and that FARNESI had assured the Prince that the check was a cashiers check. Based on FARNESI's assurances, the Prince directed that the check proceeds be distributed to several persons including his attorney, GARY BAGDASARIAN, the Prince's wife, MONIKER SHOKAL, and $40,000 to FARNESI's son who allegedly has cancer. The Prince told MILLER that he has never seen this check and presumes it was endorsed and deposited by FARNESI. MILLER understands that this check cannot be located at William Penn Bank.

Shortly after William Penn Bank allegedly placed ALABDALLAH's check for collection, the Prince told MILLER that King FAHD found out that the Prince had blocked FAHD's 2.5 billion dollar transaction when ALABDALLAH's check at William Penn Bank. MILLER claims the Prince has a nine million dollar balance in that bank. In addition to blocking the Prince's bank account, FAHD allegedly cut off all the Prince's oil contracts and published in Saudi Arabian newspapers that the Prince had committed check forgery at the William Penn Bank.

The Prince, as the Number Two Islamic leader in Saudi Arabia, has the power to jail or even order the execution of any Saudi Arabian citizen. Based on this authority, the Prince ordered the jailing of ALABDALLAH. ALABDALLAH was eventually able to gain release through the intercession of FAHD when ALABDALLAH went before an Islamic judge and denied forging this check.

Because the Prince no longer has access to his Saudi Arabian money and can only return to Saudi Arabia under the threat of jailing or death, MILLER has been assisting the Prince with the William Penn Bank. MILLER has correspondence between himself and the bank in this regard, including a $25,000 wire transfer receipt representing personal funds of MILLER's placed on good faith to the bank on the Prince's behalf.

During Summer, 1985, the Prince, with MILLER's assistance, has been attempting to put together a European commodities deal to earn money and pay off William Penn Bank. The Prince is supposed to return to the WDC area in early September, 1985.

Since the Prince's problems with William Penn Bank, the Prince has received numerous calls from KEVIN KATKE supposedly passing on inside information KATKE obtained from a New York FBI Agent named "COOKIE" or "COCOA." This information allegedly pertains to the fact that the FBI is ready to arrest the Prince if located. MILLER thinks KATKE is using this information as a ruse to arrange commodity deals with the Prince. MICHAEL ARNOOS was introduced to William Penn Bank by KATKE.

KATKE, a self-described "soldier of fortune," is allegedly tied to a New York arms dealer named SULLIVAN. KATKE may also be employed as an agent for King FARD and may be the conduit between the Prince and FARD as to the Prince's blocking of FARD's proposed investment in U.S. banks.

ARNOLD FARNESH told MILLER that he had received three telexes concerning ALABDALLH's check from the Saudi French Bank; the first telex confirmed the legitimacy of the check and full Saudi French Bank responsibility; the second telex confirmed the check but accepted no responsibility; and the third telex sent notice the check was a fraudulent transaction.

MILLER provided the following Xeroxed items:

- pages from the 1976-77 edition of "Who's Who in Saudi Arabia" providing reference to the Prince
- genealogical chart for The House of Saud
- air waybill transferring funds from AL SHARIF MANSOUR ALABDALLH to William Penn Bank
- letter dated April 1, 1985 and telex dated April 16, 1985 allegedly pertaining to placement of funds at William Penn Bank by King FARD
- documents pertaining to the offer to sell the Prince shares of William Penn Bank
- photo of the Prince.

This is exemplified by the fact that, during the week of 10/14/85, MILLER wired $2,000 to ZADEH in Switzerland for "hotel expenses." However, MILLER stated he would completely

RICHARD MILLER, President, INTERNATIONAL BUSINESS COMMUNICATIONS, 1525 New Hampshire Avenue, N.W., Washington, D.C. (WDC), telephone number 387-3002, advised as follows:

MONIEREH SHOKRI-M, Sacramento, California, is the wife of EBRAHIM AL-MASOUDY, who MILLER believes is a Prince of the Saudi Arabian Royal Family. MILLER and AL-MASOUDY are involved in several personal and business deals, including allegations that AL-MASOUDY passed a fraudulent $250,000 check at William Penn Bank, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania. MILLER has made contact with officials at William Penn Bank to arrange a pay out on the bad check, which AL-MASOUDY claims was a result of circumstances beyond his responsibility. AL-MASOUDY claims to be a multi-millionaire, but whose funds are blocked in Saudi Arabia due to religious and other difficulties.

Because AL-MASOUDY allegedly does not have access to his money, AL-MASOUDY requested MILLER wire $7,000 to SHOKRI-M for household expenses. MILLER complied and wired personal funds to SHOKRI-M, on July 30, 1985, from the National Bank of Washington, WDC. In addition, DAVID WILLIAMS, a childhood friend and financial partner of MILLER's, wired $11,000 to SHOKRI-M, on August 8, 1985, at MILLER's request and for the same purpose.

MILLER acknowledged information available to him to indicate AL-MASOUDY was a fraud, but MILLER has some confidence in AL-MASOUDY, to the extent that MILLER wired AL-MASOUDY, in Switzerland, $2,000 during the week of October 14, 1985, at the request of AL-MASOUDY. AL-MASOUDY said he needed the money for hotel expenses to continue working on ongoing projects between himself and MILLER.

AGAINST SPECIFIC CONTRA VOTE DATES PROVIDED BY FBIHQ CONGRESSIONAL LIAISON. THROUGH WFO'S INVESTIGATION, IT HAS BEEN DETERMINED THAT THERE IS A DEFINITE ASSOCIATION BETWEEN THE DATES OF THE CONGRESSIONAL VOTES ON CONTRA AIDE TO THE NICARAGUAN REBELS AND THE "ACTIVE MEASURES" BEING DIRECTED AGAINST LIEUTENANT COLONEL NORTH. IN ADDITION TO THE ABOVE, WFO HAS OBTAINED A COPY OF A CIVIL COMPLAINT TAKEN IN THE SOUTHERN DISTRICT OF FLORIDA FILED ON MAY 29, 1986 AND ON REVIEW HAS DETERMINED THAT THE CIVIL COMPLAINT MAY BE YET ANOTHER ACTIVE MEASURES PROGRAM PRIOR TO THE JUNE 19, 1986 CONTRA AIDE VOTE. ON JUNE 3, 1986, WFO MET WITH COLONEL NORTH IN ORDER TO OBTAIN ADDITIONAL INFORMATION WHICH MAY ASSIST IN ADDING MORE INFORMATION OF INVESTIGATIVE VALUE TO REFERENCED COMMUNICATION. AT THIS MEETING NORTH EXPRESSED GREAT CONCERN THAT INFORMATION HE HAD PREVIOUSLY PROVIDED HAD NOT BEEN ACTED UPON BY WFO. IT SHOULD BE POINTED OUT THAT WFO HAD NO SPECIFIC INSTRUCTIONS OTHER THEN THOSE INSTRUCTIONS RECEIVED BY SA DAVID BEISNER IN A MEETING WITH DEPUTY ASSISTANT DIRECTOR PHIL PARKER AND UNIT CHIEF JIM EGBERS. IN THE ABOVE MEETING, WFO WAS TO TAKE NO SPECIFIC INVESTIGATIVE STEPS INTO ALLEGATIONS OF ACTIVE MEASURES DIRECTED AGAINST NORTH.

NORTH EXPRESSED SPECIFIC CONCERN AS TO WHY NO ACTION HAS BEEN TAKEN REGARDING THE FOLLOWING:

1. NO INTERVIEW OF [REDACTED] CENTRAL INTELLIGENCE AGENCY (CIA), IN ORDER TO OBTAIN ANALYTICAL ASSISTANCE AND INFORMATION CONCERNING ACTIVE MEASURES CAMPAIGN.

2. LACK OF CONTACT WITH NATIONAL SECURITY OFFICER FRED COLCOM FOR ANY INFORMATION CONCERNING DRUG CHARGES

3. NO INTERVIEW OF DANIEL SHEERAN OF THE <sup>F</sup>CHRISTIE <sup>R</sup>INSTITUTE CONCERNING THE SOURCE OF ALLEGATIONS HE PROVIDED AGAINST NORTH. 2988

4. NO CONTACT OR INTERVIEW WITH LEONARD DOWNING OF THE WASHINGTON POST CONCERNING THREATENING TELEPHONE CALLS HE ALLEGEDLY RECEIVED FROM LIEUTENANT COLONEL NORTH.

5. NO REVIEW OF ANY CHARGES PLACED BY SENATOR KERRY AGAINST NORTH, NOR ANY ATTEMPT TO OBTAIN THE INFORMATION PRESENTLY AT THE DEPARTMENT OF JUSTICE (DOJ) INVOLVING SENATOR KERRY'S ALLEGATIONS.

6. NO INTERVIEW OR CONTACT OF SENATOR DURENBERGER AND HAMILTON CONCERNING THE SOURCE OF CHARGES THEY BROUGHT AGAINST COLONEL NORTH IN AUGUST, 1985.

7. NO INVESTIGATION BEING CONDUCTED WITH THE METROPOLITAN POLICE DEPARTMENT (MPD) IN ORDER TO CHECK THE NUMBER OF VANDALISM INCIDENTS ON THE ELLIPSE IN WASHINGTON, D.C. DURING AUGUST AND SEPTEMBER, 1985, ~~WHEN~~ NORTH'S PERSONAL VEHICLE WAS VANDALIZED. NO EFFORT HAS BEEN

AT THE SAME MEETING, NORTH EXPRESSED FURTHER CONCERN THAT HE MAY BE TARGETED FOR ELIMINATION BY ORGANIZED CRIME DUE TO HIS ALLEGED INVOLVEMENT IN DRUG RUNNING IN VIEW OF THE MURDER ON FEBRUARY 17, 1986 OF A DRUG ENFORCEMENT ADMINISTRATION (DEA) AGENT STEELE, ON THE DATE PRIOR TO STEELE'S TESTIFYING AGAINST THE SANDINISTA DRUG INVOLVEMENT.

BASED ON THE ABOVE, AND THE RESTRAINTS PLACED ON WFO WITH RESPECT TO ANY FURTHER INVESTIGATION, WFO IS PLACING THIS MATTER IN A CLOSED STATUS FOR THE FOLLOWING REASONS:

ALTHOUGH THE ALLEGATIONS MADE BY LIEUTENANT COLONEL NORTH MAY BE THE RESULT OF AN ACTIVE MEASURES PROGRAM DIRECTED PRIMARILY AGAINST THE REAGAN ADMINISTRATION'S EFFORT TO SECURE 100 MILLION DOLLARS IN MILITARY AIDE TO THE CONTRA, AND SPECIFICALLY DIRECTED AGAINST LIEUTENANT COLONEL NORTH, AS THE ADMINISTRATION'S PRINCIPAL AGENT IN SUPPORT OF THE CONTRA, WFO IS UNABLE TO RESOLVE THE IDENTITY OF THE ORIGINATOR OF THESE ACTIVITY MEASURES. FURTHER, WFO HAS NO PREDICATION INTO THIS INVESTIGATION.

Special Agents (SA) FLOYD H. PLUMMER and GERALD D. PERALTA, JR., conducted a surveillance of Room 5323 at the MARRIOTT HOTEL located on LeJeune Road, and commenced this surveillance at 7:35 a.m. The sole occupant of the hotel room, JACK TERRELL, was observed departing the room at 11:06 a.m., carrying a brown briefcase and small black overnight bag. Other Agents located in the lobby of the hotel advised SA PLUMMER by radio that TERRELL was observed checking out of the hotel and then departing the hotel area in a courtesy bus, apparently traveling to MIAMI INTERNATIONAL AIRPORT. At 11:35 a.m., the regular MARRIOTT maid was observed entering Room 5323 in order to clean it. At this time SA PLUMMER also entered Room 5323 and conducted a search of the various trash receptacles located in the room.

In addition to the various gum wrappers, cigarette butts, cigarette packages deposited in the trash container, a copy of the MIAMI HERALD, morning extra copy, Thursday, July 24, 1986, was found in the trash container. A cursory research of the newspaper indicated that an article had been torn from page 16A of the main section of the newspaper. Another copy of the same edition of this newspaper was obtained and this other copy indicated the torn newspaper article dealt with an opinion by Admiral JOHN POINDexter in which he stated that the relationship between the Nicaraguan Contras and Colonel OLIVER NORTH did not violate a congressional prohibition on United States involvement with the rebels.

Two MARRIOTT note pads were observed on a table in the room and appeared to have indented writing upon them. This indented writing appeared illegible to the naked eye. In addition to the two note pads, four pages of MARRIOTT stationery were also obtained and, to the naked eye, appeared to have no indented writing.

The above newspaper, note pads, and stationery, were turned over to the case Agents in this matter.

On 7/18/86, SA STEPHEN A. MCCOY reviewed a CBS Evening News Broadcast tape, dated 7/14/86, which included a brief segment on OLIVER NORTH. NORTH was identified as a staff member with the National Security Council (NSC) and was further alleged to provide liaison between the White House and the "Contras" fighting the Nicaraguan Government. The segment on NORTH followed a CBS overview of:

- 1) The history of U.S. Government aid to the "Contras"
- 2) The suspension of U.S. aid to the "Contras" following disclosure of alleged CIA and "Contra" improprieties,
- 3) The recent legislative aid package approved for the "Contras" and
- 4) The past efforts of intermediaries (both private and government) to funnel aid to the "Contras."

Regarding the latter point, NORTH was alleged to have been involved in circumventing the previous congressional ban on aid to the "Contras."

A "file film" picture of NORTH was shown during the broadcast, from which a "freeze frame" photograph was obtained.

The CBS broadcast did not make any references to captioned subject or to any other individuals known to be involved in captioned matter.

Dear Sir:

Why was the idea of helping the Freedom Fighters by the private sector taking away from us?

As you know CMA started in 1983, with the first deliveries of humanitarian-aid to the FDN in January 1984. Up to-date we have collected only from supporters $35,000.00, we have delivered over $4 million in supplies to the Freedom Fighters in the North and South of Nicaragua.

We have asked for assistance repeatedly from Gen. Singlab and one other, but the only thing we have received are our phone bills, for our efforts. The rest of the monies for our expenses have come out of our own pockets.

Repeatedly, we asked, horse-traded, and begged for supplies for Freedom Fighters. We can not help but notice the un-limited expense accounts and salaries for Johnny come latelys with brown noses.

We, of CMA, are not asking for nor are we begging, for a living just what is fair.

Per Capitol dollar, what we have spend for supplies compared to others, we have stretched that dollar so thin that it looks like a helmet-band.

We have taken verbal abuse from news-media and co-hearts of other organizations for 2 reasons":

1. We were NCO's
2. Not rich

we have been verbally abused but took it, about things we had no control over nor initiated. we are not cry-babys.

We have watched others collect hundreds of thousands, not one penny going to supplies. They get to see the President, we don't even get Thank You. We have collected supplies and loaded some to go south that others took credit for to raise more money for themselves.

A quick run down on what we have done for Freedom Fighters besides $4 million (wholesale)

We have developed personal relationships with FDK leadership in the field.

We have loaded every plane out of New Orleans (50+)

We have traveled over 200 thousand miles, Logged in 3 years 50 thousand man-hours.

I, personally have spend over $50 thousand dollars.

Have lost 2 close friends.

Have gained more selfrespect for myself and members.

Have lost respect for some so-called leaders of democracy because of attitude of "I want to be the boss".

I realize this letter may fall on deaf ears or blind eyes, think of yourself as a Marine Corp Officer--Up-holding Marine Corp standards, of taking care of your men.

Sincerely your friend in freedom,

Tom Posey

This entire communication is classified "SECRET".

On the evening of July 16, 1986, GLENN A. ROBINETTE, telephone [REDACTED] was interviewed at the Headquarters of the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI) by Special Agent ELLEN GLASSER of the Washington Field Office, Deputy Assistant Director, Criminal Investigative Division, JOHN J. SCHLESINGER, and Unit Chief JAMES E. BROWN. Special Agent KEN CONCHINI of the UNITED STATES SECRET SERVICE, was present during the interview. After being apprised of the interviewers' identities and purpose, ROBINETTE furnished certain information as contained herein. Prior to the interview, ROBINETTE was picked up at the intersection of 17th Street and Pennsylvania Avenue, N.W., Washington, D.C.

ROBINETTE was not queried regarding background and employer.

ROBINETTE advised that he had been attempting to locate JACK TERRELL for approximately three weeks. He did meet TERRELL for the first time on July 11, 1986, and has had almost daily contact with him since that date. ROBINETTE approached TERRELL under the pretext that he was a non-practicing attorney representing a group of investors interested in TERRELL as a collaborator for books, television, shows and movies. The theme of these media forms was to be centered around country conflicts with a "Rambo" type appeal. ROBINETTE stated it was his intent to learn information about TERRELL, which would account for his attempts to discredit United States efforts in Central America. In his contacts with TERRELL, ROBINETTE attached a 75 percent possibility for the chance that TERRELL believed his story.

While TERRELL does not volunteer information, ROBINETTE has obtained certain information on TERRELL which he compiled in a summary, dated July 15, 1986. Conversely, however, TERRELL has never asked ROBINETTE his last name or requested a telephone number.

ROBINETTE furnished investigators with a three page summary, dated July 15, 1986, as well as other documents. ROBINETTE's statements to interviewers confirm the information contained in the attached summary.

ROBINETTE located TERRELL by making inquiries through the CHRISTIC INSTITUTE, Washington, D.C. The Institute was described as a group of priests against "big brother companies and government". ROBINETTE contacted TERRELL through telephone numbers which placed TERRELL at the CENTER FOR DEVELOPMENT POLICY, 731 8th Street, S.E., Washington, D.C., or at an apartment of a MAL WARWICK of MAL WARWICK AND ASSOCIATES, INCORPORATED, 1711 Massachusetts Avenue, N.W., Washington, D.C. ROBINETTE contacted him through both telephone numbers, visited the apartment and had contacts with TERRELL outside the Center.

While ROBINETTE visited TERRELL at the apartment, ROBINETTE observed a copy of a civil suit filed by two American reporters, TONY AVIRGAN and MARTHA HONEY in Costa Rica against seven Cubans and five Americans. TERRELL advised that this suit alleged that the property of a JOHN HULL in Costa Rica was misused and showed an example of a misuse of funds. TERRELL never committed himself to ROBINETTE on the Nicaraguan issue. He told ROBINETTE that he had been in Central America to fight for Nicaragua. He felt that CIA and ~~other~~ ~~other~~ monies had been misappropriated and gave the example of MARIO CALERO in Miami. TERRELL was believed to have visited Costa Rica in February, 1986, and May, 1986.

TERRELL told ROBINETTE he was collaborating on a book with DAN GROTHAUS, a reporter with the Houston Post. TERRELL furnished ROBINETTE with an excerpt of the book. TERRELL also furnished ROBINETTE with outlines of proposals for an air freight service and helicopter service in Costa Rica.

ROBINETTE had no indication from TERRELL of how long he had been in the Washington, D.C. area or what his travel plans in the future would be. ROBINETTE did not think TERRELL was armed with a weapon when in his company. TERRELL told ROBINETTE he was supportive of the Contra movement, but thought that the REAGAN Administration had mishandled the program. TERRELL told him he voted for REAGAN and displayed no tendency toward committing a violent act against anyone in the future. ROBINETTE remarked that this opinion was clouded somewhat by the reading of TERRELL's book excerpt, in which, on page 13, TERRELL brutally describes killing of prisoners. ROBINETTE stated he had not really figured TERRELL out and could not assess the accuracy of TERRELL's statements to him or the statements in the book.

TERRELL apparently stayed at the apartment of MAL WARWICK until July 13, 1986, or July 14, 1986, when WARWICK, who had previously been out of town, returned to town. Subsequently, TERRELL gave ROBINETTE the following contact number, 524-6940, to reach him.

TERRELL refused $100 offered as a loan to him by ROBINETTE. ROBINETTE could not speculate on TERRELL's source of income. On one of their meetings, ROBINETTE took TERRELL to the Center to meet a DAVID MacMICHAEL, supposedly a former Chief of Station, Honduras and Nicaragua (uncorroborated).

ROBINETTE advised he has not spoken to TERRELL since the previous Monday and would call him the next day to arrange a meeting. He advised he would forward this information to the FBI.

ROBINETTE furnished, in addition to his summary of TERRELL, copies of the following documents with referenced source:

- (1) Outline, Helicopter Service, Costa Rica (provided by TERRELL)
- (2) Outline for: Air Freight Line, Costa Rica (provided by TERRELL)
- (3) "Dear Friend" Newsletter published by MAL WARWICK AND ASSOCIATES (apartment of MAL WARWICK)

Summary of Comments from Interviews-Jack Terrell
(His statements/comments)

- Jack Reynolds Terrell, 45 years of age, born in Alabama, 5'10" 165 lbs, slender build, brown/grey hair.
- Ran away from home at 14 years of age, conflicts with family/father, family well-off, father worked with Southern Railway.
- Jack and 2 boys stole a Model A Ford, broke into a gas station and took money for gas. He was 14 years of age, was sentenced to 18 year in prison. Spent 6 years in Alabama and was released. Never returned home. Hired by the Alabama prison system as to work with wayward teenagers.
- Parents are now dead. Has 2 sisters - 1 in Alabama, 1 in Florida.
- He married and divorced. Gave his wife substantial money at time of divorce as he was a millionaire by age 27. She is still unmarried and in Alabama.
- He had 5 companies in the past. Has no income now. Gets no money from Christic Institute or news interviews. Lives off of friends such as the apartment in DC on Mass Ave.
- Christic handles causes and cases for fights against "big brother companies and governments." Sheehan is brilliant, Davis is a Jesuit priest and lawyer. Sheehan studied for the priesthood. Sheehan and wife live in a house near the monastery in DC owned by the Catholic Church. The Church supports Christic financially.
- Jack gets no money from Sen Kerry - either by check or cash.
- Jack gets no money from anyone and is "hurting slightly."
- Jack does not want to align himself with any political group or cause. Will help only if the cause is identifying with actions such as the Government and CIA which hurts or is not helping the people (Indians) in Nicaragua: Most all of the monies brought in were actually skimmed off by the senior officers and very little ever got down to the people needing food, medicines, etc.
- Hull is an agent for the CIA, has an 8,000 acre ranch with 5 air strips. Strips were used for landings and transfer of military equipment but also drugs. TV News shots actually show officials helping transfer boxes, etc.

- Sen Kerry introduced/arranged a meeting with financial investors in the Boston area for the air services. They liked it and are awaiting Jack's return to the area for more talks.
- Jack is a pilot of prop aircraft including choppers. No jets.
- Christic has a hundred witnesses and will win the suit now pending in Florida. Jack will testify for Avigan/Honey. The Americans named in the suit are either employees of CIA or contract employees.
- The Senate plans very strong efforts to defeat the funding. Peace groups plan large demonstrations throughout the country. The approval will be defeated. Christic has about 12 attorneys supporting them.
- Singlaub and North have provided secret funding in the past and it was not distributed fairly.
- Jack has very good contacts in Costa Rica. He was there in February and May '86. He has a valid US passport which was once taken from him and stamped "Cancelled." by the US authorities when he was forcibly removed by gunpoint from Nicaragua by direction of the CIA.
- Jack as an IQ of 180 and total recall of names and numbers from many years ago.
- On Sat evening 12 July '86, Jack received a call from an Anchorage newspaper reporter who asked what he knew about a local air company named MockAir (sp?). What Jack said to the reporter is not known yet. He did tell me that "MockAir is owned by Zantoc in Chicago who is owned by Evergreen who is owned by Air America, the largest airline in the USA and has never carried a legitimate passenger. MockAir is owned/connected with Maul Corporation, Maultrie, Georgia. They make STOL aircraft. STOL aircraft were used by AF General Richard Secord in covert air operations. He also used PV-1 Neptunes for the same purpose." "He runs an 'under-airforce' for North."
- George Dooley was the operator of Air America and recently died.
- News reporters Brian Barger, AP and Christopher Dickey, Washington Post know a great deal about the Nicaraguan problem and have talked with people involved down there and here in the US.
- Jack, as a convicted felon cannot get a job easily. He has limited employment possibilities, not with Kerry or US Government. He must travel on his own, be independent, create his own successes.

Jack Terrell loved his country and believed that America could do no wrong. He wanted to serve his country. America's enemies---the Russians and all their puppet governments such as Poland, Cuba, Nicaragua---were the bad guys. America's friends and public servants were the good folk in the white hats. That included the CIA.

Now Jack Terrell is willing to die not for his country but for what he believes in ... and if he testifies before the Senate and House Select Committees on Nicaragua, as he's been asked to do by Senator John F. Kerry of Massachusetts and Representative Mike Barnes of Maryland, the FBI has warned him it could happen.

"But they can only kill you once," Jack says. "The problem is getting hurt. They can do that to you often."

In September 1984 when 42-year-old Jack Terrell conned his way into an Alabama-based mercenary group to join the fight against the Communists in Nicaragua, he didn't mention to them the CIA-sanctioned operation that was his real mission. And he didn't dream that before he left Nicaragua and Honduras---before the CIA forced him to leave, at gunpoint---he would have his own personal and private reason for wanting to stay.

Terrell then owned a condo service company; he had hardly any military experience. Today he appears as a soft-spoken, intelligent, articulate Southern businessman---tall, slender, dark-haired and blue-eyed---not a mercenary, not a gunslinger, and hardly a reflection of the kid in the black leather jacket and greased ducktail arrested by Alabama cops 27 years ago.

He grew up in Birmingham, Alabama; James Dean was his hero. At 15 he was caught joyriding in a stolen car, and spent his next six years in prison. Behind bars he learned the tricks of burglars, thieves and moonshiners, gave himself the equivalent of a college education, and laid the foundation for an expertise in military weapons and tactics. After his release he became the first ex-con in Alabama history to be hired by the prison system; he was the state's youngest and newest "dog warden," responsible for tracking down escaped prisoners. But publicity about his background as a former inmate forced the state to ask for his resignation.

During the Viet Nam era he was classified 4-F because of his felony conviction. Terrell had few marketable skills, a wife, and a young daughter. Then his 3-month-old girl was in a car accident with his wife and parents; she died 33 days later, and Jack always felt her life would have been saved if she had had prompt emergency care. It was stubborn grief and a sense of waste that motivated Jack to call a friend in Washington D.C. The friend loaned him $2,000 to start an ambulance service in Montgomery, Alabama.

A few years later Jack Terrell had made his first million. He had emergency ambulance contracts throughout Alabama and Mississippi, owned two airplanes and a ranch where he raised Palomino horses. But on the heels of a nasty divorce he managed to lose or sell off his business interests.

In September 1984 he was half-heartedly selling time-share condos in Gulf Shores, Alabama, when he read about two Americans who had been shot down in a helicopter over Nicaragua. They belonged to a group called Civilian Military Assistance (CMA), headquartered in nearby Decatur, Alabama.

Jack was mildly interested.

He became very interested when a week later he was contacted by an old friend in Washington, D.C. This man was an unofficial liaison for "the Company," the CIA. (For the moment, at least, he can't be named.) The Company for nearly a decade had used his small cargo company to ship arms to countries around the world.

The friend now suggested to Jack that, under the cover of the CMA from Alabama, he could organize a strike force of Americans and Contras to enter Managua, disrupt public utilities through a series of bombings, and at the same time assassinate the Nicaraguan Minister of the Interior, Tomás Borge. This was the same Tomás Borge recently singled out by President Reagan in a Saturday morning mid-March radio address for having engaged "in a brutal campaign to bring the freedom fighters into discredit."

"You see," Reagan said, "Borge's communist operatives dress in freedom fighter uniforms, go into the countryside and murder and mutilate ordinary citizens."

Jack Terrell's assignment was to put together a CIA infrastructure within CMA, and then carry out CIA-directed strikes. The first one was: get rid of Tomás Borge. The CIA would foot the bill. They agreed formally to pay Jack a fee of $50,000 to do the job. The operation was to be code-named Pegasus.

Jack Terrell had worked for the CIA before, in Rhodesia in 1967 and during the investigation of Tong Sun Park in 1977. His service had been too brief, unsatisfactory. He had always felt unfulfilled. He was a romantic; he craved adventure and action. He viewed his last two decades as dull, a series of failures punctuated by minor tragedies. He wasn't sorry for himself, he was just determined to get off his ass and do something with his life. He truly believed that Communism was evil, and those who tried to force it on illiterate Third World peasants deserved to be crushed, eliminated. What better course of action, what nobler cause, than to serve his country?

UNCLASSIFIED

UNCLASSIFIED

He agreed to launch Operation Pegasus, if he could convince the people at CMA. It was a challenge. The adrenalin flowed.

At first he couldn't find a telephone listing for CMA, so he tried another approach. He called the Decatur Police Department, told them that he was a state cop from Tennessee and had a warrant for a man allegedly associated with some group called CMA. The desk sergeant launched into a long diatribe against CMA's founder, Tom Posey, and bemoaned the recent death in Nicaragua of a former Huntsville cop who had joined up with CMA. "Yeah, I know where Posey is," the sergeant said. "But he and that gang aren't patriots or even real soldiers ... they're gun runners and dope smugglers."

A few days later Jack sat in a Denny's Restaurant near the New Orleans airport. Across the table was Tom Posey, founder of the year-old mercenary group. Posey, in his 40s, was a tall, smiling country boy who wore old blue jeans and drugstore-cowboy boots. Having heard President Reagan open the floodgates to volunteerism by publicly announcing that he backed the "freedom fighters and volunteers" all over Central America, and that if he was young enough he'd be down there too, Posey had raised the funds from right-wing Alabamans and formed CMA.

His avowed purpose was to supply arms and men to the Nicaraguan Contras. To that effect he worked closely with Mario Calero, the brother of Contra leader Adolfo Calero, and their current project was the formation of a new, small force of American volunteers who would fly down to Managua and join the battle. A CMA group had been to Central America already under the command of a man named Stedman Fagoth, but Fagoth had been booted out of Honduras after it was discovered that a part of the money made available to him had gone toward his personal needs in Miami. But Fagoth's help was still needed; he had the necessary contacts among the Contras.

Posey seldom checked credentials. Jack Terrell's proposal to create "a special strike force" comprised of Spanish-speaking Americans and English-speaking Contras was all he wanted to hear. He barely glanced at Jack's fabricated resume before inviting him to "join up."

When Jack attached himself to CMA it was, in his words, "a loose-knit group of redneck flag-wavers of dubious intelligence" who had heard the call of destiny to tilt the balance of power in Central America toward democracy and the American way. Their ultimate goal and pleasure---their mission---was to kill Communists. They were like little boys on a Saturday afternoon who had just seen a John Wayne double feature.

That he was similar to them was something he could not yet see.

Jack received his code name later that day at Mario Calero's home in Kenner, a suburb of New Orleans. It was to be used in a letter of introduction to Supreme Commander 380, Enrique Bermudez, the Contra military chief in Honduras.

"What should we call you?" Calero, pen in hand, asked Jack. He had already started to write the letter. "Because if we call you by your real name and this letter falls into the wrong hands, everybody's ass is on the chopping block ... especially yours."

"I told him I hadn't brought a suitable code name with me. He got up and went into the kitchen for more coffee, and I heard him talking to his wife. He came to the door wearing a big smile. 'My wife has named you,' he cried, with great enthusiasm. 'She says you're too thin. So we'll call you Flaco. Flaco! You like it? It means the thin one.'"

A few days after the meeting with Mario Calero, Jack Terrell met with a "blue suit"---CIA slang for a payoff man--- at New Orleans airport, and received an envelope containing $20,000 in cash. The rest of the money was to come later, with a midway payment of another $20,000 and a completion "award" of the final $10,000.

Six months later Jack Terrell, known by then as Colonel Flaco, was exorcised from Central America by the U.S. State Department. He was deported under armed guard for accomplishing what the CIA and the U.S. government had not been able to accomplish---the creation of an active force in the Contra setup willing to go into combat on a daily basis with the Sandinista army inside Nicaragua. But in the eyes of the CIA and a very particular Uncle Sam, Terrell had created his fighting force among the wrong Contras.

During those six months, Jack Terrell's attitude hardened into one of "a plague on all your houses." He saw at first hand the Sandinistas' thirst for bloody reprisal and disregard for human life; but he saw the same qualities, and more, in the U.S.-backed Fuerza Democratica Nacional (FDN) Contras and even in their Indio allies, the Misuras. He saw that the FDN Contras had raised an army of 16,000 supposed fighting men, but were far more interested in public relations than in joining battle to win their oft-proclaimed democratic goals.

Terrell, "the thin colonel," met during that period with wealthy Americans desirous of investing in the Contras, as if the Contras were a stock on the Big Board, in return for what amounted to future ownership of Central American natural resources. He was a participant in meetings in the United States between Contra leaders, American businessmen and CIA representatives; high on the agenda were plots for assassinations and terrorists attacks that were to be made to look like Sandinista acts. He was a willing participant, for a while.

But the ultimate goal of the Contras, Jack Terrell soon realized, was not victory on the battlefields of Nicaragua--- it was direct United States military intervention as in Vietnam.

Terrell, in his self-created role of Colonel Flaco, and five CMA American volunteers had just arrived at the FDN Contras' main camp across the border in Honduras. They were about to begin the training of their special unit when Terrell saw his first media event staged by an American television crew....

"Adolfo Calero, the Contra's top man, had flown down from his comfortable home in Miami and invited an NPC-TV crew to tag along. They were delighted. It hadn't been this exciting since Nam. Calero on this occasion---in front of the camera, somewhere in the deep bush of Honduras---was to give his troops a pep talk, and they would cheer and shout in order to impress the American audience on the 7 o'clock news with how badly the freedom fighters wanted to overthrow the Red bastards in Nicaragua.

"I stayed in the bed of the Toyota truck with the cameraman. Adolfo assembled his troops on the seldom-used parade grounds of their encampment. At one point the NBC reporter, Fred Francis, interrupted Adolfo's speech. The men were so thin in the ranks, he said. (There weren't very many of them.) Couldn't they all bunch together? And he would narrow his camera angle, and the soldiers would look like a fighting force instead of a gang of stragglers.

"Calero was happy to oblige. The rally began again. As he spoke the troops whooped and cheered, not with much enthusiasm, but at least on cue.

"I said something to the cameraman about 'staging,' and asked if that wasn't dirty pool. He said, 'New York doesn't care. And what they don't know won't hurt them, amigo. Besides, if we give these guys a good image back home then our crew can fly down here anytime without having to go through all that red tape with their PR office.'

Meanwhile Jack was learning at first hand how the Contras operated. All Sandinista prisoners, he noticed, were routinely killed. Supreme Commander Enrique Bermudez told Jack, "The men are instructed to cut the prisoners' throats. We have a shortage of bullets."

It was also common practice for the Contras to round up young men in rural Nicaraguan border villages and force them to join the Contra military force under threat of death. Those were the lucky young men. When the Contras entered Nicaragua from their sanctuary across the Coco River in Honduras, they searched through jungle villages and executed those suspected of being Sandinista sympathizers.

UNCLASSIFIED

Turnabout was fair play. To the east, in Nicaragua's Zelaya province, thousands of Mosquito Indians were slaughtered by Sandinista soldiers and their Cuban advisers. The practice had begun in 1981 when the new Sandinista government began to move the Miskitia out of Zelaya; it was basically an effort to relocate and thus gain control of a fiercely independent, rebellious tribe. The rotting remains of those who refused to cooperate were left in plain view, as a warning to others.

Terrell communicated on an almost daily basis with Tegucigalpa, using a powerful 1,000-watt Harris radio that had been given to the FLN Contras to the CIA. At his request, his messages were then relayed to Washington.

In November 1984, still in Honduras, Terrell and his American force began training FDN Contra special troops for a new mission. Without bothering to explain that the idea had been given to him by the CIA, Jack had proposed to CMA and the Contras that a terrorist strike on Managua, the capital of Nicaragua, could turn the war around. While they were at it, they would assassinate Tomas Borge.

The Contras and CMA both agreed.

But then, in early December, a series of newspaper articles was published in the Memphis Commercial Appeal. The articles, written by a reporter named Bill Thomas who had visited the Contra camp at Las Vegas, Honduras, exposed CMA's plan to use supposedly neutral Honduras as a staging area for their clandestine penetrations into Nicaragua. Posey had talked. In his simpleminded way he thought it would give good publicity to CMA and help them find more recruits.

The publicity did not offer any details of Pegasus itself, but it did compromise the Las Vegas training site. And it angered the Honduran government in Tegucigalpa as well as those who pulled the strings at Langley and in the White House. Under direct orders from Washington (Enrique Bermudez admitted this to Jack), the Tegucigalpa government deported Jack and his dozen American comrades who had been allowed into Honduras to participate in the training.

The dozen Americans, discouraged by the setback and the slowness of the pace in Central America, returned to the States.

But his FDN Contra pals convinced the thin American "colonel" to stay. There was still work to be done. He had only to bide his time. They arranged for him to go underground in Honduras, putting him up in comfort at Cockson's Hole, a fishing resort on the Caribbean island of Roatan. This was for his safekeeping, they said. Jack didn't object. He had things to do.

During his stay on Roatán he began to write a journal about his Central American experience. He kept that journal until his final exodus from Central America four months later.

He was on Roatán for ten days, and then he left, flying from Tegucigalpa back to Miami. He was still a believer. It was time for him to reorganize his funding sources and march forward with his plan.

3.

In order to understand Jack Terrell's options and his ultimate decision, you need to know the players in the Central American game...

The so-called Contras---contrary to the kind of oversimplifications offered in President Reagan's March 1986 speech to the American nation---are far from a homogenous and unified force.

Of the three main Contra groups, only the FDN (the National Democratic Force) is groomed and completely funded by the CIA.

Duane Clarridge, the CIA official in charge of military and paramilitary activities in Nicaragua from 1981 through 1984, created the FDN with an initial $80 million in covert Company funds. Jack Terrell has recently seen secret U.S. government documents---shown to him by the FBI and U.S. Attorneys from Miami, who are currently (April 1986) debriefing him in New Orleans---which indicate the FDN can account for only 20% of the $100 million they have thus far received in U.S. aid. Federal agents now investigating the FDN/CIA web tell Terrell they suspect much of these covert funds have been laundered through U.S. banks and used to finance cocaine traffic from Tegus (pronounced Tay-goose: the name used by old Central America hands for tongue-twisting Tegucigalpa) and Managua to Miami and Galveston, Texas.

Clarridge, known to the Contras as "Dewey Moroni," used blank check diplomacy to organize the FDN with a core group of 200 former Somosita national guardsmen.

The brutality of Somosa's National Guard was the principal reason that President Carter backed the Sandinista overthrow of the dictator's government in 1979.

Today President Reagan denies that Somosa's old National Guard gang is running the FDN Contras. Yet FDN commanders are named after their old National Guard serial numbers. Enrique Bermudez, the FDN Supreme Military Commander, is called Commander 380.

Eden Pastora is one of the men who fought for the Sandinistas in the overthrow of Somoza. Later, after he saw Cuban and Soviet influence sweep in behind the new government of Nicaragua's new President Daniel Ortega, Pastora became disillusioned and organized a Contra force in neighboring Costa Rica. They are called the ARDE Contras. Pastora labeled himself "Commander Zero," as a tongue-in-cheek jab at the former National Guard serial- number commanders heading the FDN.

The FDN consider Eden Pastora an enemy. The U.S. government grants him grudging approval ... and few other benefits.

The third main Contra force are the Misura Indians. They are based roughly 100 miles east of the FDN force in a dry, scrubby border area of Honduras called the Rusrus.

The Misura became an army through classic revolutionist means. At first they fought the Sandinistas with machetes, until they could capture enough rifles to arm a patrol, then a company, then a battalion. The Misura Contra army was born from a raw hatred for the new government---for the old government, too, it should be noted---and a simple struggle to survive.

The Misura---often called "the niggers of Nicaragua" by both Sandinistas and FDN Contras---have suffered centuries of mistreatment from whoever was in power. Now that they have weapons and some sense of order, their chief goal is independence from any government in Managua. This makes them, at best, an uncomfortable ally for the FDN; at worst, a growing threat.

In Washington it makes them an unknown quantity ... and Washington does not like to deal with unknown quantities.

It made them more than interesting to a man like Jack Terrell, who seemed to gravitate naturally to the underdog. He came to know the Misura well.

The entire time that Jack lived and plotted among the Contras, official American aid was illegal. Congress had said so. Yet military supplies from U.S. sources constantly flowed into Honduras---at one time under the guise of state National Guard maneuvers during the Big Pine exercises--- earmarked for the Contras. Several U.S. guard units visited sites such as Palmerola and conveniently left behind trucks full of guns, ammunition and heavy equipment.

What Jack Terrell found criminal, however, was the disparity in the distribution of those supplies. After Washington allowed the Honduran government to skim its 30% import duty off the top in exchange for having compromised its dubious neutrality, covert American aid was delivered only to the FDN Contras. The FDN was then obliged to distribute 20% of the aid package to the ARDE Contras in Costa Rica and 10% to the neighboring Misura Contras.

The ARDE got nothing. The Misura received barely enough to stay alive. All of the 16,000 FDN troops and their families and girlfriends were fed and clothed---yet no more than 2,000 FDN troops have ever fought in combat at any given time.

Five years have passed. The FDN still hangs out across the border in Honduras. They hold not a single square foot of Nicaraguan soil.

After his stay on Roatan, Jack Terrell traveled back and forth between Miami, New Orleans and Houston, hoping to gather funds for Operation Pegasus and find a new door into Nicaragua. He was bombarded with so many propositions during his five days in the States that he scarcely had time to realize what he was involved in. He was stuck on a treadmill of his own choosing and never thought to get off.

At different times during this brief odyssey he met with FDN leader Adolfo Calero (who spends a lot of time in Miami); a Texas oilman who wanted to buy Nicaraguan beans; Cuban emigre drug dealers who claimed that they wanted to become freedom fighters; freedom fighters who wanted to become drug dealers; and a CIA operative from Costa Rica who helped the Cubans in both the drug trade and in their dream of freedom fighting.

Jack was in daily contact with his CIA associate in Washington. He quickly discovered the price he would have to pay if he wanted to make friends and influence people and get Operation Pegasus off the ground. In the course of one week he was asked to assassinate Eden Pastora, capture a Caribbean island for a syndicate of wealthy Texans, turn a blind eye on the flourishing drug trade condoned by the CIA, and help exploit the Misura, the only decent group of people he had met during his time in Honduras and Nicaragua.

In Houston Jack was introduced to a man named Macc Stewart III, a plump 50-year-old alcoholic lawyer whose father had founded the Stewart Title Company with oil money. After Stewart II's death in 1974, the Princeton-bred Macc III sold his interest in the title company for $4 million. He was one of the original financial backers of CMA in Alabama.

Macc knew Nicaragua and the Misura Indians. "I love the Misura," he said. "I want to help them." When he met Jack he was looking for a man he could trust to represent him in offering the Misura $2 million in exchange for future rights to their bean, cocoa leaf and shrimp harvest in Zelaya province.

"We were sitting in the restaurant on the top floor of the Warwick Hotel in Houston. We were by ourselves, the place was empty. That surprised me, and then Macc told me he had rented the entire restaurant so we could meet in private. I didn't believe it, it made no sense ... but no one else showed up while we were there. During our talk he repeated an odd phrase. 'If I waved my magic wand, could this happen? If I waved my magic wand, could you do such-and-such for me?..."

"One of his projects he called 'Freedom Fighter Beans.' He had worked out a marketing plan with some people on the faculty of Texas A&M. He wanted to buy the entire Misura bean crop for ten cents a pound, then sell it in health food stores for a dollar a pound.

"His benevolence, I began to realize, was exceeded only by his greed."

Maco then changed the subject and offered Jack $375,000 in cash if he could organize his force to capture or sink an old French battleship used by the Nicaraguan Navy to patrol their Atlantic coast. This was the first step, he explained, toward the establishment of the small island of Cabeza in the Miskito Kays as "a businessman's island."

Maco was raising money for the project by selling $50,000 "war bonds" to old Ivy League pals. The bonds had even been approved, he claimed, by the SEC.

The first $600,000 would go to Adolfo Calero of the FDN. Calero had promised Maco that after the Contras overthrew the Sandinistas, the new government would recognize the island of Cabeza as an independent country. The men who bought the war bonds would be rewarded with their own private Caribbean fiefdom, complete with tax advantages, no import duties and diplomatic status. They could even join the U.N. or apply for U.S. foreign aid.

Jack guardedly agreed to work with Maco, but decided the relationship would last only as long as it seemed to serve the interests of the Misura. He would exploit Maco's greed insofar as it could lead to the Misura agreeing to the use of their territory for the launching of Pegasus.

Jack had already decided that it was vital for the potential Misura fighting force of 5,000 men to get involved in the war. But what the Misura lacked were arms and equipment. The few Misura patrols coming back from missions inside Nicaragua would meet their replacements at the Coco River and turn over their boots and rifles to the new men. Maco Stewart's money might change all this.

The next day, at Adolfo Calero's home in Miami, Jack was present while Calero, a young CIA agent named Rob Owens, and John ~~Harz~~, an American farmer living in Costa Rica, plotted the assassination of Eden Pastora, the Costa Rican Contra leader. Also present were Felipe Vidal Santiago, a Cuban CIA agent; Donald Lacey, a Costa Rican lawyer; and Aristides Sanchez, Secretary to the Directorate of the FDN Contras.

Jack listened while the other men discussed a previous attempt to kill Pastora during a May 1984 press conference in La Penca, Nicaragua. Pastora had escaped injury, but an exploding camera bag killed three Costa Rican journalists and seriously injured 18 others, including two Americans.

UNCLASSIFIED

11

No one had ever been arrested for that outrage, but there in Miami Jack learned the name of the assassin: Amac Galil, a Libyan terrorist, hired for the job by the CIA and the FDN. Galil had posed as a free-lance photographer from Paris, mingling with journalists in Costa Rica for weeks before planting his bag of C-4 plastic explosive at the press conference."

Jack Terrell was asked at the Miami meeting to attempt the next assassination of Eden Pastora. The CIA agent, Rob Owens, spoke little. Adolfo Calero at one point leaned against a doorway, a cigarette hanging between his lips, and casually said, "I don't want to know how you do it, and I don't care. I just want that Costa Rican bastard dead." Rob Owens nodded his approval.

John Hull did most of the speechmaking. His 2,000-acre farm in Costa Rica on the Nicaragua border had been a staging area for CIA and Contra activity for five years. In return the CIA overlooked the Colombian and Cuban-American drug traffic that passed through his property.

Hull and Jack Terrell hammered out a workable plan for the killing of Pastora. A hand-picked squad of American volunteers and Contras, dressed in Sandinista uniforms, would kidnap Pastora, take him to a village in Nicaragua and hang him in the central plaza. The leader of the Costa Rican-based Misura, a man with the unlikely name of Brooklyn Rivera, would also be assassinated if he didn't agree to cooperate with the CIA and FDN.

Jack left the meeting a little stunned. He was unhappy with his participation and his decision. He had begun to realize that he was caught up in the tangled web of his self-created character and nom de guerre, Colonel Flaco. He didn't like these men he was working with, and for the first time he began to seriously question their motives. For the first time, too, he began to doubt the validity of his own course of action---and within 24 hours he reached a decision to tip off Eden Pastora before the attempt on his life.

"During all this the Reagan administration was working overtime to persuade the American people that the FDN Contras were the good guys wearing the white hats, and the Sandinistas were unprincipled villains. The Company knew the truth, but they didn't care. They operated under the assumption that no one would talk about what really went on, and if anyone talked, no one who mattered would believe it. The CIA-backed mining of the harbor at Puerto Corinto in Nicaragua, for example, came as a shock to the American public. It was a clear act of war. That was Duane Clarridge's operation. He had contracted the job through the Summa Corporation, a holding company set up by Howard Hughes. There was some bad publicity after the mining of the harbor was revealed. So Clarridge was reprimanded and transferred laterally to another post. Not busted, not even demoted."

Another operation related to the Pastora plot (also sanctioned by the Company) called for the bombing of the U.S. Embassy in San José, Costa Rica. This staged terrorist attack was meant to be carried out by American, Cuban and Colombian mercenaries, but the CIA would make sure that the Costa Rican government pointed the finger at the Sandinistas. Terrell later learned that the bomb's secondary target was the U.S. Ambassador to Costa Rica, Lewis Tambs. Tambs had just arrived in San José after serving as Ambassador to Colombia, where his pressure on the drug trade had prompted a syndicate of Colombian cocaine dealers to place a $1 million contract on his head.

Both the Pastora and Tambs assassinations were designed to provoke and justify direct U.S. military intervention against the Sandinista government of Nicaragua.

When Jack Terrell returned a second time to Honduras he brought with him fifteen American volunteer mercenaries recruited by CMA in Alabama. Each man was assigned to a team of Misuras. Their first task was the reconstruction of the base camp called TEA, which had been overgrown by the surrounding forest. The TEA camp was actually a pleasant and attractive place, dotted with tall pines that shaded the huts; a fresh stream sliced through the 5-acre site and divided the crude bivouac area from the training ground.

Maco Stewart had given Jack $25,000 in cash to arrange for four American Indian chiefs from California, and their retinue, to meet with the Misura in Honduras and invest in their resistance effort. Jack knew that the expenses for this pow-wow would be less than $10,000; he began to use the balance to bring in plane loads of rice, sugar and flour from Tegus for his future army. The Indians eventually showed up, accompanied by the irrepresible Maco.

Jack's next step was more complicated.

The Misura had accumulated a large cache of arms and munitions---most of them brand new Russian AK-47s shipped from Bulgaria, still in their crates. The Misura had amassed this armory in a series of raids on unprotected government truck convoys traveling between the Atlantic coast and Managua. They had no boots, helmets or uniforms, but they had enough small arms for an army of 10,000 men.

Jack managed to convince the FDN Contras that it was in their interest to trade some of their abundant field supplies ---sent from the U.S., of course---for the Misura surplus weaponry. But it was more difficult to convince the Misura that the swap was a fair one. They had never had a fair deal from anyone. Everyone helping hand that ever been offered them had raised false hopes and been backed by lies.

The so-called Flaco was becoming fond of the Misura. They were the underdogs here, and the only honest fighting force. All they wanted was their independence. He had provided them with food, money and know-how, even Yankee manpower ... but they still didn't quite trust him. Why should they turn over their precious stock of weapons to a gringo colonel? Jack understood.

Finally, one steamy day when the sky was white from haze and heat, a group of Misura asked Jack to take a tour of some parts of the border he hadn't yet seen.

Less than a mile from the camp the group came to a clearing. Jack noticed a small hut, actually a wooden cage. He peered closer. Sandinista prisoners were cramped together inside the hut, forced to live with their own waste.

"They put seven prisoners on their knees next to a freshly-dug pit. Their hands were tied behind their backs. They were the ones they called the Pericuacos, the mad dogs, and the Misura were going to kill them. They were viewed as nothing but meat.

"The Sandinistas had been beaten, starved, and abused. They were rancid from their long stay in that hut, which was barely five feet high.

"I was given the honor of killing these men. It was a test.

"If I didn't do it, someone else would. I knew that right away. They were all eager. But I was chosen.

"I walked over and pulled out my Browning 9 mm 14-shot automatic. I looked down at the Sandinistas---no, I wasn't looking right at them, but actually past them; I didn't want to see their eyes---and I placed the barrel of my pistol at the base of the first man's neck. I pulled the trigger. Parts of his bone and flesh kicked back on to my arm, but I didn't notice as I moved down the line, firing again and again. I could feel the bone chips and hot blood hitting my cheeks and forehead. It felt as if someone was pouring warm water over me. I just kept moving and pulling the trigger. I killed all seven. I was shaking so badly I didn't know if I would be able to walk away, sit down, or fall down. I was totally wrecked...

"I didn't sleep that night. There was a stain on my mind and my soul that I knew I would never wash out. I thought, is this what you wanted? Did you intend to come here and be used and become a butcher? I lay in a kind of daze in the jungle heat. I kept saying to myself, 'If you didn't do it, someone else would have...'"

The Misura now saw him as not merely a dedicated ally but a soldier. But today, Jack Terrell's voice still cracks and falters when questioned about this final test of his loyalty.

The exchange of supplies and weapons took place. Over the next few weeks he and his group of American volunteers continued their training in the refurbished TEA base camp. Misura troop strength and discipline was growing daily. Jack had gone on a dozen brief combat missions deep inside Nicaragua, and more were planned. Land mines were being placed on roads that the Sandinistas had always thought were safe. The Sinsin and Yulu bridges that connected the Atlantic coast with the western half of Nicaragua were being studied for demolition. The Misuras, as soldiers, proved to be clever and highly motivated.

"I didn't want to be projected as a leader, dictator or king. I wanted to give back to these people the self-respect and dignity that had been taken from them throughout the last hundred years, but do it in a fashion that would make it seem as if they were in control of their own destiny."

Jack's temporary strategic goal was to help the Misura establish a base just inside Nicaragua at the village of Azung on the Coco River. That way, he and the Misura could operate on the southern side of the border without pressure from the FDN, the Honduran army or the U.S. government. He also hoped that the presence of a bona fide Misura base inside Nicaragua would warrant the direct U.S. aid that so far had eluded the Misura people.

Scores of villages inside Nicaragua had been scenes of slaughter by Sandinista troops in the early 1980s, and the village of Azung was one of them. Azung, in fact, had become something of a shrine, a holy burial place worth preserving just as the Sandinistas had left it. That was a key reason for Jack's having selected it as the first Misura foothold inside the country.

In 1981, under the eye of Cuban advisers, Sandinista soldiers entered Asung and the ordered the 450 villagers to collect their clothes and get in line. They were being relocated, they were told, to a protected government camp.

The village huts of Asung, which stand in rows near an overgrown airstrip, are still charred from the fires set by their former conquerors. It is unknown exactly how many villagers actually fought back, how many merely refused to relocate, and how many escaped, but the remains of 300 bodies were found scattered throughout the area.

Jack Terrell now saw how the Misura chose to retaliate.

"During one mission inside Nicaragua [with the Misura] we came across a tiny village of maybe eight huts. We heard what sounded like a party, men laughing and screaming. When we got into the village I saw a girl---she was probably about twelve years old---tied between two trees. By then she had already been raped several times, vaginally and anally. About thirty Misura soldiers stood around her. She choked to death when one of them shoved his penis inside her mouth.

"There was nothing I could do. I found out later that the girl's father had been suspected of being the Sandinista or Communist committeeman for the village. He escaped before the Misura got there, and this girl was the only one in his family they could find. So they raped her, and killed her.

"That was probably the worst thing I saw during my entire time down there. It ended my romance with the Misura. I couldn't say, 'Well, that's not typical, that's just an isolated instance, no matter how horrible it was.' Because it was not an isolated instance. It was the way things were. There were no good guys left. The supply of white hats was finished."

Jack Terrell's final farewell to the Guatemala-Honduras border and his ultimate disillusion with the U.S. government began in Alabama Senator Jeremiah Denton's office on Capitol Hill. Jack flew to Washington in March 1985. He met three times there with Senator Denton and Meg Hunt, the Senator's chief adviser on Central America, and Joel Lister of the State Department.

UNCLASSIFIED

16

The Misura leadership had drawn up a document giving Jack Terrell, a/k/a Colonel Flaco, authority to represent them with the U.S. government. Their new envoy was now requesting food and supplies for what he termed "the only real fighting force of Contras inside Nicaragua."

But Senator Denton argued that the Boland Amendment precluded any direct aid to the Contras. Jack laughed. He knew better.

What Denton and Lister wanted was intelligence. Jack, while on patrol missions with the Misura, had stumbled upon a terrorist training base and a three separate Sandinista cocaine manufacturing plants in Nicaragua's Zelaya province. The training base was a mock-up of a Boeing 727 that sat in a desolate clearing in the jungle. Misuras told Jack that exercises by different groups of armed men took place at irregular intervals in and around the mock-up. Some of the groups spoke English; some spoke languages the Misura had never heard.

Jack was unwilling to relinquish the details without more control of the eventual payoff to the Misura.

At another meeting he discussed the stalemate with Lt. Col. Oliver North, an assistant to the White House Chief of Security. Actually, Jack talked to Joel Lister, who held the phone in Denton's office and relayed the conversations between Jack and Col. North so that no direct communication actually took place. "Lister didn't know of my original CIA assignment in Nicaragua," Jack says. "But North did."

Senator Denton finally agreed to ship food and supplies to the Misura in exchange for the exact coordinates of the drug factories and the terrorist training camp. In effect, Denton was willing to break the law.

But when they began to discuss the details of the guarantees, Jack balked. If he released his information, he began to realize that Denton intended to use it primarily for anti-Sandinista propaganda. He knew that the aid freeze hadn't stopped Washington from sending supplies to the FDN Contras. Why shouldn't the Misura Contras receive equal treatment?

No deal was cut. Jack left Senator Denton's office empty handed, listening to Meg Hunt's final appeal to his "patriotic duty."

By the time he returned to Tegucigalpa, the U.S. Embassy there had received a telex from the State Department demanding the exit from Honduras of all Americans. The Embassy was instructed to apply particular pressure on the Managua government to deport Colonel Flaco's volunteer American group.

Teofilo Archibald, a Creole and the Misura political director, delivered that message to Jack Terrell at his tent in the Tia camp. Jack asked Archibald to relay his message to Managua: he would resist deportation with force. He wanted to buy time in order to decide what his next move should be.

But that night an Israeli cargo plane airlifted 40 Honduran commandos into the RusRus airstrip and then to TEA. As soon as the commandos were positioned around the tents of the Americans, a Honduran major woke Jack Terrell, instructing him that if he or any of his men stepped outside their tents carrying arms, the commandos would open fire. The major told Jack that he had 24 hours to vacate the TEA camp---then they would leave for Tegucigalpa and a final flight home to the United States.

The next morning Misura general staff officers stood with Jack at the small airfield as the Americans loaded their gear on the cargo plane. The 40 Honduran commandos stood with machine pistols at the ready. Archibald's second-in-command drew Jack to one side.

He told Jack that the Honduran commandos were surrounded by 300 Misura soldiers. All Jack and his men had to do was hit the ground, and the Misura would open fire.

Jack wisely declined. He had already agonized over the decision to leave, and he had realized that if he fought back ---even if he won---he would create two additional enemies for the Misura: Honduras and the United States. He waved goodbye and stepped aboard the plane.

In Tegucigalpa he and the other CMA volunteers were kept on the C-47 for eight hours under the tropical sun. Several of the men were sick; they were forced to urinate and defecate in the plane's cockpit. After nightfall they were transported to the basement of the U.S. Embassy and held there for a further 12 hours. The next morning their passports were taken from them and they were put on a commercial plane for Miami.

"I felt betrayed, and I felt the Misura Contras had been betrayed as well. I was later told by my CIA friend in Washington that it was believed I had got 'out of control', I wasn't following orders, and he advised me to keep a low profile.

"What they do in such cases, literally, is stamp your jacket at Langley with the words: 'OUT OF CONTROL.'

"At the end I did what I thought was right, not what I was ordered to do. That's certainly true. And since that day the Misura Contras have gone down the toilet, right where the FDN wants them, while the FDN sits comfortably on its tail waiting for U.S. intervention and a personal congratulatory visit from Ronald Reagan. He'll get a surprise when he sees his beloved 'freedom fighters.' They're thugs."

Jack Terrell thought he was helping his country combat the threat of Communism spreading throughout Central America through Mexico to the borders of Texas and California. At the time he set off for Nicaragua he didn't consider himself naive or idealistic. He knew he was an adventurer flying under false colors, but he thought he was adventuring and plotting for a just cause.

"Since then," he says, "people have called me everything from a sonofabitch to a nut, from a communist to a right-wing Reaganite. The labels don't bother me. I have to play a mental game of ping pong to understand what happened to me, the changes I went through. At times my feeling is one of total emptiness. I just want to come out of this, somehow, with my integrity intact."

Jack Reynolds Terrell is currently cooperating here in the United States with the FBI, the DEA, Federal attorneys from Miami, and the Costa Rican government, all of whom are investigating a web of drug traffic, assassination attempts plotted in the United States with CIA approval, anti-neutrality violations, and stacks of conspiracy allegations involving the FDN Contras and their American supporters.

On April 5, 1986, at the request and under the aegis of Senator Kerry of Maryland, he was escorted by armed guard to a safe house near Annapolis, where further debriefing will take place and a decision made as to his testimony.

Terrell has been asked to appear on 60 Minutes, 20/20, and the Donahue Show, but so far he has turned them down. He has given in-depth interviews to the Boston Globe and the Associated Press with the understanding that the material will not be printed until he gives the go-ahead sign.

"When the right time comes, I want to tell the truth of what happened down there in Central America. That's the only way we can understand what's happening now ... and what might happen."

Dan Grothaus, a reporter with the Houston Post, will be aiding Jack Terrell in the writing of his first-person story. A rough draft manuscript of approximately 120,000 words exists and is being edited. The final text will be similar in length.

Grothaus will conduct further taped interviews with Jack Terrell in Maryland and/or New Orleans, and will soon take a leave of absence from the Post and travel to Honduras and Nicaragua for additional research.

A target date of September 1986 has been set for completion of the book.

On July 24, 1986, at 10:50 a.m., GLENN A. ROBINETTE, [redacted] telephone [redacted] was reinterviewed at the Washington Field Office, FEDERAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION (FBI), by Special Agent ELLEN GLASSER, Special Agent DAVID A. BEISNER, and UNITED STATES SECRET SERVICE Special Agent THOMAS A. PUSKAS:

Before any questions were asked of GLENN ROBINETTE, he asked for "three minutes to speak out." Speaking very succinctly and repeatedly stating that he felt the interview was being taped, he alluded to the idea that the FBI had targeted him as being a "plumber" for the WHITE HOUSE. He continued by saying he would not be a part of any such action and valued his professional and personal character far too much to be associated with a "plumbers unit." He further indicated that he felt uneasy as to the FBI leaking information to the media about his contact with them. He stated that he holds the FBI responsible for any leaks of information to the media concerning his contact with the FBI. ROBINETTE stated that he knows both OLIVER NORTH and RICHARD V. SECORD. He is currently working for RICHARD SECORD in regard to identifying the origin of the information which resulted in a pending civil suit against SECORD. When ROBINETTE was asked what his association with SECORD was, he replied that he had started working for SECORD a month ago. When he was asked if SECORD was paying him, ROBINETTE replied by saying he was "working for SECORD." ROBINETTE stated he had not worked for SECORD prior to accepting this case.

In his contacts with JACK TERRELL, between July 11, 1986, and July 17, 1986, ROBINETTE advised that TERRELL was convincing and does not volunteer any information. ROBINETTE opined that "there is more to TERRELL than what meets the eye." He also stated that TERRELL showed little interest in women while around him, and is surveillance conscious. As for being a potential danger to President REAGAN or other domestic officials, ROBINETTE stated that TERRELL did not appear to be a danger on the surface. However, he believed that "There is something about TERRELL that's scary." He did not see TERRELL as an explosive person and indicated that, to his knowledge, TERRELL did not carry a weapon. ROBINETTE further mentioned a comment made by TERRELL that appeared scary to ROBINETTE. Under a pretext conversation about weapons, ROBINETTE asked TERRELL about obtaining a weapon for his wife. In response, TERRELL offered a suggestion and stated, "This is a rough world. There are times you need to protect yourself and your beliefs."

ROBINETTE concluded about TERRELL that there was a deeper side to TERRELL that had not been revealed. He could not say whether or not TERRELL was a possible danger to any foreign officials. He believed that TERRELL was self-serving and out for his own personal well being rather than truly supporting any specific cause, political or otherwise.

ROBINETTE ended the interview by reaffirming his original statement about his concern of the FBI thinking of him as a plumber and leaking information to the media concerning his contact with them.

ROBINETTE stated he would advise the FBI in the event that he planned to continue his private investigation by recontacting TERRELL.

On July 17, 1986, at approximately 3:00 p.m., GLENN A. ROBINETTE, [REDACTED]
[REDACTED] contacted the undersigned Special Agent, FEDERAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION (FBI) at the Washington Field Office and furnished the following information:

ROBINETTE stated he had completed a 1:00 p.m. meeting in which he met JACK TERRELL outside 731 8th Street, S. E., Washington, D. C., and ate lunch with him. He queried the undersigned Agent about whether he was being followed by surveillance units.

ROBINETTE stated that he believed TERRELL did not present a threat to President RONALD REAGAN. TERRELL appeared to have no loyalties to any outside government, except that he is sympathetic to Nicaragua issues. TERRELL reiterated, as in past meetings with ROBINETTE, that he was not opposed to United States policy per se, but was against the methods used to support the Contra program.
TERRELL described MARIO CALERO as a "pin-stripe General."

TERRELL refused ROBINETTE's beeper number when offered. He also told ROBINETTE he would be available at his telephone number, 966-5873, over the weekend.

TERRELL and ROBINETTE conversed about weapons which ROBINETTE's wife could use as self-protection. TERRELL recommended a .330 pistol or mace.

ROBINETTE was requested by the writer to abstain from making further contact with TERRELL until further notice.

On July 22, 1986, Lieutenant Colonel OLIVER L. NORTH, Director for Political-Military Affairs and the Counterterrorism and Low Intensity Warfare Group of the NATIONAL SECURITY COUNCIL (NSC), was interviewed by the undersigned Special Agent and Assistant Special Agent in Charge of the FEDERAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION (FBI), Washington Field Office, at his office located in the Old Executive Office Building. After being apprised of the interviewers' identities and the purpose, NORTH furnished the following information:

NORTH stated he has never personally met JACK REYNOLDS TERRELL, but has heard about him through numerous sources. Among these sources, NORTH enumerated the following:

1) Approximately 18 months ago, Intelligence Officer for Nicaraguan Resistance, Northern Front, (First Name Unstated) [redacted] advised NORTH that TERRELL was [redacted] telling people he worked for NORTH. [redacted] told NORTH that TERRELL, known to him as "Colonel FLACO," was [redacted] in a training capacity and was purported to be brutal with the troops. NORTH advised that he recommended [redacted] go to [redacted] authorities to throw TERRELL out of the country. NORTH believed that TERRELL was thrown out [redacted] subsequent to this.

2) When NORTH was in Central America, he heard that FLACO was trying to bring guns [redacted] from Miami. Contacts advised NORTH that TERRELL was telling others he was retired from the UNITED STATES ARMY, Special Forces, and was formerly with the CENTRAL INTELLIGENCE AGENCY (CIA). NORTH stated he ran checks for both, which were negative.

3) NORTH stated TERRELL is to be a star witness in a 1986 civil suit filed in the Southern District of Florida in which a group of United States citizens are named as defendants.

4) NORTH stated that TERRELL's name had surfaced in connection with a staff investigation being conducted by Massachusetts Senator JOHN KERRY.

5) While TERRELL's name has not come up, NORTH mentioned that in March, 1986, Washington Post Managing Editor LEONARD DOWNEY received obscene calls at night in which the caller used NORTH's name. DOWNEY wrote NORTH a letter advising him that if the activity did not stop, he would prosecute. NORTH stated that he did not make the calls, wondered who did, and stated he had responded to DOWNEY's letter with a letter offering assistance.

6) TERRELL has used OLIVER NORTH's name on television interviews.

NORTH stated that he is acquainted with both Retired Air Force Major General RICHARD V. SECORD and GLENN ROBINETTE. SECORD runs an import-export business, but is also a consultant to the DEPARTMENT OF DEFENSE (DOD) as a member of the Special Operations Planning and Analysis Group. NORTH advised that SECORD is named in the Florida civil suit, and another suit and hired ROBINETTE, a security investigator, to learn information about TERRELL, the key witness in both suits. NORTH stated that he was aware of ROBINETTE's investigation and has talked to both ROBINETTE and SECORD about it, but he did not initiate the investigation. NORTH has denied media allegations that SECORD works for him and reiterated this point during the interview.

On the evening of July 17, 1986, ROBINETTE called NORTH who asked him to do a favor. NORTH had been alerted by the FBI that the FBI sought to immediately locate TERRELL and NORTH asked ROBINETTE to meet with the FBI that evening. Before meeting FBI Special Agents, ROBINETTE met with NORTH in his office, giving him copies of documents, which ROBINETTE later also furnished to the FBI.

NORTH stated he has never met a DAVID MAC MICHAEL, whom he believed is associated with lobbying on Central America and has reported on "atrocities" in the last year. NORTH heard information through contacts that MAC MICHAEL [REDACTED]

NORTH advised that his NSC duties center around the coordination of interagency process within the NSC and carrying out policy. He has worked extensively in the area of Central American affairs and has played a large role in the "Nicaraguan Policy problem." NORTH stated that he strongly believes in a democratic resolution of Nicaraguan issues. He described himself as an "activist." He has a staff of four, two secretaries and two assistants.

NORTH stated that neither he nor his staff are responsible for funding, arming, or administering Contra programs. He stated that he is not involved with any covert operations being run in the United States. NORTH does travel extensively and meets openly with foreign leaders, including Nicaraguan Embassy Ambassador CARLOS TUNNERMANN. Other than NSC employees operating within the realm of their assigned duties, he stated he had no subordinates currently operating in the United States and knew of no one on his staff, to include himself, who was operating outside the scope of NORTH's jurisdiction.

On this date, NORTH furnished investigators with an original letter to him, dated June 27, 1986, from TOM POSEY, Head of the CMA.

General SECORD stated that JACK TERRELL is a central figure in the suit against him and ALBERT HAKIN, et. al. and General SECORD described JACK TERRELL as the "star witness" in this suit.

General SECORD stated he hired ROBINNETTE in May, 1986, to investigate backgrounds and allegations in this suit against himself and the other defendants. General SECORD stated that ROBINNETTE is on his (General SECORD's) payroll and SECORD believed ROBINNETTE had hired two retired FBI Agents to help in the investigation.

General SECORD described the allegations as being a concerted effort by JACK TERRELL and several other people, the identities of whom could be provided by ROBINNETTE. General SECORD named those people he could recall whom he thought were in collusion with JACK TERRELL. General SECORD identified a SERGIO BRULLE, a Cuban American, with a commercial business; a (FNU) GOMEZ, whom he described as a bad Cuban involved with drug running, currently living in the Dominican Republic; and a BILL KENNY, who is making statements concerning SECORD's activities abroad. General SECORD stated that ROBINNETTE could provide complete background information concerning his investigation to date.

General SECORD reiterated the information provided by a July 14, 1986, CBS news release concerning the "Naul" Aircraft (STOL aircraft which General SECORD is allegedly involved in selling to Contra groups at the behest of Lieutenant Colonel OLIVER NORTH). General SECORD also stated that there was a news conference held on Capitol Hill a couple of days after the suit was made in Miami District Court, which was conducted by Fenton Communications.

General SECORD stated that his personal attorney is a TOM GREENE, 659-2400, 1800 Massachusetts Avenue, Washington, D.C.

SECORD stated that, according to ROBINNETTE, TERRELL is a "spooky character" and ROBINNETTE had conducted an "operation" at the behest of General SECORD attempting to ingratiate himself with JACK TERRELL. ROBINNETTE met with him for a personality assessment, on the pretext of working on a novel concerning JACK TERRELL.

ROBINNETTE was attempting also to gain background information concerning AVIRGAN, HONEY and SHEEHAN, mentioned above. General SECORD stated that to the best of his knowledge ROBINNETTE met with JACK TERRELL three or four times and talked to him on the phone several times.

During the course of the interview General SECORD stated that he would make ROBINNETTE available to the FBI to provide full disclosure concerning his "investigation" on JACK TERRELL.

7/25/86

On July 22, 1986, Lieutenant Colonel OLIVER L. NORTH, Director for Political-Military Affairs and the Counterterrorism and Low Intensity Warfare Group of the NATIONAL SECURITY COUNCIL (NSC), was interviewed by the undersigned Special Agent and Assistant Special Agent in Charge of the FEDERAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION (FBI), Washington Field Office, at his office located in the Old Executive Office Building. After being apprised of the interviewers' identities and the purpose, NORTH furnished the following information:

NORTH stated he has never personally met JACK REYNOLDS TERRELL, but has heard about him through numerous sources. Among these sources, NORTH enumerated the following:

1) Approximately 18 months ago, Intelligence Officer for Nicaraguan Resistance, Northern Front, (First Name Unstated) advised NORTH that TERRELL was [redacted] telling people he worked for NORTH. [redacted] told NORTH that TERRELL, known to him as "Colonel FLACO," was [redacted] in a training capacity and was purported to be brutal with the troops. NORTH advised that he recommended [redacted] go to [redacted] authorities to throw TERRELL out of the country. NORTH believed that TERRELL was thrown out [redacted] subsequent to this.

2) When NORTH was in Central America, he heard that FLACO was trying to bring guns [redacted] from Miami. Contacts advised NORTH that TERRELL was telling others he was retired from the UNITED STATES ARMY, Special Forces, and was formerly with the CENTRAL INTELLIGENCE AGENCY (CIA). NORTH stated he ran checks for both, which were negative.

3) NORTH stated TERRELL is to be a star witness in a 1986 civil suit filed in the Southern District of Florida in which a group of United States citizens are named as defendants.

4) NORTH stated that TERRELL's name had surfaced in connection with a staff investigation being conducted by Massachusetts Senator JOHN KERRY.

5) While TERRELL's name has not come up, NORTH mentioned that in March, 1986, Washington Post Managing Editor LEONARD DOWNEY received obscene calls at night in which the caller used NORTH's name. DOWNEY wrote NORTH a letter advising him that if the activity did not stop, he would prosecute. NORTH stated that he did not make the calls, wondered who did, and stated he had responded to DOWNEY's letter with a letter offering assistance.

6) TERRELL has used OLIVER NORTH's name on television interviews.

SINGLAUB can be contacted at [REDACTED]

NORTH stated that he is acquainted with both Retired Air Force Major General RICHARD V. SECORD and GLENN ROBINETTE. SECORD runs an import-export business, but is also a consultant to the DEPARTMENT OF DEFENSE (DOD) as a member of the Special Operations Planning and Analysis Group. NORTH advised that SECORD is named in the Florida civil suit, and another suit and hired ROBINETTE, a security investigator, to learn information about TERRELL, the key witness in both suits. NORTH stated that he was aware of ROBINETTE's investigation and has talked to both ROBINETTE and SECORD about it, but he did not initiate the investigation. NORTH has denied media allegations that SECORD works for him and reiterated this point during the interview.

On the evening of July 17, 1986, ROBINETTE called NORTH who asked him to do a favor. NORTH had been alerted by the FBI that the FBI sought to immediately locate TERRELL and NORTH asked ROBINETTE to meet with the FBI that evening. Before meeting FBI Special Agents, ROBINETTE met with NORTH in his office, giving him copies of documents, which ROBINETTE later also furnished to the FBI.

NORTH stated he has never met a DAVID MAC MICHAEL, whom he believed is associated with lobbying on Central America and has reported on "atrocities" in the last year. NORTH heard information through contacts that MAC MICHAEL [REDACTED]

NORTH advised that his NSC duties center around the coordination of interagency process within the NSC and carrying out policy. He has worked extensively in the area of Central American affairs and has played a large role in the "Nicaraguan Policy problem." NORTH stated that he strongly believes in a democratic resolution of Nicaraguan issues. He described himself as an "activist." He has a staff of four, two secretaries and two assistants.

NORTH stated that neither he nor his staff are responsible for funding, arming, or administering Contra programs. He stated that he is not involved with any covert operations being run in the United States. NORTH does travel extensively and meets openly with foreign leaders, including Nicaraguan Embassy Ambassador CARLOS TUNNEMANN. Other than NSC employees operating within the realm of their assigned duties, he stated he had no subordinates currently operating in the United States and knew of no one on his staff, to include himself, who was operating outside the scope of NORTH's jurisdiction.

On this date, NORTH furnished investigators with an original letter to him, dated June 27, 1986, from TOM POSEY, Head of the CMA.

 by National Security Council

Dear Bill:

All this past weekend, I've been trying to figure out how I can most easily tell you my feelings about the discovery of the President having approved mining some of the harbors of Central America.

It gets down to one, little, simple phrase: I am pissed off!

I understand you had briefed the House on this matter. I've heard that. Now, during the important debate we had all last week and the week before, on whether we would increase funds for the Nicaragua program, we were doing all right, until a Member of the Committee charged that the President had approved the mining. I strongly denied that because I had never heard of it. I found out the next day that the CIA had, with the written approval of the President, engaged in such mining, and the approval came in February!

Bill, this is no way to run a railroad and I find myself in a hell of a quandary. I am forced to apologize to the Members of the Intelligence Committee because I did not know the facts on this. At the same time, my counterpart in the House did know.

The President has asked us to back his foreign policy. Bill, how can we back his foreign policy when we don't know what the hell he is doing? Lebanon, yes, we all knew that he sent troops over there. But mine the harbors in Nicaragua? This is an act violating international law. It is an act of war. For the life of me, I don't see how we are going to explain it.

My simple guess is that the House is going to defeat this supplemental and we will not be in any position to put up much of an argument after we were not given the information we were entitled to receive; particularly, if my memory serves me correctly, when you briefed us on Central America just a couple of weeks ago. And the order was signed before that.

I don't like this. I don't like it one bit from the President or from you. I don't think we need a lot of lengthy explanations. The deed has been done and, in the future, if anything like this happens, I'm going to raise one hell of a lot of fuss about it in public.

Sincerely,

Barry Goldwater

1. In accordance with Paragraph 10 of the Procedures Governing Reporting to the SSCI on Covert Action, executed on June 6, 1984, the SSCI and the DCI have jointly reviewed the Procedures in order to assess their effectiveness and their impact on the ability of the Committee and the DCI to fulfill their respective responsibilities under section 501 of the National Security Act of 1947.

2. The Committee and the DCI agree that the Procedures have worked well and that they have aided the Committee and the DCI in the fulfillment of their respective responsibilities. The Committee and the DCI also agree to add the following Procedures set forth below:

- In accordance with the covert action approval and coordination mechanisms set forth in NSDD 159, the "advisory" format will be used to convey to the SSCI the substance of Presidential Findings, scope papers, and memoranda of notification.
- Advisories will specifically take note of any instance in which substantial nonroutine support for a covert action operation is to be provided by an agency or element of the U.S. Government other than the agency tasked with carrying out the operation, or by a foreign government or element thereof. It is further agreed that advisories will describe the nature and scope of such support.
- In any case in which the limited prior notice provisions of section 501(a)(1)(B) of the National Security Act are invoked, the advisory or oral notification will affirm that the President has determined that it is essential to limit prior notice. It is further agreed that in any section 501(a)(1)(B) situation, substantive notification will be provided to the Chairman and Vice Chairman of the SSCI at the earliest practicable moment, and that the Chairman and Vice Chairman will assist to the best of their abilities in facilitating secure notification of the Majority and Minority leaders of the Senate if they have not already been notified. It is understood that responsibility for accomplishment of the required notification rests with the Executive Branch.

- It is understood that paragraph 6 of the Procedures, which requires that the SSCI shall be kept fully and currently informed of each covert action operation, shall include significant developments in or related to covert action operations.
- The DCI will make every reasonable effort to inform the Committee of Presidential Findings and significant covert action activities and developments as soon as practicable.

3. In accordance with paragraph 4 of the Procedures, the DCI recognizes that significant implementing activities in military or paramilitary covert action operations are matters of special interest and concern to the Committee. It is agreed, therefore, that notification of the Committee prior to implementation will be accomplished in the following situations, even if there is no requirement for separate higher authority or Presidential approval or notification:

- Significant military equipment actually is to be supplied for the first time in an ongoing operation, or there is a significant change in the quantity or quality of equipment provided;
- Equipment of identifiable U.S. Government origin is initially made available in addition to or in lieu of nonattributable equipment;
- There is any significant change involving the participation of U.S. military or civilian staff, or contractor or agent personnel, in military or paramilitary activities.

4. The DCI understands that when a covert action operation includes the provision of material assistance or training to a foreign government, element, or entity that simultaneously is receiving the same kind of U.S. material assistance or training overtly, the DCI will explain the rationale for the covert component.

This document is the property of the Senate and remains under its control through the Select Committee on Intelligence. It is provided for limited purposes related to congressional oversight of intelligence activities, on condition that it will not be released or otherwise disseminated without permission of the Committee. Permission is granted to provide it to the Executive Branch personnel whose official duties concern its subject matter, subject to these restrictions and controls.

Procedures Governing Reporting to the Senate Select Committee on Intelligence (SSCI) on Covert Action

The DCI and the SSCI agree that a planned intelligence activity may constitute a "significant anticipated intelligence activity" under section 501 of the National Security Act of 1947 (the "Intelligence Oversight Act of 1980") even if the planned activity is part of an ongoing covert action operation within the scope of an existing Presidential Finding pursuant to the Hughes-Ryan Amendment (22 U.S.C. 2422). The DCI and the SSCI further agree that they may better discharge their respective responsibilities under the Oversight Act by reaching a clearer understanding concerning reporting of covert action activity. To this end the DCI and the SSCI make the following representations and undertakings, subject to the possible exceptional circumstances contemplated in the Intelligence Oversight Act:

1. In addition to providing the SSCI with the text of new Presidential Findings concerning covert action, the DCI will provide the SSCI with the contents of the accompanying scope paper following approval of the Finding. The contents of the scope paper will be provided in writing unless the SSCI and the DCI agree that an oral presentation would be preferable. Any subsequent modification to the scope paper will be provided to the SSCI.
2. The DCI also will inform the SSCI of any other planned covert action activities for which higher authority or Presidential approval has been provided, including, but not limited to, approvals of any activity which would substantially change the scope of an ongoing covert action operation.
3. Notification of the above decisions will be provided to the SSCI as soon as practicable and prior to implementation of the actual activity.

4. The DCI and the SSCI recognize that an activity planned to be carried out in connection with an ongoing covert action operation may be of such a nature that the Committee will desire notification of the activity prior to implementation, even if the activity does not require separate higher authority or Presidential approval. The SSCI will, in connection with each ongoing covert action operation, communicate to the DCI the kinds of activities (in addition to those described in Paragraphs 1 and 2) that it would consider to fall in this category. The DCI will independently take steps to ensure that the SSCI is also advised of activities that the DCI reasonably believes fall in this category.

5. When briefing the SSCI on a new Presidential Finding or on any activity described in paragraphs 2 or 4, the presentation should include a discussion of all important elements of the activity, including operational and political risks, possible repercussions under treaty obligations or agreements, and any special issues raised under U.S. law.

6. To keep the SSCI fully and currently informed on the progress and status of each covert action operation, the DCI will provide to the SSCI: (A) a comprehensive annual briefing on all covert action operations; and (B) regular information on implementation of each ongoing operation, with emphasis on aspects in which the SSCI has indicated particular interest.

7. The DCI and the SSCI agree that the above procedures reflect the fact that covert action activities are of particular sensitivity, and it is imperative that every effort be made to prevent their unauthorized disclosure. The SSCI will protect the information provided pursuant to these notification procedures in accordance with the procedures set forth in S.Res. 400, and with special regard for the extreme sensitivity of these activities. It is further recognized that public reference to covert action activities raises serious problems for the United States abroad, and, therefore, such references by either the Executive or Legislative Branches are inappropriate. It is also recognized that the compromise of classified information concerning covert activities does not automatically declassify such information. The appearance of references to such activities in the public media does not constitute authorization to discuss such activities. The DCI and the SSCI recognize that the long established policy of the U.S. Government is not to comment publicly on classified intelligence activities.

MEMORANDUM FOR ROBERT C. MCFARLANE

FROM: OLIVER L. NORTH
ALTON KEEL

SUBJECT: Additional Resources for our Anti-Sandinista Program

Based on your guidance at our meeting this morning, we have prepared a memo from you to the President (Tab I) asking him to send a memo (Tab A) to those most concerned with this issue. Your memo provides straightforward background on the resource requirements and cites the need for a concerted effort in order to achieve success.

Today's events regarding the situation in Lebanon make the points in your memo--and subsequent action--even more imperative. If this program founders for lack of funds, we may very likely suffer a major foreign policy reversal with repercussions well beyond Central America.

Please note that Dr. Kissinger, in private meetings today with Speaker O'Neill and HPSCI Chairman Boland, defended this program most eloquently. He believes that with a well led and cooperative effort we can carry the day on this issue. He has not yet been made aware of the magnitude of our shortfall.

Congressional resistance on this issue is formidable to the degree that prospects for success are bleak even with a concerted effort. At some point, we may have to reassess our prospects and decide whether prudence requires that we somehow stretch out FY-84 effort to avoid running out of funds.

Dear Mr. Secretary:

As you are aware, the recently enacted H.J. Res. 648, making continuing appropriations for fiscal year 1985, contains a prohibition regarding assistance to the "contras" fighting in Nicaragua. Recent reports have indicated that other countries are furnishing aid to the "contra" forces in order to keep them a viable military force exerting pressure on the Sandinistas. Of the countries identified in these reports as furnishing such aid, several are Central American neighbors of Nicaragua and are themselves recipients of U.S. foreign assistance funding. For example, El Salvador has been the recipient of increased U.S. aid since the election of President Duarte, and is identified in the reports as being one of the countries aiding the "contras". If these reports are accurate, I am concerned that countries receiving U.S. foreign assistance aid may be utilizing a portion of such aid to assist the "contras" and, in so doing, effect a rather devious contravention of the law prohibiting such aid.

I would appreciate receiving your thoughts on this issue as well as your assurance that no U.S. foreign assistance funding is being utilized to effect what amounts to "revolving door" aid to the "contras".

With best wishes,

~~Barthany~~

Dear Mr. Addabbo:

I am pleased to have the opportunity to respond to your letter of December 11 to the Secretary in which you expressed your concern that U.S. foreign assistance to Central American countries is being used to aid the anti-Sandinista forces, thereby circumventing the prohibition contained in the continuing resolution for FY 1985.

Our foreign assistance funds to Central American countries, as elsewhere, are monitored very closely to ensure that they are used for the purpose intended. In El Salvador, the management of U.S. military assistance is performed by the U.S. Military Group while the U.S. Agency for International Development (AID) mission manages economic and developmental assistance. We cannot determine or dictate how a nation expends its own resources; however, disbursement of funds and delivery of equipment through U.S. foreign assistance programs are closely supervised. To our knowledge, no U.S. foreign assistance funding or equipment provided through the Foreign Assistance Act is being diverted to the anti-Sandinista forces or a third country.

Sincerely,

W. Tapley Bennett, Jr.
Assistant Secretary
Legislative and Intergovernmental Affairs

Dear Mr. Chairman:

Thank you for forwarding a copy of your letter to Secretary Shultz regarding the possibility that United States foreign assistance could be diverted to aid Anti-Sandinista forces constituting a circumvention of the prohibition of such aid contained in the Continuing Resolution of Fiscal Year 1985.

United States military groups are charged with managing the military assistance programs in-country and the delivery of equipment resulting from these programs is closely monitored. While each nation's sovereign interests determine how they expend their own funds, to the best of our knowledge no U.S. equipment provided through the Foreign Assistance or Arms Export Control Acts is being diverted to Anti-Sandinista forces.

Hopefully, this information meets your concerns in this matter.

Sincerely,

Mr. Robert W. McFarlane
 National Security Adviser
 National Security Council
 White House
 Washington, D.C. 20500

Dear Mr. McFarlane:

I am writing to inquire about recent news reports depicting the Administration's involvement in coordinating private organizations' donations to the contras in Nicaragua during the period when Congress terminated U.S. funding of the contras.

I am particularly concerned about two aspects of the recent revelations. First, early White House reports about these activities insisted that the Administration "neither encourages nor discourages" the private fundraising efforts. However, we now have evidence that these early reports were misleading and that the Administration's involvement was much more extensive than previously acknowledged. There have been reports that the President himself was aware of the existence of the plan to coordinate private donations within the Administration.

Second, I am concerned that the Administration's involvement explicitly contradicted Congress' intent that U.S. contributions to the contras cease in view of the U.S.' involvement in the mining of Nicaraguan harbors. There is evidence that private contributions, coordinated by the Administration, allowed the contras to continue their activities unabated despite the congressional funding ban.

In light of these revelations, I would appreciate an accounting from the National Security Council of its involvement in the creation of this aid network. Specifically, did your activities conflict with the terms of the Boland amendment, which explicitly prohibits U.S. covert actions for the purpose of overthrowing the Sandinista government? How extensive was the Administration's involvement in coordinating the network? Also, are there any efforts currently underway in the Administration to facilitate the sending of private donations to the contras?

I look forward to receiving your response to my questions soon.

Sincerely yours,

Richard J. Durbin

ACTION

MEMORANDUM FOR JOHN M. POINDEXTER

FROM: BRENDA S. REGER

SUBJECT: Barnes Request

Before we can decide how to respond to Congressman Barnes' request for documents, we must determine whether any exist and are retrievable and, whether they are White House or NSC.

In past instances of allegations of this kind (e.g. Billy Carter and Libya, Dick Allen, etc.) we have treated the request as broadly based for all records whether NSC or White House but have maintained them as separate issues within the request. At the same time, the search should be as narrowly focused as was the request. In this case, Congressman Barnes has focused on "...documents, pertaining to any contact between Lt. Col. North and Nicaraguan rebel leaders as of...October, 1984."

There is unlikely to be a great deal of documentation such as is described but we should search the files only on that basis. Fishing expeditions in all files relating to Central America and/or Nicaragua are NOT necessary to respond to the request.

Secretariat usually does searches in response to Congressional requests, but in this case I can have Donna search NSC and Presidential Advisory files by computer here in my office and ask Intel and CMC to do the same in their files. I will brief Jim Radzinski and Rod's person on how to conduct the narrowly defined search in their files.

Working files in staff member's offices are NOT subject to this or any other kind of searches since they are "convenience files" generally made up of drafts, and/or copies of documentation in the institutional and Presidential Advisory files. I therefore see no need to search whatever "convenience files" Ollie may have in his office.

Appointment logs and/or telephone logs however have become favorite targets of such inquiries (e.g. Zbig and staff in the Billy Carter thing, Wick, Ann Burford, etc.) and we must be prepared to deal with that issue. I wasn't involved in the handling of the issue for Zbig on Billy Carter but as I recall they "created" an excerpt listing of times and dates of telecons and meetings Brezinski and other staff had from their logs rather than provide the logs themselves. (We could check Kimmitt's files and/or ask him or Brezinski if you like.)

UNCLASSIFIED

4266

UNCLASSIFIED

N 29804

It may be in our interest to be terribly forthcoming and bury Mr. Barnes in logs of dates and/or names re meetings and telecons or perhaps to offer to do so putting him on notice that the logs give times and dates but no substance.

Before we provide any response to Barnes, however, we need to know the scope of the documentation on contacts. Once we have that, the legal issues can be addressed.

Recommendation A

That you authorize me to start a search of the Secretariat, Intel, CMC files (both Presidential and NSC) as described above:

Approve ✓ JMP

Disapprove _____

Recommendation B

That for now we limit the search on the appointment and telephone logs to Ollie sampling his telephone and appointment calendars to give us a sense of what they consist of and of the potential relevance to the request.

Meeting with [REDACTED]

- The FDN is in urgent need of anti-aircraft weapons and other crew-served weapons ammunition (particularly 60 and 81mm mortar rounds). Units in the field are also in need of large quantities of boots and clothing since the number of ralliers has exceeded expectations by 2,000.
- The Resistance Forces are also in urgent need of expertise in maritime operations.
- The USG is unaware of the Singlaub mission and he is making this request based on his long friendship [REDACTED]. Because of the law restricting USG involvement, no USG official can solicit on behalf the Resistance Forces.
- If [REDACTED] like to help, Singlaub can arrange a meeting with Adolfo Calero. If it is necessary for a USG official to verify Calero's bona fides, this can be arranged.

 This weekend, at the request of Sec. John Lehman, I met with <sup>N 16889</sup> David Walker, a former British SAS officer who now heads two companies (KMS and SALADIN) which provide professional security services to foreign governments. Walker had been approached several months ago, prior to initiating the current financial arrangement for the FDN. In addition to the security services provided by KMS, this offshore (Jersey Islands) company also has professional military "trainers" available. Walker suggested that he would be interested in establishing an arrangement with the FDN for certain special operations expertise aimed particularly at destroying HIND helicopters. Walker quite accurately points out that the helicopters are more easily destroyed on the ground than in the air.

Unless otherwise directed, Walker will be introduced to Calero and efforts will be made to defray the cost of Walker's operations from other than Calero's limited assets.

MEMORANDUM FOR ROBERT C. MCFARLANE

FROM: OLIVER L. NORTH

SUBJECT: Timing and the Nicaraguan Resistance Vote

Attached at Tab A is the most recent version of the chronology of events aimed at securing Congressional approval for renewed support to the Nicaraguan Resistance Forces. This schedule results from the four communications/media meetings we have now had with Pat Buchanan's ad hoc working group. Please note that the schedule continues to focus on a vote at the end of April triggered by submission of the required report on or about April 15.

In addition to the events depicted on the internal chronology at Tab A, other activities in the region continue as planned--including military operations and political action. Like the chronology, these events are also timed to influence the vote:

- planned travel by Calero, Cruz, and Robelo;
- various military resupply efforts timed to support significantly increased military operations immediately after the vote (we expect major Sandinista crossborder attacks in this timeframe--today's resupply to [REDACTED] from [REDACTED] went well); and
- special operations attacks against highly visible military targets in Nicaragua.

Some of these efforts will proceed whether or not the vote occurs as planned at the end of April. For example, today Bernardario Larios, former Sandinista Defense Minister, defected to Costa Rica and is now in Panama (you were briefed on this operation during the trip). Others, however, including actions by U.S., interests groups are very sensitive to the timing. Next week the networks auction their air time for 15, 30, and 60 second commercials during prime viewing hours. These groups are prepared to commit nearly $2M for commercial air time and the production of various advertising media. If we are to retain their support, we must let them know by Friday whether or not they should proceed. To the maximum extent we have tried to prevent the kinds of errors that will cost them financially or politically. Unfortunately, some, like the Young Republicans ad, get through--this has been fixed.

It is important that a decision be taken no later than noon, Friday, March 22, if we are to proceed with the events in the checklist (Tab A) and those activities which support a vote at the end of April.

Senator Durenburger plans to make a major speech on this issue at the National Press Club next Tuesday, March 26. We should at least give him a sense of what to expect before he speaks.

You should also be aware that Director Casey has sent a personal note to Don Regan on the timing matter. We are attempting to obtain a copy for your use.

Worthlind has apparently completed an analysis on some recent polling data. It reportedly does not look good for a vote at this time.

Finally, Jim Michel reminds that in your meetings with the Central American Heads of State you told them that we would be quiescent during the early Spring, but that in April we would act. This description fits either scenario--going for the vote or a fallback option with sanctions. One way or the other, we need to have a decision.

RECOMMENDATION

That you discuss this matter with Don Regan and urge that a decision be made on timing by noon on Friday, March 22.

Dear Fellow Vermonter:

The Reagan Administration's support for the contra insurgents against Nicaragua continues to harm the interests of the United States in Central America. We should be promoting peace, political stability, economic development, and the strengthening of democratic institutions there. Instead, the Administration relies on outdated oligarchies, corrupt governments, unjust social and political systems, and military power as the tools of American policy.

Last year, those of us concerned about this policy finally persuaded Congress to stop any U.S. military assistance to the contras. Unfortunately, Congress recently lost its nerve and approved the President's request for $27 million so-called "humanitarian" assistance to the rebels. This is a smokecreen. Every dollar the contras do not have to spend on subsistence, they can use to buy more arms and munitions. Also, no matter how vigilant we are, the contras probably will divert some of the aid to military purposes.

While the ban on U.S. assistance to the contras was in effect, private groups and donors in this country gave money to support the insurgency. I was disturbed by charges made in the press, and privately to me, that a military officer on the National Security Council staff was involved in channeling private funds to the contras, and even in offering them political and military advice. In my capacity as Vice Chairman of the Intelligence Committee, I immediately wrote Senator Dave Durenberger, the Chairman, that we should determine the facts of the case to see whether there had been any violation of U.S. law.

On September 5, the Chairman and I met with Robert McFarlane, President Reagan's National Security Adviser and supervisor of the NSC staff person in question. He said he had pursued these allegations, and assured us that no law had been broken. Mr. McFarlane said that the officer had frequently received calls from persons wishing to donate funds, and that he referred them to the contra leaders themselves. He insisted that the officer never solicited funds, encouraged donations or initiated contacts with potential donors. He further denied that the officer, in several personal meetings with contra leaders, both in Washington and in Central America, ever offered military advice. The officer's authorized role, Mr. McFarlane said, was to assure the contras during the time of the congressional aid cutoff of the President's continued moral support.

Dear Leon:

Thank you for your letter regarding press reports that a member of the National Security Council staff engaged in activities which might have been in violation of the Boland Amendment.

The Committee looked into those allegations and met with Mr. McFarlane, the Assistant to the President for National Security Affairs. He said that the President had made clear that everyone in the Executive Branch had to comply with the Boland Amendment.

Mr. McFarlane further stated that he had conducted a thorough investigation into the allegations made about the NSC staff. He believes, based on his investigation and his conversation with the NSC staffer mentioned in the press stories that the staffer had not:

- given military advice of any kind to the contras; or
- solicited, accepted, transmitted or in any other way been involved with funds for the contras.

At this time, the Committee does not have any information to contradict Mr. McFarlane except several unsubstantiated news stories. The Committee will continue to monitor this situation and take such action as seems warranted.

With best wishes, I am

Sincerely yours,

I have just had a chance to watch the W 57th piece. As far as I am concerned, it is the single most distorted piece of "reporting" I have ever seen. Mull does not allege that he knows me, does not confess to receiving money from me or anyone else at the NSC. The only charges made about the NSC are made by people who are in jail, on their way to jail or just out of jail. If this is supposed to be credible, then I'll eat my shirt. I have never met ANY of the accusers or had anything to do with any of them. Obviously, I know and have met several times with Eden Pastora. He does not allege any wrongdoing. I know Robert Owen - he was, up until the time it went out of business - a consultant to the State Dept. NHAO. He was not "paid off" $50k, as alleged by an anonymous accuser, he was paid a salary and expenses for services he provided in delivering humanitarian aid for the USG on a State Dept. contract. Finally, their main "witness," Mr. Terrell was not called to appear before Sen. Kerry's inquisition - apparently because people have learned that Mr. Terrell was not, as he claimed, a former Special Forces Officer, nor a CIA agent, nor a "contra combat leader." In short, neither the witnesses nor the slanderous piece that CBS produced have any credibility whatsoever.

Dear Ron:

As you are aware, there have been numerous stories published in the press during the last year alleging that members of the National Security Council violated the Boland amendment prohibiting certain assistance to the contras fighting the government of Nicaragua. As a result of these allegations, you introduced a resolution of inquiry to compel the National Security Council to provide certain information so the Congress could make a determination as to whether or not the Boland amendment was violated during the time it was in effect.

Because of the highly classified nature of the work of the National Security Council, the resolution of inquiry was referred to the House Permanent Select Committee on Intelligence. Members of the Committee, including myself, went to the White House to examine the issues raised by the resolution with Lieutenant Colonel Oliver North, a member of the National Security Council staff and one of the principal subjects of the resolution; the President's National Security Adviser; and other members of the NSC staff, including White House counsel. In addition, the Committee also examined other classified evidence concerning the resolution.

Based on our discussions and review of the evidence provided, it is my belief that the published press allegations cannot be proven.

The resolution of inquiry was the proper vehicle by which to bring these matters to the attention of the Congress and to this Committee, and we appreciate your efforts to remove doubts about United States activities.

With best wishes, I am

Sincerely yours,

Furious Debate

MR. PETER JENNINGS:
Good evening. There's a furious debate going on tonight between the governments of the United States and Nicaragua and it revolves on the question of whose cargo plane carrying ammunition to the anti-government Contras was shot down inside Nicaragua yesterday and who were the Americans on board working for? They'd apparently flown from El Salvador.

The Government of Nicaragua says it is proof of direct U.S. involvement in the war. The Reagan Administration says not true.

Our first report is from Nicaragua and here's ABC's Peter Collins.

MR. PETER COLLINS: The Sandanistas say the aircraft that went down was a Korean War vintage C-123. Informed sources close to the Contras confirm this and say they have been using these planes to drop ammunition and supplies by parachute to their men.

They crashed in rough and rocky terrain deep inside Nicaragua that can be reached only by Sandanista Air Force forces. The Sandanistas claim that four Americans were aboard the plane. They say three were killed and one survived. He is identified as Eugene Hasenfus, a Marine Vietnam veteran from Marinette, Wisconsin. The Sandanistas quote him as saying that he is an American advisor based in El Salvador.

The Sandanistas also say the plane was carrying more than 50,000 rounds of small arms ammunition, rocket grenades, other weapons and boots.

MR. ALEJANDRO BENDANA (Secretary General Nicaraguan Foreign Ministry): I'm not saying that the U.S. Army is involved but this is obviously a CIA operation with CIA operatives. Whether they are U.S. Army personnel or not is almost beside the point.

MR. COLLINS: Newspapers here in Managua splashed huge headlines claiming the Sandanistas have kept one American advisor. The Sandanistas claim that a surfaced air missile of the Titan base series was used to shoot down the plane.

While denying that the U.S. Government had anything to do with it, the American Embassy here today asked the Sandanistas for more details about it. The Embassy also asked permission for diplomats to see the captured crewman and for the return of the bodies of the missing men.

Peter Collins, ABC News, Managua.

MR. JOHN MCWETHY: This is John McWethy in Washington. The Reagan Administration denied any connections to the downed aircraft.

SECRETARY SHULTZ: The people involved were not from our military, not from any U.S. Government agency, CIA included.

UNCLASSIFIED

UNCLASSIFIED

MR. McWETHY: Reaction from Congress was mixed. Senator Patrick Leahy, a Democrat, is on the Senate Intelligence Committee and expressed concern that the CIA, while not directly responsible, could have been involved in other ways with the private group.

SENATOR PATRICK LEAHY: What concerns me very much is that they are connected with any of the adjunct soldier of fortune type operations, those which are sort of sent out there with a wink and a shrug as a way of going around our stated foreign policy.

REP. ROBERT MICHEL: That doesn't worry me one tinker's damn. I think it's a big to-do about nothing and all the media does is play it -- give them an opportunity to make their usual diatribe over issues.

MR. McWETHY: Eugene Hasenfus, the lone survivor of the crash is shown here in parachute gear with his brother 15 years ago. Eugene is now 45, according to the Pentagon. He was a Marine for 5 years in the early 1960s, was trained as a specialist in parachute rigging of air cargo in war zones. As a Marine, however, he never left the U.S.

His brother William said Eugene, after working construction for years in Wisconsin, had this past summer switched jobs moving to Florida. Nobody knew Eugene was flying in Central America.

MR. WILLIAM HASENFUS: It came as a complete surprise because I just thought he was down in Miami working for an air freight outfit.

MR. McWETHY: The CIA has long worked with the Contra rebels but has been barred from providing guns and equipment paid for by the U.S. Government. Soon, the U.S. will provide $100 million in aid to the rebels but even so, U.S. Government employees will be prohibited from operating inside Nicaragua.

John McWethy, ABC News, the State Department.

Military/Drug Smugglers

MR. JENNINGS: There has been something of an agreement today between the Senate and the House of Representatives on the final form of an anti-drug bill. The House and Senate negotiators have agreed on the death penalty for drug related murders. They also agree the military should not be used to try to stop smugglers at the nation's borders and they also agree that the illegally seized evidence may not be used in trials.

Please note: Due to technical difficulties, two tapes of CBS Evening news did not record; we are unable to provide coverage.

However, the program was monitored as it was broadcast; it covered essentially the same stories as those included from ABC and NBC.

NBC NIGHTLY NEWS

NBC TV 6:30 P.M.

The Plane

MR. BROKAW: The Reagan Administration denies a connection with that plane shot down in Nicaragua but many questions do remain tonight.

Nicaragua continues to insist tonight that a cargo plane shot down in that country was on a CIA mission and that the lone American survivor. Secretary of State Shultz and the CIA however, say that is not true. But we do know tonight that the transport plane apparently loaded with combat gear was shot down Sunday in Southern Nicaragua. Not too far from the border of Costa Rica. It had taken off from El Salvador. Three Americans were killed when the US built C-123 was shot down.

The Sandanistas use a Soviet built portable missile. American cameras were taken to the crash site. They were shown the lone survivor who was identified as Eugene Hasenfus, an ex-Marine who had worked for Florida air freight company. He talked about what happened.

REPORTER: Can you tell us how you came to be hear in Nicaragua?

MR. EUGENE HASENFUS: I was shot out of the sky.

REPORTER: Where did you plane that you arriving at originate?

MR. HASENFUS: El Salvador.

REPORTER: And what was it carrying?

MR. HASENFUS: We were carrying small arms.

MR. BROKAW: The Reagan Administration went to great lengths today to deny that the plane and the men in it were on an official mission for the US government. But NBC's Fred Francis, reports from the Pentagon now that government officials do know where the plane came from, who paid for it and where it was going.

SECRETARY OF STATE SHULTZ (Film): The people involved were not from our military, not from any US government agency, and CIA included.

MR. FRED FRANCIS: The Secretary of State is correct. But NBC News has learned from Administration and Contra officials that the White House has had full knowledge of this Contra cargo plane operation for more than a year. Those sources tell NBC News that he plane downed in Nicaragua was based here in El Salvador El Pango Airport. That it was piloted by American mercenaries. And financed by a foreign government friendly to US interests. NBC News has learned from administration and Contra officials that the rebels had been using this Salvadoran base to store supplies and airplanes for more than 18 months. The sources told NBC News that the aircraft a C-7 cargo plane took off Sunday night from El Pango Airport, skirted Nicaragua's Pacific Coast, crossed into Costa Rican airspace, then turned north into Nicaragua and dropped supplies to Contras near the town of Shauntiez before having engine trouble.

UNCLASSIFIED

Most of the Contra's supplies are in large warehouses like this throughout Central America. The sources say that El Salvador is used as a refueling stop, for repairs and for storing supplies, and a place for mercenaries to live.

And according to a Pentagon source Salvadoran President Duarte had condoned the gun running operation, even the he has publicly complained that Nicaragua is trying to subvert his government in much the same way. The man in charge of Central American foreign policy, Elliott Abrams, today said, God Bless the person who survived because he is fighting for freedom.

MR. ELLIOTT ABRAMS (Assistant Secretary of State): What's kept the resistance alive really has been private citizens in this country and other countries who have contributed their time. And some very, very brave people who have been willing actually then bring this material into Nicaragua.

MR. FRANCIS: What Secretary Abrams did not say is that the Americans involved in the Salvadoran cargo operation were fighting for a price. Each man received several thousand dollars per trip into Nicaragua and at least two flights were made per month from the Salvadoran base. All financed by a friendly foreign government.

Eugene Hasenfus the man captured by the Sandnistas is a 35 year old ex-Marine from Marinett, Wisconsin who apparently joined the mercenary operation this summer.

MR. WILLIAM HASENFUS (Eugene's brother): He was a typical iron worker. Good old boy, had a few beers with the guys. He liked jumping out of airplanes, you know that was about as radical as he would get.

MR. FRANCIS: There are loopholes which allow Hasenfus and others to work as soldiers of fortune.

SENATOR PATRICK LEAHY (D-Vermont): What concerns me very much is that they are connected with any of the soldier of fortune type operations. Those which are sort of sent out there with a wink and shrug. As a way of going around our stated foreign policy.

MR. FRANCIS: The Contras have lived off the fund raising efforts of men like retired General John Singlaub, since CIA funds were cutoff in May of 1984. And they have used the expertise in connections of men like retired General Richard Secort. But Administration sources say, this is the first time a foreign power has spent millions covertly to carry out the President's policies. Fred Francis, NBC News the Pentagon. ****

MR. BROKAW: And today's developments focused fresh attention on a dramatic protest that has been underway against US policy in Central America for more than a month now. As NBC's Bob Kur reports tonight, four American Veterans are fasting and are spending part of each day on the Capitol steps to make their point.

MR. BOB KUR: For five weeks they have gathered on the Capitol steps each afternoon for a vigil at dusk. In that time Charles Liteky has consumed nothing but water and vitamins. A fast in hopes of stopping US aid to Contra rebels in Nicaragua.

During the Vietnam War Liteky was known as the hero priest. He won the Medal of Honor for saving twenty men in a jungle fire fight. But later he left the priesthood and turned against that War. And last July he left his medal at the Vietnam Memorial in Washington to protest US military involvement in Central America.

Today Liteky and three other fasting Veterans, one from World War II, were invited by some Senators and Congressmen to come inside the Capitol. And today for the first time they drew a lot of attention.

SENATOR CLAIBORNE PELL (D-Rhode Island): I recall the Vietnam War, but as the individual actions of protestors, people in Vietnam itself, people who burnt themselves to death. Those are the things that turned around that policy in Vietnam.

MR. KUR: The four Veterans warned that continued US military involvement in Central America will mean another war like Vietnam, and they say they will fast until they die.

MR. CHARLES LITEKY: And

UNCLASSIFIED

If we cannot prevail upon your state of reason, your sense of reason and morale responsibility about this war and Nicaragua, it will happen over our dead bodies.

MR. KUR: Some call it emotional blackmail and say the tactic won't work.

MR. SAM MARULLO (Sociologist): I think the chance of them accomplishing their objective of stopping US support for the Contras in Nicaragua is close to zero.

MR. KUR: Even some of these supporters here are pleading with the Veterans to stop the fast. They tell them that they have made their point, that Congress is unlikely to vote on contra aide again until next year. Bob Kur, NBC, News at the US Capitol. ****

Manouchehr Ghorbanifar - aka Djafar Souzani, Ja'Far Suzani, Manouch, Manuel Pereira, Manouchehr Korbaniifar, Nikol, DPOB: 9 May 1945, Tehran, Iran; also 1942, Isfahan and 1938. He is an Iranian citizen. His occupation is import/export businessman. Formerly a Managing Director of Israeli-connected Star-Line Shipping. He is a former Iranian Army Officer. He claims to have worked for SAVAK. He is believed to be in periodic contact with U.S. intelligence service.

He is a self-proclaimed wheeler-dealer since his early 20's. Speaks excellent American and English. He has had a Portuguese Passport in name of Manuel Pereira issued on 3 October 1980 and valid until 3 October 1985, number 10596/80. Greek Passport number X-10723 in the name of Nikolaos Kralis issued 27 October 1981 in Stockholm and valid until 26 October 1986. Iranian Passport Number 11652209 in name of Ja'far Suzani. As of 1982 was said to have an Iraqi passport in an Afab name. He claims to be in a position to produce genuine passports of various nationalities.

Prior to the Iranian Revolution, Ghorbanifar had been an informant for Iranian Intel and claimed to have access to many senior ranking officers in the military as well as access to Iranian underworld characters of various illicit hues. As of late 1979 he was a member of Tolan Komite and was able to travel freely between Europe and Iran in connection with his import/export business. He and his brothers Ali and Reza became implicated in abortive coup of 9 July 1980 which resulted in curtailment of this trips to Iran. Since that time he has been located primarily in Paris with his brother Ali but travels to Athens, Turkey and Iran for purpose of meeting with other exile leaders in support of his "group" in Iran. He claimed at one time to be closely affiliated with Shahpour Bakhtiari but later said he and his "group" were monitoring Bakhtiari, Madani and other exile groups.

On 17 March 1984 Ghorbanifar met with a CIA officer and volunteered information on the Beirut kidnapping of COS, Beirut and on a plot to assassinate presidential candidates. He said he had stopped dealing with CIA in 1981 because the U.S. Government was not going to act on intel he was giving to bring down the Khomeini regime.

On 18 March 1984 he was polygraphed to determine the veracity of his information. He failed the exam on significant issues of fabrication and he deliberately provided false info on the Beirut kidnapping and assassination plot. At the request of U.S. Secret Service he was re-polygraphed on 12 June 1984 and again failed the exam. His reactions indicated he was practicing deception on all relevant questions concerning plot to assassinate presidential candidates.

In 1985 Ghorbanifar was cited by Cyrus Khomeini as one of the latter's influential contacts and as an official of Iranian Intelligence who was interested in negotiating settlement of the hostage issue.

SPOT REPORT

SUBJECT: Army Intelligence and Security Command Report on Iranian Terrorism

1. Army Intelligence and Security Command (INSCOM) has disseminated a report (IIR 2 762 0006 84) dealing with Iranian terrorist organizations, plans and activities. The information in this report is quite detailed in some respects and somewhat sensational.

2. Information available to us indicates that the INSCOM source is an individual who has not always reported reliably in the past, yet who has occasionally provided useful information. He has been the source of other reporting on Iranian terrorism, some of which appears to have been repeated in this report. We are not certain of the precise subsource of this report.

At believe that one of the subsources of this particular report is the youngest brother of an individual who was handled as a joint source.

(when passing us terrorist information sourced to him in December 1983 they noted that terrorist information he provided in the past had generally proved reliable, though much of his other reporting has been suspect.

3. Due to our concerns about the sourcing of the INSCOM report in question, we are asking appropriate to comment.

2. [REDACTED] WAS BORN 1945 IN IRAN, IN TEHRAN. HE IS MARRIED. FROM 1973 TO EARLY JULY 1980 HE TRAVELED FREQUENTLY TO LONDON FROM IRAN AS AN EMPLOYEE OF AN IRANIAN BASED IMPORT/EXPORT FIRM. PRIOR TO THIS HE WAS MANAGING DIRECTOR OF STAR LINE SHIPPING CO., WHICH BECAME A "JOINT IRANIAN/ISRAELI VENTURE" IN LATE 1980. IN LATE 1979 HE WAS SAID TO BE A MEMBER OF THE "TEHRAN COMMITTEE" UNTIL ABOUT 1981. [REDACTED] WAS A SOURCE [REDACTED] OVER A PERIOD [REDACTED]

HE ABOUT ONE YEAR [REDACTED] WAS MET BY [REDACTED] OFFICIALS. DURING HIS TIME IN [REDACTED] SOME USEFUL INFORMATION [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] WAS IMPLICATED IN THE FAILED COUP OF 8 JULY 1980, AS WERE BOTH OF HIS YOUNGER BROTHERS (IDENS B AND C). [REDACTED] HE COULD NO LONGER TRAVEL TO IRAN BUT CONTINUED TO TRAVEL FREQUENTLY TO PARIS, ATHENS, TURKEY AND IRAQ. HE CLAIMED THIS WAS FOR THE PURPOSE OF MEETING WITH OTHER EXILE LEADERS, MAKING DEALS FOR MONETARY AID AND PURCHASING SMALL WEAPONS AND EXPLOSIVES SPECIALLY FOR HIS "GROUP" IN IRAN.

[REDACTED] THERE WERE INDICATIONS THAT HE WAS REGARDED AS THOROUGHLY WELL INFORMED AND WELL CONNECTED.

ASSASSINATION OPS PLANNED TO TAKE PLACE BETWEEN 1 AUGUST 1984 AND 6 NOVEMBER 1984. ASSASSINATION TEAM IS MADE UP OF SUICIDE MEN, WHO ARE COMMITTED TO THIS OPERATION. INTENTION IS NOT ONLY TO KILL CANDIDATES, BUT TO KILL AS MANY SENIOR OFFICIALS AND STAFF (AND GENERAL PUBLIC) AS POSSIBLE. THE ACTUAL OPERATIONS ARE INTENDED TO BE AS "CATASTROPHIC" AS POSSIBLE FOR AMERICA. TIME PERIOD FOR OPERATIONS WAS PICKED SPECIFICALLY BECAUSE CANDIDATES WILL BE MORE PUBLICLY EXPOSED, AND THEORETICALLY LESS WELL PROTECTED, DURING THE ELECTION CAMPAIGN.

AMERICAN HOSTAGES IN LEBANON

N 7452

BACKGROUND

The former head of Savak's Department VIII, Counterespionage General Manucher Hashemi continues to monitor developments in Iran. His motivation for this effort is a desire to see Iran become a non-communist nation with an orderly and just form of government when Ayatollah Khomeini passes from the scene and his revolution becomes a spent force. In pursuit of this objective, General Hashemi believes he and other exiles, who have no political aspirations, can play a modest role in helping Iran to transition from its current chaos to a democratic society. He sees this happening via the process of exiles providing support, guidance and some coordination for "moderates" in Iran who have the courage, vision and resources required to prevent Iran from being dominated by Moscow.

THE DIALOGUE TO DATE

The ebb and flow of the Iran-Iraq war since September 1980 has been of vital interest to oil companies. The trends of the conflict have, therefore, been monitored by risk analysis firms such as ours in order that our clients could be well informed. In seeking factual data on the struggle, we have harnessed various sources including the maintaining of contact with knowledgeable Iranian exiles. General Hashemi has been one of our emigre conversation partners. In October 1984 our dialogue with him took on a new form and substance in that he offered to put us in touch with a number of interesting Iranians who would be traveling in Europe in November 1984. We accepted the offer on the premise that it would help us to evaluate the quality of General Hashemi's future commentary as well as provide a first-hand assessment of what was likely to happen in the Iran-Iraq war which could impact on a volatile and oversold international oil market.

HAMBURG MEETINGS

In the period 19 - 21 November 1984, a number of meetings were held in Hamburg, Germany with General Hashemi and Iranians that he introduced to us. This revealed that Manuchehr Ghorbanifar, President of Bylex Trading Company, 56 Avenue Marceau, 75008 Paris, telephone 7203041, telex 620927, was a major cut-out between one group of contacts in Iran and the General. In fact, Ghorbanifar brokered one meeting for us and General Hashemi in Hamburg on November with a most interesting traveler from Iran.

GHORBANIFAR

After the meeting of 20 November with the man from Iran, Ghorbanifar was asked how we might authenticate the visitor's ability to help us in solving some oil contract disputes with Iran. The response was simple -- put the man to the test of performance. In short, give him a simple task to do and if he solved that one, move on to the next one. Ghorbanifar said this technique had worked for him. He then went on to say his own business kept him in close contact with the Iranian market where he played a role by brokering deals between Iranian buyers and European suppliers.

Ghorbanifar said his business was successful but he was also an Iranian nationalist. Due to the latter factor, he was vitally concerned with developments in Iran. He feared that Iran would become a Soviet satellite within the near term -- three to five years -- if he and people like General Hashemi did not do something to stem the tide. He rhetorically asked what can we do, for despite our ability to work with the "moderates" in Iran, we can't get a meaningful dialogue with Washington. According to Ghorbanifar, it is President Reagan who has the destiny of the Iranian people in his hand. When at this juncture Ghorbanifar was asked if he had tried to open a dialogue with the Americans, he said, "We know the CIA in Frankfurt. They want to treat us like kleenex -- use us for their purpose and then throw us out the window. We can't work with them as they are unreasonable and unprofessional. In fact, if you check on me with them, they will tell you I am unreasonable and undisciplined."

COMMENT: General Hashemi has privately verified that Ghorbanifar has several real estate holdings in Hamburg and Paris. The General said that from what he can see, Ghorbanifar is successful in business. In terms of contacts in Iran, Hashemi said he could only describe Ghorbanifar with the adjective "fantastic." At the same time, Hashemi said Ghorbanifar, while intelligent and a producer of results, had always been hard to control.

[REDACTED] has told us independently that Ghorbanifar had been an effective agent for SAVAK [REDACTED] but was known as a wheeler-dealer. He made the point that Ghorbanifar was not a trained intelligence officer but had been an access agent in various cases and had done commercial jobs for SAVAK as a cut-out.

Commercial traces on the Bylex Trading Company and its owner are pending.

HOSTAGES IN LEBANON

The conversation about the Iran-Iraq war throughout 20 November focused on three issues. They were the land war and the prospects for a Basra sector general offensive, the Gulf maritime war and Kharg Island as its centerpiece and Tehran's export of the revolution with emphasis on what threat the latter was to oil facilities in Iraq, Kuwait, the United Arab Emirates and Saudi Arabia. During the early portions of this conversation, Ghorbanifar said Tehran

Perhaps this could be delivered to the Americans to prove that Hashemi and Ghorbanifar had influential contacts in Iran. In response, it was pointed out that transactions of this type might not be simple, particularly as no one knew what Iran would want in exchange. Ghorbanifar said he would guess Tehran would want TOW missiles. He was urged, therefore, to find a simpler way to prove his bona fides if he in fact wanted to deal with the Americans. Nothing emerged at that juncture in response to that comment. As the day wore on, however, and Lebanon entered into the scope of the conversation, Mr. Ghorbanifar was asked what he knew about Iranian intentions in Lebanon, what role Tehran had played in bombing the American Embassy or kidnapping Americans. The response was he had little hard facts beyond having heard the captured Americans were alive. Ghorbanifar was told that all citizens who had compassion for their countrymen were interested in the fate of Americans who had been captured by terrorists, guerrillas or other unstable elements. If Ghorbanifar could shed light on the status of Americans in Lebanon it would be a humanitarian gesture which would be duly noted by those who count. Ghorbanifar said he assumed we were talking about a tractors for prisoner exchange. The answer was we had nothing specific in mind. On the other hand, we knew oil companies could be generous and if there was a humanitarian deal to be made in simple terms with adequate safeguards for life and funds, we would be willing to take soundings with our oil company clients and contacts to see if a deal could be structured.

There was about a three hour break between the end of the afternoon session on 20 November and a regrouping for after-dinner drinks. In this period, each member of the afternoon session went on his own to different dinner sessions. When the group reconvened, Ghorbanifar said he had thought about the afternoon session, had made some telephone calls, had talked to a friend and could now say the following:

- a. Americans captured in Beirut were alive.
- b. A deal could be made for their release using Iranian channels.
- c. The transaction would be simple -- money for people.
- d. The cover for the transaction would be Ghorbanifar had bought them out and resold them to a private group that raised the funds.

UNCLASSIFIED

CONFIDENTIAL

N 7455

- e. The transaction had to be kept secret. This meant that whatever final explanation was worked out to advise the media of how the release had been effected, it could not identify Ghorbanifar, Iranians or anything but a private ransom deal.
- f. If this deal interested us, we were to do the following:
  - (1) provide the full names of the captured Americans;
  - (2) indicate the date of their capture;
  - (3) provide the given name of each captive's father.

Ghorbanifar was told we had noted his points and would take appropriate soundings. When we indicated surprise at the speed of his decision-making process, he laughed and said he was an operator and now the ball was in our court. He wondered aloud if we could react as quickly as he had. We said we doubted that we could, for we were both cautious and deliberate.

COMMENT

In subsequent private discussions late on 20 November, General Hashemi told us he did not know who Ghorbanifar had contacted on this matter or how. He said he would attempt to find out and might have an answer in ten days time. This delay was due to the fact that Ghorbanifar and Hashemi would both be traveling as of 21 November and could not talk securely for a number of days. We know Hashemi flew from Hamburg to London on 21 November 1984.

No names of the Americans captured in Lebanon were discussed at any time by either party. In terms of numbers, we said we thought four Americans were unaccounted for in Lebanon. We had in mind the following:

- a. Jeremy Levin of Cable News Network who was kidnapped on 7 March 1984;
- b. William F. Buckley, an American Embassy officer, who was kidnapped on 16 March 1984;
- c. Benjamin M. Weir, a Presbyterian Minister kidnapped on 8 May 1984.

It must be stressed, however, that we never surfaced their names, organization or date of capture.

SECURITY EVALUATION

General Hashemi is independently wealthy. He travels on the basis of his own funds plus discounted airline tickets that he receives from a son-in-law who has a travel agency. Our relationship with him has been based on a mutuality of interest in Iranian affairs. We reciprocally host luncheons or dinners.

UNCLASSIFIED

Ghorbanifar has no known intelligence connections with any Western intelligence service. He is a "wheeler dealer" and could play both ends against the middle for a profit in a business deal. On a political matter concerning Iran, it would appear, however, that he could be kept on track if he were tasked via Hashemi.

PROPRIETARY INTEREST

It is our intent to continue our dialogue with General Hashemi, for he has been helpful in the past in assisting us to understand events in Iran. Mr. Ghorbanifar is a new entity on our commercial horizon and we are evaluating his potential to contribute to our ventures. In sum, while we have spelled out with frankness how this situation unfolded, we have done so out of concern for a friend and other fellow Americans. (COMMENT: Mr. Buckley was known to us from his service in Vietnam.) With equal candor, we must state that while we expect the data we have furnished to be checked, if it interests anyone in government, we must insist the verification effort be carried out in a manner that will not prejudice our relationship with General Hashemi and Mr. Ghorbanifar. Put another way, we have invested time and money into developing and maintaining relationships that by our criteria are useful. As a result, we want to preserve them and request this sensitivity factor on our part be both noted and honored as this situation is evaluated. In this context, please note the attached article on risk assessment which outlines some of our commercial concepts.

ACTION REQUESTED

We must, in the course of the next two weeks, give Mr. Ghorbanifar some response to his feeler on a ransom deal. It is requested, therefore, that we be advised by no later than 7 December 1984 how we are to respond. It is, of course, understood that any reply has to take into account current policies on the topic of ransom. If it would be of assistance to those considering the nature of the reply, we would be available for a discussion of the data outlined in the preceding paragraphs.

Chapter 9 FN 13448
UNCLASSIFIED 2059

1. SUMMARY: On 22 April 1986, the United States Customs Service and the United States Attorney's Office for the Southern District of New York announced the indictment of seventeen individuals on charges that they were participants in an illegal scheme to smuggle $2.5 billion in American-made warplanes, missiles and other weapons to Iran. This case has received prominent play in the foreign and domestic press (see attachment) and has been of interest to the Israeli government due to the involvement of a retired Israeli general. The bait in Customs' sting operation was Cyrus Hashemi, a former Agency and State Department contact. Hashemi's previous relationship with United States government agencies could be an issue at trial. The case is tentatively set to go to trial in November 1986. 9-13

2. Cyrus Hashemi is well and unfavorably known to the Directorate of Operations and the Department of State. The following is a summary of our involvement with Mr. Hashemi.

A. In early 1980, during the Iranian hostage crisis, Hashemi made representations to State that he could serve as a channel for negotiations concerning the hostages.

It developed that Hashemi did not have the ability to perform as projected and it was suspected that his offers were part of a scam.

B. During 1983 and early 1984, Hashemi was under investigation for arms export control violations. In separate meetings with the Agency and the Department of State, Hashemi's attorneys threatened to tell all if their client was brought to trial. It was the DDCI's decision that the Agency would have no objection to prosecution even in light of Hashemi's attempts at graymail. State was more reluctant because of the damage revelations would have on foreign relations. A federal arrest warrant was issued in May 1984 on Hashemi. His flight from prosecution to Europe effectively put the prosecution on the shelf.

C. In June 1984, the DCI learned from John Shaheen, a personal acquaintance of the DCI, that Hashemi had information he wished to pass to the Agency. Because Hashemi was a fugitive from justice, Shaheen was informed by the DCI that the Agency had no interest in pursuing Hashemi's offer.

D. During June - August 1985 Shaheen and one of Hashemi's attorneys were in contact with the Agency regarding Hashemi's alleged ability to intercede with Iranian officials to secure the release of the hostages in Lebanon. Hashemi sought to arrange for charges against him to be dropped in return for his cooperation. Both the Agency and State investigated Hashemi's claims, with no positive results.

3. Until his death of natural causes in July of 1986, Hashemi was to be one of the primary witnesses at trial. Even though we had no part in the Customs sting operation, the Agency may be brought into the case because the defense may make an issue of Hashemi's attempts to contact the Agency to secure favorable treatment on his 1984 indictment.

4. Representatives from the Directorate of Operations and the Office of General Counsel have met with the Department of Justice attorney and the local prosecutor to brief them concerning our equities in this case and to allow them to review redacted versions of Agency documents. They have been made aware that our primary concerns are to protect from disclosure [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] the details of our involvement with the attempt to arrange the hostage release in 1985, the identities of covert sources, and the identities of covert CIA officers. As it now stands, we are anticipating that we will be compelled to acknowledge our relationship with Hashemi with a summary description of his post indictment activities that are relevant to an entrapment defense.

5. On 5 September 1986, we were informed that one of the defense attorneys had indicated, to Mr. Hashemi's attorney, William B. Wachtel, interest in reviewing his file on Hashemi and discussing with him his knowledge of Hashemi's activities. Mr. Wachtel is inclined to assert attorney client privilege. Based on information in our files, it is obvious that Mr. Wachtel is fully informed on Hashemi's dealings with various government agencies. OGC is currently discussing with Justice and State attorneys means to prevent the release of classified information by Mr. Wachtel.

NOTE FROM: DONALD R. FORTIER
 SUBJECT: Ledeon and Iran

Mike Ledeon came to see me yesterday. He had met earlier with Jock and Howard. Mike said he had talked to Wilms about re-initiating his trip to Israel. He got the impression that you were prepared to give the green light subject to a positive recommendation from Fortier/Covey/Teicher.

I don't know if this is really your view. We have all discussed this matter. None of us feel Mike should be our primary channel for working the Iran issue with foreign governments, and we think you should probably should not provide a formal letter. At the same time, we think it would be useful to have Mike carry two messages to Peras: 1) the White House feels it is essential to begin to develop a more serious and coordinated strategy for dealing with the Iranian succession crisis - a crisis that is almost certain to turn on outside involvement of one kind or another; and 2) we would like his ideas on how we could cooperate more effectively. The last point is a hard one for us to ask our intelligence community to communicate, since we suspect they may be part of the problem. We don't think Mike should be the one to ask Peras for detailed operational information; he probably doesn't know, and even if he did, this should be reserved for official channels once we have arrived at ideas for restoring better cooperation.

I met yesterday with interested people here to begin to put together an action plan for Iran similar to what we did on [redacted]. We reviewed the Israeli requirement in the context of this discussion and believe it is congruent. We need a dialogue on this subject, but were not far enough along [redacted] to ask for anything too much more specific; moreover we

 Thanks for the feedback Bud. Howard and I had talked - subject to your general ok - about his calling Nimrod Movah, both as a final sensitivity check and as a way of flagging our interest without your having to write a note on Mike's behalf. The problem, and I'm a little annoyed by this, is that Mike, on the strength apparently of his talk with Viles, has gone ahead and rescheduled his lunch with Peres for next Thursday. Should we simply try to run the check and discuss with Shultz in the next day so that we can be done with this problem, or should I tell Mike to formally cancel again? The only other comment I would add is that Mike seems to be able to get on Peres calendar (unless he is misleading us) rather easily, something that would seem to be more difficult if he were out of favor. Thanks again for your advice.

SUBJECT: Rosen

I have to confess to you that the more I thought about Vince's allegations against Steve, the sadder I became. I don't intend to let this surface, and will - as your dutiful servant - try to move forward the substance with a minimum of personal friction. Still, his remarks come close to being personal slander of the worst sort. It seems that the only shred of evidence on the Israeli connection is that Steve told Vince he planned (but hasn't) to talk to a guy at the Embassy that several others had recommended to us as very knowledgeable about Iran. We also checked back through our files and someone and could find no single instance where we asked the kind of question Vince professes to be so concerned about, i.e. exposing agents, actual plans etc. Our emphasis throughout the exercise was: what are your criteria for success, are you emphasizing the right kinds of munitions, would more help, are our collection priorities correct etc. In short, we asked the kind of questions someone should have asked a long time ago. And that, I suspect, is the root of the problem. All of us here gave Vince the benefit of the doubt when he came on board. He should do the same.

Yes I think it is entirely worthwhile to cooperate closely with Iran in our planning for Iranian succession. My only concern with regard to Mike is a hint I got the last time he was in that he personally was out of favor with Peres but I stress that I have absolutely no hard basis for such a conclusion. It might be useful however, for Howard to make a discreet sensitivity check with one of his friends in the PM's office. As a separate matter I want to talk to Shultz so that he is not blindsided when Sam Lewis reports--as he will surely find out-- about Mike's wanderings. So for the moment let's hold on the Ladeen aspect. I will get back to you. I do consider planning for the succession to be one of our greatest failures and vulnerabilities so I am very glad you are turning to it.

We spent the better part of the day working on the Iran NSSD. I have Dennis here looking at the recent spate of Soviet activity and the levers we may have arising out of the war and other circumstances. I think we need about one more full day before we send up a draft for you and John to review. We also just got a bootleg copy of the draft SNIE. We worked closely with Graham Fuller on the approach, and I think it really is one of the best yet. Iran may come up in the breakfast tomorrow. If pressed for action you can credibly promise paper within the next few days. I also think the Israeli option is one we have to pursue, even though we may have to pay a certain price for the help. I'm not sure though that we have the right interlocutor. Mike has a call into me now. His message is that he needs to see me urgently to follow up on his weekend conversation and to get a new plane ticket. Would appreciate guidance and substantive feedback. Thanks.

Subject: Presidential Message to Freedom Fighters

The safest thing, under the circumstances, might be to do nothing. At the same time, it is a rather extraordinary convocation. Steve and I will give you a draft of the themes we believe one could prudently use in the event it is decided to go ahead. I asked Steve to check with Walt, however, to see what more we know about the event: are other messages anticipated (in which case, our silence would be more conspicuous); will the participants issue any declaration of their own (and is it something we would want to be fully associated with) etc. We will get something to you later today.

SUBJECT: Toward a Policy on Iran

1. Prolong war has

2. Transition from war policy / war

1. The US faces a grim situation in developing a new policy toward Iran. Events are moving largely against our interests and we have few palatable alternatives. In bluntest form, the Khomeini regime is faltering and may be moving toward a moment of truth; we will soon see a struggle for succession. The US has almost no cards to play; the USSR has many. Iran has obviously concluded that whether they like Russia and Communism or not, the USSR is the country to come to terms with: the USSR can both hurt and help Iran more than the US can. Our urgent need is to develop a broad spectrum of policy moves designed to give us some leverage in the race for influence in Tehran.

The specter of the US and the USSR standing on the same side of a major international strategic conflict, like the Gulf war, is extraordinary. It is also an unstable situation and cannot persist for long. We are both on Iraq's side because we lack our preferred access to Iran. Whoever gets there first is in a strong position to work towards the exclusion of the other.

3. US

We must monitor that progress—but we also already know where Moscow wants to go and that it will devote major resources to claiming this important prize. Even if Moscow's progress is uneven, we need to develop a strategy in response.

- We seek to choke off all arms supplies to Tehran wherever possible.

3. Terrorist Attack: We can and must have some policy against terrorism. We must also recognize that this cannot represent the bulk of our policy toward Iran. Furthermore, radical forces in Tehran may welcome a direct confrontation with the US--including US military retaliation--in the hopes of replaying its extraordinarily successful gambit against the US in the 1979 hostage crisis.

ABSOLU

- During that crisis the radicals galvanized the Iranian atmosphere, polarized all views, rendered the moderates irrelevant, and proceeded to eliminate them in the supercharged atmosphere of confrontation.

These radicals may seek to do so again in the expectation of doing away with any opportunity the conservatives may have to reach accommodation with the US.

questionable assumption

While we cannot allow terrorism to go unchecked, we must balance the terrorist policy against the potential stake in Iran.

4. Choking off Arms Supplies. There are good reasons to seek to choke off ~~Soviet~~ arms supplies to Iran. It may be one way of bringing an end to the war which only Iran seeks to perpetuate. If the embargo is successful, however, it could also have the effect of driving Iran into a corner where the Soviets will be the only option left.

typ TRU and -1/1/80

- We first raised (about 18 months ago,) this theoretical possibility of Soviet opportunity stemming from the US arms embargo. The possibility is no longer theoretical. Iran has, in fact, now begun moving toward some accommodation with the USSR. Meanwhile, the USSR can afford to play it cool and set its own terms, relatively confident that the US cannot steal a march on it.

historically, Iran has done this ↑ theoretical underpinning for change in policy slow does it follow

5. These two pillars of US policy--both sensible while Iran was in a vacuum and Khomeini was strong--can no longer serve as the primary vehicle for US policy toward Iran. Both are entirely negative in nature and may now serve to facilitate Soviet interests more than our own. We must develop a more positive set of plans involving a much broader spectrum of considerations and actions.

- It is easy to criticize our present position, and I do not mean to suggest that any easy answers exist. It is imperative, however, that we perhaps think in terms of a bolder--and perhaps slightly riskier policy which will at least ensure greater US voice in the unfolding situation. Right now--unless we are very lucky indeed--we stand to gain nothing, and lose more, in the outcome of developments in Iran, which are all outside our control.

6. Some Broader Policy Considerations. Nobody has any brilliant ideas about how to get us back into Tehran. Nearly all tentative proposals require uncomfortable choices and clear-cut down sides. Nonetheless we need to review a broad spectrum of ideas. I submit below a range of thoughts, carrots and sticks,--all of which are flawed--but which might assist in sparking better and more refined positions to meet our needs.

- a. Work with Iraq to bring Tehran to its knees. We could consider moving much closer to Iraq to bring the war to a quicker end--particularly by way of encouraging crippling attacks on Kharg Island and key Iranian economic facilities. This would serve to put intolerable pressure upon the regime, perhaps damaging the hardliners, maybe even leading toward the collapse of the clerics. It would probably bring the war to a de facto conclusion. Disadvantage: We have no knowledge about who would emerge victorious from such shambles; it could well be radical elements filled with hatred of the US. The radicals have most of the guns. It might ensure Tehran's rapid accommodation with Moscow.
- and Iraqi losses could create pressure on regime in Iraq*

- b. Open up Iran to friendly state influence. We could tell all our European allies, as well as Israel, Turkey, Pakistan, China, Japan, Brazil and Argentina that Western influence must develop a paramount position during this critical period in Iran. We would remove all restrictions in sales--including military--to Iran. Our only proviso would be the request that truly strategic items which could immediately affect the conduct of the war be avoided. (In fact, in the short term, few items would really reverse the course of the war.) Such a step would effectively preclude Iran turning to or needing the USSR. Iran's diminished isolation might encourage the emergence of Iran's moderates into a greater policy role. Disadvantage: (n) Certain possible encouragement for Iranian perpetuation of the war.
- and Europeans would dislodge our minority*

- c. Go after Iran's radical allies. While direct US assault against Iran could bring about the very thing we wish to avoid, i.e. Soviet domination of Iran, direct attack on Iran's radical allies, Syria and Libya, would probably sober Iran and weaken its support from those quarters. It would be a clear blow to the "radical entente." Qadhafi in particular is a key figure.

SECRET

UNCLASSIFIED

UNCLASSIFIED

We have every reason in the world to want to see Qadhafi collapse. Bold US policies leading to his downfall would have a chilling effect on Iran and shake its confidence that the correlation of radical forces was with them. (Pressure on Syria would have less effect and could ideally only come from Israel--which is hardly interested in a confrontation with Syria at this point.) This "indirect strategy" would demonstrate US resolve against radicalism without directly pushing Iran in the wrong direction. Unlike Iran, we have nothing to lose in Libya and everything to gain. — Disagree. We risk strengthening Qadhafi, as the US has put by Iraq

- d. Settling down the hatches in Turkey and Pakistan. Assuming that we may be heading for a major Soviet gain in Iran, we may need to greatly step up our ties with Turkey and Pakistan. Turkey is at the heart of US ability to respond to any future Soviet military action against Iran. Both countries would be profoundly affected by an Iranian lurch in the Soviet direction.

Turkey is even more important than Pakistan because of its NATO ties, control of the Bosphorus and contiguous border with the Soviet Union. These states must be reassured that we are deeply committed to their support even if we cannot control a negative course of events in Iran.

many - many minutes to a time is not a full of the past

Getting the Message Through to Tehran. Most analysts believe that nearly all elements in Iran are convinced that the US is implacably hostile to the Iranian regime. In the ugly atmosphere generated by Iranian terrorism and the war, the US has felt it inappropriate to address words of reconciliation to Iran in general. There is room for such broad, public statement on a regular basis to ensure Iranian moderates—and opportunists—that we are not dedicated to the overthrow of the Islamic Republic or the collapse of Iran. This in itself helps play against the barrage of propaganda from the top Iranian leadership which wishes to portray the US as the implacable enemy. The hostage crisis is far past and anti-American mob scenes are less exhilarating for the Iranian public than they were in the heady days of the new Republic.

- f. Massive reassurance to Iran of US intentions. Mere words may not be enough to change the tide of moderate opinion and belief in Iran about the US. We could reemphasize this issue strongly if coupled with demonstrations of goodwill through withdrawal of the Sixth Fleet from the vicinity of the Persian Gulf and placing the US military presence in the Gulf on very low profile. Disadvantage: We might persuade Iranian radicals that we had given up, or were paper tigers, or both. Our Arab allies might lose confidence. On the other hand, such gestures could be quickly revoked if Iran itself were not forthcoming or if the danger level rose. In any case, there are major benefits in making a series of positive gestures toward Iran indicating basic goodwill--even if not immediately reciprocated by Iran. The non-radicals will get the message.

9. Bargaining with the USSR. We have little leverage here. However, the USSR in its public statements constantly stresses that the US is bent on placing Pershing missiles in Israel, Pakistan and Turkey. In theory these are bargaining chips which could be "given away" at no cost in exchange for some "understanding" over Iran. The main problem is that we can hardly warn the Soviets against establishing better ties with Tehran, or even supplying arms to Tehran. These are not belligerent acts in and of themselves and our major problem in Iran is not Soviet invasion but rather support to radical forces who might move the country closer to Moscow.

7. On reflection I believe that the option most constructively oriented is that of inserting Western allies and friends into Tehran quickly through the back door. It would meet with broad support by all of them and is a "positive" policy. The Arabs will be less happy--especially Iraq. But most Gulf Arabs want a de-fanged Iran and would not object to better Western ties in Tehran if it leads to moderation.

- The risk of perpetuating the war is there. But the Western card is easily undertaken and can be coupled with other US positive gestures discussed above. We need not rule out sticks--especially those against Iranian allies like Qadhafi. Diminished political, economic, and military isolation could have much positive effect on a shaky Tehran regime--especially if some quid pro quo was sought from Iran by our allies in moving into Iran in a big way.

8. Our tilt to Iraq was timely when Iraq was against the ropes and the Islamic revolution was on a roll. The time may now have come to tilt back--at least via our allies--to ensure the Soviets lose both attraction and potential access to the clergy.

MEMORANDUM TO THE UNDER SECRETARY OF DEFENSE FOR POLICY

SUBJECT: US Policy Toward Iran (S)

(TS) I agree with nearly all your changes and have revised the memorandum from Secretary Weinberger to Bud McParlane accordingly. However, I recommend against several of your changes and would like you to consider the following:

-- First, I agree with you that what we're really looking at is a "post-Khomeini" Iran and there is very little chance we can establish good relations with Iran as long as Khomeini is in control. At the same time, I don't think we want to give the impression in this paper that we should wait until Khomeini passes from the scene before doing anything. It's possible that Khomeini may live for several more years but be in such a senile state that he is no longer in control (similar to the latter years of Mao Zedong). Under such circumstances, we may be able to influence moderate elements of the regime and begin to achieve some of our long-range objectives before Khomeini dies. ||| +

-- Second, I left in the recommendation to keep pressure on our allies to cease transferring military equipment to Iran. Although we have had some successes to date, maintaining (if not strengthening) our initiative is one of the few actions we can take to try to bring an end to the Iran-Iraq war. And if the war were to end, many of the pressures causing Iran to seek Soviet assistance would cease. Therefore, I believe we should not omit this initiative.

(TS) Attached are two versions of the memorandum. At Tab A, the memorandum does not specify "post-Khomeini" when it refers to recommended actions and it contains the recommendation to lean on our allies to stop selling arms to Iran. The memorandum at Tab B is exactly the way you marked up the draft. Recommend you forward Tab A.

FROM:

DON FORTIER

HOWARD R. TEICHER HRT

SUBJECT:

U.S. Policy Toward Iran

Attached at Tab A for your review is an NSC drafted NSDD on U.S. Policy Toward Iran. The NSDD is provocative. It basically calls for a vigorous policy designed to block Soviet advances in the short-term while building our leverage in Iran and trying to restore the U.S. position which existed under the Shah over the longer-term. This would require a sharp departure from ongoing overt and covert measures, most notably the supply of Western military hardware, U.S. initiative to dialogue with Iranian leaders, and activist covert actions.

Because of the political and bureaucratic sensitivities, we believe that it would be best for you to provide a copy of the NSDD draft only to Shultz and Weinberger (eyes only) for their comments. Whether to proceed with a restricted SIG, NSPG or other forum would depend on their reactions.

RECOMMENDATION

That you review the NSDD at Tab A and sign the memo at Tab I.

SUBJECT: U.S. Policy Toward Iran (SI)

The Director of Central Intelligence has just distributed an SMIE on "Iran: Prospects for Near-Term Instability", which I hope you have received. This SMIE makes clear that instability in Iran is accelerating, with potentially momentous consequences for U.S. strategic interests. It seems sensible to ask whether our current policy toward Iran is adequate to achieve our interests. My staff has prepared a draft NSDD (Tab A) which can serve to stimulate our thinking on U.S. policy toward Iran. I would appreciate your reviewing the draft on an eyes only basis and providing me with your comments and suggestions. I am concerned about the possibility of leakage should we decide not to pursue this change in policy with the President. If you feel that we should consider this change, then I would refer the paper to the SIG(FP) in preparation for an NSPG meeting with the President.

U.S. Policy Toward Iran

Dynamic political evolution is taking place inside Iran. Instability caused by the pressures of the Iraq-Iran war, economic deterioration and regime infighting create the potential for major changes in Iran. The Soviet Union is better positioned than the U.S. to exploit and benefit from any power struggle that results in changes in the Iranian regime, as well as increasing socio-political pressures. In this environment, the emergence of a regime more compatible with American and Western interests is unlikely. Soviet success in taking advantage of the emerging power struggle to insinuate itself in Iran would change the strategic balance in the area.

While we pursue a number of broad, long-term goals, our primary short-term challenge must be to block Moscow's efforts to increase Soviet influence (now and after the death of Khomeini). This will require an active and sustained program to build both our leverage and our understanding of the internal situation so as to enable us to exert a greater and more constructive influence over Iranian politics. We must improve our ability to protect our interests during the struggle for succession.

U.S. Interests and Goals

The most immediate U.S. interests include:

- (1) Preventing the disintegration of Iran and preserving it as an independent strategic buffer which separates the Soviet Union from the Persian Gulf;
- (2) Limiting the scope and opportunity for Soviet actions in Iran, while positioning ourselves to cope with the changing Iranian internal situation;
- (3) Maintaining access to Persian Gulf oil and ensuring unimpeded transit of the Strait of Hormuz; and
- (4) An end to the Iranian government's sponsorship of terrorism, and its attempts to destabilize the governments of other regional states.

We also seek other broad and important, if less immediately urgent, goals. N 10309

- (1) Iran's resumption of a moderate and constructive role as a member respectively of the non-communist political community, of its region, and of the world petroleum economy;
- (2) continued Iranian resistance to the expansion of Soviet power in general, and to the Soviet occupation of Afghanistan in particular;
- (3) an early end to the Iran-Iraq war which is not mediated by the Soviet Union and which does not fundamentally alter the balance of power in the region;
- (4) elimination of Iran's flagrant abuses of human rights;
- (5) movement toward eventual normalization of U.S.-Iranian diplomatic consular and cultural relations, and bilateral trade/commercial activities;
- (6) resolution of American legal and financial claims through the Hague Tribunal; and
- (7) Iranian moderation on OPEC pricing policy.

Many of our interests will be difficult to achieve. But given the rapidity with which events are moving, and the magnitude of the stakes, it is clear that urgent new efforts are required. In moving forward, we must be especially careful to balance our evolving relationship with Iraq in a manner that does not damage the longer term prospects for Iran.

Present Iranian Political Environment

The Iranian leadership faces its most difficult challenges since 1981. The regime's popularity has declined significantly in the past six months, primarily because of intensified disillusionment with a seemingly unending war, the continued imposition of Islamic social policies on a population increasingly reluctant to accept such harsh measures, and a faltering economy brought on primarily by declining oil revenues. The impact of these problems is intensified by the realization that Ayatollah Khomeini's mental and physical health is fragile, which in turn casts a pall of uncertainty over the daily decision-making process.

Unless the acceleration of adverse military, political and economic developments is reversed, the Khomeini regime will face serious instability (i.e. repeated anti-regime demonstrations, strikes, assassination attempts, sabotage and other destabilizing activities throughout, increasingly involving the lower classes). This condition will sap officials' energies and government resources, intensifying differences among Iranian leaders as the government tries to avoid mistakes that would provoke popular upheaval and threaten continued control.

While it is impossible to predict the course of the emerging power struggle, it is possible to discern several trends which must be accounted for by U.S. policy. As domestic pressures mount, decision-making is likely to be monopolized by individuals representing the same unstable mix of radical, conservative and ultra-conservative factions that now control the Iranian government. The longer Khomeini lingers in power, the more likely the power struggle will intensify, and the greater the number of potential leaders who might affect the outcome of the struggle.

The ultimate strength of various clerical groups and the power coalitions they may form are not known. However, the weaknesses of various opposition groups -- inside Iran and abroad -- are evident, especially the lack of a leader with sufficient stature to rival Khomeini and his ideas. The most likely faction in a power struggle to shift Iranian policy in directions more acceptable to the West -- should their influence increase -- are conservatives working from within the government against the radicals. Radicals within the regime, and the leftist opposition, are the groups most likely to influence the course of events in ways inimical to Western interests.

The Iranian regular armed forces represent a potential source of both power and inclination to move Iran back into a more pro-Western position. Representatives of every faction inside and outside the regime recognize the potential importance of the military and are cultivating contacts with these forces. However, as long as the Army remains committed in the war with Iraq it will not be in a position to intervene in Tehran.

The other instrument of state power, the Revolutionary Guard, is becoming increasingly fractured. It will probably come apart following Khomeini's death, and might even engage in a major power struggle before then. In any scenario, the Guard will be at the center of the power struggle.

The Soviets are well aware of the evolving developments in Iran. They will continue to apply carrot-and-stick incentives to Iran in the hope of bringing Tehran to Moscow's terms for an improved bilateral relationship that could serve as a basis for major growth in Soviet influence in Iran. Moscow will clearly resist any trend toward the restoration of a pro-Western Iranian government.

Despite strong clerical antipathy to Moscow and communism, Tehran's leadership seems to have concluded that improvement of relations with the Soviet Union is now essential to Iranian interest. They do not seem interested in improving ties with us. This Iranian assessment is probably based on Tehran's view of what Moscow can do for -- and against -- Iran rather than on an ideological preference to conduct relations with Moscow. The USSR already has much leverage over Tehran -- in stark contrast to the U.S.

Moscow views Iran as a key area of opportunity.

In return, Moscow is certain to offer economic and technical assistance, and possibly even military equipment. While they have heretofore balked at providing major weapon systems, the Soviets might relax their embargo if the right political opportunities presented themselves. While Moscow would probably not act in a manner that severely disrupts its relations with Baghdad, given Iraq's dependency on the USSR for ground forces equipment, Moscow possesses considerable room for maneuver if it senses major openings in Tehran for the establishment of a position of significant influence.

Moscow may also pursue a strategy based on support of separatist movements. The Soviet Union has had ample opportunity to cultivate the ethnic groups that cut across the Soviet-Iranian border. Most ethnic groups are unlikely to challenge the central government in Tehran as long as they fear severe reprisals. But in the areas of Iran adjacent to the Soviet border, the Soviets can provide a security umbrella to protect rebellious ethnic groups from reprisals.

The U.S. position in Tehran is unlikely to improve without a major change in U.S. policy. The challenge to the U.S. in the post-Khomeini period will be severe. Any successor regime will probably seize power in the name of Islam and the revolution and can be expected to have a built-in anti-American bias. A more conservative regime, still Islamic, might lessen the emphasis on revolution and terrorism and could move cautiously toward a more correct relationship with the U.S. On the other hand, radical forces will try to exacerbate anti-American feelings to strengthen their own positions at the expense of the conservatives.

Our leverage with Iran is sharply reduced by the current degree of hostility that springs from the ideology of the radical clergy, especially as it serves their foreign policy goals. Moreover, the moderate and conservative elements of the clergy may also share the radicals' belief that we are inveterately hostile to the Islamic government, making accommodation with the U.S. impossible. The clerical regime continues to believe that the U.S. has not accepted the revolution and intends to reverse the course of events and install a puppet government. This perception has been reinforced by our restoration of diplomatic relations with Iraq, efforts to cut the flow of arms to Iran, and direct threats of military action in retaliation for Iranian-inspired anti-U.S. terrorism.

U.S. Policy

The dynamic political situation in Iran and the consequences for U.S. interests of growing Soviet and radical influence, compel the U.S. undertake a range of short- and long-term initiatives that will enhance our leverage in Tehran, and, if possible minimize that of the Soviets. Particular attention must be paid to avoiding situations which compel the Iranians to turn to the Soviets. Short-term measures should be undertaken in a manner that forestalls Soviet prospects and enhances our ability, directly and indirectly, to build U.S. and Western influence in Iran to the maximum extent possible in the future. Planning for the following initiatives should therefore proceed on a fast and longer-term track. The components of U.S. policy will be to:

- (1) Encourage Western allies and friends to help Iran meet its import requirements so as to reduce the attractiveness of Soviet assistance and trade offers, while demonstrating the value of correct relations with the West. This includes provision of selected military equipment as determined on a case-by-case basis.

- (3) Increase contacts with allies and friends [redacted] on the evolution of the Iranian situation and possible means for influencing the direction of change, and be ready to communicate with Iran through these or other countries [redacted]
- (4) Take advantage of growing political fragmentation by:
- discreetly communicating our desire for correct relations to potentially receptive Iranian leaders; [redacted]
  - providing support to elements opposed to Khomeini and the radicals.
- (5) Avoid actions which could alienate groups potentially receptive to improved U.S.-Iranian relations.
- (6) Respond to Iranian-supported terrorism with military action against terrorist infrastructure.
- (7) Enhance our effort to discredit Moscow's Islamic credentials with a more vigorous VOA effort targeted on Iran.
- (8) Develop [redacted] action plan in support of the basic policy objective, both for near-term contingencies (e.g. death of Khomeini) as well as the long-term restoration of U.S. influence in Tehran.
- (9) With respect to the Gulf war:
- Continue to encourage third party initiatives to seek an end to the war;
  - Increase military cooperation with Gulf Cooperation Council countries, and bolster U.S. military capabilities in the Gulf area to enable CENTCOM to be fully capable of carrying out its mission; and
  - Seek to curb Iran's collaboration with its radical allies (i.e. Syria and Libya).

MEMORANDUM FOR: The Honorable Robert C. McFarlane
Assistant to the President for National Security Affairs

SUBJECT: Draft NSDD re U.S. Policy Toward Iran

1. I strongly endorse the thrust of the draft NSDD on U.S. Policy Toward Iran, particularly its emphasis on the need to take concrete and timely steps to enhance U.S. leverage in order to ensure that the USSR is not the primary beneficiary of change and turmoil in this critical country. While I am broadly in agreement with its assessment of the current political situation, the NSDD needs to reflect more fully on the complex of Soviet motives and recent actions towards Iran and their implications for U.S. policy initiatives. Moreover, I believe that the NSDD should be more precise about the extent and nature of domestic disaffection with the regime and about the potential for encouraging a more pro-Western stance within the regular armed forces and the Revolutionary Guard. Finally, I offer some specific suggestions on the draft itself that refine and add to the proposed U.S. policy actions.

2. The draft NSDD portrays the current Iranian regime as moving to improve its relations with the Soviet Union because of Iran's mounting difficulties. While true, it ignores the following recent developments indicating that Moscow has rebuffed the Iranians:

-- [REDACTED]

-- The Soviets recently withdrew between 1,000 and 1,500 Soviet economic advisers from Iran.

-- Soviet-Iranian trade has declined significantly over the past year.

-- The Soviets have resumed a hard-line stance in their propaganda on Iran.

There are several possible explanations for these Soviet actions. Moscow may be questioning Tehran's sincerity in changing its anti-Soviet posture during its recent approaches to Moscow. The Soviets also may believe that the current Iranian regime has nowhere else to turn and that they may be able to wring real concessions from Iran by tightening the pressure. Moscow also may be trying to force Iran to end the war with Iraq.

3. This downturn in Soviet-Iranian relations strengthens the case made in the NSDD for our Allies filling the vacuum left by the withdrawal of Soviet economic advisers and the downturn in Soviet-Iranian trade. [REDACTED] are well positioned to help on the projects abandoned by the Soviets. Quick action could block a future return of the Soviets to these projects and remove a major source of Soviet influence in Iran.

4. On the question of the declining popularity of the regime, I would underline that the recent decline has largely occurred among that portion of the populace that is largely uncommitted and passive. The regime still retains steadfast adherents among the lower and peasant classes that are very active politically. At the same time, the NSDD could better reflect that we have seen evidence of a growing cleavage between those loyal to the regime and those opposed to it. U.S. actions-- [REDACTED] can exploit this cleavage and activate the uncommitted.

5. In formulating U.S. policy, we need to keep in mind that Iranian policy actions do not spring from a single source. The NSDD therefore might usefully highlight on page 3 that we might well witness a move toward moderation and accommodation on the part of the pragmatists while at the same time the radicals will be seeking to undermine those policies and seek the initiative through engaging in terrorist acts designed to radicalize the atmosphere and upstage the pragmatists.

FROM: Director of Central Intelligence
SUBJECT: Release of Hostages

1. John Shaheen

2. Shaheen received a call from a Dr. Cyrus Hashemi who is currently in Hamburg at the Hilton Hotel in Room 703. Hashemi has tried to get in touch with us before offering to put us in touch with leading figures in the Iranian Government. When we learned that Hashemi is under investigation for violations of export control laws, we pulled away.

3. His recent call to Shaheen offered a change in Iranian policy (or information about a change in policy) that he could provide if the American Government would be able to get him a nolle prosequi -- in short, if we are able to take the pending indictment for conviction off his back. Shaheen said that he had no power to do that but then asked whether Hashemi's contacts with the Iranian government were good enough to spring the hostages if he could be gotten off the hook. Shaheen did this knowing that there have been occasions where nolle prosequis had been arranged for high national security considerations. What he was doing was feeling out Hashemi to see what kind of a reaction he would get. Hashemi said he would call back and in two hours he was back on the phone having, he said, talked to the [redacted]. He came back asking for the release of the DAWA hostages, plus TOW weapons, plus his nolle prosequi. Shaheen dismissed this saying no weapons, no DAWA prisoners. Then again, to feel him out, said, although I can't speak for the US Government, I understand that it will not negotiate with terrorists, and you might be able to get some Italian medical supplies or something like that [redacted].

Again Hashemi said he would check and called back within a couple of hours claiming that he had talked again to [redacted] and that they weren't interested in Italian medical supplies but they were willing to have a high ranking representative from Tehran [redacted] as early as Wednesday or Thursday of the coming week. He would have an agenda of what they were interested in. [redacted]

5. Dr. Hashemi claims to be in touch with [redacted] and says he knows about a recent attempt by George Bush's brother, [redacted] together with a man named Shekeleh (no further identification) to contact the Iranians on this. Shaheen claims that he has made it clear that he can't do it for anything, that the US Government does not deal with terrorists, that if there is a meeting [redacted] nothing at all could be agreed upon in advance, that it would be up to the Iranians to tempt the [redacted] with an offer which [redacted] might be able to work out.

6. This should probably be taken up with Dick Murphy to see whether it is ready under the circumstances to see if [redacted] would be willing to listen to whatever proposition the Iranians might have in mind bringing [redacted] and to listen to whatever surrounding information might be available.

7. I ran into Rick Burt last night and discuss this with him. He thought that it was interesting and indicated that there had been recent knowledge that a nolle prosequi had been arranged and said he would talk to Dick Murphy about it. I think we might touch base with the Assistant Secretary of State for International Organizations as well as with Murphy and in doing so tell Dick about Burt's reaction. I suggest that he might want to check with Burt.

1. SUMMARY: On 22 April 1986, the United States Customs Service and the United States Attorney's Office for the Southern District of New York announced the indictment of seventeen individuals on charges that they were participants in an illegal scheme to smuggle $2.5 billion in American-made warplanes, missiles and other weapons to Iran. This case has received prominent play in the foreign and domestic press (see attachment) and has been of interest to the Israeli government due to the involvement of a retired Israeli general. The bait in Customs's sting operation was Cyrus Hashemi, a former Agency and State Department contact. Hashemi's previous relationship with United States government agencies could be an issue at trial. The case is tentatively set to go to trial in November 1986.

2. Cyrus Hashemi is well and unfavorably known to the Directorate of Operations and the Department of State. The following is a summary of our involvement with Mr. Hashemi.

A. In early 1980, during the Iranian hostage crisis, Hashemi made representations to State that he could serve as a channel for negotiations concerning the hostages.

It developed that Hashemi did not have the ability to perform as projected and it was suspected that his offers were part of a scam.

B. During 1983 and early 1984, Hashemi was under investigation for arms export control violations. In separate meetings with the Agency and the Department of State, Hashemi's attorneys threatened to tell all if their client was brought to trial. It was the DDCI's decision that the Agency would have no objection to prosecution even in light of Hashemi's attempts at blackmail. State was more reluctant because of the damage revelations would have on foreign relations. A federal arrest warrant was issued in May 1984 on Hashemi. His flight from prosecution to Europe effectively put the prosecution on the shelf.

C. In June 1984, the DCI learned from John Shaheen, a personal acquaintance of the DCI, that Hashemi had information he wished to pass to the Agency. Because Hashemi was a fugitive from justice, Shaheen was informed by the DCI that the Agency had no interest in pursuing Hashemi's offer.

D. During June - August 1985 Shaheen and one of Hashemi's attorneys were in contact with the Agency regarding Hashemi's alleged ability to intercede with Iranian officials to secure the release of the hostages in Lebanon. Hashemi sought to arrange for charges against him to be dropped in return for his cooperation. Both the Agency and State investigated Hashemi's claims, with no positive results.

3. Until his death of natural causes in <sup>July</sup> of 1986, Hashemi was to be one of the primary witnesses at trial. Even though we had no part in the Customs sting operation, the Agency may be brought into the case because the defense may make an issue of Hashemi's attempts to contact the Agency to secure favorable treatment on his 1984 indictment.

4. Representatives from the Directorate of Operations and the Office of General Counsel have met with the Department of Justice attorney and the local prosecutor to brief them concerning our equities in this case and to allow them to review redacted versions of Agency documents. They have been made aware that our primary concerns are to protect from disclosure

[REDACTED] the details of our involvement with the attempt to arrange the hostage release in 1985, the identities of covert source, and the identities of covert CIA officers. As it now stands, we are anticipating that we will be compelled to acknowledge our relationship with Hashemi with a summary description of his post indictment activities that are relevant to an entrapment defense.

5. On 5 September 1986, we were informed that one of the defense attorneys had indicated to Mr. Hashemi's attorney, William B. Wachtel, interest in reviewing his file on Hashemi and discussing with him his knowledge of Hashemi's activities. Mr. Wachtel is inclined to assert attorney client privilege. Based on information in our files, it is obvious that Mr. Wachtel is fully informed on Hashemi's dealings with various government agencies. OGC is currently discussing with Justice and State attorneys means to prevent the release of classified information by Mr. Wachtel.

Whether to pursue a meeting brokered by Cyrus Hashemi to discuss "hostages" with an Iranian official.

ESSENTIAL FACTORS

You will recall our earlier discussions on the Cyrus Hashemi case, about which Elliot Richardson had called you. Hashemi, who is living in West Germany, has now reentered the scene and has contacted a friend of Bill Casey's, with an offer to bring forward an Iranian official to discuss "U.S. hostages" in return for lifting a U.S. indictment for 1979-82 arms trading now outstanding against Hashemi (see attached CIA report which [redacted] gave us). Justice has no interest at this time in releasing Hashemi from the indictment (although it would be difficult to extradite him and he cannot be prosecuted unless he enters the U.S.) and we do not want to take any action which might prejudice Justice's case against him.

While the chance may be slim that Hashemi can deliver an appropriately senior Iranian for a June meeting next week, as he has undertaken, we would nevertheless not want to pass up an opportunity to talk with an appropriate Iranian official about the hostages. (In this case we presume he is talking about the seven hostages who have been held for lengthy periods by Iranian-inflicted groups in Lebanon). Hashemi has a slimy record.

[redacted] But he does appear to have some top contacts in the Iranian hierarchy.

I consulted urgently with Justice on June 20 to ascertain its reaction to the Hashemi proposal. We had suggested that no U.S. official would meet with Hashemi and the official from Tehran since we do not want to jeopardize the case against the former. We suggested that we could ask the [redacted] to send a professional to listen to the Iranian representative next week.

I reports that Justice, taking into consideration the current hostage crisis, felt that we could go ahead with the Mahani-arranged contact next week. Justice understands that we would be in a listening mode and would undertake no discussion which could be construed as negotiation with Mahani. Justice also thought that if we could not identify a third country official to do the job that we could send a U.S. citizen, including possibly a USA employee, but would prefer we not be directly involved in discussion with Mahani.

Although we would prefer not to deal, even indirectly with Mahani, and the chances for a successful meeting are slim, on balance, we believe we should go ahead using a [redacted] representative. We would be very clear that he could not have any authority to negotiate on behalf of the US with the Iranian representative and would basically be there to listen. Once we have the results of the discussion, we can decide how to proceed.

We will keep the close touch with the [redacted] front office if we decide to go ahead.

Finally, Bill Gray is very anxious to move ahead on this proposal. I suggest you call him to say we are urgently working on the issue and will be back to him as soon as possible. We have passed the case message to [redacted] C/and (W)

That you authorize [redacted] to explore the possibility of a meeting in Rome of a third country diplomat with an Iranian official.

Agree [initials] Disapprove [initials]

Alternatively, that you authorize a USA official to attend the meeting.

 [REDACTED] Contact with Two Iranians

1. I-phoned Shaheen at 1800 hours on 12 July to give him the State Department approved plan. I gave it to him in two phases. The first was for his information only, that we have confirmed [REDACTED] is an important figure [REDACTED]

The second name we were given by Hashemi has been confirmed to us to be a fabricator and unreliable. In fact we have had a previous bad experience with him on the hostage issue. I told Shaheen not to provide this information to Hashemi.

2. Hashemi is to be given the following [REDACTED] will be prepared to meet at a time of the Iranian's convenience [REDACTED] with [REDACTED]. He may bring MANOUCHEHR with him if he wishes. [REDACTED] will not repeat not meet with MANOUCHEHR alone. Shaheen replied that he got the point; it made sense to him; and he would send it promptly to Hashemi, who is probably in Geneva.

3. Shaheen departs for Tokyo at 1100 hours on 13 July and will be at the Tokyo Imperial Hotel for about a week after Sunday noon. I have his phone number.

4. The above plan was proposed by us to DAS Arnie Raphael and approved by Mike Aramant on Friday afternoon. They will send another interim [REDACTED]

MEMORANDUM FOR THE RECORD

SUBJECT: New Developments on the Shaheen-Bashemi Indirect Channel to Iran

Declassified/Released on 19 Aug 87
under provisions of E.O. 12356
by B. Reger, National Security Council

1. John Shaheen phoned late on 8 July with the two Iranian names who are willing to meet. They are:

and

b. Manouchehr (Inu), a ranking Intel Officer.

Shaheen said that we can confirm the full identity of Manouchehr.

Hashemi claims that Manouchehr was helpful in the release of the TWA 39 hostages (We know of no basis for this claim).

2. Hashemi claims that the Iranians are more interested in a change of course than in any other quid pro quo. When asked to clarify whether that meant a US change of policy or an Iranian change, Shaheen said he thought it meant both; i.e., a change in the course of US-Iranian relations. Hashemi claims that Syria will not be involved in the release of the seven remaining hostages because Hizballah deals directly with Iran.

3. Shaheen said, "We are not dealing with children; Hashemi now insists that it be made clear to the US Government that as soon as the seven hostages are sprung, he will get his nolle prosequi." Hashemi asked for confirmation from Shaheen which government agency was involved. Shaheen told him on the international phone lines that it was the Bureau of Fisheries. Hashemi replied that whether it was Weinberger, Schultz, Casey, or the Bureau of Fisheries, his lawyer, Elliot Richardson, needs at this time to confirm that the US Government acknowledges Hashemi's helpful role if the seven hostages are released. (I later phoned Shaheen back at his insistence to repeat the previous talking point from State.) "Our willingness to have [redacted] meet with a confidential representative of Iran as an initial step does not mean any willingness on the US Government's part to [redacted] of Justice, to take any judicial step concerning Mr. Hashemi. The possibility of any such step could only be addressed, if at all, after the US Government has learned from the [redacted] first meeting. [redacted] Shaheen said he did not think that would be enough for Hashemi. He will phone back on 9 July (possibly to the DCI) to urge that someone in the US Government confirm to Elliot Richardson that this is a legitimate US Government channel that Hashemi is assisting.

4. All of the above has been passed to Peter Burleigh at State. The next step is for State to confirm with [redacted] that they are ready to meet with the two Iranians within the next week. I will then phone that back to Shaheen and the Iranians will advise through Hashemi their time of arrival [redacted]

Update on the Hashemi escape. As of last night, [redacted] was still negative about the two names offered -- [redacted] and Manachehr (intell officer).

It turns out [redacted]

[redacted] that he was a fabricator. According to [redacted] our only knowledge of [redacted] in the biographic files is through reporting from Manachehr who claimed, among other things, that [redacted] was the individual responsible for the kidnapping of William Buckley. In other words, CIA has been around this same issue [redacted] earlier and had come to the conclusion that he was not reliable. [redacted] inclination, thus, was to recommend to Casey that the Hashemi connection be dropped. He said they would do nothing, however, pending further word [redacted] This issue may come up at the 3:00 pm meeting with [redacted] C/NB (CIA)

Our Manachehr, the one Steve Grummon resurrected from his files, is another one apparently (see attached TD, part 2D).

If they do want to kill the initiative, it would be worth asking if they are sure that their Manachehr is the one in question, i.e., it's a fairly common name and how do they know it's the one who was the fabricator? We have not been able to identify [redacted] variously described as [redacted] or [redacted]

MEMORANDUM FOR THE RECORD

SUBJECT: Status of Hashemi-Elliott Richardson Contact

1. Elliot Richardson phoned the DCI on 14 August to find out if the illusive [REDACTED] (the undersigned) worked for the DCI and to see if a meeting could be arranged to find out the Agency's intentions toward his client, Mr. Hashemi. At the DCI's instruction, I telephoned Mr. Richardson back to repeat the status of our relationship with Mr. Hashemi.

2. Mr. Richardson was informed that the ball remains in Mr. Hashemi's court, as it was the last time we talked on 16 July. Mr. Richardson said that he understood that Hashemi had dropped his condition, i.e., that Hashemi would do nothing until the US Government spoke to his lawyer.

3. Mr. Richardson said that he was anxious to know if his client would be treated fairly, commensurate with the effort he was making on our behalf. I had him hold on the phone while I found the correct language in our file, then read him the language we received from State and Justice: "the possibility of any judicial consideration for Mr. Hashemi can only be addressed after the US Government has learned what the results of the first meeting in Europe is which Mr. Hashemi allegedly is setting up." Mr. Richardson tried to ask what "consideration" meant and to elicit further our thinking on the nolle prosequi. I repeated only that there was nothing further we could say until a meeting takes place. The ball has been in his client's court for some weeks and that frankly his client does not have a good track record in these matters. I also noted that Mr. Hashemi has an established channel through a third party when he wishes to reach us. Richardson replied that he had attempted to reach that third party (Mr. Shaheen) but was unsuccessful.

3. Two problems occur:

a. I am no longer sure that Mr. Shaheen will be available as an intermediary in the event that Mr. Hashemi talks to us again. Perhaps the DCI has more information on Mr. Shaheen.

MEMORANDUM FOR THE RECORD

SUBJECT: Hashemi Tries to Play Hard Ball

1. At 0930 on Saturday, 13 July, Mr. Shaheen phoned my home to say that Hashemi accepts our proposal that [redacted] must be present at the first meeting. Hashemi, however, added the condition that nothing further would be done to set up this first meeting until someone in the USG talked to his lawyer, Elliot Richardson.

2. I repeated our previous position, that no consideration would be given to discussing Hashemi's legal problem until after the first meeting took place. Therefore, we consider further progress in this channel at an end until Hashemi withdraws his requirement that someone must speak to Richardson.

3. Shaheen agreed that this tactic made sense to him in view of the derogatory information we had on the other Iranian, MANUCHEHR. Shaheen was also at pains to say that he was anxious to be helpful to the DCI and was not in any sense a close friend of Hashemi. We agreed that in both the intelligence and oil businesses, not all deals pan out, and I gave him some profuse thanks for his efforts in this case.

4. The above was relayed to Peter Burleigh of State on Saturday, 13 July, and State forwarded a status report [redacted]

AMERICAN HOSTAGES IN LEBANON

BACKGROUND

The former head of Savak's Department VIII, Counterespionage General Manucher Hashemi continues to monitor developments in Iran. His motivation for this effort is a desire to see Iran become a non-communist nation with an orderly and just form of government when Ayatollah Khomeini passes from the scene and his revolution becomes a spent force. In pursuit of this objective, General Hashemi believes he and other exiles, who have no political aspirations, can play a modest role in helping Iran to transition from its current chaos to a democratic society. He sees this happening via the process of exiles providing support, guidance and some coordination for "moderates" in Iran who have the courage, skills and resources required to prevent Iran from being dominated by Moscow.

THE DIALOGUE TO DATE

The ebb and flow of the Iran-Iraq war since September 1980 has been of vital interest to oil companies. The trends of the conflict have, therefore, been monitored by risk analysis firms such as ours in order that our clients could be well informed. In seeking factual data on the struggle, we have harnessed various sources including the maintaining of contact with knowledgeable Iranian exiles. General Hashemi has been one of our emigre conversation partners. In October 1984 our dialogue with him took on a new form and substance in that he offered to put us in touch with a number of interesting Iranians who would be traveling in Europe in November 1984. We accepted the offer on the premise that it would help us to evaluate the quality of General Hashemi's future commentary as well as provide a first-hand assessment of what was likely to happen in the Iran-Iraq war which could impact on a volatile and oversold international oil market.

HAMBURG MEETINGS

In the period 19 - 21 November 1984, a number of meetings were held in Hamburg, Germany with General Hashemi and Iranians that he introduced to us. This revealed that Manuchehr Ghorbanifar, President of Bylex Trading Company, 56 Avenue Marceau, 75008 Paris, telephone 7203041, telex 620927, was a major cut-out between one group of contacts in Iran and the General. In fact, Ghorbanifar brokered one meeting for us and General Hashemi in Hamburg on November with a most interesting traveler from Iran.

HORBANIFAR

After the meeting of 20 November with the man from Iran, Ghorbanifar was asked how we might authenticate the visitor's ability to help us in solving some oil contract disputes with Iran. The response was simple -- put the man to the test of performance. In short, give him a simple task to do and if he solved that one, move on to the next one. Ghorbanifar said this technique had worked for him. He then went on to say his own business kept him in close contact with the Iranian market where he played a role by brokering deals between Iranian buyers and European suppliers.

Ghorbanifar said his business was successful but he was also an Iranian nationalist. Due to the latter factor, he was vitally concerned with developments in Iran. He feared that Iran would become a Soviet satellite within the near term -- three to five years -- if he and people like General Hashemi did not do something to stem the tide. He rhetorically asked what can we do, for despite our ability to work with the "moderates" in Iran, we can't get a meaningful dialogue with Washington. According to Ghorbanifar, it is President Reagan who has the destiny of the Iranian people in his hand. When at this juncture Ghorbanifar was asked if he had tried to open a dialogue with the Americans, he said, "We know the CIA in Frankfurt. They want to treat us like kleenex -- use us for their purpose and then throw us out the window. We can't work with them as they are unreasonable and unprofessional. In fact, if you check on me with them, they will tell you I am unreasonable and undisciplined."

COMMENT: General Hashemi has privately verified that Ghorbanifar has several real estate holdings in Hamburg and Paris. The General said that from what he can see, Ghorbanifar is successful in business. In terms of contacts in Iran, Hashemi said he could only describe Ghorbanifar with the adjective "fantastic." At the same time, Hashemi said Ghorbanifar, while intelligent and a producer of results, had always been hard to control.

[REDACTED] has told us independently that Ghorbanifar had been an effective agent for SAVAK [REDACTED] but was known as a wheeler-dealer. He made the point that Ghorbanifar was not a trained intelligence officer but had been an access agent in various cases and had done commercial jobs for SAVAK as a cut-out.

Commercial traces on the Bylex Trading Company and its owner are pending.

HOSTAGES IN LEBANON

The conversation about the Iran-Iraq war throughout 20 November focused on three issues. They were the land war and the prospects for a Basra sector general offensive, the Gulf maritime war and Kharg Island as its centerpiece and Tehran's export of the revolution with emphasis on what threat the latter was to oil facilities in Iraq, Kuwait, the United Arab Emirates and Saudi Arabia. During the early portions of this conversation, Ghorbanifar said Tehran

Perhaps this could be delivered to the Americans to prove that Hashemi and Ghorbanifar had influential contacts in Iran. In response, it was pointed out that transactions of this type might not be simple, particularly as no one knew what Iran would want in exchange. Ghorbanifar said he would guess Tehran would want TOW missiles. He was urged, therefore, to find a simpler way to prove his bona fides if he in fact wanted to deal with the Americans. Nothing emerged at that juncture in response to that comment. As the day wore on, however, and Lebanon entered into the scope of the conversation, Mr. Ghorbanifar was asked what he knew about Iranian intentions in Lebanon, what role Tehran had played in bombing the American Embassy or kidnapping Americans. The response was he had little hard facts beyond having heard the captured Americans were alive. Ghorbanifar was told that all citizens who had compassion for their countrymen were interested in the fate of Americans who had been captured by terrorists, guerrillas or other unstable elements. If Ghorbanifar could shed light on the status of Americans in Lebanon it would be a humanitarian gesture which would be duly noted by those who count. Ghorbanifar said he assumed we were talking about a tractors for prisoner exchange. The answer was we had nothing specific in mind. On the other hand, we knew oil companies could be generous and if there was a humanitarian deal to be made in simple terms with adequate safeguards for life and funds, we would be willing to take soundings with our oil company clients and contacts to see if a deal could be structured.

There was about a three hour break between the end of the afternoon session on 20 November and a regrouping for after-dinner drinks. In this period, each member of the afternoon session went on his own to different dinner sessions. When the group reconvened, Ghorbanifar said he had thought about the afternoon session, had made some telephone calls, had talked to a friend and could now say the following:

- a. Americans captured in Beirut were alive.
- b. A deal could be made for their release using Iranian channels.
- c. The transaction would be simple -- money for people.
- d. The cover for the transaction would be Ghorbanifar had bought them out and resold them to a private group that raised the funds.

UNCLASSIFIED

REF ID: A66001

N 7455

- e. The transaction had to be kept secret. This meant that whatever final explanation was worked out to advise the media of how the release had been effected, it could not identify Ghorbanifar, Iranians or anything but a private ransom deal.
- f. If this deal interested us, we were to do the following:
  - (1) provide the full names of the captured Americans;
  - (2) indicate the date of their capture;
  - (3) provide the given name of each captive's father.

Ghorbanifar was told we had noted his points and would take appropriate soundings. When we indicated surprise at the speed of his decision-making process, he laughed and said he was an operator and now the ball was in our court. He wondered aloud if we could react as quickly as he had. We said we doubted that we could, for we were both cautious and deliberate.

COMMENT

In subsequent private discussions late on 20 November, General Hashemi told us he did not know who Ghorbanifar had contacted on this matter or how. He said he would attempt to find out and might have an answer in ten days time. This delay was due to the fact that Ghorbanifar and Hashemi would both be traveling as of 21 November and could not talk securely for a number of days. We know Hashemi flew from Hamburg to London on 21 November 1984.

No names of the Americans captured in Lebanon were discussed at any time by either party. In terms of numbers, we said we thought four Americans were unaccounted for in Lebanon. We had in mind the following:

- a. Jeremy Levin of Cable News Network who was kidnaped on 7 March 1984;
- b. William F. Buckley, an American Embassy officer, who was kidnapped on 16 March 1984;
- c. Benjamin M. Weir, a Presbyterian Minister kidnapped on 8 May 1984.

It must be stressed, however, that we never surfaced their names, organization or date of capture.

SECURITY EVALUATION

General Hashemi is independently wealthy. He travels on the basis of his own funds plus discounted airline tickets that he receives from a son-in-law who has a travel agency. Our relationship with him has been based on a mutuality of interest in Iranian affairs. We reciprocally host luncheons or dinners.

Ghorbanifar has no known intelligence connections with any Western intelligence service. He is a "wheeler dealer" and could play both ends against the middle for a profit in a business deal. On a political matter concerning Iran, it would appear, however, that he could be kept on track if he were tasked via Hashemi.

PROPRIETARY INTEREST

It is our intent to continue our dialogue with General Hashemi, for he has been helpful in the past in assisting us to understand events in Iran. Mr. Ghorbanifar is a new entity on our commercial horizon and we are evaluating his potential to contribute to our ventures. In sum, while we have spelled out with frankness how this situation unfolded, we have done so out of concern for a friend and other fellow Americans. (COMMENT: Mr. Buckley was known to us from his service in Vietnam.) With equal candor, we must state that while we expect the data we have furnished to be checked, if it interests anyone in government, we must insist the verification effort be carried out in a manner that will not prejudice our relationship with General Hashemi and Mr. Ghorbanifar. Put another way, we have invested time and money into developing and maintaining relationships that by our criteria are useful. As a result, we want to preserve them and request this sensitivity factor on our part be both noted and honored as this situation is evaluated. In this context, please note the attached article on risk assessment which outlines some of our commercial concepts.

ACTION REQUESTED

We must, in the course of the next two weeks, give Mr. Ghorbanifar some response to his feeler on a ransom deal. It is requested, therefore, that we be advised by no later than 7 December 1984 how we are to respond. It is, of course, understood that any reply has to take into account current policies on the topic of ransom. If it would be of assistance to those considering the nature of the reply, we would be available for a discussion of the data outlined in the preceding paragraphs.

RCM:

JMP talked with Michael Ledeen this morning about an urgent message from Peres for McFarlane which Al Schwimmer, a Jewish-American who provides lots of money to Peres, wants to deliver to RCM.

In the meantime, Schwimmer has flown down here and had lunch today with Michael Ledeen and Ledeen has called back with the following:

"It is indeed a message from Prime Minister of Israel; it is a follow-on to the private conversation he had last week when David Kimche was here. It is extremely urgent and extremely sensitive and it regards the matter he told David he was going to raise with the President. The situation has fundamentally changed for the better and that I must explain to him because it will affect his decision. It is very important. It won't keep more than a day or two but could keep until Saturday morning. This is the real thing and it is just wonderful news."

Should I try to schedule Ledeen to see you?

Background on U.S. Initiative to Secure Release of American Hostages

1. The following is provided for your background on an extremely sensitive White House initiative to secure the release of the American hostages held by the Iranian-backed Hizballah organization in Lebanon. This initiative has been underway for some months and is being controlled directly by the National Security Council (NSC). I have served the NSC as the focal point for coordinating Intelligence Community collection requirements to support the White House initiative.

2. On 12 September, I was requested by LTC Oliver North, Deputy Director of Political/Military Affairs of the NSC, to begin Intelligence Community [REDACTED] against certain Iranians who were involved with the White House and who were in contact with the Lebanese Hizballah. Over the next two days I was able to secure sufficient information to identify [REDACTED] two Iranians who were the key players in the White House initiative. One of the Iranians was [REDACTED] the other individual was named [REDACTED] whose first name is unknown. [REDACTED] on behalf of the Iranian government.

[REDACTED] the White House was able to gain critical insights into the attitudes of these Iranians toward the release of the American hostages and the relationship and influence that Iranian officials have over Hizballah personnel who are holding the hostages. The release of Rev. Benjamin Weir was effected by the White House working through intermediaries who were in direct contact with [REDACTED] who in turn was dealing directly with [REDACTED]. Following the release of Weir, [REDACTED] indicated, again through intermediaries, to the White House that other American hostages might be released in the future.

3. On 28 September I was informed by the NSC (LTC North) to again coordinate [redacted] and analysis of the [redacted] connection because the White House had received information that another hostage, probably William Buckley, would be released sometime between 3 and 5 October. This increased collection effort was undertaken [redacted]

The announcement by the Islamic Jihad on 3 October that it planned to execute William Buckley created a new dimension in the continuing contacts between [redacted] and [redacted]. The White House through intermediaries indicated to [redacted] that it was important that he come to the US in order to determine whether potential still exists to secure the release of Buckley, assuming that he had not been killed, or of the remaining hostages held by Hizballah. The White House informed me on 5 October that [redacted] would arrive on 7 October on [redacted]

[redacted] Airport and [redacted] that [redacted] would be staying in the [redacted] hotel in Washington. Also joining [redacted] for these meetings was one [redacted], an Israeli, who has served as one of the intermediaries for the White House in dealing with [redacted] [redacted] allegedly a former [redacted] reportedly has a financial relationship with [redacted] and has been involved in joint ventures with [redacted] in obtaining munitions for the Government of Iran. [redacted] also will be staying at the [redacted] hotel. [redacted]

The NSC stated that this was perhaps our last opportunity to utilize this channel to determine whether William Buckley is still alive (we now have strong evidence that he is dead) and whether there are any opportunities remaining to secure the freedom of the other hostages. [redacted]

4. From my perspective and based on the analysis of the intelligence collected thus far [redacted] beyond any question is an agent of the Iranian government [redacted] is an influential member of the Iranian government [redacted] My knowledge of [redacted] only comes from a White House official who assures me that [redacted] has been an important intermediary in this [redacted] initiative and that he too has financial arrangements with [REDACTED]. The meetings that will occur this week here in Washington with [REDACTED] are considered pivotal by the White House as to whether this initiative should be pursued further. The hostages believed to be held by Hizballah are as follows: Father Lawrence Jenco, a Roman Catholic priest; David Jacobsen, director of Beirut's American University Hospital; Thomas Sutherland, Dean of Agriculture at the American University; and Terry Anderson, chief AP correspondent in the Middle East.

They are often involved in transport of official cargo. They contracted 10 flights to Teheran

The flights are supposed to leave immediately if at all possible consecutive. The cargo is declared to be medicine but is really ammunition etc.

4. TEHRAN SITUATION

A flight was made from [redacted] to Teheran with Boeing 707 on the 14 Nov 85. The aircraft was there escorted by Iranian fighters until it reached Teheran. There is one more flight coming in December from [redacted] which we are negotiating presently. 3 more flights are planned beginning 86 to go from [redacted] We will be informed about those.

Re: Mission TLV/THR

10-26+28

1. CHRONOLOGICAL REPORT

PHASE I - Contact and Contract

Friday afternoon 22 Nov first info to me [redacted] that I would be contacted concerning an urgent flight and that it was in our interest to perform those upcoming flts. At about 20 00 local time I was contacted by a certain Mr. Richard Copp [redacted]. He asked me whether I had already been informed about a mission, which I denied. He then explained to me that there had to be 3 flights done as quickly as possible "Government to Government" from Tel Aviv [redacted]. After a short discussion we agreed that we could do it with [redacted] aircraft consecutively for a flat fee of 60 000.00 USD plus fuel, landg, handlg had to be paid by him. Further it was agreed that second Boeing would be made available on request should the matter get urgent. During my subsequent conversation to our [redacted] I referred to my MEMO 211185 [redacted] and questioned the way it was displayed to me and supposed [redacted] this cargo was the same as in my memo indicated. This was [redacted].

PHASE II - Positioning

Our Boeing [redacted] had just arrived [redacted] and [redacted] the aircraft was taken over by [redacted] and [redacted] departed [redacted] Capt [redacted] had the order that upon the receipt of the code "Celia" he would find an excuse for the customer and depart [redacted] Tel Aviv, filing [redacted] officially for [redacted] Traffic rights for [redacted] [redacted] were tentatively applied for by [redacted] should this become necessary.

Our second Boeing was parked in [redacted] and [redacted] no [redacted] before the airport opened the next morning. At the time I had made the agreement with [redacted] about 0100 GMT. The crew [redacted] which was supposed to [redacted] [redacted] the next day [redacted] was the [redacted] alert concerning the early departure of this aircraft [redacted] Tel Aviv. After the airport had opened the fuel company was available for fuelling this aircraft [redacted]. At about this time I was informed by Copp that pallets had to be taken along. [redacted] Our own pallets were stored in the [redacted].

Due to the shortage of time we decided to let the aircraft fly to pick up the pellets instant transporting them via your transport.

The pellets had been put on a forklift in the meantime and our mechanic was waiting for the aircraft to arrive. After the aircraft had arrived the pellets were loaded and the aircraft continued to fly to Tel Aviv after having refuelled a little because of the extra flying time.

In the meantime Capt. [redacted] together with [redacted] and an [redacted] Copilot additional loadmaster [redacted] had arrived from Paris via train and were also on board when the aircraft departed finally at about [redacted] (23 Nov)

Due to this departure [redacted] Copp had requested from me to also put the second aircraft into this operation due to the utmost urgency of the mission.

Therefore the code [redacted] was transmitted [redacted] and after unloading [redacted] fuelled and departed to TL [redacted]
 The overflight rights had been granted in the meantime [redacted] landed a [redacted] on the 23 Nov in TLV.

PHASE III - Loading

Although Richard Copp [redacted] had said to me that the loading was planned to take 5 hours but would be speeded up to 2 hours. [redacted] which had first arrived, had loaded one piece out of 19 pieces in 4 hours. Therefore [redacted] time all concerned parties were concerned that the [redacted] would take as long as possibly 24 hours. Therefore and [redacted] obviously traffic rights had not been granted. [redacted] I was told that now the load had to be transported [redacted] TL. This confirmed my initial suspicions and it was obvious [redacted] that several things had to be changed. (Copp [redacted] hours before that the traffic rights [redacted] issued and the crew told me that in TLV everyone knew that they had already been turned down and that the real deal was still [redacted])

I was given the contact of Mr. A. Schwimmer in TLV by Mr. Copp and he 701 talked to Schwimmer several times on the phone.
 I told him that we could not fly to THR with an American registered aircraft and that we therefore had to unload again. He 701
 He tried several times to convince me and even offered to paint a different registration on the aircraft and do some kind of formation flying into THR. Keeping in mind that all phone conversations to Israel might be listened to, I told him we were a normal Airline wanted to go in business some time to come and that the only way to do it was the correct way for us to do it. Therefore, he was unloaded again. He 701
 In addition to that I explained to him that we needed traffic rights in overfly which we had applied for tentatively the moment the real nest had come out, but only for [redacted]
 And also we estimated that it would take time to get those rights.
 In addition I had conferred with [redacted] and was told that those traffic rights would be supported diplomatically and that we could count on this. He 701
 I was in touch with [redacted] all the time and verified all the [redacted] them. In fact [redacted] was in Schwimmers home and we negotiated there that we needed 30 000 USD in order to go to the destination because we had not planned on it and therefore did not enough cash with us. Also we did not trust them that everything was paid in THR. Schwimmer came up with 8000 USD and lengthy discussions because it was Sunday in the meantime [redacted] could not get more money.

PHASE IV - Flights performed

According to the new agreement between Schwimmer and [redacted] He 701 had been unloaded again and departed [redacted] on Sunday the 24 Nov.
 [redacted] did this flight and took all extra crew back except for the second loadmaster because it had become obvious to us that the TLV/THR route could be flown by one crew due to the lengthy loading and unloading procedures. He 701
 In the meantime Schwimmer confirmed that [redacted] rights for overflight [redacted] had been confirmed [redacted] we could go with [redacted] as soon as it was unloaded.
 However, the last night they decided to [redacted] our agreement that the aircraft should [redacted] being on to THR.
 This required additional funds by us [redacted] had to be defuncted in TLV because it would have [redacted] for landing [redacted] and had to [redacted] this miss [redacted]
 [redacted] the money but [redacted] after long discussions Schwimmer [redacted] applied another 2000 [redacted] which gave [redacted] He 701 about [redacted] together with the cash he had in his ships funds.

Finally we gave the green light for <sup>the captain</sup> to take off and he left TLV with <sup>the captain</sup> on the 24 Nov. Since arrival it had taken him exactly 24 hours for loading and clearing all the problems.

After arrival <sup>the captain</sup> had new problems as the customer and especially the military in TLV had not only not given him any documents for the load but also had taken out every evidence which might have proved that the aircraft was in TLV. Customs <sup>the captain</sup> therefore did not want to release the aircraft unless documents were produced and therefore the load also had to be inspected. Finally <sup>the captain</sup> wrote a cargo manifest which was accepted although it had no stamp of the signature point and finally he could talk his way out of this situation. Finally he therefore left at <sup>the captain</sup> direction as planned.

However, nothing was prepared for overflight <sup>the captain</sup> and he had again to talk his way through. Since they repeatedly insisted on a diplomatic clearance number, he made one up which was not accepted after long negotiations and then he filibustered one hour and 30 min in his way <sup>the captain</sup> using different altitudes, positions and estimates that he told <sup>the captain</sup> with whom he was obviously in radio contact.

However, radar realized his off-positions which gave additional reasons for arguments and delays.

At the THR border <sup>the captain</sup> received without any problems but he did not have to say the code "I am coming for Mustafa" because Radar treated him very normally. Finally he landed <sup>the captain</sup> on the 25 Nov (Monday)

PHASE V - Unloading

After landing in THR the aircraft had to remain on the runway for about 10 min until a "follow me" came and directed them to the parking area which was on the military side. The landing had been done on runway 29 r and the aircraft was directed to the south of this runway onto the north/west part of the southern military apron.

It is a special area which is surrounded by a high fence to the outside so that people outside the <sup>the captain</sup> cannot see the aircraft.

to explain
tell anyone including the military where the aircraft really came from. He then mentioned that they were expecting 4 more flights from TLV. He would like to see the same crew then due to security. When [redacted] was asking for money or arrangements of fuel, parking etc. he told him not to worry and that everything would be taken care of.

2 Supervisor then started to direct the unloading, one military and one civilian with submachine guns. The crew was sent to the officers Mess where they were again by the civilian to keep their mouth shut about this and not talk to anyone about their mission.

Capt [redacted] then told him that our crew did not want to pass through passport and customs control [redacted] as they expected a quick turn around and then to leave again. Therefore the civilian took them in a car through back roads off the airport and was not checked or stopped at the gate although even military had to produce their id - cards at that gate. The trip to the Hotel took one hour and finally they arrived at the former Sheraton Hotel. (Different name now, could not remember)

All rooms were occupied and therefore they had to take a suite together. After being at the hotel for about 2 hours to the surprise of the crew they got a phone call that the aircraft was unloaded and that they would be picked up in a few minutes. This was 6 hours after the aircraft had landed. [redacted] had the car remained at the airport for some time to see that the unloading really took place and that it was done quietly. Then the time in the officers mess and the trip to the Hotel had taken some time.)

However, after this alert it took 2 hours until the car finally arrived. In the meantime the civilian had apologized several times and the crew was offered coffee and cakes.

After arrival at the airport through the "backdoor" [redacted] required a permit number for overflight [redacted] in order to avoid the problem he had coming in. He refused to leave without. Therefore he and the civilian went to the Tower from where they tried to [redacted] obtain this number. After about 2 hours of trying [redacted] told them that the overflight was ok but they could not get a number. Also [redacted] told that the Air Defense of Iran was informed and that they could leave now which he finally accepted.

When the crew was taken over to the aircraft [redacted] realized that the aircraft had been towed to the civilian side. In the meantime and that it was being fuelled by civilian personnel.

When [redacted] asked for full tanks (or [redacted] in because after all these problems which I was [redacted] the had called [redacted] via Telephone from the [redacted] I wanted the possibility to take the aircraft directly back [redacted] if necessary) the civilian who had received him was very disappointed because he realized that so much fuel was not needed to go back to TLV. However [redacted] told him that he needed the extra for security.

PHASE VI - Return flight

The aircraft took off at [REDACTED] on the 25 Nov, after 14:35 hours on the ground in THR.

The aircraft was directed by radar off the airways a little more to the north than normally, close to the Russian border.

Al [REDACTED] was given a special exit time which he had to meet in order to comply with the Iranian Air Defense.

Approaching Tabriz the aircraft was ordered down from FL 350 to FL 280, shortly before reaching [REDACTED] border again up to FL 350. (reason unknown).

No transponder was used in the Iranian airspace.

After arrival [REDACTED] was told by radar that this time he was accepted but that in future for further flights, the ok of the civil air was not enough but that he had to get also the ok of the Ministry of foreign affairs and that otherwise the aircraft would be turned back.

Based on all this information, I ordered [REDACTED] radio to proceed directly [REDACTED] which we had planned initially.

The aircraft arrived [REDACTED]

GENERAL CONCLUSIONS

The mission was poorly planned and directed by our contract partners in a amateurish way.

1. [REDACTED] was in the country for about a week with [REDACTED] to THR.
2. Copp was sitting in [REDACTED] although [REDACTED] was clearly not flown to and he as our contract partner could not [REDACTED] what was going on in TLV. C 2/43
3. In TLV the aircraft was on the military [REDACTED] loaded by high ranking military personnel who were not accustomed to this type of work. (The lowest ranking officer was a Lieutenant) In addition they did not work much at [REDACTED] many coffe brakes. 26220
4. A certain Mr. A. Schwimmer which was introduced to me by Copp as the representative in TLV of Copp's [REDACTED] very pushy with the military, sometimes to a point where he was insulting, but he did not understand the special aviation problems and did not have things under control. I.E. He seriously proposed to the Captain [REDACTED] to change the registration of the aircraft and to forge the respective papers " in 2 hours". This was turned down by [redacted] and also by myself when Schwimmer mentioned it on the phone due to the before mentioned reasons.

Also the cash money which Copp had promised was not available and Schwimmer apparently did not know about this requirement.

5. The routing changes, destination changes, involved traffic rights were done too late and the crew grew more and more insecure as they are not used to this type of makeshift Airline direction and control.

6. The mission was still performed successfully because of the initiative the crew had displayed and because they are used also under adverse circumstances to complete the mission before problems will be discussed. However, this is not the way it can be done repeatedly because the good will will be worn out.

PROPOSAL

As Aviation is a very complex business which requires a lot of experience from all across and also because the feed back information is so vital for the operation, the directly involved employees have to be part of the decision making and planning as early as during the contracting stage.

Had it not been a special flight, I would have delayed for about 2 days after I had learned about the change of Destination in order to have enough time for correct planning and the acquisition of the necessary traffic rights.

The little radar controller does not know political decisions and will not even be informed by his superiors. We experienced that time and again. Therefore all those things have to be presented in a normal way so that the controller simply has a dip in clearance number like he has for every other aircraft. This flight will look totally normal for him.

In other words: Those flights can be performed without any problem by only with the proper planning.

In order to have proper planning, the manager of the airline, who happens to be myself, should be heard before making or making commitments to third parties and before the planning process.

Therefore suggest that during the preparation process I should be present at the meeting of the departments which are involved in the planning of the mission.

I am sure that there is the aspect of security and that the mission has to be done in a clandestine way. However, it cannot be more than it was during this last mission and it could have been performed totally clandestine, had the above proposed meeting taken place in advance.

In addition to that, my presence during those meetings could provide the concerned officers who represent the different departments with useful feedback information so that for future planning some things can be ruled out right away without even going into detail whereas others can be accepted right away without checking details.

In addition to that, single missions or tasks to be performed should be part of a strategy which I am sure exists, but which I am not aware of in detail. Knowing the all-over strategy it would be easier to determine certain missions and it would even be easier to plan the budget which defines whether new airplanes have to be purchased/leased or others have to be sold.

In short: I would appreciate if I could be given more responsibility by being more part of the team as far as the planning of the aviation aspects are concerned. I think it is a waste of experience and information when this is not made part of the planning process. I also like to make sure that I am not on a "ego trip", but that I have the success of our company in mind which last not least is also the success of this country.

MEMORANDUM FOR THE RECORD

SUBJECT: Manuchehr Ghorbanifar Polygraph Examination

6090

On the afternoon/evening of 11 January 1986, Ghorbanifar underwent a polygraph examination. He showed deception on virtually all of the relevant questions. He has lied/fabricated his information on terrorist activities and has tried to mislead us concerning his relationship with [redacted] and leader of the [redacted] line inside Iran. He also has distorted the leadership role of [redacted]. Ghorbanifar also showed deception to the question whether he is under the control of any official Iranian organization.

Moreover, Ghorbanifar was tested on his involvement in the deal to release the hostages. The test indicated that he knew ahead of time that the hostages would not be released and deliberately tried to deceive us both independently and with [redacted].

Ghorbanifar provided new information concerning an alleged terrorist plan to attack U. S. interests [redacted]. He was also tested on this information and was shown to be lying.

It seemed clear from Ghorbanifar's behavior that he realized that the polygraph test indicated deception. While he commented during the test that he was comfortable with all of the test questions, he said that perhaps the machine might indicate some problems on a series of questions concerning [redacted] and the rightists inside Iran. He said he had been told by "White House representatives" not to discuss this topic with CIA because the operation was "too far advanced" and if CIA were involved "it would require Congressional briefings." He went on to add that he has supposedly expended $800,000 of his own funds for this purpose and has been assured by these "White House representatives" that he will be reimbursed for these expenditures. (Comment: The polygraph operator stated that Ghorbanifar's explanation/rationalization would not influence the test results on the questions being asked in connection with [redacted] and his supporters).

In discussing the hostage deal, Ghorbanifar stated he was very comfortable with the questions asked. During one of the breaks in the testing, he commented that the Israelis received the $24 million as soon as the shipment was delivered and they [redacted].

are holding all of the funds that the Iranians are requesting be returned. He added that the Israelis told him that they had "doubled" the cost of the shipment apparently because the Americans were involved. He said the Iranians were very upset about the last shipment and might resort to terrorist activities against U. S. interests. He remarked the Iranians have been refraining from these terrorist activities since the negotiations began.

Ghorbanifar is clearly a fabricator and wheeler-dealer who has undertaken activities prejudicial to U. S. interests.

Neither Ghorbanifar nor Ledeen have been advised about the results of the test. Michael Ledeen asked that he be informed about the results of the test as soon as possible. He was called on the morning of 12 January and told that the polygraph operator will be reviewing the results on Sunday and we should have feedback about the test on 13 January.

Re: Mission TLV/THR

1. CHRONOLOGICAL REPORT

PHASE I - Contact and Contract

Friday afternoon 22 Nov first info to me [REDACTED] that I would be contacted concerning an urgent flight and that it was in our interest to perform those upcoming flts. At about 20 00 Local time I was contacted by a certain Mr. Richard Copp [REDACTED]. He asked me whether I had already been informed about a mission, which I denied. He then explained to me that there had to be 3 flights done as quickly as possible "Government to Government" from Tel Aviv [REDACTED]. After a short discussion we agreed that we could do it with [REDACTED] aircraft consecutively for a flat fee of 60 000.00 USD plus fuel, landg. handlg had to be paid by him. Further it was agreed that second Boeing would be made available on request should the latter get urgent. During my subsequent conversation to our [REDACTED] I referred to my MEMO 211185 para 1 and questioned the way it was displayed to me and supposed that this cargo was the same as in my memo indicated. This was [REDACTED].

PHASE II - Positioning

Our Boeing [REDACTED] had just arrived [REDACTED] the aircraft was taken over by [REDACTED] departed [REDACTED] had the order that upon the receipt of the code "Calla" he would find an excuse for the customer and depart [REDACTED] Tel Aviv, filing [REDACTED] officially for [REDACTED] Traffic rights for [REDACTED] he [REDACTED] were tentatively applied for by [REDACTED] should this become necessary.

Our second Boeing was parked [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] before the airport opened the next morning. At the time I had made the agreement with [REDACTED] about 0100 GM. The crew [REDACTED] which was supposed to [REDACTED] the next day [REDACTED] was therefore [REDACTED] concerning the early departure of this aircraft from Tel Aviv. At the airport had opened the fuel company was available for refueling this aircraft [REDACTED]. At about this time I was informed by Copp that pallets had to be taken along. [REDACTED] Our own pallets were stored in the [REDACTED].

Due to the shortage of time we decided to let the aircraft fly to pick up the pallets instead of transporting them via ground transport.

The pallets had been put on a trolley in the hangar and our mechanic was waiting for the aircraft to arrive. After the aircraft had arrived the pallets were loaded and the aircraft continued to fly to Tel Aviv after having refuelled a little because of the extra flying time.

In the meantime Capt. [redacted] together with [redacted] and an additional loadmaster [redacted] had arrived from Paris via train and were also on board when the aircraft departed finally at about [redacted] It arrived in TLV [redacted] (23 Nov)

Due to this departure Capt. [redacted] had requested from me to also put the second aircraft into this operation due to the utmost urgency of the mission. IT WAS [redacted] Therefore the code [redacted] was transmitted [redacted] and after unloading [redacted] fuelled and departed to TLV [redacted] The overflight rights had been granted in the meantime [redacted] landed at [redacted] on the 23 Nov in TLV [redacted]

PHASE III - Loading

Although Richard Copp [redacted] had said to me that the loading was planned to take 3 hours but would be speeded up to 2 hours. [redacted] which had first arrived, had loaded one piece out of 19 pieces in 4 hours. Therefore [redacted] time all concerned parties were concerned that the [redacted] would take as long as possibly 24 hours. Therefore and [redacted] obviously traffic rights had not been granted. [redacted] I was told that now the load had to be transported [redacted] This confirmed my initial suspicions and it was obvious [redacted] that several things had to be changed. (Copp [redacted] hours before that the traffic rights [redacted] issued and [redacted] was informed [redacted] my crew told me that in TLV everyone knew that they had already been turned down and that the real deal was [redacted])

I was given the contact of Mr. A. Schwimmer in TLV by Mr. Copp and <sup>the 707</sup> talked to Schwimmer several times on the phone. He told him that we could not fly to THN with an American registered aircraft and that we therefore had to unload <sup>the 707</sup> again. He tried several times to convince me and even offered to paint a different registration on the aircraft and do some kind of formation flying into THN. Keeping in mind that all phone conversations to Israel might be listened to, I told him that we were a normal Airline and wanted to stay in business. The time to come and that the only way to do it was the correct way for us to do it. Therefore <sup>the 707</sup> was unloaded again. In addition to that I explained to him that we needed traffic rights to overfly <sup>the 707</sup> which we had applied for tentatively the moment the real nest had come out, but only for <sup>the 707</sup>. And also we estimated that it would take time to get those rights. In addition I had conferred with <sup>the 707</sup> and was told that those traffic rights would be supported diplomatically and that we could count on them. I was in touch with <sup>the 707</sup> all the time and verified all their information. In fact <sup>the 707</sup> was in Schwimmers home and we negotiated there that we needed 30 000 USD in order to go to the destination because we had not planned on it and therefore did not enough cash with us. Also we did not trust them that everything was paid in THN. Schwimmer came up with 8000 USD after lengthy discussions because it was Sunday in the meantime <sup>the 707</sup> could not get more money.

PHASE IV - Flights performed

According to the new agreement between Schwimmer and <sup>the 707</sup> <sup>the 707</sup> had been unloaded again and departed <sup>the 707</sup> on Sunday the 24 Nov. <sup>the 707</sup> did this flight and took all extra crew back except for the second loadmaster because it had become obvious to us that the TLV/THN route could be flown by one crew due to the lengthy loading and unloading procedures. In the meantime Schwimmer confirmed that <sup>the 707</sup> rights for overflight <sup>the 707</sup> had been confirmed <sup>the 707</sup> we could go with <sup>the 707</sup> as soon as it was loaded. However, the last moment they decided to <sup>the 707</sup> our agreement that the aircraft should land <sup>the 707</sup> on to THN. This required additional funds by us <sup>the 707</sup> had to be deflected in TLV because it would have <sup>the 707</sup> for landing <sup>the 707</sup> and had to return. This mission <sup>the 707</sup> after long discussions Schwimmer <sup>the 707</sup> applied another 2000 USD which gave <sup>the 707</sup> about <sup>the 707</sup> together with the cash he had in his ships funds.

Finally we gave the green light for [redacted] to take off and he left TLV with [redacted] on the 14 Nov. Since arrival it had taken him exactly 24 hours for loading and clearing all the problems.

After arrival [redacted] had new problems as the customer [redacted] actually the military in TLV had not only not given him any documents for the load but also had taken out every evidence which might have proved that the aircraft was in TLV.

Consequently [redacted] therefore did not want to release the aircraft until documents were produced and therefore the load also [redacted] was inspected. Finally [redacted] wrote a cargo manifest [redacted] which was accepted although it had no stamp of the [redacted] point and finally he could talk his way out of this situation. Finally he therefore left on [redacted] direction [redacted] as planned.

However, nothing was prepared for overflight [redacted] and he had again to talk his way through. Since they repeatedly insisted on a diplomatic clearance number, he made one up which was not accepted after long negotiations and then he filibustered one hour and 30 min his way [redacted] using different altitudes, positions and estimates that he told [redacted] with whom [redacted] obviously in radio contact [redacted]

However, radar realized his off-positions which gave additional reason for arguments and delays.

At the TLV border [redacted] received without any problems but he did not have to say the code "I am coming for Mustafa" because Radar treated him very normally. Finally he landed [redacted] on the 25 Nov (Monday)

PHASE V - Unloading

After landing in TLV the aircraft had to remain on the runway for about 10 min until a "follow me" came and directed them to the parking area which was on the military side. The landing had been done on runway 29 r and the aircraft was directed to the south of this runway onto the north/west part of the southern military aerodrome.

[redacted] It is a special area which is surrounded by a high fence to the outside so that people outside the [redacted] cannot see the aircraft.

[redacted] was first contacted by an officer [redacted] who directed the unloading later and who told him that they did not know about this flight and were surprised that it [redacted] 30 min after arrival a civilian with a [redacted] on his back arrived at the aircraft and asked [redacted] first: "What are the nationalities of the crew [redacted] the cargo, where do you come from?" Then he talked to [redacted] telling him that he should not

2 Tell anyone including the military where the aircraft really came from. He then mentioned that they were expecting 4 more flights from TLV. He would like to see the same crew then due to security. When [redacted] was asking for money or arrangements of fuel, parking etc. he told him not to worry and that everything would be taken care of.

2 Supervisor then started to direct the unloading, one military and one civilian with submachine guns. [redacted] was sent to the officers mess. [redacted] were there they were again by the civilian to keep their mouth shut about this and not talk to anyone about their mission.

Captain [redacted] then told him that our crew did not want to pass through passport and customs control.

As they expected [redacted] that they would leave again. Therefore the civilian took them in again through back roads off the airport and was not checked or stopped at the gate although even military had to produce their id - cards at that gate. The trip to the Hotel took one hour and finally they arrived at the former Sheraton Hotel. (Different name now, could not remember)

All rooms were occupied and therefore they had to take a suite together. After being at the hotel for about 2 hours to the surprise of the crew they got a phone call that the aircraft was unloaded and that they would be picked up in a few minutes. This was 6 hours after the aircraft had landed. [redacted] had remained at the airport for some time to see that the unloading really took place and that it was done properly. Then the time in the office [redacted] and the trip to the Hotel had taken some time.)

However, after this alert it took 2 hours until the car finally arrived. In the meantime the civilian had apologized several times and the crew was offered coffee and cakes. After arrival at the airport through the "backdoor" [redacted] required a permit number for overflight. [redacted] in order to avoid the problem he had coming in. He refused to leave without. Therefore he and the civilian went to the Tower from where they tried to obtain this number. After about 2 hours of trying [redacted] told them that the flight was ok but they could not get a number. Also [redacted] told that the Air Defense of Iran was informed and that they would leave now which he finally accepted.

When the crew was taken over to the aircraft [redacted] realized that the aircraft had been towed to the civilian side. In the meantime and that it was being fuelled by civilian [redacted] When [redacted] asked for full tanks (or [redacted] in because after all those problems which I was [redacted] had called [redacted] via Telephone from the [redacted] I wanted it possible to take the aircraft directly back [redacted] if necessary) the civilian who had received him was very disappointed because he realized that so much fuel was not needed to go back to TLV. However [redacted] told him that he needed the extra for security.

PHASE VI - Return flight

The aircraft took off at [redacted] on the 25 Nov, after 14:35 hours on the ground in THR.

The aircraft was directed by radar off the airways a little more to the north than normally, close to the Russian border.

Altitude was given a special exit time which he had to meet to comply with the Iranian Air Defense.

Approaching Tabriz the aircraft was ordered down from FL 350 to FL 280, shortly before reaching [redacted] border again up to FL 350. (reason unknown).

No transponder was used in the Iranian airspace.

After arrival [redacted] was told by radar that this time he was accepted but that in future for further flights, the ok of the civil air was not enough but that he had to get also the ok of the Ministry of foreign affairs and that otherwise the aircraft would be turned back.

Based on all this information, I ordered [redacted] via radio to proceed directly [redacted] which we had planned initially.

The aircraft arrived [redacted] 25 Nov.

GENERAL CONCLUSIONS

The mission was poorly planned and directed by our contract partners in a amateurish way.

1. [redacted] was in THR for about a week with [redacted] that was necessary to [redacted] to THR.
2. Copp was sitting in [redacted] although [redacted] was finally not flown to and he as our contract partner could not [redacted] what was going on in TLV. C 2/43
3. In TLV the aircraft was on the military [redacted] loaded by high ranking military personnel who were not accustomed to this type of work. (The lowest ranking [redacted] Lieutenant) In addition they did not work much and [redacted] many coffe brakes. 26220
4. A certain Mr. A. Schwimmer which was [redacted] introduced to [redacted] by Copp as the representative in TLV of Copp, was very pushy with the military, sometimes to a point where he was insulting, but he did not understand the special aviation problems and did not have things under control. I.E. He seriously proposed to the Captain [redacted] to change the registration of the aircraft and to force the respective papers "in 2 hours".

Schwimer mentioned it on the phone due to the before mentioned reasons.
Also the cash money which Copp had promised was not available and Schwimer apparently did not know about this requirement.

5. Routinizing changes, destination changes, involved traffic because as they are not used to this type of makeshift airline direction and control.

6. The mission was still performed successfully because of the initiative the crew had displayed and because they are used also under adverse circumstances to complete the mission before problems will be discussed. However, this is not the way it can be done repeatedly because the good will will be worn out.

PROPOSAL

As aviation is a business which requires a lot of experience from all involved and also because the feedback information is so slow in the operation, the directly involved employees have to be of the decision making and planning as early as possible in the contracting stage.
Had it not been a special flight, I would have delayed for about 2 days after I had learned about the change of destination in order to have enough time for correct planning and the acquisition of the necessary traffic rights.
The little radar controller does not know political decisions and will not even be informed by his superiors. He experienced that time and again. Therefore all these things have to be presented in a normal way so that the controller simply has a clear number like he has for every other aircraft. This flight will look totally normal for him.
In other words: those flights can be performed without any problem by only with the proper planning.
In order to have proper planning, the mission controller, who happens to be myself, should be heard by the controller or making commitments to third parties and the planning process.

Therefore suggest that during the preparation process I should be invited to the meeting of the departments which are involved in the decision making.

I believe that there is the aspect of security and that the operations have to be done in a clandestine way. However, it cannot be worse than it was during this last mission and it could have been performed totally clandestine, had the above proposed meeting taken place in advance.

In addition to that, my presence during those meetings could provide the concerned officers who represent the different departments with useful feedback information so that for future planning some things can be ruled out right away without even going into detail whereas others can be accepted right away without checking details.

In addition to that, single missions or tasks to be performed should be part of a strategy which I am sure exists, but which I am not aware of in detail. Knowing the all-over strategy it would be easier to plan certain missions and it would even be easier to plan the budget which defines whether new airplanes have to be purchased/leased or others have to be sold.

In short: I would appreciate if I could be given more responsibility by being more part of the team as far as the planning of the aviation aspects are concerned. I think it is a waste of experience and information when it is not made part of the planning process. I also like to make sure that I am not on a "ego trip", but that I have the success of our company in mind which last not least is also the success of this country.

FROM DCM

1. DCM [REDACTED] CALLED TO FOREIGN MINISTRY NOVEMBER 25 AND GIVEN TWO NOTES. [REDACTED] TRANSLATIONS PROVIDED IN PARAS 8 AND 9. NOTE ACTION REQUESTED PARA 7.

2. [REDACTED] SAID ESSENTIAL POINT WAS THAT THE PROPOSED OPERATION WAS SO DIRECTLY IN CONFLICT WITH U.S. POLICY AND [REDACTED] POLICY THAT THE GOVERNMENT NEEDED WRITTEN ASSURANCES THAT THE OPERATION WAS FOR HUMANITARIAN REASONS AND WAS DESIGNED TO GAIN THE RELEASE OF AMERICAN CITIZENS. [REDACTED] SAID HE WANTED TO EMPHASIZE THAT WITH THESE ASSURANCES [REDACTED] HAD BEEN PREPARED TO APPROVE THE OPERATION. IT REMAINED PREPARED TO DO [REDACTED]

3. THE DCM SAID THAT WHILE THE DESIRE [REDACTED] FOR WRITTEN ASSURANCES WAS UNDERSTANDABLE, [REDACTED] SHOULD UNDERSTAND THAT THE ACTIONS OF [REDACTED] ON NOVEMBER 22 AND 23 GAVE THE IMPRESSION TO SOME THAT [REDACTED] WAS SERIOUS, ESPECIALLY SINCE MR. THE DEMAND FOR A SECOND NOTE CONVINCED THOSE MANAGING THE OPERATION THAT [REDACTED] DUCTED FOR THE HUMANITARIAN PURPOSE OF ASSISTING AMERICAN CITIZENS IN TROUBLE. [REDACTED] SAID HE COULD NOT MAKE A JUDGEMENT. HOWEVER, THE FOREIGN MINISTER WAS IN BRUSSELS.

5. DCM THEN NOTED THAT AMBASSADOR [REDACTED] WAS SCHEDULED TO CALL ON THE PRIME MINISTER AFTERNOON OF NOVEMBER 26.

6. AMBASSADOR'S CALL IS SET FOR 4:30PM LOCAL TIME. IF [REDACTED] NOT FOUND ALTERNATIVE MEANS AND IF THERE IS STILL INTEREST IN [REDACTED] COOPERATION, WE BELIEVE MEETING OFFERS EXCELLENT OPPORTUNITY TO GET IT.

Washington, D.C. 20510

Dear Mr. Barbadoro:

I am writing in response to your letter of 2 July 1987. In that letter, you asked for several documents and other information pertaining to the Committee's investigation.

In paragraph 1 of your letter, you requested the portion of the CIA regulation which deals with the approval process on requests originating with the White House and/or NSC. A copy of that portion of the regulation is enclosed at Tab A.

In paragraph 2 of your letter, you requested the second page of CIIN#3156. David Pearline has discussed this matter with Tom Polgar and determined that the Committee does have the second page of CIIN#3156. Mr. Polgar agreed that it would not be necessary to retransmit this document.

In paragraph 4 of your letter, you requested information on what is meant when CIA cable traffic refers to the "highest level of U.S.G. interest." First, there are no CIA rules or regulations that define this term. Since this term was used by Duane Clarridge in cable traffic, we have asked him what he meant by this term. He advises that he was referring to the White House and that it is possible that North had suggested that he use that term in the traffic.

In paragraph 5 of your letter, you have requested a memorandum prepared by [REDACTED] dated 21 November 1985. Enclosed at Tab B is a sanitized copy of the memorandum. The full text copy of the memo has been reviewed by Tim Woodcock at CIA Headquarters.

In paragraph 6 of your letter you requested for Tim Woodcock a copy of the finished intelligence report on Iran, which was mentioned in a briefing provided to Mr. Polgar by [REDACTED] on 19 June. A copy of the intelligence report is enclosed at Tab C. The report contains some sensitive information classified at the Secret ORCON level. We would request that Mr. Woodcock read the document, make no copies of the document and return it to the Agency after he has completed his review.

In paragraph 7 of your letter, you requested a copy of the CIA Inspector General's report on Central America. The report has not been completed. We anticipate the report will be completed in the next few weeks.

In paragraph 8 of your letter, you requested [REDACTED] tapes found in the safe of the former [REDACTED]. Enclosed at Tab D are the actual tapes themselves. Three of the tapes contain no recordings and are therefore not included.

Sincerely,

Re: Mission TLV/THR

1. CHRONOLOGICAL REPORT

PHASE I - Contact and Contract

Friday afternoon 22 Nov first info to me via [redacted] that I would be contacted concerning an urgent flight and that it was in our interest to perform those upcoming flts. At about 20 00 Local time I was contacted by a certain Mr. Richard Copp [redacted]. He asked me whether I had already been informed about a mission, which I denied. He then explained to me that there had to be 3 flights done as quickly as possible "Government to Government" from Tel Aviv [redacted]. After a short discussion we agreed that we could do it with [redacted] aircraft consecutively for a flat fee of 60 000.00 USD plus fuel, landg, handg had to be paid by him. Further it was agreed that second Boeing would be made available on request should the latter get urgent. During my subsequent conversation to our [redacted] I referred to my MEMO 211185 [redacted] and questioned the way it was displayed to me and supposed [redacted] this cargo was the same as in my memo indicated. This was [redacted].

PHASE II - Positioning

Our Boeing [redacted] had just arrived [redacted]. The aircraft was taken over by [redacted] and [redacted] reported [redacted]. Capt [redacted] had the order that upon the receipt of the code "Celia" he would find an excuse for the customer and depart [redacted] Aviv, filling officially for [redacted] Traffic Rights for [redacted] flight [redacted] were tentatively applied for by [redacted] should this become necessary.

Our second Boeing was parked in [redacted] and [redacted] did not depart before the airport opened the next morning [redacted]. At the time I had made the agreement with [redacted] about 0100 GMT. The crew [redacted] which was supposed to [redacted] the next day [redacted] was therefore alerted concerning the early departure of this aircraft from Tel Aviv. After the airport had opened the fuel company was available for [redacted] this aircraft [redacted]. At about this time I was informed by Copp that pallets had to be taken along. [redacted] Our own pallets were stored in the [redacted].

Due to the shortage of time we decided to let the aircraft fly to pick up the pallets instead of transshipping them via ground transport.

The pallets had been put on a forklift in the meantime and our mechanic was waiting for the aircraft to arrive. After the aircraft had arrived the pallets were loaded and the aircraft continued to fly to Tel Aviv after having refuelled a little because of the extra flying time.

In the meantime Capt. [redacted] together with [redacted] and an additional loadmaster [redacted] had arrived from Paris via train and were also on board when the aircraft departed finally at about [redacted]. It arrived in TLV [redacted] (23 Nov)

Due to this departure delay, Copp had requested from me to also put the second aircraft into this operation due to the utmost urgency of the mission. IT WAS Therefore the code word was transmitted [redacted] and after unloading [redacted] fuelled and departed to TLV [redacted]. The overflight rights had been granted in the meantime [redacted] landed at [redacted] on the 23 Nov in TLV [redacted].

PHASE III - Loading

Although Richard Copp, [redacted] had said to me that the loading was planned to take 5 hours but would be speeded up to 2 hours. [redacted] which had first arrived, had loaded one piece out of 19 pieces in 4 hours. Therefore the time all concerned parties were concerned that the [redacted] would take as long as possibly 24 hours. Therefore and [redacted] obviously traffic rights had not been granted in [redacted]. I was told that now the load had to be transported [redacted] by [redacted]. This confirmed my initial suspicions and it was obvious to me that several things had to be changed. (Copp [redacted] hours before that the traffic rights [redacted] had been issued and that [redacted] was informed at a time where my crew told me that in TLV everyone knew that they had already been turned down and that the real deal was TUK)

I was given the contact of Mr. A. Schwimmer in TLV by Mr. Copp and I talked to Schwimmer several times on the phone. He told him that we could not fly to THR with an American registered aircraft and that we therefore had to unload [redacted] again. He tried several times to convince me and even offered to paint a different registration on the aircraft and do some kind of formation flying into THR. Keeping in mind that all phone conversations to Israel might be listened to, I told him that we were a normal Airline and wanted to stay in business some time to come and that the only way to do it was the correct way for us to do it. Therefore [redacted] was unloaded again. In addition to that I explained to him that we needed traffic rights overfly [redacted] which we had applied for tentatively the moment the real dest. had come out, but only for [redacted]. And also we estimated that it would take time to get those rights. In addition I had conferred with [redacted] and was told that those traffic rights would be supported diplomatically and that we could count on them. I was in touch with [redacted] all the time and verified all the [redacted] them. In fact [redacted] was in Schwimmers home and we negotiated there that we needed 30 000 USD in order to go to the destination because we had not planned on it and therefore [redacted] had not enough cash with us. Also we did not trust them that everything was paid in THR. Schwimmer came up with 8000 USD and lengthy discussions because it was Sunday in the meantime [redacted] could not get more money.

PHASE IV - Flight [redacted] performed

According to the new agreement between Schwimmer and me [redacted] had been unloaded again and departed [redacted] on Sunday the 24 Nov. [redacted] did this flight and took all extra crew back except for the second loadmaster because it had become obvious to us that the TLV/THR route could be flown by one crew due to the lengthy loading and unloading process. In the meantime Schwimmer confirmed that [redacted] rights for overflight [redacted] had been confirmed [redacted] we could go with [redacted] as soon as it was loaded. However, the last moment they decided [redacted] our agreement that the aircraft should land [redacted] going on to THR. This required additional funds by us [redacted] had to be defuelled in TLV because it would have [redacted] for landing [redacted] and had to refuse this mission [redacted] money but even after long discussions Schwimmer had supplied another 2000 USD which gave [redacted] about [redacted] together with the cash he had in his ships funds.

Finally we gave the green light for [redacted] to take off and he left TLV with [redacted] on the 24 Nov. Since arrival [redacted] had taken him exactly 24 hours for loading and clearing all the problems.

On arrival [redacted] had new problems as the customer [redacted] especially the military in TLV had not only not given him any documents for the load but also had taken out every evidence which might have proved that the aircraft was in TLV. Customs [redacted] therefore did not want to release the aircraft until documents were produced and therefore the load also [redacted] inspected. Finally [redacted] wrote a cargo manifest [redacted], which was accepted although it had no stamp of the [redacted] point and finally he could talk his way out of this situation. Finally he therefore left at [redacted] direction as planned.

However, nothing was prepared for overflight [redacted] and he had again to talk his way through. Since they repeatedly insisted on a diplomatic clearance number, he made one up which was not accepted after long negotiations and then he filibustered one hour and 30 min his way [redacted], using different altitudes, positions and estimates that he told [redacted] with whom [redacted] obviously in radio contact.

However, radar realized his off-positions which gave additional reason for arguments and delays.

At the THR border [redacted] received without any problems but he did not have to say the code "I am coming for Mustafa" because Radar treated him very normally.

Finally he landed [redacted] on the 25 Nov (Monday)

PHASE V - Unloading

After landing in THR the aircraft had to remain on the runway for about 10 min until a "follow me" came and directed them to the parking area which was on the military side. The landing had been done on runway 29 r and the aircraft was directed to the south of this runway, onto the north/west part of the southern military apron.

[redacted] It is a special area which is surrounded by a high fence to the outside so that people outside the [redacted] cannot see the aircraft.

[redacted] was first contacted by an official [redacted] who directed the unloading later and who told him that they did not know about this flight and were surprised that it [redacted] 30 min after arrival a civilian with a [redacted] on his back arrived at the aircraft [redacted] asked [redacted] first: "What are the nationalities of the crew?" [redacted] "Where do you come from?" Then he talked to [redacted] telling him that he should not to tell anyone including the military where the aircraft really came from. He then mentioned that they were expecting 4 more flights from TLV. He would like to see the same crew then due to security. When [redacted] was asking for money or arrangements of fuel, parking etc. he told him not to worry and that everything would be taken care of.

2 Supervisor then started to direct the unloading. One military and one civilian with submachine guns. The crew was sent to the officers' Mess where they were again by the civilian to keep their mouth shut about this and not talk to anyone about their mission.

Capt. [redacted] then told him that our crew did not want to pass through passport and customs control.

As they expected again [redacted] and then [redacted] to leave again. Therefore the civilian took them in a car through back road off the airport and was not checked or stopped at the gate although even military had to produce their id - cards at that gate. The trip to the Hotel took one hour and finally they arrived at the former Sheraton Hotel. (Different name now, could not remember)

All rooms were occupied and therefore they had to take a suite together. After being at the hotel for about 2 hours to the surprise of the crew they got a phone call that the aircraft was unloaded and that they would be picked up in a few minutes. This was 6 hours after the aircraft had landed. [redacted] had the Capt. remained at the airport for some time to see that the unloading really took place and that it was done properly. Then the time in the officers' Mess and the trip to the Hotel had taken some time.)

However, after this alert it took 2 hours until the car finally arrived. In the meantime the civilian had apologized several times and the crew was offered coffee and cakes. After arrival at the airport through the "backdoor" [redacted] He Capt. required a permit number for overflight [redacted] in order to avoid the problem he had coming in. He refused to leave without. Therefore he and the civilian went to the Tower from where they tried to [redacted] obtain this number. After about 2 hours of trying [redacted] told them that the flight was ok but they could not get a number. Also [redacted] He told that the Air Defense of Iran was informed and that [redacted] leave now which he finally accepted.

When the crew was taken over to the aircraft [redacted] realized that the aircraft had been towed to the civilian side. In the meantime and that it was being fuelled by civilian [redacted] When [redacted] asked for full tanks (or [redacted] in because after all those problems which I was [redacted] He had called [redacted] via Telephone from the [redacted] I wanted the possibility to take the aircraft directly back [redacted] if necessary) the civilian who had received him was very disappointed because he realized that so much fuel was not needed to go back to TLV. However [redacted] told him that he needed the extra for security.

PHASE VI - Return flight

The aircraft took off at [redacted] on the 25 Nov, after 14:35 hours on the ground in THR.

The aircraft was directed by radar off the airways a little more to the north than normally, close to the Russian border.

Al [redacted] was given a special exit time which he had to meet in order to comply with the Iranian Air Defense.

Approaching Tabriz the aircraft was ordered down from FL 350 to FL 280, shortly before reaching [redacted] border again up to FL 350. (reason unknown).

No transponder was used in the Iranian airspace. After arrival [redacted] was told by radar that this time he was accepted but that in future for further flights, the ok of the civil air was not enough but that he had to get also the ok of the Ministry of Foreign Affairs and that otherwise the aircraft would be turned back.

Based on all this information, I ordered [redacted] radio to proceed directly [redacted] which we had planned initially.

The aircraft arrived [redacted]

GENERAL CONCLUSIONS

The mission was poorly planned and directed by our contract partners in a amateurish way.

1. [redacted] was in THR for about a week with [redacted] that the boundary was [redacted] to THR.
2. Copp was sitting in [redacted] although [redacted] was finally not flown to and he as our contract partner could not [redacted] what was going on in TLV. 2/43
3. In TLV the aircraft was on the military [redacted] loaded by high ranking military personnel who were not accustomed to this type of work. (The lowest ranking [redacted] Lieutenant) In addition they did not work much as [redacted] many coffee brakes. 26220
4. A certain Mr. A. Schwimmer which was [redacted] reduced to [redacted] Copp as the representative in TLV of Copp, was very pushy with the military, sometimes to a point where he was insulting, but he did not understand the special aviation problems and did not have things under control. I.E. He seriously proposed to the Captain [redacted] to change the registration of the

Mc Captain

C aircraft and to forge the respective papers " in 2 hours". This was turned down by [redacted] and also by myself when Schwimmer mentioned it on the phone due to the before mentioned reasons.

Also the cash money which Copp had promised was not available and Schwimmer apparently did not know about this requirement.

5. The routing changes, destination changes, involved traffic rights were done too late and the crew grew more and more insecure as they are not used to this type of makeshift Airline direction and control.

6. The mission was still performed successfully because of the initiative the crew had displayed and because they are used also under adverse circumstances to complete the mission before problems will be discussed. However, this is not the way it can be done repeatedly because the good will will be worn out.

PROPOSAL

As Aviation is a very complex business which requires a lot of experience from all concerned and also because the feed back information is so slow for the operation, the directly involved employees have to be involved in the decision making and planning as early as during the contracting stage.

Had it not been a special flight, I would have delayed for about 2 days after I had learned about the change of Destination in order to have enough time for correct planning and the acquisition of the necessary traffic rights.

The little radar controller does not know political decisions and will not even be informed by his superiors. We experienced that time and again. Therefore all these things have to be presented in a normal way so that the controller simply has a dispatch clearance number like he has for every other aircraft. This flight will look totally normal for him.

In other words: Those flights can be performed without any problem by only with the proper planning.

In order to have proper planning, the manager of the airline, who happens to be myself, should be heard before committing or making commitments to third parties and should be part of the planning process.

Finding Pursuant to Section 662 of the Foreign Assistance Act of 1961, As Amended, Concerning Operations Undertaken by the Central Intelligence Agency in Foreign Countries, Other Than Those Intended Solely for the Purpose of Intelligence Collection

I have been briefed on the efforts being made by private parties to obtain the release of Americans held hostage in the Middle East, and hereby find that the following operations in foreign countries (including all support necessary to such operations) are important to the national security of the United States. Because of the extreme sensitivity of these operations, in the exercise of the President's constitutional authorities, I direct the Director of Central Intelligence not to brief the Congress of the United States, as provided for in Section 501 of the National Security Act of 1947, as amended, until such time as I may direct otherwise.

SCOPE

Hostage Rescue - Middle East

DESCRIPTION

The provision of assistance by the Central Intelligence Agency to private parties in their attempt to obtain the release of Americans held hostage in the Middle East. Such assistance is to include the provision of transportation, communications, and other necessary support. As part of these efforts certain foreign materiel and munitions may be provided to the Government of Iran which is taking steps to facilitate the release of the American hostages.

All prior actions taken by U.S. Government officials in furtherance of this effort are hereby ratified.

1. NOW THAT I HAVE A MOMENT'S RESPITE FROM SENDING AND RECEIVING FLASH TRAFFIC, LET ME EXPLAIN SOME OF THE FACTORS INVOLVED IN THIS OPERATION WHICH MAY HELP YOU UNDERSTAND THE RATHER BIZARRE MANNER IN WHICH IT IS BEING CONDUCTED. WE ARE ONLY THE BROKERS IN THIS MATTER AND DO NOT HAVE DIRECT RAPID COMMUNICATIONS WITH THOSE RESPONSIBLE FOR ORIGINATING THE FLIGHTS OR THE FLIGHT CREWS. THIS IS BASICALLY A COMMERCIAL TRANSACTION AND INVOLVES AIR CHARTER COMPANIES OVER WHICH WE HAVE NO DIRECT CONTROL. MOREOVER, THEREFORE NO AGENCY PERSONNEL ON THE GROUND IN CONTACT WITH INDIVIDUALS ORIGINATING THE FLIGHTS; I.E., THE INDIVIDUALS IS NOT INVOLVED. NOR, AS I MENTIONED BEFORE, ARE THE INDIVIDUALS THE ORIGINATORS, THEREFORE, ARE NOT PROFESSIONALS IN OUR LINE OF WORK AND COPING WITH THEIR WAYS OF DOING BUSINESS AND RESHING THEM WITH OURS IS MUCH OF OUR PROBLEM. AFTER TODAY THERE WILL BE AN INDIVIDUAL ARRIVING IN TEL AVIV AT LEAST HAS A MODICUM OF UNDERSTANDING HOW THIS WORKING SHOULD WORK AND BY TOMORROW MORNING, THERE WILL BE AN INDIVIDUAL THERE.

2. ONE OF THE KEY ELEMENTS FOR THIS IS THE REQUIREMENT THAT THEY HAVE AT LEAST A GOOD APPROXIMATION WHEN THE AIRCRAFT IS GOING TO ENTER THEIR AIRSPACE EASTBOUND. THE FLIGHT PLAN FILED BY THE AIRCRAFT SHOULD PROVIDE THIS BUT THERE IS A CHANCE IT WILL NOT REACH [REDACTED] IN TIME. IF THIS WERE A NORMAL COMMERCIAL FLIGHT, IT PROBABLY WOULDN'T MAKE MUCH DIFFERENCE TO THEM BUT UNDER THE CIRCUMSTANCES IT DOES. THEREFORE, I THINK THAT ONE OF THE MOST USEFUL THINGS YOUR OFFICER AT [REDACTED] CAN DO IS TO PHONE THIS DATA TO YOU WHEN IT IS AVAILABLE AND YOU CAN PROVIDE IT TO [REDACTED] BY FLASH PRECEDENCE. THIS SHOULD RELIEVE SOME OF THE IRRITATION ON [REDACTED] END.

3. THERE WILL PROBABLY BE TWO CHARTER COMPANIES INVOLVED IN THIS AIRLIFT. BESIDES [REDACTED] WILL ALSO PROBABLY BE INVOLVED. THE LATTER MAY BE PROPRIETARY, BUT I AM NOT SURE. HOPE THE ABOVE HELPS YOU UNDERSTAND WHAT WE ARE WORKING WITH. DON'T HESITATE TO ASK ANY OTHER QUESTIONS THAT MAY ASSIST YOU. FINAL THOUGHT: THE MATERIAL BEING TRANSPORTED IS SPARES FOR THE OIL INDUSTRY AND I AM ATTEMPTING TO ENSURE THAT IT IS MANIFESTED AS SUCH RATHER THAN UNDER THE RUBRIC OF "MACHINERY" OR "MEDICAL STORES." BY DOING SO, WE SEEM TO KEEP GOVERNMENTS FEELING EASIER AND FUZZY.

1. APPRECIATE REF, WHICH IS JUST ABOUT WHAT I HAD CONCLUDED.
 T ALSO SUGGESTS THAT THE SIMPLER WE KEEP THING, THE BETTER:

3.

DESTINATION AIRCRAFT SHOULD FILE FOR ON LEAVING TEL AVIV, BUT OUR GUESS IS IT WILL BE THE TRUE ONE, RATHER THAN GET INTO A CHANGE OF ITINERARY ON ENTERING [redacted] AIR SPACE.
 (WERE IT A SINGLE FLIGHT, THE SWITCH WOULD ATTRACT LITTLE OR NO ATTENTION. FOUR AIRCRAFT, POSSIBLY BELONGING TO MORE THAN ONE COMPANY, ALL FILING CHANGES OF ITINERARY AND REDIRECTING IN MID-AIR TO A MILITARY AIRFIELD IS BOUND TO ATTRACT UNWELCOME NOTICES.
 FILING FOR THE TRUE DESTINATION ALSO SEEMS TO REDUCE THE PROSPECT FOR PILOT ERROR, GIVEN THE "UNWITTING" AND APPARENTLY AMATEUR ASPECTS OF ALL THIS.)

4. ADVISE BY FLASH RETURN IF ABOVE CHANGE DOES NOT RPT
 MEET WITH YOUR APPROVAL. OTHERWISE, WILL ADVISE YOU FURTHER

SUBJECT: -DCM-MEETING WITH FOREIGN MINISTRY
FROM DCM

1. DCM [REDACTED] CALLED TO FOREIGN MINISTRY NOVEMBER 25 AND GIVEN TWO NOTES [REDACTED] TRANSLATIONS PROVIDED IN PARAS 8 AND 9. NOTE ACTION REQUESTED PARA 7.

2. [REDACTED] SAID ESSENTIAL POINT WAS THAT THE PROPOSED OPERATION WAS SO DIRECTLY IN CONFLICT WITH U.S. POLICY AND [REDACTED] POLICY THAT THE GOVERNMENT NEEDED THE WRITTEN ASSURANCES THAT THE OPERATION WAS FOR HUMANITARIAN REASONS AND WAS DESIGNED TO GAIN THE RELEASE OF AMERICAN CITIZENS. [REDACTED] SAID HE WANTED TO EMPHASIZE THAT WITH THESE ASSURANCES [REDACTED] HAD BEEN PREPARED TO APPROVE THE OPERATION. IT REMAINED PREPARED TO DO [REDACTED]

3. THE DCM SAID THAT WHILE THE DESIRE [REDACTED] FOR WRITTEN ASSURANCES WAS UNDERSTANDABLE, [REDACTED] SHOULD UNDERSTAND THAT THE ACTIONS OF [REDACTED] ON NOVEMBER 22 AND 23 GAVE THE IMPRESSION TO SOME THAT [REDACTED] WAS STOPPING, ESPECIALLY SINCE MR. MCFARLANE HAD THE DISTINCT IMPRESSION THAT THE FOREIGN MINISTER HAD GIVEN HIM A GREEN LIGHT ON THE NIGHT OF THE 22ND. THE SUBSEQUENT INSISTENCE ON A NOTE HAD BEEN DISQUIETING. THE DEMAND FOR A SECOND NOTE CONVINCED THOSE MANAGING THE OPERATION THAT [REDACTED] DUCTED FOR THE HUMANITARIAN PURPOSE OF ASSISTING AMERICAN CITIZENS IN TROUBLE. [REDACTED] SAID HE COULD NOT MAKE A JUDGEMENT. HOWEVER, THE FOREIGN MINISTER WAS IN BRUSSELS.

5. DCM THEN NOTED THAT AMBASSADOR [REDACTED] WAS SCHEDULED TO CALL ON THE PRIME MINISTER AFTERNOON OF NOVEMBER 26. [REDACTED] SAID THAT IF U.S. STILL INTERESTED, THE MEETING WITH THE PRIME MINISTER WOULD PROVIDE EXCELLENT OPPORTUNITY TO GET PM'S AGREEMENT.

6. AMBASSADOR'S CALL IS SET FOR 4:30PM LOCAL TIME. IF NS [REDACTED] NOT FOUND ALTERNATIVE MEANS AND IF THERE IS STILL INTEREST IN [REDACTED] COOPERATION, WE BELIEVE MEETING OFFERS EXCELLENT OPPORTUNITY TO GET IT.

7. PLEASE ADVISE US AT OPENING OF BUSINESS NOV 26 IF THERE IS AN INTEREST IN REVIVING [REDACTED] COOPERATION AND IF SO ON WHAT [REDACTED]

8. NOTE 4952: "THE MINISTRY OF FOREIGN AFFAIRS PRESENTED COMPLIMENTS TO THE EMBASSY OF THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA AND IN REFERENCE TO THE EMBASSY'S NOTES [REDACTED] OF NOVEMBER [REDACTED] AND TO OTHER COMMUNICATIONS IN OTHER CHANNELS ON THE SAME SUBJECT, CANNOT HELP BUT BE AMAZED BY THE MANNER IN WHICH THE MATTER WAS CONDUCTED BY NORTH AMERICAN AUTHORITIES."

DCM FROM CHIEF/EUR

1. AS I EXPLAINED IN REF-B, REF A ARRIVED TOO LATE FOR ME TO OBTAIN AN ANSWER FOR THE AMBASSADOR'S MEETING WITH THE PRIME MINISTER. FURTHER, I WAS UNABLE TO ADVISE YOU OF THIS BECAUSE OF CERTAIN GLITCHES ON THIS END THAT NEED TO BE REMEDIED.

2. THE FOLLOWING WERE THE INSTRUCTIONS WHICH I RECEIVED FROM THE NSC THAT I WAS UNABLE TO TRANSMIT TO YOU. THEY ARE STILL REPEAT STILL VALID FOR USE BY THE AMBASSADOR.

THE NSC ASKS THAT THE AMBASSADOR NOT RAISE THE ISSUE WITH PRIME MINISTER. HOWEVER, IF THE AMBASSADOR RAISES IT HIMSELF AND INDICATES THAT HE IS PREPARED TO COOPERATE, THE AMBASSADOR SHOULD SAY THAT HE WELCOMES THE OFFER BUT CANNOT ACCEPT IF IT INVOLVES A FURTHER NOTE. NO MATTER WHAT THE OUTCOME OF THE DISCUSSIONS, THE AMBASSADOR SHOULD END BY SAYING THAT HE WILL REPORT THE AMBASSADOR'S POSITION TO WASHINGTON AND REQUEST INSTRUCTIONS."

3. PLEASE ASK THE AMBASSADOR TO PROVIDE ALL OF HIS REPORTING IN THIS CHANNEL AND WE WILL PASS EXPEDITIOUSLY TO THE NSC WHO IN TURN WILL INFORM APPROPRIATE INDIVIDUALS IN THE DEPARTMENT OF STATE.

4. LET ME PERSONALLY THANK YOU FOR ALL OF YOUR EFFORTS OF THE LAST SEVERAL DAYS. I KNOW IT HAS NOT BEEN EASY AND I ASSURE YOU THAT APPROPRIATE AUTHORITIES HERE ARE WELL AWARE OF WHAT YOU HAVE TRIED TO DO AND APPRECIATE IT.

EYES ONLY--

The President
The White House
Washington, D.C. 20500

Dear Mr. President:

Partially Declassified / Released on 6/14/1987
under provisions of E.O. 12356
by B. Reger, National Security Council

I had hoped to see you today and talk to you about three subjects. [REDACTED] efforts going on to get our hostages, [REDACTED] I need to get to New York for Christmas and I thought I could give you the necessary information on paper. If you wish, you can reach me on a secure telephone either on Long Island through the 26th or Palm Beach after that.

[REDACTED]

I send you three other attachments:

(1) [REDACTED]

(2) A quick description [REDACTED] of effort to get our hostages released is attached for your information.

(3) [REDACTED]

Respectfully yours,

5. The Iranian Gorbaniyar, who the NSC staff believes arranged to release Weir, turned up in Washington over the week end. Ollie North put him in touch with us. He has 3 or 4 scenarios he would like to play out.

He gave us information about [REDACTED]

It could be a deception to impress us. It is necessary to be careful in talking with Gorbaniyar. Still, when our man talked to him on Saturday and asked him if he would take another polygraph he said he would. We think this is worth doing for what we might learn. We want to prepare thoroughly for polygraphing him and because he is going to Switzerland for Christmas, it is understood that he will return here in a week or so for further discussions and for a polygraph.

MEMORANDUM FOR JOHN M. POINDEXTER

FROM: OLIVER L. NORTH

SUBJECT: Covert Action Finding on Iran

Attached at Tab I is a memorandum from you to the President forwarding a Covert Action Finding (Tab A). This Finding is based on our discussions with Nir and my subsequent meeting with CIA General Counsel Stanley Sporkin.

At Sporkin's request, I talked to Bill Casey on secure re the Finding and the overall approach. He indicated that he thought the Finding was good and that this is probably the only approach that will work. He shares our goal of achieving a more moderate government in Iran through this process.

RECOMMENDATION:

That you sign the memorandum to the President at Tab I.

MEMORANDUM FOR THE PRESIDENT

FROM: JOHN M. POINDEXTER

SUBJECT: Covert Action Finding Regarding Iran

This week, Prime Minister Peres of Israel secretly dispatched his special advisor on terrorism with instructions to propose a plan by which the U.S. and Israel can act in concert to bring about a more moderate government in Iran. The Israelis are obviously very concerned that the course of the Iran-Iraq war and the potential for further radicalization in Iran pose a significant threat to the security of Israel.

The Israeli plan is premised on the assumption that moderate elements in Iran can come to power if these factions demonstrate their credibility in defending Iran against Iraq and in deterring Soviet intervention. To achieve the strategic goal of a more moderate Iranian government, the Israelis are prepared to unilaterally commence selling military materiel to Western-oriented Iranian factions. It is their belief that by so doing they can achieve a heretofore unobtainable penetration of the Iranian governing hierarchy. The Israelis are convinced that the Iranians are so desperate for military materiel, expertise and intelligence that the provision of these resources will result in favorable long-term changes in personnel and attitudes within the Iranian government. Further, once the exchange relationship has commenced, a dependency would be established on those who are providing the requisite resources, thus allowing the provider(s) to coercively influence near-term events.

As described by the Prime Minister's emissary, the only requirement the Israelis have is an assurance that they will be allowed to purchase U.S. replenishments for the stocks that they sell to Iran. Since the Israeli sales are technically a violation of our Arms Export Control Act embargo for Iran, a Presidential Covert Action Finding is required in order for us to allow the Israeli sales to proceed and for our subsequent replenishment sales.

The Covert Action Finding attached at Tab A provides the latitude for the transactions indicated above to proceed. If this Finding is signed, we would not interfere when the Israelis unilaterally commence sales and deliveries of TOW missiles during January, 1986. We would also be able to legally sell basic TOWs to Israel when they submit purchase orders for replenishing their own stocks. The Iranians have indicated an immediate requirement for 4,000 basic TOW weapons for use in the launchers they already hold. We would be expected to replace the Israeli stocks in less than 30 days. 4,000 missiles represent 1/3 of all available TOWs in Israel.

The Israelis and the Iranians with whom they are in contact agree that the continued holding of the five American hostages in Beirut will be immediately solved through commencement of this action. Prime Minister Peres had his emissary pointedly note that they well understand our position on making concessions to terrorists. They also point out, however, that terrorist groups, movements, and organizations are significantly easier to influence through governments than they are by direct approach. In that we have been unable exercise any suasion over Hizballah during the course of nearly two years of kidnappings, this approach through the government of Iran may well be our only way to achieve the release of the Americans held in Beirut. It must again be noted that since this dialogue with the Iranians began in September, Reverend Weir has been released and there have been no Shia terrorist attacks against American or Israeli persons, property, or interests.

The Israelis have asked for our urgent response to this proposal so that they can plan accordingly. They note that the current crisis in the Middle East provides a rationale for a significant purchase of TOWs and expedited delivery on our part. In order to provide an answer to Prime Minister Peres, the Finding at Tab A should be discussed privately with Secretaries Shultz, Weinberger, Director Casey and Attorney General Meese. If, based on their input, you decide to proceed, the Finding should be signed and held.

Recommendation:OKNo

That you agree to meet with Secretaries Shultz and Weinberger, Director Casey and Attorney General Meese on this matter as soon as possible.

BACKGROUND:

██████████ is a 40-year-old male citizen of ████ who first became of interest to ████ during March 1984 by providing ████ with information regarding the kidnapping of ████ citizen. However, a March 1984 ████ administered to ████ on this topic showed deception. ████ again became of interest when he claimed to have information of a plot to assassinate ████ political figures during the Fall of 1984. However, a ████ 1984 ████ administered to ████ on this topic showed deception.

PURPOSE:

██████████ was requested by NE-Division to determine ████'s truthfulness regarding his information of or involvement with: LBN C, IDLN E terrorists, IDENED, and negotiations to release ████ hostages. ████ declared that ████ was not to be advised of the ████ results, confronted, or interrogated.

PROCEDURE:

During 11 January 1985 between the hours of 1500 and 2000, ████ was administered a ████ by examiner ████ while at a local hotel in Washington, D.C. ████ remained in the hotel room test site during the entire test. The English language was used.

RESULTS:

Deception indicated to thirteen of the fifteen relevant questions. Inconclusive to the remaining two.

DETAILS:

██████████ accompanied by ████ arrived on time and appeared to be in good physical health. He said he was not taking any medication. ████ explained to ████ that testing would be administered in four phases.

Phase I questions dealt with [redacted]'s information of or involvement with IDEN C. Phase I relevant questions and [redacted]'s answers appear below:

U.S.

A. [redacted] has IDEN C personally told you he is willing to cooperate with [redacted] intelligence? ANSWER: Yes.

B. Are you trying to deceive us about IDEN C's actual degree of influence with IDEN E? ANSWER: No.

Testing showed deception to question B. Question A is inconclusive due to inconsistent reactions.

Phase II questions covered [redacted]'s information of or involvement with IDEN B terrorists. During pretest discussions of question F (aware of threats against [redacted]), [redacted] provided very basic and "new" information about terrorist's current plans targeted against [redacted] (subsequent [redacted] testing on this "new" information showed deception to all relevant questions; please see "Phase V"). Also during the pretest discussion, [redacted] said that in a conversation with IDEN F that IDEN F bragged that "my group" (IDEN C) assassinated IDEN L in [redacted] and "we are very happy." Unable to locate their real target (IDEN H), the hit team chose IDEN L. Phase II relevant questions and [redacted]'s answers appear below:

- C. Are you trying to deceive us in any way about the source of the information regarding the three-man team (The IDEN G three-man hit team)? ANSWER: No.
- D. Regarding European-based IDEN B terrorist, have you deliberately fabricated any of the information you have provided? ANSWER: No.
- E. Did IDEN F tell you the Hamburg Team (The IDEN G three-man hit team) killed IDEN L? ANSWER: Yes.
- F. Other than what you have told us, <sup>U.S.</sup> are you aware of ongoing plans targeting [redacted] persons or interests for acts of terrorism you are not telling us about? ANSWER: No.

Testing showed deception to questions C, D, E, and F.

Phase III questions focused on [redacted]'s information of or involvement with IDEN D. Phase III relevant questions and [redacted]'s answers appear below:

- G. Are you trying to deceive us about your claimed contact with IDEN D? ANSWER: No.

H. Are you trying to deceive us when claiming IDEN B and senior officials have said to have agreed to cooperate with [REDACTED] ANSWER: No.

Testing showed deception to question H. Testing was inconclusive to question G due to inconsistent reactions.

Phase IV questions dealt with [REDACTED]'s information of or involvement with the negotiations to release [REDACTED] hostages. Phase IV relevant questions and [REDACTED]'s answers appear below:

1. Did you have prior knowledge that the [REDACTED] hostages would not be released at the conclusion of the negotiations? ANSWER: No.
- J. Did you and IDEN i cooperate together to deceive [REDACTED] in the hostage deal? ANSWER: No.
- K. Are you under control of any official organization of the IDEN B government? ANSWER: No.
- L. Did you independently plan to deceive [REDACTED] during the hostage negotiations? ANSWER: No.

Testing showed deception to questions I, J, K, and L.

Having completed the four phases of testing, and realizing that just about everything [REDACTED] declared has been fabricated, [REDACTED] returned to the "net" information about terrorist's current plans targeted against [REDACTED]. While discussing this topic, [REDACTED] was occasionally evasive and often reluctant to answer questions.

Not only was [redacted] occasionally evasive and often reluctant to answer questions, he contradicted himself. During the beginning discussion, [redacted] said that [redacted] and [redacted] terrorist were present at this meeting, but 20 minutes later when recapitulating this story, [redacted] failed to mention the presence of [redacted] terrorist.

Phase V questions focused on [redacted]'s claim to provide [redacted]

The following relevant questions and [redacted]'s answers appear below:

- M. Last Sunday and Monday did you meet with Palestinians to talk about their desires to target [redacted] interest in IDEN J? ANSWER: Yes.
- N. Last Sunday and Monday did you agree with these Palestinians to deliver, in part, [redacted] ANSWER: Yes.
- O. Are you lying to me about any aspect of the meeting with terrorists? ANSWER: No.

Testing showed deception to questions M, N, and C.

At the completion of Phase V testing, the [redacted] exam was amicably terminated.

MEMORANDUM FOR: Carroll L. Hauver Inspector General

FROM: Charles E. Allen
National Intelligence Officer for Counterterrorism
Chief, Intelligence/Counterterrorism Center

SUBJECT: Addendum to Statement of NSC Initiative on Iran

1. At the suggestion of the Deputy Inspector General, I am providing additional details on certain aspects of my involvement in the Iranian initiative. These additional details are being offered as a result of my recalling in greater detail certain aspects of the initiative and of having my memory refreshed through review of papers and discussions with other Agency officials involved in the initiative.

2. I now recall that on 13 and 26 January 1986 Manucher Ghorbanifar, the Iranian intermediary involved in the Iranian initiative, made comments to the effect that he could obtain money for the Contras if the Agency supported him in thwarting terrorist attacks. Even though a review of my notes confirms that he made statements to this effect, I did not include those comments in the memoranda I prepared because they seemed both far fetched and trivial.

From his perspective, he said [redacted] would be happy to receive such help and would reward him handsomely as well as be willing to supply funds to "Ollie's boys in Central America". Because my objective was to collect terrorist-related information that Ghorbanifar had on Iran, Syria, and Libya, the statements that funds could be collected for the Contras seemed so preposterous that I did not give them any consideration whatsoever. I did record in-depth all information that he was willing to provide on terrorists, terrorist groups, or terrorist plots.

Again, my focus in discussions with Ghorbanifar were directed at terrorist activity. Funding for the Contras in Central American was not a consideration, even remotely. I only recalled the comments made by Ghorbanifar after talking with the Inspector General's staff in late November.

3. I also wish to clarify for the record a question put to me during my interview with you and other members of your staff in November. At that time, and in a subsequent memorandum prepared by a member of your staff, it was noted that Richard Kerr, Deputy Director of Intelligence, initially thought that he recalled I had told him as early as May 1986 that I believed funds were being diverted from the Iranian initiative to the Contras in Central America. I discussed the Iran initiative with Mr. Kerr several times during the summer and fall of 1986, essentially in the context of the problems of operational security of the initiative. I want to state emphatically, however, that the earliest I could have made comments relating to possible diversion of funds to the Contras to Mr. Kerr was in late August 1986.

4. It is my understanding now from discussions with Mr. Kerr that he believes that our conversation on the initiative and my alluding to possible diversion of funds to the Contras likely occurred in the August timeframe, although he does not recall a specific date. I want to reemphasize that I had not reached any judgments in the May timeframe that funds were being diverted to anti-Sandinista forces in Central America. It was only in late August 1986 that I began to suspect that funds were going to Central America.

There is discussion about an American operation involving #12 on U.S., and further discussion of Ayatollah Khomeini.

Partially Declassified/Released on 3 Feb 88
 under provisions of E.O. 12356
 by K. Johnson, National Security Council

North says "Charlie is not in this operation and I don't want Charlie here... we've got boxes, and I don't want to open all the other boxes here. I ref. to other clandestines ops..."

North: "Cause Charlie is not in this operation and I don't need Charlie, you know, I'm sitting right here in this room... and we've got boxes, and I don't want to open all the other boxes here..."

 Roger Clinton, well done--if the world only knew how many times you have kept a semblance of integrity and gumption to my policy, they would make you Secretary of State. But they can't know and would complicate if they did--such in the state of democracy in the late 20th century. But the situation was terribly promising. In your time I do not hold ourselves at high regard and so as particularly glad to have of apparent authority.

I have just gotten a note from John asking whether or not I could go some time next week and that the President is on board. I agreed. So better done and get some rest; let this word come to you in Chicago, but pack your bags to be ready to go in the next week or so. Incidentally, I have had periodic requests from Mike to assist in getting Eleanor Roosevelt to come to Washington refused. Surely if they have official news files they have got to have from the Polak embassy or somewhere else. I do not intend to tell Mike any of this one info. Recommended against your doing so.

Just returned last night from city. The meeting seemed to emphasize the need for direct cooperation with the military rather than the indirect approach which we discussed in the meeting. Because CIL did not provide a translator for the meeting, we used Albert Hahn, an AMCI who ran the European operation for our Vietnamese resistance support activity. Accepted me that I had been someone along who did provide an "objective" account.

Throughout the meeting, Garbnerfelt intentionally distanced much of the translation and did not correct errors. He seemed to be concerned that we would be misled by his translation. one. It concerns to Mike as shared with Mike and I am not be a financial relationship. Corbs, started and perhaps Schmitt. If true, that is not good. That Corbs tells Mike everything and that is an additional reason to get Corbs out of the Toms transaction since he

SUBJECT: PRESENT STATUS IN SAGA REGARDING THE MOVEMENT OF TOW MISSILES

PLEASE PASS TO DCI FROM DDCI EYES ONLY AT START OF HIS DAY AND PLEASE CONFIRM DELIVERY.

1. A NEW DIMENSION HAS BEEN ADDED TO THIS PROGRAM AS A RESULT MEETING HELD IN LONDON BETWEEN NORTH AND GHORBANIFAR. WE HAVE BEEN ASKED TO PROVIDE A MAP DEPICTING THE ORDER OF BATTLE ON THE IRAN/IRAQ BORDER SHOWING UNITS, TROOPS, TANKS, ELECTRONIC INSTALLATIONS, AND WHAT HAVE YOU. THE GAME PLAN IS FOR A SEGMENT OF THE MAP DEPICTING A PART OF THE FRONT TO BE PASSED TO SHOW OUR BONA FIDES AND THAT WILL START IN TRAIN A SERIES OF EVENTS. WHEN THE MOVEMENT OF THE MISSILES TAKES PLACE. THE REMAINDER OF THE MAP WILL BE PASSED AND THAT WILL PROMPT ALL THE RECIPROCAL ACTION ON THE PART OF THE IRANIS. TIMING IS FOR THE FIRST SEGMENT OF THE MAP TO BE DELIVERED LEAVING HERE TOMORROW, SATURDAY, 25 JANUARY. THEN ON THE 9TH OF FEBRUARY, A THOUSAND TOWS WITH THE REMAINDER OF THE MAP AS THE FIRST TRANCHE OF A 4,000 COMMITMENT.

2. WE ARE TO GET THE TOWS FROM THE US ARMY AND ARRANGE TRANSPORT OVERSEAS.

3. EVERYONE HERE AT HEADQUARTERS ADVISES AGAINST THIS OPERATION NOT ONLY BECAUSE WE FEEL THE PRINCIPAL INVOLVED IS A LIAR AND HAS A RECORD OF DECEIT, BUT, SECONDLY, WE WOULD BE AIDING AND ABETTING THE WRONG PEOPLE. I MET WITH POINDEXTER THIS AFTERNOON TO APPEAL HIS DIRECTION THAT WE PROVIDE THIS INTELLIGENCE, POINTING OUT NOT ONLY THE FRAGILITY IN THE ABILITY OF THE PRINCIPAL TO DELIVER, BUT ALSO THE FACT THAT WE WERE TILTING IN A DIRECTION WHICH COULD CAUSE THE IRANIS TO HAVE A SUCCESSFUL OFFENSE AGAINST THE IRAQIS WITH CATAclysmic RESULTS. I NOTED THAT PROVIDING DEFENSIVE MISSILES WAS ONE THING BUT WHEN WE PROVIDE INTELLIGENCE ON THE ORDER OF BATTLE, WE ARE GIVING THE IRANIS THE WHEREWITHAL

1. Sorry to miss you. Ghorbanifar insisted on another meeting after which the Keesh Island matter will be set. We understand ~~_____~~ that he is again promising 100 Phoenix missiles, which of course we will not honor. North is prepared to stonewall in Paris. There will be no more "slices of salami" handed out. However, our other friend, NEER, will also be present. NOTE FROM: GILROY WATTS

Subject: News It Going
 For comment from JC old friend Gorbachev, met w/ him in Paris on Saturday. He started w/ a long speech re how we were trying to cut him out, how important he is to the process and how he cd deliver on the hostages if only we cd respect the pot w/ more little tid-bits -- the more often, etc. After his speech I allowed as how he was not getting the message, but that I cd tolerate it.

-- The hostages are a serious impediment to serious govt-to-govt discussions and this must be resolved before we can discuss any further transactions. -- we really need to go to Moscow or anywhere else to discuss issues of mutual concern as long as the hostages are going to be released during or before this meeting. -- The real problem facing Iran -- that of Soviet intervention was becoming a reality and the Iranians are in no position to deal w/ this problem. We can help -- and are willing to become a free, independent Iran is in our best interests. Release the hostages issues is resolved quickly and finally, w/o Iranian cooperation on opening the Soviets is out of the question.

Such note said in this regard, but you have the message. Bob Gates has summarized a nice bit of intel on the Soviet threat -- sent of which is still whether this "the Iranians are making" approach will have any effect, but it does have the merit of being mostly the truth -- and something about which their military people expressed great concern during the Frankfurt meeting the week before. to shall see.

NOTE FROM: ROBERT MCFARLANE

Subject: How's It Going?

Roger Ollie. I guess I'm a little puzzled about the Iranian wiring diagram. From whom are we getting the word concerning a meeting in the Gulf? Is Gorba involved in that dialogue or is that info coming through the Israelis? It strikes me that it is probably OK to keep Gorba in the dark--to the extent that is possible to do so if there is another channel. Gorba is basically a self-serving mischief maker. Of course the trouble is that as far as we know, so is the entire lot of those we are dealing with. The Soviet threat is the strategic menace and I would guess that they would like to avoid having Russians in Iran. But it is going to take some time to get a feel for just who the players are on the contemporary scene in Teheran. So the sooner we get started the better.

I would be glad to meet to talk about the Marine Corps. I will be having lunch with Paul Nitze this Friday. How about right after that at about 2:00pm in your office?

Frank y, I would expect the heat from the Hill to become immense on you by summer. Consequently it strikes me as wise that you leave the White House. At the same time, there will be no one to do all (or even a small part of what) you have done. And if it isn't done, virtually all of the investment of the past five years will go down the drain.

How's this for a self-serving scenario: 1. North leaves the White House in May and takes 30 days leave. 2. July 1st North is assigned as a fellow at the CSIS and (lo and behold) is assigned to McFarlane's office 3. McFarlane/North continue to work the Iran account as well as to begin to build other clandestine capabilities so much in demand here and there. Just a knee jerk musing.

Finally, as a new subject of any new idea like to have a new-line 1/ you in the next few days, it will be possible. I have been advised by HRC that they (little red address) can go to 20 apply this answer. This is a situation that we should be aware of, especially and risk. I, quite frankly don't know what to do about the situation, but will have to take some kind of action in the next few weeks. We very much appreciate if you could counsel on the writing/liberation of such an engagement and advice on how to proceed. We are convinced and now thank you both and Jennifer for the beautiful letters.

MEMORANDUM FOR THE RECORD

SUBJECT: Conversation with Subject

1. Subject called on 20 March 1986 from Nice to inform me that he had just returned from a meeting with Adam. He had briefed Adam on his trip to Tehran where he had met with some senior Iranian Government officials on "the principal matter." He stated that he had talked to the Prime Minister, Speaker of the National Assembly Rafsanjani, [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] These discussions had been very stressful but some useful developments had occurred. A report was being sent by express mail to Mr. Goode in Washington. Enclosed in this report were some technical requirements from the Iranian military. He was hopeful that a meeting of the principals could be conducted in the near future.

2. [REDACTED]

3. According to Subject some significant changes should be occurring within the Iranian Government in the next ten days. These changes are very interesting and have been carefully pre-planned. In Subject's view, this would create a somewhat different environment for the initiative of Mr. Goode but the problem was workable. He noted that Ayatollah Khomeini himself remained very ill.

4. Subject stated that he had provided several photographs to Adam including one of the next Prime Minister. He also requested that I return to him the originals of all material he had provided me at meetings in January. He asked that they be sent to him via an associate who would be coming to Europe around 10 April. I assured him that I would provide him with the originals.

5. Adam, in a conversation with me later on 20 March, confirmed that he had met with Subject and that the proposals made by Subject were "somewhat" promising. However, the sequence of events that were to occur during the next meeting with the principals was not acceptable. This could be worked successfully, however. Adam stated that Subject needed the help and support of all parties at this critical time, pointing out that Subject remains the central thread in this entire initiative. He noted that Subject in this latest meeting lacked his usual optimism and zeal. He said he found Subject almost totally exhausted. Adam also claimed that Subject urgently needs financial assistance because of arrangements that he has made to cover the indebtedness of others. He asserted that he was making arrangements to assist Subject at least temporarily.

6. Adam stated that Subject had clearly lost some credibility with "key" associates because of his inability to deliver on the issue of terrorism. He asserted that Subject needs assistance in working on terrorism matters and was at a loss why more support was not forthcoming on the part of the United States. He thought there was "a tendency" on the part of the US to state that Subject could not deliver. We then ensured that this was a "self-fulfilling" prophecy by not providing him with assistance. He urged that the US Government be more responsive in support of Subject, again noting that he remains the best hope for a successful US initiative.

7. Comment: I tend to agree with Adam that we should work with Subject concurrently both on "the main problem" as well as on assisting him in terrorism, regardless of whether we find the information at this stage credible. He remains the single link to significant Iranian leaders who may be able to accomplish a major Administration objective.

1. On Sunday, 30 March 1986, Subject endeavored to contact me but I was away from home when the call came. Later in the afternoon, Adam called to state that he wished to relay to me a message from Subject. Adam stated that Subject would arrive here Thursday afternoon, that he would remain here during the day Friday, but would leave again for Europe either Friday evening or Saturday morning.

2. Adam stated that Subject wanted reassurance that the US side would not attempt to bypass him in dealing with his fellow countrymen. He stated that Subject would seek specific assurances during this visit.

3. Adam then stated that he felt it was unwise to try to eliminate Subject from the negotiations because of the hold that Subject has over the [REDACTED]. The [REDACTED] according to Adam, reports all such direct contacts to Subject. Adam stated that he recognized Subject was not always truthful but that, with patience, the principal matter could be resolved by keeping Subject involved as originally envisioned. Adam stated that he intended to call Mr. Coole and would be explaining to him his views on the matter. In response to Adam's comments, I stated that my responsibility was to collect the facts, not to get involved in detailed strategy planning.

REVIEWED FOR RELEASE

Date 14 JAN 1987

Ch 12 #9

1. One of key issues that came up which Gorba alleges made an understanding difficult was his missing reports to us. He said that he had turned over to adam a two page farsi report which listed all the Iranian demands and what they were prepared to do. He wrote the first report because he wanted to be sure that he got everything right. He said that he also wrote a five page report in english which was more detailed. These were supposed to have been sent via dhl along with the parts list. Goode told gorba that all he got was the parts list. gorba said that he wrote the reports on the plane from Téhéran. He gave the reports to adam in london who said that he would send them to us. There seems to be only two conclusions either the reports don't exist. In which case maybe adam and gorba are playing games with us, or the reports exist and after reading them, adam decided that the demands were too great and we would not agree to them, therefore he shortstopped the reports.

2. One of Gorba's most interesting offers was to offer us [redacted] passports for the trip. Each one would cost [redacted] the passports would be genuine and the price includes a genuine drivers license and a bank account.

3. There was the problem of the venue. Gorba said that they can not [redacted] receive us in kish. The big problem is that the desalinization plant has broken down, the buildings have not been used since the revolution. Also, no planes have landed on the strip in two years. He said that a meeting on kish would place great logistical problems on them in tehran. NATO; in the last phone conversation between [redacted] and [redacted] spoke of the meeting still being held in kish. We need to consider possibility of tehran, but wanted them to re-examine kish and bandar -abbas. We said that plane must be with us for cons. gorba said that would be no problem. We also said that we would probably want to arrive in bandar abbas. For some reason, gorba insists that adam told him that we would be using [redacted] passports. We told him that this gave us some heartburn, but not to worry. We would take care of the documentation if even if it meant being [redacted]. gorba said that he will need some details on the plane, tail number registration etc. We told him it would be 707 and not trace [redacted] to them to us. We will devise way of getting him the tail number.

4. We discussed the schedule in some detail. We proposed arriving about 7-8 days after the money is deposited. This would give us time to have the planned load of spares positioned in europe. We then haggled for hours about what was included and what would be negotiated in tehran. We stuck to our position that once the release takes place we would order plane to launch and it should arrive in bandar abbas with 4 hours. It would then turn around and bring in the rest of the spares. We are tentatively committed to deliver the 3,000 volswagens about 10 days later. gorba pressed for new additions, the new batteries we said were no longer in inventory. The radars we would discuss in tehran as they would have to be shipped by ship anyway. gorba kept insisting that we bring some of spares with us and we kept insisting that we wouldn't although a small sample is an option.

5. They agenda for the discussion with the other side in tehran will include Syria, [redacted] and the soviet union. We will give him a short brief on the USSR on 4 april which he will convey to [redacted] and company in discussing the whole transaction we insisted that he had to play the key role in making it all work. after long haggling, he agreed to present the schedule to us as outlined by us. we have got take a present, in addition to korans, it might be a good idea to tack all the spare parts for one unit with us. and present this as a present. we told gorba to check with them about the availability of functioning test and calibration equipment and the technical skill to use the equipment. our observation is that they have not successfully fired a hawk for some time and in fact have had numerous misfires.

UNCLASSIFIED

6. possibly the best indication that we might be getting somewhere is that towards the end, gorba began discussing his cut. goode told him that he could add on whatever he thinks right for his cut to the final price. he said that he had spent $20,000 dollars already to grease the skids etc.

it would appear that he now feels that the deal is entering its final stages.

7. gorba stated that there is considerable pressure on the iranians to do something because the time frame within which they can deliver on friends. they feel that fighting is going to break out between the hizbullah and the syrian army at any time. gorba insists that Iranian syrian relations are very bad at the moment and will definitely get worse. he claims that iran has stopped delivering oil to syria. believe he said that deliveries stopped about 34 days ago.

8. gorba claims that the iranian side is devoting considerable time to this. the whole thing is being masterminded by rafsenjani behind the scenes. if the transaction goes, the plan is to have khomeni issue a fatwa against the taking of hostages. they also have a large number of people they wish us to brief. we must get him to discuss more of his military contacts during his last trip. he warned us about the prime minister who may be our primary senior contact. he said that he is a line man he represents do not like or trust us and we must be aware of that at all times. he thought there was a chance that rafsenjani would at some point put in an appearance, as he will be following everything closely on his own part will want us to meet with reps from the conservative line, particularly farisi.

9. it is still apparent that they have not given much thought to how a continuing relationship will be maintained. gorba tried to answer this but he was not able to cover up the basic truth that they hadn't gone that far yet.

UNCLASSIFIED*SENSITIVERELEASE OF AMERICAN HOSTAGES IN BEIRUT

Background. In June 1985, private American and Israeli citizens commenced an operation to effect the release of the American hostages in Beirut in exchange for providing certain factions in Iran with U.S.-origin Israeli military materiel. By September, U.S. and Israeli Government officials became involved in this endeavor in order to ensure that the USG would:

- not object to the Israeli transfer of embargoed materiel to Iran;
- sell replacement items to Israel as replenishment for like items sold to Iran by Israel.

On September 14, the Israeli Government, with the endorsement of the USG, transferred 508 basic TOW missiles to Iran. Forty-eight hours later, Reverend Benjamin Weir was released in Beirut.

Subsequent efforts by both governments to continue this process have met with frustration due to the need to communicate our intentions through an Iranian expatriate arms dealer in Europe. In January 1986, under the provisions of a new Covert Action Finding, the USG demanded a meeting with responsible Iranian government officials.

On February 20, a U.S. Government official met with [REDACTED]

-- the first direct U.S.-Iranian contact in over five years. At this meeting, the U.S. side made an effort to refocus Iranian attention on the threat posed by the Soviet Union and the need to establish a longer term relationship between our two countries based on more than arms transactions. It was emphasized that the hostage issue was a "hurdle" which must be crossed before this improved relationship could prosper. During the meeting, it also became apparent that our conditions/demands had not been accurately transmitted to the Iranian Government by the intermediary and it was agreed that:

- The USG would establish its good faith and bona fides by immediately providing 1,000 TOW missiles for sale to Iran. This transaction was covertly completed on February 21, using a private U.S. firm and the Israelis as intermediaries.
- A subsequent meeting would be held in Iran with senior U.S. and Iranian officials during which the U.S. hostages would be released.
- Immediately after the hostages were safely in our hands, the U.S. would sell an additional 3,000 TOW missiles to Iran using the same procedures employed during the September 1985 transfer.

In early March, the Iranian expatriate intermediary demanded that Iranian conditions for release of the hostages now included the prior sale of 200 PHOENIX missiles and an unspecified number of HARPOON missiles, in addition to the 3,000 TOWs which would be delivered after the hostages were released. A subsequent meeting was held with the intermediary in Paris on March 8, wherein it was explained that the requirement for prior deliveries violated the understandings reached in Frankfurt on February 20, and were therefore unacceptable. It was further noted that the Iranian aircraft and ship launchers for these missiles were in such disrepair that the missiles could not be launched even if provided.

From March 9 until March 30, there was no further effort undertaken on our behalf to contact the Iranian Government or the intermediary. On March 26, [REDACTED] made an unsolicited call to the phone-drop in Maryland which we had established for this purpose. [REDACTED] asked why we had not been in contact and urged that we proceed expeditiously since the situation in Beirut was deteriorating rapidly. He was informed by our Parsi-speaking interpreter that the conditions requiring additional materiel beyond the 3,000 TOWs were unacceptable and that we could in no case provide anything else prior to the release of our hostages. [REDACTED] observed that we were correct in our assessment of their inability to use PHOENIX and HARPOON missiles and that the most urgent requirement that Iran had was to place their current HAWK missile inventory in working condition. In a subsequent phone call, we agreed to discuss this matter with him and he indicated that he would prepare an inventory of parts required to make their HAWK systems operational. This parts list was received on March 28, and verified by CIA.

Current Situation. On April 3, Ari Gorbanifahr, the Iranian intermediary, arrived in Washington, D.C. with instructions from [REDACTED] to consummate final arrangements for the return of the hostages. Gorbanifahr was reportedly enfranchised to negotiate the types, quantities, and delivery procedures for materiel the U.S. would sell to Iran through Israel. The meeting lasted nearly all night on April 3-4, and involved numerous calls to Tehran. [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] A Parsi-speaking CIA officer in attendance was able to verify the substance of his calls to Tehran during the meeting. Subject to Presidential approval, it was agreed to proceed as follows:

- By Monday, April 7, the Iranian Government will transfer $17 million to an Israeli account in Switzerland. The Israelis will, in turn, transfer to a private U.S. corporation account in Switzerland the sum of $15 million.

- On Tuesday, April 8 (or as soon as the transactions are verified), the private U.S. corporation will transfer $3.651 million to a CIA account in Switzerland. CIA will then transfer this sum to a covert Department of the Army account in the U.S.
- On Wednesday, April 9, the CIA will commence procuring $3.651 million worth of HAWK missile parts (240 separate line items) and transferring these parts to [REDACTED] This process is estimated to take seven working days.
- On Friday, April 18, a private U.S. aircraft (707B) will pick-up the HAWK missile parts at [REDACTED] and fly them to a covert Israeli airfield for prepositioning (this field was used for the earlier delivery of the 1000 TOWs). At this field, the parts will be transferred to an Israeli Defense Forces' (IDF) aircraft with false markings. A SATCOM capability will be positioned at this location.
- On Saturday, April 19, McFarlane, North, Teicher, Cave, [REDACTED] and a SATCOM communicator will board a CIA aircraft in Frankfurt, Germany, enroute to Tehran. [REDACTED]
- On Sunday, April 20, the following series of events will occur:
  - U.S. party arrives Tehran (A-hour) -- met by Rafsanjani, as head of the Iranian delegation.
  - At A+7 hours, the U.S. hostages will be released in Beirut.
  - At A+15 hours, the IDF aircraft with the HAWK missile parts aboard will land at Bandar Abbas, Iran.

Discussion. The following points are relevant to this transaction, the discussions in Iran, and the establishment of a broader relationship between the United States and Iran:

- The Iranians have been told that our presence in Iran is a "holy commitment" on the part of the USG that we are sincere and can be trusted. There is great distrust of the U.S. among the various Iranian parties involved. Without our presence on the ground in Iran, they will not believe that we will fulfill our end of the bargain after the hostages are released.

UNCLASSIFIEDTOP SECRETSENSITIVE

-- [REDACTED]

Gorbanifahr specifically mentioned that Qadhaifi's efforts to "buy" the hostages could succeed in the near future. Further, the Iranians are well aware that the situation in Beirut is deteriorating rapidly and that the ability of the IRGC to effect the release of the hostages will become increasingly more difficult over time.

-- We have convinced the Iranians of a significant near term and long range threat from the Soviet Union. We have real and deceptive intelligence to demonstrate this threat during the visit. They have expressed considerable interest in this matter as part of the longer term relationship.

-- [REDACTED]

The Iranians have been told that their provision of assistance to Nicaragua is unacceptable to us and they have agreed to discuss this matter in Tehran.

-- We have further indicated to the Iranians that we wish to discuss steps leading to a cessation of hostilities between Iran and Iraq.

[REDACTED]

-- The Iranians are well aware that their most immediate needs are for technical assistance in maintaining their air force and navy. We should expect that they will raise this issue during the discussions in Tehran. Further conversation with Gorbanifahr on April 4, indicates that they will want to raise the matter of the original 3,000 TOWs as a significant deterrent to a potential Soviet move against Iran. They have also suggested that, if agreement is reached to provide the TOWs,

[REDACTED]

- The residual funds from this transaction are allocated as follows:
- $2 million will be used to purchase replacement TOWs for the original 508 sold by Israel to Iran for the release of Benjamin Weir. This is the only way that we have found to meet our commitment to replenish these stocks.
  - $12 million will be used to purchase critically needed supplies for the Nicaraguan Democratic Resistance Forces. This material is essential to cover shortages in resistance inventories resulting from their current offensives and Sandinista counter-attacks and to "bridge" the period between now and when Congressionally-approved lethal assistance (beyond the $25 million in "defensive" arms) can be delivered.

The ultimate objective in the trip to Tehran is to commence the process of improving U.S.-Iranian relations. Both sides are aware that the Iran-Iraq War is a major factor that must be discussed. We should not, however, view this meeting as a session which will result in immediate Iranian agreement to proceed with a settlement with Iraq. Rather, this meeting, the first high-level U.S.-Iranian contact in five years, should be seen as a chance to move in this direction. These discussions, as well as follow-on talks, should be governed by the Terms of Reference (TOR) (Tab A) with the recognition that this is, hopefully, the first of many meetings and that the hostage issue, once behind us, improves the opportunities for this relationship.

Finally, we should recognize that the Iranians will undoubtedly want to discuss additional arms and commercial transactions as "quids" for accommodating [redacted] Nicaragua, and Iraq. Our emphasis on the Soviet military and subversive threat, a useful mechanism in bringing them to agreement on the hostage issue, has also served to increase their desire for means to protect themselves against/deter the Soviets.

MEMORANDUM FOR THE RECORD

SUBJECT: Conversation with Subject

1. Subject called again on 14 April to state that he was at a restaurant near his hotel because he was convinced the British were conducting electronic surveillance of his room.

2. Subject stated that after his last trip to Tehran, he had prepared a report in Farsi that set forth Iran's understanding of the agreement being worked out with the US. He said he gave this report to Adam who in turn was to turn it over to Mr. Goode. In the statement (which has never been received by Mr. Goode), the Iranian elements working on the agreement identified four issues to be discussed with the Americans: (1) the threat from the Soviets in the north; (2) [REDACTED] (3) the increasing pressure by the Syrians upon the Lebanese Hizballah; and (4) discussion of ways to develop a long-term relationship between the US and Iran. Subject expressed regret the US side did not have this document in its original Farsi.

3. Subject claimed that he had told the [REDACTED] that the US delegation might travel utilizing [REDACTED] passports to Tehran. He told Tehran that the delegation, including the air crew, would total 10-11 individuals. Subject also told the [REDACTED] the Americans would come in their own plane and that the delegation would be headed by Robert. Subject claimed that he also told the [REDACTED] that the US would not deliver the Hawk spare parts or discuss any substantive issues until the hostages were released. According to Subject, he emphasized to the [REDACTED] that all the hostages must be released as soon as the Americans arrived.

4. According to Subject, the [REDACTED] stated his side would be willing to meet with the Americans and he wanted to know if Robert would be carrying a message from the US President to the President of Iran and if a similar Presidential message would be prepared for delivery to the Prime Minister. Subject also stated that the [REDACTED] expected that another letter would be brought by the Americans from the Speaker of the House or head of the US Senate. If these types of formal documentation arrive with the American delegation, the events can proceed and Robert will be permitted to meet with three top officials in Iran (presumably Rafsanjani, Prime Minister Mir Hossein Musavi, and President Khamenei).

5. Subject stated that the [redacted] understood that the Americans would arrive and return in their own aircraft and noted that the Americans would stay at the guest houses of the Iranian President. If necessary, the [redacted] stated they could close one of the large hotels in order to accommodate the American party. The hotel would have to be totally closed to guests, according to Subject, because the [redacted] wished to hide the fact of the American presence.

6. Subject stated that the [redacted] has proposed the following arrangements: (1) the Americans arrive; (2) one hostage is released; (3) one-half of the Hawk missile spare parts will arrive, approximately 10-12 hours after the release of the first hostage; (4) as the negotiations proceed over the following four to five days, the other four hostages will be released. According to Subject, the [redacted] explained that it would be difficult for Iran to force the Lebanese Shiite to release all the hostages at once because the Lebanese Shiite would find such an arrangement "fishy" and would not trust the Americans to come through with their side of their agreement—especially if all hostages were released at the outset.

7. The [redacted] according to Subject, stated that the framework for these discussions had been established and that the arrangements proposed above have been fully approved by the Iranian side. The [redacted] described the release of the first hostage upon the arrival of the American delegation as a "gesture of good will." He assured Subject that the other hostages would be freed if negotiations "successfully" proceeded with the US delegation.

8. Subject told me that he recommended Mr. Goode reject this approach and that I call him back on 15 April to inform him (Subject) that the sequence of events proposed by the Australian were unacceptable. Subject stated that a small "miracle" has been achieved in getting the Line Two group to accept any release of the hostages but asserted that Prime Minister Musavi is a problem and a real obstacle to a final agreement. He noted, however, that Musavi believes the US is "taking advantage of Iran." Nonetheless, Subject's advice was that the US be very tough and authorize him to tell the [redacted] outright that the US cannot accept the [redacted] proposal. Subject stated that with proper backing from Mr. Goode, that he can successfully pressure the [redacted] and Prime Minister to agree to adhere to the original understanding. Subject stated that he would work with [redacted] and other Line One supporters to force the issue. He stated that this also would be the most propitious route to pursue as the Prime Minister is a most untrustworthy and dangerous individual.

9. Subject stated that the money for the spare parts will begin moving on 15 April. As a final statement, Subject noted that the US should make it clear to Adam that we find the [redacted] sequence of events unacceptable. I assured Subject that I would call him back on 15 April.

1. I talked to Adam this a.m. He quite pessimistic re Gorba [REDACTED] cabal. He know time is nearly over. I agreed to transfer 185K to his acct Tuesday to satisfy IAF bill -- there is still the matter of about 25K in cash to be resolved. IAF total bill is 250K -- a real rip off.
  2. Standing by for info on ship procurement, go or no go. I have Tom in the linemans crouch.
  3. Current obligations over next few weeks nearly wipe us out except for CD. Big ticket items are 822K plus 185K to Adam, D. Walker 110K, 57K to Sat for drop to Blacky, 200K insurance fund, O and M 600K, 100K to defex-balance of 9 Apr 707 shipment. Bottomline is that ship buy plus BP buy can be accomplished only by using CD funds. Ship costs of course can be recovered.
  4. Now that we have Euc, [REDACTED] much more confident and says we should get pricing tomorrow. If you find work, send money.

They are seeing increasing evidence of Libyan efforts [redacted] and other signs of increasing disarray inside Lebanon. Further, there is increasing indication of seepage around the edge of our hostage project. Bottom line: [redacted] knows this and wants to proceed quickly with a release.

to bring this all to a conclusion. We are, at this point concerned only that we may be unable to proceed because of the two radar issues and that the delaying of their delegation to Beirut should be such that the delegation is already there by the time we arrive in Tehran - and that they not wait to dispatch it until we arrive. Casey and company believe that we have made too big a deal over the radar issue noting that they were proposed with the original parts list and we should not be treating these as separate items. They also note that no one else sees them as such and that I should not have presented them as separate items. They believe that we can order them up from the normal electronics acquisition process that they have established with the Army and that they will simply be delivered as they are made available. In any event - I will here agree that Casey, North and Sir ought to go to meet w/ [redacted] agency has prepared foreign documents as necessary. If you approve, we wd depart Tehran before commercial to Frankfurt then to Tehran on Friday via private jet [redacted] If you do not believe that we can proceed with the radar issue I will try to convince them to take what we have in terms of parts and of [redacted] some of the TOS as acceptable alternatives. We know that Gorbachev has tried, unsuccessfully to date, to convince [redacted] that Gorbachev is the preferred course of action [redacted] North

1 0170

SUBJECT: Discussion with Adam

1. At the request of Mr. Goode, I called Adam at his home on the afternoon of 2 May. Adam stated that he had talked with Subject in some detail the previous day about the proposed trip of the American delegation to Point Tango. Adam stated that he had bluntly informed Subject that the trip involving the Americans would not take place. He claimed that he told Subject that a preliminary meeting was not required if the [redacted] clearly understands what terms are acceptable to the American side. B

2. Adam stated that he personally was not "too happy" about cancellation of the preliminary meeting. In his opinion the preliminary meeting would have been one way to have complete assurance that both sides were in agreement on the terms of the arrangements. Adam stated that he understood, however, that Mr. Goode's boss was adamant that the Americans would not go to Point Tango for the preliminary meeting.

3. Adam stated that Subject was to call the [redacted] on 1 May to determine again whether the terms of the arrangements were fully understood. If the [redacted] agreed to the terms, then Subject would be willing to begin moving the of money. According to Adam, Subject is thinking of making a deposit on Monday, 5 May. In Adam's view this was an auspicious development because Subject would not move funds unless he had assurance that both sides were now in agreement as to the terms of the arrangement. He noted that Subject stood to lose a lot of his own personal finances if anything goes awry once the deposit is made. B

4. Adam stated that Subject had arranged for a private jet to take the American delegation to Point Tango on 3 May. In Adam's view, Subject might take the aircraft instead and go on to Point Tango in order to finalize arrangements with the [redacted]. Adam stated that he should know something definitive late Saturday or early Sunday (4 May), assuming Subject makes a quick trip to Point Tango.

SUBJECT: Comments on the Ghorbanifar Operation

[REDACTED] the water-side initiative to secure [REDACTED] of [REDACTED] hostages in [REDACTED] remains dead in the water. We surmise [REDACTED] that [REDACTED] is unable to provide the assurances and to make the arrangements demanded by our side. Ghorbanifar has not deposited the funds necessary to move the spare parts.

2. We believe that the Iranian Government has not been able to convince the holders of the hostages to release them to Iranian custody. [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] Ghorbanifar's failure to deposit the necessary funds indicates that he has doubts about [REDACTED] ability to obtain the release of the hostages. Ghorbanifar is in a bind and he knows that once he deposits the money he cannot get it back. He also is aware that we have insisted that the spare parts will be delivered eight hours after the release of the hostages and [REDACTED] after the release of the hostages.

North and Earl met with Claire George, Burt Dunn, George Cave, and [redacted] to review status of the project. Claire had some basic questions:

1. What should the role of the Israelis be in this? Their aircraft or ours?
2. What is our overall strategy? What do we want at the end of it (i.e., beyond return of the hostages)?
3. [redacted]

North answered the first question by relating the substance of his conversation with the Israelis in New York last night. The Israelis want to be there and have offered two 707s. North pointed out that the Israelis provide some degree of plausible deniability if the project unravels. Claire agreed to Israeli participation. Nir will accompany the party to T. Thus, that party will be six persons: Bud, North, Teicher, Cave, communicator, and Nir.

North answered question #2 by pointing out that our long-term objective was to end the Iran-Iraq war. Specific objectives in the near-term were to get the Iranians [redacted] and to get them to cut off their oil to Nicaragua.

Question #3 was addressed in terms of the intel package being developed by Cave and Dick Kerr. North wants it jazzier, more photos, more reports of evil Soviet deeds against Muslims and mosques, etc. George will be the translator on this and needs to get together with Bud and North for a couple practice sessions before departure. The objective is to string this out (not just a two-hour slam bam, thank you ma'am). George suggested the theme that the Soviets are "one idea" people and that you (Iran) are OK now so long as the Soviets are preoccupied in Afghanistan. But afterwards, watch out.

We should also ask them for their views of the Afghan war. We should take along photos, but not leave them with the Iranians. (CIA action)

Documentation: All will have [redacted]
(except Bud). Nir does his own documents.

Aircraft routing: Dick's aircraft (C-130?) will pick up the parts at [redacted] and fly directly to Israel. The party will fly by [redacted] military Gulfstream to Israel. A sample of the parts and the party marry up there and fly to T on an Israeli aircraft (with Israeli involvement agreed, no need to go via Frankfurt).

North reviewed the idea of giving the Iranians a few options for delivering the hostages -- e.g., a Western Embassy in West Beirut, our Embassy in East Beirut, a Church, etc. [redacted]

The party should plan to ask for the return of Buckley's remains as well as those of the two Israelis.

Claire raised the contingency of the Iranians trying but being unable to deliver the hostages -- what does the party do then? North acknowledged the possibility; we've given them 48 hours (from time of the party's arrival in T) to safely deliver the hostages. We probably don't give them the parts and radars, but we also probably don't want to "go away mad" and give up the opportunity to develop some sort of on-going relationship.

Claire hopes that the party will be able to plant the seed of giving the Iranians a [redacted]

Point out problems with the spare parts list they have developed -- that we don't believe this will entirely solve their problems. Suggest on-going dialogue. Suggest a visit by a few technical experts who might help identify and solve their equipment problems. [redacted]

Some modest U.S. gifts ought to be taken along (e.g., Colt .45 replicas?) DDO will fund.

Claire wanted to ensure that Weinberger, Casey, and Shultz would all be briefed on the project (particularly regarding his second question, long-term goals).

A problem has arisen on the radars -- they are more expensive than estimated (i.e., $5K each vice $3K?), and only Phase II radars are immediately available. Two phase I radars are currently sitting in a warehouse in Pennsylvania, but it is unclear if we can get these released (e.g., to Israel?). Approval from several U.S. agencies might be required: Customs, Justice, State, DOD, and the Iranian claims commission... (CIA action).

National Security Council

MEMORANDUM FOR THE RECORD

SUBJECT: [REDACTED] With [REDACTED]

By R. [REDACTED], National Security Council

1. [REDACTED] called again on 14 April to state that he was at a restaurant near his hotel because he was convinced [REDACTED]

2. [REDACTED] stated that after his last trip to Tehran, he had prepared a report in Farsi that set forth Iran's understanding of the agreement being worked out with the US. He said he gave this report to Adam who in turn was to turn it over to Mr. Goode. In the meantime (which has never been received by Mr. Goode), the Iranian elements working on the agreement identified four issues to be discussed with the Americans: (1) the threat from the Soviets in the north;

(2) the increasing pressure by the Syrians upon the Lebanese Hizballah; and (4) discussion of ways to develop a long-term relationship between the US and Iran. [REDACTED] expressed regret the US side did not have this document in its original Farsi.

3. [REDACTED] claimed that he had told the Australian that the US delegation might travel utilizing [REDACTED] passport to Tehran. He told Tehran that the delegation, including the air crew, would total 10-11 individuals. [REDACTED] also told the Australian the Americans would come in their own plane and that the delegation would be headed by Robert. [REDACTED] claimed that he also told the Australian that the US would not deliver the Hawk spare parts or discuss any substantive issues until the hostages were released. According to [REDACTED] he emphasized to the Australian that all the hostages must be released as soon as the Americans arrived.

4. According to [REDACTED] the Australian stated his side would be willing to meet with the Americans and he wanted to know if Robert would be carrying a message from the US President to the President of Iran and if so, what Presidential message would be prepared for delivery to the Iranian President. [REDACTED] also stated that the Australian expected that another air mission would be brought by the Americans from the Speaker of the House or the President of the Senate. If these types of formal documentation arrive with the US delegation, the events can proceed and Robert will be present with three top officials in Iran (presumably Rafsanjani, President Khatami, and President Khamenei).

5. [redacted] stated that the Australian understood that the Americans would arrive in their own aircraft and noted that the Americans would say at the [redacted] of the Iranian President. If necessary, the Australian [redacted] would close one of the large hotels in order to accommodate the American party. The hotel would have to be totally closed to guests according to [redacted] because the Australian wished to hide the fact of the American presence.

[redacted] stated that the Australian has proposed the following arrangements: (1) the Americans arrive; (2) one hostage is released; (3) one [redacted] spare parts will arrive, approximately 10-12 hours after the release of the first hostage; (4) as the negotiations proceed over the next four to five days, the other four hostages will be released. According to [redacted] the Australian explained that it would be difficult for Iran to force the Lebanese Shiite to release all the hostages at once because the Lebanese Shiite would find such an arrangement "fishy" and would not trust the Americans to come through with their side of their agreement—especially if all hostages were released at the outset.

7. The Australian, according to [redacted] stated that the framework for these discussions had been established and the arrangements proposed above have been fully approved by the Iranian side. The Australian described the release of the first hostage upon the arrival of the American delegation as a "gesture of good faith." He assured [redacted] that other hostages would be freed if negotiations "successfully" proceeded with the US delegation.

8. [redacted] told me that he recommended Mr. Goode reject this approach and that I [redacted] him back on 15 April to [redacted] him that the sequence of events proposed by the Australian was unacceptable. [redacted] stated that a small "miracle" has been achieved in getting Line Two group to accept any release of [redacted] hostages but asserted that Prime Minister Musavi is a problem and a real obstacle to a final agreement. He noted, however, that Musavi believes the US is "taking advantage of Iran." Nonetheless, [redacted] advice was that the US be very tough and authorize him to tell the Australian outright that the US cannot accept the Australian's proposal. [redacted] stated that with proper backing from Mr. Goode, that he can successfully pressure the Australian and Prime Minister to agree to adhere to the original understanding. [redacted] stated that he would work with [redacted] and other Line One supporters to force the issue. He stated that this also would be the most propitious route to pursue as the Prime Minister is a most untrustworthy and dangerous individual.

9. [redacted] stated that the money for the spare parts will [redacted] on 15 April. As a final statement, [redacted] noted that the US should be clear to Adam that we find the Australian's sequence of events [redacted] [redacted] assured that I would call him back on 15 April.

1. YOUR PLAN TO ADMINISTER (IDEN A) IS BRIMMENTLY BESTRABLE. WE CAN FIND NO OTHER INDICATION THAT THIS HAS BEEN DONE PREVIOUSLY.

2. [REDACTED] WAS BORN 1945 IN IRAN. IN ISPAHAN, HE IS MARRIED. FROM 1978 TO EARLY JULY 1980 HE TRAVELED FREQUENTLY TO LONDON FROM IRAN AS AN EMPLOYEE OF AN IRANIAN BASED IMPORT/EXPORT FIRM. PRIOR TO THIS HE WAS MANAGING DIRECTOR OF STAR LINE SHIPPING CO., WHICH PERIODICALLY BECAME A "JOINT IRANIAN/ISRAELI VENTURE" IN LATE 1980. IN LATE 1979 HE WAS SAID TO BE A MEMBER OF THE "TEHRAN KOMITE" UNTIL ABOUT 1981. [REDACTED] WAS A SOURCE [REDACTED] OVER A PERIOD [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] WAS ACTED BY [REDACTED] OFFICE [REDACTED] DURING THIS TIME HE PROVIDED SOME USEFUL INFORMATION. [REDACTED] (PATRICK TO THE IRANIAN REV. COUNCIL. [REDACTED] IS INFORMANT [REDACTED] AND SAVAR AND HE RETAINS MANY CONTACTS FROM THOSE DAYS.) [REDACTED] WAS IMPLICATED IN THE FAILED COUP OF 8 JULY 1980, AS WERE BOTH OF HIS YOUNGER BROTHERS (IDENS B AND C). [REDACTED] HE COULD NO LONGER TRAVEL TO IRAN BUT CONTINUED TO TRAVEL FREQUENTLY TO PARIS, ATHENS, TURKEY AND IRAQ. HE CLAIMED THIS WAS FOR THE PURPOSE OF MEETING WITH OTHER EXILE LEADERS, MAKING DEALS FOR MONETARY AID AND PURCHASING SMALL WEAPONS AND EXPLOSIVES REQUIRED FOR HIS "GROUP" IN IRAN.

[REDACTED] THERE WERE INDICATIONS THAT HE WAS REGARDED AS CONSIDERABLY WELL INFORMED AND WELL CONNECTED.

SUBJECT: INFO ON ALLEGED PLAN TO ASSASSINATE PRESIDENTIAL CANDIDATE

REF: DIRECTOR 875330

1. FOLLOWING IS INFORMATION OBTAINED FROM [REDACTED] DURING FIRST 17 MARCH MEETING ON ALLEGED IRANIAN PLOT TO ASSASSINATE U.S. PRESIDENTIAL CANDIDATE. (NOTE: HE PAINFULLY AWARE THAT MANY QUESTIONS ON BELOW INFORMATION REMAIN TO BE ANSWERED. [REDACTED] WILL CONCENTRATE ON THESE QUESTIONS DURING PLANNED EVENING AND EARLY MORNING SESSIONS WITH [REDACTED])

2. SOURCE FOR THIS INFORMATION IS [REDACTED] DESCRIBED AS MEMBER OF ISLAMIC REPUBLICAN PARTY WHO WAS EMPLOYED AS "CLOCKER" [REDACTED] TO [REDACTED] IS REPORTED BY [REDACTED] TO BE THE GENERAL COORDINATOR OF THE PLANNED ASSASSINATION OPERATION. (A TRACES ON [REDACTED] OR [REDACTED])

THE BACKGROUND OF THIS WHOLE EPISODE.)

5. ACCORDING TO INFORMATION PROVIDED BY [REDACTED] INTENDED TARGETS OF ASSASSINATION OPERATIONS ARE BOTH DEMOCRATIC AND REPUBLICAN PRESIDENTIAL CANDIDATES. ASSASSINATION OPS PLANNED
TO TAKE PLACE BETWEEN 1 AUGUST 1984 AND 6 NOVEMBER 1984.
ASSASSINATION TEAM IS MADE UP OF SUICIDE MEN, WHO ARE COMMITTED TO THIS OPERATION. INTENTION IS NOT ONLY TO KILL CANDIDATES, BUT TO KILL AS MANY SENIOR OFFICIALS AND STAFF (AND GENERAL PUBLIC) AS POSSIBLE. THE ACTUAL OPERATIONS ARE INTENDED TO BE AS "CATASTROPHIC" AS POSSIBLE FOR AMERICA. TIME PERIOD FOR OPERATIONS WAS PICKED SPECIFICALLY BECAUSE CANDIDATES WILL BE MORE PUBLICLY EXPOSED, AND THEORETICALLY LESS WELL PROTECTED.
DURING THE ELECTION CAMPAIGN.

N 1335

THIS MORNING, AFTER APPARENTLY CONSIDERABLE INTERNAL TO AND FROM THEIR SIDE [REDACTED] WAS DISPATCHED TO APOLOGIZE AND TO SAY THAT THEY WANTED THE NEGOTIATIONS TO SUCCEED. (LATE ENTRY: BEGINNING WITH OUR ARRIVAL AND FREQUENTLY SINGLE. GORBA HAS CONTINUED TO SAY "THE HOSTAGES WILL BE RELEASED AND THINGS ARE GOING IN THE RIGHT DIRECTION AND DON'T WORRY" AND OTHER RHETORICAL IRRELEVANCIES.) [REDACTED] ALSO SAID THAT THEIR LEADERS HAD DESIGNATED AN OFFICIAL WITH HIGHER AUTHORITY THAN THEY TO COME TO MEET WITH US THIS AFTERNOON (MONDAY). I MADE CLEAR THAT IF HE WAS COMING TO SPEND NEEDLESS TIME DISCUSSING THE SUFFICES OF OTHER FORMS OF NIGGLING THAT HE COULD DO SO WITH THE STAFF.

[REDACTED] WAS A CONSIDERABLE CUT ABOVE THE BUSH LEAGUE. WE HAD BEEN DEALING WITH. IN THE COURSE OF THE 4 HOUR MEETING IT BECAME EVIDENT THAT THE THREE IRANIAN LEADERS--RAFSANJANI, MUSAVI (PRIME MINISTER) AND KHAMENEI (PRESIDENT) ARE EACH TRAUMATIZED BY THE RECOLLECTION THAT AFTER BAZARGAN MET WITH BREZNEV IN THE SPRING OF 1980, HE WAS DEPOSED. SO STRONG WAS POPULAR SENTIMENT AGAINST DOING BUSINESS WITH THE GREAT SATAN. TODAY THE FORCE OF EVENTS AND SELF INTEREST HAS BROUGHT THEM TO THE POINT OF REALIZING THAT WE DO HAVE SOME COMMON INTERESTS (VIS A VIS THE RUSSIANS, AFGHANISTAN AND PERHAPS EVEN AGAINST IRAQ) BUT THEY STILL CANNOT OVERCOME THEIR IMMEDIATE PROBLEM OF HOW TO TALK TO US AND STAY ALIVE. BUT FROM THE TENOR OF THIS LAST MAN'S STATEMENTS, CONVICTION AND KNOWLEDGEABLE EXPRESSION OF WHAT IS POSSIBLE IN THE WAY OF A STABLE COOPERATIVE RELATIONSHIP, I BELIEVE WE HAVE FINALLY REACHED A COMPETENT IRANIAN OFFICIAL--AND THAT'S GOOD.

NEVERTHELESS WE CANNOT, IN MY JUDGMENT BE SMOOTHER BY SERIOUS DIALOGUE WITHOUT ACTS. THUS I DID NOT MEET WITH THIS MAN AS A FIRM SIGNAL THAT ALTHOUGH WE HAVE COME TO SET IN MOTION A SUSTAINED PROCESS, WE MUST FIRST SET ASIDE A NUMBER OF OBSTACLES--NOTABLY BY THE RELEASE OF THE HOSTAGES. THIS WAS FORCEFULLY STRESSED TO [REDACTED] TONIGHT AND WE HAVE RECEIVED THROUGHOUT THE DAY PERIODIC REAFFIRMATIONS THAT STEPS ARE IN MOTION, WE ARE WORKING ON IT, DON'T WORRY, ETC ETC ETC. WITH THAT IN MIND, WHEN HE COMES BACK TOMORROW TO GO DISCUSS THE AGENDA, I INTEND TO HAVE HIM MEET WITH THE STAFF WITH PERHAPS AN INTERVENING SUMMONS FOR HIM.

TO COME VISIT WITH ME TO TRY TO SET SOME SPECIFIC MILESTONES FOR MOVING AHEAD. THESE WOULD INCLUDE: 1. AN END TO THE EXTREME RHETORIC ON BOTH SIDES (ALTHOUGH WE WILL CALL IT AT IT IF THERE IS A RECURRENCE OF TERRORISM AGAINST US) 2. THE ESTABLISHMENT OF A COMMUNICATIONS CAPABILITY BETWEEN US FULL TIME AS SOON POSSIBLE. 3. THE POSITIONING ON THE GROUND HERE A TECHNICAL EXPERT TO GET US AWAY FROM THESE ENDLESS EXCHANGES OF REQUESTS FOR ITEMS THEY DON'T NEED.

WITH REGARD TO THE HOSTAGES WE HAVE AND WILL CONTINUE TO MAKE CLEAR THAT THEIR RELEASE IS THE SINE QUA NON TO ANY FURTHER STEPS BETWEEN US, AND IF THAT HAS NOT HAPPENED BY TOMORROW NIGHT, THEY ARE AWARE THAT WE WILL LEAVE AND THAT THE BALANCE OF THIS SHIPMENT WILL NOT BE DELIVERED NOR WILL ANVIL: ANNH:ST ANCE BE CONSIDERED.

AS TO MY JUDGMENT ON WHERE WE STAND, IT SEEMS CLEAR THAT WE ARE DEALING WITH PEOPLE AT THE TOP WHO: 1. UNDERSTAND THAT THEY HAVE AN IMPORTANT INTEREST

IN ORDER TO ESTABLISH A DIALOGUE THAT LEADS TO A RESUME OF COOPERATION WITH

UNCLASSIFIED

N 1336

W US. 2. THEY DOING SO REQUIRES THAT THEY DELIVER ON CERTAIN KINDS OF BEHAVIOR
A E.G. RELEASE OF THE HOSTAGES AND NO FURTHER TERRORIST ACTS AGAINST US. 3. A RE VERY FEARFUL FOR THEIR OWN VULNERABILITY TO FACTIONAL ATTACK IF THEY ARE D ISCOVERED IN THIS DIALOGUE BEFORE THEY CAN CONDITION THE PEOPLE TO A DIFFEREN
T PERCEPTION OF THE U.S. 4. ARE TRYING TO RUN A COUNTRY WITH ALMOST NO COMPET ENT OFFICIALS BELOW THE VERY TOP AND NEED HELP.

SO WE ARE ON THE WAY TO SOMETHING THAT CAN BECOME A TRULY STRATEGIC GAIN FOR US AT THE EXPENSE OF THE SOVIETS. BUT IT IS GOING TO BE PAINFULLY SLOW. AS WE PROCEED WE CANNOT BE GULLED BY PROMISES OF WHAT WILL HAPPEN TOMORROW--AT 8:11
TOM THEY REALLY ARE RUG MERCHANTS. BUT LITTLE BY LITTLE WE CAN MAKE PROGRESS
BECAUSE IT IS A MATTER OF SELF INTEREST FOR BOTH OF US TO DO SO.

I WILL GIVE YOU A MORE THOUGHTFUL FILL TOMORROW AFTER OUR MEETINGS--IT IS NOW
3:35 A.M. LOCAL. I FEEL THAT WE HAVE ENTERED A SENSIBLE PROCESS AND FINALLY GOTTEN A COMPETENT INTERLOCUTOR ON THE OTHER SIDE. IF YOU HAVE ANY SPECIAL INSTRUCTIONS

BEFORE WE MEET TOMORROW PLEASE LET ME KNOW. *HOPE YOU HAD A NICE WAKEND. YO UR GUYS ARE DOING A FANSTASTIC JOB AS IS CAVE AND THE COMMUNICATOR WHO IS BEA

MEMORANDUM FOR JOHN M. POINDEXTER

FROM: OLIVER L. NORTH N

SUBJECT: Hostage Recovery Plan

Attached for your information are papers which contain essential information and action requirements for the execution of the hostage recovery plan.

Tab I is the operation order and time table for the critical events of the plan. The following people will have copies of this timetable: Clair George, Dewey Clarridge, and Bob Earl. We have established a communications plan in which the travelling party will make routine contact in order to apprise the appropriate people of progress along the timetable.

Tab II is the U.S.-Iran Terms of Reference (TOR) that will be used by Bud during our discussions with the Iranians.

Tab III contains three different sets of press guidance for use:

- upon release of the hostages in Beirut;
- upon the non-hostile disclosure of the party's visit to Iran; and
- the hostile discovery and abduction of the party while in Iran.

Tab VI is a memo from you to the Secretaries of State and Defense, the CJCS, and the Director, FBI to execute the established interagency plan (Tab A) to receive, debrief, and reunite our citizens. This memo will follow-up a secure conference call upon notification of the hostages release.

opened the plenary meeting. He said he was very happy to see the U.S. delegation here. Hoped this will be a useful trip with good results. Expressed regret for inconvenience at the airport. "Ready to begin negotiations and talks." After introducing his colleagues, said the main purpose of this meeting is to prepare an agenda for other political discussions. (S)

McFarlane expressed on behalf of the President his pleasure to be in Iran to start what the U.S. hopes will be sustained discourse. McFarlane made the following opening statement: "The President asked that I portray for your leaders U.S. goals, the basis of disagreements, and try to find common ground for cooperation. Perhaps I could propose a format for our exchanges. First a session for an exchange on fundamental issues. In such a session we could present our goals, the nature of the peace we seek in the M.E. and more broadly. We could then turn to how we see our responsibilities vis-a-vis the USSR, and what we see as important to U.S. security interests in other parts of the world. We can also describe how we see the history of U.S.-Iranian relations going back 10 years. In these talks, on bilateral matters, we would hope to make clear that the U.S. accepts the Iranian Revolution and has no wish or presumption of influencing it in any fashion." (S)

McFarlane stressed "the U.S. hope that from this day forward, the U.S. and Iran can proceed where interests converge. No doubt there are elements of Iranian policy that the U.S. will disagree with. But it is important we understand the disagreements." After a general discussion of the global and bilateral agenda, McFarlane suggested that it might be useful for experts to exchange information, e.g., nature of Soviet intentions and capabilities in this part of the world. "I'd like to stress something at the beginning. Obviously we've had disagreements over the past eight years. But the U.S. recognizes that Iran is a sovereign power and we should deal on the basis of mutual respect, not intimidation. That's why before we begin high-level talks we put behind us hostage-taking which has occurred in the past. We are pleased that informal talks resulted in agreement on release of American hostages. Once that is completed we can begin serious talks. I want to stress our appreciation for your hospitality, especially during Ramazan. All of us are pleased to be here. This can lead to an historic new beginning." (S)

[REDACTED] replied that "he wanted to lay a groundwork regarding certain issues before meetings begin. This revolution was totally depending on God, independent Iranian power and unique ideology. These factors allowed this revolution to come into being. This revolution came to power because for years the nation was under dictatorial pressures. These pressures contributed to the revolution's success. I am sure you can feel how the nation and people think after so many years under pressure. Iran can now act freely. What do you expect from them now that they are free? I want to express a very important point. This revolution cost much blood. After so much blood, the people don't want hostility directed against them. The leader and the people expressed their will to look forward, not to the past. The key question to the past eight years may help explain why our relations were not good. We have a famous saying "Past is a mirror for the future." It is not the time to discuss what went wrong over past five years, but I want to emphasize a few points. We don't want to align with East or West, but that doesn't mean we don't want relations. Iran had relations with the U.S.A. at first. But refuge for the Shah and interference in our internal affairs damaged relations. U.S. refuge for the Shah was bad but your military action was a demonstration of hostile intent. All the points combined led to break in confidence in U.S.G. To rebuild bridge of confidence will take time. We are moving toward this goal. Best proof and reason we are moving is informal meetings, and your presence here in Iran. You know better than anyone that your presence here is most important development in this process. Believe we will reach this goal by fulfilling the necessary steps that have already been agreed to. I didn't want to review the past but I needed to mention the background." (S)

Turning to the agenda, [REDACTED] said he needs to make the agenda clear for Iranian leaders. "The first item should be U.S. goals in the area. The basic priority is to build a bridge of confidence. Both Iran and the U.S. must build confidence and trust. Once bridge of confidence is established then other priorities can be addressed and solved. We expect from you that the U.S. will supply physical support to Iran. U.S. support will be with us. This is best way to build confidence. For the U.S.A. to demonstrate that it is with Iran." (S)

McFarlane welcomed climate of [REDACTED] remarks. Bodes well for talks. "We agree that we should take advantage of certain measures that were agreed in the informal talks. Regarding the commitment of the U.S. to turn a page, this is expressed by my presence on behalf of the President. The corresponding commitment on the part of your government to put the past behind us is to use your influence to secure the release of captive Americans. They are not held by Iran but the captors are also subject to Iranian influence. Finally as an earnest showing of our good faith, we are prepared to transfer certain items which may be of assistance. We have brought some of these with us. In virtually all cases we could handle via aircraft. If not, other items will follow as this sequence evolves. Perhaps we could start discussions tomorrow morning on goals. At the conclusion of this discussion, we could have specialized sessions on the Soviet Union and Middle East situation." (S)

[REDACTED] specified Soviet intentions, Afghan issues, Lebanese affairs, Middle East peace, Iran-Iraq war, Kurdistan. "What is your view about Iraq? It's regime?" (S)

McFarlane said, "We are prepared to discuss all of those issues. Let us begin with a long session where we can make summary comments on each topic. Then later, when talking about Soviet capabilities, perhaps experts could meet. But the general threat and how to meet it can be done in a general session. In order to have clarity we can write out the agenda tonight." (S)

██████████ changed the subject, stating that "for humanitarian reasons we have acted on your hostages. But we expected more than what came on the aircraft". (S)

McFarlane answered that we could not bring it all on the plane. But the rest can be brought forward. (S)

██████████ reiterated the humanitarian dimension, noting that Iran did not take these people captive." (S)

North expressed U.S. gratification for Iran's humanitarian assistance. He asked what Tehran wants the U.S. Government to say about Iran's role. The U.S. does not want to embarrass Iran. But if the Iranian government would be served by a U.S.G. statement it can be made. "We hope this will happen in next few hours." (S)

██████████ said that Iran took this step as a humanitarian act. "We started the process, but cannot forecast when it will happen. We can discuss this affair later. We expect anyhow to receive more items from you so that we will be in a better position with our leaders. I want to make this point very clear. Iran has been at war for six years. Fao was a great accomplishment. We are expecting more equipment." (S)

McFarlane stated that the agreement which was concluded will be fulfilled to the letter." "A bridge of confidence is a useful metaphor. I have come as an expression of good will. In addition to my own presence, we put items on the aircraft and loaded all the rest on another aircraft which can be brought forward. The corresponding act on your side, a humanitarian gesture, involves the release of our people. While separate and not related, these acts do contribute to mutual confidence. You have my word, the bond of my country, that we will fulfill our agreement." (S)

██████████ replied that "what Iran expected is not here, but as a humanitarian gesture, Iran will send a delegation to Beirut to solve that problem while expecting Iranian logistics needs to be met." He emphasized that no one knows about the McFarlane team's presence in Tehran. The Air Force is suspicious since someone is still on the plane. ██████████ suggested that he stay at the hotel instead. (S)

McFarlane said, "we can't do that. Although his presence on the plan may complicate suspicions, he performs communications functions as well as logistics accountability. We can give instructions for him to stay out of sight." (S)

██████████ said there is no problem with communications. But having him staying on board is a problem because he's at the military airfield. (S)

McFarlane stated that "we need communications all the time. Otherwise there is no way to communicate with the President." (S)

██████████ stressed there is a security problem with Air Force questioning. (S)

Turning back to substance, McFarlane said, "this is a good beginning. We do have much to do and very little time." He argued that the U.S. team's presence here should be kept brief for security. (S)

██████████ opined that "everything depends on good will and restored confidence. But there are some things which cause doubt. We were told that one-half of the equipment would be brought with McFarlane. You did not bring one-half. This behavior raises doubts about what can be accomplished." (S)

McFarlane forcefully interjected to end ██████████ protests. "Let's be clear. I have come. There should be an act of goodwill by Iran. I brought some things along as a special gesture. So far nothing has happened on your side. However, I am confident it will." (S)

██████████ apologized, stressing that he and his colleagues are not decision-makers. "We just give you a message and take your message. But we told our leaders that you would bring one-half of the items." (S)

North noted that the aircraft has weight and fuel limitations. (S)

██████████ commented that some of the spare parts are used. (S)

Angrily, McFarlane replied that "I have come from U.S.A. You are not dealing with Iraq. I did not have to bring anything. We can leave now!" (S)

██████████ said that "We promised things to higher authorities regarding one-half of the items we purchased. Could you have told us it would only be one-fourth due to technical flight requirements? Now we will have internal problems." (S)

██████████ stated that this problem can be solved in parallel with the other problem. A special delegation has already left to deal with the humanitarian problem. "We have all done what we should do. We respect our guests' need?" (S)

The meeting concluded at 7:00 p.m. (S)

This is an account of the U.S. mission to Tehran from May 25 through May 28, together with some comments and observations. The U.S. team was headed by McFarland with Goode, McGrath, Miller and O'neil making up the rest of the team. A communicator also accompanied the team on the trip into Tehran.

The team arrived in Tehran at 0830 hours on 25 May and was left to cool its collective heels for about two hours. During this period the Iranian Air force put on a show in which one by one a squadron of F-4's took off from Mehrabad airport. The planes carried no ordnance and according to the Mehrabad base commander they were flying training missions. According to Gorba, the Iranians recently recieved a shipment of F-4 spare parts and the flights were training flights to bring some of their pilots up to snuff. The first Iranian official to show up who was connected with this operation was [redacted] who was already known to the air crew. The base Commander [redacted] also put in an appearance and made pleasant conversation. He was also there at our departure. It is unclear how much he was cut in on the operation. Gorba showed up about half an hour after our arrival. He said that we had arrived an hour early and this was the reason there was no one at the airport to receive us. We were later told that the receiving party had gone to the military side of the base expecting us to park our plane there. Gorba told us that for security reasons we were being given the entire top floor of the Hiton Hotel, now renamed the Istiqlal (independence). [redacted] finally arrived and after some small talk we departed for the hotel. While still at the airport, Gorba informed us that everything was going well and the Iranians had already dispatched a representative to secure the release of the hostages.

While on the plane McFarland, Goode and O'neil rehearsed a discussion of the briefs which we would run through in the hotel for the benefit of Iranian coverage of the American delegation. In short the play acting was designed to give the brief good sourcing. We expressed our concern out loud that the Iranians would not believe the Soviet invasion plan. We worried that we could not indicate the real source of the information due to said source's sensitivity. The sensitive source, dubbed "Vladimir" by Goode was described as a Major General who had taken part in two of the war games on the invasion of Iran. O'neil subsequently gave [redacted] a brief glance at the briefing book to whet his appetite and give them something to which they could tie their audio coverage. None of the three briefs were given.

The first substantive meeting took place late in the afternoon of 24 May. The Iranian side consisted of [redacted] a named [redacted] who was introduced [redacted] and a man named [redacted] whom Gorba described as being in their intelligence service. This initial meeting was hostile with the Iranians listing past sins of the United States etc. The meeting ended with what appeared to be little chance of any progress. Basically the American side insisted on adherence to the agreement as we understood it, and the Iranians insisting that America must do more to atone for its sins. At the end of the Meeting, [redacted] set the tone by saying that even if no progress is made during the discussions, we were their guests and Iranians honored guests.

The first crisis occurred later in the evening when the Iranians insisted on removing the one crew member who was staying on the plane. They insisted that we had agreed to this at the earlier meeting. McFarland's response to this was that we pack up and leave. O'neil consulted with a young man named [redacted] who stayed in the hotel with us during the visit. He had been introduced to us as the one person to contact to solve any problems which might come up. [redacted] was very upset that we consulted with [redacted] about the plane and referred to it as a breach of security on our part. He insisted that their primary concern was our security and this was adduced as the reason we were to stay couped up on the 15th floor of the hotel. We succeeded in getting a crew member back on the plane the following day. It was clear that the Iranians only wanted to search the plane. The search seemed to satisfy them and we had no subsequent problems on this issue. [redacted] was also very upset that we had our own communications (this was reason we gave for having a man on the plane at all times). He argued that Iranian intelligence would pick up the signals and this could jeopardize the security of whole operation. He said that they would put what ever we wished at our disposal including a dedicated telex. We insisted on our own commo and he gradually backed off. The hostile attitude of the Iranians on the first day left us a little uneasy.

On Monday we were left to our own devices throughout most of the day. We finally had another meeting late in the afternoon. At this meeting, another Iranian was introduced as [redacted]. He is several cuts above the other members of the Iranian side. He is obviously well educated and very cultured. At this meeting, McFarland outlined the reasons we were in Tehran. We wished to lay the groundwork for a new political and strategic relationship between our two countries. We considered the arms supplies as an example of our good faith and we insisted on the release of the hostages as an example of their good faith. [redacted] made the appropriate noises and said that Iran was prepared to have normal relations with every country, except two, Israel and South Africa. McFarland outlined our concerns about soviet designs on Iran and told the Iranians that we would provide them with a briefing which would detail our reasons for concern. He also spoke of Saddam Hussayn's December visit to Moscow in which the Soviets promised Saddam that they would do everything to prevent Iraq from losing the war. [redacted] tried some of the usual Iranian bravado by claiming that if the soviets attacked, the Iranian soldiers would do well against them because of their devotion to shoheda. This was followed by a load of shit on shoheda. On the Iranian side [redacted] concentrated on the Hostage issue and [redacted] on the arms transactions. [redacted] said that they had already heard from their man in Lebanon who said that the group holding the hostages had insisted on several conditions as follows: (1) Israeli withdrawal from the Golan heights (2) Israeli withdrawal from Southern Lebanon (3) Removal of Lahad to East Beirut (4) freeing of the imprisoned Shi'ites in Kuwait, and (5) re-imbursement for the expenses of holding the hostages. [redacted] graciously volunteered that Iran would pay these expenses. [redacted] argued that we were not upholding our part of the deal because we had promised to bring half the parts with us (no such promise was made). He did not repeat his Sunday claim that the parts we brought were used. He insisted that we bring the rest of the parts before the release of the hostages. We stuck to the terms of the agreement. When things seemed to come unstuck, McFarland got up and said that we would leave if they couldn't uphold their end of the bargain. This upset [redacted] who said that McFarland was very firm and stern (and) and they as Iranians liked to negotiate in a more gentle (and) atmosphere. What was encouraging about Monday's meetings was that the Iranians were far more friendly than on Sunday.

By this time it was clear that McFarland was not going to meet any of the principles that had been mentioned by Gorba. McFarland then told the Iranians that they could continue negotiations with the American staff and get back to him when some kind of agreement was reached.

[redacted] made a big issue of the problems our presence in Tehran caused them. He stated that a senior official could not afford the political risk of a meeting with McFarland. He pointed out that it was Bazergan's meeting with Brezhnevsky that brought down the Bazergan government. Based on [redacted]'s comments we can take it as a certainty that Khomeini was not briefed on our presence or our mission. He would have to give his blessing before any senior official would dare to meet with a senior American official. We ran into the same problem in our discussions with the Bazergan government. Gorba also let drop that [redacted] one of the senior personages that he had supposedly arranged for us to meet was also not aware of our presence.

Tuesday was a day of marathon negotiations with the Iranians stalling for time and trying to get the most out of the American delegation. The American delegation stuck by the terms of the original agreement and insisted that after the terms of the Frankfurt agreement were met, we would meet and discuss in detail their needs and the outline of our two countries' future relations. The American delegation proposed a specific timing for a subsequent meeting. During the late afternoon it was agreed that the American team would draw up an agreement which would be discussed later in the evening. To save time O'neil began working on a translation which was later completed by he and Gorba.

During Tuesday's negotiations, all the demands of the hostages holders evaporated except for the demand for the release of the Shi'ite prisoners in Kuwait. Goode handled this part of the negotiations by firmly stating that the United States would not interfere in the internal affairs of Kuwait, particularly in an instance where Kuwaiti due legal process had been carried out. We would however seek to better the condition of Shia prisoners through the good offices of international organizations such as the Red Cross and the Red Crescent. Goode warned that as far as the well being of the Shi'ite prisoners in Kuwait is concerned, there had better not be any more terrorist activity directed at the Royal family in Kuwait.

The draft agreement was the subject of intense negotiations with the Iranians making some counter proposals which were designed to gain them more time. Talks broke off around midnight with the Iranian delegation saying it wanted to caucus. For the next two hours, heated discussions were held within the Iranian delegation. [redacted] both said that the other would be responsible if nothing comes of the negotiations. Finally, shortly before two on Wednesday morning, [redacted] asked to see McFarland. He wanted assurances that we would deliver the remaining spare parts two hours after the hostages were released, and would stay after the arrival of the spare parts to discuss additional Iranian needs. He also asked for more time to get control of the hostages. McFarland gave [redacted] until 0630 Wednesday morning to arrange for the release of the hostages. The American delegation retired to grab a couple of hours sleep knowing that we had at least out-frazzled

The first Iranian to put in an appearance Wednesday morning was [redacted] who looked totally dejected and refused to make any comment other than salam. The fact that Gorba did not show up also was a clear indication that things had not gone too well. [redacted] put in an appearance to say that they were working hard on the release, but would need more time. He also asked if we would accept two being released immediately and two more after the delivery. He was told that we would leave for the airport after finishing breakfast. We also heard from the aircrew that the plane was being refueled. This had been worrisome for the Iranians had stalled on refueling the plane. [redacted]

[redacted] The American delegation departed the hotel at about 0730. [redacted] and [redacted] accompanied the delegation to the Airport. [redacted] did not put in an appearance after his final talk with McFarland. At planeside, [redacted] asked to speak with McFarland. He asked for more time saying that arranging for the release was a very delicate and time consuming effort. McFarland told him that the plane with the spare parts was in the air, but if no word on the release of the hostages was heard by 0930, the plane would turn around and return to its base. O'neil was the last of the delegation to board the plane before take-off and he and [redacted] had one last exchange. [redacted] admitted that the hostages were not under their control. O'neil told him to get them under Iranian control. [redacted] said that they would seek to do this and that he would send Gorba to Europe to maintain contact with us. Our aircraft departed at 0900.

The above account is O'neil's outline recollection of what transpired and may differ somewhat from what others recall, but it is needed for O'neil's comments and recommendation to make sense.

COMMENTS:

1. If Gorba does appear, we must press him for positive identification of the people with whom we talked. Since [redacted] actually forget his alias during the course of one evening's discussions, we can assume that the others were using aliases, particularly since we have no traces on [redacted] may not be a true name. [redacted] is an [redacted] name, but [redacted] does not have an [redacted] accent. He is definitely from South Tehran. If [redacted] is an alias it may explain why [redacted] have not been able to identify such a person.

2. It is quite possible that the Iranian side was negotiating under the impression that we were only interested in a deal for the hostages. This would explain why they tried so hard to get us to do more in exchange for the hostages, i.e., the 20 hawk batteries and the 18 additional hipar radars. It was therefore a good idea to leave a translation of the draft agreement with them as it will give them something to chew on. McFarland issued a stern warning that we are getting fed up with overtures from them that don't pan out. We are interested in a long term political and strategic relationship, and if Iran does not pick up on this opportunity it may be years before there is another one.

3. Ramadan was certainly a factor in how the negotiations went.

UNCLASSIFIED

also the problem caused by not being able to see anyone in a position of power. The people we were negotiating with were a couple of rungs down the ladder. The fact that [redacted] breath could curl rhino hide was no help either. On the positive side was the change in the attitude of the Iranian delegation. By tuesday they were begging us to stay.

4. We also have the problem of a dishonest interlocutor. The Iranian side made it clear that they were upset with Gorba. On tuesday, [redacted] told O'neil that one of the problems in our negotiations was the fact that prior to our meeting, Gorba gave each side a different picture of the structure of the deal. O'neil made the point to [redacted] that the letters they recieved were from Gorba, not the U.S. government. We will have to lean heavily on Gorba in the future.

5. Since both Gorba and [redacted] stand to make a lot of money out of this deal, they presumably will work hard to bring it off. Gorba has very special reasons for seeing that the deal goes through. The serious problem we must address is whether the Iranians can gain control of the hostages. [redacted] This could be our real problem. The Iranians side may be most willing, but unable to gain control.

RECOMENDATION

Through hindsight it would have been better for Goode and O'neil to have gone in first to handle the initial negotiations. We should not have subjected a senior U.S. official to the indignities he was forced to endure. We have made the point to the Iranians that the draft agreement must be finally negotiated by senior responsible officials from both sides. If we have a subsequent response from the Iranian side it is strongly recommended that Goode and O'neil meet with the Iranian side somewhere in Europe to continue the negotiations.

PLEASE DELIVER THE FOLLOWING MESSAGE FROM ROBERT MCFARLANE TO ADMIRAL POINDEXTER AS SOON AS POSSIBLE.

IT WAS A USEFUL MEETING ON THE WHOLE. I SAY THAT IN THE SENSE THAT I WAS ABLE TO PRESENT A FOUNDATION BRIEF OF OUR PURPOSES AND PRIORITIES INTERNATIONALLY WITH SPECIFIC EXPLANATION OF OUR GOALS AND INTENTIONS IN THE MIDDLE EAST GENERALLY AND WITH SPECIFIC REGARD TO IRAN. WHAT REGARDING IRAN WE SOUGHT A RELATIONSHIP BASED UPON MUTUAL RESPECT FOR EACH OTHER'S SOVEREIGNTY, TERRITORIAL INTEGRITY AND INDEPENDENCE; THAT WE BELIEVED IN NON-INTERVENTION IN THE AFFAIRS OF ALL STATES (AND EXPECTED THEM TO DO THE SAME THING). I THEN DEVELOPED A BRIEF OF OUR SENSE OF THE SOVIET OBJECTIVES IN THE MIDDLE EAST WHICH ARE TO EXPAND ITS INFLUENCE SO AS TO ULTIMATELY BE IN THE POSITION TO DISRUPT THE RESOURCE FLOWS OF THE AREA AND EXPLOIT ITS GEOGRAPHY FOR SELF INTEREST. IT'S INSTRUMENTS FOR ACHIEVING THESE GOALS ARE THE RADICAL ARAB STATES.

[REDACTED] THE SOVIETS WOULD GO TO CONSIDERABLE LENGTH TO PREVENT IRAN FROM LOSING TO IRAN. FOR IF THEY DID LOSE, SOVIET CREDIBILITY WOULD BE CATASTROPHICALLY DAMAGED IN THE AREA. WE WOULD EXPECT THE SOVIETS TO GIVE IRAN ALL THE SUPPORT THEY NEEDED AND IF THIS WERE NOT ENOUGH, THEN WHEN THEY WOULD PRESSURE IRAN DIRECTLY WITH MILITARY FORCE.

I WENT ON TO EXPLAIN THAT OUR POLICY REMAINED TO SEEK AN END TO THE WAR AND NOT TO FAVOR VICTORY BY EITHER SIDE IN THEIR CASE SINCE WE WERE CONCERNED FOR WHAT THEIR LARGER PURPOSES WERE IN THE MIDDLE EAST. ON THE SURFACE THEY APPEARED TO US TO BE DETERMINED TO EXPAND THEIR INFLUENCE THROUGH THE SPREAD OF ISLAMIC FUNDAMENTALISM, RELAYING ON THE USE OF TERRORISM TO ACHIEVE THEIR PURPOSES. CONSEQUENTLY I STATED THAT THEY SHOULD UNDERSTAND THAT WE WERE NOT PREPARED TO GIVE THEM A LEVEL OF ARMS THAT WOULD ENABLE THEM TO WIN THE WAR.

THAT SAID, HOWEVER, WE WERE PREPARED TO ENTER A DIALOGUE TO DETERMINE WHERE THERE MIGHT BE COMMON INTERESTS AND THAT AFGHANISTAN APPEARED TO BE A LEADING CASE IN POINT. WE WOULD ALSO WANT TO DISCUSS NICARAGUA (AND THEIR SUPPORT FOR THE SANDINISTAS) AS WELL AS LEBANON.

FINALLY I PROPOSED A SPECIFIC WORK PROGRAM TO TRY TO INJECT A LITTLE MOMENTUM INTO THE PROCESS. AS A FIRST ITEM, I PROPOSED THAT BOTH SIDES LOWER THE RHEOTIC TOWARD THE OTHER (ALTHOUGH WE WOULD CONTINUE TO CALL IT AS WE SAW IT IF TERRORIST ACTS WERE COMMITTED BY ISRAELIS OR BY IRANIS). AS A SECOND HEATURE, I PROPOSED THAT WE COMMIT NOW TO A SUSTAINED POLITICAL DIALOGUE IN AN EFFORT TO BRIDGE DIFFERENCES WHERE POSSIBLE (EVEN THOUGH SOME DISAGREEMENTS WOULD REMAIN ETERNAL). THIS MEETING SHOULD BE SECRET BUT COULD TAKE PLACE WITHIN TWO WEEKS EITHER HERE IN TEHRAN OR IN A THIRD COUNTRY OR IN THE U.S. FINALLY I STATED THAT SINCE THE RUSSIANS WERE NO DOUBT MONITORING THE TELEPHONE CALLS THAT HAD BEEN THE BASIS OF BRINGING US TO THIS POINT, IT WOULD BE WISE TO USE MEANS OF COMMUNICATIONS AND THAT THAT COULD BE DONE VERY EASILY. I ALSO STATED THAT WHILE WE COULD NOT ENVISION PROVIDING A SIGNIFICANT LEVEL OF ARMS, THAT WE MIGHT CONSIDER HAVING A TECHNICIAN VISIT AND REMAIN ON SITE TO HELP THEM GET MORE FROM WHAT THEY HAVE (AS YOU KNOW THEY HAVE TENDED TO WANT TO BUY A NUMBER OF THINGS THAT THEY DO NOT REALLY NEED WHEN THEY COULD BE FIXING ITEMS ON HAND).

I THEN CAREFULLY RECOUNTED HOW IN THE COURSE OF THE PAST YEAR, WE HAD NEGOTIATED AGREEMENTS ONLY TO HAVE THEM ALTERED AT THE LAST MOMENT OR DELAYS INTRODUCED WHICH HAD LED TO AN EXTREMELY HIGH LEVEL OF FRUSTRATION ON THE PART OF THE PRESIDENT AND THAT HE HAD ONLY RELUCTANTLY AGREED TO THIS MEETING UNDER A VERY CLEAR AND PRECISE UNDERSTANDING OF THE ARRANGEMENTS. I THEN WENT OVER IN DETAIL WHAT THOSE ARRANGEMENTS WERE: 1. THE U.S. WOULD SEND A HIGH LEVEL DELEGATION TO TEHRAN. THEY WOULD BRING WITH THEM A PORTION OF THE ITEMS THEY HAD REQUESTED AND PAID FOR (WHICH WE HAD DONE). 2. UPON OUR ARRIVAL, THEY HAD AGREED TO SECURE THE RELEASE OF THE HOSTAGES PROMPTLY. 3. UPON RELEASE OF THE HOSTAGES TO OUR CUSTODY, WE WOULD CALL FORWARD THE BALANCE OF ITEMS THAT HAD BEEN PAID FOR AND THOSE THAT HAD NOT BEEN PAID FOR WOULD BE DISPATCHED AS SOON AS PAYMENT HAD BEEN RECEIVED.

AT THIS POINT HE BECAME SOMEWHAT AGITATED WANTING TO KNOW JUST WHO HAD AGREED TO THESE TERMS. (I FINGERED GORBA AND [REDACTED]) HE STATED THAT THESE WERE NOT THE TERMS AS HE UNDERSTOOD THEM. THE BASIC DIFFERENCE WAS THAT THEY EXPECTED ALL DELIVERIES TO OCCUR BEFORE ANY RELEASE TOOK PLACE. I STATED FIRMLY THAT WHILE MISUNDERSTANDINGS HAPPEN, I WAS CONFIDENT THAT IT HAD NOT BEEN ON OUR SIDE FOR WE HAD TWO WITNESSES TO THE AGREEMENT. MORE IMPORTANTLY, HOWEVER, REGARDLESS OF MISUNDERSTANDINGS, THERE WAS SIMPLY NO LATITUDE FOR ALTERING THE AGREEMENT AT THIS TIME. DUE TO THE TORTURED HISTORY I HAD RECOUNTED, THE PRESIDENT HAD REACHED HIS LIMIT OF TOLERANCE AND THAT THIS VISIT WAS THE LAST ATTEMPT HE WOULD MAKE. MY INSTRUCTIONS WERE TO RETURN TONIGHT TO WASHINGTON. I STRESSED THAT WE WERE PREPARED TO CALL THE OTHER AIRCRAFT FORWARD AS SOON AS WE RECEIVED WORD THAT THE HOSTAGES WERE RELEASED AND EVEN TO DO SO WITHIN A COUPLE OF DAYS AFTER WE HAD LEFT IF THEY WERE NOT RELEASED TONIGHT BUT THERE WAS NO POSSIBILITY OF CHANGING THE TERMS.

HE WAS OBVIOUSLY CONCERNED OVER THE VERY REAL POSSIBILITY THAT HIS PEOPLE (GORBA AND [REDACTED]) HAD MISLED HIM AND ASKED FOR A BREAK TO CONFER WITH HIS COLLEAGUES. I AGREED NOTING THAT I HAD TO LEAVE TONIGHT. (ACTUALLY I DON'T HAVE TO LEAVE TONIGHT BUT RECOGNIZING THAT WE HAVE BEEN HERE FOR THREE WORKING DAYS AND THEY HAVE NOT PRODUCED I WANTED TO TRY TO BUILD A LITTLE FIRE UNDER THEM.) RIGHT NOW THEY ARE UNDER THE UNDERSTANDING THAT WE WILL ALL BE LEAVING. THEN ASKED WHETHER I COULD LEAVE ANYONE BEHIND AND I SAID NO.

SEPARATELY THE REST OF OUR DELEGATIONS HAD BEEN MEETING TO GO OVER A LETTER THAT THEY HAD DRAFTED WHICH SUPPORTED TO SHOW WHAT WE HAD AGREED TO IN FRANKFURT. THIS HAD BEEN DISCUSSED LAST NIGHT AS WELL, WITH GORBA BASILALI, CONVINCING AN INTERESTINGLY UNPREDICTABLE

PLAUSIBLE TO HIM. OLLIE, CAVE AND NIK ARE ALL CONFIDENT OF THEIR GROUND BUT UNDERSTAND THE PROBABILITY THAT GORBA OR ~~CAVE~~ OR BOTH HAVE OVERSOLD THEIR ACCOMPLISHMENT.

AT THIS POINT IT IS HARD TO KNOW WHERE THIS WILL LEAD. WE HAVE HEARD NOTHING FROM BEIRUT--HAVE YOU? I TEND TO THINK WE SHOULD HOLD FIRM ON OUR INTENTION TO LEAVE AND IN FACT DO SO UNLESS WE HAVE WORD OF RELEASE IN THE NEXT 24 OR 36 HOURS. I CAN IMAGINE CIRCUMSTANCES IN WHICH IF THEY SAID TONIGHT THAT THEY GUARANTEE THE RELEASE AT A PRECISE HOUR TOMORROW WE WOULD STAND BY, BUT NOT AGREE TO ANY CHANGE IN THE TERMS OR CALL THE AIRCRAFT FORWARD.

N 1339

PLEASE CONVEY THIS TO THE PRESIDENT AND WE WILL PROCEED AS DIRECTED. MY JUDGMENT IS THAT THEY ARE IN A STATE OF GREAT UPSET, SCHIZOPHRENIC OVER THEIR WISH TO GET MORE FROM THE DEAL BUT SOBERED TO THE FACT THAT THEIR INTERLOCUTORS MAY HAVE MISLED THEM. WE ARE STAYING ENTIRELY AT ARMS LENGTH WHILE THIS PLAYS OUT. WE SHOULD HEAR SOMETHING FROM THEM BEFORE LONG. HOWEVER, WHEN YOU GET WORD ORD IT MAY BE BEST IF YOU CALL ME ON THE PRI 250--BOB EARL CAN ARRANGE IT FOR YOU.

SION IN WHICH WE ESTABLISHED THAT WE ACKNOWLEDGED THE IRANIAN REVOLUTION; HAD NO INTEREST OR INTENTION IN TRYING TO REVERSE IT; INDEED BELIEVED THAT A STR-ONG INDEPENDENT, NON-ALIGNED IRAN WAS IN THE US INTEREST BUT THAT SUCH A SITU-ATION WAS UNLIKELY TO BE POSSIBLE IN OUR JUDGMENT FOR A NUMBER OF REASONS. FI-RST, IT SEEMED CLEAR TO US THAT THE SOVIET UNION WAS PREPARED TO GO QUITE FAR TO PREVENT AN IRAQI DEFEAT IN THE WAR AND MAY WELL HAVE AMBITIONS VIS A VIS IRAN THAT WE WOULD BE PLEASED TO DISCUSS DURING OUR TALKS. FOR OUR PART, WE CAN ENVISION RESUMPTION OF A NORMAL RELATIONSHIP WITH IRAN BUT NOT UNDER CUR-RENT CIRCUMSTANCES IN WHICH THEY WORK AGAINST OUR INTERESTS WHETHER BY ~~THEIR~~ <sup>THEIR</sup> ~~OWN~~ <sup>OWN</sup> ~~OR~~ <sup>OR</sup> ~~SUPPORT~~ <sup>SUPPORT</sup> FOR SUBVERSION OF OUR INTERESTS IN NICARAGUA AND ELSEWHERE.

THEIR RESPONSE TO ALL THIS WAS ON THE WHOLE EXPRESSED IN A SPIRIT OF GOOD WILL.
"WE ARE OPEN TO A STABLE RELATIONSHIP WITH THE U.S. BUT IT WILL NOT BE EASY TO OVERCOME A BITTER HISTORY ETC ETC" BUT IN A LARGER SENSE THE CENTRAL M-ESSAGE TO US WAS NOW UNCERTAIN, FEARFUL AND TIMID THESE THIRD AND FOURTH LEVEL
OFFICIALS WERE. FURTHER, IT HAS BECOME MORE AND MORE CLEAR THAT WHILE GORBA-HAS BROUGHT US TO THE BEGINNING OF A DIALOGUE WITH THE SOI, HE HAS DONE IT WITH CONSIDERABLE HYPERBOLE, OCCASIONAL LIES AND DISSEMBLING. OUR INTERLOCUTO-RS' DEFENSIVENESS WAS EXPRESSED THROUGH A DIATRIBE ABOUT HOW WE HADN'T BROUGHT ENOUGH SUPPLIES AND THUS WERE ACTING IN BAD FAITH. THIS WAS EASILY REBUTED AND THEY WERE PUT ON THE DEFENSIVE REGARDING THEIR FAILURE TO PRODUCE ON THE HOSTAGES BUT IT MADE CLEAR THE NEED TO GET BEYOND THEIR LEVEL IF WE ARE TO DO ANY SERIOUS BUSINESS HERE. THE MEETING ENDED ON A HARMONIOUS NOTE. THEY AS-KED THAT WE PROPOSE AN AGENDA FOR TODAY'S MEETINGS. WE DID SO LAST NIGHT; BAS-ICALLY AN ASSOCIATED STATEMENT OF THE TWO SIDES. I REMEMBER THESE POINTS:

THIS MORNING, AFTER APPARENTLY CONSIDERABLE INTERNAL TO AND FRO ON THEIR SIDE [REDACTED] WAS DISPATCHED TO APOLOGIZE AND TO SAY THAT THEY WANTED THE MEETINGS TO SUCCEED. (LATE ENTRY: BEGINNING WITH OUR ARRIVAL AND FREQUENTLY SINCE. GORBA HAS CONTINUED TO SAY "THE HOSTAGES WILL BE RELEASED AND THINGS ARE GOING IN THE RIGHT DIRECTION AND DON'T WORRY" AND OTHER RHETORICAL IRRELEVANCIES.) [REDACTED] ALSO SAID THAT THEIR LEADERS HAD DESIGNATED AN OFFICIAL WITH HIGHER AUTHORITY THAN THEY TO COME TO MEET WITH US THIS AFTERNOON (MONDAY). I MADE CLEAR THAT IF HE WAS COMING TO SPEND NEEDLESS TIME DISCUSSING THE SUFFLIES OF OTHER FORMS OF NIGGLING THAT HE COULD DO SO WITH THE STAFF.

WE ARRIVED AT ABOUT 9:45 TONIGHT AND LASTED UNTIL JUST ABOUT 1:45 TUESDAY MORNING, AS IT TURNED OUT THIS MAN NAMED [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] WAS A CONSIDERABLE CUT ABOVE THE BUSH LEAGUERS WE HAD BEEN DEALING WITH. IN THE COURSE OF THE 4 HOUR MEETING IT BECAME EVIDENT THAT THE THREE IRANIAN LEADERS--RAFSANJANI, MUSAVI (PRIME MINISTER), AND PHAMENEI (PRESIDENT) ARE EACH TRAUMATIZED BY THE RECOLLECTION THAT AFTER BAZARGAN MET WITH BREZINEVSKI IN THE SPRING OF 1980, HE WAS DEPOSED (SO SAYING WAS POPULAR SENTIMENT AGAINST DOING BUSINESS WITH THE GREAT SATAN). TODAY THE FORCE OF EVENTS AND SELF INTEREST HAS BROUGHT THEM TO THE POINT OF REALIZING THAT WE DO HAVE SOME COMMON INTERESTS (VIS A VIS THE RUSSIANS, AFGHANISTAN AND PERHAPS EVEN AGAINST IRAQ) BUT THEY STILL CANNOT OVERCOME THEIR HOPE IN IMMEDIATE PROBLEM OF HOW TO TALK TO US AND STAY ALIVE. BUT FROM THE TENOR OF THIS LAST MAN [REDACTED] STATEMENTS, CONVICTION AND KNOWLEDGEABLE EXPRESSION OF WHAT IS POSSIBLE IN THE WAY OF A STABLE COOPERATIVE RELATIONSHIP, I BELIEVE WE HAVE FINALLY REACHED A COMPETENT IRANIAN OFFICIAL--AND THAT'S GOOD.

NEVERTHELESS WE CANNOT, IN MY JUDGMENT BE SMOOTHER BY SERIOUS DIALOGUE WITHOUT ACTS. THUS I DID NOT MEET WITH THIS MAN AS A FIRM SIGNAL THAT ALTHOUGH WE HAVE COME TO SET IN MOTION A SUSTAINED PROCESS, WE MUST FIRST SET ASIDE A NUMBER OF OBSTACLES--NOTABLY BY THE RELEASE OF THE HOSTAGES. THIS WAS FORCEFULLY STRESSED TO [REDACTED] TONIGHT AND WE HAVE RECEIVED THROUGHOUT THE DAY PERIODIC REAFFIRMATIONS THAT STEPS ARE IN MOTION, WE ARE WORKING ON IT, DON'T WORRY, ETC ETC ETC. WITH THAT IN MIND, WHEN HE COMES BACK TOMORROW TO GO DISCUSS THE AGENDA, I INTEND TO HAVE HIM MEET WITH THE STAFF WITH PERHAPS AN INTERVIEWING SUMMONS FOR HIM.

TO COME VISIT WITH ME TO TRY TO SET SOME SPECIFIC MILESTONES FOR MOVING AHEAD. THESE WOULD INCLUDE: 1. AN END TO THE EXTREME RHETORIC ON BOTH SIDES (ALTHOUGH WE WILL CALL IT AT IT IS IF THERE IS A RECURRENCE OF TERRORISM AGAINST US) 2. THE ESTABLISHMENT OF A COMMUNICATIONS CAPABILITY BETWEEN US FULL TIME AS SOON POSSIBLE. 3. THE POSITIONING ON THE GROUND HERE A TECHNICAL EXPERT TO GET US AWAY FROM THESE ENDLESS EXCHANGES OF REQUESTS FOR ITEMS THEY DON'T NEED.

WITH REGARD TO THE HOSTAGES WE HAVE AND WILL CONTINUE TO MAKE CLEAR THAT THEIR RELEASE IS THE SINE QUA NON TO ANY FURTHER STEPS BETWEEN US. AND IF THAT HAS NOT HAPPENED BY TOMORROW NIGHT, THEY ARE AWARE THAT WE WILL LEAVE AND THAT THE BALANCE OF THIS SHIPMENT WILL NOT BE DELIVERED NOR WILL ANV [REDACTED] BE CONSIDERED.

AS TO MY JUDGMENT ON WHERE WE STAND, IT SEEMS CLEAR THAT WE ARE DEALING WITH PEOPLE AT THE TOP WHO: 1. UNDERSTAND THAT THEY HAVE AN IMPORTANT INTEREST

IN ORDER TO ESTABLISH A DIALOGUE THAT LEADS TO A MEASURE OF COOPERATION WITH

1. U.S. 2. 1-41 DOING SO REQUIRES THAT THEY DELIVER ON CERTAIN KINDS OF BEHAVIOR
3. E.G. RELEASE OF THE HOSTAGES AND NO FURTHER TERRORIST ACTS AGAINST U.S. 3. 4
5. ARE VERY FEARFUL FOR THEIR OWN VULNERABILITY TO FACTIONAL ATTACK IF THEY ARE
6. DISCOVERED IN THIS DIALOGUE BEFORE THEY CAN CONDITION THE PEOPLE TO A DIFFERENT
7. PERCEPTION OF THE U.S. 4. ARE TRYING TO RUN A COUNTRY WITH ALMOST NO COMPETENT
8. OFFICIALS BELOW THE VERY TOP AND NEED HELP.

9. SO WE ARE ON THE WAY TO SOMETHING THAT CAN BECOME A TRULY STRATEGIC GAIN FOR
10. US AT THE EXPENSE OF THE SOVIETS. BUT IT IS GOING TO BE PAINFULLY SLOW. AS WE
11. PROCEED WE CANNOT BE GULLED BY PROMISES OF WHAT WILL HAPPEN TOMORROW--AT BEST
12. THEY REALLY ARE RUG MERCHANTS. BUT LITTLE BY LITTLE WE CAN MAKE PROGRESS
13. BECAUSE IT IS A MATTER OF SELF INTEREST FOR BOTH OF US TO DO SO.

14. I WILL GIVE YOU A MORE THOUGHTFUL FILL TOMORROW AFTER OUR MEETINGS--IT IS NOW
15. 3:35 A.M. LOCAL. I FEEL THAT WE HAVE ENTERED A SENSIBLE PROCESS AND FINALLY
16. GOTTEN A COMPETENT INTERLOCUTOR ON THE OTHER SIDE. IF YOU HAVE ANY SPECIAL

18. BEFORE WE MEET TOMORROW PLEASE LET ME KNOW. "HOPE YOU HAD A NICE WEEKEND. YOU

North stated that "we are confused and concerned. We have tried for months to come to a point where we could talk government-to-government. Some in our government opposed. McFarlane favored. I was convinced that necessary arrangements had been made. We received President Reagan's permission to proceed. We have now been here for over a day and no one will talk with us. Where are we going? Nothing is happening." (S)

██████████ replied that he wondered "why we came to this situation. We were both happy last night. Why are you now confused? We are working to make things happen. We have similar problems with our people, but don't see any insurmountable problems. I understand McFarlane is unhappy about something. I want to see McFarlane." (S)

North spoke privately with McFarlane who agreed to see ██████████ and ██████████ at 3:30. The meeting resumed at 3:30 with McFarlane. ██████████ stated he is at McFarlane's service to solve his problems. "I want to remove obstacles. Sorry. I want to solve problems, misunderstandings, so they won't be repeated." (S)

McFarlane said he was pleased to hear that [redacted] was committed to solving problems. "My purpose in coming was to establish a basis of trust and after that to address important problems. Before coming, my President and I believed preliminary problems affecting mutual trust were resolved by the staff. On your part, bringing about the release of hostages. On our part, providing some defensive supplies. But upon arriving, I learned that the steps had not been taken by your government. That is disappointing. The more important purpose is to share with your Ministers how to restore a basis of trust between us. There are crucial matters related to the Soviet Union, Afghanistan and Iraq that we should discuss. But we cannot begin to address these matters until preliminary problems are solved. Perhaps your government is not ready to deal with these larger issues. Maybe we should wait for another day. But I must depart tomorrow night. I would like to meet with your Ministers. But I cannot if preliminary problems have not been solved. I have no more to say." (S)

[redacted] said, "We seem to be moving in a positive direction. I hope we will overcome these problems. Yesterday we mentioned the Air Force problem. We are only concerned over leakage. There is no problem sending someone to the plane whenever they need to. We thought it understandable that you would go back and forth to communicate. On top of everything else, you are our guest and we respect our guest on top of all else. The delay at the airport was due to your early arrival. Our main problem is that we cannot inform staffs. Regarding your gifts, we held them for security reasons. We will bring them back now, same as passports. The delay is due to the difficult effort needed to make everything work out. At 4:00 p.m., a gentleman with higher authority will be here." (S)

McFarlane repeated that "there are important things to discuss about the future. But this entire visit will surely provide us with indications of your commitment and good faith. So far the experience has not been a happy one. I am here to deal with larger problems. As soon as problems you are working on are solved, I am prepared to meet with your Ministers. No other meetings are necessary." (S)

[redacted] said he had no authority to decide on these matters. The important authority will arrive at 4:00. McFarlane said he would not meet this person. He came to meet with Ministers. The staff can meet this other person. (S)

[redacted] argued that the Iranians were having problems trying to arrange a Ministerial meeting. "We have to build up to that stage." (S)

McFarlane said he did not want to interfere with [REDACTED] problems. "Work with my staff." (S)

[REDACTED] said his government had now appointed a high authority to follow up. This will help to open the stage. (S)

McFarlane expressed his great disappointment. "We understand it takes time to make a decision to renew a dialogue with the U.S. But I must return to Washington tomorrow night. The preliminary problem in Lebanon must be overcome. I hope your Minister will come to my country next year. He will be received by my President. As I am a Minister, I expect to meet with decision-makers. Otherwise, you can work with my staff." (S)

[REDACTED] said at the start of relations, there are always misunderstandings. (S)

McFarlane agreed, wishing the Iranians "good luck." (S)

The meeting ended at 4:00 p.m.

[REDACTED] said he was very pleased to welcome the delegation in Tehran. (S)

North stated that "we have a great opportunity to establish a relationship between our countries. There is a long history of unfortunate relations which cannot be forgotten in a minute. Men of good will have a chance to build a bridge of confidence. We may be able to work toward a common goal. Hope you've seen the proposed agenda. It provides a basis for discussion between our leaders. There is a technical agenda as well. All contribute to this great opportunity. I explained our respective commitments and the process to the President. Perhaps we came prematurely, with our hopes too high. Our hope was to remove certain hurdles to a better relationship. We understand it is hard for both our countries. But we have acted in good faith. The key is in your hands. It is not easy to turn that key. Misunderstandings have occurred. We have put them aside." ██████████ said "you did a great job coming here given the state of relations between us. I would be surprised if little problems did not come up. There is a Persian saying: Patience will bring you victory -- they are old friends. Without patience, we won't reach anything. Politicians must understand this." (S)

North thanked ██████████ noting that this shows the value of being able to talk. "There are factions in our governments that don't want something like this to succeed. This is why McFarlane grew angry when things didn't take place as I suggested they would. He took a risk urging our President to do this. There is great opposition to this project. We have to be able to show progress, not for personal reasons, but for the future. This is not a deal of weapons for release of the hostages. It has to do with what we see regarding Soviet intentions in the region. We accept the Iranian revolution and respect your sovereignty. Some people want to ensure that our countries find a common foundation for the future." (S)

North continued that there are areas of agreement and disagreement. "What we had hoped was to agree on the direction for a dialogue between Iran and the U.S. Political decisions will be required. We may not agree this week or year. But this process must begin. It can begin in total secrecy, with certain non-political actions." (S)

██████████ asked whether the U.S. can keep a secret? (S)

North said "We will try. But one of the greatest liabilities is a lack of secure communications." (S)

Nir said there are ideas on this problem. It is a subject for technical discussions. (S)

North offered to show the Iranians a device. "We can secretly put someone here. We know the Soviets are trying to find out what we are up to. We know the Soviets know a little bit about this and are trying to find out more. They will make a major effort to expose us. Our major hope is to pacify this opposition through technical measures. If your government can cause the release of the Americans held in Beirut, 10 hours after they are released, aircraft will arrive with HAWK missile parts. Within 10 days of a deposit, two radars will be delivered. After that delivery, we would like to have our logistics and technical experts sit down with your experts to make a good determination of what is needed. We need a technical survey. It must be done very secretly. However, if we go home without setting aside obstacles, there will be new obstacles." (S)

SECRET/SENSITIVEUNCLASSIFIED

3

[REDACTED] asked which obstacles? (S)

North replied, "The release of the U.S. citizens. You said it was difficult for us to come here. We also know it was difficult for you to invite us." (S)

Nir said that the back and forth on arms has tested the patience of the President. Hostage release is important as demonstration of Iranian influence and good will. (S)

[REDACTED] asked to hear about the U.S. perception of the Soviet threat. (S)

Teicher summarized the Soviet military posture and threat around Iran. There are 26 divisions. The military districts in the Trans Caucasus have been reorganized and improved. Exercise activity has intensified with respect to military action against Iran. The Soviets are increasing the frequency of their cross-border strikes into Pakistan and occasionally Iran, while initiating a terror campaign in Pakistan. He stressed the importance of beginning a dialogue on the Soviet Union for both Iran and the U.S. (S)

[REDACTED] said, "there are training camps for Mujhadeen in Iran. Weapons and logistics support are provided. We are ready to send troops into Afghanistan. The Russians already complain about Iranian bullets killing Russians." (S)

North asked it if would help to provide the Mujhadeen with TOWs? (S)

[REDACTED] said the T-72 is not the best weapon against the Mujhadeen. Gas, napalm, and other criminal actions are their biggest problem. One million innocent victims. "Primary difficulty is not TOWs, though, we can cooperate with you in this area. The chemical warfare equipment is too developed. We need help curing wounded. Many die due to lack of first aid. Do you have anything more to say about Russians?" (S)

Cave said we have eight hours worth of briefing materials. (S)

[REDACTED] said he was ready for a detailed intelligence briefing, and agreed to the agenda without change. "We are ready to listen in all areas. Though we know we won't agree in every area, we will agree on some subjects. We have to bring up some subjects from the past, around the revolution. We don't need to discuss what came before. We believe that the United States Government from 1356 (one year before the revolution) made mistakes against all peoples. Our own belief is that our revolution is greater than the French or Russian Revolutions. There have been more changes. Today we feel many in the third world are thinking as revolutionaries like us." (S)

"You see many pictures of Khomeini in the Afghan trenches," [redacted] continued. "He is their leader. We see the Imam's picture in South Africa, Lebanon, and West Africa. There are protests in Marrakesh. We didn't send this picture in the mail. We have no relations with Morocco that would allow us to give them the Imam's picture. The influence of this revolution has passed to many Moslems. Islamic countries express themselves honestly. But there is bad propaganda against us in America and Europe. We have been victimized by more terrorism than anyone else. The President, Prime Minister, Minister of Justice, 10 percent of Parliament, clerics, and innocent, have all been killed by terror. What the Afghans are doing is not terrorism. But we don't call action in South Lebanon against Israel terror." (S)

"We are against kidnapping," [redacted] said. "What happened here was exceptional. Because of one exceptional act we should not be considered terrorists. When we turn to the subject of our relations, there are many serious things to say. We saw past U.S. leadership trying to destroy all the bridges of confidence. We did not start confronting you. This was not the clergy, army, or party. It was the people. In such a revolution, there is no law and order. Not one drop of American blood was spilled one year after the revolution. American military advisers took all their belongings, as well as things they should not have taken. The memoirs of Ambassador Sullivan show it was a mass revolution. But the U.S. supported Bakhtiar, who confronted us harshly. We do not accept that. We did not see you sitting alone doing nothing. If there is only one other country in the world against the Soviets, it is Iran. We have a famous saying: Enemy of your enemy is your friend. You don't see it this way. Because we are neither east nor west, you are both pulling us. Neither the U.S. nor the Soviet Union likes independent states." (S)

[redacted] said, "I am sorry to be so harsh. But I need to be frank and candid to overcome differences. We have the same problem that you have. Some here oppose relations with the U.S. I am happy to hear you believe in an independent sovereign Iran. We are hopeful that all American moves will be to support this dialogue. But we feel the whole world is trying to weaken us. We feel and see the Russian danger much more than you. You see the threat with high technology. We feel it, touch it, see it. It is not easy to sleep next to an elephant that you have wounded. To weaken Iran does not mean the Soviets want Iran. It means they want to reach the warm waters of the Gulf. Our Gulf neighbors know this. We share thousands of kilometers of land and water border. If we are weakened, you can forecast what will happen." (S)

After a pause, [REDACTED] continued, "When we accepted your team with McFarlane, it symbolized a new political development here. But there has been a misunderstanding. When we accepted his visit, it did not mean a direct dialogue would occur on the spot. It is too early at this stage." (S)

The discussion adjourned for a watermelon break. Detailed discussion resumed over difficulty of spare parts delivery. [REDACTED] said he would try to arrange for an Iranian 747. (S)

[REDACTED] resumed the discussion of bilateral relations. "Our relations are dark. They are very bad. Maybe you don't like to hear it, but I must be outspoken. The Iranians are bitter. Many Iranians call America the Great Satan. The first revolutionary government fell because of one meeting with Brzezinski. As a government, we don't want to be crushed tomorrow. We want to stay in power and solve these problems between us. We should not insist on special issues or a Ministerial meeting. There was no agreement that when McFarlane led the team it would lead to Ministerial meetings. Let us turn the key in a way that will work. We don't see the release of hostages as the key. You all must know that establishing this dialogue is the greatest challenge. China, Russia, Lebanon are easy. If you wanted formal meetings, McFarlane would have been received differently." (S)

North stated that he had told McFarlane that he would meet Speaker Rafsanjani, Prime Minister Mousavi, and President Khomeini. "I was told this would happen," North said. McFarlane and Kissinger made three trips to China to set up meetings for the President. (S)

[REDACTED] asked why was McFarlane promised there would be Ministerial meetings? (S)

North repeated that Ghorbanifar, in George Cave's presence, had stated that the U.S. team would meet with the senior leadership. (S)

[REDACTED] interjected that it had been previously agreed that North would come to Tehran to make arrangements and set the agenda. But North did not come. "We did not mention McFarlane. The last phone call did not mention Ministerial meetings. We did not agree to such meetings for McFarlane. We keep our word." (S)

██████████ said the Iranian side wants to solve the whole problem. "Iran does not just want to discuss spare parts. I want to state clearly, we do not encourage terror. We are not involved in terror. Even the Imam officially condemned skyjacking. We accept that we have influence in Lebanon. Many Islamic groups in Lebanon respect the revolution. We sent a man to Lebanon. We are very hopeful that we can help you and solve this problem. By solving this problem we strengthen you in the White House. We are waiting for an answer. As we promised, we will make every effort. We are working right now. We hope to get you news about the situation tomorrow. We will finish the job without waiting for the other parts. Regarding the agenda, we are willing to discuss all the items you proposed, especially where we have a mutual interest. Afghanistan, the Soviets, Iran-Iraq War, Lebanon. We are ready to discuss. We have some objections to your positions on some of these issues. I have been appointed to represent Iran in this dialogue. I hope this will be a good start." (S)

North asked whether ██████████ thought it was possible to convince those who hold the Americans to release them? (S)

"I answered you, ██████████ replied. "They're difficult to deal with. But anything we start we are hopeful about." (S)

North said if that succeeds, the other aircraft and other things would be delivered. "Can a secret meeting be arranged with McFarlane and your leaders?" (S)

██████████ said he would have to wait or come back. "You can be sure that this will be conveyed. But 10 days is so early. We believe that after the hostages are free and the deliveries completed, there will need to be more positive steps." (S)

North argued that he did not believe we should further the relationship with give and take. ██████████ got bad advice. Some of the parts Iran asked for it does not need. "Why do you need twenty radars? You should fix your radars rather than buy new ones." (S)

Nir said, "we need to deliver a system that would allow both sides to exchange technical data, advice, and information. A long-term system is required. Such a development can only be agreed at the top." (S)

██████████ said Nir was right. But North said the U.S. already knows what is needed. (S)

██████████ said Iran worries about the Russians. "They have missiles that can reach Tehran, as well as high altitude jets. You can't compare quality and quantity of our weapons. But the will of the Iranian people is greater than the Soviet people. I myself have a sister with two sons who were martyred in the war. One body was not even found. Two others are handicapped. All four were volunteers. I have a young brother who was not accepted as a volunteer. He took his older brother's ID when he returned from Ahwaz. Martyrdom is great. We congratulate the family of martyrs with congratulations and sorrow. During Ramazan we ask God to let us be a martyr if we are to die. Ramazan is the night of fate and power. Russians sell their rifles and prisoners for cash. Such a Russian can't fight an Iranian. But if we try to get such technology to strike them they will not fight. Islam tells us to be strong to prepare to fight. Millions of Soviet Moslems listen to our influence. Many believe the Imam is their leader, not Gorbachev. They are real Moslems. Secret groups in the Soviet Union print the Koran and distribute it. Their heart is on this side of the border. If we put aside nuclear power, we don't think Russians will take advantage of Iran. Of course everything is possible with these people."

██████████ continued, "We appreciate and want to discuss everything with you. There is $2.5 billion deal. No one knows what it is. Rafsanjani said officially Iran is ready to buy weapons from America. This was a very positive statement. We really find more confidence and trust in our discussions. We hope in this way we can have a general dialogue before we come to the technical level. We want TOWs, especially with technicians. Easier to operate than MILAN. We would appreciate your advice on F-14/phoenix and harpoon missiles. You know how our people face you in public. When the spare parts come on a large-scale, the public will naturally know where they come from: The Air Force, land forces, Pasdarans will see. But they don't need to know about the dialogue, etc. Naturally, after some of this movement, our leaders could meet and accept this change officially. We rule on the basis of the people. We respect our people's will. This is our policy. The people hear the Parliament. Three sessions a week. We have to prepare the people for such a change. Step by step. We need to prepare the nation. Meetings between U.S. and Iranian leaders will take place publicly in this context. If you are serious about solving problems, I am sure official trips and high-level meetings will take place. The Imam has said we are ready to establish relations with all the world except Israel. But you have to remove the obstacles. This is why we are ready to discuss the agenda as you gave it with some changes. Speed up what has been agreed. You are a real superpower. I hope you don't mind being a superpower. You have much more capability. A few 747s can carry a lot in one day. We would be very pleased to discuss our specific needs." (S)

Teicher asked why the meetings cannot take place now. "Rafsanjani has acted and spoken in a way that indicates Iran could benefit from a dialogue. [redacted] just stated that the Imam said Iran is ready to establish relations with all the world except Israel. What is the problem?" (S)

[redacted] explained that the leadership is affected by people and influences people. It is an interactive condition. "It's not whatever the Imam says. His word is accepted because he talks from the heart of the people. This is why the leadership of Iran is not something dogmatic. It is not a dictatorship, religious or otherwise. The leadership depends on wisdom of public opinion. After death of Brezhnev, Iran sent a delegation. The leadership was attacked by the nation for this act. No one went out to Chernenko's funeral. If you are serious, everything can be solved." (S)

North said, "The U.S. wants to help Iran so others won't attack it. We need to work to broaden this understanding. I will urge McFarlane to meet with [redacted]. He doesn't always take my advice. Such is the fate of all advisors." North also asked the Iranian delegation to consider whether Iran would want the U.S. Government to express appreciation to Iran if four Americans go free. (S)

[redacted] said, "Understanding can lead to action." (S)

[redacted] proposed reconvening at 10:00 a.m. on May 27 to review the agenda. "We should keep the Iranian experts out for now to keep the numbers small. Let us keep it political. We can decide later if experts are to be included. That agenda may be different. We will decide on a framework to implement what we agree to and how to establish secure communications. That will require high-level agreement." (S)

The meeting ended at 1:50 a.m. (S)

TEP AT OPENING OF BUSINESS TUESDAY, MAY 27.

DELEGATION ARRIVED TEHRAN SUNDAY MORNING. ABSENCE OF ANYONE TO RECEIVE US FOR OVER AN HOUR AND RECURRENT EVIDENCE ~~ANXIETY~~ INEPTITUDE IN EVEN THE MOST STRAIGHTFORWARD DISCOURSE MAKES IT CLEAR THAT WE MUST TAKE A STEP BACK FROM THE HISTORY OF THE PAST 8 YEARS AND PUT OUR TASK IN A DIFFERENT LIGHT.

IT MAY BE BEST FOR US TO TRY TO PICTURE WHAT IT WOULD BE LIKE IF AFTER NUCLEAR ATTACK, A SURVIVING ~~TERRIBLE~~ VICE PRESIDENT; A RECENT GRAD STUDENT BECAME DEPUTY SECRETARY OF STATE; AND A BOOKIE BECAME THE INTERLOCUTOR FOR ALL DISCOURSE WITH FOREIGN COUNTRIES. WHILE THE PRINCIPALS ARE A CUT ABOVE THIS LEVEL OF QUALIFICATION THE INCOMPETENCE OF THE IRANIAN GOVERNMENT TO DO BUSINESS REQUIRES A REETHINKING ON OUR PART OF WHY THERE HAVE BEEN SO MANY FRUSTRATING FAILURES TO DELIVER ON THEIR PART. THE OTHER REASON FOR THE SEVERAL SNAFUS HAS BEEN THE EXTREME PARANOIA THAT DOMINATES THE THINKING OF THE POLITICAL LEADERSHIP HERE. MORE ABOUT THIS LATER. FIRST LET ME DESCRIBE THE MEETINGS THAT HAVE BEEN HELD BEFORE GIVING YOU A SENSE OF WHERE AND HOW FAST MATTERS CAN PROGRESS.

ONCE MATTERS WERE SORTED OUT AT THE AIRPORT, WE WERE MET BY GORBA ~~AND~~ TAKEN TO THE HILTON HOTEL AND INSTALLED IN THE TOP FLOOR ALONG WITH CONSIDERABLE SECURITY (CI) PEOPLE FROM THEIR SIDE. AFTER A SHORT REST WE CONVENED OUR FIRST MEETING AT 1700 LOCAL SUNDAY AFTERNOON. IT WAS A 'FOUNDATION SESSION' IN WHICH WE ESTABLISHED THAT WE ACKNOWLEDGED THE IRANIAN REVOLUTION; HAD NO INTEREST OR INTENTION IN TRYING TO REVERSE IT; INDEED BELIEVED THAT A STRONG INDEPENDENT, NON-ALIGNED IRAN WAS IN THE US INTEREST BUT THAT SUCH A SITUATION WAS UNLIKELY TO BE POSSIBLE IN OUR JUDGMENT FOR A NUMBER OF REASONS. FIRST, IT SEEMED CLEAR TO US THAT THE SOVIET UNION WAS PREPARED TO GO QUITE FAR TO PREVENT AN IRAQI DEFEAT IN THE WAR AND MAY WELL HAVE AMBITIONS VIS-A-VIS IRAN THAT WE WOULD BE PLEASSED TO DISCUSS DURING OUR TALKS. FOR OUR PART, WE CAN ENVISION RESUMPTION OF A NORMAL RELATIONSHIP WITH IRAN BUT NOT UNDER CIRCUMSTANCES IN WHICH THEY WORK AGAINST OUR INTERESTS WHETHER BY TERRORISM OR SUPPORT FOR SUBVERSION OF OUR INTERESTS IN NICARAGUA AND ELSEWHERE.

OUR INTERLOCUTORS WERE ~~REDACTED~~

D GOR

AND ONE OTHER FUNCTIONARY.

THEIR RESPONSE TO ALL THIS WAS ON THE WHOLE EXPRESSED IN A SPIRIT OF GOOD WILL. "WE ARE OPEN TO A STABLE RELATIONSHIP WITH THE U.S. BUT IT WILL NOT BE EASY TO OVERCOME A BITTER HISTORY ETC ETC" BUT IN A LARGER SENSE THE CENTRAL MESSAGE TO US WAS HOW UNCERTAIN, FEARFUL AND TIMID THESE THIRD AND FOURTH LEVEL OFFICIALS WERE. FURTHER, IT HAS BECOME MORE AND MORE CLEAR THAT WHILE GORBA HAS BROUGHT US TO THE BEGINNING OF A DIALOGUE WITH THE GOI, HE HAS DONE IT WITH CONSIDERABLE HYPERBOLE, OCCASIONAL LIES AND DISSEMPLING. OUR INTERLOCUTORS' DEFENSIVENESS WAS EXPRESSED THROUGH A DIATRIBE ABOUT HOW WE HADN'T BROUGHT ENOUGH SUPPLIES AND THUS WERE ACTING IN BAD FAITH. THIS WAS EASILY REFUTED AND THEY WERE PUT ON THE DEFENSIVE REGARDING THEIR FAILURE TO PRODUCE ON THE HOSTAGES BUT IT MADE CLEAR THE NEED TO GET BEYOND THEIR LEVEL IF WE ARE TO DO ANY SERIOUS BUSINESS HERE. THE MEETING ENDED ON A HARMONIOUS NOTE. THEY ASSURED THAT WE PROPOSE AN AGENDA FOR TODAY'S MEETINGS. WE DID SO LAST NIGHT; DAS

THIS MORNING, AFTER APPARENTLY CONSIDERABLE INTERNAL TO AND FROM THEIR SIDE [REDACTED] WAS DISPATCHED TO APOLOGIZE AND TO SAY THAT THEY WANTED THE MEETINGS TO SUCCEED. (LATE ENTRY) BEGINNING WITH OUR ARRIVAL AND FREQUENTLY, SINCE [REDACTED] BORDA HAS CONTINUED TO SAY "THE HOSTAGES WILL BE RELEASED AND THINGS ARE GOING IN THE RIGHT DIRECTION AND DON'T WORRY" AND OTHER RHETORICAL IRRELEVANCIES. [REDACTED] ALSO SAID THAT THEIR LEADERS HAD DESIGNATED AN OFFICIAL WITH HIGHER AUTHORITY THAN THEY TO COME TO MEET WITH US THIS AFTERNOON (MONDAY). I MADE CLEAR THAT IF HE WAS COMING TO SPEND NEEDLESS TIME DISCUSSING THE SUFFLIES OF OTHER FORMS OF NEGOTIATING THAT HE COULD DO SO WITH THE STAFF.

WE ARRIVED AT ABOUT 9:45 TONIGHT AND LASTED UNTIL JUST ABOUT 1:45 TUESDAY. MORNING, AS IT TURNED OUT THIS MAN NAMED [REDACTED] WAS A CONSIDERABLE CUT ABOVE THE BUSH LEAGUERS WE HAD BEEN DEALING WITH. IN THE COURSE OF THE 4 HOUR MEETING IT BECAME EVIDENT THAT THE THREE IRANIAN LEADERS--RAFSANJANI, MUSAVI (PRIME MINISTER), AND KHAMENEI (PRESIDENT) ARE EACH TRAUMATIZED BY THE RECOLLECTION THAT AFTER BAZARGAN MET WITH BREZINEVSKI IN THE SPRING OF 1980, HE WAS DEPOSED SO SILENTLY WAS POPULAR SENTIMENT AGAINST DOING BUSINESS WITH THE GREAT SATAN. TODAY I HE FORCE OF EVENTS AND SELF INTEREST HAS BROUGHT THEM TO THE POINT OF REALIZING THAT WE DO HAVE SOME COMMON INTERESTS (VIS A VIS THE RUSSIANS, AFGHANISTAN AND PERHAPS EVEN AGAINST IRAQ) BUT THEY STILL CANNOT OVERCOME THEIR HOPE IN IMMEDIATE PROBLEM OF HOW TO TALK TO US AND STAY ALIVE. BUT FROM THE TERROR OF THIS LAST MAN [REDACTED] STATEMENTS, CONVICTION AND KNOWLEDGEABLE EXPRESSION OF WHAT IS POSSIBLE IN THE WAY OF A STABLE COOPERATIVE RELATIONSHIP, I BELIEVE WE HAVE FINALLY REACHED A COMPETENT IRANIAN OFFICIAL--AND THAT'S GOOD.

NEVERTHELESS WE CANNOT, IN MY JUDGMENT BE SWOONED BY SERIOUS DIALOGUE WITHOUT ACTS. THUS I DID NOT MEET WITH THIS MAN AS A FIRM SIGNAL THAT ALTHOUGH WE HAVE COME TO SET IN MOTION A SUSTAINED PROCESS, WE MUST FIRST SET ASIDE A NUMBER OF OBSTACLES--NOTABLY BY THE RELEASE OF THE HOSTAGES. THIS WAS FORCEFULLY STRESSED [REDACTED] TONIGHT AND WE HAVE RECEIVED THROUGHOUT THE DAY PERIODIC REAFFIRMATIONS THAT STEPS ARE IN MOTION, WE ARE WORKING ON IT, DON'T WORRY, ETC ETC ETC. WITH THAT IN MIND, WHEN HE COMES BACK TOMORROW TO GO DISCUSS THE AGENDA, I INTEND TO HAVE HIM MEET WITH THE STAFF WITH PERHAPS AN INTERVIEWING SUMMONS FOR HIM.

TO COME VISIT WITH ME TO TRY TO SET SOME SPECIFIC MILESTONES FOR MOVING AHEAD. THESE WOULD INCLUDE: 1. AN END TO THE EXTREME RHETORIC ON BOTH SIDES (ALTHOUGH WE WILL CALL IT AT IT IF THERE IS A RECURRENCE OF TERRORISM AGAINST US) 2. THE ESTABLISHMENT OF A COMMUNICATIONS CAPABILITY BETWEEN US FULL TIME AS SOON POSSIBLE. 3. THE POSITIONING ON THE GROUND HERE A TECHNICAL EXPERT TO GET US AWAY FROM THESE ENDLESS EXCHANGES OF REQUESTS FOR ITEMS THEY DON'T NEED.

WITH REGARD TO THE HOSTAGES WE HAVE AND WILL CONTINUE TO MAKE CLEAR THAT THEIR RELEASE IS THE SINE QUA NON TO ANY FURTHER STEPS BETWEEN US. AND IF THAT HAS NOT HAPPENED BY TOMORROW NIGHT, THEY ARE AWARE THAT WE WILL LEAVE AND THAT THE BALANCE OF THIS SHIPMENT WILL NOT BE DELIVERED NOR WILL ANY COMMUNISTANCE BE CONSIDERED.

AS TO MY JUDGMENT ON WHERE WE STAND, IT SEEMS CLEAR THAT WE ARE DEALING WITH PEOPLE AT THE TOP WHO: 1. UNDERSTAND THAT THEY HAVE AN IMPORTANT INTEREST

HAIH 1001111

IN ORDER TO ESTABLISH A DIALOGUE THAT LEADS TO A MEASURE OF COOPERATION WITH

UNCLASSIFIED

N 1336

1. ARE DOING SO REQUIRES THAT THEY DELIVER ON CERTAIN KINDS OF BEHAVIOR
2. E.G. RELEASE OF THE HOSTAGES AND NO FURTHER TERRORIST ACTS AGAINST US. 3. ARE
4. ARE VERY FEARFUL FOR THEIR OWN VULNERABILITY TO FACTIONAL ATTACK IF THEY ARE DIS-
5. COVERED IN THIS DIALOGUE BEFORE THEY CAN CONDITION THE PEOPLE TO A DIFFERENT
6. PERCEPTION OF THE U.S. 7. ARE TRYING TO RUN A COUNTRY WITH ALMOST NO COMPETENT
8. OFFICIALS BELOW THE VERY TOP AND NEED HELP.

9. SO WE ARE ON THE WAY TO SOMETHING THAT CAN BECOME A TRULY STRATEGIC GAIN FOR
10. US AT THE EXPENSE OF THE SOVIETS. BUT IT IS GOING TO BE PAINFULLY SLOW. AS WE
11. PROCEED WE CANNOT BE GULLED BY PROMISES OF WHAT WILL HAPPEN TOMORROW--AT BEST
12. TOMORROW THEY REALLY ARE RUG HOPCHANTS. BUT LITTLE BY LITTLE WE CAN MAKE PROGRESS
13. BECAUSE IT IS A MATTER OF SELF INTEREST FOR BOTH OF US TO DO SO.

14. I WILL GIVE YOU A MORE THOUGHTFUL FILL TOMORROW AFTER OUR MEETINGS--IT IS NOW
15. 3:35 A.M. LOCAL. I FEEL THAT WE HAVE ENTERED A SENSIBLE PROCESS AND FINALLY
16. GOTTEN A COMPETENT INTERLOCUTOR ON THE OTHER SIDE. IF YOU HAVE ANY SPECIAL

North expressed the U.S. team's gratitude that discussion can be continued. He noted that he had recommended that McFarlane meet with [REDACTED] (S)

[REDACTED] said there was some news about the hostages. "We heard early. But I felt you were sleeping. There is a development which requires a decision. Our messenger in Beirut is in touch with those holding the hostages by special means. They made heavy conditions. They asked for Israel to withdraw from the Golan Heights and South Lebanon. Lahad must return to East Beirut, the prisoners in Kuwait must be freed, and all expenses paid for hostage-taking. They do not want money from the U.S. Iran must pay this money. We told them these conditions must be reduced. We can't make this work. We are negotiating. We are ready to pay for humanitarian reasons. We are negotiating other conditions. We are hopeful these negotiations will succeed." (S)

[REDACTED] complained that "only a portion of the 240 spare parts had been delivered. The rest should come. This is an important misunderstanding." (McFarlane called [REDACTED] down to his suite at this point in the discussion.) (S)

North said, "The U.S. would provide the additional items on [redacted] list to the extent we can as soon as possible if they're still made. As soon as possible relates to funding. Even with countries where we have formal military ties, our law requires prior payment." (S)

[redacted] opined that "many things are not written in law. In the same way we can finance your hostages you can find a way to finance our purchases." (S)

Teicher explained how the U.S. Government sells military equipment, especially the interaction between the Congress and the President. "Our current sales to Iran are not following normal procedures and cannot be routinized."

Nir asked whether it might be agreed that "since the U.S. Government cannot deliver without advance payment and Iran cannot pay in advance, we will examine mid-term financial arrangement possibilities, such as Ghorbanifar and oil deals?" (S)

On this note, the discussion broke up into separate lengthy corridor talks. After the Iranians departed, around noon, McFarlane stated that [redacted] understood what steps Iran must take to restore U.S. confidence. But he referred to some sort of documents or letters held by Ghorbanifar. No member of the U.S. team was aware of these letters. McFarlane had emphasized that he must shortly leave, and that an opportunity for improved relations was being wasted. McFarlane said he would draft a MEMCON of his one-on-one discussion. (S)

PLEASE DELIVER THE FOLLOWING MESSAGE FROM ROBERT MCFARLANE TO ADMIRAL POINDEXTER AS SOON AS POSSIBLE.

IT WAS A USEFUL MEETING ON THE WHOLE. I SAY THAT IN THE SENSE THAT I WAS ABLE TO PRESENT A BRIEF OF OUR PURPOSES AND PRIORITIES INTERNATIONALLY WITH SPECIFIC EXPLANATION OF OUR GOALS AND INTENTIONS IN THE MIDDLE EAST GENERALLY AND WITH SPECIFIC REGARD TO IRAN. THAT REGARDING IRAN WE SOUGHT A RELATIONSHIP BASED UPON MUTUAL RESPECT FOR EACH OTHER'S SOVEREIGNTY, TERRITORIAL INTEGRITY AND INDEPENDENCE; THAT WE BELIEVED IN NON-INTERVENTION IN THE AFFAIRS OF ALL STATES AND EXPECTED THEM TO DO THE SAME THING. I THEN DEVELOPED A BRIEF OF OUR SENSE OF THE SOVIET OBJECTIVES IN THE MIDDLE EAST WHICH ARE TO EXPAND ITS INFLUENCE SO AS TO ULTIMATELY BE IN THE POSITION TO DISRUPT THE RESOURCE FLOWS OF THE AREA AND EXPLOIT ITS GEOGRAPHY FOR SELF INTEREST. ITS INSTRUMENTS FOR ACHIEVING THESE GOALS ARE THE RADICAL ARAB STATES.

[REDACTED] THE SOVIETS WOULD GO TO CONSIDERABLE LENGTH TO PREVENT IRAN FROM LOSING TO IRAN. FOR IF THEY DID LOSE, SOVIET CREDIBILITY WOULD BE CATASTROPHICALLY DAMAGED IN THE AREA. WE WOULD EXPECT THE SOVIETS TO GIVE IRAN ALL THE SUPPORT THEY NEEDED AND IF THIS WERE NOT ENOUGH, THEN WHEN THEY WOULD PRESSURE IRAN DIRECTLY WITH MILITARY FORCE.

I WENT ON TO EXPLAIN THAT OUR POLICY REMAINED TO SEEK AN END TO THE WAR AND NOT TO FAVOR VICTORY BY EITHER SIDE. IN THEIR CASE SINCE WE WERE CONCERNED FOR WHAT THEIR LARGER PURPOSES WERE IN THE MIDDLE EAST. ON THE SURFACE THEY APPEARED TO US TO BE DETERMINED TO EXPAND THEIR INFLUENCE THROUGH THE SPREAD OF ISLAMIC FUNDAMENTALISM, RELAYING ON THE USE OF TERRORISM TO ACHIEVE THEIR PURPOSES. CONSEQUENTLY I STATED THAT THEY SHOULD UNDERSTAND THAT WE WERE NOT PREPARED TO GIVE THEM A LEVEL OF ARMS THAT WOULD ENABLE THEM TO WIN THE WAR.

THAT SAID, HOWEVER, WE WERE PREPARED TO ENTER A DIALOGUE TO DETERMINE WHERE THERE MIGHT BE COMMON INTERESTS AND THAT AFGHANISTAN APPEARED TO BE A LEADING CASE IN POINT. WE WOULD ALSO WANT TO DISCUSS NICARAGUA (AND THEIR SUPPORT FOR THE SANDINISTAS) AS WELL AS LEBANON.

FINALLY I PROPOSED A SPECIFIC WORK PROGRAM TO TRY TO INJECT A LITTLE MOMENTUM INTO THE PROCESS. AS A FIRST ITEM, I PROPOSED THAT BOTH SIDES LOWER THE RHEOTIC TOWARD THE OTHER (ALTHOUGH WE WOULD CONTINUE TO CALL IT AS WE SAW IT IF TERRORIST ACTS WERE COMMITTED BY AMERICANS BY IRANIANS). AS A SECOND MEASURE, I PROPOSED THAT WE COMMIT NOW TO A SUSTAINED POLITICAL DIALOGUE IN AN EFFORT TO BRIDGE DIFFERENCES WHERE POSSIBLE (EVEN THOUGH SOME DISAGREEMENTS WOULD REMAIN ETERNAL). THIS MEETING SHOULD BE SECRET BUT COULD TAKE PLACE WITHIN TWO WEEKS EITHER HERE IN TEHRAN OR IN A THIRD COUNTRY OR IN THE U.S. FINALLY I STATED THAT SINCE THE RUSSIANS WERE NO DOUBT MONITORING THE TELEPHONE CALLS THAT HAD BEEN THE BASIS OF BRINGING US TO THIS POINT, IT WOULD BE WISE TO USE MEANS OF COMMUNICATIONS AND THAT THAT COULD BE DONE VERY EASILY. I ALSO STATED THAT WHILE WE COULD NOT ENVISION PROVIDING A SIGNIFICANT LEVEL OF ARMS, THAT WE MIGHT CONSIDER HAVING A TECHNICIAN VISIT AND REMAIN ON SITE TO HELP THEM GET MORE FROM WHAT THEY HAVE (AS YOU KNOW THEY HAVE TENDED TO WANT TO BUY A NUMBER OF THINGS THAT THEY DO NOT REALLY NEED WHEN THEY COULD BE FIXING ITEMS ON HAND).

I THEN CAREFULLY RECOUNTED HOW IN THE COURSE OF THE PAST YEAR, WE HAD NEGOTIATED AGREEMENTS ONLY TO HAVE THEM ALTERED AT THE THE LAST MOMENT OR DELAYS IMPOSED WHICH HAD LED TO AN EXTREMELY HIGH LEVEL OF FRUSTRATION ON THE PART OF THE PRESIDENT AND THAT HE HAD ONLY RELUCTANTLY AGREED TO THIS MEETING UNDER A VERY CLEAR AND PRECISE UNDERSTANDING OF THE ARRANGEMENTS. I THEN WENT OVER IN DETAIL WHAT THOSE ARRANGEMENTS WERE: 1. THE U.S. WOULD SEND A HIGH LEVEL DELEGATION TO TEHRAN. THEY WOULD BRING WITH THEM A PORTION OF THE ITEMS THEY HAD REQUESTED AND PAID FOR (WHICH WE HAD DONE). 2. UPON OUR ARRIVAL, THEY HAD AGREED TO SECURE THE RELEASE OF THE HOSTAGES PROMPTLY. 3. UPON RELEASE OF THE HOSTAGES TO OUR CUSTODY, WE WOULD CALL FORWARD THE BALANCE OF ITEMS THAT HAD BEEN PAID FOR AND THOSE THAT HAD NOT BEEN PAID FOR WOULD BE DISPATCHED AS SOON AS PAYMENT HAD BEEN RECEIVED.

AT THIS POINT HE BECAME SOMEWHAT AGITATED WANTING TO KNOW JUST WHO HAD AGREED TO THESE TERMS. (I FINGERED GORBA AND [REDACTED]) HE STATED THAT THESE WERE NOT THE TERMS AS HE UNDERSTOOD THEM. THE BASIC DIFFERENCE WAS THAT THEY EXPECTED ALL DELIVERIES TO OCCUR BEFORE ANY RELEASE TOOK PLACE. I STATED FIRMLY THAT WHILE MISUNDERSTANDINGS HAPPEN, I WAS CONFIDENT THAT IT HAD NOT BEEN ON OUR SIDE FOR WE HAD TWO WITNESSES TO THE AGREEMENT. MORE IMPORTANTLY, HOWEVER, REGARDLESS OF MISUNDERSTANDINGS, THERE WAS SIMPLY NO LATITUDE FOR ALTERING THE AGREEMENT AT THIS TIME. DUE TO THE TORTURED HISTORY I HAD RECOUNTED, THE PRESIDENT HAD REACHED HIS LIMIT OF TOLERANCE AND THAT THIS VISIT WAS THE LAST ATTEMPT HE WOULD MAKE. MY INSTRUCTIONS WERE TO RETURN TONIGHT TO WASHINGTON. I STRESSED THAT WE WERE PREPARED TO CALL THE OTHER AIRCRAFT FORWARD AS SOON AS WE RECEIVED WORD THAT THE HOSTAGES WERE RELEASED AND EVEN TO DO SO WITHIN A COUPLE OF DAYS AFTER WE HAD LEFT IF THEY WERE NOT RELEASED TONIGHT BUT THERE WAS NO POSSIBILITY OF CHANGING THE TERMS.

HE WAS OBVIOUSLY CONCERNED OVER THE VERY REAL POSSIBILITY THAT HIS PEOPLE (GORBA AND [REDACTED]) HAD MISLED HIM AND ASKED FOR A BREAK TO CONFER WITH HIS COLLEAGUES. I AGREED NOTING THAT I HAD TO LEAVE TONIGHT. (ACTUALLY I DON'T HAVE TO LEAVE TONIGHT BUT RECOGNIZING THAT WE HAVE BEEN HERE FOR THREE WORKING DAYS AND THEY HAVE NOT PRODUCED I WANTED TO TRY TO BUILD A LITTLE FIRE UNDER THEM.) RIGHT NOW THEY ARE UNDER THE UNDERSTANDING THAT WE WILL ALL BE LEAVING. THEY ASKED WHETHER I COULD LEAVE ANYONE BEHIND AND I SAID NO.

SEPARATELY THE REST OF OUR DELEGATIONS HAD BEEN MEETING TO GO OVER A LETTER THAT THEY HAD DRAFTED WHICH SUPPORTED TO SHOW WHAT WE HAD AGREED TO IN TEHRAN. THIS HAD BEEN DISCUSSED LAST NIGHT AS WELL, WITH GURBA BASICALLY LUNYING

PLAUSIBLE TO HIM. OLLIE, CAVE AND NIK ARE ALL CONFIDENT OF THEIR GROUND BUT UNDERSTAND THE PROBABILITY THAT GORBA OR ~~CAVE~~ OR BOTH HAVE OVERSOLD THEIR ACCOMPLISHMENT.

AT THIS POINT IT IS HARD TO KNOW WHERE THIS WILL LEAD. WE HAVE HEARD NOTHING FROM BEIRUT--HAVE YOU? I TEND TO THINK WE SHOULD HOLD FIRM ON OUR INTENTION TO LEAVE AND IN FACT DO SO UNLESS WE HAVE WORD OF RELEASE IN THE NEXT 24 OR 36 HOURS. I CAN IMAGINE CIRCUMSTANCES IN WHICH IF THEY SAID TONIGHT THAT I WOULD GUARANTEE THE RELEASE AT A PRECISE HOUR TOMORROW WE WOULD STAND BY, BUT NOT AGREE TO ANY CHANGE IN THE TERMS OR CALL THE AIRCRAFT FORWARD.

PLEASE CONVEY THIS TO THE PRESIDENT AND WE WILL PROCEED AS DIRECTED. MY JUDGMENT IS THAT THEY ARE IN A STATE OF GREAT UPSET, SCHIZOPHRENIC OVER THEIR WISH TO GET HOPE FROM THE DEAL BUT SOBERED TO THE FACT THAT THEIR INTERLOCUTORS MAY HAVE MISLED THEM. WE ARE STAYING ENTIRELY AT ARMS LENGTH WHILE THIS PLAYS OUT. WE SHOULD HEAR SOMETHING FROM THEM BEFORE LONG. HOWEVER, WHEN YOU GET WORD OR IT MAY BE BEST IF YOU CALL ME ON THE PRT 250--808 EARL CAN ARRANGE IT FOR YOU.

[REDACTED] began the discussion with a report from Beirut. "The last contact with our man in Lebanon reported that he was able to eliminate three demands: the withdrawal of Israel from the Golan, South Lebanon and the transfer of Lahad to East Beirut. The people who hold the hostages believe they can solve the world's hunger problem! We will solve the money problem. The only remaining problem is Kuwait. We agreed to try to get a promise from you that they would be released in the future. The only problem is that the men here are not in agreement. These documents are in Ghorbanifar's handwriting. This is what I told you about this morning. If there has been a mistake in our agreement, it is not our fault. Maybe Ghorbanifar made a mistake. The problem is very simple. The only thing to discuss is what comes first and what comes later. The intentions of the two groups, based on what's written here, leads me to believe that agreement should be possible. I think we can come to a final agreement since you are an important person in your country. We, like you, want to solve this problem and get on with it." TS)

McFarlane said it is apparent the Iranians are making a determined effort to bring this problem to a conclusion. "I am grateful. This spirit, if it had been present in our first encounter, would have made clear we could reach some agreement. Unfortunately, we have reached this point after a year and three efforts where we thought we had an agreement. This has affected the President's view of our ability to reach an agreement. He kept trying due to his belief that there were larger problems we should turn to. This affected his faith in our ability to work together. So he was willing to try once more and he believed we had come to an agreement. But his instructions in sending me here were that if this fourth try did not achieve results it was pointless to pursue an ineffective dialogue. I can understand that there may have been misunderstandings and I don't point to any bad faith. But my President's instructions are firm: without results we are to discontinue the talks. These are very firm instructions. All the items that have been paid for are loaded and poised for release the minute the hostages are in our custody. Their prompt delivery within 10 hours is our solemn commitment. With regard to the problem raised by the captors, the Dava prisoners, it is much on our mind as it has been raised before. Our position is derived from our policy which respects all nations' judicial policies. We cannot ignore their process. I am sad to report all this. I respect what you said. I will report to my President but I cannot be optimistic." (S)

[REDACTED] proposed a slight change, "Since the the plane is loaded why not let it come. You would leave happy. The President would be happy. We have no guilt based on our understanding of the agreement. We are surprised now that it has been changed. Let the agreement be carried out. The hostages will be freed very quickly. Your President's word will be honored. If the plane arrives before tomorrow morning, the hostages will be free by noon. We do not wish to see our agreement fail at this final stage." (S)

McFarlane underscored "how much I appreciated your statement of your country's opposition to hostage-taking. Such behavior is inconsistent with your country. Bearing in mind the possible misunderstanding, can we separate the issue? As a humanitarian gesture? We delivered hundreds of weapons. You can release the hostages, advise us, and we will deliver the weapons." (S)

[REDACTED] said, "OK." "But he (presumably Rafsanjani) would like for the staffs to reach an agreement on what's been previously worked out. He wants your agreement for the staffs to work out an agreement. This will be a difficult task. Might be difficult to get it done tonight. Can you extend your stay? Or perhaps just the staff. Perhaps if we can reach agreement on this the staff can stay and complete the work?" (S)

McFarlane expressed appreciation for [REDACTED] willingness to try to work out an agreement. "I will seek the President's decision. I cannot know what he will say. But I should say in his most recent communication he pointed out I have been here three days. It should have been enough. But I will report again." (S)

[REDACTED] suggested trying to solve the problem as fast as possible. "We will try to do it in a manner that will please your President. Problems like this can only be solved at the last minute. With all the problems we have, we want to solve them in a good atmosphere. They call us liberals, but revolutionaries do not accept this. The staffs must reach a mutually acceptable solution, then the problem will be solved. Something is apparent in our letters. I am not blaming the staffs. We want to reach a new understanding." (S)

McFarlane agreed to try, while noting that "staff agreements must be approved by our leaders." (S)

The meeting ended around 6:00 p.m.

ON THIS TWENTY SEVENTH DAY OF MAY 1986 AND THE SIXTH DAY OF KHORDAD IN THE YEAR 1365, THE GOVERNMENT OF THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA AND THE GOVERNMENT OF THE ISLAMIC REPUBLIC OF IRAN, IN A SPIRIT OF MUTUAL UNDERSTANDING, AND RECOGNIZING THE IMPORTANCE OF BUILDING RESPECT, TRUST AND CONFIDENCE HEREBY AGREE TO THE FOLLOWING SEQUENCE OF STEPS DESIGNED TO LEAD TO A NEW ERA OF BI-LATERAL RELATIONS:

- (1) THE UNITED STATES GOVERNMENT WILL CAUSE A 707 AIRCRAFT TO LAUNCH FROM A NEUTRAL SITE AT 0100 IN THE MORNING TO ARRIVE IN TEHRAN, IRAN AT 1000 ON THE MORNING OF MAY 28, THE SEVENTH DAY OF KHORDAD. THIS AIRCRAFT WILL CONTAIN THE REMAINDER OF THE HAWK MISSILE PARTS PURCHASED AND PAID FOR BY THE GOVERNMENT OF IRAN, A PORTION OF WHICH WAS DELIVERED ON MAY 24.
- (2) THE IRANIAN GOVERNMENT, HAVING RECOGNIZED THE PLIGHT OF THE HOSTAGES IN THE LEBANON, AND IN THE SPIRIT OF HUMANITARIAN ASSISTANCE, AGREES TO CAUSE THE RELEASE AND SAFE RETURN OF THE LIVING AMERICAN HOSTAGES AND THE RETURN OF THE BODY OF THE DECEASED AMERICAN AND THAT THIS RELEASE WILL BE COMPLETED NOT LATER THAN 0400 TEHRAN TIME.
- (3) IT IS FURTHER AGREED BY BOTH SIDES THAT IF BY 0400 TEHRAN TIME, THE HOSTAGES ARE NOT SAFELY IN THE HANDS OF U.S. AUTHORITIES, THE AIRCRAFT WITH THE HAWK MISSILE PARTS WILL BE TURNED AROUND AND WILL NOT LAND IN IRAN AND THE U.S. DELEGATION WILL DEPART TEHRAN IMMEDIATELY. IF,

- (4) THE GOVERNMENT OF THE UNITED STATES COMMITS TO DELIVER TO BANDAR ABBAS, IRAN, TWO PHASE ONE IMPIR RADAR SETS, FULLY COMPATIBLE WITH THE HAWK MISSILE SYSTEM NOW IN THE POSSESSION OF THE IRANIAN GOVERNMENT. THIS DELIVERY TO TAKE PLACE AFTER THE ARRIVAL OF THE HOSTAGES IN U.S. CUSTODY AND WITHIN TEN DAYS AFTER THE RECEIPT OF PAYMENT THROUGH EXISTING FINANCIAL CHANNELS FOR THESE RADAR SYSTEMS. IT IS FURTHER AGREED THAT THE GOVERNMENT OF THE UNITED STATES WILL MAKE EVERY EFFORT TO LOCATE AND IDENTIFY THOSE ITEMS FROM THE ORIGINAL LIST OF 240 PARTS WHICH WERE NOT IMMEDIATELY AVAILABLE, AND TO PROVIDE THOSE AVAILABLE AS SOON AS POSSIBLE AFTER PAYMENT IS RECEIVED AND THE HOSTAGES ARE IN U.S. CUSTODY.
- (5) BOTH GOVERNMENTS AGREE TO A CONTINUATION OF A POLITICAL DIALOGUE TO BE CONDUCTED IN SECRECY UNTIL SUCH TIME AS BOTH SIDES AGREE TO MAKE SUCH A DIALOGUE PUBLIC. IT IS AGREED BY BOTH SIDES THAT THIS DIALOGUE SHALL INCLUDE DISCUSSIONS ON THE SOVIET THREAT TO IRAN, THE SITUATION IN AFGHANISTAN, NICARAGUA, AND OTHER POLITICAL TOPICS AS MAY BE MUTUALLY AGREED. DATE: May 27
 PLACE: Tehran, Iran, Independence Hotel
 Time: 9:30 p.m.

North thanked [REDACTED] for returning the passports. He also stated that the plane needs gas. (S)

[REDACTED] directed [REDACTED] to take care of it. (S)

North then presented the draft proposal for the evolution of relations, noting that "McFarlane is not pleased, but he gives Iran until 0400 to consider this proposal." [REDACTED] and his aids studied it. Their faces displayed anxiety. They each ask about the timing of deliveries. They repeatedly ask each other about the spare parts.) (S)

[REDACTED] asks "How are we supposed to free the hostages by 0400?" (S)

[REDACTED] acknowledged that they are in contact with those who hold the hostages. "We are negotiating. There is still a lot of work to do. We cannot make a final decision on when they will be released!" (S)

North said he did not understand the timing problem. "With McFarlane earlier today you told us they would be free by noon." (S)

[REDACTED] agreed he had said that earlier today. But it is now late. Our dispute is over the lack of complete agreement. What can you say about the held in Kuwait?" (S)

North proposed a statement like: "The U.S. will make every effort through and with international organizations, private individuals, religious organizations, and other third parties in an humanitarian effort to achieve the release and just and fair treatment for Shiites held in confinement, as soon as possible." The Iranians ask to think about the proposal. McFarlane and [REDACTED] meet privately. (S)

About 11:30 p.m., after more wrangling between McFarlane and [REDACTED] McFarlane concludes that they're just stringing us along. He gives the order to pack and depart. We discovered 15 minutes earlier that all day the plane was not refueled, leaving us semi-stranded. The pilot is now en route to refuel. (S)

The meeting ends at 11:40 p.m.

This is an account of the U.S. mission to Tehran from May 25 through May 28, together with some comments and observations. The U.S. team was headed by McFarland with Goode, McGrath, Miller and O'Neil making up the rest of the team. A communicator also accompanied the team on the trip into Tehran.

The team arrived in Tehran at 0830 hours on 25 May and was left to cool its collective heels for about two hours. During this period the Iranian Air force put on a show in which one by one a squadron of F-4's took off from Mehrabad airport. The planes carried no ordnance and according to the Mehrabad base commander they were flying training missions. According to Gorba, the Iranians recently received a shipment of F-4 spare parts and the flights were training flights to bring some of their pilots up to snuff. The first Iranian official to show up who was connected with this operation was [redacted] who was already known to the air crew. The base Commander [redacted] also put in an appearance and made pleasant conversation. He was also there at our departure. It is unclear how much he was cut in on he operation. Gorba showed up about half an hour after our arrival. He said that we had arrived an hour early and this was the reason there was no one at the airport to receive us. We were later told that the receiving party had gone to the military side of the base expecting us to park our plane there. Gorba told us that for security reasons we were being given the entire top floor of the Hilton Hotel, now renamed the Istiqlal (Independence). [redacted] finally arrived and after some small talk we departed for the hotel. While still at the airport, Gorba informed us that everything was going well and the Iranians had already dispatched a representative to secure the release of the hostages.

While on the plane McFarland, Goode and O'Neil rehearsed a discussion of the briefs which we would run through in the hotel for the benefit of Iranian coverage of the American delegation. In short the play acting was designed to give the brief good sourcing. We expressed our concern out loud that the Iranians would not believe the Soviet invasion plan. We worried that we could not indicate the real source of the information due to said source's sensitivity. The sensitive source, dubbed "Vladimir" by Goode was described as a Major General who had taken part in two of the war games on the invasion of Iran. O'Neil subsequently gave [redacted] a brief glance at the briefing book to whet his appetite and give them something to which they could tie their audio coverage. None of the three briefs were given.

The first substantive meeting took place late in the afternoon of 24 May. The Iranian side consisted of [redacted] a named [redacted] who was introduced [redacted] and a man named [redacted] whom Gorba described as being in their intelligence service. This initial meeting was hostile with the Iranians listing past sins of the United States etc. The meeting ended with what appeared to be little chance of any progress. Basically the American side insisted on adherence to the agreement as we understood it, and the Iranians insisting that America must do more to atone for its sins. At the end of the meeting, [redacted] set the tone by saying that even if no progress is made during the discussions, we were their guests and Iranians honored guests.

The first crisis occurred later in the evening when the Iranians insisted on removing the one crew member who was staying on the plane. They insisted that we had agreed to this at the earlier meeting. McFarland's response to this was that we pack up and leave. O'Neill consulted with a young man named [redacted] who stayed in the hotel with us during the visit. He had been introduced to us as the one person to contact to solve any problems which might come up. [redacted] was very upset that we consulted with [redacted] about the plane and referred to it as a breach of security on our part. He insisted that their primary concern was our security and this was adduced as the reason we were to stay couped up on the 15th floor of the hotel. We succeeded in getting a crew member back on the plane the following day. It was clear that the Iranians only wanted to search the plane. The search seemed to satisfy them and we had no subsequent problems on this issue. [redacted] was also very upset that we had our own communications (this was reason we gave for having a man on the plane at all times). He argued that Iranian intelligence would pick up the signals and this could jeopardize the security of whole operation. He said that they would put what ever we wished at our disposal including a dedicated telex. We insisted on our own commo and he gradually backed off. The hostile attitude of the Iranians on the first day left us a little uneasy.

On Monday we were left to our own devices throughout most of the day. We finally had another meeting late in the afternoon. At this meeting, another Iranian was introduced as [redacted]. He is several cuts above the other members of the Iranian side. He is obviously well educated and very cultured. At this meeting, McFarland outlined the reasons we were in Tehran. We wished to lay the groundwork for a new political and strategic relationship between our two countries. We considered the arms supplies as an example of our good faith and we insisted on the release of the hostages as an example of their good faith. [redacted] made the appropriate noises and said that Iran was prepared to have normal relations with every country, except two: Israel and South Africa. McFarland outlined our concerns about Soviet designs on Iran and told the Iranians that we would provide them with a briefing which would detail our reasons for concern. He also spoke of Saddam Hussayn's December visit to Moscow in which the Soviets promised Saddam that they would do everything to prevent Iraq from losing the war. [redacted] cried. Some of the usual Iranian bravado by claiming that if the Soviets attacked, the Iranian soldiers would do well against them because of their devotion to shoheda. This was followed by a load of shit on shoheda. On the Iranian side [redacted] concentrated on the Hostage issue and [redacted] on the arms transactions. [redacted] said that they had already heard from their man in Lebanon who said that the group holding the hostages had insisted on several conditions as follows: (1) Israeli withdrawal from the Golan heights (2) Israeli withdrawal from Southern Lebanon (3) Removal of Lahad to East Beirut (4) freeing of the imprisoned Shi'ites in Kuwait, and (5) re-imbursement for the expenses of holding the hostages. [redacted] graciously volunteered that Iran would pay these expenses. [redacted] argued that we were not upholding our part of the deal because we had promised to bring half the parts with us (no such promise was made). He did not repeat his Sunday claim that the parts we brought were used. He insisted that we bring the rest of the parts before the release of the hostages. We stuck to the terms of the agreement. When things seemed to come unstuck, McFarland got up and said that we would leave if they couldn't uphold their end of the bargain. This upset [redacted] who said that McFarland was very firm and stern (and-rol) and they as Iranians liked to negotiate in a more gentle (narm) atmosphere. What was encouraging about Monday's meetings was that the Iranians were far more friendly than on Sunday.

By this time it was clear that McFarland was not going to meet any of the principles that had been mentioned by Gorba. McFarland then told the Iranians that they could continue negotiations with the American staff and get back to him when some kind of agreement was reached.

[redacted] made a big issue of the problems our presence in Tehran caused them. He stated that a senior official could not afford the political risk of a meeting with McFarland. He pointed out that it was Bazergan's meeting with Brezhnevsky that brought down the Bazergan government. Based on [redacted]'s comments we can take it as a certainty that Khomeini was not briefed on our presence or our mission. He would have to give his blessing before any senior official would dare to meet with a senior American official. We ran into the same problem in our discussions with the Bazergan government. Gorba also let drop that [redacted] one of the senior personages that he had supposedly arranged for us to meet was also not aware of our presence.

Tuesday was a day of marathon negotiations with the Iranians stalling for time and trying to get the most out of the American delegation. The American delegation stuck by the terms of the original agreement and insisted that after the terms of the Frankfurt agreement were met, we would meet and discuss in detail their needs and the outline of our two countries' future relations. The American delegation proposed a specific timing for a subsequent meeting. During the late afternoon it was agreed that the American team would draw up an agreement which would be discussed later in the evening. To save time O'neil began working on a translation which was later completed by he and Gorba.

During Tuesday's negotiations, all the demands of the hostages holders evaporated except for the demand for the release of the Shi'ite prisoners in Kuwait. Goode handled this part of the negotiations by firmly stating that the United States would not interfere in the internal affairs of Kuwait, particularly in an instance where Kuwaiti due legal process had been carried out. We would however seek to better the condition of Shia prisoners through the good offices of international organizations such as the Red Cross and the Red Crescent. Goode warned that as far as the well being of the Shi'ite prisoners in Kuwait is concerned, there had better not be any more terrorist activity directed at the Royal family in Kuwait.

The draft agreement was the subject of intense negotiations with the Iranians making some counter proposals which were designed to gain them more time. Talks broke off around midnight with the Iranian delegation saying it wanted to caucus. For the next two hours, heated discussions were held within the Iranian delegation. [redacted] both said that the other would be responsible if nothing comes of the negotiations. Finally, shortly before two on Wednesday morning, [redacted] asked to see McFarland. He wanted assurances that we would deliver the remaining spare parts two hours after the hostages were released, and would stay after the arrival of the spare parts to discuss additional Iranian needs. He also asked for more time to get control of the hostages. McFarland gave [redacted] until 0630 Wednesday morning to arrange for the release of the hostages. The American delegation retired to grab a couple of hours sleep knowing that we had at least out-frazzled them.

The first Iranian to put in an appearance Wednesday morning was [redacted] who looked totally dejected and refused to make any comment other than salam. The fact that Gorba did not show up also was a clear indication that things had not gone too well. [redacted] put in an appearance to say that they were working hard on the release, but would need more time. He also asked if we would accept two being released immediately and two more after the delivery. He was told that we would leave for the airport after finishing breakfast. We also heard from the aircrew that the plane was being refueled. This had been worrisome for the Iranians had stalled on refueling the plane. [redacted]

The American delegation departed the hotel at about 0730. [redacted] and [redacted] accompanied the delegation to the Airport. [redacted] did not put in an appearance after his final talk with McFarland. At planeside, [redacted] asked to speak with McFarland. He asked for more time saying that arranging for the release was a very delicate and time consuming effort. McFarland told him that the plane with the spare parts was in the air, but if no word on the release of the hostages was heard by 0930, the plane would turn around and return to its base. O'neil was the last of the delegation to board the plane before take-off and he and [redacted] had one last exchange. [redacted] admitted that the hostages were not under their control. O'neil told him to get them under Iranian control. [redacted] said that they would seek to do this and that he would send Gorba to Europe to maintain contact with us. Our aircraft departed at 0900.

The above account is O'neil's outline recollection of what transpired and may differ somewhat from what others recall, but it is needed for O'neil's comments and recommendation to make sense.

COMMENTS:

1. If Gorba does appear, we must press him for positive identification of the people with whom we talked. Since [redacted] actually forget his alias during the course of one evening's discussions, we can assume that the others were using aliases, particularly since we have no traces of [redacted] may not be a true name. [redacted] is an [redacted] name, but [redacted] does not have an [redacted] accent. He is definitely from South Iran. If [redacted] is an alias it may explain why [redacted] have not been able to identify such a person.

2. It is quite possible that the Iranian side was negotiating under the impression that we were only interested in a deal for the hostages. This would explain why they tried so hard to get us to do more in exchange for the hostages, i.e., the 20 hawk batteries and the 18 additional hipar radars. It was therefore a good idea to leave a translation of the draft agreement with them as it will give them something to chew on. McFarland issued a stern warning that we are getting fed up with overtures from them that don't pan out. We are interested in a long term political and strategic relationship, and if Iran does not pick up on this opportunity it may be years before there is another one.

3. Ramadan was certainly a factor in how the negotiations went.

UNCLASSIFIED

also the problem caused by not being able to see anyone in a position of power. The people we were negotiating with were a couple of rungs down the ladder. The fact that [REDACTED] breath could curl rhino hide was no help either. On the positive side was the change in the attitude of the Iranian delegation. By Tuesday they were begging us to stay.

4. We also have the problem of a dishonest interlocutor. The Iranian side made it clear that they were upset with Gorba. On Tuesday, [REDACTED] told O'Neil that one of the problems in our negotiations was the fact that prior to our meeting, Gorba gave each side a different picture of the structure of the deal. O'Neil made the point to [REDACTED] that the letters they received were from Gorba, not the U.S. government. We will have to lean heavily on Gorba in the future.

5. Since both Gorba and [REDACTED] stand to make a lot of money out of this deal, they presumably will work hard to bring it off. Gorba has very special reasons for seeing that the deal goes through. The serious problem we must address is whether the Iranians can gain control of the hostages. [REDACTED]. This could be our real problem. The Iranians side may be most willing, but unable to gain control.

RECOMENDATION

Through hindsight it would have been better for Goode and O'Neil to have gone in first to handle the initial negotiations. We should not have subjected a senior U.S. official to the indignities he was forced to endure. We have made the point to the Iranians that the draft agreement must be finally negotiated by senior responsible officials from both sides. If we have a subsequent response from the Iranian side it is strongly recommended that Goode and O'Neil meet with the Iranian side somewhere in Europe to continue the negotiations.

2. It is quite possible that the Iranian side was negotiating under the impression that we were only interested in a deal for the hostages. This would explain why they tried so hard to get us to do more in exchange for the hostages, i.e., the 20 hawk batteries and the 18 additional hipar radars. It was therefore a good idea to leave a translation of the draft agreement with them as it will give them something to chew on. McFarland issued a stern warning that we are getting fed up with overtures from them that don't pan out. We are interested in a long term political and strategic relationship, and if Iran does not pick up on this opportunity it may be years before there is another one.

3. Ramadan was certainly a factor in how the negotiations went.

UNCLASSIFIED

also the problem caused by not being able to see anyone in a position of power. The people we were negotiating with were a couple of rungs down the ladder. The fact that [REDACTED] breath could curl rhino hide was no help either. On the positive side was the change in the attitude of the Iranian delegation. By tuesday they were begging us to stay.

4. We also have the problem of a dishonest interlocutor. The Iranian side made it clear that they were upset with Gorba. On tuesday, [REDACTED] told O'neil that one of the problems in our negotiations was the fact that prior to our meeting, Gorba gave each side a different picture of the structure of the deal. O'neil made the point to [REDACTED] that the letters they recieved were from Gorba, not the U.S. government. We will have to lean heavily on Gorba in the future.

5. Since both Gorba and [REDACTED] stand to make a lot of money out of this deal, they presumably will work hard to bring it off. Gorba has very special reasons for seeing that the deal goes through. The serious problem we must address is whether the Iranians can gain control of the hostages. [REDACTED] This could be our real problem. The Iranians side may be most willing, but unable to gain control.

RECOMMENDATION

Through hindsight it would have been better for Goode and O'neil to have gone in first to handle the initial negotiations. We should not have subjected a senior U.S. official to the indignities he was forced to endure. We have made the point to the Iranians that the draft agreement must be finally negotiated by senior responsible officials from both sides. If we have a subsequent response from the Iranian side it is strongly recommended that Goode and O'neil meet with the Iranian side somewhere in Europe to continue the negotiations.

O'neil called [redacted] on 13 June at 1630 in the afternoon. O'neil opened the conversation by saying that we had heard from our friend [redacted] but "our friend" had been pressing him to go through with the deal.

O'neil then asked what we should do about the situation. [redacted] replied that he did not know why we didn't complete the deal when in [redacted].

O'neil interrupted to state that he had a suggestion. We should first meet in Europe to make sure there were no misunderstandings as happened before. Then our group would go to Dubai at an agreed upon date. Upon arrival in Dubai the four boxes would be turned over, then the rest of the spares would arrive and later depending on timing the two XM Outies would arrive. We would stay until everything was delivered. [redacted] said that the meeting was in Germany was not necessary and that deal was unacceptable to them. He proposed that we arrive with the remaining 240 spares, then two hostages would be turned over when the two radars arrive, the two other hostages would be turned over.

We haggled a bit O'neil insisting on our deal and he insisting on his. O'neil suggested that meeting in Germany was necessary and [redacted] finally agreed that if really necessary he would come. He parried the request that the bald headed doctor also attend. He added that it would be very difficult to get away at this time.

When discussing the possible trip to Dubai, [redacted] suggested that it was not necessary for the chief to accompany group that comes.

Since discussion was getting nowhere, O'neil suggested that he was in position to decide on [redacted]'s insistence, and there for it best that O'neil confer with his superiors and [redacted] with his and O'neil will get back to him in one or two days. At the end [redacted] stated that it should not be that we give such importance to who does what first, once this deal is completed there are many important issues that we must discuss. He again insisted on the need of the US to demonstrate good faith.

O'neil asked if the hostages were now under their control because at one point [redacted] said that he did not know if their delegation was still in Lebanon. [redacted] hesitated to answer this one but said that they could get them. O'neil said "then they are in your hands." and [redacted] said they were (note O'neil doubts this is true).

AFTER GREETINGS:

S-WE SENT OUR FRIEND A PRICE LIST FOR THESE 240.

[REDACTED] WHEN?

S-LAST THURSDAY.

[REDACTED] THURSDAY?

S-RIGHT. IT MUST HAVE ARRIVED.

[REDACTED] IS THAT THE SAME PRICE LIST THAT HE GAVE US IN WHICH THE PRICES WERE SIX TIMES HIGHER?

S-NO. THIS IS THE BASIC PRICE FOR THE 240 ITEMS. IT DOES NOT INCLUDE TRANSPORTATION COSTS. INSURANCE, AND A FEW OTHER THINGS. JUST THE SALE PRICE.

[REDACTED] HE DIDN'T GIVE US THIS.

S-PERHAPS IT HASN'T REACHED HIM, BUT WE SENT IT LAST THURSDAY.

[REDACTED] ?YOU GAVE HIM PRICES? ((INAUDIBLE))

S-YES.

[REDACTED] HE GAVE US A PRICE LIST, BUT IT WAS NOT LAST THURSDAY. IT WAS BEFORE THAT AND WHEN WE FIGURED OUT THE PRICES, THEY WERE ABOUT SEVEN TIMES HIGHER. NOW, I DON'T KNOW WHETHER YOU'RE TALKING ABOUT THAT LIST OR SOMETHING ELSE.

S-SOMETHING ELSE. THESE PRICES THAT HE GAVE YOU INCLUDED EVERYTHING--TRANSPORTATION, ETC. WHAT I'M TALKING ABOUT IS THE PRICE FOR WHICH THE 240 WERE SOLD.

[REDACTED] SO IF YOU SENT IT THURSDAY, SHOULDN'T IT HAVE ARRIVED BY NOW?

S-IT SHOULD HAVE.

[REDACTED] I'LL GET IN TOUCH WITH HIM TONIGHT. ??IF I CAN LOCATE HIM??

S-LOOK. MR. GOODE AND I ARE IN A BAD SITUATION HERE.

[REDACTED] WHY?

S-BECAUSE THE HEAD OF OUR COMPANY IS VERY TIRED OF THIS DEAL; HE WANTS TO BREAK IT OFF.

■ WHAT?

S-WE ARE BOTH IN THE SAME TRENCH. WE'VE GOT TO BRING THIS THING TO A CONCLUSION AS SOON AS POSSIBLE.

■ ((FEW WORDS MISSED.)) MY SITUATION IS EVEN WORSE HERE. ((FEW WORDS)) NOW, IF THESE PRICES ARE LOWER, WE CAN PRESENT THIS PROPOSAL OF YOURS.

S-LOOK. THIS IS UP TO OUR FRIEND IN EUROPE.

■ CAN YOU GIVE ME THE PRICES YOURSELF?

S-I DON'T HAVE THEM.

■ WHO HAS THEM?

S-UH, ONE OF THE EMPLOYEES OF MR. GOODE SENT THEM. I HAVE NOT SEEN THEM AT ALL.

■ ??WHEN WILL THEY GET TO US((INAUDIBLE))

S-UH, THEY MUST BE IN OUR FRIEND'S HANDS NOW. YOU WILL HAVE TO ASK HIM.

■ ((INAUDIBLE))

S-HE HAS THEM. YOU WILL HAVE TO CONSULT WITH HIM.

■ ((FEW WORDS)) WE TALK WITH YOU?

S-FINE. THAT MIGHT BE POSSIBLE IN THE FUTURE. THAT'S WHAT WE SAID WHEN WE WERE TALKING WITH YOU IN DUBAI. ((TEHRAN)). WE SAID THAT IT WOULD BE BETTER IF WE APPOINTED TWO PERSONS TO BE WITH YOU ALL THE TIME FOR DIRECT COMMUNICATIONS. THEN THESE MISUNDERSTANDINGS WOULD NOT OCCUR. DO YOU REMEMBER WHEN WE SENT YOU THAT VOLKSWAGEN, THIS WAS GOOD. THE PRICE WAS VERY GOOD. THE BEST POSSIBLE PRICE.

■ LOOK. ALL I KNOW IS THAT HE SENT US A PRICE, AND WHEN WE FIGURED IT OUT IT WAS SIX TIMES HIGHER. ((FEW WORDS MISSED))

S-THE PRICES WHICH WE SENT WERE THE BASIC PRICES FOR ALL THE 240, WITHOUT TRANSPORTATION, INSURANCE, AND THINGS LIKE THAT

■ ?WITHOUT? TRANSPORTATION AND INSURANCE?

S-AND ADMINISTRATIVE COSTS, AND FOR CLEANING OFF ALL THE CRATES.

■ I COULDN'T HEAR YOU. SPEAK UP.

S-THE PRICE THAT WE SENT DID NOT INCLUDE TRANSPORTATION, INSURANCE, AND OUR FRIEND'S PROFIT.

■ FINE. YOU TELL HIM TO GIVE US THOSE PRICES SO WE CAN SEE HOW MUCH LOWER THEY ARE. IF THE PRICES ARE ACCEPTABLE, I CAN PRESENT YOUR PROPOSAL.

S-VERY GOOD. BUT I'VE GOT NOTHING TO DO WITH THIS. THIS IS BETWEEN YOU AND THAT FRIEND OF OURS.

S-FINE. YOU WILL HAVE TO SETTLE THIS WITH OUR FRIEND AS SOON AS POSSIBLE. TALK WITH HIM. IT'S GOT NOTHING TO DO WITH US. I JUST WANTED TO TELL YOU THAT THE HEAD OF OUR COMPANY HERE IS MOST UNHAPPY, AND WANTS TO CUT IT OFF.

WHO WANTS TO CUT IT OFF?

S-THE HEAD OF OUR COMPANY. HE SAYS, "IF THEY WANT THEM, THEY SHOULD BUY THEM. IF THEY DON'T WANT THEM, THEY SHOULD GET THEM SOMEPLACE ELSE."

FOR THE SAME PRICE?

S-THAT'S BETWEEN YOU AND OUR FRIEND. HE'S THE MIDDLEMAN.

((INAUDIBLE))

S-THIS LIST WHICH WE SENT CONTAINS THE PRICE FOR WHICH IT WAS SOLD TO THE MIDDLEMAN. THIS FRIEND OF OURS BOUGHT IT FROM THE MIDDLEMAN.

((INAUDIBLE))

S-WELL, UNFORTUNATELY, IN THIS INSTANCE, THERE IS NO OTHER SOLUTION. WE MUST THINK ABOUT THE FUTURE.

((FEW WORDS MISSED)) YOU WERE SUPPOSED TO GIVE US THE FACTORY PRICES. IF YOU GIVE US THIS PRICE, DON'T YOU KNOW THAT... THIS FELLOW SAYS THAT HE IS NOT TACKING ON ANYTHING. HE IS NOT USING ANY ((WORD MISSED)). HOW MUCH IS THE TOTAL PRICE?

S- THEY SAID THAT IT WAS ABOUT 45. IS THAT RIGHT?

45?

S-RIGHT. ((ONE WORD)) THE 240 AND THE TWO GHUTIS.

WITHOUT THE LOADING AND INSURANCE.

S-I DON'T KNOW. I'M JUST, I MEAN, I MEAN THE TOTAL PRICE, I MEAN THE TRANSPORTATION, AND THE TWO GHUTIS AND THE 240, AND THE INSURANCE, AND, ABOUT 45. I'M REALLY NOT INVOLVED IN THIS. IT'S ABOUT 45. RIGHT?

WAS 45 THE PRICE YOU GAVE TO HIM?

S-NO, NO. WE DID NOT GIVE THE PRICE. WE JUST AUTHORIZED THE COMPANIES TO SELL THEM TO SEVERAL MIDDLEMEN. OUR FRIEND BOUGHT THEM FROM MIDDLEMEN.

((FEW WORDS)) THE PRICE AS IT NOW IS, DID OUR FRIEND ADD TO IT OR DID YOU ((FEW WORDS))?

S- NO. WE WERE NOT OURSELVES INVOLVED IN THIS DEAL. THIS IS HOW THE TRANSACTION WAS. WE AUTHORIZED THE COMPANIES TO SELL TO SEVERAL MIDDLEMEN. THESE MIDDLEMEN SOLD TO OUR FRIEND. THIS PRICE THAT WE SENT TO OUR FRIEND IS THE PRICE THAT THE COMPANIES SOLD TO THE MIDDLEMEN.

((FEW WORDS)) DID THEY SELL IT TO OUR FRIEND?

S-NO, NO. OUR FRIEND BOUGHT IT FROM THE MIDDLEMEN.

OUR FRIEND BOUGHT IT FROM THE MIDDLEMEN.

S-YES. AND THE MIDDLEMEN BOUGHT IT FROM THE COMPANIES. WE MERELY AUTHORIZED THE SALE OF THESE 240. AND THE PRICE LIST WHICH WE SENT, IS THE PRICE FOR WHICH IT WAS SOLD TO THE MIDDLEMEN.

THE PROBLEM IS (( FEW WORDS)). I DON'T THINK THAT...

S-THAT'S WHY WE HAVE ALWAYS SAID THAT IN THE FUTURE WE MUST BE IN DIRECT CONTACT FOR THINGS LIKE THIS. IT'S EASIER AND CHEAPER.

((INAUDIBLE))

S-THIS TIME, IT HAS TO BE THIS WAY. THE HEAD OF OUR COMPANY IS VERY TIRED OF THIS. HE'S ANGRY, HE SAID, "IF THEY DON'T WANT TO DEAL, BREAK IT OFF."

LOOK. THE PROBLEM IS THE PRICE. I HAVE NOT YET BROUGHT UP THE MATTER OF YOUR PROPOSAL. THE PRICE IS AN IMPORTANT MATTER FOR US. ABOUT THE PRICE, YOU SAY THAT YOU GAVE PERMISSION TO THE MIDDLEMEN TO GO THERE AND MAKE THE PURCHASE.

S-RIGHT.

WE DIDN'T MAKE THE REQUEST OF ((FEW WORDS)); WE MADE THE REQUEST OF YOU.

S-WELL, WE HAD NO OTHER RECOURSE; IT HAD TO BE THAT WAY--FOR THE PRESENT. IN THE FUTURE WE MIGHT BE ABLE TO ARRANGE SOMETHING. BUT NOW, THE IMPORTANT THING IS, IS THERE GOING TO BE A DEAL OR NOT.

THE IMPORTANT THING FOR US NOW IS THAT THESE PRICES YOU GAVE ARE SIX TIMES THE ORIGINAL PRICES. ~~THESE PRICES ARE VERY IMPORTANT FOR US~~ IF THIS HAS AN EFFECT ON THE OUTCOME, THEY SAY, "THIS IS NOT GOOD RELATIONS TO SELL SOMETHING FOR SIX TIMES THE PRICE."

S-I CAN'T DO ANYTHING ABOUT THAT. WHAT CAN I DO ABOUT IT?

WELL, LOOK. YOU ARE THE ONE WE ARE NEGOTIATING WITH. YOU KNOW PERSIAN, AND IT IS YOU WE ARE TALKING TO.

S-BUT MY HANDS ARE TIED. THESE 240 HAVE BEEN SOLD TO SOMEONE; HE BOUGHT IT AND RESOLD IT TO OUR FRIEND. WHAT CAN I DO? IT'S BEST THAT YOU BUY THESE GOODS SOMEWHERE ELSE. THESE WERE VERY DIFFICULT....

IF WE BUY THESE...

S-CAN YOU GET ANY THEN SOMEWHERE ELSE?

((INAUDIBLE))

S-NO, NO. IT WAS A VERY DIFFICULT THING TO BUY ALL OF THESE 240, BECAUSE THEY ARE VERY SCARCE. AS YOU KNOW, SOME OF THEM WERE OUT OF STOCK.

FINE. I ACCEPT THE FACT THAT IT WAS DIFFICULT, BUT SIX OR SEVEN TIMES THE COST? THIS IS NOT RIGHT. THIS IS HAVING AN EFFECT ON THE DEAL--ON YOUR GOOD WILL THAT YOU WISH TO ESTABLISH. AN ADVERSE EFFECT. THEY ARE SAYING, "IF THEY WANT US TO DO THIS SERVICE, WHY ARE THEY CHARGING SIX TIMES THE PRICE? WE HAVE NO PROBLEM WITH OUR FRIEND THAT HE IS ASKING THIS. WE HAVE NO PROBLEM WITH HIM. WE SEE THIS AS YOUR FAULT. ((FEW WORDS.)) TELL US WHAT THE PRICE IS, WHATEVER IT IS. WE HAVE NO QUARREL WITH A 5 OR 10 PERCENT MARKUP, BUT 600 PERCENT--NO.

YES IT IS. IT'S MORE THAN THAT. IT AVERAGES OUT TO 6.15 TIMES HIGHER.

S- YOU SAID THAT YOU HAVE A MICROFICHE. HAVE YOU SENT IT TO ME.

YOU CAN GET ONE OF THOSE YOURSELF. I'LL SEND IT TO YOU. I'LL SEND IT ON A FLIGHT TOMORROW. ((PORTION MISSED.)) WE AREN'T GETTING THESE GOODS FROM HIM. WE'RE GETTING THEM FROM YOU.

S-NO. IN THIS INSTANCE, YOU ARE BUYING FROM OUR FRIEND, NOT FROM US. IT MIGHT BE THIS WAY IN THE FUTURE, BUT NOT NOW. IF THIS DEAL IS TO COME IT WILL HAVE TO BE THROUGH OUR FRIEND. AND IF THIS DEAL IS TO BE SUCCESSFUL IT HAS TO BE THROUGH OUR FRIEND. THERE IS NO OTHER WAY.

I DON'T THINK THEY WILL AGREE IF THE PRICES ARE SIX TIMES HIGHER.

S- YOU AND I ARE IN THE SAME TRENCH; YOU HAVE A PROBLEM. I HAVE A PROBLEM. THE HEAD OF OUR COMPANY IS VERY DISPLEASED WITH MR. GOODE AND ME, PARTICULARLY WITH THE DELEGATION THAT WENT TO DUBAI. THE HEAD OF OUR COMPANY IS VERY DISPLEASED WITH THE TREATMENT THERE, AND HE IS READY TO TERMINATE THE WHOLE DEAL. I HAVE MY OWN OPINION ON THE MATTER; I WOULD LIKE TO SEE GOOD RELATIONS BETWEEN OUR COMPANIES IN THE FUTURE.

SPEAK UP, SO I CAN HEAR YOU.

S- I WANT TO SEE GOOD RELATIONS BETWEEN OUR TWO COUNTRIES, BUT THIS HEAD OF OUR COMPANY IS EXTREMELY UPSET.

FINE. IF YOU WANT ((FEW WORDS)) HOW CAN WE DO ANYTHING FOR YOU WITH THESE PRICES? WE SENSE THAT THIS IS ((ONE WORD)).

S-IT IS NOT SIX TIMES HIGHER. IT IS MUCH LESS THAN THAT.

NO. BELIEVE ME THAT'S WHAT IT IS. I'M WILLING TO BET WITH YOU ON THAT.

S-FINE. BET WITH ME, BUT YOU HAVE TO SEND THIS MICROFICHE FOR US SO THAT ((FEW WORDS)) IT.

I'LL SEND IT, BUT ((FEW WORDS)).

S-WHO PREPARED THIS MICROFICHE?

THIS MICROFICHE THAT WE HAVE NOW, IN THE MARKET... ((STARTS OVER)) THESE PRICES THAT YOU GAVE US ARE BLACK MARKET PRICES. ON THE BLACK MARKET THEY PAY PRICES THAT ARE SEVERAL TIMES HIGHER. AND IF WE BOUGHT THESE THINGS ON THE BLACK MARKET, WE WOULDN'T HAVE TO PERFORM ANY SERVICES. SO WE WILL BUY FROM THE BLACK MARKET JUST AS WE HAVE UP TO NOW.

S-((FEW WORDS)) BUY FOR LESS ON THE BLACK MARKET?

NO. THESE PRICES THAT YOU HAVE GIVEN ARE BLACK MARKET PRICES, NOT FAIR PRICES. I WANT TO PROVE HERE THAT IF WE DO THIS SERVICE, ((FEW WORDS)) YOU WILL GIVE A POSITIVE ANSWER TO OUR ((FEW WORDS)). MY REPUTATION IS BEING RUINED BY THIS THING. I WON'T HAVE ANY POWER TO DO ANYTHING FOR YOU ANY MORE.

S-SOME OF THIS IS NOT IN MY HANDS. WE MUST UNDERSTAND THAT...

WE ARE WILLING TO BUY THIS, BUT FOR A REALISTIC PRICE, NOT FOR SEVERAL TIMES HIGHER. WE EXPECT YOU TO SELL AT THE CORRECT PRICE.

S-FINE. THE PRICE... THAT'S RIGHT. BUT IN THIS DEAL, MONEY IS NOT AN IMPORTANT THING FOR US. THE IMPORTANT THING IS THE RELATIONS BETWEEN THE TWO COMPANIES.

((FEW WORDS)) YOU INCREASE IT?

S-YOU HAVE TALKED WITH OUR FRIEND ABOUT THIS. WHAT DID HE SAY?

HE SAID, "THIS IS THE PRICE THEY GAVE ME." ((SENTENCE MISSED)). IS HE TELLING THE TRUTH, OR NOT?

S-THAT'S RIGHT. I MEAN, WE SENT HIM THE PRICE OF THE 240. NOT INCLUDING THE TRANSPORTATION, INSURANCE, ETC, AND HE'LL HAVE TO TALK WITH YOU ABOUT IT MUST HAVE REACHED HIM.

WHEN DID YOU SEND IT FOR HIM? THURSDAY?

S- RIGHT.

DID YOU SEND IT BY MAIL.

S- WE SENT IT BY ONE OF THESE COURIER SERVICES WHICH DELIVERS IN ONE OR TWO DAYS.

SO FRIDAY, SATURDAY.... I'LL CALL HIM TONIGHT AND SEE WHAT THE PRICE IS YOU HAVE GIVEN HIM.

S- FINE. I DON'T HAVE THE LIST NOW.

CALL ME TOMORROW NIGHT, AND I'LL GIVE YOU AN ANSWER. I'LL FIND OUR FRIEND TONIGHT. LOOK. TRY TO KEEP THINGS GOING THERE. WE'VE BROUGHT THIS THING TO THE FINAL STAGES AND ARE ON THE VERGE OF A SOLUTION. DON'T LET THE ISSUE OF PRICE DESTROY WHAT WE'VE DONE. WE DON'T HAVE ANY PROBLEM WITH ANYONE; NOT WITH OUR FRIEND OR ANYONE ELSE.

S- AND I AM IN THE SAME BIND HERE, BECAUSE I'VE WORKED A LOT ON THIS, AND NOW IT HAS GOTTEN NOWHERE. WE HAVEN'T ATTAINED OUR GOAL.

WE MUST TRY TO PURSUE THE RIGHT COURSE? HERE. NOW THIS PRICE THAT YOU WANT TO GIVE, WE EXPECT YOU NOT TO INCREASE IT ANY.

S- WE HAVE NOT INCREASED IT. IF THERE HAS BEEN AN INCREASE, IT HAS BEEN SOMEWHERE ELSE.

IF YOU HAVE NOT INCREASED THE PRICE, SEND US THE REAL PRICE.

S- WE'VE SENT IT TO THE FRIEND.

VERY GOOD. I'LL CONTACT HIM TONIGHT.

S-FINE. WE MUST NOT LOSE THIS OPPORTUNITY, BECAUSE THE TIME IS VERY SHORT.

FINE. I'LL GET THIS PRICE TONIGHT, THEN I WILL BRING UP YOUR PROPOSAL.

S-VERY GOOD.

MEMORANDUM FOR THE RECORD

SUBJECT: Operations Sub-Group (OSG) Terrorist Incident
 Working Group (TIWG) Meeting

The OSG met on Tuesday, August 5, from 1:30-2:45 p.m. with LTCOL Ollie North, Ambassador Bob Oakley, Richard Armitage, LTGEN John Moellering, Charlie Allen, Dewey Clarridge, Buck Revell, and Craig Coy attending. The following topics were discussed:

[REDACTED]

Hostages: There was a lively discussion on the next steps to take on the remaining hostages. The discussion touched on the possibility of Kuwaiti releasing the Da'wa seventeen and the conditions that would lead to that action.

[REDACTED]

Revell raised the concern that we may be acting inconsistently with the President's policy of no negotiation and that it would not be in our best interest.

Armitage questioned what our policy should be and whether we should bargain for the hostages.

Moellering asked whether the President felt pressure to get the hostages. North responded that he has a personal sense of obligation and that the President had instructed North to get them out.

[REDACTED] will recommend two courses to [REDACTED]

a. Assist in current [REDACTED] effort to release hostages or start new effort.

b. [REDACTED] says there are many specific things USG can do in the Hague and on Voice of America programming to help start USG/GOI talks -- he will give us documents on these subjects at next meeting.

3. Numerous military supply problems were discussed and I will detail these for you later this week in Washington. FYI: They need oil barter deals.

4. My judgement is that we have opened up new and probably much better channel into Iran. This connection has been effectively recruited and he wants to start dealing. Recommend you plan on bringing George to next meeting in two weeks or less.

SUBJECT:

American Hostages

* 1. I met with Ollie North last night at his office on American hostages. Ollie had just returned from a meeting with John Poindexter on the same subject.

2. Poindexter has given Ollie new guidance on the American hostages, namely:

- [REDACTED]
- Ollie is to continue to develop links to the Iranian Government through Albert Hakim and Dick Saccord of Stanford Technology Associates. (Hakim, as you are aware, has links to the [REDACTED]. The [REDACTED] apparently is attempting to arrange for Ollie and George Cave to meet with Rafsanjani, presumably with the next shipment of arms to Tehran.)
- Ghobanifar will be cut out as the intermediary in future shipments of cargos to Iran, if at all possible. To cut Ghobanifar out, Ollie will have to raise a minimum of $4 million.
- If there is no other channel for financing future arms shipments, then Ghobanifar will be used as a last resort.

3. Ollie is greatly relieved by Poindexter's decisions because he feared that John and the President would shut down completely this back channel to Iran because of the kidnapping yesterday of Frank Reed.

MEMORANDUM FOR THE RECORD

SUBJECT: Hostage-Related Activities

1. At the request of Mr. Goode on 29 August, I contacted Abe [redacted] on an alleged diversion of US TOW missiles to Iran. I had been alerted to this development two days earlier by Mr. Goode, who had been told by Abe that 1,250 TOWs were about to be shipped from Houston to [redacted] then on to Tehran. I had discussed this possible diversion with Buck Ravell and Dale Martell of the FBI and Bill Rosenblatt and Gary Wahl of Customs.

2. On Friday evening, 29 August Abe informed me that he had learned from his man in London [redacted] that the TOWs would be shipped within 48 hours out of Houston. Abe stated that he expected to get the total story on 1 September, but that his contact [redacted] had been told by [redacted]

[redacted] that a shipment was imminent. The shipment consisted of a second generation of TOWs which were selling at $13,000 apiece; four unnamed Americans were involved. According to Abe, [redacted] is related to [redacted]. The TOWs were to be flown from Houston [redacted] before transshipment on to Iran.

3. Based on this information and Mr. Goode's request that action be taken, I informed both the FBI and Customs of the new information and was assured that action was being taken. In fact, I was in touch with Mr. Wahl several times on 30-31 August and on 1 September. Mr. Wahl indicated that Customs had allocated a large number of agents in an effort to stop this alleged diversion.

4. On 1 September, Abe called me urgently to state that he had acquired some new information that could radically change our current view of the alleged TOW diversion. He said that he had been in telephone contact with [redacted] in London. [redacted] had talked with [redacted] in [redacted] and refused to provide the names of the four Americans involved in the transaction, claiming that the Americans might be "mafia-types" and revealing their names could put his life in jeopardy.

5. Abe stated that from what he has learned of the transaction to date, the footprints of the merchant and his banker are "all over this transaction." The banker can obtain end user certificates and the merchant has established two letters of credit with banks in Switzerland;

one of the letters of credit is from the London Branch of the Iranian National Bank. Abe speculated that these letters of credit could involve transactions that the merchant has underway with Mr. Goode. According to Abe, he had no information indicating that the TOWs had been shipped. The plan, according to Abe, was to get [redacted] to London where he will be wined and dined by [redacted] and hopefully will tell all he knows about the TOW transaction. At that time, the plan was to have [redacted] in London on the evening of 2 September. Abe again reiterated that "the merchant's M.O. is all over this transaction," noting that the merchant did not get paid until recently. Abe claims that he believes one letter of credit is for $4M and the other for $6M.

6. Abe stated that [redacted] first name was [redacted] and that his telephone numbers in [redacted]. He wondered whether the merchant was not operating separately; the proposed Houston deal may be imaginary, although there were probably four Americans in [redacted] at one point. Abe said that the telephone numbers of this agent, in London, [redacted] extension [redacted].

7. Abe called again on 2 September to state that [redacted] had been told by [redacted] that the shipment of TOWs arrived last night in Tehran. As a result of this shipment, Iran is prepared to consider the release of the American hostages. Currently, Iranian officials are examining the delivered TOWs; if all is in good order, Tehran will validate the letter of credit in the Swiss bank.

8. In the 2 September call, Abe stated that [redacted] was told by [redacted] that a meeting between "the two sides" would now be scheduled in Switzerland. [redacted] said that he wanted to participate; demurred at this suggestion but told [redacted] that he would get back to him. [redacted] is checking [redacted] story with [redacted]. [redacted] reiterated that three hostages were being released as a result of the TOW shipment. Abe complained that [redacted] story made no sense at all, although it was possible that another operation was underway with the banker and the merchant perhaps cutting out Adam and Goode. Abe stated that Abe would not come to [redacted] as a result of the latest developments. Therefore, [redacted] will go to [redacted] tomorrow to talk directly with [redacted].

9. Abe called again on 2 September to state that [redacted] had called [redacted] again and claimed that three hostages had been released and "were on the way to the United States" from Tehran. When I protested that this did not make any sense, Abe said [redacted] was calling [redacted] to check the story. Abe then called back one more time to state that [redacted] "had talked to all the factions and they knew nothing about a hostage release. [redacted] was called [redacted] to check the story."

10. She called once again on 2 September to inform me that the [redacted] was aware of the purported TOW transaction and the movement of these weapons in exchange for hostages. Subject: Iran

Regarding [REDACTED] we are planning to bring him into the U.S. at the end of the week, via parole papers.

We (Cave, Claridge, [REDACTED] North) decided to honor their request to keep this first meeting private (w/o Mir/Israelis) and to have it here so that they can confirm that they are indeed talking to the USC. We knew this when you and Mir met on Monday, but I had not yet had the chance to brief you. We will have a follow-up mtg with [REDACTED] in Europe and he will work Mir back into this op then. In the interim, Clair has put a hold on organizing [REDACTED] his because he does not know whether you have "approved the operation." wd you pls call Casey and tell him to get on with solving the guy in so that we don't embarrass the hell out of ourselves w/ Rafsanjani.

NOTE FROM: OLIVER NORTH

Subject: Iran

Per your note on the surveillance package I called Casey and told him we need to get on with the parole paperwork in that you had already agreed - and had furthermore just endorsed the surveillance request. He acknowledged yr. approval for the plan but said he was concerned about Shultz. He said he planned to tell Shultz in general terms that we were talking to another high level Iranian and that we would fill him in after the interview. I protested that experience showed that Shultz would then talk to [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] and [REDACTED] could well be the source of the Jack Anderson stuff we have seen periodically. Casey Agreed to proceed with the INS parole paperwork for [REDACTED] and the visa for his escort but noted that he would still talk privately to Shultz about this. We are now underway with getting [REDACTED] aboard a chartered jet out [REDACTED] CIA could not produce an aircraft on such "short notice" so Dick has chartered the a/c thru one of Project Democracy's overseas companies. Why Dick can do something in Sain. that the CIA cannot do in two days is beyond me - but he does. Now the hell he is ever going to pay for it is also a matter of concern, but Dick is a good soldier and never even groused about it. You may want to talk to Sec Shultz about [REDACTED] before Casey does. I will prepare a memo for you as soon as we talk to him.

1. [REDACTED] will want intell info and a scheme for future provision of same. In the past, Casey has wanted to establish comms in Tehran and this might be the vehicle. We should give [REDACTED] very good OB data in narrative form so that he can take it back and make an impact. The stuff we used for [REDACTED] will have changed. It is no big task for an analyst to prepare such a briefing. I know there is skepticism about this new connection, but we will fail if we do not use our senses and produce something of use. Next he will want some kind of secure voice device for use in telecoms back here to us in the next few weeks or months -- there are a number of these items available commercially and I would hope that CIA could supply same [REDACTED] for him to take back. [REDACTED] will want to talk about war material and its relation to a long-term connection from U.S. to Iran. My opinion is that he and his group are attaching more importance to a long-term relationship than to any short-term quick fix, such as a few thousand TOWs. He will, however, have a list of needed items and will no doubt suggest some kind of shipment to clear the hostage matter and to firmly establish direct USG to GOI transactions and to eliminate the Gorbas. [REDACTED] Thus, if I'm right, CIA must deliver the goods, good OB and come up with a [REDACTED] secure phone device.

PARTICIPANTS: U.S.: Oliver North Iranian:
Richard Secord
Sam O'Neill

First session convened in the Old Executive Office Building at 12:15 p.m. on Friday, September 19, 1986. [redacted] opened the session, and after preliminary pleasantries, outlined four points which he wished to address initially. One, the Iranian position vs. what they perceive to be the U.S.'s number one enemy -- Russia. Second, their view of American and Iranian strategic interests in the area. Third, past relations of the United States with revolutionary Iran. Fourth, their views for future relations with the United States.

[redacted] then launched into a lengthy exposition with respect to the foregoing issues. He said that the Soviets are a great and aggressive power with a long border with Iran. They recognize that Russia is a direct enemy of the United States and that, with respect to Iranian interests, they do not wish to have antagonistic relations with the USSR, but on the other hand being a friend of the Soviets could be even more dangerous because Soviet ideology is directly opposed to Iran's. They also recognize that their brothers in Afghanistan are suffering under the Soviets. Finally, the Soviets are directly supporting the Iraqis in the war against the Iranians and killing Iranian soldiers. Back to the question of the long border with Russia, [redacted] noted Secord's statement in Brussels to the effect that the United States would oppose a Soviet thrust into Iran with or without support of the Government of Iran. The Government of Iran found this statement to be interesting and comforting. The leaders of Iran are very worried today about the "fantastic" increase of Soviet intelligence operations in Iran in recent times.

[redacted] The Soviets are attempting to exploit Iranian internal problems. He went on to acknowledge that the revolutionary environment in Iran has many weaknesses. Their security services are weak for instance.

[redacted] next turned to relations between the Government of Iran and the United States Government. He says that some cooperation is necessary in their view.

[REDACTED] Next, Iran needs U.S. influence with the Arab countries friendly to the United States in order to help diminish support for Iraq. Third is the matter of oil, which is vital to Iranian economy. They need U.S. support in this matter. Fourth and most important, he said, is the security of the Gulf and terrorism against U.S. interests and hostages.

[REDACTED] said he wanted to make these things clear and one of the Iranian leaders in particular has asked that he make this message very clear.

[REDACTED]

On the subject of security, [REDACTED] said this has two aspects. One is the fear of the flood of terrorism in the region and the second is the overall effects of the current war. With respect to terrorists and hostages, he said that the Shiite religion under the Aytollah is absolutely opposed to terrorism and the taking of hostages. For instance, after the explosions in Lebanon, the Aytollah wrote a "Fatwa," which is a religious ruling absolutely opposing terrorism and the taking of hostages. But, we the United States have to understand that Iran still does not have strong, effective security forces and firm control. [REDACTED] admits that there are people within Iran who do espouse hostage taking and terrorism.

[REDACTED]

The Government of Iran needs more information in order to confront them and they would like to have this from the United States. [REDACTED] emphasized that from the standpoint of humanity, Iran is against hostage taking and terrorism and even has a certain amount of sympathy for the U.S. at the current time. In the case of Lebanon, Iran considers that they have in the past been helpful to the U.S. In the TWA hijacking, in getting information on the hostages and in the release of two hostages, Iran has already helped. [REDACTED] said that the Iranians have attraction in places like Lebanon because of the "right-minded masses of peoples' sympathy" for the Iranian revolution. But he said that both Iran and the United States are victims of this hostage business. He next turned to the Iran-Iraq war. Iran, he said, needs a "victory" and that he will explain what he means by victory. Lack of security in Iran is a real problem for the United States. Secord's comments in Brussels were well received and his analysis of the war was keenly received by the leadership in Iran.

[REDACTED]

With respect to United States and Iran, [REDACTED] provided a quick analysis. Until two years ago, it was difficult for anyone in Iran to consider any kind of United States Government/Iranian relations. There were several probes in the past two years and he wanted to know if they were real.

[REDACTED]

And finally, what [REDACTED] regarded as the worst channel, they've also received numerous probes and letters from an unnamed arms dealer in Europe. Some in Iran believed in these probes from the arms dealers, but "I personally," [REDACTED] said, "did not believe in them." [REDACTED] claimed to have been working on this opening of relations with the U.S. for two years now and that the real problem is the lack of communications. "One and a half years ago, an arms dealer came, allegedly with word from [redacted] about exchanging two hostages for arms. We don't trust this arms dealer. After the discussions with Secord and Hakim in Brussels, the leadership has come up with the idea of forming a 'joint committee' that would sit down and resolve the problems step-by-step and that we have a great opportunity to do this now."

[redacted] went on to emphasize the critical importance of this direct meeting here in Washington. "A stage-by-stage plan is needed with which both sides can agree and we need to get on with it quickly while the opportunity is still here."

North responded. "Happy you are here and hope that there is now no doubt that you are talking directly with the Government of the United States directly."

"We understand your problems with respect to channels of communications. We have had the same problem. In all honesty, we are still not in a position to have very good relations, but we are certainly interested in a step-by-step approach to the problem. We have received assurances from General Secord about the genuineness of this particular channel to Iran and, therefore, the President has authorized this meeting. I understand your sensitivity on this, because it is important to have good communications in order to proceed."

[redacted] "We recognize that your connection with the arms dealer, [redacted], was not acceptable and is not acceptable to us either. However, he did bring us into contact with an official of the Government of Iran. This was our first meeting with a Government of Iran official in over six years. As you know now after meetings in Germany with [redacted] we arranged for a delegation to go to Tehran. The President chose a most trusted adviser to lead this mission -- Robert McFarlane. The reason why we went to Tehran was to try to establish the channel of which you now speak. Unfortunately, we met with only a few officials most of whom used false names. We met with none of the people that we expected to meet with and the meeting was a great disappointment to our President."

[redacted] interjected that it is important for him to know the names of the people. In the discussion ensued as to what the people looked like and what assumed names they used. North continued. "You should understand that this meeting in Tehran was a great disappointment to us. It has been difficult since then to convince the leadership here of the need to try to continue in the face of that failure. While we were there, we even prepared a draft Memorandum of Understanding to establish this channel. We understood the need for secrecy and I can show you this draft here now, if you wish to read it.:

"There are a number of things which you should understand about why we have pursued this attempt to be in contact with your government. President Reagan is a very strong and popular President. He has helped the United States to recover from a period of economic and military weakness. He has restored economic and military strength to the U.S. Most important, he has restored the will of American people. The U.S. is no longer afraid to use its power in its own defense, and it is not intimidated by the Soviets. Yesterday, we expelled 25 Soviets from the United Nations. We will not give in to Soviet pressure in Afghanistan, Angola, or Central America. The United States wants relations on the basis of reciprocity with all states and, of course, this includes Iran. We want to solve our disputes through discussions not through fighting. The United States believes that many trends are working in its favor -- economy, technology, politics, all working in favor of the United States. Reagan has two more years and has a strong moral position in the eyes of the United States and of the world. The President strongly believes in the words of the Holy Book as do you. He believes deeply in the teachings of the God of Abraham. Thus, he is very popular here and should be popular in the world of Islam. When we went to Tehran, he said to tell you that we accept your revolution as a fact. We admit that there have been missteps along the road since the revolution, but it is important to tell you that there is a responsible and sincere wish in the leadership here to establish communications/relations with Iran. Therefore, we must speak frankly in order to facilitate this. Our policy is based, not on emotion, but on perceptions built-up over the years. There are many things that you have said which we can agree to, but there is a perception that Iran has used revolutionary Islam against the United States. For example, it is clear that some in the Government of Iran have encouraged the taking of U.S. hostages as a means of getting back convicted prisoners held by the Kuwaitis and that there has been a direct connection between the Da'wa, Hizballah, and elements inside the Government of Iran. Therefore, since we're a democracy, as long as this perception exists, we have a great obstacle in the way of doing what the President wants and what you say Iran wants. Also, we see anti-U.S. activity emanating from Iran in Central America."

questioned the basis for this information. North responded. This is all based on accurate intelligence. For example, in Nicaragua, Iran actively supports the communist government there and Iran plans to ship 10,000 rifles and other munitions to Nicaragua through North Korea. These activities serve Soviet interests and in the long-term jeopardize Iran and the United States. In spite of this, the President has directed us to proceed with attempt to establish discrete and, when appropriate, a public relationship with Iran. The President's direction is based on two important principals: One, concern over the Soviets vis-a-vis Iran and; two, our desire to ensure the territorial integrity of Iran and the other Gulf States. We accept the revolution as a fact. The territorial integrity of Iran and the other states in the region are of great importance to the United States.

The United States does not wish to see Iran lose. We do not want to see an attempt against Iraq which will bring in the Soviets. The Soviets, on the other hand, are in a difficult position. Their economy is a disaster; they've suffered major reverses, for instance, Chernobyl; Soviet defectors are showing up all over the world; Soviet ships run into each other in the Black Sea; Soviet submarine-launched missiles accidentally land in China. Last week, six Soviets were killed in Peru. They see the Iran-Iraq war and Afghanistan as very important to them, but neither of these wars are going well for them. They have two things, however, that are advantageous to them. One is great military power, capable of intimidating their neighbors; and two is a very, very effective KGB. We believe that they are capable of using these two instruments of power. Therefore, we understand that Iran can be not their enemy, nor their friend. We have common interests. Iran's continuation as a sovereign state is something that we desire. We have no interest in an Iraqi victory. You might remember that we had no relations with Iraq during the years of the Shah or even during the revolutionary period right after the Shah. We're willing to serve in some role which would end the conflict honorably for Iran.

[REDACTED] The U.S. has no illusions, however, about future Iranian relations. The right way is to proceed carefully and quietly. For example, Soviet anxiety could be quickly raised if they knew that we were trying to reestablish relations. We have shared interests for the long-term. We are prepared to improve on the situation that exists now and to do it in a step-by-step way. However, it's really up to Iran, we are ready."

[REDACTED] responded. "Regarding the need for Iran to achieve victory, it is not necessary that we achieve a big decisive military victory, but some kind of victory. Only in the last two years, has our approach with the United States been seen as possible, but it is most important to note that the important thing from Iranian perspective is to get Saddam Hussein out. This can be done by the Arabs. We have no territorial designs on Iraq. We have in fact given orders that no Iranian troops on Iraqi territory will display our flag. Iran wants a government in Baghdad that they can live with. The United States can help with the friendly Arabs."

[REDACTED] North responded [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] In regard to the point [REDACTED] made: "We were working with Ughorhaniz to make contact, but the letters provided by him to Iran describing our willingness to do certain things were not authorized. Only the document which we produced in Tehran, of which I have provided you a copy, was authorized."

[REDACTED] I want to tell you that unless one of the three men sitting here in the room right now (North, Secord, Sam O'Neill) contact you, there is no official message. With respect to the document we prepared in Tehran, you will note a considerable emphasis on hostages. We consider them to be an obstacle. An obstacle to the understanding of the American people. The widespread perception here in America is that Iran is basically responsible for these hostages. The issue of hostages and terrorism must be dealt with since it is a political obstacle. On the other hand, you should realize that 52,000 people in the U.S. died last year in automobile accidents and 130,000 people died from lung cancer. Five U.S. hostages rarely make the newspapers or the television, but because this is a democracy, if the President is found to be helping Iran with this obstacle still in the way, it would be very difficult to explain to our people."

"From the first, with [redacted] and Ghorbanifar, we have said let's get this issue -- the hostages -- behind us. We recognized that this would be undertaken as a humanitarian gesture on the part of the Iranian Government. [redacted]

[redacted] and to demonstrate our sincerity, at one point, we directed the delivery of 500 TOW missiles and eight hours later they were delivered into Bandar Abbas. But instead of responding favorably, 'rug merchant' type moves resulted, prices were talked about, prices were established for human lives. For instance, 'so many items for so many hostages.' We don't consider this to be a responsible government action and not one that the United States is prepared to engage in."

"We are prepared to continue to provide to Iran items which will help in her defense; but we wish to see the hostage issue behind us so that we can move onward. We have certain items of equipment already prepared for shipment. But you must understand, we cannot give them away. They have to be purchased."

[redacted] interjected with humor saying "haven't they already been paid?"

North responded saying that the TOWs and certain improved HAWK spares had been delivered and paid for, but the intermediary, Ghorbanifar, was complaining that the had not been fully paid.

[redacted] interjected with a political point. He said he agreed that the obstacle had to be removed, but we have to make it much more official and deal directly. Our government thinks that dealing through someone like Secord is a better way to go because they trust him. They don't expect factory prices, but they don't want the same situation to exist that exists today.

North responded saying that "Ghorbanifar always claims to be borrowing and then getting paid in part and rolling debts forward and raising costs and it is very, very confusing and it's impossible for us to follow exactly what it is that he is doing. However, Ghorbanifar knows a great deal and he could be harmful to us if he were to go public and this is the problem which we wish to address. We think that Iran should pay him whatever they owe him so he will be quiet and stay off the air."

[redacted] responded that he has gotten all his money but he will look into it.

North said that we would be happy never to deal with Ghorbanifar again but, if he is to keep quiet, his debt should be paid. "We risk a great deal if we are compromised this early in the game. To be honest, I would just as soon not deal with [redacted] either, but this is an Iranian matter."

continued. "It's good that you established your initial contact with [redacted]. This was important to the people in Tehran although it was not successful, and the proper people were never made aware and poor coordination was done and the meeting was not planned properly and it was, thus, very premature. Still it was important that we did establish initially at least contact with [redacted] because this was a pioneering move and [redacted] would not be in Washington now were it not for this initial opening."

North responded. "We are confident that you represent the Government of Iran and to his credit, as I said, [redacted] did have the first meeting with us in six years. This meeting that we're having now should do much to instill confidence in our two capitals and, if we can proceed, it will be very good."

Earlier you mentioned concern for security and concern over terrorism in our airlines and this we appreciate. The Government of Iran announcement that the Pan Am aircraft hijacked in Karachi could not come to Iran was much appreciated. As a further demonstration of our sincerity, we will arrange that next week on Voice of America the United States Government will thank those countries who were involved in helping in the Karachi hijacking and, for the first time, we will mention Iran as having acted in a positive way. It will be done very discretely in an editorial on VOA. Obviously, we cannot have the President go out announce an Embassy is being opened in Tehran. You would have a domestic, political problem and so would we. Thus, back to our obstacle: Truly we wish to get it behind us. We recognize that Tehran does not exercise absolute control over Hizballah, Amal, or Islamic Jihad; but we also know that you can help resolve this issue."

[redacted] responded that the issue "would be resolved." The question of who [redacted] is and what his background is was then raised by North and [redacted] responded that he was a trusted agent of Iran; he had been a loyal officer and now was a businessman and that they had complete confidence in him. North responded we know very little bit about this man and we are obviously concerned for security; we are concerned with the KGB penetrations and so on.

[redacted] responded that he too was concerned over this sort of thing. He also said that with respect to Mr. Hakim, whom he personally liked and wanted to see involved, some in Tehran regard him as a CIA agent. North responded that Hakim was never a spy for the United States; that he has been a consultant to our government on Iranian affairs from time to time; that he had full trust and confidence as a man who wanted to see improvement for the Iranian people and improvement in relations between our two countries.

Because of the requirement for secret communications, he has acted on our behalf and we have investigated him as we investigate everyone. This is important to him because of his interest in the country of his birth and the country of his citizenship. We will include both he and [redacted] in whatever sessions that you wish to have them involved in -- you simply have to tell us.

[redacted] turned back to [redacted]. He said that he is certain that [redacted] has not been profiteering, but instead has been working sincerely but, he [redacted] is a simple man and he could not continue on with this complex relationship.

North said we tend to believe this. "Sam, here, has often talked with [redacted] and there is always inconsistency between what he says and what Gorbachev claims."

[redacted]

North said that we are concerned that the Soviets not become aware of any U.S. Government or Iranian Government relationship. "In Tehran, we recommended that we set-up a secure communication station and this would require us to send two of our men to Tehran to man and operate the station. This would give us good secure communications and would thwart the KGB. We are very concerned about KGB efforts to penetrate any relationship we might establish with the Government of Iran. The Iranian idea for a joint committee elsewhere seems to be a good idea, in principle. Meeting somewhere in Europe is probably the way in which we should proceed to manage this beginning relationship. The problem is that we have to set up some place where it won't be penetrated by the KGB. We are very concerned about communications and the Soviets' ability to intercept."

[redacted] responded that he agreed about the KGB and would like to use a single courier from Iran to Frankfurt via Iran Air from now on until secure communications could be established.

North asked [redacted] if he wants [redacted] on this joint committee?

[redacted] said, "Yes, but only for logistical purposes. I want to give more thought to [redacted] and how he can work with Hakim." With respect to Ghorbanifar, [redacted] said they want to get him out of the loop as soon as they can. He's been profiteering and people in Iran fear that they will be accused of being profiteers.

North responded that Ghorbanifar has some strong Tehran connections that we know of and this remains a problem that needs to be solved. [redacted] said that our recent contacts with [redacted] have returned then to the subject of Buckley.

With respect to the hostage issue, he wants to get it resolved as quickly as possible and he is confident that they can resolve it. He said that Iran wants to make this a full exchange. For instance, "we have in mind to give you fellows T-72 tank, for example."

North again expressed concern about security and about Ghorbanifar, in particular. North also stated that we believe that the oil market is naturally depressed and there is certainly no collusion between ourselves and the Saudis or others to keep prices low, but he agreed that the U.S. and Iran have similar interests with respect to oil.

He said that he wanted to assure us that Buckley was not killed; that he died of natural causes; that he had three heart attacks. He also assured that he had been told that the others are all in good shape. He said that there are video tapes of them recently, talking for 20 minutes each and that these will be distributed to news agencies. He also said that there was one letter sent out.

North confirmed that one of the hostage relatives received a letter within a day or so of it being written. North then said that we want all the hostages out.

At 1800 hours, the first session ended with a short break and then Albert Hakim and [REDACTED] joined the group. After being joined by the others, [REDACTED] then said that he was growing tired and asked General Secord to read off the list of Iranian needs which were headed up first by intelligence exchange.

[REDACTED]

North reviewed the list of logistics support items being requested and responded that, in principle, to the extent that items are available either here or elsewhere there isn't a particular problem. "But as we emphasized to [REDACTED] in Tehran, we think that you might be thinking too small. People preparing lists are only thinking of the very short-term. We, the U.S., look at two million Iranians without homes; half the oil production facilities knocked out; yesterday's attack on Kharg Island, for instance, is a good example; medical supplies being in great shortage, even shortages of food; and so on. We think that the Iranian planners should be talking to us about other than simple weapons requests."

[REDACTED]

The United States is interested in helping stop the killing and to provide for an adequate defense. We cannot just do these things willy-nilly. For example: 10,000 175mm RAP rounds is not a

"The authorities recognize the need for technical assistance. This was pointed out by General Secord in the Brussels' discussions and we should understand that they really inherited nothing from the Shah in the way of an army. The army was disorganized and very disarrayed. The lower echelon officers, as well as the higher echelon officers, were worth very little. They picked the first steps in this war with the army of the people, the revolutionary guards." He recalled earlier that in a meeting with some of the military officers said that they had to have one tank for every Iraqi tank, one plane for every Iraqi plane. "This was not practical and, therefore, over time it was decided that the Iranian revolutionary guard, the army of the people, would be used to repel the enemy. Since then, of course, it has become more technological in nature and there are minimum levels of technological assistance and equipment we badly need and the United States can be very helpful in providing these. Therefore, they are looking forward to trying to establish a decent relationship on a secret basis at first."

At 2015, it was agreed to stop for the day and reconvene on Saturday, September 20, for further discussions.

The session continued on September 20, at 0935 hours in an office near the Sheraton Tysons' Hotel, where was staying. Present for the U.S. side were Oliver North, Sam O'Neill, and R. Secord. Only represented the Iranian side during these initial discussions.

North opened the session by saying that he would like to make some comments about the logistics support items on the list had provided the day before. "We would like the leadership of Iran to know that President Reagan is aware that the Iranians have immediate needs; that, while we are sympathetic, we're not just interested in being simply an arms dealer; that we are interested in helping the immediate defensive needs in such a way that Iran does not lose the war. We also want to help you with some immediate domestic requirements and we want to help you end the war honorably. The President is willing to play whatever role necessary to help end the war in an honorable fashion."

█████ said that perhaps we need a secret exchange of letters between our leaders and he will address this upon return to Tehran. █████ stated that after we establish a basis for a relationship, all problems can be addressed. He said that he is completely in agreement with the point about not relying on the arms dealers or other non-official entities. On immediate needs, he could right now order the money to be paid for any of the items that might be available. He said that he could even get the money by telephone.

North said that we believe that this has to done in absolute secrecy.

interrupted describing the difficulty of conducting discussions in Tehran. For example, there are three different groups that usually have to be consulted. Also in preparing for the coming offensive, they have shortages in some of the equipments and these are the ones that are mentioned in his list:

to finances since we don't have a formal relationship, we have to do these transactions in a very secret fashion and since our ~~less~~ are very specific, we have to have payment before delivery of any hardware.

At this point, [redacted] requested that the entire group meet and [redacted] and Albert Hakim joined the meeting.

North then stated again that we are trying to get past the issue of the hostages and, in the past, to show our good faith, we have moved certain items to Iran. We are also trying to do things with secrecy. We understand that with normal relations it's going to take time.

Secrecy takes longer and it costs more. With Ghorbanifar and [REDACTED] we have had a lengthy debate about prices for HAWK spare parts, with [REDACTED] claiming that we have charged six times more than the microfiche prices which he has discovered somewhere. "This has caused great of difficulty for us. [redacted] has misinterpreted the microfiche. We've traced it back to its origins; it's not relevant. But communicating adequately has been next to impossible." Then North gave a short description of how U.S. military equipment is priced; manufacturers' prices; prices to our own forces; prices to allies; and the impact on overall price for the different modes of transfer. North closed by noting that the President has authorized the transfer of a number of TOWs and some HAWK missile parts in connection with this relationship. "In order to maintain secrecy, we have to sanitize the equipment; that is to remove all the original identifying markings and then we have to ship these items through a circuitous route and Israel, as you know, has been involved in this in the past. Thus, not only the time but also the price goes up when using such a complex method to procure and deliver such items." If it is helpful in getting past this obstacle of the hostages, we are prepared to go forward as requested by [redacted] if your leadership is ready. We are prepared to go forward with those items which are already prepared for shipment, i.e., additional HAWK missile spares and TOWs and with prices that are well understood in advance."

A discussion of the pricing then ensued and the price list was given to [redacted] which he said he understood and so did [redacted]. North then noted that we needed to get rid of the hostage issue as soon as possible so that we could proceed on and establish a relationship which we both recognized as necessary and in the interest of both countries. "We recognize that the influence of Iran is indirect in many cases with the groups in Lebanon and we understand it is a difficult issue. We have offered in the past to give Iran credit as a humanitarian gesture if Iran wants this credit. It's an important point and we have to get past it. I want to tell you that with respect to the issue of the Da'wa prisoners held in Kuwait, we cannot go back to the Government of Kuwait on this issue. But I believe that the Government of Kuwait is prepared to release prisoners in a phased way if the Government of Iran goes privately to Kuwait and promises them no terrorism. This seems reasonable -- you should do it. I've been told to reassure the Government of Iran, moreover, that the U.S. citizen, John Pattis, has never been an employee of the United States Government. "We did talk to him quite openly, as we talk to many travellers, but he is not a spy and he's not employee of the CIA and he's never employed by the Government of the United States."

A short break was then taken and the meeting reconvened without [redacted] and without Hakim at 1525 hours.

North pointed out that in regard to [redacted] list of equipment, "most of these items would have to come by ship because they are very big and heavy and only a few could come by aircraft." We need to exchange intelligence by courier.

[redacted] We need some time to work this up, but we can do it and would be willing to do it if we can come to some understanding with the Government of Iran.

[redacted] And, two, the Soviet propaganda organs would publicize our activities and cause great difficulties for both sides. We understand that you're prepared to go ahead and make transfers of money immediately in order to start shipment; but the U.S. is much more interested in doing it right than in doing it too fast."

[redacted] then stated that trying to get close to Western governments has created certain problems for his group in Tehran.

North then stated that we have differences, great differences here. "The situations are not the same. Our President is not running for re-election, as you know. There are two years left in his term and he is sincerely interested in changing the course of history with the U.S.-Iranian relations. He has close advisors and aides, who have seen much of war, and they want to see the war out there ended. There is no effect whatever on American elections, and these hostage issues, as you can see, seldom even make the newspapers. Ronald Reagan would like to end this Iran-Iraq war and you might remember that we talked last night about the United States had a long history of acting as a peacemaker. The United States always has great concern for the suffering of people and we know of the impact of this war overall on Iran."

[REDACTED]

Iran also wants an honorable peace. In return, he expects that Iran will designate three very senior people to go to joint committee meetings. "We could have this joint committee meeting, if you want, by sending a letter to us. We could also always meet under the cover of a UN meeting. I guarantee you one thing though that I will look into this matter of help to Nicaragua immediately; and, if there is such a thing going on, I will stop it immediately. Again I say I will only use a courier until we can establish secure communications -- until we can set-up these committee meetings." After the meeting, he wanted Secord to be available to talk to him some more. He states further that he will be giving a weekly report on the conditions of the hostages and is now certain that he can bring enough pressure to bear to get them released. He will give us at least two days warning before they're released. He hoped that the U.S. can play a predominant role in achieving a peace in Lebanon. "Iran agrees completely with respect to an honorable peace with Iraq; however, Saddam Hussein must go from the Iranian point of view." He knows that it is not our policy, but he knows that we can bring our influence to bear with certain friendly Arab nations and it is "within the power of the Arab nations to get rid of Saddam Hussein."

[REDACTED]

At this point, at 1730 hours, we agreed to summarize the two days of meetings. [REDACTED] stated that he wanted to:

- "A. Take steps to form a small staff in Tehran for this project.
- B. Make instructions for the transfers of monies after lists are checked and agreed to.
- C. Inform his leadership about the Voice of America.
- D. Clear the way for the release and form a game plan for the hostages.
- E. As soon as possible, have a joint committee meeting which he, [REDACTED] would attend. And, hopefully within a week or ten days, this could be arranged."

North interjected that he agreed with this summary, but that added the point about the Da'wa hostages and Kuwait and Kuwait's desire for a guarantee against terrorism. [REDACTED] took note of this as well. [redacted] closed the session by stating his great appreciation for the hospitality which had been showed by him and North and by all concerned. And, then agreed to establish a brief, very, very brief, ops code for use on the telephone -- simply for the purpose of establishing a place and time of meeting for the joint committee meeting. The meeting ended at 1800 hour.

Comment: During several asides with [redacted], Sam's perception of [redacted] estimate of the two days of discussions is that while [redacted] and we both thought considerable progress was made, [redacted] wanted to discuss the results of the meetings in Washington with responsible officials in Tehran before recommending specific actions and steps be taken. Specific proposals will come at the next meeting with [redacted] and, being Iranian, they will probably be gaged to further tests and assess our sincerity,

MEMORANDUM OF CONVERSATION

PARTICIPANTS: U.S.: Oliver North Iranian:
Richard Secord
Sam O'Neill

First session convened in the Old Executive Office Building at 12:15 p.m. on Friday, September 19, 1986. [redacted] opened the session, and after preliminary pleasantries, outlined four points which he wished to address initially. One, the Iranian position vs. what they perceive to be the U.S.'s number one enemy -- Russia. Second, their view of American and Iranian strategic interests in the area. Third, past relations of the United States with revolutionary Iran. Fourth, their views for future relations with the United States.

[redacted] then launched into a lengthy exposition with respect to the foregoing issues. He said that the Soviets are a great and aggressive power with a long border with Iran. They recognize that Russia is a direct enemy of the United States and that, with respect to Iranian interests, they do not wish to have antagonistic relations with the USSR, but on the other hand being a friend of the Soviets could be even more dangerous because Soviet ideology is directly opposed to Iran's. They also recognize that their brothers in Afghanistan are suffering under the Soviets. Finally the Soviets are directly supporting the Iraqis in the war against the Iranians and killing Iranian soldiers. Back to the question of the long border with Russia [redacted] noted Secord's statement in Brussels to the effect that the United States would oppose a Soviet thrust into Iran with or without support of the Government of Iran. The Government of Iran found this statement to be interesting and comforting. The leaders of Iran are very worried today about the "fantastic" increase of Soviet intelligence operations in Iran in recent times.

[redacted] The Soviets are attempting to exploit Iranian internal problems. He went on to acknowledge that the revolutionary environment in Iran has many weaknesses. Their security services are weak for instance.

[redacted] next turned to relations between the Government of Iran and the United States Government. He says that some cooperation is necessary in their view.

Next, Iran needs U.S. influence with the Arab countries friendly to the United States in order to help diminish support for Iraq. Third is the matter of oil, which is vital to Iranian economy. They need U.S. support in this matter. Fourth and most important, he said, is the security of the Gulf and terrorism against U.S. interests and hostages.

He said he wanted to make these things clear and one of the Iranian leaders in particular has asked that he make this message very clear.

On the subject of security, he said this has two aspects. One is the fear of the flood of terrorism in the region and the second is the overall effects of the current war. With respect to terrorists and hostages, he said that the Shiite religion under the Aytollah is absolutely opposed to terrorism and the taking of hostages. For instance, after the explosions in Lebanon, the Aytollah wrote a "Fatwa," which is a religious ruling absolutely opposing terrorism and the taking of hostages. But, we the United States have to understand that Iran still does not have strong, effective security forces and firm control. He admits that there are people within Iran who do espouse hostage taking and terrorism.

[REDACTED]

The Government of Iran has more information in order to confront them and they would like to have this from the United States. [REDACTED] emphasized that from the standpoint of humanity, Iran is against hostage taking and terrorism and even has a certain amount of sympathy for the U.S. at the current time. In the case of Lebanon, Iran considers that they have in the past been helpful to the U.S. In the TWA hijacking, in getting information on the hostages and in the release of two hostages, Iran has already helped. [REDACTED] said that the Iranians have attraction in places like Lebanon because of the "right-minded masses of peoples' sympathy" for the Iranian revolution. But he said that both Iran and the United States are victims of this hostage business. He next turned to the Iran-Iraq war. Iran, he said, needs a "victory" and that he will explain what he means by victory. Lack of security in Iran is a real problem for the United States. Secord's comments in Brussels were well received and his analysis of the war was keenly received by the leadership in Iran.

[REDACTED]

With respect to United States and Iran, [REDACTED] provided a quick analysis. Until two years ago, it was difficult for anyone in Iran to consider any kind of United States Government/Iranian relations. There were several probes in the past two years and he wanted to know if they were real.

[REDACTED]

And finally, what [REDACTED] regarded as the worst channel, they've also received numerous probes and letters from an unnamed arms dealer in Europe. Some in Iran believed in these probes from the arms dealers, but "I personally," [REDACTED] said, "did not believe in them. [REDACTED] claimed to have been working on this opening of relations with the U.S. for two years now and that the real problem is the lack of communications. "One and a half years ago, an arms dealer came, allegedly with word from [redacted] about exchanging two hostages for arms. We don't trust this arms dealer. After the discussions with Secord and Hakim in Brussels, the leadership has come up with the idea of forming a 'joint committee' that would sit down and resolve the problems step-by-step and that we have a great opportunity to do this now."

[redacted] went on to emphasize the critical importance of this direct meeting here in Washington. "A stage-by-stage plan is needed with which both sides can agree and we need to get on with it quickly while the opportunity is still here."

North responded. "Happy you are here and hope that there is now no doubt that you are talking directly with the Government of the United States directly."

"We understand your problems with respect to channels of communications. We have had the same problem. In all honesty, we are still not in a position to have very good relations, but we are certainly interested in a step-by-step approach to the problem. We have received assurances from General Secord about the genuineness of this particular channel to Iran and, therefore, the President has authorized this meeting. I understand your sensitivity on this, because it is important to have good communications in order to protect [redacted] [redacted] recognize that your connection with the arms dealer, [redacted], was not acceptable and is not acceptable to us either. However, he did bring us into contact with an official of the Government of Iran [redacted]. This was our first meeting with a Government of Iran official in over six years. As you know now after meetings in Germany with [redacted] we arranged for a delegation to go to Tehran. The President chose a most trusted adviser to lead this mission -- Robert McFarlane. The reason why we went to Tehran was to try to establish the channel of which you now speak. Unfortunately, we met with only a few officials most of whom used false names. We met with none of the people that we expected to meet with and the meeting was a great disappointment to our President."

[redacted] interjected that it is important for him to know the names of the people. In the discussion ensued as to what the people looked like and what assumed names they used. North continued. "You should understand that this meeting in Tehran was a great disappointment to us. It has been difficult since then to convince the leadership here of the need to try to continue in the face of that failure. While we were there, we even prepared a draft Memorandum of Understanding to establish this channel. We understood the need for secrecy and I can show you this draft here now, if you wish to read it."

"There are a number of things which you should understand about why we have pursued this attempt to be in contact with your government. President Reagan is a very strong and popular President. He has helped the United States to recover from a period of economic and military weakness. He has restored economic and military strength to the U.S. Most important, he has restored the will of American people. The U.S. is no longer afraid to use its power in its own defense, and it is not intimidated by the Soviets. Yesterday, we expelled 25 Soviets from the United Nations. We will not give in to Soviet pressure in Afghanistan, Angola, or Central America. The United States wants relations on the basis of reciprocity with all states and, of course, this includes Iran. We want to solve our disputes through discussions not through fighting. The United States believes that many trends are working in its favor -- economy, technology, politics, all working in favor of the United States. Reagan has two more years and has a strong moral position in the eyes of the United States and of the world. The President strongly believes in the words of the Holy Book as do you. He believes deeply in the teachings of the God of Abraham. Thus, he is very popular here and should be popular in the world of Islam. When we went to Tehran, he said to tell you that we accept your revolution as a fact. We admit that there have been missteps along the road since the revolution, but it is important to tell you that there is a responsible and sincere wish in the leadership here to establish communications/relations with Iran. Therefore we must speak frankly in order to facilitate this. Our policy is based, not on emotion, but on perceptions built-up over the years. There are many things that you have said which we can agree to, but there is a perception that Iran has used revolutionary Islam against the United States. For example, it is clear that some in the Government of Iran have encouraged the taking of U.S. hostages as a means of getting back convicted prisoners held by the Kuwaitis and that there has been a direct connection between the Da'wa, Hizballah, and elements inside the Government of Iran. Therefore, since we're a democracy, as long as this perception exists, we have a great obstacle in the way of doing what the President wants and what you say Iran wants. Also, we see anti-U.S. activity emanating from Iran in Central America."

questioned the basis for this information. North responded. This is all based on accurate intelligence. For example, in Nicaragua, Iran actively supports the communist government there and Iran plans to ship 10,000 rifles and other munitions to Nicaragua through North Korea. These activities serve Soviet interests and in the long-term jeopardize Iran and the United States. In spite of this, the President has directed us to proceed with attempt to establish discrete and, when appropriate, a public relationship with Iran. The President's direction is based on two important principals: One, concern over the Soviets vis-a-vis Iran and; two, our desire to ensure the territorial integrity of Iran and the other Gulf States. We accept the revolution as a fact. The territorial integrity of Iran and the other states in the region are of great importance to the United States.

The United States does not wish to see Iran lose. We do not want to see an attempt against Iraq which will bring in the Soviets. The Soviets, on the other hand, are in a difficult position. Their economy is a disaster; they've suffered major reverses, for instance, Chernobol; Soviet defectors are showing up all over the world; Soviet ships run into each other in the Black Sea; Soviet submarine-launched missiles accidentally land in China. Last week, six Soviets were killed in Peru. They see the Iran-Iraq war and Afghanistan as very important to them, but neither of these wars are going well for them. They have two things, however, that are advantageous to them. One is great military power, capable of intimidating their neighbors; and two is a very, very effective KGB. We believe that they are capable of using these two instruments of power. Therefore, we understand that Iran can be not their enemy, nor their friend. We have common interests. Iran's continuation as a sovereign state is something that we desire. We have no interest in an Iraqi victory. You might remember that we had no relations with Iraq during the years of the Shah or even during the revolutionary period right after the Shah. We're willing to serve in some role which would end the conflict honorably for Iran.

[REDACTED] The U.S. has no illusions, however, about future Iranian relations. The right way is to proceed carefully and quietly. For example, Soviet anxiety could be quickly raised if they knew that we were trying to reestablish relations. We have shared interests for the long-term. We are prepared to improve on the situation that exists now and to do it in a step-by-step way. However, it's really up to Iran, we are ready."

[REDACTED] responded. "Regarding the need for Iran to achieve victory, it is not necessary that we achieve a big decisive military victory, but some kind of victory. Only in the last two years, has our approach with the United States been seen as possible, but it is most important to note that the important thing from Iranian perspective is to get Saddam Hussein out. This can be done by the Arabs. We have no territorial designs on Iraq. We have in fact given orders that no Iranian troops on Iraqi territory will display our flag. Iran wants a government in Baghdad that they can live with. The United States can help with the friendly Arabs."

[REDACTED] North responded. [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] In regard to the points [REDACTED] made: "We were working with Ghorbanifar to make contact, but the letters provided by him to Iran describing our willingness to do certain things were not authorized. Only the document which we produced in Tehran, of which I have provided you a copy, was authorized."

[REDACTED] I want to tell you that unless one of the three men sitting here in the room right now (North, Secord, Sam O'Neill) contact you, there is no official message. With respect to the document we prepared in Tehran, you will note a considerable emphasis on hostages. We consider them to be an obstacle. An obstacle to the understanding of the American people. The widespread perception here in America is that Iran is basically responsible for these hostages. The issue of hostages and terrorism must be dealt with since it is a political obstacle. On the other hand, you should realize that 52,000 people in the U.S. died last year in automobile accidents and 130,000 people died from lung cancer. Five U.S. hostages rarely make the newspapers or the television, but because this is a democracy, if the President is found to be helping Iran with this obstacle still in the way, it would be very difficult to explain to our people."

"From the first, with [redacted] and Ghorbanifar, we have said let's get this issue -- the hostages -- behind us. We recognized that this would be undertaken as a humanitarian gesture on the part of the Iranian Government. [redacted]

[redacted] and to demonstrate our sincerity, at one point, we directed the delivery of 500 TOW missiles and eight hours later they were delivered into Bandar Abbas. But instead of responding favorably, 'rug merchant' type moves resulted, prices were talked about, prices were established for human lives. For instance, 'so many items for so many hostages.' We don't consider this to be a responsible government action and not one that the United States is prepared to engage in."

"We are prepared to continue to provide to Iran items which will help in her defense; but we wish to see the hostage issue behind us so that we can move onward. We have certain items of equipment already prepared for shipment. But you must understand, we cannot give them away. They have to be purchased."

[redacted] interjected with humor saying "haven't they already been paid?"

North responded saying that the TOWs and certain improved HAWK spares had been delivered and paid for, but the intermediary, Ghorbanifar, was complaining that the had not been fully paid.

[redacted] interjected with a political point. He said he agreed that the obstacle had to be removed, but we have to make it much more official and deal directly. Our government thinks that dealing through someone like Secord is a better way to go because they trust him. ~~They can't expect factory prices,~~ but they don't want the same situation to exist that exists today.

North responded saying that "Ghorbanifar always claims to be borrowing and then getting paid in part and rolling debts forward and raising costs and it is very, very confusing and it's impossible for us to follow exactly what it is that he is doing. However, Ghorbanifar knows a great deal and he could be harmful to us if he were to go public and this is the problem which we wish to address. We think that Iran should pay him whatever they owe him so he will be quiet and stay off the air."

[redacted] responded that he has gotten all his money but he will look into it.

North said that we would be happy never to deal with Ghorbanifar again but, if he is to keep quiet, his debt should be paid. "We risk a great deal if we are compromised this early in the game. To be honest, I would just as soon not deal with [redacted] either, but this is an Iranian matter."

continued. "It's good that you established your initial contact with [redacted]. This was important to the people in Tehran although it was not successful, and the proper people were never made aware and poor coordination was done and the meeting was not planned properly and it was, thus, very premature. Still it was important that we did establish initially at least contact with [redacted] because this was a pioneering move and [redacted] would not be in Washington now were it not for this initial opening."

North responded. "We are confident that you represent the Government of Iran and to his credit, as I said, [redacted] did have the first meeting with us in six years. This meeting that we're having now should do much to instill confidence in our two capitals and, if we can proceed, it will be very good."

[redacted] Earlier you mentioned concern for security and concern over terrorism in our airlines and this we appreciate. The Government of Iran announcement that the Pan Am aircraft hijacked in Karachi could not come to Iran was much appreciated. As a further demonstration of our sincerity, we will arrange that next week on Voice of America the United States Government will thank those countries who were involved in helping in the Karachi hijacking and, for the first time, we will mention Iran as having acted in a positive way. It will be done very discretely in a editorial on VOA. Obviously, we cannot have the President go out announce an Embassy is being opened in Tehran. You would have a domestic, political problem and so would we. Thus, back to our obstacle: Truly we wish to get it behind us. We recognize that Tehran does not exercise absolute control over Hizballah, Amal, or Islamic Jihad; but we also know that you can help resolve this issue."

[redacted] responded that the issue "would be resolved." The question of who [redacted] is and what his background is was then raised by North and [redacted] responded that he was a trusted agent of Iran; he had been a loyal officer and now was a businessman and that they had complete confidence in him. North responded we know very little bit about this man and we are obviously concerned for security; we are concerned with the KGB penetrations and so on.

[redacted] responded that he too was concerned over this sort of thing. He also said that with respect to Mr. Hakim, whom he personally liked and wanted to see involved, some in Tehran regard him as a CIA agent. North responded that Hakim was never a spy for the United States; that he has been a consultant to our government on Iranian affairs from time to time; that he had full trust and confidence as a man who wanted to see improvement for the Iranian people and improvement in relations between our two countries.

Because of the requirement for secret communications, he has acted on our behalf and we have investigated him as we investigate everyone. This is important to him because of his interest in the country of his birth and the country of his citizenship. We will include both he and [redacted] in whatever sessions that you wish to have them involved in -- you simply have to tell us.

[redacted] turned back to [redacted]. He said that he is certain that [redacted] has not been profiteering, but instead has been working sincerely but, he [redacted] is a simple man and he could not continue on with this complex relationship.

North said we tend to believe this. "Sam, here, has often talked with [redacted] and there is always inconsistency between what he says and what Gorbachev claims."

[redacted]

North said that we are concerned that the Soviets not become aware of any U.S. Government or Iranian Government relationship. "In Tehran, we recommended that we set-up a secure communication station and this would require us to send two of our men to Tehran to man and operate the station. This would give us good secure communications and would thwart the KGB. We are very concerned about KGB efforts to penetrate any relationship we might establish with the Government of Iran. The Iranian idea for a joint committee elsewhere seems to be a good idea, in principle. Meeting somewhere in Europe is probably the way in which we should proceed to manage this beginning relationship. The problem is that we have to set up some place where it won't be penetrated by the KGB. We are very concerned about communications and the Soviets' ability to intercept."

[redacted] responded that he agreed about the KGB and would like to use a single courier from Iran to Frankfurt via Iran Air from now on until secure communications could be established.

North asked [redacted] if he wants [redacted] on this joint committee?

[redacted] said, "Yes, but only for logistical purposes. I want to give more thought to [redacted] and how he can work with Hakim." With respect to Ghorbanifar, [redacted] said they want to get him out of the loop as soon as they can. He's been profiteering and people in Iran fear that they will be accused of being profiteers.

North responded that Ghorbanifar has some strong Tehran connections that we know of and this remains a problem that needs to be solved. [redacted] said that our record of work with [redacted] have

With respect to the hostage issue, he wants to get it resolved as quickly as possible and he is confident that they can resolve it. He said that Iran wants to make this a full exchange. For instance, "we have in mind to give you fellows T-72 tank, for example."

North again expressed concern about security and about Ghorbanifar, in particular. North also stated that we believe that the oil market is naturally depressed and there is certainly no collusion between ourselves and the Saudis or others to keep prices low, but he agreed that the U.S. and Iran have similar interests with respect to oil.

[REDACTED] returned then to the subject of Buckley.

[REDACTED]

He said that he wanted to assure us that Buckley was not killed; that he died of natural causes; that he had three heart attacks. He also assured that he had been told that the others are all in good shape. He said that there are video tapes of them recently, talking for 20 minutes each and that these will be distributed to news agencies. [REDACTED] also said that there was one letter sent out.

North confirmed that one of the hostage relatives received a letter within a day or so of it being written. North then said that we want all the hostages out

At 1800 hours, the first session ended with a short break and then Albert Hakim and [redacted] joined the group. After being joined by the others, [redacted] said that he was growing tired and asked General Secord to read off the list of Iranian needs which were headed up first by intelligence exchange.

[redacted]

North reviewed the list of logistics support items being requested and responded that, in principle, to the extent that items are available either here or elsewhere there isn't a particular problem. "But as we emphasized to [redacted] in Tehran, we think that you might be thinking too small. People preparing lists are only thinking of the very short-term. We, the U.S., look at two million Iranians without homes; half the oil production facilities knocked out; yesterday's attack on Kharg Island, for instance, is a good example; medical supplies being in great shortage, even shortages of food; and so on. We think that the Iranian planners should be talking to us about other than simple weapons requests."

[redacted] The United States is interested in helping stop the killing and to provide for an adequate defense. We cannot just do these things willy-nilly. For example: 10,000 175mm RAP rounds is not a

"The authorities recognize the need for technical assistance. This was pointed out by General Secord in the Brussels' discussions and we should understand that they really inherited nothing from the Shah in the way of an army. The army was disorganized and very disarrayed. The lower echelon officers, as well as the higher echelon officers, were worth very little. They picked the first steps in this war with the army of the people, the revolutionary guards." He recalled earlier that in a meeting with [redacted] some of the military officers said that they had to have one tank for every Iraqi tank, one plane for every Iraqi plane. "This was not practical and, therefore, over time it was decided that the Iranian revolutionary guard, the army of the people, would be used to repel the enemy. Since then, of course, it has become more technological in nature and there are minimum levels of technological assistance and equipment we badly need and the United States can be very helpful in providing these. Therefore, they are looking forward to trying to establish a decent relationship on a secret basis at first."

At 2015, it was agreed to stop for the day and reconvene on Saturday, September 20, for further discussions.

The session continued on September 20, at 0935 hours in an office near the Sheraton Tysons' Hotel, where [redacted] was staying. Present for the U.S. side were Oliver North, Sam O'Neill, and R. Secord. Only [redacted] represented the Iranian side during these initial discussions.

North opened the session by saying that he would like to make some comments about the logistics support items on the list had provided the day before. "We would like the leadership of Iran to know that President Reagan is aware that the Iranians have immediate needs; that, while we are sympathetic, we're not just interested in being simply an arms dealer; that we are interrupted describing the difficulty of conducting discussions in Tehran. For example, there are three different groups that usually have to be consulted. Also in preparing for the coming offensive, they have shortages in some of the equipments and these are the ones that are mentioned in the list.

█████ said that perhaps we need a secret exchange of letters between our leaders and he will address this upon return to Tehran. █████ stated that after we establish a basis for a relationship, all problems can be addressed. He said that he is completely in agreement with the point about not relying on the arms dealers or other non-official entities. On immediate needs, he could right now order the money to be paid for any of the items that might be available. He said that he could even get the money by telephone.

At this point, [REDACTED] requested that the entire group meet and [REDACTED] and Albert Hakim joined the meeting.

Secrecy takes longer and it costs more. With Ghorbanifar and [REDACTED] we have had a lengthy debate about prices for HAWK spare parts, with [REDACTED] claiming that we have charged six times more than the microfiche prices which he has discovered somewhere. "This has caused great of difficulty for us. [redacted] has misinterpreted the microfiche. We've traced it back to its origins; it's not relevant. But communicating adequately has been next to impossible." Then North gave a short description of how U.S. military equipment is priced; manufacturers' prices; prices to our own forces; prices to allies; and the impact on overall price for the different modes of transfer. North closed by noting that the President has authorized the transfer of a number of TOWs and some HAWK missile parts in connection with this relationship. "In order to maintain secrecy, we have to sanitize the equipment; that is to remove all the original identifying markings and then we have to ship these items through a circuitous route and Israel, as you know, has been involved in this in the past. Thus, not only the time but also the price goes up when using such a complex method to procure and deliver such items." If it is helpful in getting past this obstacle of the hostages, we are prepared to go forward as requested by [redacted] if your leadership is ready. We are prepared to go forward with those items which are already prepared for shipment, i.e., additional HAWK missile spares and TOWs and with prices that are well understood in advance."

A discussion of the pricing then ensued and the price list was given to [redacted] which he said he understood and so did [redacted]. North then noted that we needed to get rid of the hostage issue as soon as possible so that we could proceed on and establish a relationship which we both recognized as necessary and in the interest of both countries. "We recognize that the influence of Iran is indirect in many cases with the groups in Lebanon and we understand it is a difficult issue. We have offered in the past to give Iran credit as a humanitarian gesture if Iran wants this credit. It's an important point and we have to get past it. I want to tell you that with respect to the issue of the Da'wa prisoners held in Kuwait, we cannot go back to the Government of Kuwait on this issue. But I believe that the Government of Kuwait is prepared to release prisoners in a phased way if the Government of Iran goes privately to Kuwait and promises them no terrorism. This seems reasonable -- you should do it. I've been told to reassure the Government of Iran, moreover, that the U.S. citizen, John Pattis, has never been an employee of the United States Government. We did talk to him quite openly, as we talk to many travellers, but he is not a spy and he's not employee of the CIA and he's never employed by the Government of the United States."

A short break was then taken and the meeting reconvened without [redacted] and without Hakim at 1525 hours.

North pointed out that in regard to [redacted] list of equipment, "most of these items would have to come by ship because they are very big and heavy and only a few could come by aircraft." We need to exchange intelligence by courier.

[redacted] We need some time to work this up, but we can do it and would be willing to do it if we can come to some understanding with the Government of Iran.

[redacted] And, two, the Soviet propaganda organ would publicize our activities and cause great difficulties for both sides. We understand that you're prepared to go ahead and make transfers of money immediately in order to start shipments, but the U.S. is much more interested in doing it right than in doing it too fast."

[redacted] then stated that trying to get close to Western governments has created certain problems for his group in Tehran.

North then stated that we have differences, great differences here. "The situations are not the same. Our President is not running for re-election, as you know. There are two years left in his term and he is sincerely interested in changing the course of history with the U.S.-Iranian relations. He has close advisors and aides, who have seen much of war, and they want to see the war out there ended. There is no effect whatever on American elections, and these hostage issues, as you can see, seldom even make the newspapers. Ronald Reagan would like to end this Iran-Iraq war and you might remember that we talked last night about the United States had a long history of acting as a peacemaker. The United States always has great concern for the suffering of people and we know of the impact of this war overall on Iran."

Iran also wants an honorable peace. In return, he expects that Iran will designate three very senior people to go to joint committee meetings. "We could have this joint committee meetings, if you want, by sending a letter to us. We could also always meet under the cover of a UN meeting. I guarantee you one thing though that I will look into this matter of help to Nicaragua immediately; and, if there is such a thing going on, I will stop it immediately. Again I say I will only use a courier until we can establish secure communications -- until we can set-up these committee meetings." After the meeting, he wanted Secord to be available to talk to him some more. He states further that he will be giving a weekly report on the conditions of the hostages and is now certain that he can bring enough pressure to bear to get them released. He will give us at least two days warning before they're released. He hoped that the U.S. can play a predominant role in achieving a peace in Lebanon. "Iran agrees completely with respect to an honorable peace with Iraq; however, Sadam Hussein must go from the Iranian point of view." He knows that it is not our policy, but he knows that we can bring our influence to bear with certain friendly Arab nations and it is "within the power of the Arab nations to get rid of Sadam Hussein."

At this point, at 1730 hours, we agreed to summarize the two days of meetings. [redacted] stated that he wanted to:

- "A. Take steps to form a small staff in Tehran for this project.
- B. Make instructions for the transfers of monies after lists are checked and agreed to.
- C. Inform his leadership about the Voice of America.
- D. Clear the way for the release and form a game plan for the hostages.
- E. As soon as possible, have a joint committee meeting which he, [redacted] would attend. And, hopefully within a week or ten days, this could be arranged."

North interjected that he agreed with this summary, but that added the point about the Da'wa hostages and Kuwait and Kuwait's desire for a guarantee against terrorism. [redacted] took note of this as well. [redacted] closed the session by stating his great appreciation for the hospitality which had been showed by him and North and by all concerned. And, then agreed to establish a brief, very, very brief, ops code for use on the telephone -- simply for the purpose of establishing a place and time of meeting for the joint committee meeting. The meeting ended at 1800 hour.

Comment: During several asides with [redacted], Sam's perception of [redacted] estimate of the two days of discussions is that while [redacted] and we both thought considerable progress was made, [redacted] wanted to discuss the results of the meetings in Washington with responsible officials in Tehran before recommending specific actions and steps be taken. Specific proposals will come at the next meeting with [redacted] and, being Iranian, they will probably be gaged to further tests and assess our sincerity, seems to be O.K. Mr. Sab, Dick, Abe and I will meet here tomorrow from 11:30 until necessary. Will take care of clearing them in such a way that Dick can drive them directly into the south court of OGB and leave his car inside during the meeting. This procedure should suffice for ensuring that he knows he is really meeting with the USF and not someone else. We will walk him over to the May Adams for lunch and then back in through the front gate so that we can get some good polaroid photos for him to take home (he asked Dick, for some way to bring these back with him so that he would not have to worry about getting the film developed at home.)

He will also visit my office appropriately for recording tomorrow's conversations. Questions: Would you or Al want to meet with [redacted] at some point during his time here? Do you think it would be good to introduce him at some point during his brief stay here (he will probably depart Saturday afternoon), to ACM in that ACS is likely to be heading the next delegation back in his homeland?

[redacted] called Dick this morning to advise that he had just returned from Beirut and would very much like to meet with us in Frankfurt, Germany, on Monday, October 6. He indicates that he has "good news" regarding the hostages and that he wishes to get past the "obstacle" as quickly as possible. An appropriate travel approval is attached at Tab 1.

George Cave is taking a well-deserved "mini-vacation" in Rome. We are telling all callers that he is in the hospital for tests on his back. In accord with [redacted] request, the U.S. side would be represented by: Sam O'Neill, Copp, and Goode.

This meeting also affords us the opportunity to deal with the issue of Israeli cooperation. Nir has been calling daily (often several times) urging that we get on with the process in our "joint venture." He constantly cites his September 10 meeting with you as the basis for proceeding urgently. Because we have not told him about our intention to pursue the [redacted] first, he continues to encourage Ghorbanifar to raise the requisite funds for another delivery. Ghorbanifar, in turn, has a frequent dialogue with [redacted] in this regard. All of this tends to create confusion among the various participants and an unnecessary OPSEC vulnerability. We need to act now to reduce the number of channels into the Iranians (at least on a temporary basis) and clarify various roles and missions.

We (Cave, Clarridge, [redacted], and Copp) believe that we should move promptly on both fronts as follows:

- [redacted] O'Neill, Copp, and Goode meet with [redacted] in Frankfurt on Monday, October 6. [redacted] has indicated that he has an internal consensus on how to proceed with regard to the hostages "obstacle." He has said that he will bring with him to this meeting "one of the officials we met with in Tehran" and has asked that we bring with us a definitive sample of the intelligence we had discussed when he was here. Based on this, we believe that [REDACTED] may well accompany [REDACTED]. You will recall that [REDACTED] request for intelligence was very specific (the details were forwarded to you via PROFS). While the sensitivity of providing this information is well-recognized, it must also be noted that intelligence was given a higher priority by [REDACTED] than any other assistance we could provide. In the Casey-Cave-North meeting we had with you after [REDACTED] departed, we all agreed that it was unlikely that providing such information would change the course of the war. Further, we all recognized that the information need not be accurate and that it was highly perishable given the dynamic nature of the conflict. In short, we believe that a mix of factual and bogus information can be provided at this meeting which will satisfy their concerns about "good faith" and that we can use the "perishable argument as an incentive for the Iranians to accept a CIA communications team in Tehran. As before, we would not leave any documents with the Iranians, but will provide an exposition during which they could take detailed notes. Director Casey needs to be told to prepare the intelligence for handcarry to the meeting.

[REDACTED] has said he is bringing a Koran for the President. As a reciprocal gesture, we have purchased a Bible which we would present to [REDACTED] for him to take back to Tehran with him. Given our earlier discussions (see transcript), it would be very helpful if the President would inscribe a brief note citing a particular biblical passage (Tab III) in the front of the Bible. This particular excerpt is important in that it is a new testament reference to Abraham, who is viewed by Moslems, Jews, and Christians as the progenitor of all the world's nations. It would be most effective if the President hand wrote the inscription and initialed/signed it without addressing the note to any particular person.

-- Nir: When Amiram was here, we made a conscious decision not to apprise him of our near-term efforts with Rafsanjani's [REDACTED]. We did inform him earlier of the contact and he continues to inquire regarding the status of this initiative. Meanwhile, lacking guidance to the contrary, Nir has sought to stimulate further activity between Ghorbanifar and [REDACTED]. This has resulted in [REDACTED] calling directly to George's home and office several times daily and considerable confusion regarding why we have not accepted the [REDACTED] Ghorbanifar "offer" to purchase the remaining BAWK spare parts and 500 TOWs.

From an operational perspective, the current communications arrangements are a command and control/OPSEC nightmare (Tab II). Nir essentially controls [redacted] access to both [redacted] and Ghorbanifar and, thus, we often find ourselves reacting to his well intentioned efforts. We believe that we now have an opportunity to change the relationship in such a way that Nir is placed in a supporting role rather than acting as a primary source of control. We also recognize that Israel's participation in this activity is both politically and operationally important. In altering Nir's status, we need to do so in such a way that he and those officials in his government who are cognizant continue to perceive that this is still a "joint venture."

In order to accomplish the objectives outlined above, we propose that on Saturday, October 4, Copp would fly to Tel Aviv and meet with Nir. At the meeting, Copp would use the talking points at Tab IV. In an effort to ameliorate Nir's angst over his "new status," we urge that the letter at Tab V to Prime Minister Peres be signed by the President. If you agree, we need your approval of the talking points at Tab IV and a Presidential signature (real or autopen) on Tab V by 3:00 p.m. Friday, October 3.

The steps above are designed to give us a chance to make the new relationship through the [redacted] function without destroying the Ghorbanifar [redacted] channel. We would, in effect, put Ghorbanifar [redacted] on "hold" until we see what [redacted] produces. Please note that when Copp briefs Nir in Tel Aviv on Saturday, he will not reveal that he is enroute to Frankfurt to meet [redacted]. Given [redacted] strong antipathy toward the Israelis and our uncertainty as to whether or not he knows that Nir (aka Miller) is Israeli, we would tell Nir on Sunday night that we were going to a hastily arranged meeting with [redacted] which he (Nir) will be unable to make due to lack of connecting flights to Frankfurt.

[redacted] has already told us, that shortly after the October 6 meeting, there will be a follow-on meeting of the "joint committee" in which [redacted] will be a participant. Unless we are convinced that the Iranians would recognize Nir as an Israeli, we would intend to invite Nir to this follow-on meeting.

A memo from you to the President has not been prepared for obvious reasons. It is hoped that between now and 3:00 p.m. Friday you will have an opportunity to privately discuss this with the President and obtain his approvals/signatures on the steps indicated above.

COMMUNICATIONS NETS

From an OPSEC perspective, there are too many channels into (and out from) the U.S. We can't hope to have this many players speak with one voice -- no matter how "good" they are individually.

Recommendation: Pare the U.S. communicators down to no more than two individuals (who either compare notes directly each day, or report to a common supervisor); e.g., Sam and Copp, who both report daily to North. Cut Charlie, [redacted], and anybody else out. Have them stop communications cold turkey (to support cover story of A-1 channel being blown, rolled up, and finished).

SENSITIVEINSTRUCTIONS TO COPP FOR MEETING WITH NIRSaturday, October 4, 1986
Tel Aviv, IsraelN 9107

You will have with you a letter from President Reagan to Prime Minister Peres thanking Mr. Nir for his courageous assistance to our mutual cause. You should initiate this discussion by presenting him with a copy of the letter and asking for his advice on delivering the original.

The objective of this discussion is to improve our control of events in this joint effort to establish a strategic relationship with Iran. The talking points below are intended to establish the parameters of your discussion and are designed to elicit further cooperation:

- ADM Poindexter has directed that I see you regarding our current Ghorbanifar [REDACTED] channel and discuss with you ways in which we can move together to accomplish our mutual objective -- a strategic relationship with Iran.
- [REDACTED]
- We believe that the first new hostage (Reed) was probably taken by elements other than Hizballah -- although they may have him in their hands now.
- We think that [REDACTED] may have believed that he could bring additional pressure to bear on us to commence further deliveries by seizing another hostage (or hostages).
- Quite the contrary is true. The President is adamant that we will not move forward on this channel until we resolve the new hostage issue.
- We are also concerned that the two new hostages (or at least Cicippio) represents a clear violation of the "understanding" we have had with the Iranians on anti-U.S. terrorism since June of last year.
- We do not want to engage in a process that results in new hostages just to bring "pressure to bear." Nor will we continue this process if, when the current hostages are released, more are taken, simply to elicit further deliveries of arms.

- Aside from this very strong policy objection to continuing, we have, as you know, had repetitive financial and communications difficulties with Ghorbanifar. While we could debate as to whether or not Ghorbanifar had received all that was due him by the Iranians, the most important factor is potential OPSEC risk.
- In an effort to "keep things moving," Ghorbanifar has made commitments in our name which are patently beyond our ability to meet. This has resulted in increased expectations on the part of the Iranians.
- We know [REDACTED] that neither [REDACTED] nor other Iranian officials in Tehran trust Ghorbanifar. [REDACTED]
- Finally, both of us know that [REDACTED] himself, is not intellectually astute enough to realize the importance of our contact nor the sincerity of our desire to establish an official government-to-government relationship.
- In short, this channel is not serving our mutual objective: the reopening of a strategic relationship with Iran.
- The President has directed that we will not proceed with any further receipt of funds from Ghorbanifar nor deliveries to [REDACTED] until we resolve these issues.
- Several months ago, I apprised you of a contact with the [REDACTED] of Rafsanjani. The USG decided to pursue this contact to determine its validity.
- We are confident that [REDACTED] the man I met with in Brussels, is indeed Rafsanjani's [REDACTED] and that he has been franchised to act as a liaison between the U.S. and Iranian governments.
- When Prime Minister Peres was in Washington last month, the President assured him that we are going to continue this effort as a joint project.
- I have been instructed to seek out a second meeting with [REDACTED] as soon as it can be set up and that I will act as the U.S. intermediary until we establish direct contact with government officials from our side.

- Once we have established direct USG contact with the [redacted] we intend to introduce you into this process under the same conditions as obtained when you went to Tehran with us.
- Based on my one initial meeting with [redacted] and the intelligence we have been able to collect, we believe that this contact may well prove to be the one that both your government and mine have been seeking.

(Remember Nir has been told that you "came upon" [redacted] as a consequence of looking into the possible diversion of TOWs through [redacted] during an investigation undertaken in late July/early August.)
- While we explore the sincerity of [redacted] and confirm his ability to speak for the Iranian government, we want to keep the Ghorbanifar/[redacted] channel on "hold."
- To that end, we have told Sam -- who is in the hospital -- he is to contact [redacted] and tell him that:
  - there must be a meeting with [redacted] before we proceed any further;
  - the issue of the two new hostages has become a strong, negative factor in proceeding at all;
  - this matter (the two new hostages) must be resolved before we will take any further steps for any further deliveries;
  - the problem is not the merchant and his financing, but rather the two new hostages;
  - contrary to what he [redacted] may expect, there will be no further deliveries until we have met and resolved this matter;
  - we have asked [redacted] to meet with us in Frankfurt on October 9 -- we do not yet have an answer.
- I intend to meet with [redacted] somewhere in Europe or Turkey, hopefully this week. I will then report back to Washington on my findings and a follow-on meeting will be set-up -- in which we will attempt to have you included.
- I want to caution you, however, that in my meeting in Brussels [redacted] indicated that he and others in Tehran are aware that you are an Israeli -- and knew it when you went to Tehran.

- Neither of us want this contact, if it is indeed what I think it to be, to founder because of this.
- I have been instructed to find a way to have you in the meeting in which Goode and Sam will serve as the USG representatives.
- If my meeting with [REDACTED] this week goes well, I would expect that all of us could meet with him next week.
- In the interim, if [REDACTED] does indeed agree to meet with us under the conditions we have established, we should proceed with that meeting.

We have quite a bit of news on that front. It looks promising. We have made contact with Rafsanjani. Two meetings so far. One here in US. Ollie, Cave and Secord meet with him this weekend in Frankfurt. Your trip to Tehran paid off. You did get through to the top. They are playing our line back to us. They are worried about Soviets, Afghanistan and their economy. They realize the hostages are obstacle to any productive relationship with us. They want to remove the obstacle. has been in Beirut, says he has good news for Frankfurt. We shall see. Still insisting on group release. If this comes off may ask you to do second round after hostages are back. Keep your fingers crossed.

By the way, I watched the news tonight and see Peggy Say beating up on the Administration for not getting the Beirut hostages out. I haven't heard anything on that score for a while. But I get the sense that we are pretty much at the mercy of the Iranians.

If you think it would be of any value, I might be able to take a couple of months off and work on the problem. No guarantees and no need for any sponsorship (except for airfares and hotels) but I might be able to turn something up. Think about it.

Please note that when Copp briefs Nir in Tel Aviv on Saturday, he will not reveal that he is enroute to Frankfurt to meet ~~Given~~ strong antipathy toward the Israelis and our uncertainty as to whether or not he knows that Nir (aka Miller) is Israeli, we would tell Nir on Sunday night that we were going to a hastily arranged meeting with ~~which~~ he (Nir) will be unable to make due to lack of connecting flights to Frankfurt.

~~has~~ already told us, that shortly after the October 6 meeting, there will be a follow-on meeting of the "joint committee" in which ~~will~~ be a participant. Unless we are convinced that the Iranians would recognize Nir as an Israeli, we would intend to invite Nir to this follow-on meeting.

A memo from you to the President has not been prepared for obvious reasons. It is hoped that between now and 3:00 p.m. Friday you will have an opportunity to privately discuss this with the President and obtain his approvals/signatures on the steps indicated above.

COMMUNICATIONS NETS

From an OPSEC perspective, there are too many channels into (and out from) the U.S. We can't hope to have this many players speak with one voice -- no matter how "good" they are individually.

Recommendation: Pare the U.S. communicators down to no more than two individuals (who either compare notes directly each day, or report to a common supervisor); e.g., Sam and Copp, who both report daily to North. Cut Charlie, [redacted], and anybody else out. Have them stop communications cold turkey (to support cover story of [redacted] channel being blown, rolled up, and finished).

SENSITIVEINSTRUCTIONS TO COPP FOR MEETING WITH NIR

Saturday, October 4, 1986
Tel Aviv, Israel

N 9107
2827

You will have with you a letter from President Reagan to Prime Minister Peres thanking Mr. Nir for his courageous assistance to our mutual cause. You should initiate this discussion by presenting him with a copy of the letter and asking for his advice on delivering the original.

The objective of this discussion is to improve our control of events in this joint effort to establish a strategic relationship with Iran. The talking points below are intended to establish the parameters of your discussion and are designed to elicit further cooperation:

- ADM Poindexter has directed that I see you regarding our current Ghorbanifar [redacted] channel and discuss with you ways in which we can move together to accomplish our mutual objective -- a strategic relationship with Iran.
- [redacted]
- We believe that the first new hostage (Reed) was probably taken by elements other than Hizballah -- although they may have him in their hands now.
- We think that [redacted] may have believed that he could bring additional pressure to bear on us to commence further deliveries by seizing another hostage (or hostages).
- Quite the contrary is true. The President is adamant that we will not move forward on this channel until we resolve the new hostage issue.
- We are also concerned that the two new hostages (or at least Cicippio) represents a clear violation of the "understanding" we have had with the Iranians on anti-U.S. terrorism since June of last year.
- We do not want to engage in a process that results in new hostages just to bring "pressure to bear." Nor will we continue this process if, when the current hostages are released, more are taken, simply to elicit further deliveries of arms.

- Aside from this very strong policy objection to continuing, we have, as you know, had repetitive financial and communications difficulties with Ghorbanifar. While we could debate as to whether or not Ghorbanifar had received all that was due him by the Iranians, the most important factor is potential OPSEC risk.
- In an effort to "keep things moving," Ghorbanifar has made commitments in our name which are patently beyond our ability to meet. This has resulted in increased expectations on the part of the Iranians.
- We know [redacted] that neither [redacted] nor other Iranian officials in Tehran trust Ghorbanifar. [redacted]
- Finally, both of us know that [redacted] himself, is not intellectually astute enough to realize the importance of our contact nor the sincerity of our desire to establish an official government-to-government relationship.
- In short, this channel is not serving our mutual objective: the reopening of a strategic relationship with Iran.
- The President has directed that we will not proceed with any further receipt of funds from Ghorbanifar nor deliveries to [redacted] until we resolve these issues.
- Several months ago, I apprised you of a contact with the [redacted] of Rafsanjani. The USG decided to pursue this contact to determine its validity.
- We are confident that [redacted] the man I met with in Brussels, is indeed Rafsanjani [redacted] and that he has been franchised to act as a liaison between the U.S. and Iranian governments.
- When Prime Minister Peres was in Washington last month, the President assured him that we are going to continue this effort as a joint project.
- I have been instructed to seek out a second meeting with [redacted] as soon as it can be set up and that I will act as the U.S. intermediary until we establish direct contact with government officials from our side.

-- Once we have established direct USG contact with the [redacted] we intend to introduce you into this process under the same conditions as obtained when you went to Tehran with us.

-- Based on my one initial meeting with [redacted] and the intelligence we have been able to collect, we believe that this contact may well prove to be the one that both your government and mine have been seeking.

(Remember Nir has been told that you "came upon" [redacted] as a consequence of looking into the possible diversion of TOWs through [redacted] during an investigation undertaken in late July/early August.)

-- While we explore the sincerity of [redacted] and confirm his ability to speak for the Iranian government, we want to keep the Ghorbanifar/[redacted] channel on "hold."

-- To that end, we have told Sam -- who is in the hospital -- he is to contact [redacted] and tell him that:

- there must be a meeting with [redacted] before we proceed any further;
- the issue of the two new hostages has become a strong, negative factor in proceeding at all;
- this matter (the two new hostages) must be resolved before we will take any further steps for any further deliveries;
- the problem is not the merchant and his financing, but rather the two new hostages;
- contrary to what he [redacted] may expect, there will be no further deliveries until we have met and resolved this matter;
- we have asked [redacted] to meet with us in Frankfurt on October 9 -- we do not yet have an answer.

-- I intend to meet with [redacted], somewhere in Europe or Turkey, hopefully this week. I will then report back to Washington on my findings and a follow-on meeting will be set-up -- in which we will attempt to have you included.

-- I want to caution you, however, that in my meeting in Brussels [redacted] indicated that he and others in Tehran are aware that you are an Israeli -- and knew it when you went to Tehran.

- Neither of us want this contact, if it is indeed what I think it to be, to founder because of this.
- I have been instructed to find a way to have you in the meeting in which Goode and Sam will serve as the USG representatives.
- If my meeting with [REDACTED] this week goes well, I would expect that all of us could meet with him next week.
- In the interim, if [REDACTED] does indeed agree to meet with us under the conditions we have established, we should proceed with that meeting.

SECOND: TWO THINGS WE WANT TO TALK ABOUT. WE WON'T SPEND MUCH TIME.
BUT TWO THINGS ARE VERY IMPORTANT.

CAVE: ((INTERPRETS))

SECOND: ?HE/WE? SAID THAT IRAN, THE COUNTRY, IS NOW RUN LIKE SHAREHOLDING--
DIFFERENT GROUPS SHARING POWER.

CAVE: ((INTERPRETS))

SECOND: OUR GROUP, WHICH IS THE PRESIDENT AND HIS MEN, ARE VERY CONCERNED

AS TO WHETHER OR NOT WE ARE INDEED DEALING WITH THE GOVERNMENT OF IRAN. THEY RECOGNIZE THAT THERE ARE DIFFERENT FACTIONS; YET THEY STILL QUESTION WHETHER WE'RE DEALING WITH THE TOP.

CAVE: ((INTERPRETS))

SECOND: THIS EXERCISE THAT WE'VE RUN THROUGH THE PAST SEVERAL WEEKS ABOUT GETTING THE MONEY INTO THE BANK, INTO OUR SYSTEM SO WE CAN GET THE TOWS, HAS BEEN WORSE THAN A ((WORD MISSING)). IT'S BEEN TERRIBLE, AND THE IMAGE CREATED BACK IN WASHINGTON IS WHAT WORRIES ME.

CAVE: ((INTERPRETS))

SECOND: JUST AS IN ANY BIG COUNTRY, THE PRESIDENT GETS INFORMATION FROM MANY OF HIS DEPARTMENTS--HIS INTELLIGENCE PEOPLE, INFORMATION PEOPLE, SENIOR ADVISORS. A NUMBER OF ADVISORS TO THE PRESIDENT THINK THAT WE'RE CRAZY--WE MUST BE CRAZY.

CAVE: ((INTERPRETS))

SECOND: SO MAYBE SAM AND I AND NORTH CAN UNDERSTAND SOME OF THIS BECAUSE WE LIVE WITH IT. BUT OTHERS CANNOT. IT JUST DOES NOT MAKE SENSE, IT'S NOT LOGICAL. I WANT TO MAKE THIS PROCESS A REASONABLE, LOGICAL PROCESS.

CAVE: ((INTERPRETS))

((PHONE RINGS. [REDACTED] TALKS WITH SOMEONE IN PERSIAN BRIEFLY ABOUT CLEARING UP THE PROBLEMS WITH THE ACCOUNT NUMBER.))

CAVE: ((PORTION INAUDIBLE)). THEY'VE GOT EVERYTHING MOVING. ((PORTION INAUDIBLE)).

SECOND: I GUESS THAT'S GOOD NEWS. THIS, OF COURSE, WOULD BE ONE VERY IMPORTANT STEP IN CREATING THE KIND OF SITUATION WE WANT TO CREATE WHICH IS ONE OF MUTUAL TRUST. IF WE CANNOT DEVELOP IN THE NEXT FEW WEEKS A CONDITION WHERE WASHINGTON AND TEHRAN HAVE AT LEAST SOME TRUST IN ONE ANOTHER, WE'LL FAIL.

CAVE: ((INTERPRETS))

SECOND: TILL WE PREPARE TO GO FORWARD. TILL WE GET READY TO MOVE FORWARD, YOU NEED TO GET THE MONEY FROM EUROPE HERE SOME PLACE, SO YOU HAVE YOUR HANDS ON IT, SO IT CAN BE RELEASED WITHIN A DAY OF THE TIME THAT WE AGREE TO TAKE ANOTHER STEP. WE NEED TO HAVE THE MONEY ALL RIGHT HERE WITHOUT ANY STRINGS ON IT SO WE DON'T HAVE TO GO THROUGH THIS JOKE AGAIN.

CAVE: ((INTERPRETS))

SECOND: NOW, WHAT WE'RE CONCERNED WITH IS NOT THE MONEY ITSELF. BUT BACK HOME IN WASHINGTON PEOPLE SAY IF YOU ARE DEALING WITH THE IRANIAN GOVERNMENT, THEN THREE MILLION DOLLARS, ?FOUR MILLION?, IS NOTHING. YOU MUST NOT BE DEALING WITH THE GOVERNMENT.

CAVE: ((INTERPRETS))

PARTICIPANTS: U.S.: Oliver North      Iranian: [REDACTED]
 Richard Secord
 Sam O'Neill

First session convened in the Old Executive Office Building at 12:15 p.m. on Friday, September 19, 1986. [REDACTED] opened the session, and after preliminary pleasantries, outlined four points which he wished to address initially. One, the Iranian position vs. what they perceive to be the U.S.'s number one enemy -- Russia. Second, their view of American and Iranian strategic interests in the area. Third, past relations of the United States with revolutionary Iran. Fourth, their views for future relations with the United States.

[REDACTED] then launched into a lengthy exposition with respect to the foregoing issues. He said that the Soviets are a great and aggressive power with a long border with Iran. They recognize that Russia is a direct enemy of the United States and that, with respect to Iranian interests, they do not wish to have antagonistic relations with the USSR, but on the other hand being a friend of the Soviets could be even more dangerous because Soviet ideology is directly opposed to Iran's. They also recognize that their brothers in Afghanistan are suffering under the Soviets. Finally, the Soviets are directly supporting the Iraqis in the war against the Iranians and killing Iranian soldiers. Back to the question of the long border with Russia, [REDACTED] noted Secord statement in Brussels to the effect that the United States would oppose a Soviet thrust into Iran with or without support of the Government of Iran. The Government of Iran found this statement to be interesting and comforting. The leaders of Iran are very worried today about the "fantastic" increase of Soviet intelligence operations in Iran in recent times.

[REDACTED] The Soviets are attempting to exploit Iranian internal problems. He went on to acknowledge that the revolutionary environment in Iran has many weaknesses. Their security services are weak for instance.

[REDACTED] next turned to relations between the Government of Iran and the United States Government. He says that some cooperation is necessary in their view.

Next, Iran needs U.S. influence with the Arab countries friendly to the United States in order to help diminish support for Iraq. Third is the matter of oil, which is vital to Iranian economy. They need U.S. support in this matter. Fourth and most important, he said, is the security of the Gulf and terrorism against U.S. interests and hostages.

He said he wanted to make these things clear and one of the Iranian leaders in particular has asked that he make this message very clear.

On the subject of security, he said this has two aspects. One is the fear of the flood of terrorism in the region and the second is the overall effects of the current war. With respect to terrorists and hostages, he said that the Shiite religion under the Aytollah is absolutely opposed to terrorism and the taking of hostages. For instance, after the explosions in Lebanon, the Aytollah wrote a "Fatwa," which is a religious ruling absolutely opposing terrorism and the taking of hostages. But, we the United States have to understand that Iran still does not have strong, effective security forces and firm control. He admits that there are people within Iran who do espouse hostage taking and terrorism.

[REDACTED]

[REDACTED] the Government of Iran needs more information in order to confront them and they would like to have this from the United States. [REDACTED] emphasized that from the standpoint of humanity, Iran is against hostage taking and terrorism and even has a certain amount of sympathy for the U.S. at the current time. In the case of Lebanon, Iran considers that they have in the past been helpful to the U.S. In the TWA hijacking, in getting information on the hostages and in the release of two hostages, Iran has already helped. [REDACTED] said that the Iranians have attraction in places like Lebanon because of the "right-minded masses of peoples' sympathy" for the Iranian revolution. But he said that both Iran and the United States are victims of this hostage business. He next turned to the Iran-Iraq war. Iran, he said, needs a "victory" and that he will explain what he means by victory. Lack of security in Iran is a real problem for the United States. Secord's comments in Brussels were well received and his analysis of the war was keenly received by the leadership in Iran.

[REDACTED]

With respect to United States and Iran, [REDACTED] provided a quick analysis. Until two years ago, it was difficult for anyone in Iran to consider any kind of United States Government/Iranian relations. There were several probes in the past two years and he wanted to know if they were real.

[REDACTED]

And finally, what [REDACTED] regarded as the worst channel, they've also received numerous probes and letters from an unnamed arms dealer in Europe. Some in Iran believed in these probes from the arms dealers, but "I personally," [REDACTED] said, "did not believe in them." [REDACTED] claimed to have been working on this opening of relations with the U.S. for two years now and that the real problem is the lack of communications. "One and a half years ago, an arms dealer came, allegedly with word from [redacted] about exchanging two hostages for arms. We don't trust this arms dealer. After the discussions with Secord and Hakim in Brussels, the leadership has come up with the idea of forming a 'joint committee' that would sit down and resolve the problems step-by-step and that we have a great opportunity to do this now."

~~TOP SECRET~~~~TOP SECRET~~

~~TOP SECRET~~~~TOP SECRET~~
UNCLASSIFIED

[redacted] went on to emphasize the critical importance of this direct meeting here in Washington. "A stage-by-stage plan is needed with which both sides can agree and we need to get on with it quickly while the opportunity is still here."

North responded. "Happy you are here and hope that there is now no doubt that you are talking directly with the Government of the United States directly."

"We understand your problems with respect to channels of communications. We have had the same problem. In all honesty, we are still not in a position to have very good relations, but we are certainly interested in a step-by-step approach to the problem. We have received assurances from General Secord about the genuineness of this particular channel to Iran and, therefore, the President has authorized this meeting. I understand your sensitivity on this, because it is important to have good communications in order to proceed."

[redacted] We recognize that your connection with the arms dealer, Ghorbanifar, was not acceptable and is not acceptable to us either. However, he did bring us into contact with an official of the Government of Iran [redacted]. This was our first meeting with a Government of Iran official in over six years. As you know now after meetings in Germany with [redacted] we arranged for a delegation to go to Tehran. The President chose a most trusted adviser to lead this mission -- Robert McFarlane. The reason why we went to Tehran was to try to establish the channel of which you now speak. Unfortunately, we met with only a few officials most of whom used false names. We met with none of the people that we expected to meet with and the meeting was a great disappointment to our President."

[redacted] interjected that it is important for him to know the names of the people in the discussion insofar as to what the people looked

~~TOP SECRET~~~~TOP SECRET~~
UNCLASSIFIED

~~TOP SECRET~~~~TOP SECRET~~
UNCLASSIFIED

like and what assumed names they used. North continued. "You should understand that this meeting in Tehran was a great disappointment to us. It has been difficult since then to convince the leadership here of the need to try to continue in the face of that failure. While we were there, we even prepared a draft Memorandum of Understanding to establish this channel. We understood the need for secrecy and I can show you this draft here now, if you wish to read it."

"There are a number of things which you should understand about why we have pursued this attempt to be in contact with your government. President Reagan is a very strong and popular President. He has helped the United States to recover from a period of economic and military weakness. He has restored economic and military strength to the U.S. Most important, he has restored the will of American people. The U.S. is no longer afraid to use its power in its own defense, and it is not intimidated by the Soviets. Yesterday, we expelled 25 Soviets from the United Nations. We will not give in to Soviet pressure in Afghanistan, Angola, or Central America. The United States wants relations on the basis of reciprocity with all states and, of course, this includes Iran. We want to solve our disputes through discussions not through fighting. The United States believes that many trends are working in its favor -- economy, technology, politics, all working in favor of the United States. Reagan has two more years and has a strong moral position in the eyes of the United States and of the world. The President strongly believes in the words of the Holy Book as do you. He believes deeply in the teachings of the God of Abraham. Thus, he is very popular here and should be popular in the world of Islam. When we went to Tehran, he said to tell you that we accept your revolution as a fact. We admit that there have been missteps along the road since the revolution, but it is important to tell you that there is a responsible and sincere wish in the leadership here to establish communications/relations with Iran. Therefore, we must speak frankly in order to facilitate this. Our policy is based, not on emotion, but on perceptions built-up over the years. There are many things that you have said which we can agree to, but there is a perception that Iran has used revolutionary Islam against the United States. For example, it is clear that some in the Government of Iran have encouraged the taking of U.S. hostages as a means of getting back convicted prisoners held by the Kuwaitis and that there has been a direct connection between the Da'wa, Hizballah, and elements inside the Government of Iran. Therefore, since we're a democracy, as long as this perception exists, we have a great obstacle in the way of doing what the President wants and what you say Iran wants. Also, we see anti-U.S. activity emanating from Iran in Central America."

questioned the basis for this information. North responded. This is all based on accurate intelligence. For example, in Nicaragua, Iran actively supports the communist government there and Iran plans to ship 10,000 rifles and other munitions to Nicaragua through North Korea. These activities serve Soviet interests and in the long-term jeopardize Iran and the United States. In spite of this, the President has directed us to proceed with attempt to establish discrete and, when appropriate, a public relationship with Iran. The President's direction is based on two important principals: One, concern over the Soviets vis-a-vis Iran and; two, our desire to ensure the territorial integrity of Iran and the other Gulf States. We accept the revolution as a fact. The territorial integrity of Iran and the other states in the region are of great importance to the United States.

The United States does not wish to see Iran lose. We do not want to see an attempt against Iraq which will bring in the Soviets. The Soviets, on the other hand, are in a difficult position. Their economy is a disaster; they've suffered major reverses, for instance, Chernobyl; Soviet defectors are showing up all over the world; Soviet ships run into each other in the Black Sea; Soviet submarine-launched missiles accidentally land in China. Last week, six Soviets were killed in Peru. They see the Iran-Iraq war and Afghanistan as very important to them, but neither of these wars are going well for them. They have two things, however, that are advantageous to them. One is great military power, capable of intimidating their neighbors; and two is a very, very effective KGB. We believe that they are capable of using these two instruments of power. Therefore, we understand that Iran can be not their enemy, nor their friend. We have common interests. Iran's continuation as a sovereign state is something that we desire. We have no interest in an Iraqi victory. You might remember that we had no relations with Iraq during the years of the Shah or even during the revolutionary period right after the Shah. We're willing to serve in some role which would end the conflict honorably for Iran.

[REDACTED] The U.S. has no illusions, however, about future Iranian relations. The right way is to proceed carefully and quietly. For example, Soviet anxiety could be quickly raised if they knew that we were trying to reestablish relations. We have shared interests for the long-term. We are prepared to improve on the situation that exists now and to do it in a step-by-step way. However, it's really up to Iran, we are ready."

[REDACTED] responded. "Regarding the need for Iran to achieve victory, it is not necessary that we achieve a big decisive military victory, but some kind of victory. Only in the last two years, has our approach with the United States been seen as possible, but it is most important to note that the important thing from Iranian perspective is to get Saddam Hussein out. This can be done by the Arabs. We have no territorial designs on Iraq. We have in fact given orders that no Iranian troops on Iraqi territory will display our flag. Iran wants a government in Baghdad that they can live with. The United States can help with the friendly Arabs."

North responded. [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] In regard to the points made: "We were working with Ghorbanifar to make contact, but the letters provided by him to Iran describing our willingness to do certain things were not authorized. Only the document which we produced in Tehran, of which I have provided you a copy, was authorized."

[REDACTED] I want to tell you that unless one of the three men sitting here in the room right now (North, Secord, Sam O'Neill) contact you, there is no official message. With respect to the document we prepared in Tehran, you will note a considerable emphasis on hostages. We consider them to be an obstacle. An obstacle to the understanding of the American people. The widespread perception here in America is that Iran is basically responsible for these hostages. The issue of hostages and terrorism must be dealt with since it is a political obstacle. On the other hand, you should realize that 52,000 people in the U.S. died last year in automobile accidents and 130,000 people died from lung cancer. Five U.S. hostages rarely make the newspapers or the television, but because this is a democracy, if the President is found to be helping Iran with this obstacle still in the way, it would be very difficult to explain to our people."

"From the first, with [redacted] and Ghorbanifar, we have said let's get this issue -- the hostages -- behind us. We recognized that this would be undertaken as a humanitarian gesture on the part of the Iranian Government. [redacted]

[redacted] and to demonstrate our sincerity, at one point, we directed the delivery of 500 TOW missiles and eight hours later they were delivered into Bandar Abbas. But instead of responding favorably, 'rug merchant' type moves resulted, prices were talked about, prices were established for human lives. For instance, 'so many items for so many hostages.' We don't consider this to be a responsible government action and not one that the United States is prepared to engage in."

"We are prepared to continue to provide to Iran items which will help in her defense; but we wish to see the hostage issue behind us so that we can move onward. We have certain items of equipment already prepared for shipment. But you must understand, we cannot give them away. They have to be purchased."

[redacted] interjected with humor saying "haven't they already been paid?"

North responded saying that the TOWs and certain improved HAWK spares had been delivered and paid for, but the intermediary, Ghorbanifar, was complaining that the had not been fully paid.

[redacted] interjected with a political point. He said he agreed that the obstacle had to be removed, but we have to make it much more official and deal directly. Our government thinks that dealing through someone like Secord is a better way to go because they trust him. They don't expect factory prices, but they don't want the same situation to exist that exists today.

North responded saying that "Ghorbanifar always claims to be borrowing and then getting paid in part and rolling debts forward and raising costs and it is very, very confusing and it is impossible for us to follow exactly what it is that he is doing. However, Ghorbanifar knows a great deal and he could be harmful to us if he were to go public and this is the problem which we wish to address. We think that Iran should pay him whatever they owe him so he will be quiet and stay off the air."

[redacted] responded that he has gotten all his money but he will look into it.

North said that we would be happy never to deal with Ghorbanifar again but, if he is to keep quiet, his debt should be paid. "We risk a great deal if we are compromised this early in the game. To be honest, I would just as soon not deal with [redacted] either, but this is an Iranian matter."

continued. "It's good that you established your initial contact with [redacted]. This was important to the people in Tehran although it was not successful, and the proper people were never made aware and poor coordination was done and the meeting was not planned properly and it was, thus, very premature. Still it was important that we did establish initially at least contact with [redacted] because this was a pioneering move and [redacted] would not be in Washington now were it not for this initial opening."

North responded. "We are confident that you represent the Government of Iran and to his credit, as I said, [redacted] did have the first meeting with us in six years. This meeting that we're having now should do much to instill confidence in our two capitals and, if we can proceed, it will be very good."

Earlier you mentioned concern for security and concern over terrorism in our airlines and this we appreciate. The Government of Iran announcement that the Pan Am aircraft hijacked in Karachi could not come to Iran was much appreciated. As a further demonstration of our sincerity, we will arrange that next week on Voice of America the United States Government will thank those countries who were involved in helping in the Karachi hijacking and, for the first time, we will mention Iran as having acted in a positive way. It will be done very discretely in a editorial on VOA. Obviously, we cannot have the President go out announce an Embassy is being opened in Tehran. You would have a domestic, political problem and so would we. Thus, back to our obstacle: Truly we wish to get it behind us. We recognize that Tehran does not exercise absolute control over Hizballah, Amal, or Islamic Jihad; but we also know that you can help resolve this issue."

responded that the issue "would be resolved." The question of who [redacted] is and what his background is was then raised by North and [redacted] responded that he was a trusted agent of Iran; he had been a loyal officer and now was a businessman and that they had complete confidence in him. North responded we know very little bit about this man and we are obviously concerned for security; we are concerned with the KGB penetrations and so on.

responded that he too was concerned over this sort of thing. He also said that with respect to Mr. Hakim, whom he personally liked and wanted to see involved, some in Tehran regard him as a CIA agent. North responded that Hakim was never a spy for the United States; that he has been a consultant to our government on Iranian affairs from time to time; that he had full trust and confidence as a man who wanted to see improvement for the Iranian people and improvement in relations between our two countries.

Because of the requirement for secret communications, he has acted on our behalf and we have investigated him as we investigate everyone. This is important to him because of his interest in the country of his birth and the country of his citizenship. We will include both he and [REDACTED] in whatever sessions that you wish to have them involved in -- you simply have to tell us.

[REDACTED] turned back to [REDACTED]. He said that he is certain that [REDACTED] has not been profiteering, but instead has been working sincerely but, he [REDACTED] is a simple man and he could not continue on with this complex relationship.

North said we tend to believe this. "Sam, here, has often talked with [REDACTED] and there is always inconsistency between what he says and what Gorba claims."

[REDACTED]

North said that we are concerned that the Soviets not become aware of any U.S. Government or Iranian Government relationship. "In Tehran, we recommended that we set-up a secure communication station and this would require us to send two of our men to Tehran to man and operate the station. This would give us good secure communications and would thwart the KGB. We are very concerned about KGB efforts to penetrate any relationship we might establish with the Government of Iran. The Iranian idea for a joint committee elsewhere seems to be a good idea, in principle. Meeting somewhere in Europe is probably the way in which we should proceed to manage this beginning relationship. The problem is that we have to set up some place where it won't be penetrated by the KGB. We are very concerned about communications and the Soviets' ability to intercept."

[REDACTED] responded that he agreed about the KGB and would like to use a single courier from Iran to Frankfurt via Iran Air from now on until secure communications could be established.

North asked [REDACTED] if he wants [REDACTED] on this joint committee?

[REDACTED] said, "Yes, but only for logistical purposes. I want to give more thought to [REDACTED] and how he can work with Hakim." With respect to Ghorbanifar, [REDACTED] said they want to get him out of the loop as soon as they can. He's been profiteering and people in Iran fear that they will be accused of being profiteers.

North responded that Ghorbanifar has some strong Tehran connections that we know of and this remains a problem that needs to be solved. [REDACTED] said that our reports on [REDACTED] with [REDACTED] have been very well handled.

[REDACTED] With respect to the hostage issue, he wants to get it resolved as quickly as possible and he is confident that they can resolve it. He said that Iran wants to make this a full exchange. For instance, "we have in mind to give you fellows T-72 tank, for example."

North again expressed concern about security and about Ghorbanifar in particular. North also stated that we believe that the oil market is naturally depressed and there is certainly no collusion between ourselves and the Saudis or others to keep prices low, but he agreed that the U.S. and Iran have similar interests with respect to oil.

[REDACTED] returned then to the subject of Buckley.

[REDACTED] He said that he wanted to assure us that Buckley was not killed; that he died of natural causes; that he had three heart attacks. He also assured that he had been told that the others are all in good shape. He said that there are video tapes of them recently, talking for 20 minutes each and that these will be distributed to news agencies. [REDACTED] also said that there was one letter sent out.

North confirmed that one of the hostage relatives received a letter within a day or so of it being written. North then said that we want all the hostages out.

At 1800 hours, the first session ended with a short break and then Albert Hakim and [redacted] joined the group. After being joined by the others, [redacted] said that he was growing tired and asked General Secord to read off the list of Iranian needs which were headed up first by intelligence exchange.

[redacted]

North reviewed the list of logistics support items being requested and responded that, in principle, to the extent that items are available either here or elsewhere there isn't a particular problem. "But as we emphasized to [redacted] in Tehran, we think that you might be thinking too small. People preparing lists are only thinking of the very short-term. We, the U.S., look at two million Iranians without homes; half the oil production facilities knocked out; yesterday's attack on Kharg Island, for instance, is a good example; medical supplies being in great shortage, even shortages of food; and so on. We think that the Iranian planners should be talking to us about other than simple weapons requests."

[redacted] the United States is interested in helping stop the killing and to provide for an adequate defense. We cannot just do these things willy-nilly. For example: 10,000 175mm RAP rounds is not a

"The authorities recognize the need for technical assistance. This was pointed out by General Secord in the Brussels' discussions and we should understand that they really inherited nothing from the Shah in the way of an army. The army was disorganized and very disarrayed. The lower echelon officers, as well as the higher echelon officers, were worth very little. They picked the first steps in this war with the army of the people, the revolutionary guards." He recalled earlier that in a meeting with [redacted] some of the military officers said that they had to have one tank for every Iraqi tank, one plane for every Iraqi plane. "This was not practical and, therefore, over time it was decided that the Iranian revolutionary guard, the army of the people, would be used to repel the enemy. Since then, of course, it has become more technological in nature and there are minimum levels of technological assistance and equipment we badly need and the United States can be very helpful in providing these. Therefore, they are looking forward to trying to establish a decent relationship on a secret basis at first."

At 2015, it was agreed to stop for the day and reconvene on Saturday, September 20, for further discussions.

The session continued on September 20, at 0935 hours in an office near the Sheraton Tysons' Hotel, where [redacted] was staying. Present for the U.S. side were Oliver North, Sam O'Neill, and R. Secord. Only [redacted] represented the Iranian side during these initial discussions.

North opened the session by saying that he would like to make some comments about the logistics support items on the list had provided the day before. "We would like the leadership of Iran to know that President Reagan is aware that the Iranians have immediate needs; that, while we are sympathetic, we're not just interested in being simply an arms dealer; that we are interested in helping the immediate defensive needs in such a way that Iran does not lose the war. We also want to help you with some immediate domestic requirements and we want to help you end the war honorably. The President is willing to play whatever role necessary to help end the war in an honorable fashion."

~~TOP SECRET~~UNCLASSIFIED

█████ said that perhaps we need a secret exchange of letters between our leaders and he will address this upon return to Tehran. █████ stated that after we establish a basis for a relationship, all problems can be addressed. He said that he is completely in agreement with the point about not relying on the arms dealers or other non-official entities. On immediate needs, he could right now order the money to be paid for any of the items that might be available. He said that he could even get the money by telephone.

North said that we believe that this has to done in absolute secrecy.

█████ interrupted describing the difficulty of conducting discussions in Tehran. For example, there are three different groups that usually have to be consulted. Also in preparing for the coming offensive, they have shortages in some of the equipments and there are the ones that are mentioned in his list.

█████ With respect to finances since we don't have a formal relationship, we have to do these transactions in a very secret fashion and since our laws are very specific, we have to have payment before delivery of any hardware.

At this point, █████ requested that the entire group meet and █████ and Albert Hakim joined the meeting.

North then stated again that we are trying to get past the issue of the hostages and, in the past, to show our good faith, we have moved certain items to Iran. We are also trying to do things with secrecy. We understand that with normal relations it's going to take time.

Secrecy takes longer and it costs more. With Ghorbanifar and █████ we have had a lengthy debate about prices for HAWK spare parts, with █████ claiming that we have charged six times more than the microfiche prices which he has discovered somewhere. "This has caused great difficulty for us. [REDACTED] has misinterpreted the microfiche. We've traced it back to its origins; it's not relevant. But communicating adequately has been next to impossible." Then North gave a short description of how U.S. military equipment is priced; manufacturers' prices; prices to our own forces; prices to allies; and the impact on overall price for the different modes of transfer. North closed by noting that the President has authorized the transfer of a number of TOWs and some HAWK missile parts in connection with this relationship. "In order to maintain secrecy, we have to sanitize the equipment; that is to remove all the original identifying markings and then we have to ship these items through a circuitous route and Israel, as you know, has been involved in this in the past. Thus, not only the time but also the price goes up when using such a complex method to procure and deliver such items." If it is helpful in getting past this obstacle of the hostages, we are prepared to go forward as requested by [REDACTED] if your leadership is ready. We are prepared to go forward with those items which are already prepared for shipment, i.e., additional HAWK missile spares and TOWs and with prices that are well understood in advance."

~~TOP SECRET~~~~UNCLASSIFIED~~

A discussion of the pricing then ensued and the price list was given to [REDACTED] which he said he understood and so did [REDACTED]. North then noted that we needed to get rid of the hostage issue as soon as possible so that we could proceed on and establish a relationship which we both recognized as necessary and in the interest of both countries. "We recognize that the influence of Iran is indirect in many cases with the groups in Lebanon and we understand it is a difficult issue. We have offered in the past to give Iran credit as a humanitarian gesture if Iran wants this credit. It's an important point and we have to get past it. I want to tell you that with respect to the issue of the Da'wa prisoners held in Kuwait, we cannot go back to the Government of Kuwait on this issue. But I believe that the Government of Kuwait is prepared to release prisoners in a phased way if the Government of Iran goes privately to Kuwait and promises them no terrorism. This seems reasonable -- you should do it. I've been told to reassure the Government of Iran, moreover, that the U.S. citizen, John Pattis, has never been an employee of the United States Government. We did talk to him quite openly, as we talk to many travellers, but he is not a spy and he's not employee of the CIA and he's never employed by the Government of the United States."

A short break was then taken and the meeting reconvened without [REDACTED] and without Hakim at 1525 hours.

North pointed out that in regard to [redacted] list of equipment, "most of these items would have to come by ship because they are very big and heavy and only a few could come by aircraft." He need to exchange intelligence by courier.

[redacted] We need some time to work this up, but we can do it and would be willing to do it if we can come to some understanding with the Government of Iran.

[redacted] And, two, the Soviet propaganda organ would publicize our activities and cause great difficulties for both sides. We understand that you're prepared to go ahead and make transfers of money immediately in order to start shipment; but the U.S. is much more interested in doing it right than in doing it too fast."

[redacted] then stated that trying to get close to Western governments has created certain problems for his group in Tehran.

North then stated that we have differences, great differences here. "The situations are not the same. Our President is not running for re-election, as you know. There are two years left in his term and he is sincerely interested in changing the course of history with the U.S.-Iranian relations. He has close advisors and aides, who have seen much of war, and they want to see the war out there ended. There is no effect whatever on American elections, and these hostage issues, as you can see, seldom even make the newspapers. Ronald Reagan would like to end this Iran-Iraq war and you might remember that we talked last night about the United States had a long history of acting as a peacemaker. The United States always has great concern for the suffering of people and we know of the impact of this war overall on Iran."

~~TOP SECRET~~~~TOP SECRET~~
UNCLASSIFIED

Iran also wants an honorable peace. In return, he expects that Iran will designate three very senior people to go to joint committee meetings. "We could have this joint committee meetings, if you want, by sending a letter to us. We could also always meet under the cover of a UN meeting. I guarantee you one thing though that I will look into this matter of help to Nicaragua immediately; and, if there is such a thing going on, I will stop it immediately. Again I say I will only use a courier until we can establish secure communications -- until we can set-up these committee meetings." After the meeting, he wanted Secord to be available to talk to him some more. He states further that he will be giving a weekly report on the conditions of the hostages and is now certain that he can bring enough pressure to bear to get them released. He will give us at least two days warning before they're released. He hoped that the U.S. can play a predominant role in achieving a peace in Lebanon. "Iran agrees completely with respect to an honorable peace with Iraq; however, Saddam Hussein must go from the Iranian point of view." He knows that it is not our policy, but he knows that we can bring our influence to bear with certain friendly Arab nations and it is "within the power of the Arab nations to get rid of Saddam Hussein."

At this point, at 1730 hours, we agreed to summarize the two days of meetings. [redacted] stated that he wanted to:

- "A. Take steps to form a small staff in Tehran for this project.
- B. Make instructions for the transfers of monies after lists are checked and agreed to.
- C. Inform his leadership about the Voice of America.
- D. Clear the way for the release and form a game plan for the hostages.
- E. As soon as possible, have a joint committee meeting which he, [redacted] would attend. And, hopefully within a week or ten days, this could be arranged."

North interjected that he agreed with this summary, but that added the point about the Da'wa hostages and Kuwait and Kuwait's desire for a guarantee against terrorism. [redacted] took note of this as well. [redacted] closed the session by stating his great appreciation for the hospitality which had been showed by him and North and by all concerned. And, then agreed to establish a brief, very, very brief, ops code for use on the telephone -- simply for the purpose of establishing a place and time of meeting for the joint committee meeting. The meeting ended at 1800 hour.

Comment: During several asides with [redacted], Sam's perception of [redacted] estimate of the two days of discussions is that while [redacted] and we both thought considerable progress was made, [redacted] wanted to discuss the results of the meetings in Washington with responsible officials in Tehran before recommending specific actions and steps be taken. Specific proposals will come at the next meeting with [redacted] and, being Iranian, they will probably be gaged to further tests and assess our sincerity,

((TAPE BEGINS WITH HAKIM AND [REDACTED] TALKING QUIETLY TOGETHER. AT TIMES, EVEN WHISPERING. ONLY A FEW PHRASES COULD BE HEARD. AT ONE POINT HAKIM SAYS, "THESE PEOPLE THINK THAT THEY ARE TALKING WITH ONE INTEGRATED GROUP, SO THAT IF YOU SAID ANYTHING IN FRONT OF [REDACTED] WHEN HE WAS THERE, THEY DON'T HAVE TO REPEAT IT ALL TO YOU THE NEXT TIME." THEN U.S. PARTIES ENTER THE ROOM AND SEVERAL CONVERSATIONS ARE TAKING PLACE SIMULTANEOUSLY. THEN TALKS RESUME.))

ECCRD: BEFORE YOU GO TO THIS PINELO, MAY I ADDRESS THIS LIST? I'M GOING TO ADDRESS THIS LIST. THERE ARE SOME TERRIFIC PRACTICAL PROBLEMS HERE. THERE ARE A COUPLE OF REAL, AS OPPOSED TO PHILOSOPHICAL, PROBLEMS WITH THIS LIST.

AKIM: ((INTERPRETS))

ECCRD: THE FIRST IS POLITICAL.

(( [REDACTED] LEAVES THE ROOM AT THIS POINT TO GO TO BATHROOM. AND U.S. NEGOTIATORS DISCUSS STRATEGY WITH HAKIM. PROBLEMS WITH ITEMS ON IRANIAN SHOPPING LIST. THEN [REDACTED] COMES BACK IN THE ROOM.))

ECCRD: THE FIRST PROBLEM IS POLITICAL. BASED UPON PREVIOUS OFFICIAL REQUESTS OF THE IRANIAN GOVERNMENT, I.E. [REDACTED] AND VERIFIED, AND I WOULD UNDERLINE, DESPERATE REQUESTS FROM HIM, FOR TOWNS FOR HAWK PARTS AND FOR HIGH POWERED RADARS. WE HAVE ACHIEVED PRESIDENTIAL AUTHORITY FOR IMMEDIATE AIR DELIVERY OF THOSE ITEMS

ECCRD: [REDACTED] CAN DENY THIS OR NOT DENY THIS. IT IS IRRELEVANT. WE HAVE DOCUMENTARY PROOF. IT'S NOT EVEN WORTH DISCUSSING.

AKIM: ((INTERPRETS))

ECCRD: AND THE PRESIDENT OF THE U.S. HAS APPROVED A SECRET OPERATION TO DELIVER THESE ITEMS IMMEDIATELY, AND WE WOULD HAVE ALREADY DELIVERED THEM EXCEPT THAT WE WERE ASKED TO HOLD UP SO THAT WE COULD HAVE THESE HIGHER LEVEL DISCUSSIONS.

AKIM: ((INTERPRETS))

ECCRD: WHICH SEEMS REASONABLE TO ME AND GOOD BECAUSE WE WANTED TO HAVE A MORE RELIABLE NATIONAL SYSTEM FOR DISCUSSIONS.

AKIM: ((INTERPRETS))

ECCRD: WE ALSO, I HOPE, MADE CLEAR TO [REDACTED] IN WASHINGTON THAT WE DON'T REGARD THESE ITEMS BY THEMSELVES AS BEING PARTICULARLY DIFFICULT TO ACQUIRE--SOME OF THE LARGE NUMBERS, FOR INSTANCE, 10 THOUSAND 173 SOURCE WOULD TAKE A LONG TIME.

AKIM: ((INTERPRETS))

C11020401

ECCRD: AND IF YOU TELL US THAT WHEN WE DELIVER THESE FIRST AIRPLANE LOADS THAT OUR HOSTAGES ARE GOING TO BE RELEASED, WE WILL START PRICING THESE AND GOING FOR POLITICAL AUTHORITY, AND GETTING ((FEW WORDS MISSED)), BUT WE CAN'T DARE GO OUT AND START DOING SOMETHING LIKE THIS UNTIL WE HAVE THE POLITICAL SUCCESS BEHIND US.

AKIM: ((INTERPRETS, BUT HIS INTERPRETATION DIFFERS SOMEWHAT. HE SAID, IN PERSIAN)) THIS IS STILL PART OF THE POLITICAL PROBLEM. HE SAYS THAT WHEN WE ARE SURE THAT THE MATTER OF THE HOSTAGES HAS BEEN RESOLVED AND WE HAVE PUT THIS PROBLEM BEHIND US, ((INTERPRETED BY KNOCK ON DOOR.))

ECCRD: WE WOULD LOSE OUR SECRECY.

WHEN YOU SAY THE ITEMS ARE NOT DIFFICULT TO OBTAIN. ((FEW WORDS MISSED))

AKIM: ((IN PERSIAN)) IF YOU LOOK AT THESE ITEMS INDIVIDUALLY, IT IS NOT DIFFICULT TO OBTAIN THEM, BUT JUST TO TAKE THE FIRST STEP, TO ((FEW WORDS UNCLEAR)) ETC., IT IS NECESSARY TO ELIMINATE THIS POLITICAL PROBLEM. WE DO NOT DARE TO START STIR THINGS UP BY GETTING PRICES, ETC. ((THEN, IN ENGLISH TO THE U.S. SIDE)) IF I MAY, AT THIS TIME, I FIND IT APPROPRIATE TO EXPLAIN TO HIM WHY THIS IS DIFFICULT TO START WITHOUT POLITICAL SUPPORT AND ADD WHAT YOU TOLD ME EARLIER.

NORTH: LET ME, OKAY? EVERYTHING THAT THE GENERAL SAID IS ENTIRELY ACCURATE. WHEN WE LOOKED AT THIS LIST, WE ESTIMATED THAT, EXCLUDING THESE TWO ITEMS, THE HAWK AND THE TCWS, WE ARE LOOKING AT A MINIMUM OF FOUR SHIPLOADS OF EQUIPMENT.

AKIM: ((INTERPRETS))

NORTH: THOUSANDS OF PEOPLE IN THE U.S., AT A MINIMUM, WOULD KNOW ABOUT THAT.

AKIM: ((INTERPRETS))

NORTH: IF WE ARE GOING TO DO SOMETHING LIKE THIS, IT HAS TO BE VERY CLEAR THAT WE ARE DOING THIS BECAUSE WE ARE WORKING FOR A MILITARY BALANCE IN THE REGION AND A POLITICAL SOLUTION AND HONORABLE SOLUTION TO THE IRAN-IRAG WAR.

AKIM: ((INTERPRETS)) (BUT SAYS "THE WORLD MUST UNDERSTAND THAT WE ARE EMPARKING ON A COURSE TO CREATE A BALANCE OF POWER, THAT MUST BE THE UNDERSTANDING THAT THE WORLD HAS.")

NORTH: IN ORDER FOR US TO BE SEEN AS TAKING A POLITICAL ROLE IN ACHIEVING A BALANCE IN THE MILITARY SITUATION, OUR JUSTIFICATION FOR THAT, WE MUST BE ABLE TO TELL OTHER PEOPLE, TO INCLUDE OUR OWN PEOPLE, THAT WE ARE CARRYING ON A DIALOGUE WITH THE GOVERNMENT OF IRAN.

AKIM: ((INTERPRETS))

NORTH: IN ORDER FOR US TO CARRY ON A DIALOGUE WITH THE GOVERNMENT OF IRAN, THAT IS POLITICALLY ACCEPTABLE TO OUR PEOPLE, WE MUST HAVE TAKEN THAT ROCK IN THE ROAD, THAT OBSTACLE, AND PUT IT BEHIND US.

AKIM: ((INTERPRETS)) HE SPELLED OUT FOR THE IRANIANS THAT THE "ROCK IN THE ROAD" IS A REFERENCE TO THE HOSTAGES.

C 375

3RTH: HE TOOK THE LIST, THAT LIST RIGHT THERE, AND HE WENT LIKE THIS WITH IT--I WAS SITTING ACROSS THE TABLE--AND HE SAID, "FOR SOMEONE WHO HAS SEEN SO MUCH WAR AS YOU HAVE, NORTH, YOU SHOULD UNDERSTAND THAT I WANT TO END THAT WAR ON TERMS THAT ARE ACCEPTABLE TO IRAN."

3KIN: ((INTERPRETS))

3RTH: "... I DON'T WANT TO SIMPLY HELP GO OUT AND KILL MORE IRANIAN YOUNGSTERS. WHAT ABOUT THE 2 MILLION PEOPLE WITHOUT HOMES? WHAT ABOUT THE OIL INDUSTRY WHICH IS ALREADY IN RUINS? WHAT ABOUT THE INDUSTRIAL BASE OF IRAN WHICH IS BEING DESTROYED? STOP COMING IN AND LOOKING LIKE A GUN MERCHANT." AND HE BANGED ON THE TABLE. "I WANT TO END THE WAR."

HAKIM: ((INTERPRETS)) AND I WANT YOU TO KNOW THAT EVEN TODAY, AS I'M SITTING HERE, WE DO NOT HAVE A GUARANTEE THAT THE LEBANESE WOULD 100 PERCENT LISTEN TO WHAT WE HAVE TO SAY.

HAKIM: ((INTERPRETS)) WE MUST PUT AT STAKE THE SUBSTANCE THAT WOULD BE EQUAL WITH OUR EXISTENCE.

HAKIM: ((INTERPRETS)) AND YOU KNOW THAT EVEN UP TO THIS DATE, IN CONNECTION WITH THE TEHRAN HOSTAGES WE ARE STILL ((FEW WORDS MISSED)) IN A MESS.

HAKIM: ((INTERPRETS)) THEREFORE, PLEASE UNDERSTAND MY PROBLEM. I CANNOT GO TO IRAN AND SAY FORGET ABOUT THE 500-MILLION DOLLARS IN THE HAGUE ISSUE, AND I DO NOT EXPECT IN THIS MEETING TO RESOLVE THAT.

HAKIM: ((INTERPRETS)) AND HE IS BEING CONTINUOUSLY REMINDED THAT IN A CASE THAT THERE WERE NO OTHER PARTIES INVOLVED, IF IT WAS ONLY IRAN AND THE U.S., THIS ((FEW WORDS MISSED)) STILL BE A MESS IN THE HAGUE. NOW THE SITUATION WOULD BE IF THERE WERE OTHER ELEMENTS INVOLVED

HAKIM: ((INTERPRETS)) WE MUST UNDERSTAND WHAT MY ROLE IS. I HAVE TO GAIN THE IRANIAN CONFIDENCE AND THE LEBANESE CONFIDENCE.

HAKIM: ((INTERPRETS)) PLEASE SHOW ME THE WAY.

ORTH: LET ME GIVE YOU SOME APPRECIATION FOR YOUR COURSE. FIRST OF ALL, WE HAVE ALREADY, IN AN EFFORT TO SHOW THAT WE ARE SINCERE AND THAT WE REALLY DO WANT TO HAVE COOPERATION WITH YOUR GOVERNMENT--AND A RELATIONSHIP--WE HAVE TAKEN THE FOLLOWING STEPS:

HAKIM: ((INTERPRETS))

NORTH: THE PRESIDENT SENT TO TEHRAN ONE OF HIS MOST TRUSTED ADVISORS. WHEN [REDACTED] WAS IN WASHINGTON, HE ASKED FOR A FURTHER SIGN THAT HE COULD TAKE BACK HOME ABOUT OUR SINCERITY.

HAKIM: ((INTERPRETS))

NORTH: HE MENTIONED TWO THINGS SPECIFICALLY. THE VOICE OF AMERICA AND THE HAGUE. THE FOLLOWING FRIDAY, THE EXACT WORDS I TOLD HIM WERE BROADCAST OVER VOICE OF AMERICA.

HAKIM: ((INTERPRETS))

NORTH: WORDS THAT HE AND I HAD AGREED ON. AND, SINCE THEN, TWO BIG CASES IN THE HAGUE HAVE BEEN SETTLED.

HAKIM: ((INTERPRETS))

NORTH: NOW IF YOU THINK THAT LIST OF WEAPONS IS A BIG PROBLEM, YOU OUGHT TO TRY THE HAGUE. OKAY? THAT'S A DIFFICULT PROBLEM. THE CLAIMS TRIBUNAL IS AN EVEN MORE DIFFICULT ISSUE TO WORK THAN THIS.

HAKIM: ((INTERPRETS)) [REDACTED] DOESN'T SEEM TO KNOW WHAT THE CLAIMS TRIBUNAL IS.

NORTH: THAT IS BECAUSE MOST OF THE CASES IN THE HAGUE ARE PRIVATE COMPANIES WHO HAVE A COURT CASE INVOLVING THE GOVERNMENT OF IRAN.

HAKIM: ((INTERPRETS))

NORTH: THERE IS RELATIVELY LITTLE U.S. GOVERNMENT INVOLVEMENT IN THAT ACTIVITY.

HAKIM: ((INTERPRETS))

NORTH: I SAY THESE THINGS TO YOU BECAUSE, QUITE FRANKLY, WHEN I GO BACK HOME I HAVE THE SAME PROBLEM YOU DO.

AND THEY ARE EXPENDABLES IN THE NATURE OF WHICH THERE IS REGULAR MANUFACTURING LOTS PRODUCED BECAUSE THEY ARE IN SUCH WIDE USE. SO THAT IT IS VERY EASY FOR US TO OBTAIN THEM. I CAN GO DOWN THIS LIST AND POINT OUT TO HIM THAT THE PROBLEM WE HAVE WITH THE HOWITZERS IS THE TIME LAG THAT IT IS GOING TO TAKE, BECAUSE TO GET 500 BARRELS IF WE DO IT ALL FROM AMERICAN SOURCE, 100 TONED HOWITZERS PLUS 500 BARRELS, THEY'RE GOING TO HAVE TO OPEN UP A PRODUCTION LINE.

((TAPE BEGINS WITH HAKIM AND [REDACTED] TALKING QUIETLY TOGETHER. AT TIMES, EVEN WHISPERING. ONLY A FEW PHRASES COULD BE HEARD. AT ONE POINT HAKIM SAYS, "THESE PEOPLE THINK THAT THEY ARE TALKING WITH ONE INTEGRATED GROUP, SO THAT IF YOU SAID ANYTHING IN FRONT OF [REDACTED] WHEN HE WAS THERE, THEY DON'T HAVE TO REPEAT IT ALL TO YOU THE NEXT TIME." THEN U.S. PARTIES ENTER THE ROOM AND SEVERAL CONVERSATIONS ARE TAKING PLACE SIMULTANEOUSLY. THEN TALKS RESUME.))

ECCRD: BEFORE YOU GO TO THIS PINTEL, MAY I ADDRESS THIS LIST? I'M GOING TO ADDRESS THIS LIST. THERE ARE SOME TERRIFIC PRACTICAL PROBLEMS HERE. THERE ARE A COUPLE OF REAL, AS OPPOSED TO PHILOSOPHICAL, PROBLEMS WITH THIS LIST.

SKIM: ((INTERPRETS))

ECCRD: THE FIRST IS POLITICAL.

(( [REDACTED] LEAVES THE ROOM AT THIS POINT TO GO TO BATHROOM? AND U.S. NEGOTIATORS DISCUSS STRATEGY WITH HAKIM. PROBLEMS WITH ITEMS ON IRANIAN SHOPPING LIST. THEN [REDACTED] COMES BACK IN THE ROOM.))

ECCRD: THE FIRST PROBLEM IS POLITICAL. BASED UPON PREVIOUS OFFICIAL REQUESTS OF THE IRANIAN GOVERNMENT, I.E. [REDACTED] AND VERIFIED. AND I WOULD UNDERLINE, DESPERATE REQUESTS FROM HIM, FOR TOWS FOR HAWK PARTS AND FOR HIGH POWERED RADARS. WE HAVE ACHIEVED PRESIDENTIAL AUTHORITY FOR IMMEDIATE AIR DELIVERY OF THOSE ITEMS

ECCRD: [REDACTED] CAN DENY THIS OR NOT DENY THIS. IT IS IRRELEVANT. WE HAVE DOCUMENTARY PROOF. IT'S NOT EVEN WORTH DISCUSSING.

SKIM: ((INTERPRETS))

ECCRD: AND THE PRESIDENT OF THE U.S. HAS APPROVED A SECRET OPERATION TO DELIVER THESE ITEMS IMMEDIATELY. AND WE WOULD HAVE ALREADY DELIVERED THEM EXCEPT THAT WE WERE ASKED TO HOLD UP SO THAT WE COULD HAVE THESE HIGHER LEVEL DISCUSSIONS.

SKIM: ((INTERPRETS))

ECCRD: WHICH SEEMED REASONABLE TO US AND GOOD BECAUSE WE WANTED TO HAVE A MORE RELIABLE NATIONAL SYSTEM FOR DISCUSSIONS.

SKIM: ((INTERPRETS))

ECCRD: WE ALSO, I WOULD, MADE CLEAR TO [REDACTED] IN WASHINGTON THAT WE DON'T REGARD THESE ITEMS BY THEMSELVES AS BEING PARTICULARLY DIFFICULT TO ACQUIRE--SOME OF THE LARGE NUMBERS, FOR INSTANCE, 10 THOUSAND TOWS WOULD BE ALONG THE

ECORD: AND IF YOU TELL US THAT WHEN WE DELIVER THESE FIRST AIRPLANE LOADS THAT OUR HOSTAGES ARE GOING TO BE RELEASED, WE WILL START PRICING THESE AND GOING FOR POLITICAL AUTHORITY, AND GETTING ((FEW WORDS MISSED)), BUT WE CAN'T DARE GO OUT AND START DOING SOMETHING LIKE THIS UNTIL WE HAVE THE POLITICAL SUCCESS BEHIND US.

AKIM: ((INTERPRETS, BUT HIS INTERPRETATION DIFFERS SOMEWHAT. HE SAID, IN PERSIAN)) THIS IS STILL PART OF THE POLITICAL PROBLEM. HE SAYS THAT WHEN WE ARE SURE THAT THE MATTER OF THE HOSTAGES HAS BEEN RESOLVED AND WE HAVE PUT THIS PROBLEM BEHIND US, ((INTERLUPTED BY KNOCK ON DOOR.))

ECORD: WE WOULD LOSE OUR SECRECY.

WHEN YOU SAY THE ITEMS ARE NOT DIFFICULT TO OBTAIN. ((FEW WORDS MISSED))

AKIM: ((IN PERSIAN)) IF YOU LOOK AT THESE ITEMS INDIVIDUALLY, IT IS NOT DIFFICULT TO OBTAIN THEM, BUT JUST TO TAKE THE FIRST STEP, TO ((FEW WORDS UNCLEAR)) ETC. IT IS NECESSARY TO ELIMINATE THIS POLITICAL PROBLEM. WE DO NOT DARE TO START STIR THINGS UP BY GETTING PRICES, ETC. ((THEN, IN ENGLISH TO THE U.S. SIDE)) IF I MAY, AT THIS TIME, I FIND IT APPROPRIATE TO EXPLAIN TO HIM WHY THIS IS DIFFICULT TO START WITHOUT POLITICAL SUPPORT AND ADD WHAT YOU TOLD ME EARLIER.

ORTH: LET ME, OKAY? EVERYTHING THAT THE GENERAL SAID IS ENTIRELY ACCURATE. WHEN WE LOOKED AT THIS LIST, WE ESTIMATED THAT, EXCLUDING THESE TWO ITEMS, THE HAWK AND THE TOWS, WE ARE LOOKING AT A MINIMUM OF FOUR SHIPLOADS OF EQUIPMENT.

AKIM: ((INTERPRETS))

ORTH: THOUSANDS OF PEOPLE IN THE U.S. AT A MINIMUM, WOULD KNOW ABOUT THAT.

AKIM: ((INTERPRETS))

ORTH: IF WE ARE GOING TO DO SOMETHING LIKE THIS, IT HAS TO BE VERY CLEAR THAT WE ARE DOING THIS BECAUSE WE ARE WORKING FOR A MILITARY BALANCE IN THE REGION AND A POLITICAL SOLUTION, AND HONORABLE SOLUTION TO THE IRAN-IRAG WAR.

AKIM: ((INTERPRETS)) (BUT SAYS "THE WORLD MUST UNDERSTAND THAT WE ARE ENGAGING IN A COURSE TO CREATE A BALANCE OF POWER THAT MUST BE THE UNDERSTANDING THAT THE WORLD HAS")

ORTH: IN ORDER FOR US TO BE SEEN AS TAKING A POLITICAL ROLE IN ACHIEVING A BALANCE IN THE MILITARY SITUATION, OUR JUSTIFICATION FOR THAT, WE MUST BE ABLE TO TELL OTHER PEOPLE, TO INCLUDE OUR OWN PEOPLE, THAT WE ARE CARRYING ON A DIALOGUE WITH THE GOVERNMENT OF IRAN.

AKIM: ((INTERPRETS))

ORTH: IN ORDER FOR US TO CARRY ON A DIALOGUE WITH THE GOVERNMENT OF IRAN THAT IS POLITICALLY ACCEPTABLE TO OUR PEOPLE, WE MUST HAVE TAKEN THAT ROCK IN THE ROAD, THAT OBSTACLE, AND PUT IT BEHIND US.

AKIM: ((INTERPRETS)) IT SPELLS OUT FOR THE IRANIANS THAT THE "ROCK IN THE ROAD" IS A REFERENCE TO THE HOSTAGES.

IRTH: THAT SATURDAY WHEN [REDACTED] WAS IN WASHINGTON, AND I FLEW UP TO CAMP DAVID TO TALK TO THE PRESIDENT, AND I SHOWED HIM THE LIST, AND HE SAID, "WHY ARE YOU THINKING SO SMALL?"

AKIM: ((INTERPRETS))

C 375

IRTH: HE TOOK THE LIST, THAT LIST RIGHT THERE, AND HE WENT LIKE THIS WITH IT--I WAS SITTING ACROSS THE TABLE--AND HE SAID, "FOR SOMEONE WHO HAS SEEN SO MUCH WAR AS YOU HAVE, NORTH, YOU SHOULD UNDERSTAND THAT I WANT TO END THAT WAR ON TERMS THAT ARE ACCEPTABLE TO IRAN."

AKIM: ((INTERPRETS))

IRTH: "... I DON'T WANT TO SIMPLY HELP GO OUT AND KILL MORE IRANIAN YOUNGSTERS. WHAT ABOUT THE 2 MILLION PEOPLE WITHOUT HOMES? WHAT ABOUT THE OIL INDUSTRY WHICH IS ALREADY IN RUINS? WHAT ABOUT THE INDUSTRIAL BASE OF IRAN WHICH IS BEING DESTROYED? STOP COMING IN AND LOOKING LIKE A GUN MERCHANT." AND HE BANGED ON THE TABLE. "I WANT TO END THE WAR."

AKIM: ((INTERPRETS))

IRTH: AND EVERYTIME WE GET TO THE POINT WHERE WE CAN ACT IN THAT REGARD, WE FIND THIS OBSTACLE SITTING IN THE MIDDLE OF THE ROAD.

AKIM: ((INTERPRETS)) ((ASKS FOR PERMISSION FROM THE U.S. NEGOTIATORS TO TALK WITH [REDACTED] ABOUT THE ROLE HE IS PLAYING IN THIS.))

AKIM: ((INTERPRETS)) I THINK LIKE YOU DO IN THE EVALUATION OF THIS SUBJECT AND ITS SOLUTION.

AKIM: ((INTERPRETS)) AND I ALSO UNDERSTAND THAT THE MAIN PROBLEM IS WHAT YOU JUST DISCOVERED.

AKIM: ((INTERPRETS)) BUT HOW CAN I DEFEAT THE PRESTIGE AND HONOR OF MY COUNTRY WHILE I AM NOT CONVINCED THAT I HAVE SOMETHING IN HAND?

AKIM: ((INTERPRETS)) I SHOULD BE IN A POSITION WHEN I GO BACK AND TELL THE LEADERS OF IRAN THAT I WANT YOU TO PUT AT STAKE YOUR HONOR IN TRADE FOR THIS WHICH IS THE HONOR OF THE U.S.

HAKIM: ((INTERPRETS)) AND I WANT YOU TO KNOW THAT EVEN TODAY, AS I'M SITTING HERE, WE DO NOT HAVE A GUARANTEE THAT THE LEBANESE WOULD 100 PERCENT LISTEN TO WHAT WE HAVE TO SAY.

HAKIM: ((INTERPRETS)) WE MUST PUT AT STAKE THE SUBSTANCE THAT WOULD BE EQUAL WITH OUR EXISTANCE.

HAKIM: ((INTERPRETS)) AND YOU KNOW THAT EVEN UP TO THIS DATE, IN CONNECTION WITH THE TEHRAN HOSTAGES WE ARE STILL ((FEW WORDS MISSSED)) IN A MESS.

HAKIM: ((INTERPRETS)) THEREFORE, PLEASE UNDERSTAND MY PROBLEM. I CANNOT GO TO IRAN AND SAY FORGET ABOUT THE 500-MILLION DOLLARS IN THE HAGUE ISSUE, AND I DO NOT EXPECT IN THIS MEETING TO RESOLVE THAT.

HAKIM: ((INTERPRETS)) AND HE IS BEING CONTINUOUSLY REMINDED THAT IN A CASE THAT THERE WERE NO OTHER PARTIES INVOLVED, IF IT WAS ONLY IRAN AND THE U.S., THIS ((FEW WORDS MISSSED)) STILL BE A MESS IN THE HAGUE. NOW THE SITUATION WOULD BE IF THERE WERE OTHER ELEMENTS INVOLVED

HAKIM: ((INTERPRETS)) WE MUST UNDERSTAND WHAT MY ROLE IS. I HAVE TO GAIN THE IRANIAN CONFIDENCE AND THE LEBANESE CONFIDENCE.

HAKIM: ((INTERPRETS)) PLEASE SHOW ME THE WAY.

LETH: LET ME GIVE YOU SOME APPRECIATION FOR YOUR CONC. FIRST OF ALL, WE HAVE ALREADY, IN AN EFFORT TO SHOW THAT WE ARE SINCERE AND THAT WE REALLY DO WANT TO HAVE AN AMITY TREATY WITH YOUR GOVERNMENT--AND A RELATIONSHIP--I HAVE TAKEN THE FOLLOWING STEPS

HAKIM: ((INTERPRETS))

HAKIM: ((INTERPRETS))
CAVE: ((IN PERSIAN)) AND I WAS THREE AND A HALF MILLION DOLLARS IN DEBT TO OUR GOVERNMENT.

NORTH: SINCE THEN, WE HAVE SHIPPED A 1000 MORE TCNS.

HAKIM: ((INTERPRETS))

NORTH: WE DELIVERED ALL OF THE HAWK PARTS THAT HAVE BEEN REQUESTED THAT WE HAD ON HAND.

HAKIM: ((INTERPRETS))

NORTH: THE PRESIDENT SENT TO TEHRAN ONE OF HIS MOST TRUSTED ADVISORS. WHEN [REDACTED] WAS IN WASHINGTON, HE ASKED FOR A FURTHER SIGN THAT HE COULD TAKE BACK HOME ABOUT OUR SINCERITY.

HAKIM: ((INTERPRETS))

NORTH: HE MENTIONED TWO THINGS SPECIFICALLY. THE VOICE OF AMERICA AND THE HAGUE. THE FOLLOWING FRIDAY, THE EXACT WORDS I TOLD HIM WERE BROADCAST OVER VOICE OF AMERICA.

HAKIM: ((INTERPRETS))

NORTH: WORDS THAT HE AND I HAD AGREED ON. AND, SINCE THEN, TWO BIG CASES IN THE HAGUE HAVE BEEN SETTLED.

HAKIM: ((INTERPRETS))

NORTH: NOW IF YOU THINK THAT LIST OF WEAPONS IS A BIG PROBLEM, YOU OUGHT TO TRY THE HAGUE. OKAY? THAT'S A DIFFICULT PROBLEM. THE CLAIMS TRIBUNAL IS AN EVEN MORE DIFFICULT ISSUE TO WORK THAN THIS.

HAKIM: ((INTERPRETS)) [REDACTED] DOESN'T SEEM TO KNOW WHAT THE CLAIMS TRIBUNAL IS.

NORTH: THAT IS BECAUSE MOST OF THE CASES IN THE HAGUE ARE PRIVATE COMPANIES WHO HAVE A COURT CASE INVOLVING THE GOVERNMENT OF IRAN.

HAKIM: ((INTERPRETS))

NORTH: THERE IS RELATIVELY LITTLE U.S. GOVERNMENT INVOLVEMENT IN THAT ACTIVITY.

HAKIM: ((INTERPRETS))

NORTH: I SAY THESE THINGS TO YOU BECAUSE, QUITE FRANKLY, WHEN I GO BACK HOME I HAVE THE SAME PROBLEM YOU DO.

HAKIM: ((INTERPRETS))

AKIN: ((INTERPRETS))

378

AKIN: ((INTERPRETS))

ORTH: I HAVE EXPLAINED THAT THAT IS INDEED A VERY DIFFICULT STEP FOR IRAN TO TAKE.

AKIN: ((INTERPRETS))

ORTH: WE RECOGNIZE THAT THOSE WHO HOLD THE HOSTAGES MOST WANT THEIR BRETHREN WHO ARE HELD IN KUWAIT AS CONVICTED TERRORISTS FREED.

AKIN: ((INTERPRETS))

ORTH: VERY, VERY PRIVATELY WITH THE KUWAITIS. LAST FRIDAY, WE HELPED TO TRY AND SET THE STAGE FOR THAT KIND OF THING TO HAPPEN IN A DIRECT DIALOGUE BETWEEN IRAN AND KUWAIT.

AKIN: ((INTERPRETS))

ORTH: WE HAVE ASSURED THE KUWAITIS--A VERY, VERY EXPERIENCED FOREIGN MINISTER--THAT THE DAWA PRISONERS ARE THEIR BUSINESS. BUT YOU SHOULD KNOW, VERY, VERY PRIVATELY, THAT WHAT THAT MEANS IS THAT IF THE KUWAITIS DECIDE TO RELEASE THEM OVER SOME LENGTH OF TIME OR FOR SOME RELIGIOUS REASON, THAT WE ARE NOT GOING TO CRITICIZE THEM

AKIN: ((INTERPRETS))

AKIN: ((IN PERSIAN)) AND THIS IS A VERY IMPORTANT DECISION THAT OUR COUNTRY HAS TO BE BASED ON OUR LAWS.

ORTH: NOW, YOU AND I BOTH KNOW THAT THERE ARE RELIGIOUS OCCASIONS THAT CAN BE USED TO RELEASE PRISONERS.

AKIN: ((INTERPRETS))

ORTH: YOU AND I BOTH KNOW WHAT THE KUWAITIS REALLY WANT IN ORDER TO RELEASE THEIR PRISONERS.

AKIN: ((INTERPRETS))

ORTH: AND IT'S VERY COMPLEX. THE KUWAITIS ARE LOOKING FOR ASSURANCE FROM SOMEONE RESPONSIBLE, SOMEONE IN AUTHORITY, THAT IF THEY RELEASE THESE PRISONERS OVER A PERIOD OF TIME, THAT THERE WON'T BE ANY MORE ATTACKS ON THE PART OF THE DAWA.

CAVE: I HAVE A POINT TO MAKE ABOUT THIS LIST THAT I DON'T KNOW IF THE GENERAL MADE THAT IS VERY IMPORTANT FROM MY RESPONSE FOR GETTING THIS STUFF. THAT I THINK THAT HE SHOULD BE AWARE OF THAT THE MATERIAL THAT WE HAVE SHIPPED, THE TOW MISSILES, ARE EXPENDABLES; AND THEY ARE EXPENDABLES IN THE MANNER OF WHICH THERE IS REGULAR MANUFACTURING LOTS PRODUCED BECAUSE THEY ARE IN SUCH WIDE USE, SO THAT IT IS VERY EASY FOR US TO OBTAIN THEM. I CAN GO DOWN THIS LIST AND POINT OUT TO HIM THAT THE PROBLEM WE HAVE WITH THE HOWITZERS IS THE TIME LAG THAT IT IS GOING TO TAKE, BECAUSE TO GET 300 BARRELS IF WE DO IT ALL FROM AMERICAN SOURCE, 100 TOWED HOWITZERS PLUS 300 BARRELS, THEY'RE GOING TO HAVE TO OPEN UP A PRODUCTION LINE.

SECCORD: YOU WOULD UNDOUBTEDLY, AND WE SAID THIS IN WASHINGTON, LOOK AT THE WORLD-WIDE FRIENDLY ((INTERESTS)) AND VERY SELECTIVELY GO AND BUY THEM.

NORTH: ...GO TELL SOME ALLIED, SOME COUNTRY, THAT WE WILL LOOK THE OTHER WAY...

CAVE: BUT EVEN IN A SINGLE COUNTRY THEY WOULD HAVE TO OPEN A PRODUCTION LINE.

SECCORD: WE MIGHT GO TO THIS COUNTRY, THAT COUNTRY, AND EITHER PROCURE THEM FOR THEM OR LOOK THE OTHER WAY AND LET THEM PROVIDE AT LEAST A PORTION OF THEM.

CAVE: ((SPEAKING NOW TO THE IRANIANS)) THE TOW MISSILES WERE VERY EASY FOR US BECAUSE THEY ARE EXPENDABLES OF WHICH WE MANUFACTURE A LOT. ((EXPLAINS THE ABOVE CONVERSATION))

NAKIM: ((INTERPRETS ALL THE ABOVE))

NORTH: LOOK, ALL OF THIS IS TO SAY THAT ALL OF THIS AND MORE CAN BE DONE, BUT WE NEED TO FIRE PROOF OUR PRESIDENT BY REMOVING THE OBSTACLE.

NAKIM: ((INTERPRETS))

NORTH: IF THAT WERE DONE, AND I THINK THAT WE HAVE BOTH ACTED TO SET THE STAGE FOR THAT TO HAPPEN--IF THE TWO BIG THINGS WERE BEHIND US, AND I THINK WE HAVE ACTED TOGETHER AND WE WOULD GO TO SET THE STAGE FOR THAT TO HAPPEN.

NAKIM: ((INTERPRETS))

NORTH: WE CAN GO TO A NUMBER OF COUNTRIES AND HAVE THESE THINGS. YOU SEE WE HAVE STORED THEM IN THE PAST FOR SHIPPING THEM TO YOU. WHEN WE FOUND OUT THAT THEY WERE REQUIRED BECAUSE OF ARMS DEALERS LIKE ORGANIZATIONS WE STORED THEM.

NAKIM: ((INTERPRETS))

I CAN GO DOWN THIS LIST AND POINT OUT TO HIM THAT THE PROBLEM WE HAVE WITH THE HOWITZERS IS THE TIME LAG THAT IT IS GOING TO TAKE, BECAUSE TO GET 500 BARRELS IF WE DO IT ALL FROM AMERICAN SOURCE, 100 TOWED HOWITZERS PLUS 500 BARRELS, THEY'RE GOING TO HAVE TO OPEN UP A PRODUCTION LINE.

HAKIM: ((INTERPRETS)) AND YOU KNOW THAT EVEN UP TO THIS DATE, IN CONNECTION WITH THE TEHRAN HOSTAGES WE ARE STILL ((FEW WORDS MISSED)) IN A MESS.

HAKIM: ((INTERPRETS)) THEREFORE, PLEASE UNDERSTAND MY PROBLEM. I CANNOT GO TO IRAN AND SAY FORGET ABOUT THE 500-MILLION DOLLARS IN THE HAGUE ISSUE, AND I DO NOT EXPECT IN THIS MEETING TO RESOLVE THAT.

HAKIM: ((INTERPRETS)) AND HE IS BEING CONTINUOUSLY REMINDED THAT IN A CASE THAT THERE WERE NO OTHER PARTIES INVOLVED, IF IT WAS ONLY IRAN AND THE U.S., THIS ((FEW WORDS MISSED)) STILL BE A MESS IN THE HAGUE. HOW THE SITUATION WOULD BE IF THERE WERE OTHER ELEMENTS INVOLVED

HAKIM: ((INTERPRETS)) WE MUST UNDERSTAND WHAT MY ROLE IS. I HAVE TO GAIN THE IRANIAN CONFIDENCE AND THE LEBANESE CONFIDENCE.

HAKIM: ((INTERPRETS)) PLEASE SHOW ME THE WAY.

LEATH: LET ME GIVE YOU SOME APPRECIATION FOR YOUR POINTS. FIRST OF ALL, WE HAVE ALREADY, IN AN EFFORT TO SHOW THAT WE ARE SINCERE AND THAT WE REALLY DO WANT TO HAVE A RELATIONSHIP WITH YOUR GOVERNMENT--AND A RELATIONSHIP--I HAVE TAKEN THE FOLLOWING STEPS:

LEATH: ((INTERPRETS))

LEATH: WE SENT A HIGHLY TRUSTED AMERICAN, [REDACTED] A VERY CLEAR WORD THAT WE WANTED TO TALK FREELY WITH YOU.

HAKIM: ((INTERPRETS))

LEATH: SECOND, FOR MORE THAN A YEAR, WE HAVE BEEN IN DIALOGUE WITH A MEMBER OF YOUR GOVERNMENT, [REDACTED] TO PROVE TO HIM THAT I WAS WHO I SAID I WAS, [REDACTED] FOR THE PRESIDENT OF THE U.S. IN FEBRUARY, I

HAKIM: ((INTERPRETS))

NORTH: WE DELIVERED ALL OF THE HAWK PARTS THAT HAVE BEEN REQUESTED THAT WE HAD ON HAND.

HAKIM: ((INTERPRETS))

NORTH: THE PRESIDENT SENT TO TEHRAN ONE OF HIS MOST TRUSTED ADVISORS. WHEN [REDACTED] WAS IN WASHINGTON, HE ASKED FOR A FURTHER SIGN THAT HE COULD TAKE BACK HOME ABOUT OUR SINCERITY.

HAKIM: ((INTERPRETS))

NORTH: HE MENTIONED TWO THINGS SPECIFICALLY. THE VOICE OF AMERICA AND THE HAGUE. THE FOLLOWING FRIDAY, THE EXACT WORDS I TOLD HIM WERE BROADCAST OVER VOICE OF AMERICA.

HAKIM: ((INTERPRETS))

NORTH: WORDS THAT HE AND I HAD AGREED ON. AND, SINCE THEN, TWO BIG CASES IN THE HAGUE HAVE BEEN SETTLED.

HAKIM: ((INTERPRETS))

NORTH: NOW IF YOU THINK THAT LIST OF WEAPONS IS A BIG PROBLEM, YOU OUGHT TO TRY THE HAGUE. OKAY? THAT'S A DIFFICULT PROBLEM. THE CLAIMS TRIBUNAL IS AN EVEN MORE DIFFICULT ISSUE TO WORK THAN THIS.

HAKIM: ((INTERPRETS)) [REDACTED] DOESN'T SEEM TO KNOW WHAT THE CLAIMS TRIBUNAL IS.

NORTH: THAT IS BECAUSE MOST OF THE CASES IN THE HAGUE ARE PRIVATE COMPANIES WHO HAVE A COURT CASE INVOLVING THE GOVERNMENT OF IRAN.

HAKIM: ((INTERPRETS))

NORTH: THERE IS RELATIVELY LITTLE U.S. GOVERNMENT INVOLVEMENT IN THAT ACTIVITY.

HAKIM: ((INTERPRETS))

NORTH: I SAY THESE THINGS TO YOU BECAUSE, QUITE FRANKLY, WHEN I GO BACK HOME I HAVE THE SAME PROBLEM YOU DO.

HAKIM: ((INTERPRETS))

NORTH: I GO BACK HOME AND I SAY, WE NEED TO SHOW OUR GOOD FAITH AGAIN.

ORTH: WHEN I GO BACK AND I SAY, "WELL, ALL WE NEED TO DO IS TO PROVE OUR GOOD FAITH AND IRAN WILL TAKE WHAT WE KNOW TO BE A VERY, VERY DIFFICULT STEP IN THE LEBANON--WE UNDERSTAND THAT, THAT IT IS NOT IRAN WHO HOLDS THE AMERICANS."

AKIN: ((INTERPRETS)) c 378

ORTH: AND THE WAY I PUT IT TO THE PRESIDENT AND TO HIS CLOSEST ADVISORS IS THAT WE ARE HOPING THAT IRAN WILL USE ITS INFLUENCE WITH THOSE IN THE LEBANON TO CAUSE THE RELEASE OF THE AMERICANS AND THE OTHER HOSTAGES.

AKIN: ((INTERPRETS))

ORTH: I HAVE EXPLAINED THAT THAT IS INDEED A VERY DIFFICULT STEP FOR IRAN TO TAKE.

AKIN: ((INTERPRETS))

ORTH: WE RECOGNIZE THAT THOSE WHO HOLD THE HOSTAGES MOST WANT THEIR BRETHREN WHO ARE HELD IN KUWAIT AS CONVICTED TERRORISTS FREED.

AKIN: ((INTERPRETS))

ORTH: VERY, VERY PRIVATELY WITH THE KUWAITIS. LAST FRIDAY, WE HELPED TO TRY AND SET THE STAGE FOR THAT KIND OF THING TO HAPPEN IN A DIRECT DIALOGUE BETWEEN IRAN AND KUWAIT.

AKIN: ((INTERPRETS))

ORTH: WE HAVE ASSURED THE KUWAITIS--A VERY, VERY EXPERIENCED FOREIGN MINISTER--THAT THE DANA PRISONERS ARE THEIR BUSINESS. BUT YOU SHOULD KNOW, VERY, VERY PRIVATELY, THAT WHAT THAT MEANS IS THAT IF THE KUWAITIS DECIDE TO RELEASE THEM OVER SOME LENGTH OF TIME OR FOR SOME RELIGIOUS REASON, THAT WE ARE NOT GOING TO CRITICIZE THEM

AKIN: ((INTERPRETS))

AKIN: IN RESPONSE, AND THIS IS A VERY IMPORTANT DECISION THAT OUR COUNTRY HAS BASED BASED ON OUR VALUES.

ORTH: NOW, YOU AND I BOTH KNOW THAT THERE ARE RELIGIOUS OCCASIONS THAT CAN BE USED TO RELEASE PRISONERS.

AKIN: ((INTERPRETS))

ORTH: YOU AND I BOTH KNOW THAT THE KUWAITIS REALLY WANT IN ORDER TO RELEASE THE AMERICANS.

AKIN: ((INTERPRETS))

ORTH: AND IT'S VERY SIMPLE. THE KUWAITIS ARE LOOKING FOR ASSURANCE FROM SOMEONE RESPONSIBLE, SOMEONE IN AUTHORITY, THAT IF THEY RELEASE THESE PRISONERS OVER A PERIOD OF TIME, THAT THERE WON'T BE ANY MORE ATTACKS IN THE DATE OF THE LEBANON.

AKIN: ((INTERPRETS))

NORTH: I UNDERSTAND THAT THOSE IN THE LEBANON WHO HOLD OUR AMERICANS AND MANY OF THE OTHER WESTERNERS, ARE LOOKING FOR THAT RELEASE AND HAVE ASKED YOU TO ASSURE IT.

HAKIM: ((INTERPRETS))

NORTH: AND THAT PUTS YOU IN A DIFFICULT POSITION.

379

HAKIM: ((INTERPRETS))

NORTH: WHAT I AM SAYING TO YOU IS THAT OUR INTERESTS ARE SO BIG, SO GREAT, AND YET THE REALITY WITHIN OUR SYSTEM IS SUCH THAT WE CANNOT ACT IN A WAY THAT THE AMERICAN PEOPLE WOULDN'T UNDERSTAND.

HAKIM: ((INTERPRETS))

NORTH: WHAT WE HAVE DONE IS TRY TO ACT IN A RESPONSIBLE WAY BUT VERY, VERY, DISCREETLY.

HAKIM: ((INTERPRETS))

NORTH: WE HAVE TRIED TO REASSURE YOU THAT OUR INTERESTS GO BEYOND THE HOSTAGES. THAT OUR OBJECTIVE IS TO ASSURE THE POLITICAL SOVEREIGNTY AND TERRITORIAL INTEGRITY OF IRAN.

CAVE: I HAVE A POINT TO MAKE ABOUT THIS LIST THAT I DON'T KNOW IF THE GENERAL MADE THAT IS VERY IMPORTANT FROM MY RESPONSE FOR GETTING THIS STUFF. THAT I THINK THAT WE SHOULD BE AWARE OF THAT THE MATERIAL THAT WE HAVE SHIPPED, THE TOW MISSILES, ARE EXPENDABLES; AND THEY ARE EXPENDABLES IN THE NATURE OF WHICH THERE IS REGULAR MANUFACTURING LOTS PRODUCED BECAUSE THEY ARE IN SUCH WIDE USE, SO THAT IT IS VERY EASY FOR US TO OBTAIN THEM. I CAN GO DOWN THIS LIST AND POINT OUT TO HIM THAT THE PROBLEM WE HAVE WITH THE HOWITZERS IS THE TIME LAG THAT IT IS GOING TO TAKE, BECAUSE TO GET 500 BARRELS IF WE DO IT ALL FROM AMERICAN SOURCE, 100 TOWED HOWITZERS PLUS 500 BARRELS, THEY'RE GOING TO HAVE TO OPEN UP A PRODUCTION LINE.

SECCRD: YOU WOULD UNDOUBTEDLY, AND WE SAID THIS IN WASHINGTON, LOOK AT THE WORLD-WIDE FRIENDLY ((INTERESTS)) AND VERY SELECTIVELY GO AND BUY THEM.

NORTH: ... GO TELL SOME ALLIED, SOME COUNTRY, THAT WE WILL LOOK THE OTHER WAY...

CAVE: BUT EVEN IN A SINGLE COUNTRY THEY WOULD HAVE TO OPEN A PRODUCTION LINE.

SECCRD: WE MIGHT GO TO THIS COUNTRY, THAT COUNTRY, AND EITHER PROCURE THEM FOR THEM OR LOOK THE OTHER WAY AND LET THEM PROVIDE AT LEAST A PORTION OF THEM.

CAVE: ((SPEAKING NOW TO THE IRANIANS)) THE TOW MISSILES WERE VERY EASY FOR US BECAUSE THEY ARE EXPENDABLES OF WHICH WE MANUFACTURE A LOT. ((EXPLAINS THE ABOVE CONVERSATION.))

HAKIM: ((INTERPRETS ALL THE ABOVE.))

NORTH: LOOK, ALL OF THIS IS TO SAY THAT ALL OF THIS AND MORE CAN BE DONE, BUT WE NEED TO FIRE PROOF OUR PRESIDENT BY REMOVING THE OBSTACLE.

HAKIM: ((INTERPRETS.))

NORTH: IF THAT WERE DONE, AND I THINK THAT WE HAVE BOTH ACTED TO SET THE STAGE FOR THAT TO HAPPEN--IF THE MOS ADD THING WERE BEHIND US, AND I THINK WE HAVE ACTED TOGETHER RESPONSIBLY TO SET THE STAGE FOR THAT TO HAPPEN.

HAKIM: ((INTERPRETS.))

NORTH: WE CAN GO TO A NUMBER OF COUNTRIES AND HAVE THESE THINGS... YOU SEE WE HAVE STOPPED THEM IN THE PAST FROM SHIPPING THEM TO YOU, WHEN WE FOUND OUT THAT THEY WERE PREPARED, BECAUSE OF ARMS DEALERS LIKE CHORGANIPAR, WE STOPPED THEM.

HAKIM: ((INTERPRETS.))

NORTH: WE CAN STOP STOPPING THEM. LET ME GIVE YOU AN EXAMPLE. MR. CHORGANIPAR AND MR. [REDACTED] BEEN BUYING WEAPONS FROM OTHER PEOPLE BESIDES US. THERE ARE CERTAIN WEAPONS AND CERTAIN PARTS THAT THEY CAN ONLY GET FROM US.

DRTH: THAT'S NOT BEYOND REASON. IT COULD HAPPEN. ((CONTINUES WITH PREVIOUS THOUGHT)) THIS PRESIDENT WOULD LIKE TO HAVE--I CAN TELL YOU BECAUSE I'VE LISTENED TO HIM--HIS VISION IS THAT WHEN HE LEAVES OFFICE IN 1989 HE WILL HAVE FULL DIPLOMATIC RELATIONS BETWEEN YOUR COUNTRY AND OURS.

 WHAT [REDACTED] HAS SAID IS HE FEELS THAT THE ISSUE OF THE OTHER WESTERN HOSTAGES IN LEBANON IS BASICALLY A BILATERAL ISSUE FOR THOSE OTHER COUNTRIES TO DEAL WITH DIRECTLY. I SIMPLY WANT TO MAKE THE POINT THAT IT IS IMPORTANT IN THE GRAND SCHEME OF HAKIM: ((INTERPRETING)) SEVEN. HAKIM: ((INTERPRETING)) NOW YOU HAVE THE SEVERAL POINTS. HE IS GOING TO MAKE SOME CLARIFICATIONS.

HAKIM: ((INTERPRETING)) THE FIRST CLARIFICATION AND EXPLANATION. THE RELEASE OF THE KUWAITI PRISONERS AND THE RELEASE OF THE REMAINING AMERICAN HOSTAGES AS FAR AS THE TIMETABLE IS CONCERNED MUST MATCH.

NORTH: WHAT DOES THAT MEAN?

HAKIM: I SAID I DIDN'T UNDERSTAND WHAT 'THE REMAINING HOSTAGES' MEAN. ARE THEY REFERRING TO THE LAST TWO NEW ONES OR WHAT? HE CLARIFIED FURTHER THAT, AS HE SAID EARLIER, HE DOESN'T KNOW WHERE THE LAST TWO NEW ONES

SECOND: CLARIFICATIONS ARE GOING TO RUN US OUT OF TIME. I THINK HE HAS ALREADY BUSTED THE FLESH ANYWAY ((FEW WORDS MISSED))
UNACCEPTABLE. ACROSS THE BOARDHAKIM: ((IN PERSIAN)) HE SAID PARENTHETICALLY THAT WITH THE SUGGESTIONS THAT YOU MADE YOU HAVE ALREADY TAKEN A STEP TOWARDS STARTING A

IT SHOULD NOT BE PART OF THIS. BECAUSE THEY HAVE NO INFORMATION. BUT I HAVE SOME INFORMATION I'LL PASS ALONG
SEPARATELY. NOT BE INCLUDED IN THIS. IS NOT TO BE INCLUDED IN THIS CLARIFICATIONHAKIM: ((INTERPRETING)) HE WANTS TO REPEAT WHAT WAS SAID EARLIER ABOUT THE MEETING OF THE UPPER ECHELONS OF THE
TWO. AND HE SAYS THIS WAS NOT WITHIN THEIR AUTHORITY THEY WILL DISCUSS ITHAKIM: ((INTERPRETING)) REGARDING THE LAPAD PRISONERS THEY WILL LEAVE THAT UP TO THE LEAGUE TO RESOLVE IT THEMSELVES. END

by B. Reger, National Security CouncilMEMORANDUM OF CONVERSATIONPARTICIPANTS: U.S.: Oliver North      Iranian: [REDACTED]
Richard Secord
Sam O'Neill1523
14-221

First session convened in the Old Executive Office Building at 12:15 p.m. on Friday, September 19, 1986. [REDACTED] opened the session, and after preliminary pleasantries, outlined four points which he wished to address initially. One, the Iranian position vs. what they perceive to be the U.S.'s number one enemy -- Russia. Second, their view of American and Iranian strategic interests in the area. Third, past relations of the United States with revolutionary Iran. Fourth, their views for future relations with the United States.

[REDACTED] then launched into a lengthy exposition with respect to the foregoing issues. He said that the Soviets are a great and aggressive power with a long border with Iran. They recognize that Russia is a direct enemy of the United States and that, with respect to Iranian interests, they do not wish to have antagonistic relations with the USSR, but on the other hand being a friend of the Soviets could be even more dangerous because Soviet ideology is directly opposed to Iran's. They also recognize that their brothers in Afghanistan are suffering under the Soviets. Finally, the Soviets are directly supporting the Iraqis in the war against the Iranians and killing Iranian soldiers. Back to the question of the long border with Russia, [REDACTED] noted Secord statement in Brussels to the effect that the United States would oppose a Soviet thrust into Iran with or without support of the Government of Iran. The Government of Iran found this statement to be interesting and comforting. The leaders of Iran are very worried today about the "fantastic" increase of Soviet intelligence operations in Iran in recent times.

[REDACTED] The Soviets are attempting to exploit Iranian internal problems. He went on to acknowledge that the revolutionary environment in Iran has many weaknesses. Their security services are weak for instance.

[REDACTED] next turned to relations between the Government of Iran and the United States Government. He says that some cooperation is necessary in their view.

[REDACTED] Next, Iran needs U.S. influence with the Arab countries friendly to the United States in order to help diminish support for Iraq. Third is the matter of oil, which is vital to Iranian economy. They need U.S. support in this matter. Fourth and most important, he said, is the security of the Gulf and terrorism against U.S. interests and hostages.

[REDACTED] said he wanted to make these things clear and one of the Iranian leaders in particular has asked that he make this message very clear.

[REDACTED]

On the subject of security, [REDACTED] said this has two aspects: One is the fear of the flood of terrorism in the region and the second is the overall effects of the current war. With respect to terrorists and hostages, he said that the Shiite religion under the Aytollah is absolutely opposed to terrorism and the taking of hostages. For instance, after the explosions in Lebanon, the Aytollah wrote a "Fatwa," which is a religious ruling absolutely opposing terrorism and the taking of hostages. But, we the United States have to understand that Iran still does not have strong, effective security forces and firm control. [REDACTED] admits that there are people within Iran who do espouse hostage taking and terrorism.

the government of Iran needs more information in order to confront them and they would like to have this from the United States. [REDACTED] emphasized that from the standpoint of humanity, Iran is against hostage taking and terrorism and even has a certain amount of sympathy for the U.S. at the current time. In the case of Lebanon, Iran considers that they have in the past been helpful to the U.S. In the TWA hijacking, in getting information on the hostages and in the release of two hostages, Iran has already helped. [REDACTED] said that the Iranians have attraction in places like Lebanon because of the "right-minded masses of peoples' sympathy" for the Iranian revolution. But he said that both Iran and the United States are victims of this hostage business. He next turned to the Iran-Iraq war. Iran, he said, needs a "victory" and that he will explain what he means by victory. Lack of security in Iran is a real problem for the United States. Secord's comments in Brussels were well received and his analysis of the war was keenly received by the leadership in Iran.

[REDACTED]

With respect to United States and Iran, [REDACTED] provided a quick analysis. Until two years ago, it was difficult for anyone in Iran to consider any kind of United States Government/Iranian relations. There were several probes in the past two years and he wanted to know if they were real.

[REDACTED]

And finally, what [REDACTED] regarded as the worst channel, they've also received numerous probes and letters from an unnamed arms dealer in Europe. Some in Iran believed in these probes from the arms dealers, but "I personally," [REDACTED] said, "did not believe in them." [REDACTED] claimed to have been working on this opening of relations with the U.S. for two years now and that the real problem is the lack of communications. "One and a half years ago, an arms dealer came, allegedly with word from [redacted] about exchanging two hostages for arms. We don't trust this arms dealer. After the discussions with Secord and Hakim in Brussels, the leadership has come up with the idea of forming a 'joint committee' that would sit down and resolve the problems step-by-step and that we have a great opportunity to do this now."

[redacted] went on to emphasize the critical importance of this direct meeting here in Washington. "A stage-by-stage plan is needed with which both sides can agree and we need to get on with it quickly while the opportunity is still here."

North responded. "Happy you are here and hope that there is now no doubt that you are talking directly with the Government of the United States directly."

"We understand your problems with respect to channels of communications. We have had the same problem. In all honesty, we are still not in a position to have very good relations, but we are certainly interested in a step-by-step approach to the problem. We have received assurances from General Secord about the genuineness of this particular channel to Iran and, therefore, the President has authorized this meeting. I understand your sensitivity on this, because it is important to have good communications in order to proceed."

[redacted] We recognize that your connection with the arms dealer, Ghorbanifar, was not acceptable and is not acceptable to us either. However, he did bring us into contact with an official of the Government of Iran [redacted]. This was our first meeting with a Government of Iran official in over six years. As you know now after meetings in Germany with [redacted] we arranged for a delegation to go to Tehran. The President chose a most trusted adviser to lead this mission -- Robert McFarlane. The reason why we went to Tehran was to try to establish the channel of which you now speak. Unfortunately, we met with only a few officials most of whom used false names. We met with none of the people that we expected to meet with and the meeting was a great disappointment to our President."

[redacted] interjected that it is important for him to know the names of the people. In the discussion ensued as to what the people looked like and what assumed names they used. North continued. "You should understand that this meeting in Tehran was a great disappointment to us. It has been difficult since then to convince the leadership here of the need to try to continue in the face of that failure. While we were there, we even prepared a draft Memorandum of Understanding to establish this channel. We understood the need for secrecy and I can show you this draft here now, if you wish to read it.:

"There are a number of things which you should understand about why we have pursued this attempt to be in contact with your government. President Reagan is a very strong and popular President. He has helped the United States to recover from a period of economic and military weakness. He has restored economic and military strength to the U.S. Most important, he has restored the will of American people. The U.S. is no longer afraid to use its power in its own defense, and it is not intimidated by the Soviets. Yesterday, we expelled 25 Soviets from the United Nations. We will not give in to Soviet pressure in Afghanistan, Angola, or Central America. The United States wants relations on the basis of reciprocity with all states and, of course, this includes Iran. We want to solve our disputes through discussions not through fighting. The United States believes that many trends are working in its favor -- economy, technology, politics, all working in favor of the United States. Reagan has two more years and has a strong moral position in the eyes of the United States and of the world. The President strongly believes in the words of the Holy Book as do you. He believes deeply in the teachings of the God of Abraham. Thus, he is very popular here and should be popular in the world of Islam. When we went to Tehran, he said to tell you that we accept your revolution as a fact. We admit that there have been missteps along the road since the revolution, but it is important to tell you that there is a responsible and sincere wish in the leadership here to establish communications/relations with Iran. Therefore, we must speak frankly in order to facilitate this. Our policy is based, not on emotion, but on perceptions built-up over the years. There are many things that you have said which we can agree to, but there is a perception that Iran has used revolutionary Islam against the United States. For example, it is clear that some in the Government of Iran have encouraged the taking of U.S. hostages as a means of getting back convicted prisoners held by the Kuwaitis and that there has been a direct connection between the Da'wa, Hizballah, and elements inside the Government of Iran. Therefore, since we're a democracy, as long as this perception exists, we have a great obstacle in the way of doing what the President wants and what you say Iran wants. Also, we see anti-U.S. activity emanating from Iran in Central America."

~~TOP SECRET~~

~~TOP SECRET~~

~~TOP SECRET~~~~TOP SECRET~~

questioned the basis for this information. North responded. This is all based on accurate intelligence. For example, in Nicaragua, Iran actively supports the communist government there and Iran plans to ship 10,000 rifles and other munitions to Nicaragua through North Korea. These activities serve Soviet interests and in the long-term jeopardize Iran and the United States. In spite of this, the President has directed us to proceed with attempt to establish discrete and, when appropriate, a public relationship with Iran. The President's direction is based on two important principals: One, concern over the Soviets vis-a-vis Iran and; two, our desire to ensure the territorial integrity of Iran and the other Gulf States. We accept the revolution as a fact. The territorial integrity of Iran and the other states in the region are of great importance to the United States.

The United States does not wish to see Iran lose. We do not want to see an attempt against Iraq which will bring in the Soviets. The Soviets, on the other hand, are in a difficult position. Their economy is a disaster; they've suffered major reverses, for instance, Chernobol; Soviet defectors are showing up all over the world; Soviet ships run into each other in the Black Sea; Soviet submarine-launched missiles accidentally land in China. Last week, six Soviets were killed in Peru. They see the Iran-Iraq war and Afghanistan as very important to them, but neither of these wars are going well for them. They have two things, however, that are advantageous to them. One is great military power, capable of intimidating their neighbors; and two is a very, very effective KGB. We believe that they are capable of using these two instruments of power. Therefore, we understand that Iran can be not their enemy, nor their friend. We have common interests. Iran's continuation as a sovereign state is something that we desire. We have no interest in an Iraqi victory. You might remember that we had no relations with Iraq during the years of the Shah or even during the revolutionary period right after the Shah. We're willing to serve in some role which would end the conflict honorably for Iran.

[REDACTED] The U.S. has no illusions, however, about future Iranian relations. The right way is to proceed carefully and quietly. For example, Soviet anxiety could be quickly raised if they knew that we were trying to reestablish relations. We have shared interests for the long-term. We are prepared to improve on the situation that exists now and to do it in a step-by-step way. However, it's really up to Iran, we are ready."

[REDACTED] responded. "Regarding the need for Iran to achieve victory, it is not necessary that we achieve a big decisive military victory, but some kind of victory. Only in the last two years, has our approach with the United States been seen as possible, but it is most important to note that the important thing from Iranian perspective is to get Saddam Hussein out. This can be done by the Arabs. We have no territorial designs on Iraq. We have in fact given orders that no Iranian troops on Iraqi territory will display our flag. Iran wants a government in Baghdad that they can live with. The United States can help with the friendly Arabs."

North responded. [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] in regard to the points [REDACTED] made: "We were working with Ghorbanifar to make contact, but the letters provided by him to Iran describing our willingness to do certain things were not authorized. Only the document which we produced in Tehran, of which I have provided you a copy, was authorized."

[REDACTED] I want to tell you that unless one of the three men sitting here in the room right now (North, Secord, Sam O'Neill) contact you, there is no official message. With respect to the document we prepared in Tehran, you will note a considerable emphasis on hostages. We consider them to be an obstacle. An obstacle to the understanding of the American people. The widespread perception here in America is that Iran is basically responsible for these hostages. The issue of hostages and terrorism must be dealt with since it is a political obstacle. On the other hand, you should realize that 52,000 people in the U.S. died last year in automobile accidents and 130,000 people died from lung cancer. Five U.S. hostages rarely make the newspapers or the television, but because this is a democracy, if the President is found to be helping Iran with this obstacle still in the way, it would be very difficult to explain to our people."

"From the first, with [REDACTED] and Ghorbanifar, we have said let's get this issue -- the hostages -- behind us. We recognized that this would be undertaken as a humanitarian gesture on the part of the Iranian Government. [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] and to demonstrate our sincerity, at one point, we directed the delivery of 500 TOW missiles and eight hours later they were delivered into Bandar Abbas. But instead of responding favorably, 'rug merchant' type moves resulted, prices were talked about, prices were established for human lives. For instance, 'so many items for so many hostages.' We don't consider this to be a responsible government action and not one that the United States is prepared to engage in."

"We are prepared to continue to provide to Iran items which will help in her defense; but we wish to see the hostage issue behind us so that we can move onward. We have certain items of equipment already prepared for shipment. But you must understand, we cannot give them away. They have to be purchased."

[REDACTED] interjected with humor saying "haven't they already been paid?"

North responded saying that the TOWs and certain improved HAWK spares had been delivered and paid for, but the intermediary, Ghorbanifar, was complaining that the had not been fully paid.

[REDACTED] interjected with a political point. He said he agreed that the obstacle had to be removed, but we have to make it much more official and deal directly. Our government thinks that dealing through someone like Secord is a better way to go because they trust him. They don't expect factory prices, but they don't want the same situation to exist that exists today.

North responded saying that "Ghorbanifar always claims to be borrowing and then getting paid in part and rolling debts forward and raising costs and it is very, very confusing and it's impossible for us to follow exactly what it is that he is doing. However, Ghorbanifar knows a great deal and he could be harmful to us if he were to go public and this is the problem which we wish to address. We think that Iran should pay him whatever they owe him so he will be quiet and stay off the air."

[REDACTED] responded that he has gotten all his money but he will look into it.

North said that we would be happy never to deal with Ghorbanifar again but, if he is to keep quiet, his debt should be paid. "We risk a great deal if we are compromised this early in the game. To be honest, I would just as soon not deal with [REDACTED] either, but this is an Iranian matter."

continued. "It's good that you established your initial contact with [redacted]. This was important to the people in Tehran although it was not successful, and the proper people were never made aware and poor coordination was done and the meeting was not planned properly and it was, thus, very premature. Still it was important that we did establish initially at least contact with [redacted] because this was a pioneering move and [redacted] would not be in Washington now were it not for this initial opening."

North responded. "We are confident that you represent the Government of Iran and to his credit, as I said, [redacted] did have the first meeting with us in six years. This meeting that we're having now should do much to instill confidence in our two capitals and, if we can proceed, it will be very good."

[redacted] Earlier you mentioned concern for security and concern over terrorism in our airlines and this we appreciate. The Government of Iran announcement that the Pan Am aircraft hijacked in Karachi could not come to Iran was much appreciated. As a further demonstration of our sincerity, we will arrange that next week on Voice of America the United States Government will thank those countries who were involved in helping in the Karachi hijacking and, for the first time, we will mention Iran as having acted in a positive way. It will be done very discretely in a editorial on VOA. Obviously, we cannot have the President go out announce an Embassy is being opened in Tehran. You would have a domestic, political problem and so would we. Thus, back to our obstacle: Truly we wish to get it behind us. We recognize that Tehran does not exercise absolute control over Hizballah, Amal, or Islamic Jihad; but we also know that you can help resolve this issue."

[redacted] responded that the issue "would be resolved." The question of who [redacted] is and what his background is was then raised by North and [redacted] responded that he was a trusted agent of Iran; he had been a loyal officer and now was a businessman and that they had complete confidence in him. North responded we know very little bit about this man and we are obviously concerned for security; we are concerned with the KGB penetrations and so on.

[redacted] responded that he too was concerned over this sort of thing. He also said that with respect to Mr. Hakim, whom he personally liked and wanted to see involved, some in Tehran regard him as a CIA agent. North responded that Hakim was never a spy for the United States; that he has been a consultant to our government on Iranian affairs from time to time; that he had full trust and confidence as a man who wanted to see improvement for the Iranian people and improvement in relations between our two countries.

Because of the requirement for secret communications, he has acted on our behalf and we have investigated him as we investigate everyone. This is important to him because of his interest in the country of his birth and the country of his citizenship. We will include both he and [REDACTED] in whatever sessions that you wish to have them involved in -- you simply have to tell us.

[REDACTED] turned back to [REDACTED]. He said that he is certain that [REDACTED] has not been profiteering, but instead has been working sincerely but, he [REDACTED] is a simple man and he could not continue on with this complex relationship.

North said we tend to believe this. "Sam, here, has often talked with [REDACTED] and there is always inconsistency between what he says and what Gorba claims."

[REDACTED]

North said that we are concerned that the Soviets not become aware of any U.S. Government or Iranian Government relationship. "In Tehran, we recommended that we set-up a secure communication station and this would require us to send two of our men to Tehran to man and operate the station. This would give us good secure communications and would thwart the KGB. We are very concerned about KGB efforts to penetrate any relationship we might establish with the Government of Iran. The Iranian idea for a joint committee elsewhere seems to be a good idea, in principle. Meeting somewhere in Europe is probably the way in which we should proceed to manage this beginning relationship. The problem is that we have to set up some place where it won't be penetrated by the KGB. We are very concerned about communications and the Soviets' ability to intercept."

[REDACTED] responded that he agreed about the KGB and would like to use a single courier from Iran to Frankfurt via Iran Air from now on until secure communications could be established.

North asked [REDACTED] if he wants [REDACTED] on this joint committee?

[REDACTED] said, "Yes, but only for logistical purposes. I want to give more thought to [REDACTED] and how he can work with Hakim." With respect to Ghorbanifar, [REDACTED] said they want to get him out of the loop as soon as they can. He's been profiteering and people in Iran fear that they will be accused of being profiteers.

North responded that Ghorbanifar has some strong Tehran connections that we know of and this remains a problem that needs to be solved. [REDACTED] said that our recent contacts with [REDACTED] have been very well handled.

With respect to the hostage issue, he wants to get it resolved as quickly as possible and he is confident that they can resolve it. He said that Iran wants to make this a full exchange. For instance, "we have in mind to give you fellows T-72 tank, for example."

North again expressed concern about security and about Ghorbanifar, in particular. North also stated that we believe that the oil market is naturally depressed and there is certainly no collusion between ourselves and the Saudis or others to keep prices low, but he agreed that the U.S. and Iran have similar interests with respect to oil.

returned then to the subject of Buckley.

He said that he wanted to assure us that Buckley was not killed; that he died of natural causes; that he had three heart attacks. He also assured that he had been told that the others are all in good shape. He said that there are video tapes of them recently, talking for 20 minutes each and that these will be distributed to news agencies. He also said that there was one letter sent out.

North confirmed that one of the hostage relatives received a letter within a day or so of it being written. North then said that we want all the hostages out.

At 1800 hours, the first session ended with a short break and then Albert Hakim and [REDACTED] joined the group. After being joined by the others, [REDACTED] then said that he was growing tired and asked General Secord to read off the list of Iranian needs which were headed up first by intelligence exchange.

[REDACTED]

North reviewed the list of logistics support items being requested and responded that, in principle, to the extent that items are available either here or elsewhere there isn't a particular problem. "But as we emphasized to [REDACTED] in Tehran, we think that you might be thinking too small. People preparing lists are only thinking of the very short-term. We, the U.S., look at two million Iranians without homes; half the oil production facilities knocked out; yesterday's attack on Kharg Island, for instance, is a good example; medical supplies being in great shortage, even shortages of food; and so on. We think that the Iranian planners should be talking to us about other than simple weapons requests."

[REDACTED]

[REDACTED] The United States is interested in helping stop the killing and to provide for an adequate defense. We cannot just do these things willy-nilly. For example: 10,000 175mm RAP rounds is not a

"The authorities recognize the need for technical assistance. This was pointed out by General Secord in the Brussels' discussions and we should understand that they really inherited nothing from the Shah in the way of an army. The army was disorganized and very disarrayed. The lower echelon officers, as well as the higher echelon officers, were worth very little. They picked the first steps in this war with the army of the people, the revolutionary guards." He recalled earlier that in a meeting with [redacted] some of the military officers said that they had to have one tank for every Iraqi tank, one plane for every Iraqi plane. "This was not practical and, therefore, over time it was decided that the Iranian revolutionary guard, the army of the people, would be used to repel the enemy. Since then, of course, it has become more technological in nature and there are minimum levels of technological assistance and equipment we badly need and the United States can be very helpful in providing these. Therefore, they are looking forward to trying to establish a decent relationship on a secret basis at first."

At 2015, it was agreed to stop for the day and reconvene on Saturday, September 20, for further discussions.

The session continued on September 20, at 0935 hours in an office near the Sheraton Tysons' Hotel, where [redacted] was staying. Present for the U.S. side were Oliver North, Sam O'Neill, and R. Secord. Only [redacted] represented the Iranian side during these initial discussions.

North opened the session by saying that he would like to make some comments about the logistics support items on the list [redacted] had provided the day before. "We would like the leadership of Iran to know that President Reagan is aware that the Iranians have immediate needs; that, while we are sympathetic, we're not just interested in being simply an arms dealer; that we are interrupted describing the difficulty of conducting discussions in Tehran. For example, there are three different groups that usually have to be consulted. Also in preparing for the coming offensive, they have shortages in some of the equipments and these are the ones that are mentioned in his list.

█████ said that perhaps we need a secret exchange of letters between our leaders and he will address this upon return to Tehran. █████ stated that after we establish a basis for a relationship, all problems can be addressed. He said that he is completely in agreement with the point about not relying on the arms dealers or other non-official entities. On immediate needs, he could right now order the money to be paid for any of the items that might be available. He said that he could even get the money by telephone.

At this point, [REDACTED] requested that the entire group meet and [REDACTED] and Albert Hakim joined the meeting.

Secrecy takes longer and it costs more. With Ghorbanifar and [REDACTED] we have had a lengthy debate about prices for HAWK spare parts, with [REDACTED] claiming that we have charged six times more than the microfische prices which he has discovered somewhere. "This has caused great of difficulty for us. [REDACTED] has misinterpreted the microfische. We've traced it back to its origins; it's not relevant. But communicating adequately has been next to impossible." Then North gave a short description of how U.S. military equipment is priced; manufacturers' prices; prices to our own forces; prices to allies; and the impact on overall price for the different modes of transfer. North closed by noting that the President has authorized the transfer of a number of TOWs and some HAWK missile parts in connection with this relationship. "In order to maintain secrecy, we have to sanitize the equipment; that is to remove all the original identifying markings and then we have to ship these items through a circuitous route and Israel, as you know, has been involved in this in the past. Thus, not only the time but also the price goes up when using such a complex method to procure and deliver such items." If it is helpful in getting past this obstacle of the hostages, we are prepared to go forward as requested by [REDACTED] if your leadership is ready. We are prepared to go forward with those items which are already prepared for shipment, i.e., additional HAWK missile spares and TOWs and with prices that are well understood in advance."

A discussion of the pricing then ensued and the price list was given to [REDACTED] which he said he understood and so did [REDACTED]. North then noted that we needed to get rid of the hostage issue as soon as possible so that we could proceed on and establish a relationship which we both recognized as necessary and in the interest of both countries. "We recognize that the influence of Iran is indirect in many cases with the groups in Lebanon and we understand it is a difficult issue. We have offered in the past to give Iran credit as a humanitarian gesture if Iran wants this credit. It's an important point and we have to get past it. I want to tell you that with respect to the issue of the Da'wa prisoners held in Kuwait, we cannot go back to the Government of Kuwait on this issue. But I believe that the Government of Kuwait is prepared to release prisoners in a phased way if the Government of Iran goes privately to Kuwait and promises them no terrorism. This seems reasonable -- you should do it. I've been told to reassure the Government of Iran, moreover, that the U.S. citizen, John Pattis, has never been an employee of the United States Government. We did talk to him quite openly, as we talk to many travellers, but he is not a spy and he's not employee of the CIA and he's never employed by the Government of the United States."

A short break was then taken and the meeting reconvened without [REDACTED] and without Hakim at 1525 hours.

~~TOP SECRET~~~~UNCLASSIFIED~~

North pointed out that in regard to [redacted] list of equipment, "most of these items would have to come by ship because they are very big and heavy and only a few could come by aircraft." We need to exchange intelligence by courier.

[redacted] We need some time to work this up, but we can do it and would be willing to do it if we can come to some understanding with the Government of Iran.

[redacted] And, two, the Soviet propaganda organs would publicize our activities and cause great difficulties for both sides. We understand that you're prepared to go ahead and make transfers of money immediately in order to start shipment; but the U.S. is much more interested in doing it right than in doing it too fast."

[redacted] then stated that trying to get close to Western governments has created certain problems for his group in Tehran.

North then stated that we have differences, great differences here. "The situations are not the same. Our President is not running for re-election, as you know. There are two years left in his term and he is sincerely interested in changing the course of history with the U.S.-Iranian relations. He has close advisors and aides, who have seen much of war, and they want to see the war out there ended. There is no effect whatever on American elections, and these hostage issues, as you can see, seldom even make the newspapers. Ronald Reagan would like to end this Iran-Iraq war and you might remember that we talked last night about the United States had a long history of acting as a peacemaker. The United States always has great concern for the suffering of people and we know of the impact of this war overall on Iran."

Wants an honorable peace. In return, he expects that Iran will designate three very senior people to go to joint committee meetings. "We could have this joint committee meetings, if you want, by sending a letter to us [REDACTED]. We could also always meet under the cover of a UN meeting. I guarantee you one thing though that I will look into this matter of help to Nicaragua immediately; and, if there is such a thing going on, I will stop it immediately. Again I say I will only use a courier until we can establish secure communications -- until we can set-up these committee meetings." After the meeting, he wanted Secord to be available to talk to him some more. He states further that he will be giving a weekly report on the conditions of the hostages and is now certain that he can bring enough pressure to bear to get them released. He will give us at least two days warning before they're released. He hoped that the U.S. can play a predominant role in achieving a peace in Lebanon. "Iran agrees completely with respect to an honorable peace with Iraq; however, Saddam Hussein must go from the Iranian point of view." He knows that it is not our policy, but he knows that we can bring our influence to bear with certain friendly Arab nations and it is "within the power of the Arab nations to get rid of Saddam Hussein."

[REDACTED]

At this point, at 1730 hours, we agreed to summarize the two days of meetings. [REDACTED] stated that he wanted to:

- "A. Take steps to form a small staff in Tehran for this project.
- B. Make instructions for the transfers of monies after lists are checked and agreed to.
- C. Inform his leadership about the Voice of America.
- D. Clear the way for the release and form a game plan for the hostages.
- E. As soon as possible, have a joint committee meeting which he, [REDACTED] would attend. And, hopefully within a week or ten days, this could be arranged."

North interjected that he agreed with this summary, but that added the point about the Da'wa hostages and Kuwait and Kuwait's desire for a guarantee against terrorism. [REDACTED] took note of this as well. [redacted] closed the session by stating his great appreciation for the hospitality which had been showed by him and North and by all concerned. And, then agreed to establish a brief, very, very brief, ops code for use on the telephone -- simply for the purpose of establishing a place and time of meeting for the joint committee meeting. The meeting ended at 1800 hour.

Comment: During several asides with [redacted], Sam's perception of [redacted] estimate of the two days of discussions is that while [redacted] and we both thought considerable progress was made, [redacted] wanted to discuss the results of the meetings in Washington with responsible officials in Tehran before recommending specific actions and steps be taken. Specific proposals will come at the next meeting with [redacted] and, being Iranian, they will probably be gaged to further tests and assess our sincerity,

Q: Can you confirm that the kidnapers belong to the Mugniyah family, part of the Musawi clan, and that some of the prisoners they want released from Kuwait are their cousins?

A: -- WE ARE AWARE OF A POSSIBLE FAMILY CONNECTION BETWEEN THE KIDNAPPERS AND SOME OF THE PRISONERS THEY WANT RELEASED FROM KUWAIT. (No further comment on this.)

Q: Would the kidnapers settle for the release of three Lebanese Shiites held by Kuwait instead of all 17 Dawood prisoners?

A: -- THE KIDNAPPERS DO NOT RESPOND TO OUR LONGSTANDING OFFER OF DIRECT DISCUSSIONS. BECAUSE OF THEIR REFUSAL, WE REMAIN UNAWARE OF ANY CHANGE IN THEIR DEMANDS. -- THE QUESTION IS NOT WHETHER WE WOULD SEEK THE RELEASE OF 3 OR 17 PRISONERS. WE WILL NOT NEGOTIATE THE EXCHANGE OF INNOCENT AMERICANS FOR THE RELEASE FROM PRISON OF TRIED AND CONVICTED MURDERERS HELD IN A THIRD COUNTRY, NOR WILL WE PRESSURE OTHER NATIONS TO DO SO. TO MAKE SUCH CONCESSIONS WOULD JEOPARDIZE THE SAFETY OF OTHER AMERICAN CITIZENS AND WOULD ONLY ENCOURAGE MORE TERRORISM.

Q: Did the U.S. ever demand that the families keep quiet or the hostages would be killed?

A: - WE HAVE NEVER DEMANDED THAT THE FAMILIES REMAIN SILENT. WHAT WE HAVE TRIED TO STRESS IN MEETINGS WITH THE FAMILIES IS THAT PUBLIC DISCUSSION OF OUR EFFORTS TO GAIN THE HOSTAGES' RELEASE COULD LEAD ENCOURAGEMENT TO THE KIDNAPPERS IN LEBANON THAT THE U.S. MIGHT SUCCEED TO THE PRESSURE AND TO CRIMINALS ELSEWHERE AROUND THE WORLD THAT AMERICANS ARE FAIR GAME.

Q: Did the U.S. tell Peggy Say during the TWA 847 hijacking "not to even ask for Terry and the others (hostages), and don't say anything to connect your hostages to the TWA ones?"

A: ~~DURING THE TWA HIJACKING, THE DEPARTMENT WAS OPERATING A 24 HOUR CASE FORCE, AND WE DON'T KNOW WHO HAS EVER SPOKEN WITH MRS. SAY AT THAT TIME. [THE FACT IS THAT] EACH GROUP OF HOSTAGES WAS BEING HELD INDEPENDENT OF THE OTHER GROUP, AND THE U.S. WAS WORKING TO RESOLVE BOTH SITUATIONS SEPARATELY. WE HAD HOPED THAT THE TWA INCIDENT COULD BE USED AS A CATALYST TO FREE ALL THE REMAINING HOSTAGES, AND WE WORKED AT THE HIGHEST LEVELS TO BRING THAT ABOUT. UNFORTUNATELY, WE WERE UNSUCCESSFUL.~~

HAKIM: ((INTERPRETS)) THIS APPROACH OF [REDACTED] WAS A DOUBLE-EDGED SWORD--AND POSITIVE AND NEGATIVE POINTS ... THE POSITIVE POINT BEING THAT IF IT WOULD BE A FAILURE AND ALL PARTIES ARE INVOLVED SO THERE WOULD NOT BE AN INTERNAL WAR, AND THE NEGATIVE PART IS THAT BECAUSE DIFFERENT VIEWS AND OPINIONS ARE UNDER THE SAME ROOF.

HAKIM: ((INTERPRETS)) the deduction. BACK IN TEHRAN... HE JUST ... HE'S SAYING HE'S PASSING ON WHAT THE PEOPLE SAY THERE. THEY CONSIDER that your seven points AS THE OFFICIAL POSITION OF THE U.S. THE NINE POINTS HE REFERRED TO AS THE AGREEMENT BETWEEN [REDACTED] AND ?I?. AND EXAMINING THE SEVEN POINTS, THEY COME TO THE CONCLUSION THAT THE U.S. IS VERY CAREFUL AND [REDACTED] HE REFERRED TO THAT EARLIER--IN TAKING THE STEPS TOWARDS NORMALIZING RELATIONSHIPS. AND HE HAS [REDACTED] OUR POSITION BY PASSING ON TO THEM THE POSITION OF THE U.S. THROUGH THE WORDS OF GENERAL SECOND. THAT'S THE BOTTOM LINE. HE SAYS, "I HAVE PASSED THIS ON to them."

HAKIM: ((INTERPRETS)) AS SOMEONE WHO'S INTERESTED IN SEEING THESE THINGS TAKE PLACE, I'D LIKE TO TELL YOU THAT THERE ARE a few STEPS, SEPARATE FROM THE STEPS THAT WE ALREADY DISCUSSED. ((THEY)) WILL SOLVE MOST OF THE PROBLEMS. One is the issue of the prisoners in Kuwait--the [REDACTED].

 BUT TWO THINGS ARE VERY IMPORTANT.

CAVE: ((INTERPRETS))

SECOND: ?HE/WE? SAID THAT IRAN, THE COUNTRY, IS NOW RUN LIKE SHAREHOLDING-DIFFERENT GROUPS SHARING POWER.

CAVE: ((INTERPRETS))

SECOND: OUR GROUP, WHICH IS THE PRESIDENT AND HIS MEN, ARE VERY CONCERNED

AS TO WHETHER OR NOT WE ARE INDEED DEALING WITH THE GOVERNMENT OF IRAN. THEY RECOGNIZE THAT THERE ARE DIFFERENT FACTIONS; YET THEY STILL QUESTION WHETHER WE'RE DEALING WITH THE TOP.

CAVE: ((INTERPRETS))

SECOND: THIS EXERCISE THAT WE'VE RUN THROUGH THE PAST SEVERAL WEEKS ABOUT GETTING THE MONEY INTO THE BANK, INTO OUR SYSTEM SO WE CAN GET THE TOWS, HAS BEEN WORSE THAN A ((WORD MISSING)). IT'S BEEN TERRIBLE, AND THE IMAGE CREATED BACK IN WASHINGTON IS WHAT WORRIES ME.

CAVE: ((INTERPRETS))

SECOND: JUST AS IN ANY BIG COUNTRY, THE PRESIDENT GETS INFORMATION FROM MANY OF HIS DEPARTMENTS--HIS INTELLIGENCE PEOPLE, INFORMATION PEOPLE, SENIOR ADVISORS. A NUMBER OF ADVISORS TO THE PRESIDENT THINK THAT WE'RE CRAZY--WE MUST BE CRAZY.

CAVE: ((INTERPRETS))

SECOND: SO MAYBE SAM AND I AND NORTH CAN UNDERSTAND SOME OF THIS BECAUSE WE LIVE WITH IT. BUT OTHERS CANNOT. IT JUST DOES NOT MAKE SENSE, IT'S NOT LOGICAL. I WANT TO MAKE THIS PROCESS A REASONABLE, LOGICAL PROCESS.

CAVE: ((INTERPRETS))

((PHONE RINGS. [REDACTED] TALKS WITH SOMEONE IN PERSIAN BRIEFLY ABOUT CLEARING UP THE PROBLEMS WITH THE ACCOUNT NUMBER.))

CAVE: ((PORTION INAUDIBLE)). THEY'VE GOT EVERYTHING MOVING. ((PORTION INAUDIBLE)).

SECOND: I GUESS THAT'S GOOD NEWS. THIS, OF COURSE, WOULD BE ONE VERY IMPORTANT STEP IN CREATING THE KIND OF SITUATION WE WANT TO CREATE WHICH IS ONE OF MUTUAL TRUST. IF WE CANNOT DEVELOP IN THE NEXT FEW WEEKS A CONDITION WHERE WASHINGTON AND TEHRAN HAVE AT LEAST SOME TRUST IN ONE ANOTHER, WE'LL FAIL.

CAVE: ((INTERPRETS))

SECOND: TILL WE PREPARE TO GO FORWARD, TILL WE GET READY TO MOVE FORWARD. YOU NEED TO GET THE MONEY FROM EUROPE HERE SOME PLACE, SO YOU HAVE YOUR HANDS ON IT, SO IT CAN BE RELEASED WITHIN A DAY OF THE TIME THAT WE AGREE TO TAKE ANOTHER STEP. WE NEED TO HAVE THE MONEY ALL RIGHT HERE WITHOUT ANY STRINGS ON IT SO WE DON'T HAVE TO GO THROUGH THIS JOKE AGAIN.

CAVE: ((INTERPRETS))

SECOND: NOW, WHAT WE'RE CONCERNED WITH IS NOT THE MONEY ITSELF, BUT BACK HOME IN WASHINGTON PEOPLE SAY IF YOU ARE DEALING WITH THE IRANIAN GOVERNMENT, THEN THREE MILLION DOLLARS, ?FOUR MILLION?, IS NOTHING. YOU MUST NOT BE DEALING WITH THE GOVERNMENT.

NORTH:

((WORD MISSED)) WE'VE GOT THE GUY ... I THINK SOMEBODY'S SIGNING
 THE CONTRACT WITH HIM RIGHT NOW--WELL NOT YET. IT'S ONLY SIX IN THE MORNING.

CAVE:

((INTERPRETS)) HE SAYS WHAT HE'S ASKING IS THAT YOU GUYS GOT TO GO BACK TO WASHINGTON AND CONVINCE THE RESPONSIBLE OFFICIALS TO DO THIS ((FEW WORDS MISSED)).

NORTH

THE GUY WE'VE GOT--I THINK--IS A FORMER MILITARY GUY. HE'S A FORMER NAVY GUY WHO NOW WORKS FOR ... HUGHES?

SECOND

I THINK SO. LISTEN, WE CAN GO BACK AND TRY TO CONVINCE WASHINGTON
 OF A LOT OF THINGS. BUT AFTER SUNDAY WE WILL HAVE STILL AT LEAST ONE HOSTAGE THAT WE SCORE OR COUNT AGAINST IRAN--AT LEAST ONE.
 I THINK THAT IT'S HIGHLY UNLIKELY THAT WE WOULD BE ALLOWED TO SEND TECHNICIANS INTO IRAN, TO ISFAHAN, UNTIL WE GET THAT GUY OUT.
 SO WHY CAN'T WE DO SOMETHING TO GET THE GUY OUT? THAT'S WHAT I WANT TO TALK ABOUT.

CAVE:

((INTERPRETS))

((IN PERSIAN)) I'LL TRY TO RESOLVE THAT TOO.

SECOND:

SEE, IT'S VERY IRONIC. WHAT THEY'RE DOING IS HOLDING THEMSELVES HOSTAGE BECAUSE OF ONE GUY.

CAVE

((IN PERSIAN)) IT'S A POLITICAL ISSUE. WE THINK WE CAN NAME
 SOMEBODY, BUT BEFORE WE SEND HIM, WE HAVE TO GET THE PRESIDENT'S PERMISSION.

CAVE:

((INTERPRETS)) HE SAYS THAT THERE'S A KIND OF WAR OF NERVES. HE SAYS THAT ... FIRST HE SAYS LOOK, I ...
 YOU GUYS HAVE PROBLEMS ((FEW WORDS MISSED)) I MEAN I CAN'T GET INVOLVED IN THAT BECAUSE I DON'T UNDERSTAND YOUR PROBLEMS AND YOU'RE GOING TO HAVE TO WORK ON THEM YOURSELVES. ((FEW WORDS MISSED)) HE SAYS BUT ((FEW WORDS MISSED)) ((FEW WORDS MISSED))
 HAS BEEN TAKEN ON THE SUBJECT OF THE PHOENIX ((FEW WORDS MISSED)) THAT 2700 WE ((FEW WORDS MISSED)), AND HE'S PUT AN AWFUL LOT OF PRESSURE ON ... ON THE ISSUE OF THE PHOENIX, AND HE SAYS IT'S ALMOST BECOME LIKE A WAR OF NERVES BECAUSE ... HAS ALSO TALKED TO HIM ABOUT THE PHOENIX, AND HE SAYS THAT ...

NORTH

HE'S TALKED TO EVERYBODY ABOUT IT ...
 TALKING PHOENIXES ... EVERYBODY'S TALKING

CAVE

BUT HE SAYS THAT THIS IS ONE OF THE THINGS THAT HAS REALLY BEEN TAKEN WITH, AND THIS WAS ONE OF THE REASONS WHY
 HE BROUGHT IT UP. TO EXPLAIN ((ONE WORD MISSED)) HERE IS THE AMOUNT OF PROGRESS TO BE MADE IF WE WOULD SEND A TECHNICIAN

second: what?

north: get them all back and ... the big problem, dick, is that anything between now and the ((few words missed)).

second: that's what i'm coming to. WHAT I'M TRYING TO SAY TO IS THAT THIS IS NOT A SIMPLE PROBLEM THAT CAN BE FIXED OVERNIGHT. IT'S GOING TO TAKE A LITTLE BIT OF time.

cave: would it be better to bring them out?

second: it might be.

north: bring what out? the missiles?

second: it might be better to bring some out, but ...

north: yeah, but then you can't ((word missed)) ... we've got to bring the airplanes out too, ?regenerated on the bird?

second: i'm saying it's not a simple problem, and the white house is going to have to authorize us to send in some technicians, and then we've got to go through these steps before we do it.

HAKIM: ((INTERPRETS FOR [REDACTED]))

SECOND: ((PORTION MISSED)) it's TECH SUPPORT for HAWKS we were TALKING ABOUT, but you KNOW, I'M SURE THE PRESIDENT WOULD AUTHORIZE US TO WITH THEM IF WE GOT OUR THREE PEOPLE. But we're going to have to OUR THREE PEOPLE. Right or wrong?

NORTH: YEAH, THAT'S EXACTLY THE PROBLEM.

SECOND: TO PUT IT ANOTHER WAY, [REDACTED] YOU GIVE ME THE THREE PEOPLE TOMORROW AND BY NEXT WEEK WE'LL PROBABLY HAVE SOME PEOPLE IDENTIFIED TO DO THIS WORK.

HAKIM: ((INTERPRETS FOR [REDACTED])). ((THEN hakim and north speak a few sentences which cannot be heard.)) north: well yeah, but step five above that ...

hakim: it has nothing to do with ?phoenix?. ((sentence missed)) they ar making a change--step six is the hawk. they want to have phoenix but then we change our position--we send also technicians who can do that, and then ... but we want three. follow me?

SECOND: well you're SAYING THE SAME THING I JUST SAID, WHICH IS I THINK THE PRESIDENT WILL AUTHORIZE US TO DO SOME TECHNICAL WORK--WE'VE ALWAYS TALKED ABOUT THIS, IF WE GET OUR THREE PEOPLE BACK. THAT'S WHY I SAID, "YOU GIVE ME

NIC 05060-86
3 November 1986

MEMORANDUM FOR: Director of Central Intelligence

FROM: [REDACTED] Allen
Intelligence Officer for Counterterrorism

SUBJECT: Frankfurt Meetings

1. Bud MacFarlane's trip is becoming known. [REDACTED] asked him about Bud's visit. The problem stems from the radicals around Montazari taking action. They have convinced him that this was bad for Iran. Interestingly enough, it turns out that Ghobanifar told Montazari about all the transactions and kept him briefed on what is going on. It turns out that Ghobanifar and Montazari have been friends for 15 years. [REDACTED] that the reasons for the failure of the Bud trip were several. One was that the trip had not been fully coordinated at the senior level. One of the problems was Ghobanifar's presence in Tehran and the role he played. Most people do not trust him, but he has convinced [REDACTED] that he has a lot of influence in the United States. [REDACTED] has a lot of faith in Ghobanifar. The other problem was Amiran Nir's presence in Tehran. [REDACTED] told them who he was in order to cover his backside. [REDACTED] argued that since Ghobanifar [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] he was someone that they should use. From [REDACTED] comments, [REDACTED] was given to believe that Ghobanifar was quite a powerful man. With further regard to Ghobanifar and his threats, Rafsanjani has proposed inviting him back to Iran and keep him there several months working on things. They can keep him based on the fact that there is an order for his execution. [REDACTED] said that they do owe Ghobanifar $10 million, but he also owes them 1,000 TOMs. The problem for us is that he has been involved in many deals and we do not know how to judge this statement.

3. Ollie North said that since the beginning of the talks we have taken certain political actions. We have talked to [redacted] and pressured them into curtailing sales to Iraq. We have opened discussions with [redacted] [redacted] said that there were four issues that he wished to [redacted] [redacted] session, but first he wanted to say that Khomeini has issued a decree [redacted] which he states his considered opinion that the hostages are prisoners. This has changed the attitude of the Lebanese captors. [redacted] said that they wish to table the following points for discussion:

A. How to proceed with our relations, and relations with other states in the area.

[redacted] arrive at a joint understanding as to why things are proceeding [redacted] slowly.

C. He wants to explain and clarify his own role in the operation.

D. He wants both sides to engage in an analysis of the security of the operation.

[redacted] On our side we explained the US position in seeking better relations with Iran. In this instance we stated that with regard to the 7-point program we were moving as fast as possible and they must also move fast, too. [redacted] said that he has full trust in the group he is dealing with and wants to explain the problem of coordinating things in the Iranian Government. [redacted] understand that this is a new revolutionary government. After [redacted] it is like a corporation. There are three wings in the government. [redacted] wing is the fanatic wing (Tondro). This wing is actually divided into [redacted] groups, one of which is extremely fanatic and the other which is less so. The second group is the Middle Roaders. Rafsanjani is the leader of the Middle Roaders. This group functions as the bridge between the fanatic group and the right wing group. The right wing group leans towards the West in the sense that they want free trade and a democratic government. What must be understood is that all three groups are strongly Islamic and want an Islamic government although all three approach this differently.

5. [redacted] said to understand the government process, we must understand that Khomeini has given to Rafsanjani the responsibility for managing the war and foreign affairs. This is why he is usually referred to as [redacted] two man. When [redacted] first brought up the issue of better relations with the US, Rafsanjani agreed, but said that all groups must take part in this program.

[redacted] Rafsanjani insisted that [redacted] from all three groups should take part in this program. After [redacted] debate in the cabinet and also the Majlis, a position was reached [redacted] took it up with the Imam who gave his approval. Rafsanjani's position [redacted] that if the policy succeeds, all will share. On the same hand if it fails, all will also share so no one can complain. The problem is one of coordination between the two groups. [redacted] stated that the last shipment of TMs eliminated the [redacted] channel and establishes his group. [redacted] said that [redacted] reaction was very well received in Tehran. This enables [redacted] to focus on the hostage situation. There is, however, some confusion in Tehran.

there is a small group of extremely fanatical Hizballah in this group. This group is small, very radical, and united. They published a newspaper in which they called that the United States and Iran are cooperating in getting the hostages released. [redacted] said that at the moment they have no hard information about the other two hostages, but he suspects that it could be this small Hizballah group.

8. In one of his many asides to Clarke, [redacted] said that [redacted] had been [redacted] about North's demand for release of all the hostages. [redacted] problem

██████████ said that ██████████ would be arriving in Europe on 31 October. ██████████ said that they want to move things along and hope that the release of two more hostages will help. The perception in Tehran is that the American leadership is not moving things along too fast. They interpreted our original position as a demonstration of extreme caution. The US side defended this position by saying that the bottom line is that they released two then took the opportunity to discuss several points he wanted to discuss as follows: Kuwaiti cameras for RF-4's, and a list of Phoenix spare parts. ██████████ said that the Iranians have 70 Phoenix missiles which are inoperable and in need of spare parts. Rafsanjani himself is personally interested in the Phoenix problem. This is because the Iraqis have enormous respect for the Phoenix. They need help to repair the missiles on hand as they know it is impossible to obtain new ones. Technicians to help on the Phoenix missiles would be seen as a very positive step in Tehran and could well resolve the whole hostage problem. ██████████ also said that they have enough TOWs for current operations. At this point ██████████ emphasized that the sending of things to them have proved the US' good intentions. We told ██████████ that it might be some time before we could organize the technical support they needed, but we thought such support was essential and our orders for spare parts do not make sense. In fact General Secord believed that if someone were to get into their logistics system he could probably locate large numbers of spares that they do not even know they have. ██████████ also asked if we could do anything about the 20 Chinooks that have been embargoed in Iraq for three years. The FBI is also holding $20 million that Iran went to court for and won the case. We asked him for additional information on the case and some documentary support so that we can follow it up.

10. In another aside, ██████████ stated to Clarke that they feel they must have pilotless drones to give them the kind of intelligence coverage they need. He wondered if they could buy some from the Israelis. This may be an opening for Nir. ██████████ also told us about ██████████ radars they are buying from ██████████. Although they are supposed to be deployed to cover the Soviet Union, in fact the technicians are installing them along the Iraqi border.

11. ██████████ said that a four-man committee has been formed in Tehran to oversee Iran's relations with the United States. They are as follows:

AS TO WHETHER OR NOT WE ARE INDEED DEALING WITH THE GOVERNMENT OF IRAN. THEY RECOGNIZE THAT THERE ARE DIFFERENT FACTIONS; YET THEY STILL QUESTION WHETHER WE'RE DEALING WITH THE TOP.

CAVE: ((INTERPRETS))

SECOND: THIS EXERCISE THAT WE'VE RUN THROUGH THE PAST SEVERAL WEEKS ABOUT GETTING THE MONEY INTO THE BANK, INTO OUR SYSTEM SO WE CAN GET THE TOWS, HAS BEEN WORSE THAN A ((WORD MISSING)). IT'S BEEN TERRIBLE, AND THE IMAGE CREATED BACK IN WASHINGTON IS WHAT WORRIES ME.

CAVE: ((INTERPRETS))

SECOND: JUST AS IN ANY BIG COUNTRY, THE PRESIDENT GETS INFORMATION FROM MANY OF HIS DEPARTMENTS--HIS INTELLIGENCE PEOPLE, INFORMATION PEOPLE, SENIOR ADVISORS. A NUMBER OF ADVISORS TO THE PRESIDENT THINK THAT WE'RE CRAZY--WE MUST BE CRAZY.

CAVE: ((INTERPRETS))

SECOND: SO MAYBE SAM AND I AND NORTH CAN UNDERSTAND SOME OF THIS BECAUSE WE LIVE WITH IT. BUT OTHERS CANNOT. IT JUST DOES NOT MAKE SENSE. IT'S NOT LOGICAL. I WANT TO MAKE THIS PROCESS A REASONABLE, LOGICAL PROCESS.

SECOND: I GUESS THAT'S GOOD NEWS. THIS, OF COURSE, WOULD BE ONE VERY IMPORTANT STEP IN CREATING THE KIND OF SITUATION WE WANT TO CREATE WHICH IS ONE OF MUTUAL TRUST. IF WE CANNOT DEVELOP IN THE NEXT FEW WEEKS A CONDITION WHERE WASHINGTON AND TEHRAN HAVE AT LEAST SOME TRUST IN ONE ANOTHER, WE'LL FAIL.

CAVE: ((INTERPRETS))

SECOND: TILL WE PREPARE TO GO FORWARD, TILL WE GET READY TO MOVE FORWARD, YOU NEED TO GET THE MONEY FROM EUROPE HERE SOME PLACE, SO YOU HAVE YOUR HANDS ON IT, SO IT CAN BE RELEASED WITHIN A DAY OF THE TIME THAT WE AGREE TO TAKE ANOTHER STEP. WE NEED TO HAVE THE MONEY ALL RIGHT HERE WITHOUT ANY STRINGS ON IT SO WE DON'T HAVE TO GO THROUGH THIS JOKE AGAIN.

CAVE: ((INTERPRETS))

SECOND: NOW, WHAT WE'RE CONCERNED WITH IS NOT THE MONEY ITSELF. BUT BACK HOME IN WASHINGTON PEOPLE SAY IF YOU ARE DEALING WITH THE IRANIAN GOVERNMENT, THEN THREE MILLION DOLLARS, ?FOUR MILLION?, IS NOTHING. YOU MUST NOT BE DEALING WITH THE GOVERNMENT.

CAVE: ((INTERPRETS))

CAVE: ((INTERPRETS)) WHAT HE'S SUGGESTING IS THAT BECAUSE THERE'S GOING TO BE AN AWFUL LOT OF TELEPHONING THE NEXT COUPLE OF DAYS, HE WOULD OF COURSE LIKE TO TAKE THAT THING BACK, BECAUSE THEY'VE ALREADY GOT? A COUPLE OF DEDICATED TELEPHONE LINES ((FEW WORDS MISSED)) THAT THEY CAN USE FOR ((FEW WORDS MISSED))

CAVE: ((INTERPRETS)) WHAT HE'S BRINGING UP IS HE SAYS THAT ANOTHER THIN THAT WOULD BE GOOD ((PORTION MISSED)) CHANGING THE SITUATION. HAKIM: OK. HE WANTS TO EXPLAIN HIS CASE.

HAKIM: ((INTERPRETS)) I HAVE ADDRESSED THIS ISSUE EARLIER ?THAT? HE'S BRINGING UP. HE WANTS TO CLARIFY HIS POSITION THAT PEOPLE BACK HOME BELIEVE THAT A LOT OF TIMES HE TALKS ABOUT THINGS WHICH HE SHOULD NOT TALK ABOUT. THEREFORE, IT IS VERY IMPORTANT THAT WHATEVER HE TELLS US SHOULD NOT GET INTO THE OFFICIAL CHANNELS AND GET BACK TO ?THEM? BECAUSE THAT WOULD MAKE LIFE MISERABLE FOR HIM AND DIFFICULT FOR HIM. HE HAS NO FINANCIAL INTEREST ((FEW WORDS MISSED)) ONE OBJECTIVE IS TO MAKE SURE THAT THIS THING IS GOING TO ((FEW WORDS MISSED)). HE HAS FULL TRUST IN THIS GROUP ESPECIALLY IN GENERAL SECORD. HE HAS BEEN VERY TRUTHFUL WITH HIM, VERY HELPFUL, AND HE WANTS TO SEE THAT SOMETHING GOOD IS GOING TO COME OUT OF THIS. THEREFORE, PLEASE, WHATEVER HE DISCUSSES SHOULD NOT LEAVE THIS ROOM SO HE WILL FEEL COMFORTABLE TO BE ABLE TO GET BACK TO US ((TRAILS OFF)). I DISCUSSED THAT EARLIER THIS WEEK ((FEW WORDS MISSED)).

HAKIM: ((INTERPRETS)) HE SAYS YOU HAVE TO UNDERSTAND THAT IRAN JUST FINISHED ((FEW WORDS MISSED)) AND SETTING IMAM KHOMEINI ASIDE, THE COUNTRY IS MANAGED BY SHAREHOLDING ((WORD MISSED)) AND ONCE YOU PUT KHOMEINI ASIDE, THERE ARE A NUMBER OF PEOPLE INVOLVED.

AND HAKIM:

HAKIM: ((INTERPRETS)) THERE ARE THREE BASIC GROUPS OF THIS SHAREHOLDING COMPANY. THEY ARE MINOR SHAREHOLDERS. ONE IS THE RADICALS, AND THEY ARE ((WORD MISSED)) RADICAL AND ((WORD MISSED)) RADICAL WITHIN THE SAFE ... THEN THE THIRD GROUP IS THE RIGHT-WING AND THEN THERE'S TWO ((FEW WORDS MISSED)) WHO IS HEADED BY HACHEMI-PAFSANJANI, AND NOT ONLY DO THEY FOLLOW THEIR OWN LINE, BUT THEY ARE ALSO THE CONNECTION IN BETWEEN THE FIRST AND THE THIRD GROUP.

AND HAKIM:

HAKIM: ((INTERPRETS)) WHEN [REDACTED] CONTACTED [REDACTED] IN THIS APPROACH TO ESTABLISH A RELATIONSHIP WITH THE U.S., HE, [REDACTED] ASKED FOR REPRESENTATIVES OF THE THREE GROUPS TO BE PRESENT AND PARTICIPATE IN THIS ACTION, AND ((TWO WORDS MISSED)) SUPPORT. IN OTHER WORDS THIS IDEA OF HAVING ALL GROUPS PARTICIPATE IN THIS IS NOT NEW, IT DATED BACK A LONG TIME AGO, AND STILL HE'S GOING TO EXPLAIN MORE AND STILL STICKING TO IT.

HAKIM: ((INTERPRETS)) THIS ISSUE AS YOU CAN VERY WELL UNDERSTAND IS VERY SENSITIVE, [REDACTED]

UNCLASSIFIED

HAKIM: ((INTERPRETS)) THIS APPROACH OF [REDACTED] WAS A DOUBLE-EDGED SWORD--AND POSITIVE AND NEGATIVE POINTS ... THE POSITIVE POINT ... QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS RE U.S. POLICY TOWARD IRAN

Q: WHAT CAN YOU TELL US ABOUT THE NSC DOCUMENT FROM JUNE 1985 WHICH CALLED FOR A CHANGE IN U.S. POLICY TOWARD IRAN?

- A: -- From late 1984 onward, signs of growing Soviet influence in Iran and the potential for internal fragmentation were serious cause for concern.
- Based on a CIA assessment, the NSC staff prepared an options paper for interagency review.
- Focused on possible means for improving U.S. strategic position in order to affect the course of change in Iran and counter Soviet moves.
- My NSC adviser distributed a draft directive (NSDD) to the Secretaries of State and Defense and the Director of CIA in mid-June.
- Each provided detailed comments on the NSDD draft. While he did not agree with entire paper, SECDEF never told me ideas in the paper were "absurd" as was reported in the media.
- Their comments were taken into account in my ongoing consideration of possible U.S. initiatives toward Iran.

Q: HAS THIS INITIATIVE WITH IRAN HAD ANY POSITIVE EFFECT?

A: Yes, there have been a number of positive effects. Although it is too soon to give a complete assessment, we have seen a marked reduction in Iranian sponsored terrorism over the last 18 months:

- Several Iranians responsible for instigating international terrorist acts have been arrested in Iran.
- The Iranian government helped to resolve the TWA hijacking in Beirut last June.
- In September this year, Iran denied access to the hijackers of the Pan Am flight from Karachi, Pakistan.

Q: ISN'T YOUR ADMINISTRATION, THROUGH THE NATIONAL SECURITY COUNCIL AND LIEUTENANT COLONEL NORTH, REALLY BREAKING THE LAW; IN THIS CASE, IN CENTRAL AMERICA AND PERHAPS OTHER PLACES STILL HIDDEN IN WHITE HOUSE SAFES?

A: There you go again. That is simply not true. We have consistently and faithfully complied with the law. I have seen much of the reporting concerning LTCOL North's activities. I can only say that he is a hardworking and honest officer with whom I have a great deal of trust. I might add that that also goes for his boss, John Poindexter, and the entire NSC staff.

UNCLASSIFIED

UNCLASSIFIED

N 9320

- Q: DID THE SECRETARY OF DEFENSE REALLY SAY, WHEN THE POLICY PAPER ON THIS IRAN CAPER WAS DISTRIBUTED, THAT THE WHOLE IDEA WAS ABSURD?
- A: Cap is a close and trusted adviser and I can only say that he didn't tell me that.
- Q: WAS CIA DIRECTOR CASEY ORDERED NOT TO INFORM CONGRESS OF THE SECRET "FINDING" THAT YOU SIGNED LAST JANUARY?
- A: Yes, that is true. After lengthy legal consultations, I decided that, in this case, the lives of the people involved were at great risk, including those who were talking to us in Iran as well as our own hostages in Lebanon. We always intended and planned to fully inform the appropriate committees of Congress and, as a result of the recent speculation in the press, we have begun to fulfill that commitment. The paper I signed simply told the Director to "refrain from reporting...until I otherwise direct."
- Q: YOUR CHAIRMAN OF THE JOINT CHIEFS OF STAFF SAID THAT HE WAS NOT CONSULTED OR AWARE OF THIS OPERATION, IS THAT TRUE?
- A: As I have said earlier, all of the appropriate Cabinet Officers and officials were consulted and informed regarding this initiative. In this case, since it was not directly a military operation, it is not unusual that he was not directly involved. He has not complained to me over not being involved.

Q: DID THE U.S. GOVERNMENT AUTHORIZE ISRAEL TO SHIP MILITARY EQUIPMENT TO IRAN IN OUR BEHALF?

A: As I have said before, we will not make public any of the details of this matter or name those who did or did not help us in this matter. I will say that on two specific occasions I authorized an exception to policy by permitting a small amount of defensive military equipment to be transferred to Iran.

Q: IS IT PROPER TO HAVE THE STAFF OF THE NATIONAL SECURITY COUNCIL RUN AN OPERATION SUCH AS THIS? AND, ISN'T THIS JUST A WAY TO CIRCUMVENT THE OVERSIGHT REQUIREMENTS PLACED ON THESE TYPES OF ACTIVITIES BY CONGRESS?

A: As with any sensitive intelligence or diplomatic initiative, participation by departments and agencies, as well as individuals, must be based on their need to know. All of my national security advisers were consulted and they in turn advised those officials within their departments who had a need to know. Involvement of the NSC staff was also limited to a few individuals. The NSC staff was simply fulfilling its function advising me on national security issues, as well as carrying out my directions. As I have said before, we have every intention of fulfilling the reporting requirements mandated for these types of activities.

Q: DID THE SHIPMENT OF ARMS TO IRAN VIOLATE THE ARMS EXPORT CONTROL ACT OR ANY OTHER LAW?

A: No, it did not. Although we do have an arms embargo in place against Iran, as President, I made a limited exception to that policy and authorized the shipment of a small amount of defensive arms in order to signify the seriousness of our intentions. In the case of the two third country transfers, the value of the materiel transferred was below that which requires Congressional notification.

Q: ISRAELI DEFENSE MINISTER RABIN HAS SAID THAT HIS GOVERNMENT ONLY SHIPPED ARMS TO IRAN AT THE BEHEST OF THE UNITED STATES GOVERNMENT. IS THAT TRUE?

A: Again, I'm not going to comment on any of the details or specifics that pertain to this matter. But, I will say that I authorized only two small shipments to be made by a third country.

N 9323

Q: ISN'T THIS JUST ANOTHER FAILURE OF YOUR FOREIGN POLICY LIKE THE DANILOFF CASE, THE LIBYAN DISINFORMATION CAMPAIGN, AND THE REYKJAVIK SUMMIT?

A: No. The longer I'm here in Washington, the more I realize that in this town rumor and fiction seem to be more important than fact.

Q: ISN'T CONGRESS RIGHT THAT YOU TRUSTED THE AYATOLLAH MORE THAN YOU TRUSTED THE AMERICAN PEOPLE AND YOUR OWN OFFICIALS?

A: That's ridiculous. What we were attempting to do required extreme sensitivity because of the longstanding animosity between our two countries. If this initiative had been revealed earlier, I am convinced that we could not have proceeded as far as we have. Given the unfortunate speculation and uninformed publicity of recent days, there is no doubt tht the initiative is at increased risk.

Q: ~~SOME~~ OFFICIALS HAVE SAID THAT, AS A RESULT OF THIS FIASCO, WE HAVE NO TERRORISM POLICY. CAN YOU COMMENT?

A: I don't know who those sources are, but I'm here to tell you that is simply not the case. We have a clear and unshakable policy with regard to terrorism and anybody who wants to test us should think twice.

UNCLASSIFIED

UNCLASSIFIED

- Q: DID YOUR NATIONAL SECURITY ADVISER LIE OR MISLEAD THE AMERICAN PEOPLE REGARDING OUR ARMS EMBARGO AGAINST IRAN?
- A: No. What was said is absolutely correct. Our arms embargo will remain in effect as long as Iran sponsors terrorism. When we are convinced that they have changed their policy, we will reevaluate the need for that embargo.
- Q: CAN YOU TELL US THAT THERE WILL BE NO MORE ARMS SHIPMENTS TO IRAN?
- A: We have no plans to supply any more arms to the Iranians.
- Q: WHAT ABOUT OFFENSIVE ARMS? HAVE WE PERMITTED OR ALLOWED ANY OTHER COUNTRY TO SHIP OFFENSIVE ARMS TO IRAN?
- A: No.
- Q: WHAT ARE YOU GOING TO DO ABOUT THE CREDIBILITY GAP THAT THIS EPISODE HAS CREATED FOR YOU AND YOUR ADMINISTRATION?
- A: I can only do what I am doing now and what we have always done and that is to give the American people the facts and let their good judgement and trust in the Presidency guide our actions. As President, I am responsible for the FORMER NAVY GUY WHO NOW WORKS FOR ... HUGHES.

SECOND: I THINK SO. LISTEN, WE CAN GO BACK AND TRY TO CONVINCE WASHINGTON
OF A LOT OF THINGS, BUT AFTER SUNDAY WE WILL HAVE STILL AT LEAST
ONE HOSTAGE THAT WE SCORE OR COUNT AGAINST IRAN--AT LEAST ONE.
I THINK THAT IT'S HIGHLY UNLIKELY THAT WE WOULD BE ALLOWED TO SEND TECHNICIANS INTO IRAN, TO ISFAHAN, UNTIL WE GET THAT GUY OUT.
SO WHY CAN'T WE DO SOMETHING TO GET THE GUY OUT? THAT'S WHAT I WANT TO TALK ABOUT.

CAVE: ((INTERPRETS))

MEMORANDUM FOR THE RECORD

14-286

SUBJECT: George Cave's Briefing of HPSCI Staffers

On 3 December 1986, between 0930 and 1230 hours, George Cave, a former DO officer, briefed HPSCI staffers Tom Latimer, Mike O'Neil, Dick Giza, Diane Dornan, Duane Andrews and Tom Smeeton on his role in the NSC's Iran project. Dave Pearline, OCA/LEG attended the briefing which was held in H-405, The Capitol.

2. Mr. Cave said that he was briefed on the operation on 5 March 1986 when he met Lt. Colonel North for the first time. He met with North again on 6 March. On the evening of 6 March, [redacted] C/NE; [redacted] and Cave travelled to Paris where they met with the Israeli [redacted] Mr. (Initially Cave told the staffers that he could not provide Mir's name and only referred to him as an Israeli. However, Mike O'Neil told Cave that they had been given his name. Thereafter, Cave referred to him by name.) The Iranian [redacted] banifar also attended this meeting and presented the group with a list of 240 line items of spare parts for Hawk missiles. [redacted] North and Cave returned to Washington the same day. The spare parts list was turned over to CIA Office of [redacted] for pricing information.

3. Cave said that not much more happened until early May and on 5 May, he and North went to London to meet with Ghorbanifar. The meeting in London was predicated on Ghorbanifar raising funds and he told North and Cave that he had raised it. Ghorbanifar said that he would be meeting with the Iranian President and Prime Minister and Rafsanjani. The money was deposited on 15 or 16 May and arrangements were made for the spare parts to be assembled at Kelly AFB. At this point a question was asked about where this meeting took place. Cave said that Ghorbanifar stayed in the [redacted] when he visited London and the meeting was held there. In response to another question concerning what [redacted] may have known about this project, [redacted] flight [redacted] on an airplane of an Agency proprietary. The [redacted] in Tel Aviv on 24 May; the plane parked on the [redacted] of the airfield where the group was met by Israeli intelligence officials. Secord and North were already in [redacted] when McFarlane's group arrived there. In response to a question concerning Secord's role in this matter, Cave said that North depends on Secord a lot, adding that Secord saved North's life in Vietnam and that they have a close relationship.

4. The party of McFarlane, Cave, and Tiscoll [redacted] the NSC, and two CIA communicators left Dulles on a privately chartered jet for Germany. They continued the [redacted]

5. A group, consisting of McFarlane, Tischer, Cave, North, an Israeli intelligence officer, an Agency communicator and a four person crew for the plane, arrived in Tehran at 0930, 25 May. One CIA communicator was left in Tel Aviv. In response to a question, Cave said that Secord was not repeat not on this plane. In response to another question, he explained why the group traveled on [redacted] passports. He added that the Iranians had suggested that they use [redacted] documentation but that this was not pursued for various political and other reasons, such as the fact that no one in the group could speak [redacted]. When the plane arrived in Tehran, it was directed to the military side of the airport and to VIP buildings there. There were no senior Iranian government officials at the airport when the plane arrived, only what Cave described as some flunkies. Ghorbari showed up at some point. About one and one-half hours after the plane arrived, an Iranian official from the Prime Minister's office showed up. North had met this official before and knew that he liked sweets. As a private joke between them, North presented the official with a cake with a key on it.

6. Eventually, the group was taken to the Hilton Hotel and given rooms on the top floor (15th) and they were told that they could not leave for "security reasons." Cave said that apparently the Iranians had not made any preparations for their arrival and that nothing happened until late afternoon when an official from the Prime Minister's office arrived. Two other Iranians, one an intelligence officer, also met with the group. Cave said despite press reports that 20% of the loads of material went out, this group took one pallet of spare parts, about 20% of the requested spare parts. Cave said that the initial discussions with the Iranians on the 25th day in Iran were pretty bleak, to the point that McFarlane considered leaving. In response to a question, Cave said that Secord never went to Iran. Cave also mentioned an incident that occurred when the Iranians removed that [redacted] (who had been left behind on the plane) from the plane. Cave said the Iranians probably did this to search the plane. After Cave complained, the crewman was returned to the plane.

7. [redacted] another meeting with the Iranians the second day, [redacted] from the top levels of the Iranian government. [redacted] group met with one of Rafsanjani's principal advisors. [redacted] long items discussed were Iranian interests in joint cooperation; Iranian concerns about the Soviets in Afghanistan; the U.S. suggestion that the Iranians improve relations with Gulf States. Regarding the topics of hostages and arms, Cave [redacted] that each side tried to treat each topic as a separate issue. During these discussions, it became obvious to the group that the Iranians did not control the capture of the hostages and the Iranians indicated that they could get maybe one or perhaps two hostages released. McFarlane wanted all of them released.

8. On 27 May, there were more discussions along the same lines, but the Iranians still could not get control over the hostages. Cave said that the U.S. side was prepared to give the Iranians a briefing [redacted] to include information on the Soviet threat and our assessment of the war. However, it was decided that this briefing would not be provided because no agreement had been reached with the Iranians. The afternoon before McFarlane and [redacted] group were scheduled to leave Iran, McFarlane told the [redacted] that if they could produce two hostages by the next day, that he would order the rest of the spare parts. However, by the next morning, it was obvious that something was wrong. The Iranians were begging the group to stay in Iran, but they had decided to leave because the negotiations had broken down. McFarlane was very upset. The group was told that Iranian politicians were on pins and needles and that they were afraid to meet with the Americans. To further complicate the situation, the Iranians were not aware of who McFarlane was and they were also not familiar with the name Poindexter. In summary, they had no knowledge of McFarlane, Poindexter or Walsh. Cave was the only one that the Iranians knew.

Cave provided these additional comments on this part of the visit. When they arrived at the airport, the plane had not been refueled. He also said that it appeared to him that the plane's crew had been in Iran before because they knew the Iranians at the airport.

9. When Cave returned to Washington he briefed the [redacted] and told him that it was clear that the Iranian [redacted] exercise complete control over the individuals [redacted] hostages in Lebanon. He said that the Iranian [redacted] press a list of Hezbollah demands that included the release of [redacted] terrorists were held in Kuwait and the repayment of expenses incurred in housing and feeding of the hostages. The total cost of the release of the hostages was Hawk spares, TOW missiles and guns. Apparently, Ghorbanifar had lied to the Americans about what the Iranians would provide to them. The Americans thought they were going to get major arms shipment, but they did not. Finally, the Hawk spares were shipped to Iran and this shipment preceded the release of Father Jenco.

At that point, Cave learned that the Iranians were dissatisfied with the Ghorbanifar channel. In mid-August, a senior Iranian official of the Revolutionary Guards and [redacted] went to London to attempt to get the Americans to continue the dialogue. At this point Hakim, the Iranian businessman, became a key player in the program. In mid-August, Secord met with the Iranian Rev Guard official to change the channel, i.e., to communicate via Hakim. In September, the Rev Guard official flew to Washington, [redacted]

[redacted] arriving in Washington on the 18th or 19th of September. This official had a list of munitions and arms the Iranians wanted, but we told him that we would provide 500 TOWs for the hostages. The official also suggested that each side establish a commission that would hold secret meetings until normal relations are re-established between the countries. He said that there were a series of meetings being conducted in Teheran concerning post-war plans for Iran. These meetings included discussions about the desirability of receiving American weapons, which the Iranians believe are superior to Soviet manufactured weapons; anticipated assistance from the West to rebuild the country's industry; anticipated need for $300 to $500 million dollars of foreign investment. The Iranian official also complained about the Israeli involvement in this program. The Iranians found out about Mir's presence in Iran and were angry about it. Dick Giza asked why the Israelis were involved and he was told that this was an Israeli initiative and that Mir went with them because the Israelis insisted that he go along. Dick also asked what were Israel's objectives in this program? Cave recalled Israel's involvement with Iran when the Shah [redacted]

[redacted] Dick also asked whether a firm "S...ing", or some name like this, was involved in this program. He did not know anything about this firm. In response to another question, Cave said that McFarlane, not North, was in charge of the operation in Iran.

11. During the 19-20 September meeting, [redacted] official said that they were having problems with the TOW [redacted] because they could not work in water. Apparently, they were let into water which caused the TOW not to work. They were the U.S. group a T-72 tank but this was not recovered.

The next meeting was in Frankfurt from 8 to 10 October with [redacted], Sec [redacted] Cave, Hakim, the Rev Guard senior official, and [redacted] Nav Guard Intel officer present. The Iranians said that [redacted] guarantee the release of one more hostage, and perhaps [redacted] of getting a second one released. However, after that there would not be any more hostages [redacted] released until the prisoners being held in Kuwait were released.

The U.S. delegation gave the [redacted] a "Soviet Brief".

In response to a question about who authorized this briefing, Cave said that [redacted] DCF authorized it and it was requested by the NSC. Lattin said that this is some pretty sensitive information. Cave said that it was presented in such a way that it did not appear to be what it really was.

Cave said that the information was highly doctored and the judgments overestimated opposition troop strengths.
 The Senior Rev Guard official said that the Iranians need help in ending the war. On a related point, in September, the Iranians had said that they were spending $10 billion a year on the war and this was causing a deficit. They said that their logistic system was in such disarray that if the final offensive fails, Iran would not be in a position to launch a counterattack.

13. The Rev Guard official came out again [redacted] on the 28th or 29th of October. This official [redacted] Lebanon and was certain that one hostage would be released and he had high hopes that a second would be released. [redacted] Second, Cave and Hakim were present at this meeting. The Guard official had a check for $4 million to cover the cost of the [redacted] While they were at this meeting site, 500 TOWNS [redacted] to Iran. Jacobsen was released on 2 or 3

 Nov. [redacted] The [redacted] Committee concept was brought up again and [redacted] people at the senior political, deputy ministerial level on the Iranian side to meet with a Deputy Secretary of State. These discussions would be followed by meetings between Rafsanjani and senior U.S. officials. Cave then returned to the 8 October meeting and remembered that they had been told that Rafsanjani had decided to expand relations with certain radical wings in Iran.

15. Cave then returned to Ghorbanifar. He said that the Agency had a relationship with him several years ago, shortly after the hostages were taken. However, in early 1982 he was considered a fabricator and the association was terminated.
 Cave said that the Israelis [redacted] insisted that only Ghorbanifar could deliver. Ghorbanifar has the contacts but uses them for his own purposes.

16. After Jacobsen's release, things were coming unstuck.
 Cave met with the Rev Guard's [redacted] official in Geneva, 8-9 or 10 November. North, Secord, and Bakim also were there. North still functioned as the principal contact with the Rev Guard official, but Bakim also had contacts with this official.
 During these meetings there were discussions on the cost of the weapons. On 30 June, [redacted] complained about the cost of the Hawk spares. He was told that he would have to talk to Ghorbanifar. There were a lot of complaints about Iran being overcharged. On 27 August, [redacted] said he settled accounts with Ghorbanifar and deposited some money in the Swiss bank account.

17. During the 8-10 November meeting in Geneva, [redacted] Iranians told Cave that the Israeli connection had scared. The Iranians were convinced that Ghorbanifar was an Israeli agent.

18. At this meeting, it was decided that the [redacted] intelligence officer would be the principal point of contact.
 The intel officer also was at the 8-10 October meetings. Cave said that Rafsanjani used the [redacted] because he had more control over them. The intel officer presented a long list of requirements and almost the entire [redacted] day was spent discussing the Kuwaiti 17. Our side encouraged Iran to keep an open mind and to continue to talk with the intelligence officer was convinced to send a senior official to Kuwait for further discussions. This suggestion was followed five days later by a flash message to the Iranian Ambassador in Kuwait asking him to seek a meeting with the Emir.

19. In early October, Roy Furmark, an old friend of the DCI, called the latter saying that he sees a problem regarding the exposure of an operation. Charlie Allen saw Furmark briefly while Cave was away in Europe. Subsequently, Cave and Allen went to New York on 22 October to meet with Furmark. Furmark told them that Khashogyi, a Saudi arms dealer, is the individual who has been financing the arms deal with Ghorbanifar since the inception of the deal. Khashogyi had financed the September shipment of 500 TOWs and made a $1 million dollar profit. On May 1986, Khashogyi had raised $15 million for the Hawk spares, getting $5 million from an Arab financier and $10 million from two Canadians. There was a meeting, shortly after 18 or 19 May 86, when this group (Khashogyi, Ghorbanifar, and Furmark) decided on the price. They added $3 million for profit and expenses; $2 million that was owed to Nir for some reason; making the price of $20 million that they would get from the Iranians. Furmark said that he was told by Ghorbanifar that the reason the price was elevated was that the profit would be used to provide supplies to the Contras. The Arab was repaid his $5 million but the Canadians only received $1.1 million, leaving them $8.9 million dollars short of their initial investment. At some later time, Khashogyi invited the Arab and the Canadians to a party and the Arab told the Canadians that he received his money. This upset the Canadians who threatened to file a suit in the U.S. against Khashogyi and have U.S. officials testify during the trial. Cave said that in April 1986, Ghorbanifar was arrested by the Swiss and held for 24 hours. He blamed him for his arrest.

20. Cave provided the following additional information on financial transactions: 15 June the Iranians made a $1 million dollar deposit to Ghorbanifar's account; on 21 August, $8 million was deposited, but Ghorbanifar claims that only $5 million is for the Hawks. Furmark said that $5 million for the Hawk spares and that $3 million was for the Hawk. During a 7 May telephone conversation, which Cave participated in only part of the telephone call, Ghorbanifar mentioned $1 million for 240 hawk spare parts. Cave did not know whether the cost charged included other deals. He knows that the price for the Hawks was only $4 million. Cave said that he was sure of the price difference. The first indication that [redacted] were exercised over the cost was 3 June 1986.

The staff then asked several questions:

(a) What was Furmark expecting? Only indication was comment that the money could be regained if we permitted Ghosseinifar to arrange another arms shipment.

(b) What was your (Cave) assessment of Secord? He played a key role in arranging travel to meetings. Who did you think he was and who did he work for? Cave understood that he was a consultant to the NSC.

22. Following the meeting with Furmark, Charlie Allen wrote a memo, addressed to Poindexter, which outlines his concerns over this project. Charlie Allen had a subsequent meeting with Furmark on 6 or 7 September. Furmark said that the Canadians were ready to support Furmark was putting pressure on us to use Ghosseinifar so that he could pay off the Canadians so that everything would be alright with them.

23. The question was asked, "What did we learn from our contacts?" Cave said that he had prepared a paper on this, and the staff asked whether they can have a copy of it. Cave summarized saying that we learned about the structure of Hezbollah factions, views on the factions in the Iranian Government, groups that want to establish relations with the United States.

2. [redacted] interrupted at this point and said he wanted to tell Sam that [redacted] was to [redacted] Tehran to have nothing to do with the CIA rep in the group. [redacted] said [redacted] indicate that there is some [redacted] in his meeting with Sam.

Sam believes that if this goes out again we may have something. I told him that if this goes forward it is going to be up to us and Sam. It is essential that we have better info on what is going on in the and so that we make no miscalculations or do something which would unknowingly endanger the Rafsanjani faction. We agreed that we will have to spend a lot of time together at the next meeting, if there is a next meeting.

3. [redacted] is very much concerned about the Gorbanifar-Khashoggi-Israeli connection. He said that their intelligence people had taken a hard look at these connections and concluded that Gorbanifar is an Israeli agent. They are uncertain as to what to do about it and are open to suggestions from us. He said that they had decided not to try to bring him back to Tehran. In order to appease him and keep him quiet they intend to continue to buy some items from him. (note; he said all this before the widespread revelations began so there may be a change). He would like to discuss the Gorbanifar question at the next meeting. Sam pointed out that Gorbanifar

We had concluded that [redacted] and [redacted] may have used [redacted] of channelling his loss.

6. Later on 8 November, [redacted] gave a kind of pep speech to the American delegation in which he emphasized the need to forget the past and move on to a new relationship. He said that because of the nature of the government in Tehran, we should look at things as if we are dealing with a corporate structure. He also said that they were somewhat disappointed in the Frankfurt meetings as they had hoped to move ahead faster on the intel exchange. [redacted] also complained about the Israelis and said that we should have moved to [redacted] them and Gorbaniyar. He argued that the Gorbaniyar problem was one that we should have solved. He also tried to argue [redacted] that the leaks had started in the west. He even suggested that some of our people thought that the leaks were engineered by CIA for some undefined purpose and this convinced them that CIA did not know what they were doing. In short he tried in the best Iranian fashion to fault our side for everything that had gone wrong. He added that the current situation in Tehran is very fluid and is such that we must understand that it was a near miracle that they have been able to avoid a serious confrontation with the leftists during the celebrations on the occasion of the anniversary of the taking of the Embassy. He summed up by saying that this was the most difficult task ever undertaken. He was under impossible pressure. We must understand that he is the only true friend that we have. We should be sincere with him and develop mutual trust between us. He emphasized teamwork and we should now work together.

8. On 9 Nov., North began by saying he had specific instructions to discuss certain things with [redacted] on the release of Jacobsen, the 17 prisoners in Kuwait and views on how we proceed. North spent some time in describing the situation in Washington. He emphasized that we were doing our best to protect Rafsenjani and the business relationship between our two countries. Press commentary based on Rafsenjani's speech has hurt. Although we are maintaining a no comment posture, pressures are mounting. Our problem is at one time to find ways to protect the relationship and at the same time find ways to move it along. We must get better information on what is going on in Iran so that we are confronted with no surprises. One example is the photographic copies of the [redacted] passports. If these are published we will be in deep trouble. [redacted] comment on this was "are you sure that photographs were actually taken?" He said not to worry that he would make sure that no photos were turned over to anyone. We said fine but if all else fails, give us some prior warning.

9. North stated that we were anxious to go ahead as soon as the hostage issue is behind us. We have a conno package, and have also identified a technician. We definitely do not want any of this to appear on television as we do not want to endanger the technician when and if we send him. 10. This led into a long, 4 or 5 hours discussion of the Kuwaiti seventeen. [redacted] problem is that he was holding discussions with us based on a very restricted brief. They are also a polyglot group in that Iraqi shiites and even some chariks are involved. What control over the Jihad-i-Islami that exists, is exercised by the Syrians. MEMORANDUM FOR: Director of Central Intelligence
Directorate of Central IntelligenceFROM: Charles E. Allen
National Intelligence Officer for Counterterrorism

SUBJECT: Terms of Reference for Cave/Dunbar Discussions

1. The terms of reference (TOR) approved by Armacost for the Cave/Dunbar discussions with the Iranian Revolutionary Guard leader [redacted] in Frankfurt—if implemented—will effectively shut down the Iranian initiative. In the TOR, the Department makes it clear that this channel can only be used for the exchange of intelligence, not for any other substantive exchanges. Since there is little that we can pass to the Iranians—other than intelligence on the Soviet threat—the Iranians are unlikely to find this of much interest, given their almost total absorption with Iraq. From the tone of the TOR, it is clear that the Department is very narrowly defining what constitutes an intelligence exchange.

2. Unless the Department has a well-defined alternate strategy and other viable channels to pursue, closure of this link would be premature and a serious mistake. We have reason to believe that this channel runs directly to Khomeini and that it probably is relatively reliable. It has been instrumental in securing the release of one American hostage and, given the individuals involved, may be key to effecting the release of additional hostages. The individuals with whom we have been dealing, moreover, clearly seek rapprochement with the United States. They recognize that Iran has been economically devastated by the war and that it will require Western financial support and technology to recover.

3. I believe it is imperative that the TOR be modified to allow for changes on issues broader than intelligence and that a designated State official should participate in these discussions. No one question the State's lead in the Iranian initiative, but acceptance of the current TOR, as presently constituted, would essentially end any useful dialogue with Iran for the foreseeable future.

MA - Iran Caper

Charlie Dunbar called secure this morning at 0830 from Frankfurt with the following report:

--Albert Hakim was waiting at the hotel for George Cave when the latter arrived in Frankfurt. Hakim told Cave that he would not participate in any further meetings unless he could have a lawyer with him. Cave said he would not agree, so Hakim will not be at any of the meetings. Cave added that Charlie Dunbar would participate, and Hakim said the Iranian side had no problems with that arrangement.

--[REDACTED] arrival in Frankfurt has been delayed. He should arrive Saturday, after which a meeting will be held.

[REDACTED]

--Charlie will stay in touch by secure phone.

Comment - It is just as well that Hakim is out of the circle. The last thing we need is another five percenter involved. I am, for obvious reasons, skeptical that Hakim was waiting for Cave at the hotel and therefore Cave had to talk with him alone. Yet further proof that the sooner this one reverts to a regular intelligence channel the better.

Mr. Secretary -

Charlie Dunbar of NEA, who went to Frankfurt with George Cave of the Agency for a meeting with the Iranian interlocutor, called this morning with a read-out of the conversation

The meeting took place at 1100 Saturday morning at the Park Hotel in Frankfurt. Dunbar and Cave were on the American side; [redacted] an intelligence officer for the Revolutionary Guards who has been Cave's contact, was alone.

[redacted] began the conversation by making the following points:

--We need to know how to proceed from here. Much has been accomplished by North, Secord and Cave. We need to move ahead quickly within the already established framework. Despite all the press revelations, the Iranian side is ready to proceed; if the U.S. side can manage its domestic problems, we can move ahead. There are four issues on Iranian agenda:

--The War - Iran has some ideas on how to proceed on this issue. The key and non-negotiable demand, however, is that Saddam "and his organization" must go.

--Iranian Military Equipment in the US - These goods must be turned over to Iran. The Chairman of the JCS and the Secretary of Defense have publicly admitted that the goods are ours; we want to know when will we get them back.

--New weapons for Iran - You promised us 1500 more TOWs and 100 TOW launchers. We need them and want them [Dunbar reports that he is not certain if [redacted] was referring to additional TOWs beyond the 2008 already shipped, or was inferring that the 2008 were never all delivered. Dunbar will pursue this point with Cave].

--Dawa Prisoners in Kuwait - This is an important issue for the Lebanese. If the Dawa prisoners are released, the Lebanese will be more flexible with respect to the hostages. Iran is prepared to exert whatever limited influence it has.

[redacted] then referred to the "nine point agenda" and noted that several points remain to be fulfilled: "five or six have been acted on". Cave later told Dunbar that there is an informal nine point agenda, but there may be disagreement between the US and Iranian sides over what the specific nine points are. Cave also said that he believed North had a copy of the agenda, but he did not know if other copies existed. [redacted] read from a Persian copy during the meeting with Dunbar/Cave.

--Cave also told Dunbar after the meeting that the Iranians had discussed with us [redacted] Phoenix missiles which are inoperable and stored at an Air Force Base in Isfahan. Cave added that the American side had been thinking about sending a [redacted] technician to repair the missiles. Cave also referred to discussions about the supply of 240 additional Hawks and more TOWs.

[redacted] told Cave/Dunbar that the Iranians had made a delauche to the Kuwaitis at our suggestion. Cave later explained this to Dunbar by saying that he understood that Ponderster, during the recent UNGA, had spoken with the Foreign Minister of Kuwait and encouraged Kuwait to release the Dava POWs. [redacted]

[redacted] also referred to the Lahad prisoners in Southern Lebanon. Cave later told Dunbar that we had formerly suggested to the Iranians that we could do something to get the prisoners held by Lahad released as a way to soften up the radical Shia.

[redacted]

--Dunbar Presentation - Charlie read the talking points which we sent him last night. He emphasized that the arms for hostage phase was over. In response, [redacted] focussed on that point and said that would bring us back to zero. He said he understood Charlie's presentation, but that Dunbar should return to Washington and get briefed on where this situation stands. Most of commitments had been made and we were far down the road.

There are no more meetings scheduled in this session. We have asked Charlie to return immediately to Washington and prepare a full report. He will be back Sunday night.

I should emphasize that this report was over secure phone and we are still missing many of the details. Also, it is difficult to differentiate between what is factual and what is Cave's opinion and assessment. Once Dunbar is back, we will prepare a comprehensive report and assessment for you.
